Paragon

Thom

Paragon 1986

Prospect High School
Saratoga, California

Prospect
Spirit Advisor

Dedication

When you are working on a jigsaw puzzle there always seems to be one puzzle piece you need to make the puzzle fit together perfectly, and that piece is always the most difficult to locate. Without that piece, the puzzle as a whole would never be complete, so the search continues until that unique piece is found. Here, at Prospect High School, that "piece" is Mr. Rod MacDermott.

Mr. MacDermott shows a dedication towards Prospect that is unique to him alone and makes him an irreplaceable part of the school. How many times have you seen him at a sporting event or at a rally? It's impossible to think of when you haven't seen him since he, as Spirit Advisor, attends every event along with the spirit squads. That's just the beginning of the list of activities in which Mr. MacDermott is involved. He sells spirit ribbons, sets up fund raisers, and even organizes transportation to spirit competitions. You can guess who organized the first spirit competition ever held at Prospect. He teaches Algebra I, Geometry, and Intermediate Algebra II. And, of course, who could forget his famous stories which are told both during and after class. He does all this and still remains cheerful. It takes a special individual to be able to withstand the demands of thirty-five girls, each with different problems, for such a long time. Mr. MacDermott's ability to do all this, and do it well, is what makes him such a necessary piece of Prospect High.

In recognition of his continuous dedication towards the promotion of the best of Prospect, we dedicate the 1986 Paragon to Mr. MacDermott.

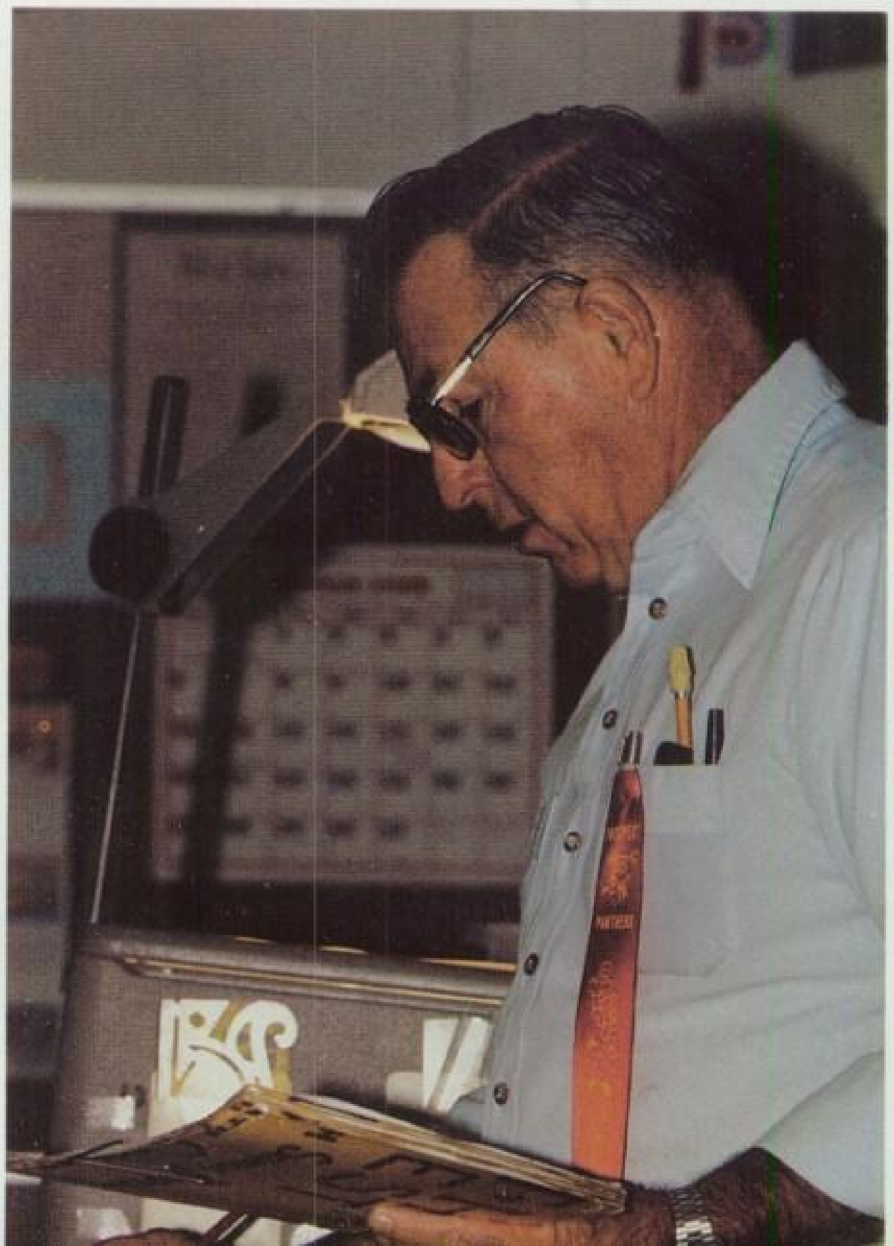

Table Of Contents

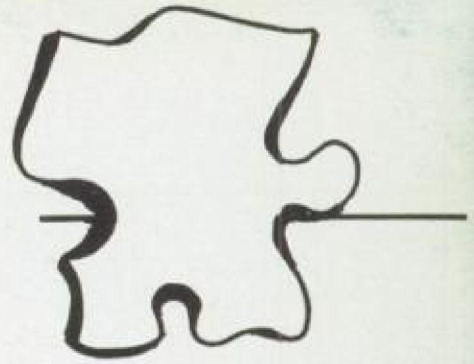


Sports 18

Activities 56

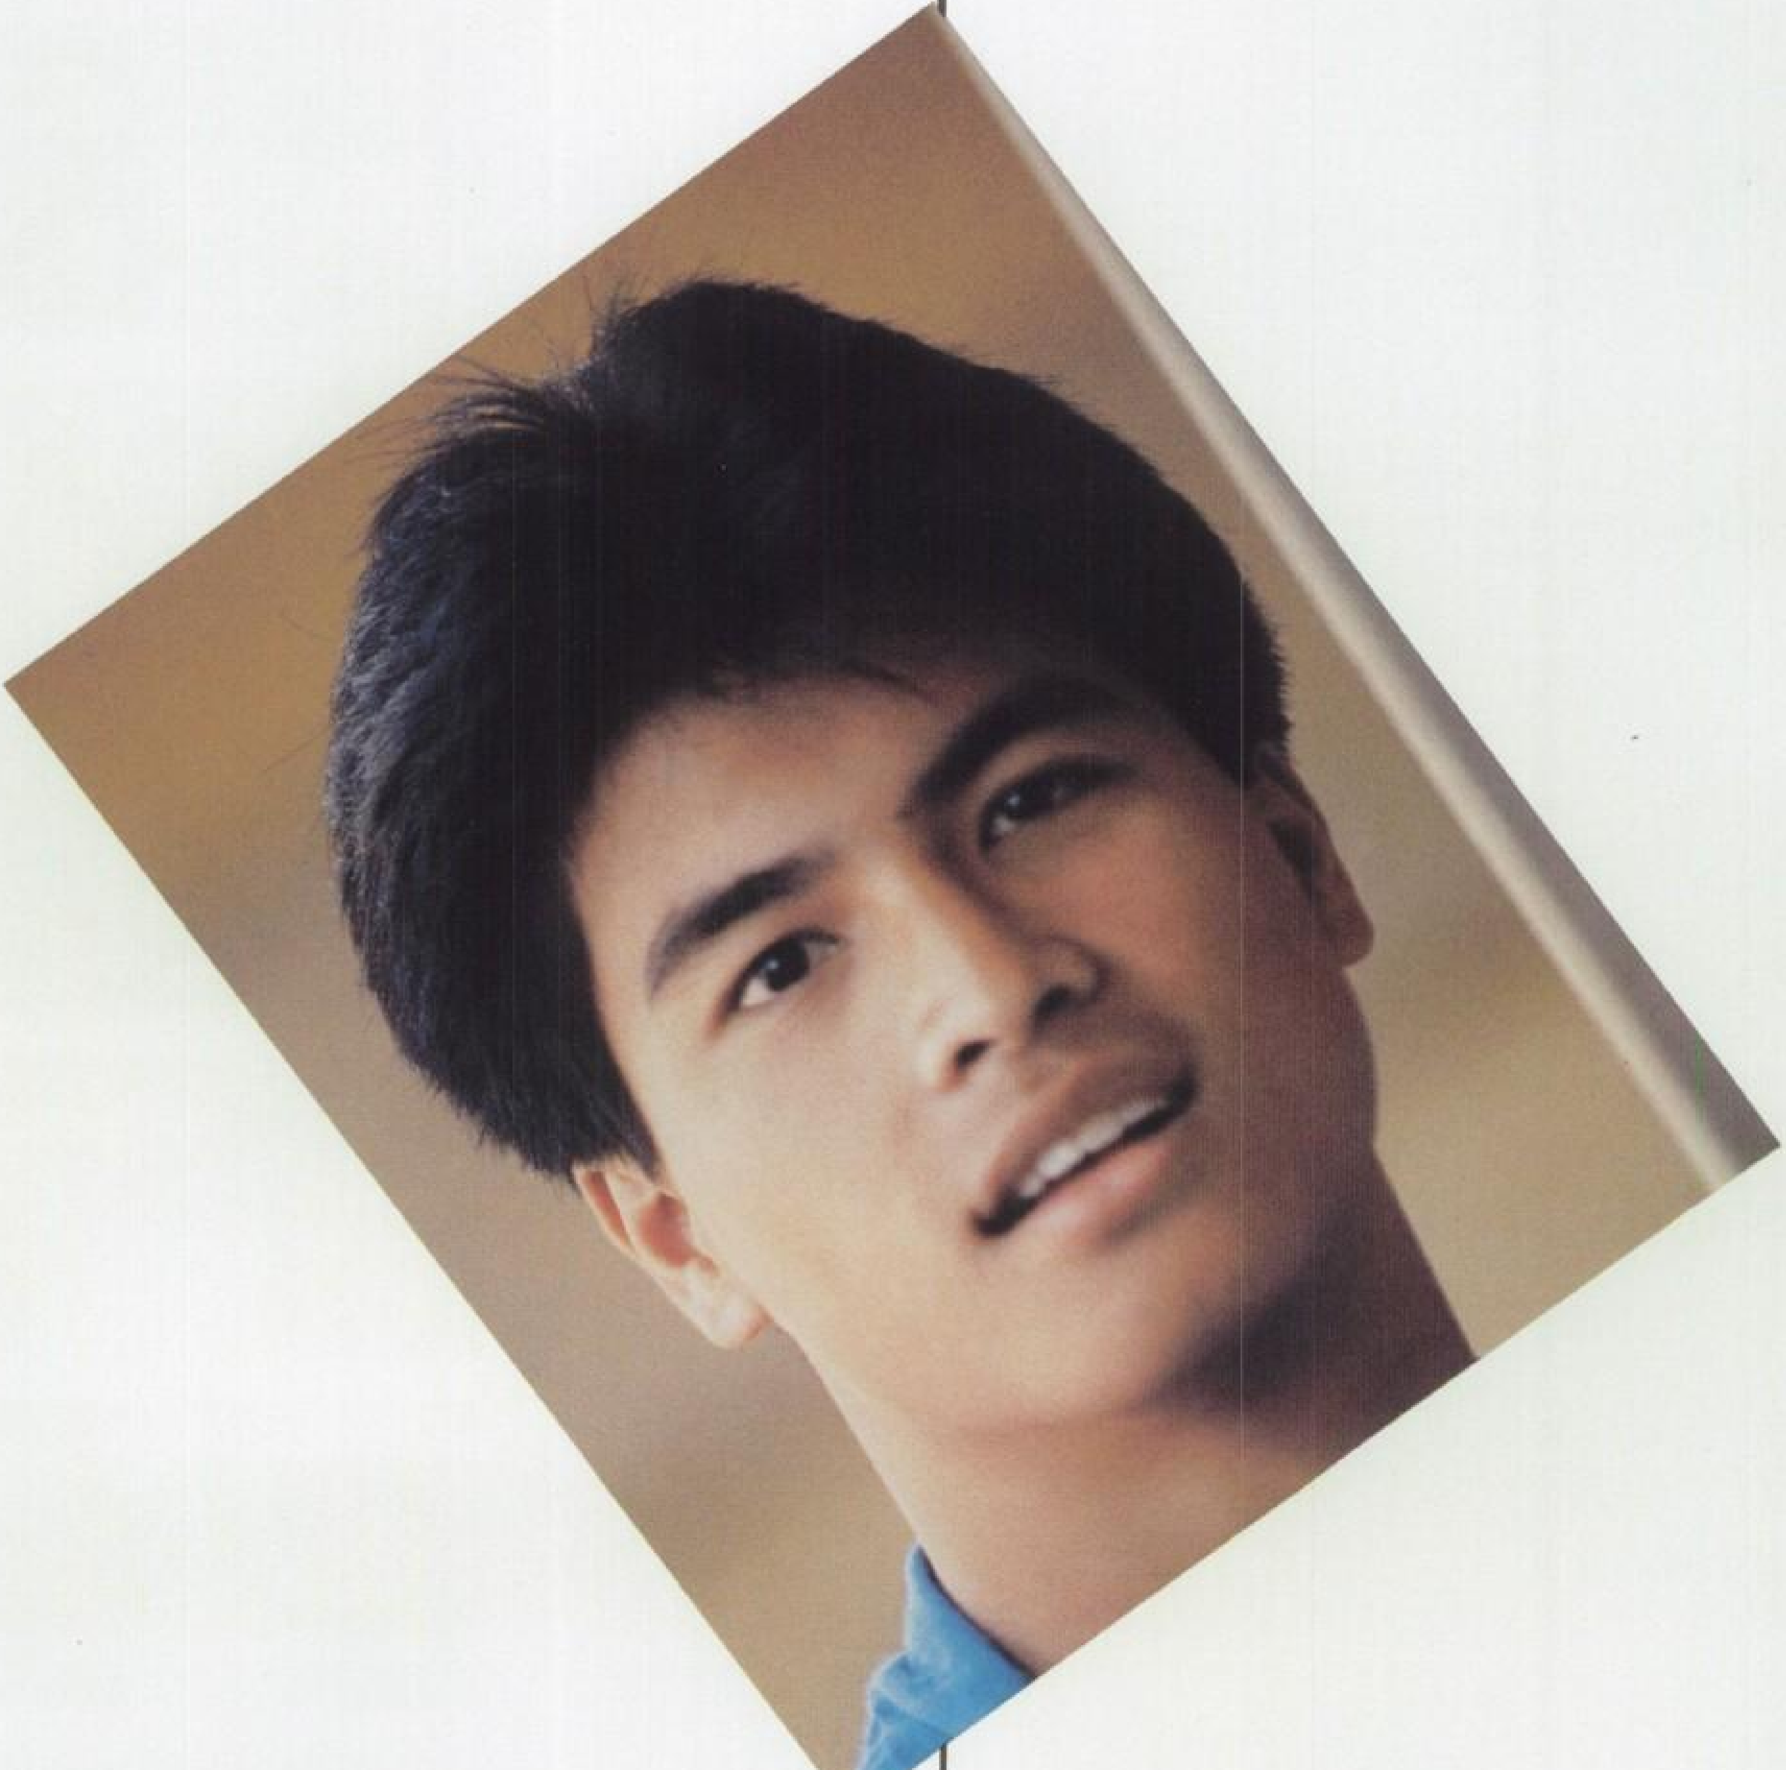
Faculty 88

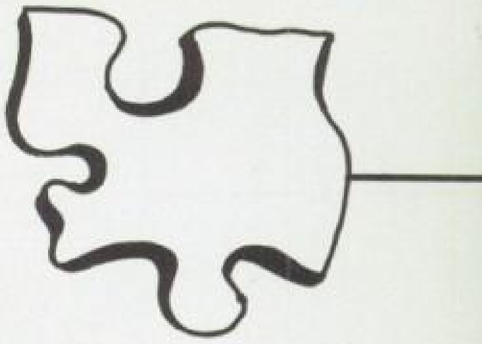
Freshmen 92

Sophomores 106

Juniors 120

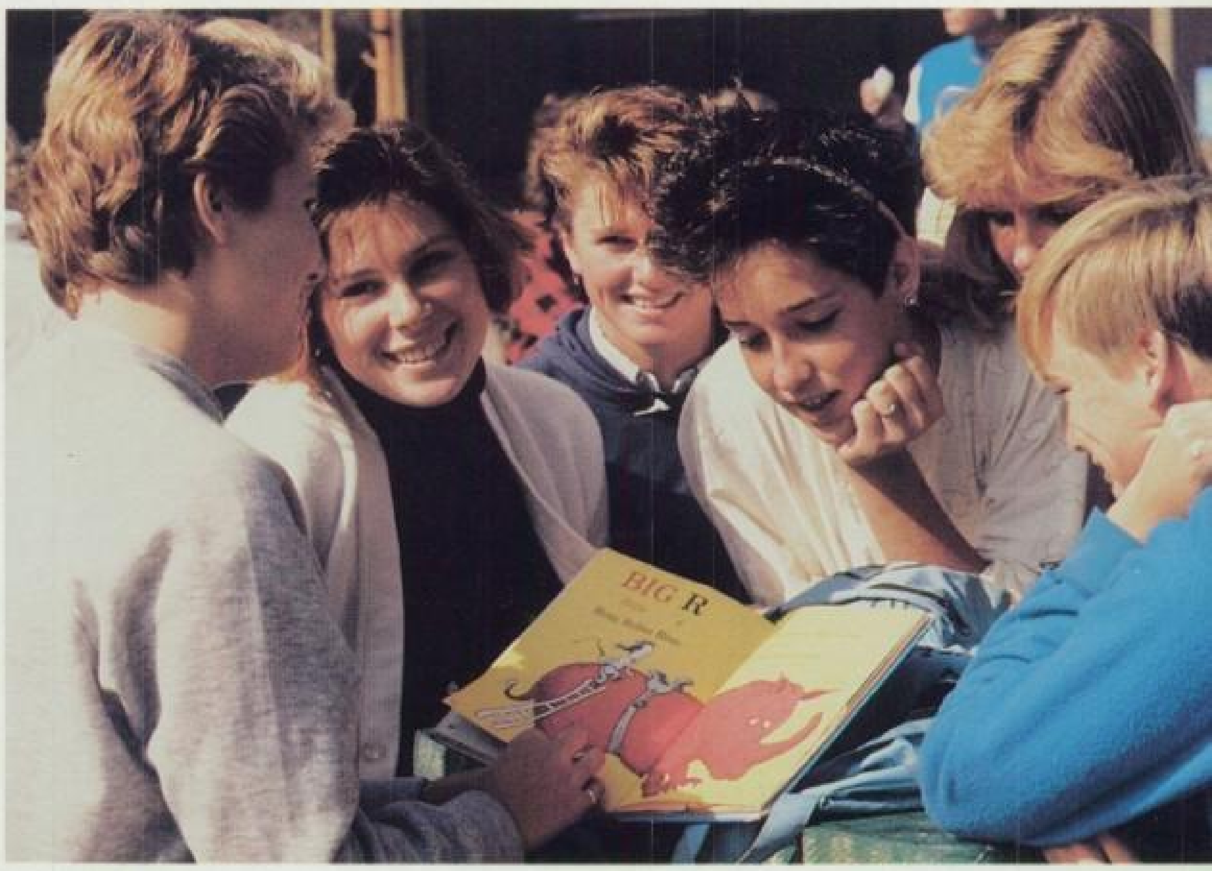
Seniors 134





Pieces

Experiences you have had here at Prospect High will become some of the best memories you will have in all your life. The experiences you have, like pieces of a puzzle, build your character, making it larger and more complex. This character growth isn't the only type of growth that high school prompts. Naturally, you grow physically in high school (thanks in part to that scrumptious cafeteria food, mmmmmm!!! Them's eats!!!), but you grow, most significantly, mentally. In your classes, teachers help build your knowledge. But outside your classes, you grow in maturity as well. Each day, you learn more about the realities of life. As you continue through high school, your wisdom grows, shaping the type of adult you will become. Like the pieces of a puzzle, everyone at Prospect has a place, and everyone tries to "fit in." Luckily, we are fortunate that Prospect is diverse enough to cater to most everyone's personal interests. The different facets of Prospect world covers a broad spectrum. One facet, relationships, is not deterred by the diversity of the Prospect student body. Many long lasting relationships come out of this cornucopia of personalities. Prospect also offers numerous opportunities in education and expansion of horizons. Opportunities abound for the spirited student. Prospect offers many ways to show your spirit and pride in our school. For the expanding of your horizons, contact the extra-curricular activities department of Prospect. When the seventh period bell rings, our school remains a hotbed of activity thanks to our talented and energetic students. But Prospect's movers and shakers are not the sole shapers of our school's personality. Many different characters make up the puzzling entity we call Prospect High School. But all good things must come to an end, and the 1985-86 school year becomes a transient part of our lives. Thus, Prospect serves as a sort of conduit, if you will, from our childhood to our adulthood. Soon all the times we have had here will become mere memories. In the future, your life will seem puzzling. But that's all part of personal growth. The relationships you had, the opportunities you took, and the activities you participated in shaped your character in a short amount of time. Prospect High is, and always will be, one of the most influential factors in your life. In later years, as you look through your yearbook at the pieces of Prospect featured herein, hopefully you will remember all the good times you had and the special friends you made here at Prospect, who have become integral parts of your life.



OPPOSITE PAGE: "That face, that face, that coverboy face." LEFT: Senior Karri Chamberlain practices for a new Olympic event. ABOVE: Jody Wilkinson, Rosie Heckert, Marguerite Oneto, Chimene Hickey, Kelly Randall, and Wendy Hansen cram for an English quiz next period.

PROSPECT IN SAN JOSE

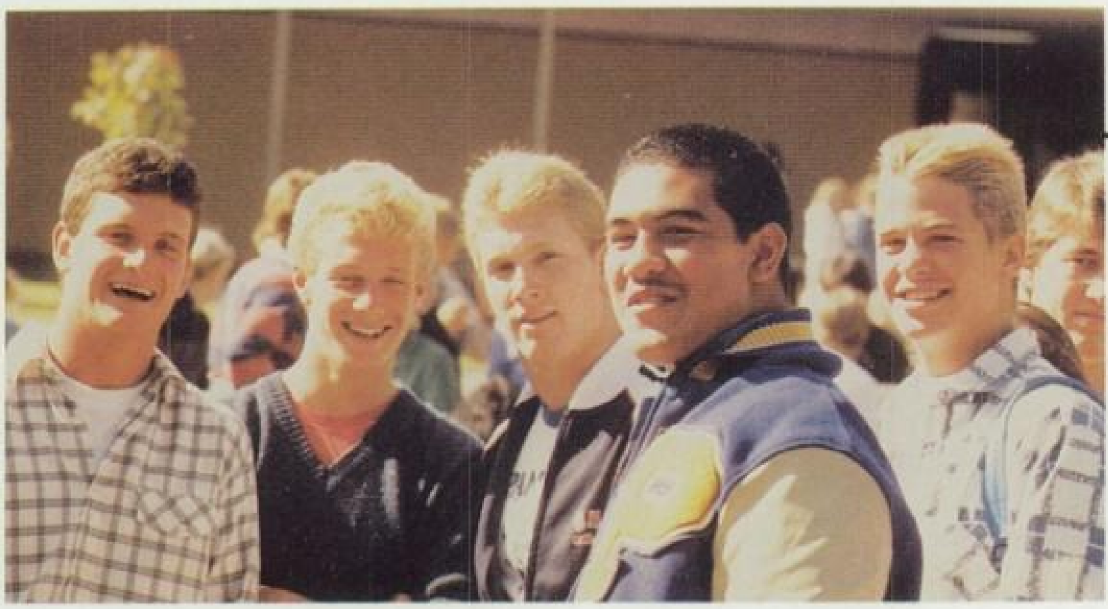
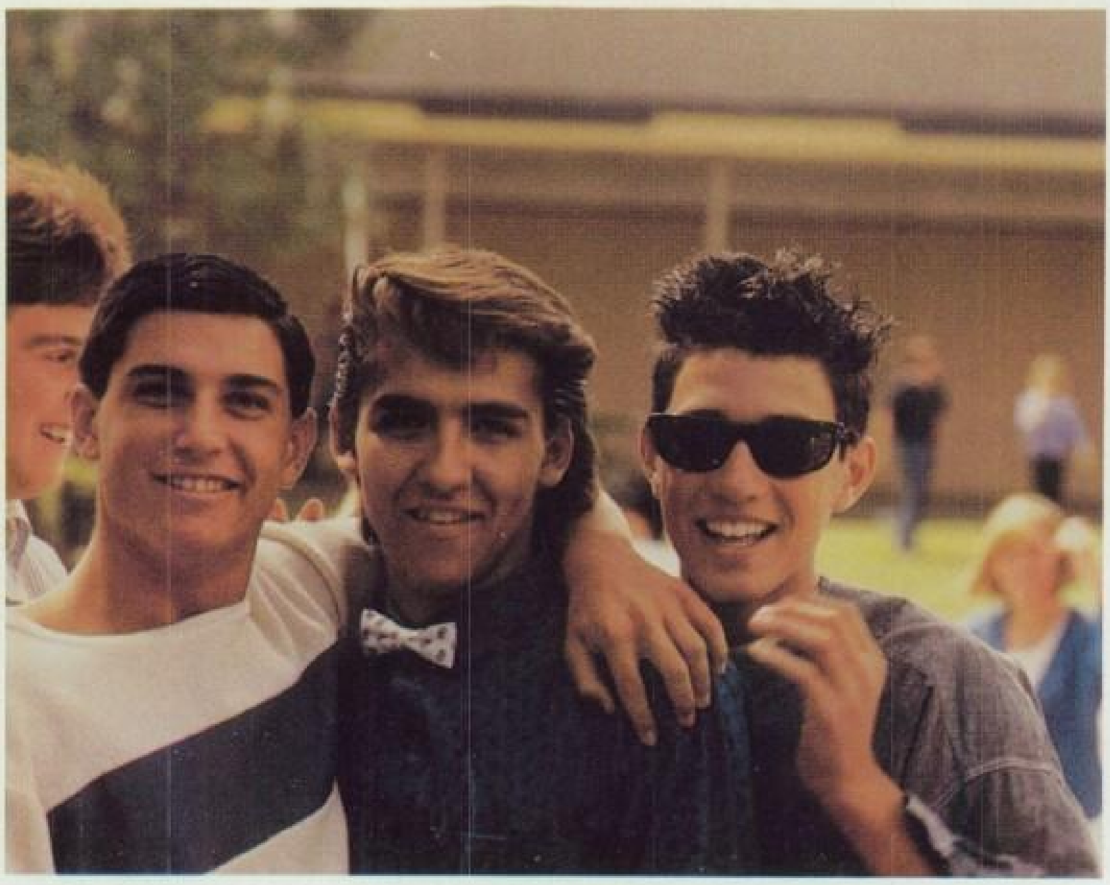
Top: The only set of triplets in the class of 1986. Danny, Cathy, and Greg Beedy are a unique part of Prospect. Far right: Is that his normal position for hanging out or is he just monkeying around? Right: Dawn Swanson and her friend hug for a minute to pose for the camera in between classes.





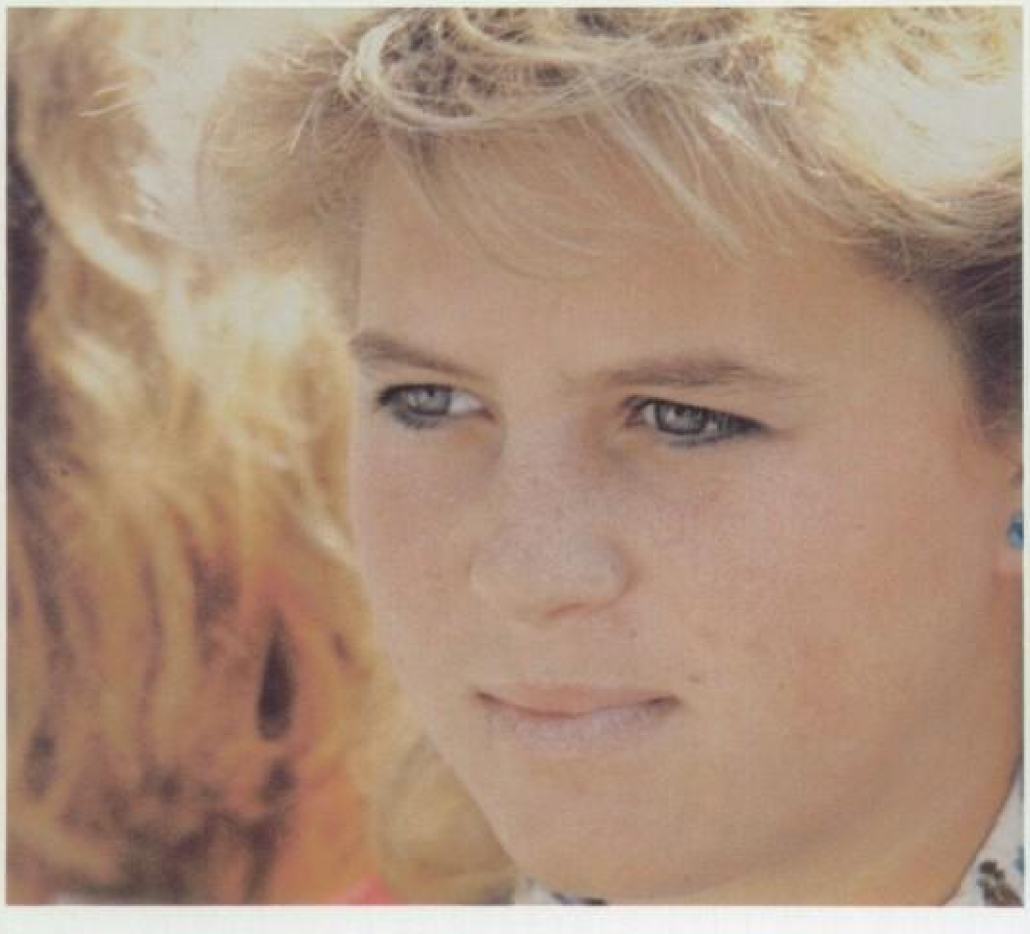
Relationships

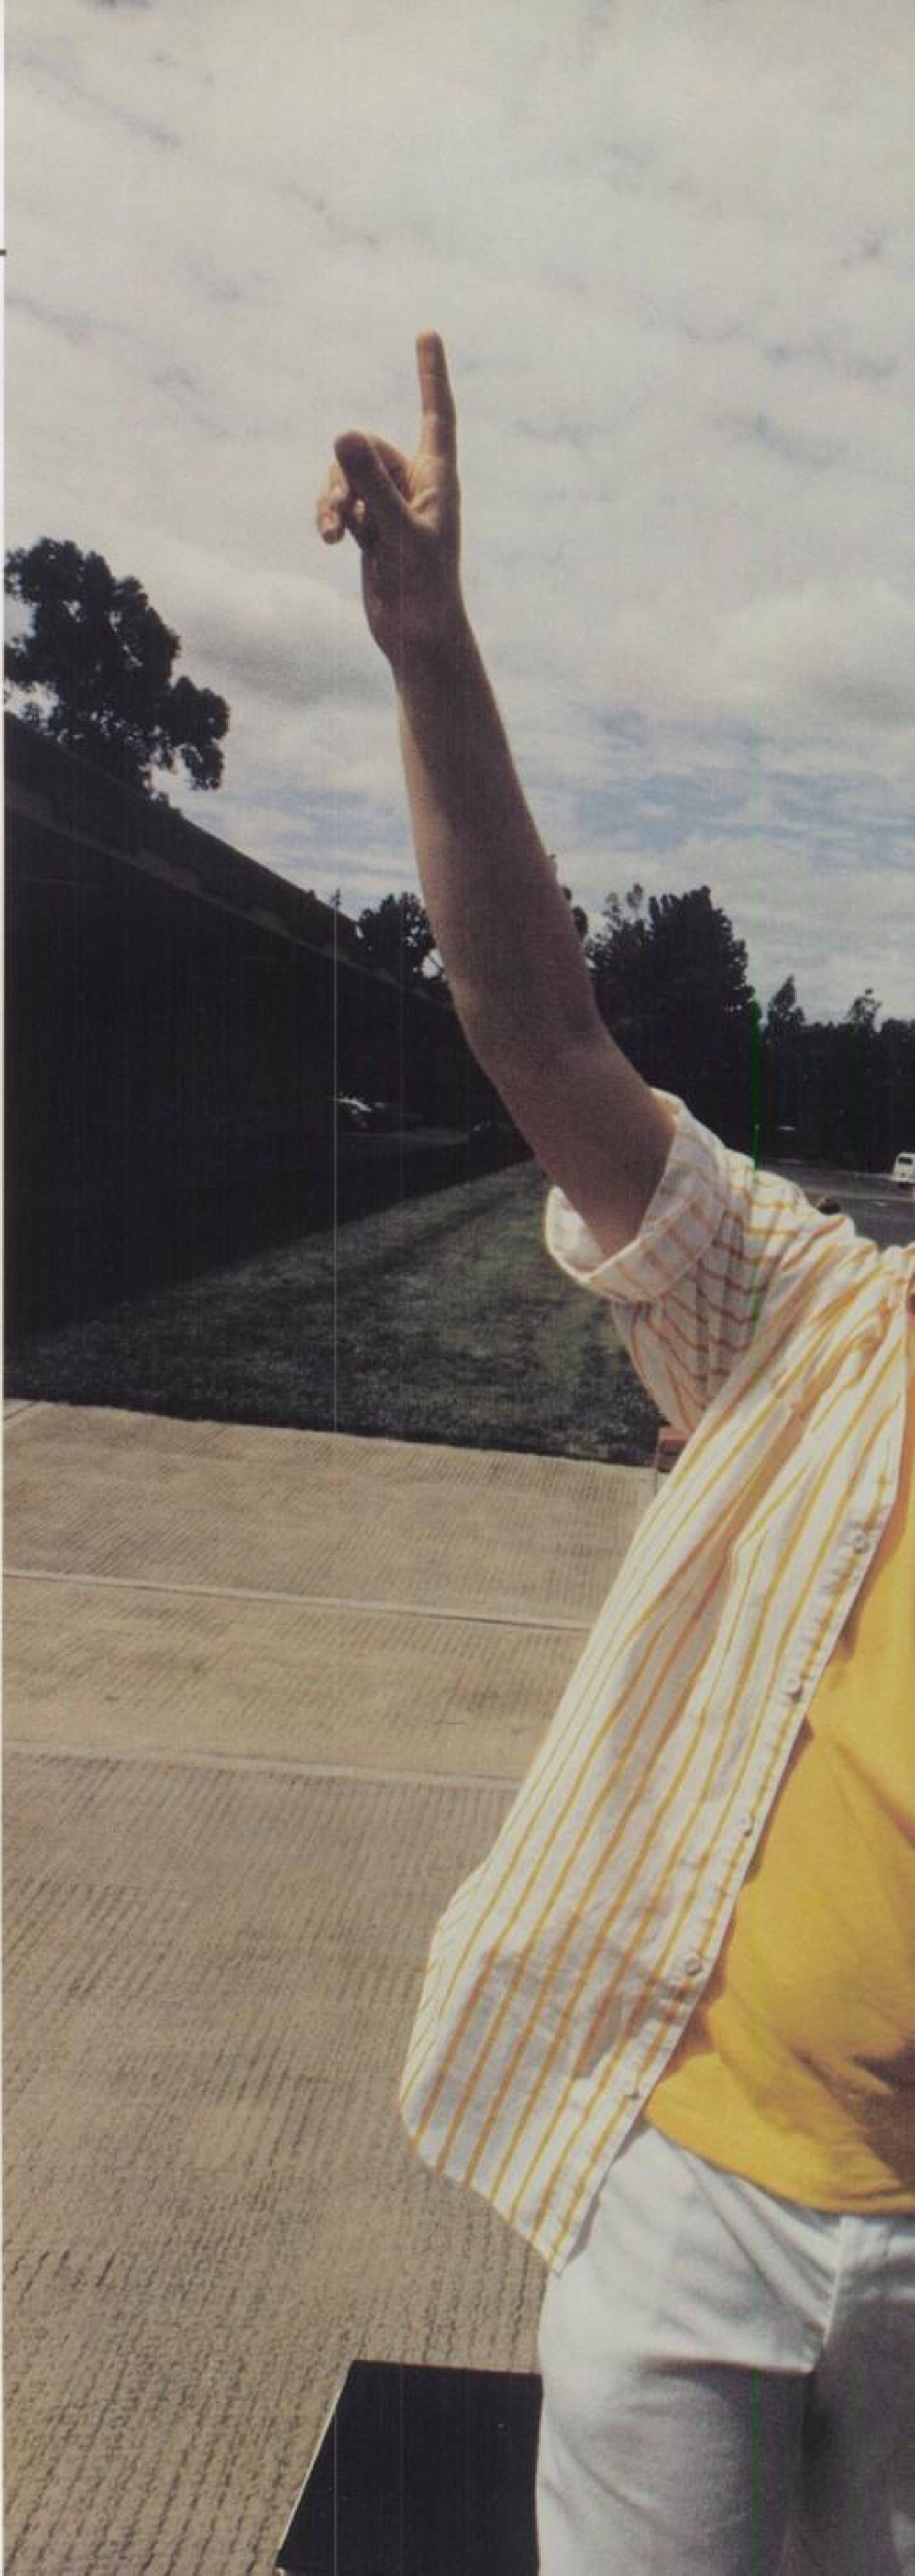
Relationships aren't just for lovers. Learning how to build and keep relationships during high school is one of the most important factors of an education. A relationship does not necessarily mean a romantic involvement between two people, it means a connection among individuals. There are no classes to teach students how to deal with relationships; the responsibility rests with the individuals themselves. That person must learn how to work with teachers and other students. The relationship between the students and teachers are mostly impersonal but the student must be co-operative with the teacher in order to have a stable atmosphere where the teacher is willing to teach and the student is willing to learn. The teachers are the ones who enrich our minds and so we must learn to work with them. The relationship between you and your peers must be smooth as well as in order to have a comfortable atmosphere. There must be a certain amount of compromise in a relationship. You must learn to work with other's ideas and to take them into consideration in order to have a meaningful relationship. At school rallies each class works together to compete with the others. At games, all Panthers cheer together for our team. Prospect is only the trials before you try your wings out in the big wild world. You must be able to maintain relationships with faculty and students before you can build one with strangers. If you can keep the ties together, the chance of success is that much greater.

Top: Mike McRoberts, Mike Avery, Dean Crew, Donny Togisala, and Alan Stevens relive the satisfaction of the previous week's successful kill and loving the thought of moving up a notch in the CCS rankings. Second from top: Junior, Shawn Robinson, says, "Am I really supposed to understand this stuff?!" Third from top: An art student takes time out from drawing to smile for the camera. Left: Ron McGrane, Manny Alferez, and Jim Woo show off their Junior style.

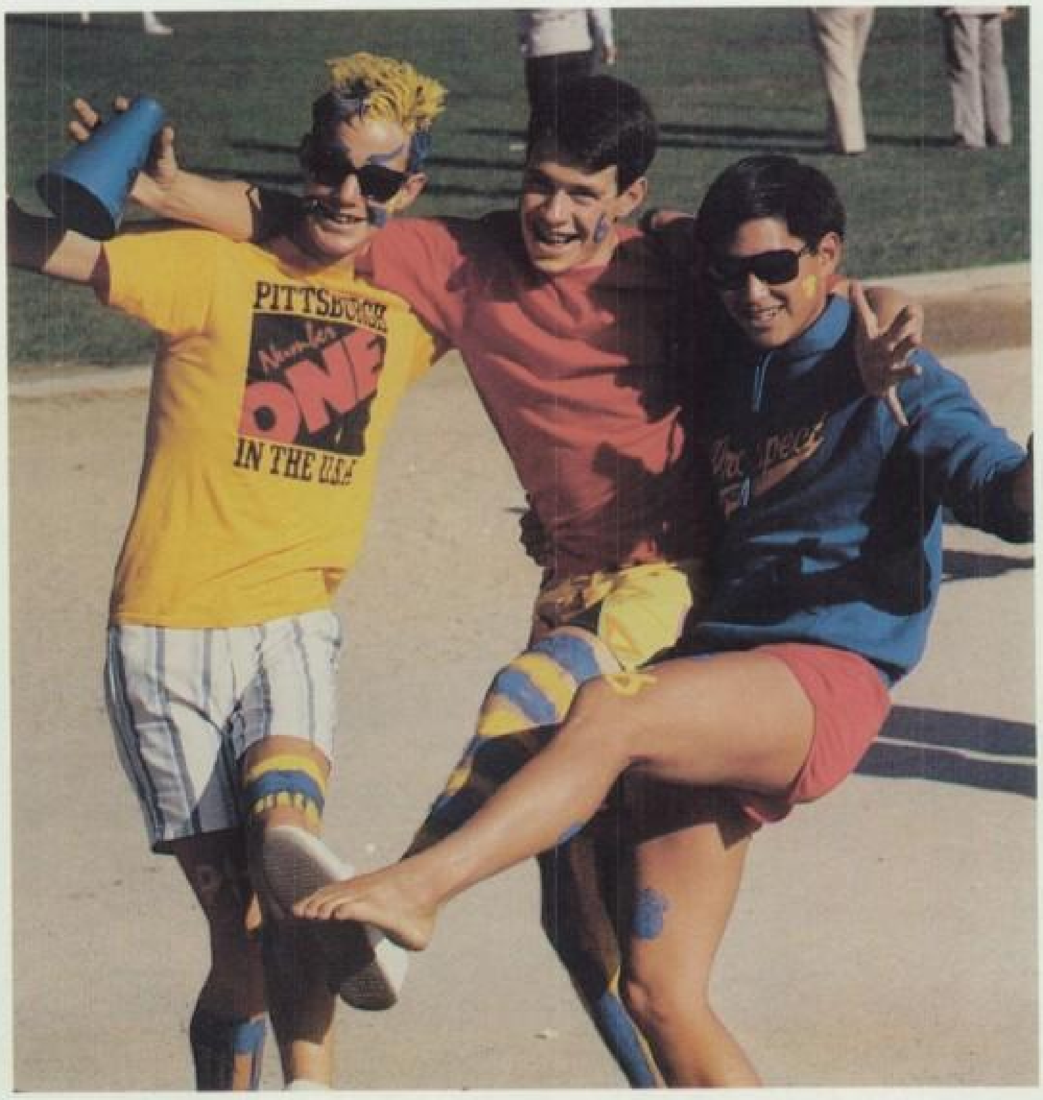
Opportunity

Opportunities, here? Yes folks, believe it or not, here at good old Prospect High, there are numerous opportunities for the ordinary student. Education is obviously the most important element in a school. Here, you are given the chance to build your life by gaining knowledge for yourself. Education can aid you in finding your future place in the world. However, education is not the only opportunity available to our students. Here, a person can become a part of a small community or group. That person is given the opportunity to participate in the various activities and sports Prospect provides. Meeting new people and making new friends are all a part of Prospect life. Our foreign exchange students can become familiarized with American culture as we are given the chance to learn about theirs. When a person participates in and uses the opportunities Prospect provides, that individual will be able to find his or her place in society. All are just small elements that contribute to completing a person as a whole. Prospect does provide for everyone the opportunity to learn and explore new ideas about others and themselves. The key to success is taking that opportunity and using it.





Opposite page upper left: Lee Stuart and Laurie Cuenca exchange a few quick romantic words at break. Lower left: Carolyn, a foreign exchange student from Australia, thinks of home. Middle: Bruce Bookman enjoys the last days of summer while pointing the way to reality. Below: John Finlay, Andy Forristel, and Eddie Chan get spirited and painted before going to a Prospect football game to cheer the team on.



Spirit

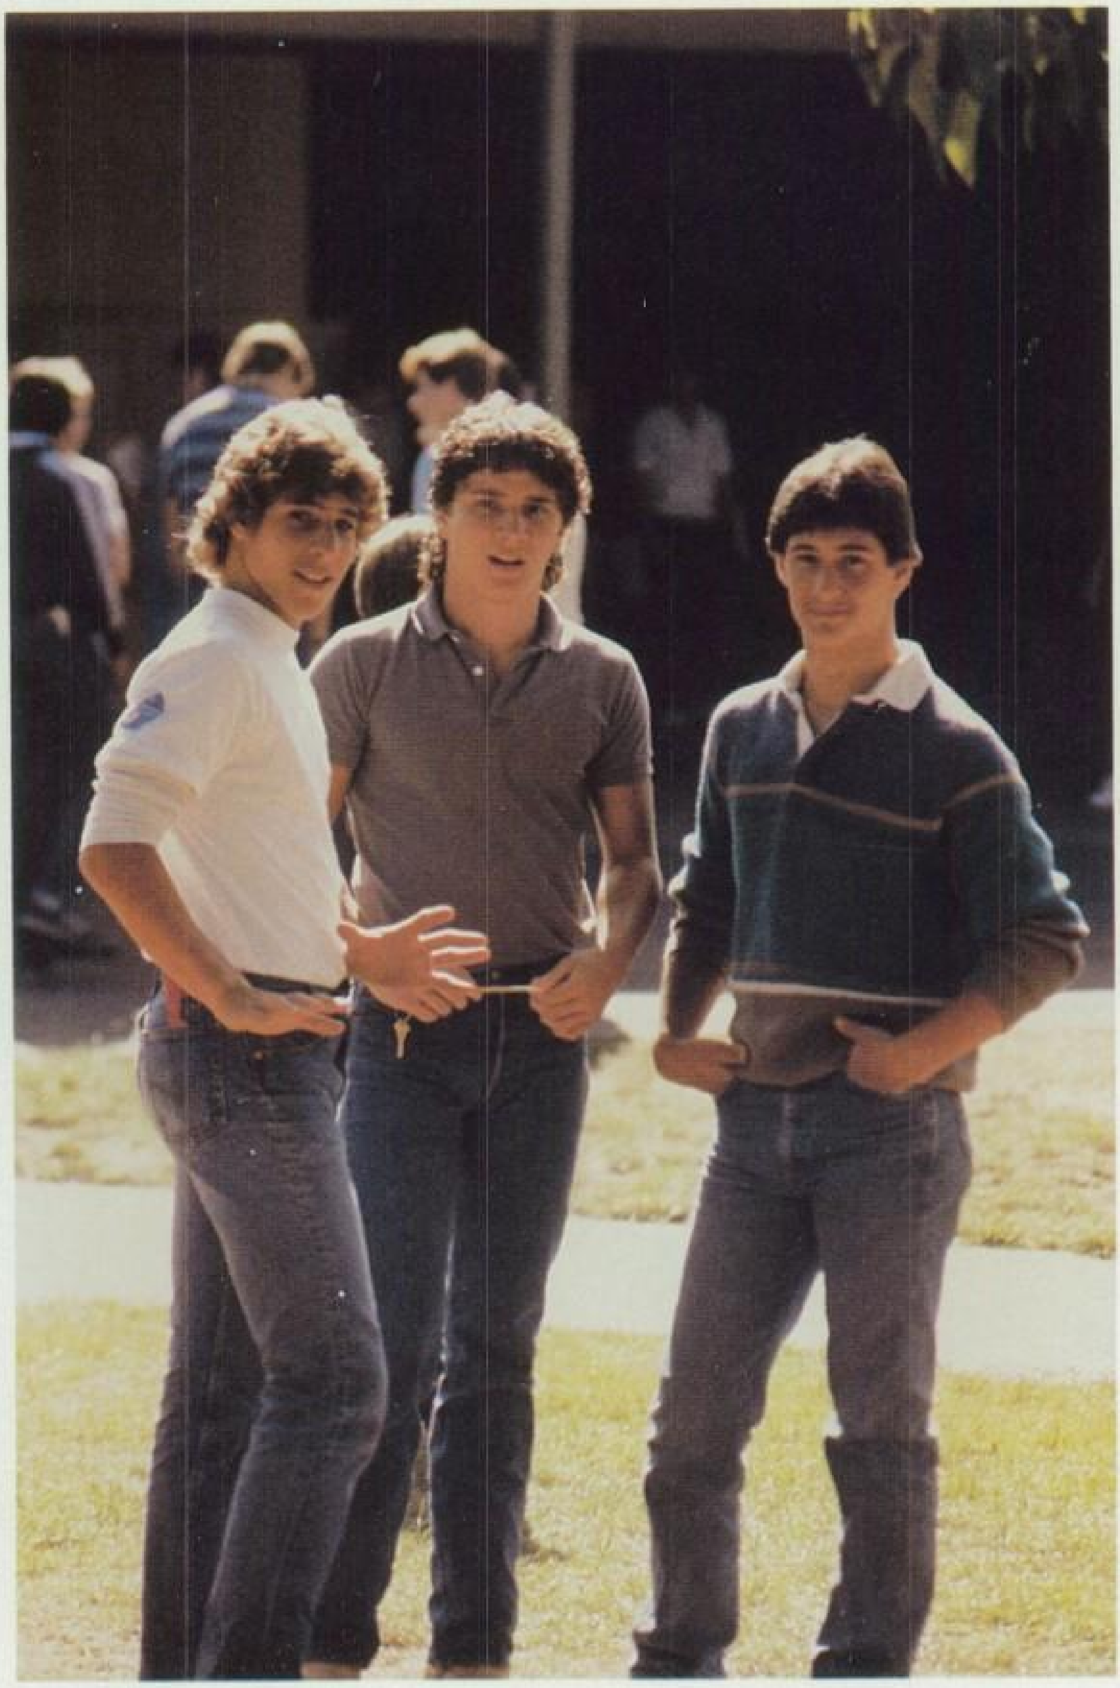
School spirit is important to the Prospect student. It is displayed at school rallies, sporting events, and even during the everyday school functions. This integral part of being a member of the Prospect Student Body is one in which we can all share. For the cheerleaders, it was trying to wrest from the throats of spectators another cheer, a little louder than the first one, or perhaps to coax out of their class the volume necessary to win those traditional shouting contests at our rallies. The spirit commission helped us vent our energies in a more spirited manner as well. It was they who were behind the organization of our rallies and who came up with all those zany, madcap contests we had, putting class against class in the most ridiculous of situations. For the rest of us, our spirit and the ways in which we showed it, was not any less important. We gave our all during spirit week, staying up all night in preparation of the hall decorations, supporting our respective classes at the rally at the end of the week, and certainly at the homecoming game. The homecoming game is a good example of when we showed our spirit, but, it is the students that went to the softball games, the diving meets, and the badminton tournaments, the events that weren't quite so popular and glamourous as the homecoming game, that really should be commended for their show of spirit and pride in their school. These are just a few ways in which Panthers have shown their spirit.

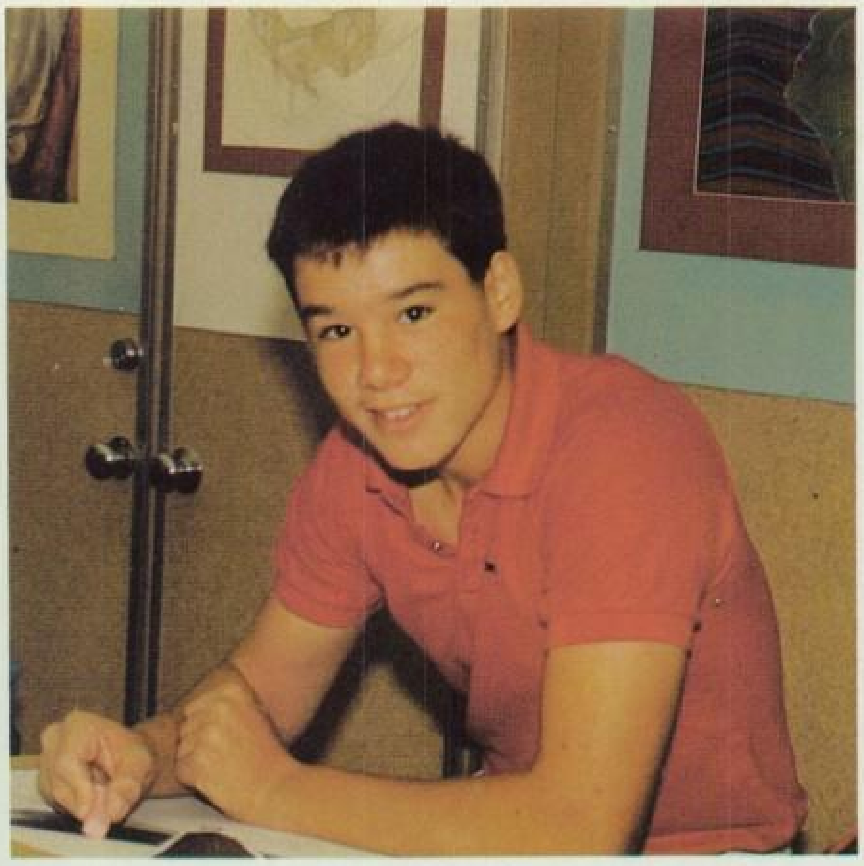
Pride

PRIDE. What does the word mean? It means different things to different people. To the patriot, it refers to the love of one's country. To the scholar, it means achievment and the satisfaction that goes with it. And to the yearbook staff, it is the feeling we get by putting out the best yearbook we know how that will bring back memories of our school. Whatever the definition, pride can be best described as the good feeling one gets when he or she makes or does something well. The students at Prospect have reason to be proud. Our dedicated students and fine teaching staff make our school a great place to learn. Everyday this year we saw students showing their pride by wearing spirit ribbons or the school colors. Even away games were packed with spectators cheering for Prospect. It's true that every student in some way is proud of Prospect. Some are just prouder than others. The cheerleaders, for example, always seem proud of their beloved school, where the average student seems to care less.

In reality, the average student is very proud of Prospect in some way (even if it is because Prospect is the only school that, no matter where you are in the school, you always look like you're in the same place). In any event, you are certain to look back on the successes you had and the achievements you gained here with, at least, your own personal pride. In later years, when you look at your old progress reports, you will feel a twinge of satisfaction and accomplishment. When you leaf through the activities section of this yearbook, you will show your spouse and/or your children just what you were up to when you were younger. And when you look at that old graduation photo, you will smile with this feeling of accomplishment, remembering the four years of hard work you went through to get that diploma. And when Seniors are asked about their high school background, they will proudly say, "Prospect High School's Class of '86!" This pride is displayed so openly that our school makes going here more enjoyable for everyone. Thanks to all the students who made Prospect what it is.

Sprite
Coca-Cola Classic
Coca-Cola Classic

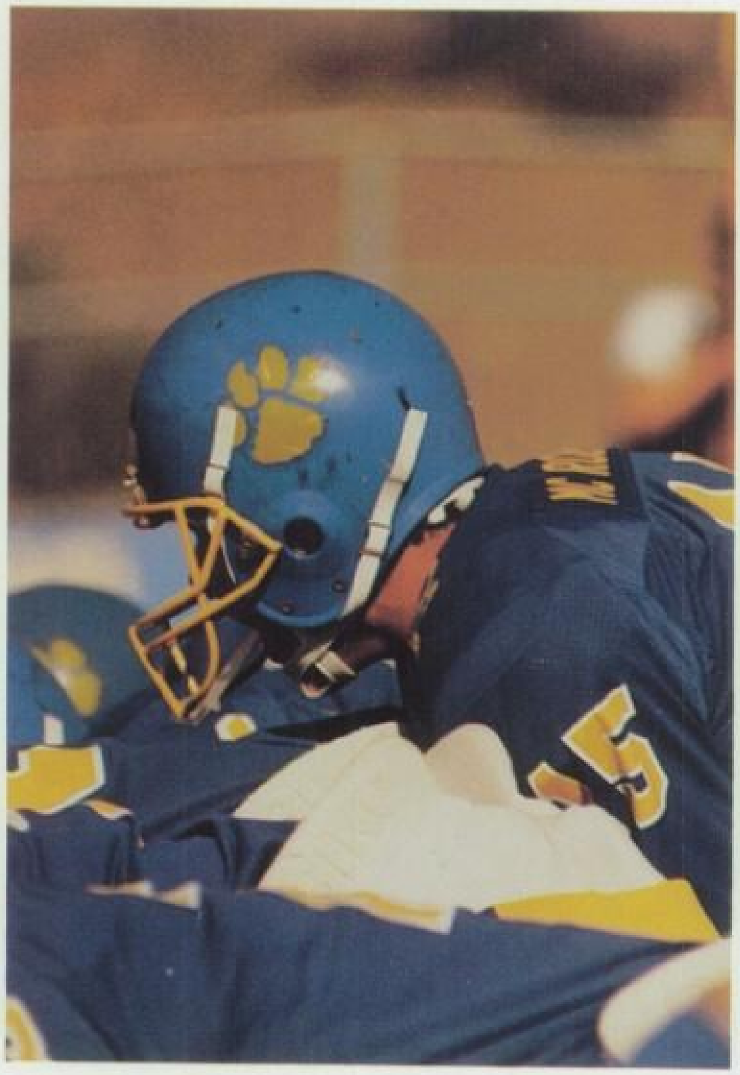




Top: Nikki Cosgrove, Christine Sweetland, and Kim D'Attilio toilet paper themselves at lunch for a little entertainment. Left: Rocky Lewis and his friends discuss the latest gossip at brunch. Above: Student takes time out from his masterpiece to make a slight correction. Far left: Vernell Carpenter, Kerrel Robinson, Sabrina Rosas, Kim Longoria, Kim Skipper, and friends enjoy the relaxation of lunch time at their lunch table.

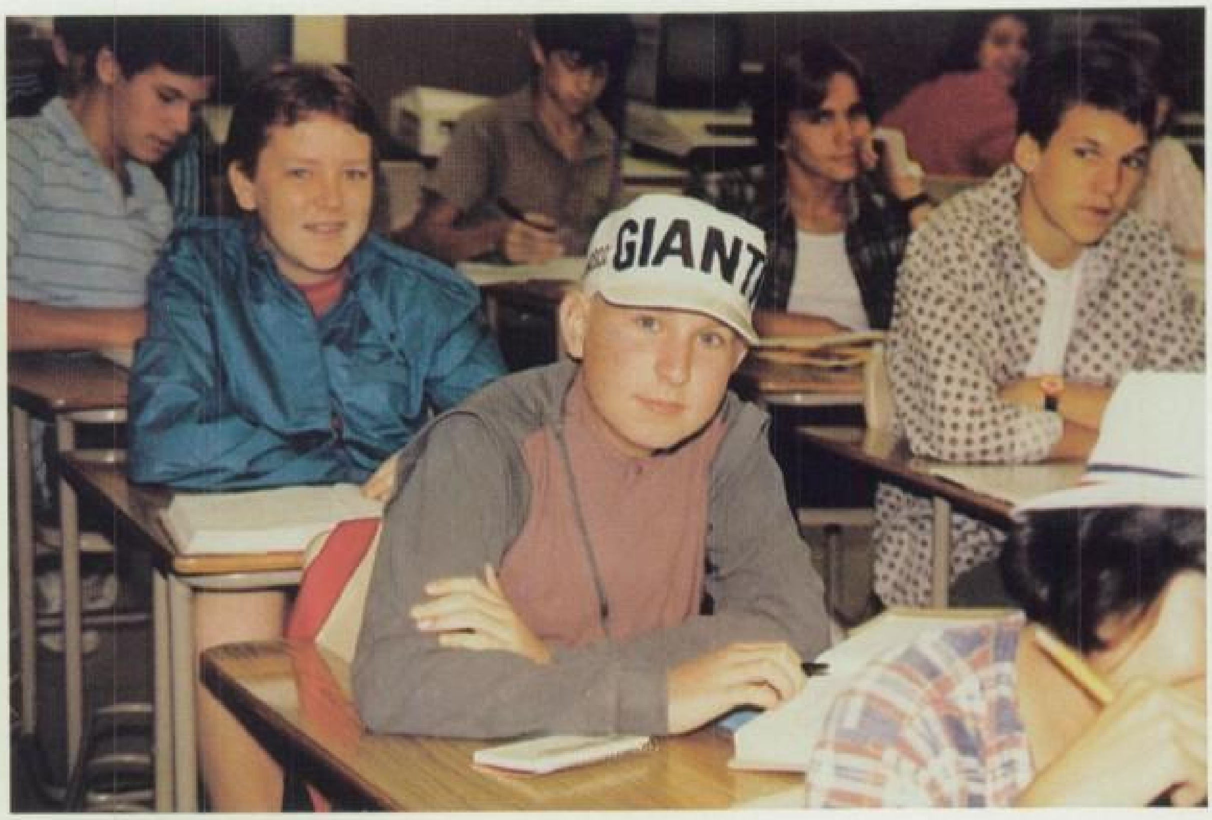
Extra Curricular

Academics are certainly the main purpose behind attending high school. However, other parts of being a Prospect student must not be forgotten. A Prospect student is an interesting blend of many different things, and each individual piece plays an important role. Without each piece, the whole is worthless. One such piece is the various extra curricular activities and clubs in which our students participated. Whether it is acting in the school play, running varied electronic devices at school rallies and other events, cheering on the team and the crowd during games, or working on the paper, the Panther Prints, each day in journalism class, each student had something to offer to the school. These clubs helped us to contribute our specific abilities and talents to the school at large. By trying to engage in the numerous activities offered here, it is more than likely to find that you have stumbled across something that could turn out to be very dear to you in your life after, and outside of, Prospect High School. Perhaps an interest in extra-curricular activities could lead to a career. Who knows, it could have been the young, mild-mannered biology student Robert Redford walking down his school's halls when something in the drama department caught his eye . . . Extra curricular activities are great at building character and personalities, but that would have attracted few members had there not been any fun. Many friendships were founded or reinforced by students gathering together under a common interest. A lot of fun and memories have come out of one afternoon at these meetings. For a small investment of time and energy, that's a lot of profit.

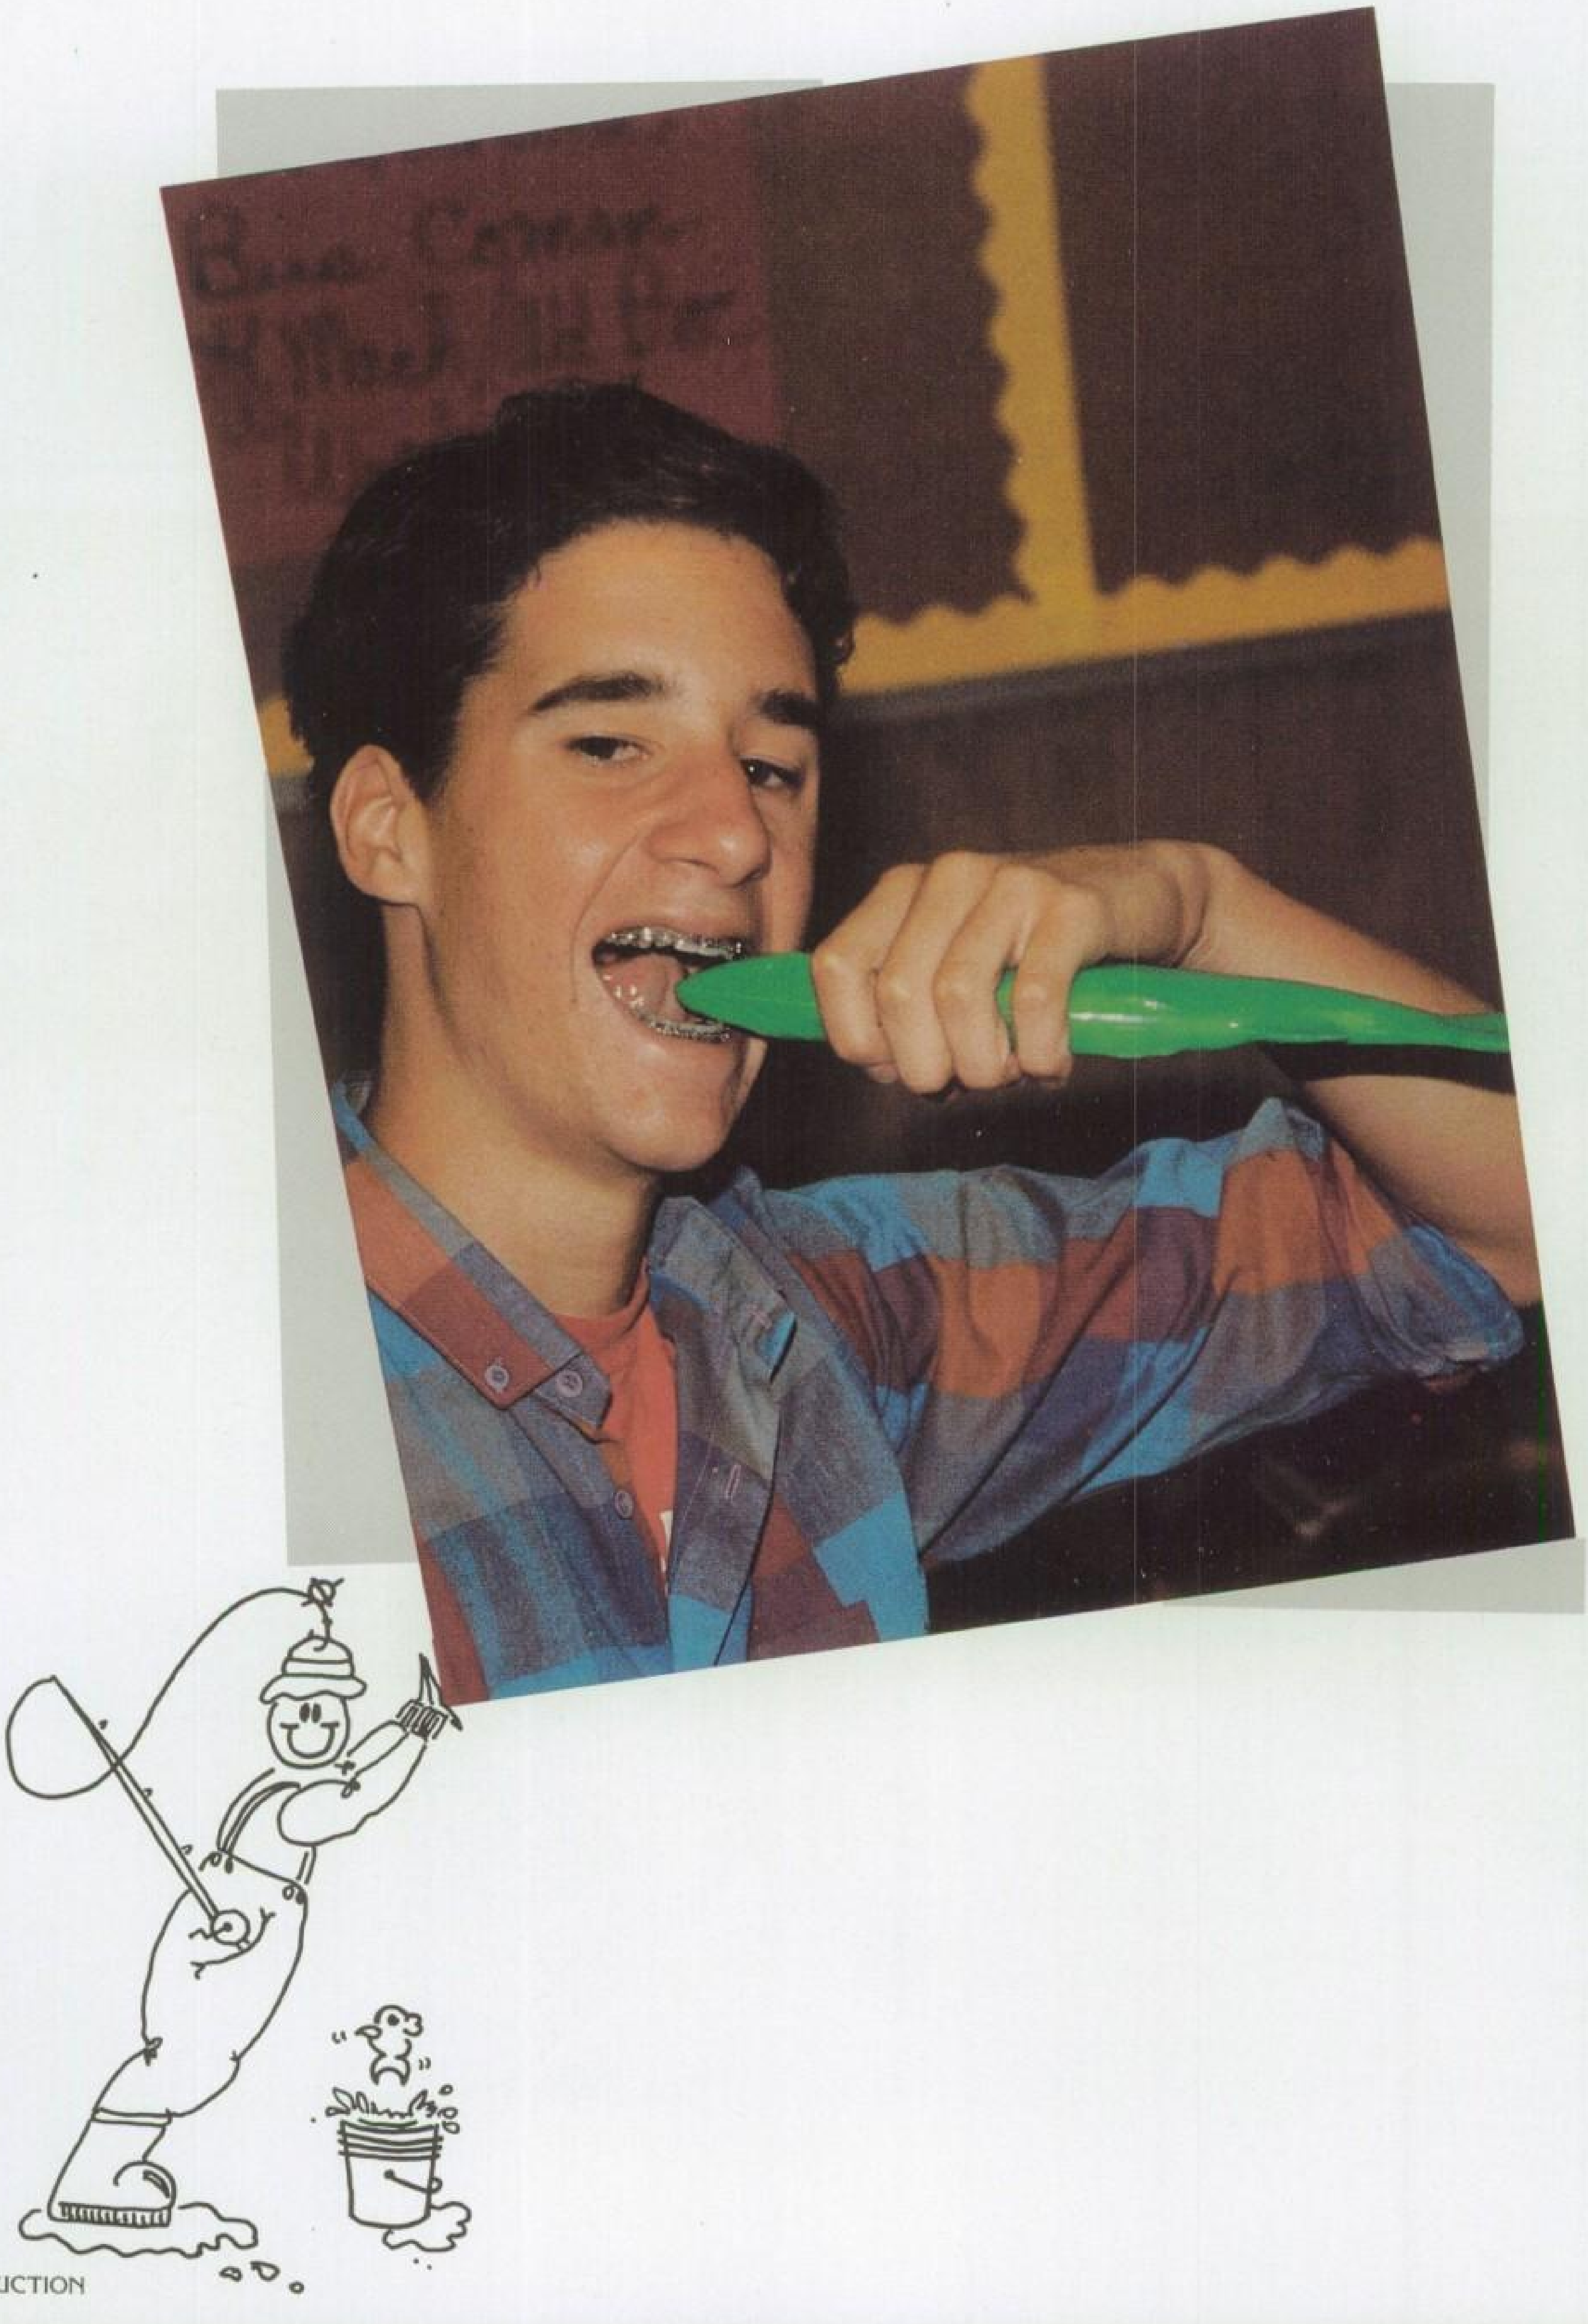


ABOVE: Mike McRoberts yells the next play which will send the Prospect Panthers to another victory. RIGHT: "Peek-a-boo" Freshman Jeff Pi cautiously peeks at the camera.

The effort that individuals make concerning extra-curricular activities benefit the school as a whole. Just as sports and athletic activities draw people to Prospect and display the wealth of talent within our halls, the clubs and commissions at Prospect also draw attention and provide a marvelous outlet for many talented members of our student body. It is this dedicated group of students that expose their talents for all of Prospect to behold. Without the talents of these writers (journalism and yearbook), actors (drama), orators (speech and debate), photographers (photo commission and student council), salesmen (DECA, key club, admissions control), and many others (far too many to list here!), Prospect and the curriculum it offers would be a dull, lifeless existence marked by an unending and uninterupted stream of tests and homework. These activities offer our school a very special relationship among the student body as a whole and its individuals. The activities here help to fulfill the individual and in turn, the individual helps improve the quality of our school and the people in it.

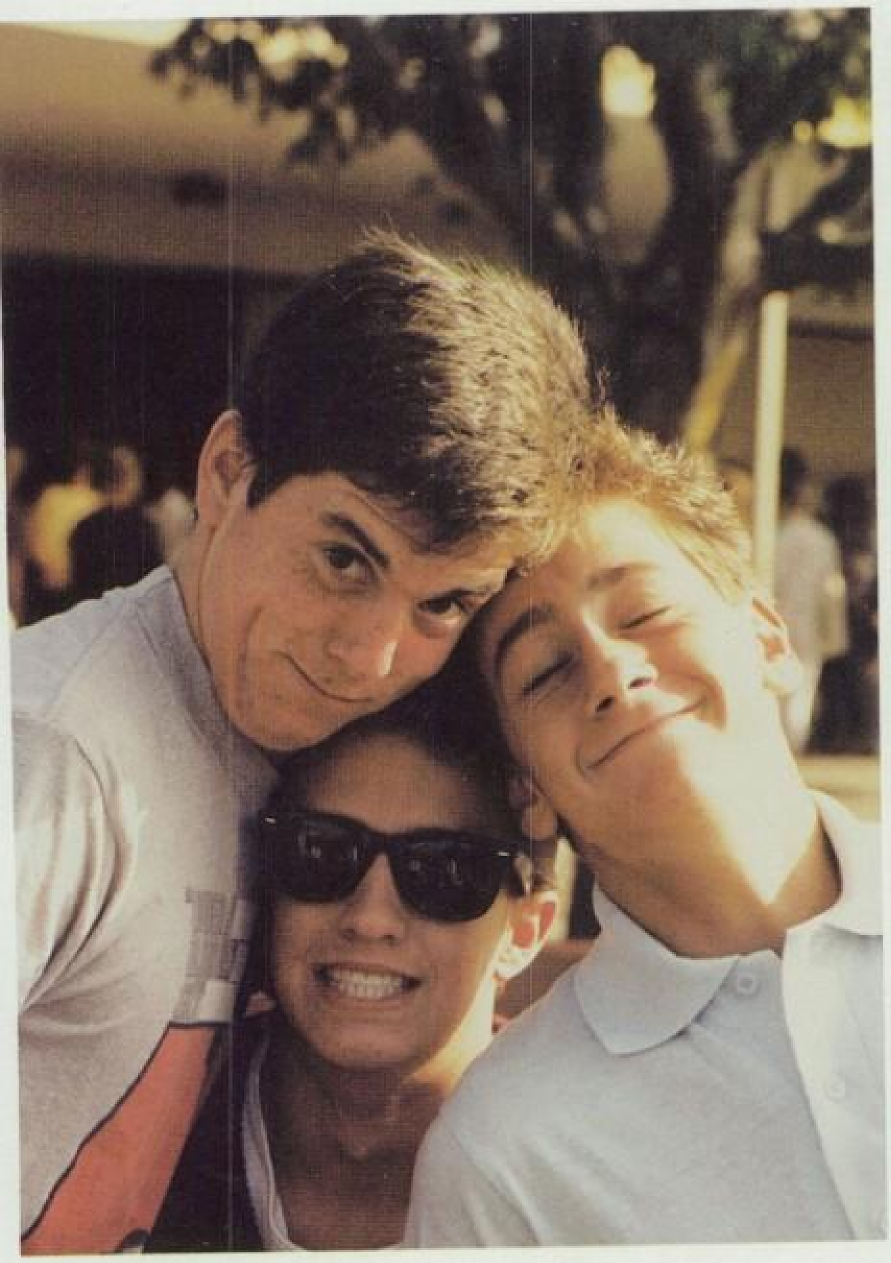


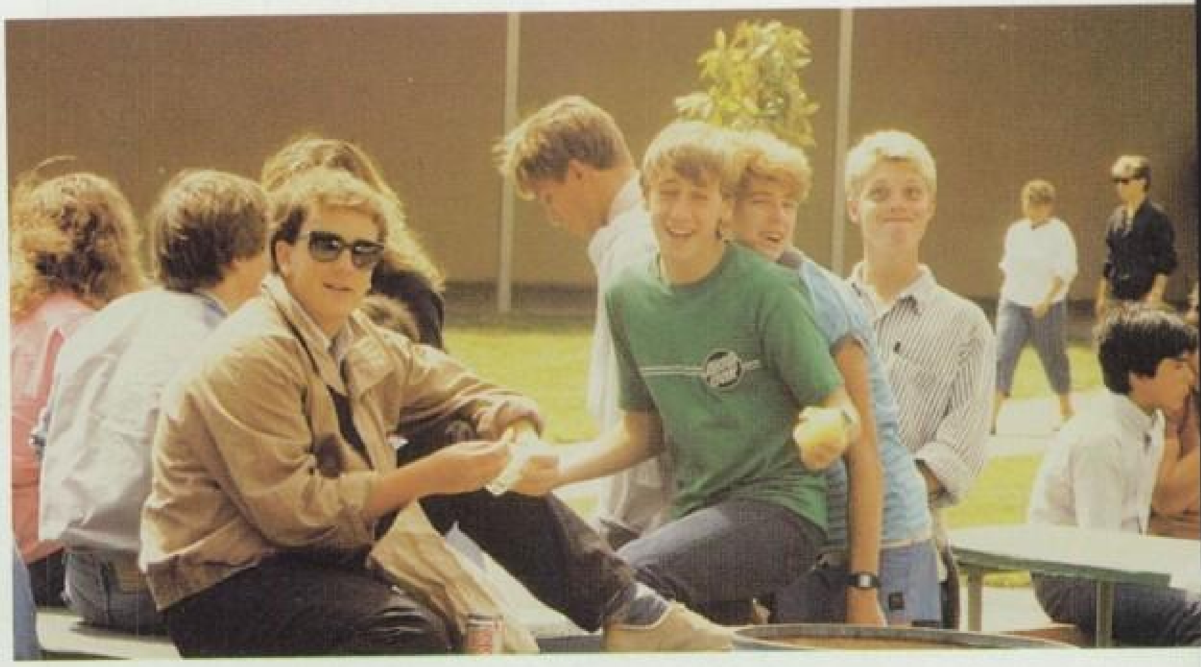
ABOVE: Giants?!? How about those Panthers?
RIGHT: Senior Carol Callahan, truly unique.

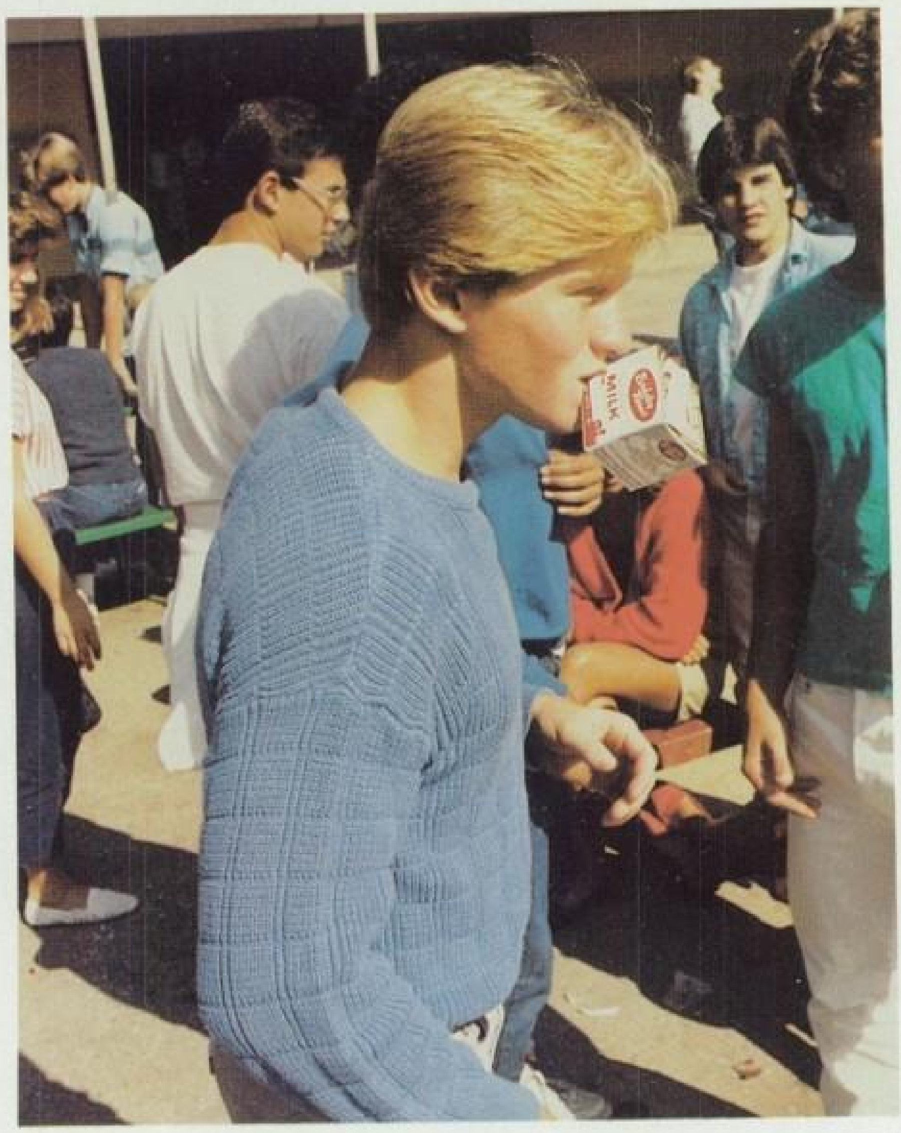


Character

Oh what do you know? Besides, "four eyes" is a stupid ame anyway. You'd think if they were going to insult omeone, they would use something with originality. I don't know why they pick on me. Okay, maybe I do look a ittle different. That couldn't be the reason. Who needs hem? It doesn't bother me, not really. Reminds me of that quote by William Ilsan, Lord Salson of Norwich, "Like an unrelenting rain, existence lingers." It doesn't bother me,. Besides, what do they know?







Case 1: It's Tuesday night, you decided to forget your homework and have some fun. After crusing, you get home at two and can't do your homework. When you get to school, you realize you forgot to study for a Shakespeare test. You dash into the library researching on anything to do with Shakespeare. You read for ten minutes and decide you're now prepared for anything. In class, you learn that you must write an essay on Hamlet. All you see on your paper for half an hour is your name at the top. With ten minutes left, you madly jot down that Hamlet had an unhappy childhood because his puppy died when he was five and he hates his uncle because his uncle thinks Shakespeare was a wimp. You see only five lines filled on your page so you pad it with alliterations such as "Hamlet's hamock hung with heaviness." The next day, you get your paper back and . . . whoops. You now know that you should save your whims for the weekends, but, . . . just to cheer yourself up, you'll see a movie tonight.

OPPOSITE PAGE: The catch of the day. LEFT: Senior Joey Cizauskas knows "mild does your body good." TOP LEFT: Put your best face forward. ABOVE: "Say cheese!"

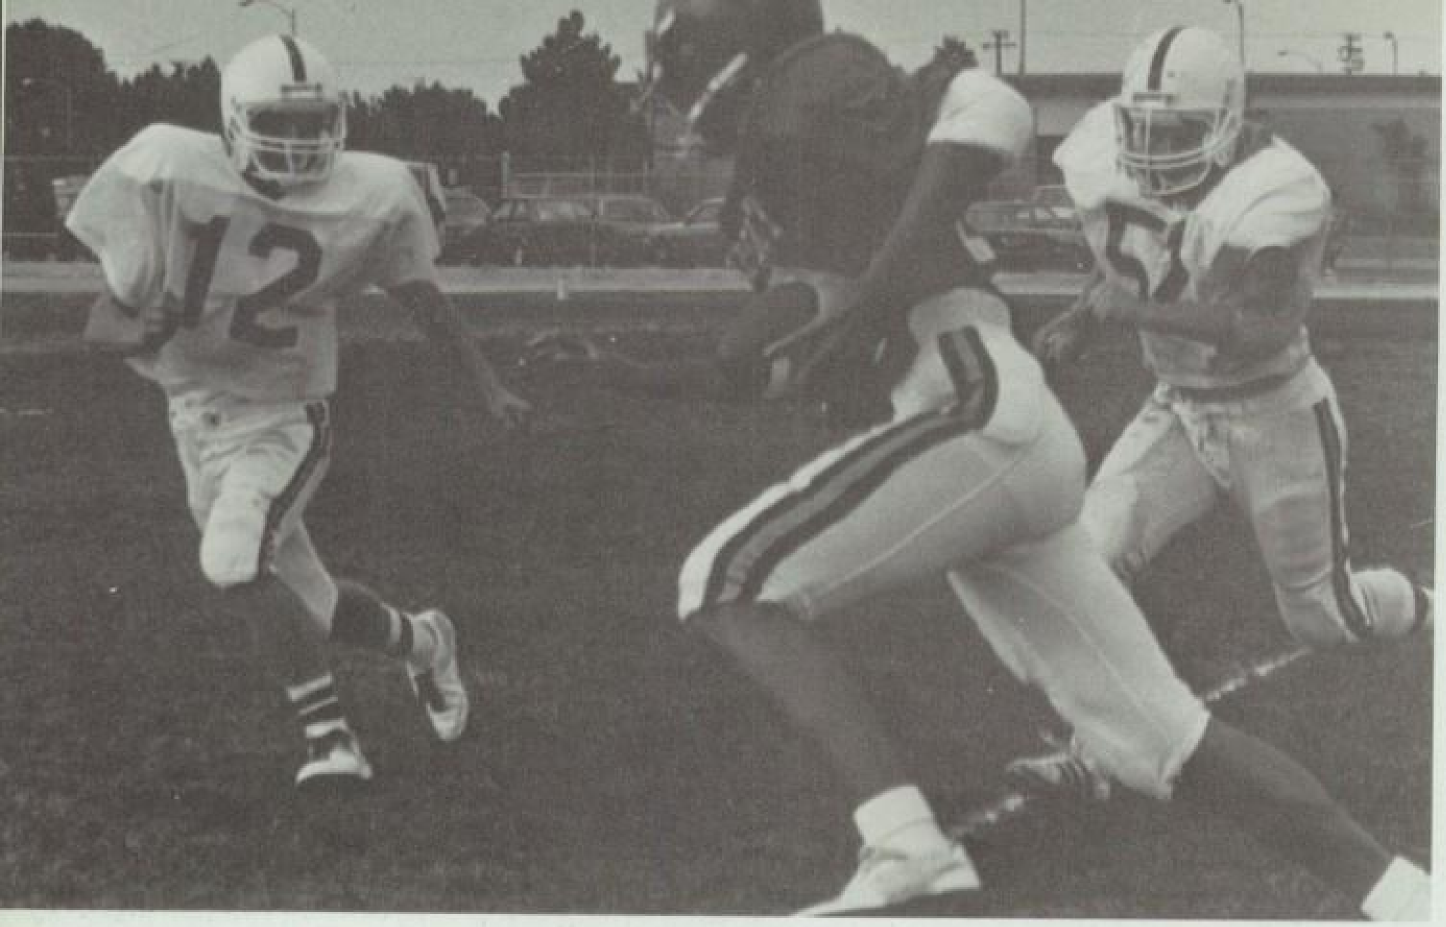
Lower left: To study or not to study was the question these two were discussing in front of the library after school. It seems as if senioritis has hit these two a bit prematurely. Left: Skateboarder catches some air and perfects his newest move: the alley hop.

Transient

Although the four years spent here in high school seem long and tedious to some, they are, in fact, small precious moments of your life. We do not always realize how important these years really are. How else could I have come up with such a big word for the title of this page, if it had not been for these high school years? After you graduate, you will feel a tremendous sense of achievement. Most of you probably think that you will not miss high school. Or should I say, all of you know that you will not miss it. But I have a feeling you will. You will miss all the good times you had with all your friends. You will miss these years of freedom when responsibilities did not ride so heavily on you. But this breaking away, as hard as it may be, is highly important. You learn responsibility and take responsibility for yourself. And high school gets you ready for these things. In this way, high school drastically changes you in a relatively short amount of time and shapes the person you will become. That's a pretty strong influence for just four years of a lifetime. Seniors should really enjoy these last few days of school, because after this year is over, that's it. You will have graduated from high school and it will all be over. But don't get too depressed. When you graduate, you will be embarking on a whole new segment of your life. But the underclassmen still have time. They have time to enjoy their moments here at Prospect High. So, take advantage of the opportunities here at Prospect. Take part in extra-curricular activities and show some school spirit. And be proud of your school and of your accomplishments you made here.

86.

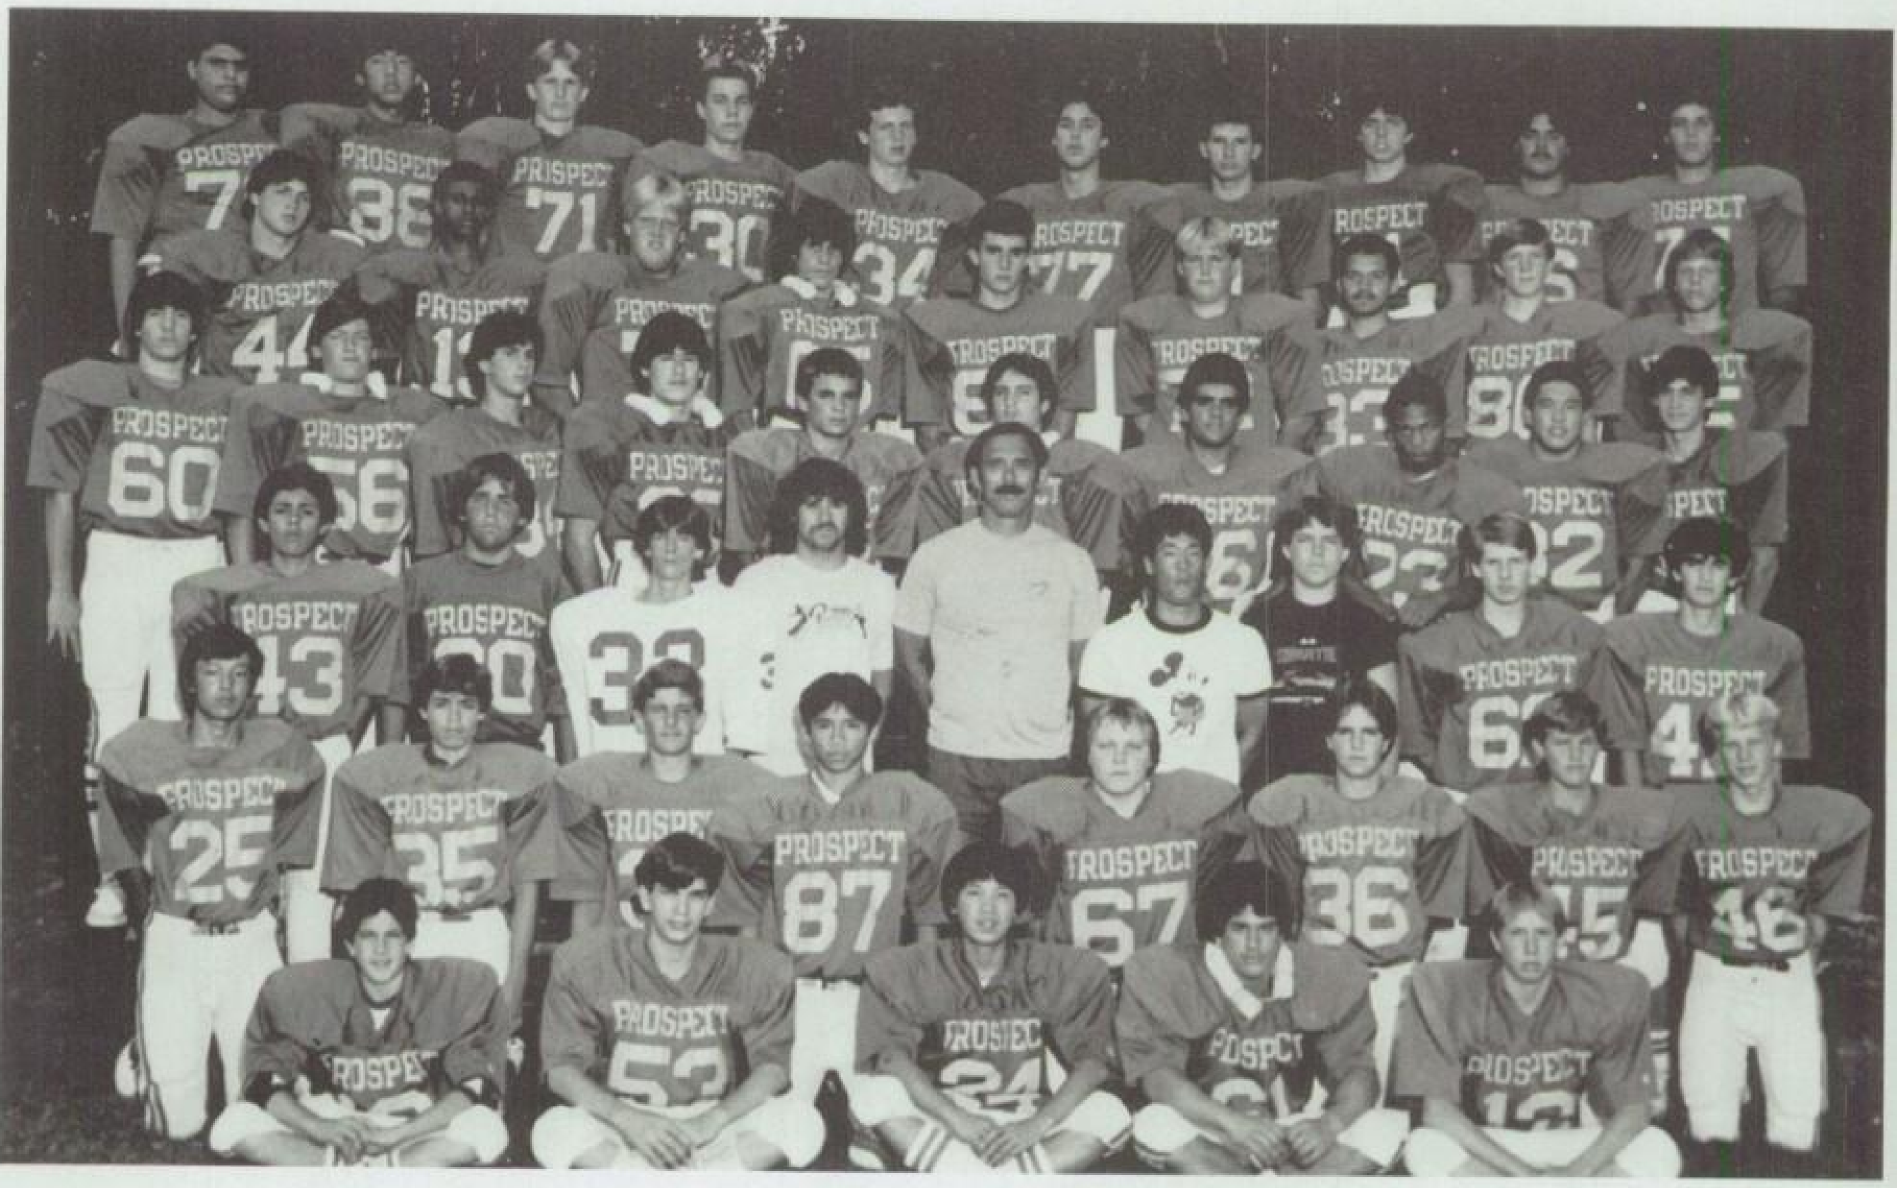
Sports



K. Wong (So.) out-runs Homestead defense.

Panther touchdown!!!

Frosh-Soph Football



Members include: Teddy Adefris, Steve Alvarez, Ken Begnal, Joey Berticevich, Glen Cureton, Dave DiDomenico, Mike Evans, Lee Froidevaux, Greg Gallman, Jeff Grillo, Zach Horgan, Kirk Iob, Steve Johnson, Craig Kanazawa, Eric Keller, James Kim, Che King, Matt Kriewall, Chong Lee, Rocky Lewis, Matt Longoria, Minh Luu, Ian McCann, Alberto Moran, Scott Partlow, Matt Pendo, Steve Price, Ed Quinones, Troy Ritchie, Steve Scheu, Don Shaull, Steve Siebert, Jason Snodgrass, Eric Stafford, Tony Thorp, Jason Tompson, Ted Williams, Mark Williams, Ken Wong, Jason Woodbury. Coaches: Ed Marcos, Lee Shiomoto, Joe Thiedt

Frosh-Soph Shows Off

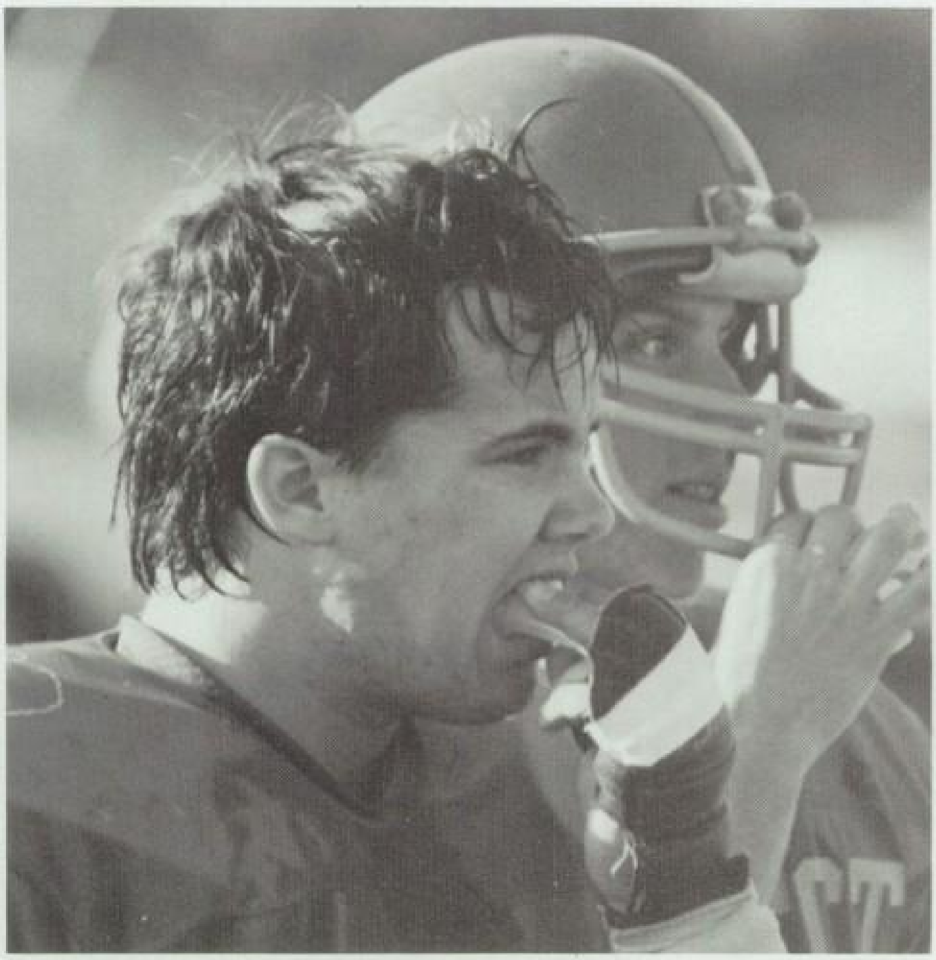
J. Grillo (So.) passes for touchdown!

C. Kanazawa (Fr.) looks on to victory.

The handoff to victory!

Extraordinary, dedicated, and talented are just a few words used to describe the athletes of the 85-86 Frosh/Soph football team. Under the direction of Coach Marcos, practices were long and hard, stressing the fundamental skills that are necessary to become an accomplished football player. At the start of the season they had their doubts of how well the Panther team would do, but as the season progressed they proved that they had the discipline and determination to become a winning football team.

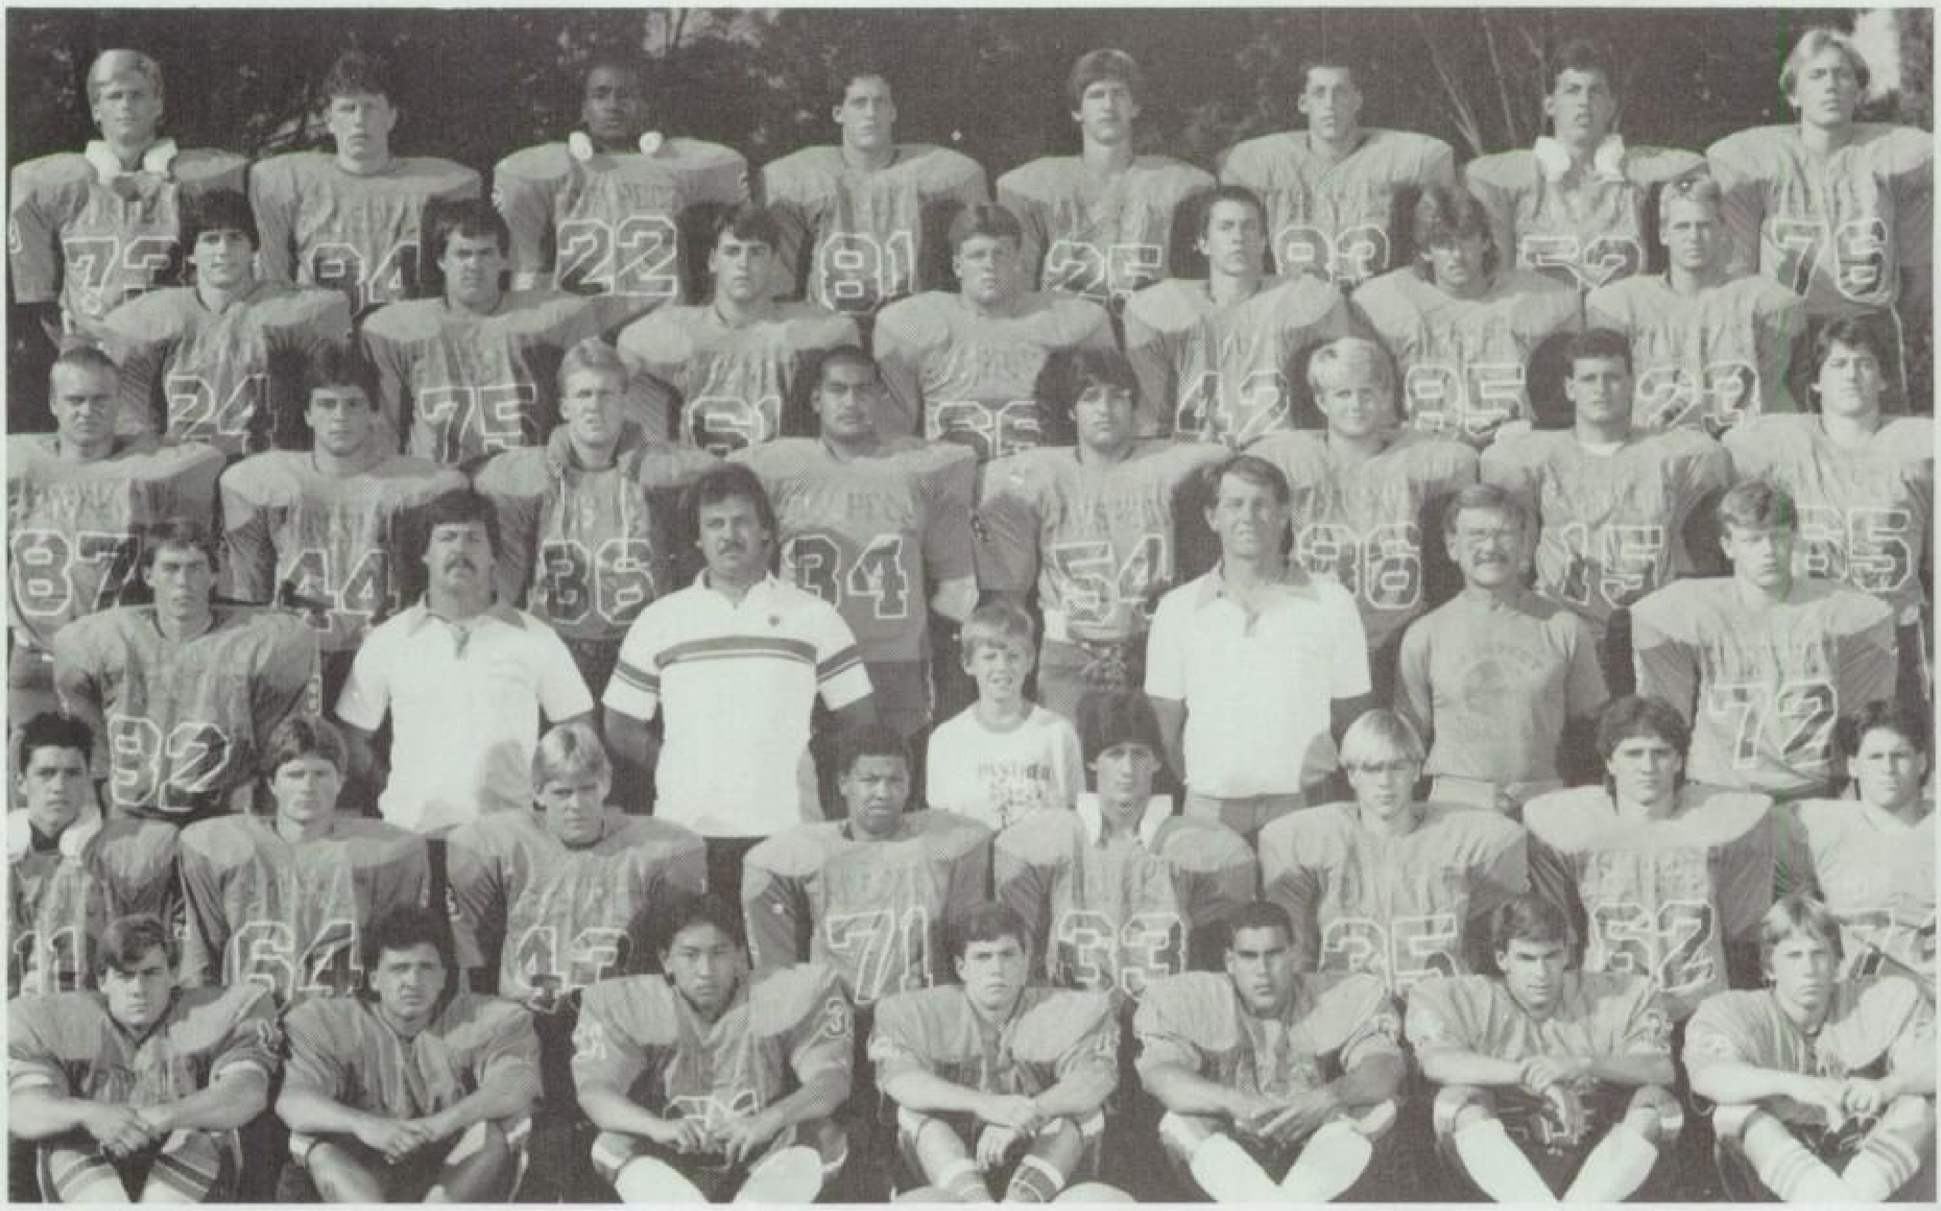
Our Year



What happened to my tongue!

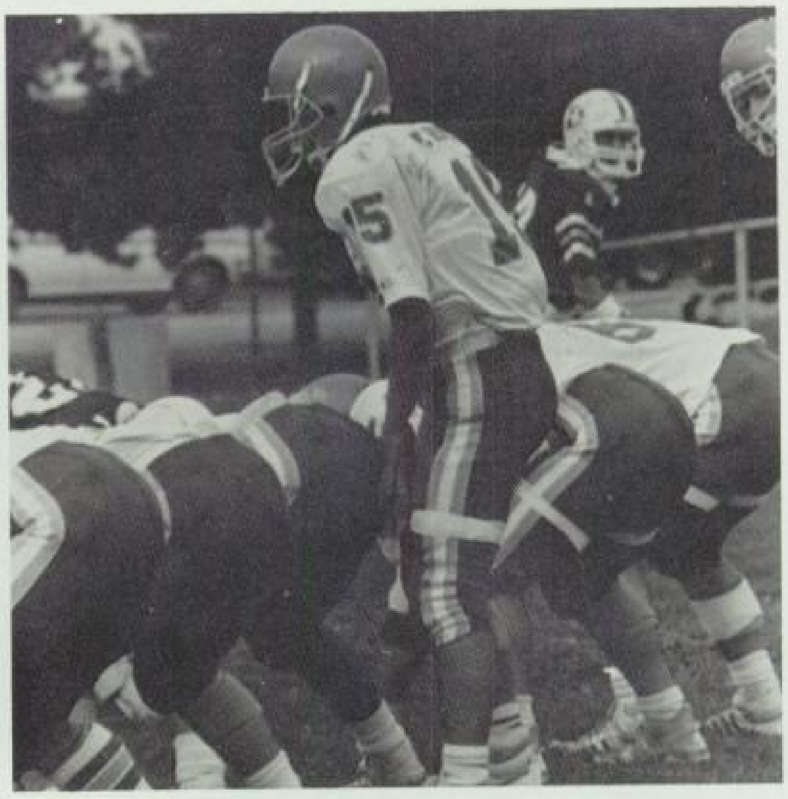
Kerrell can't be caught!

Varsity Football



Top Row: Joel Johnson, Dean Witken, Kerrell Robinson, Greg Beedy, Brad Carlson, Dan Beedy, Doug Esparza, Chris Besonis. Fifth Row: Steve Bosco, Rob Maxwell, Phil Charlebois, Tim Anhorn, Chris Reed, Tim Slaughterbeck, Alan Stevens. Fourth Row: Andy Gow, Mike Johnson, Dean Crew, Donny Togisala, Steve Nanez, Lee Stuart, Mike McRoberts, Ron Pennington. Third Row: Kevin Phillips, Coach Morgan, Coach Kent, Little Dave Johnson, Coach Johnson, Coach Petty, Olaf Bodecker. Second Row: Jim Woo, Dave Stanton, Paul Houston, Derek Browden, Paul DiDomenico, Chris Walker, Chad Chandler, Ray Medina. First Row: Sean Voorhes, Jason Gary, Wei Chen, Mike Kaelin, Tom Sachen, Dave D'Attilio, Steve Saxe.

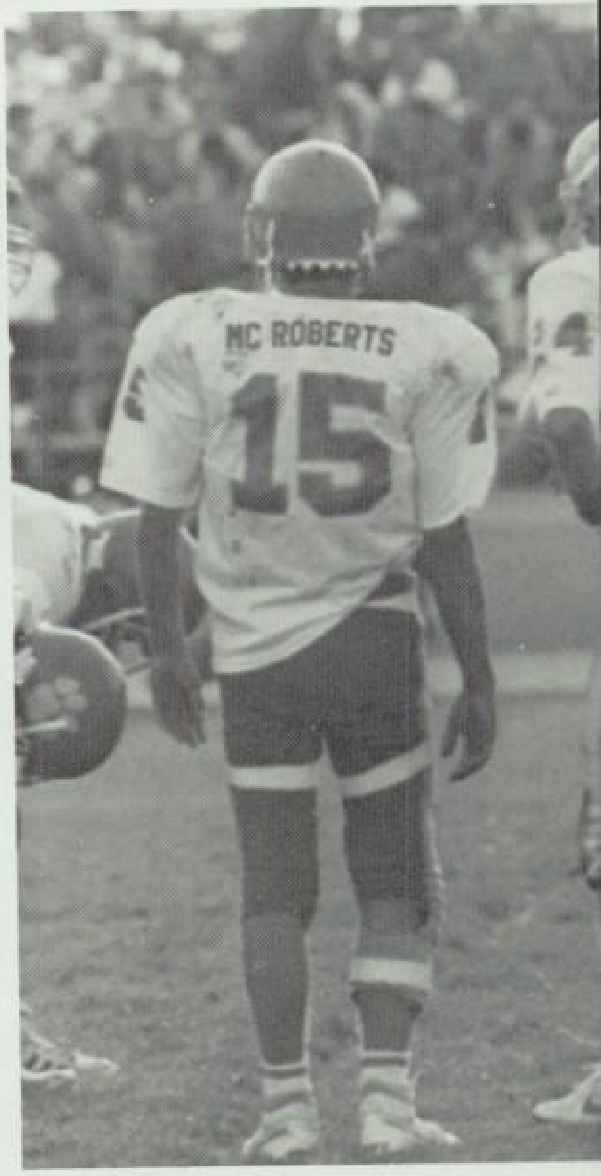
Homestead's tripped up!



Offensive "Ends "

Good "D" Dave!

Panthers go for it!



McRoberts . . . who else?!

On The Move

Prospect Varsity Football has become a powerful influence in football all around the Bay Area. The Panthers, this year, have come out of the season with a shining new image, having a record of 10 wins to 2 losses, and have been ranked in the top 5 in C.C.S., which is their highest ranking ever! The only two teams to defeat the Panthers this year were Los Gatos and St. Francis. In the fourth quarter of the Prospect Panthers vs. St. Francis Lancers C.C.S. playoff, Prospect was ahead 16 to 14. Unfortunately, the #1 team of California, St. Francis, pulled through in the end with a win of 22 to 16. Considering this was the toughest team to beat, our team gave it their all and should be congratulated!

Since Coach Johnson started coaching three years ago, Prospect Varsity Players seem to have a new air of excitement and Football at Prospect has become a great attraction!

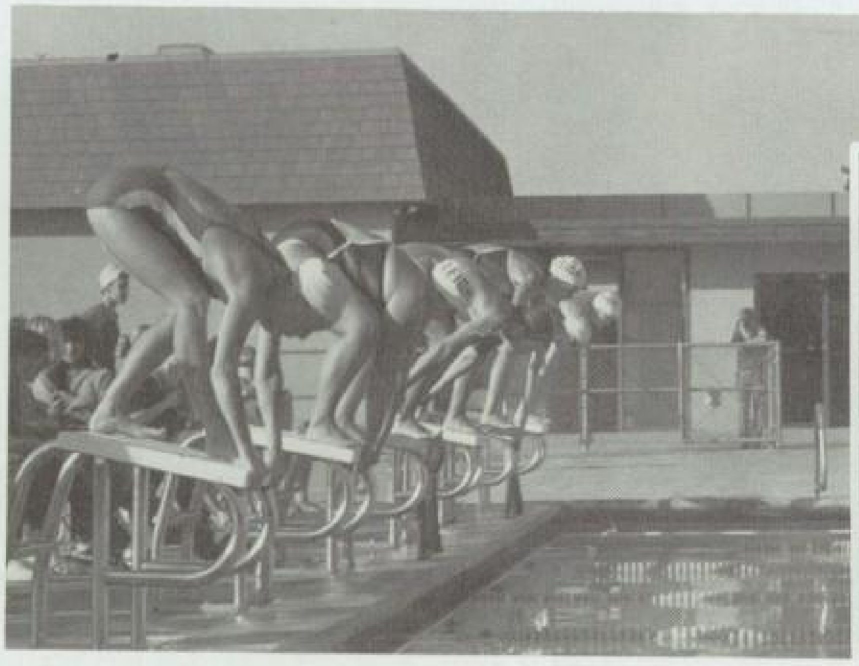
A winning team gains more and more momentum and with the support of students, parents, the community, and the determination of our players, we should look forward to victorious and exciting years to come!

Can't catch me!!

Worried Coach Reboa?

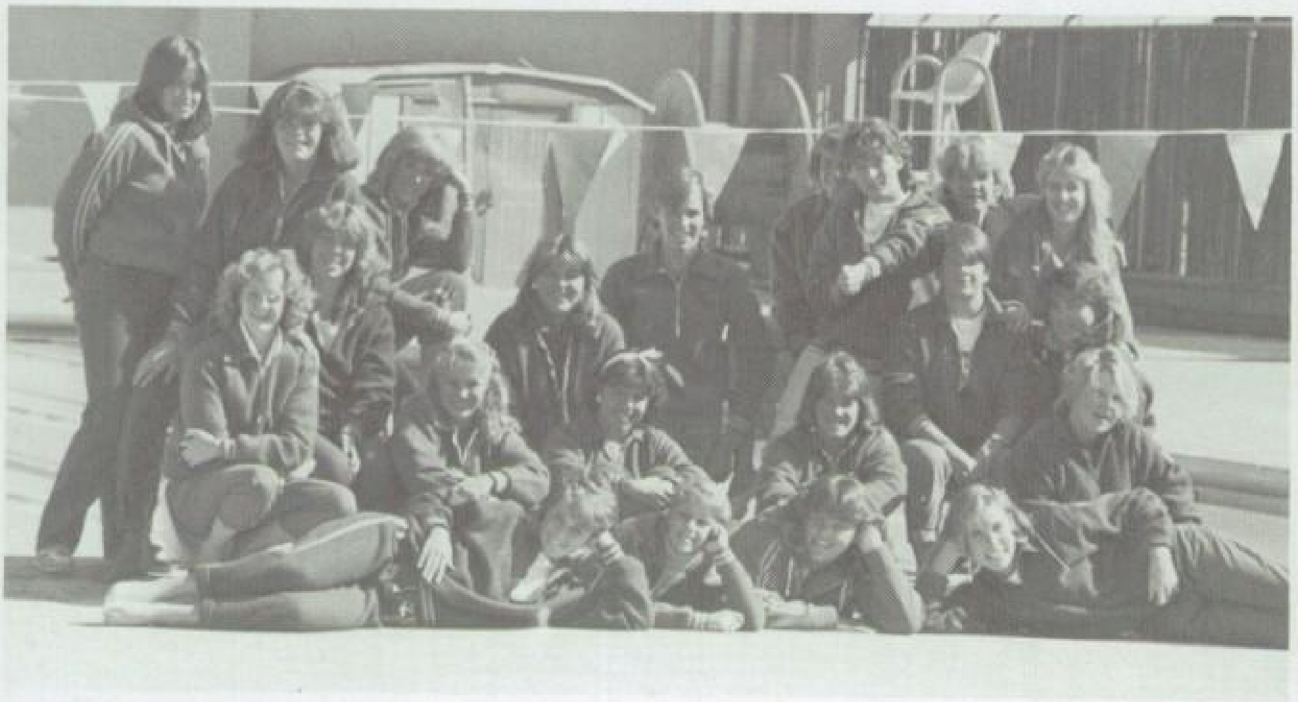
One Stroke Ahead Of The Rest

JV Swimming



"Swimmers Take Your Mark . . ." Bang!

And they're off, Prospect swimmers once again one, two, three!



(front row) Angela Hullar, Kelly Fernandes, Sharon Hoyte, Barbara Brokish, (second row) Sharon Hastings, Theresa Schmalz, Terrie Cathey, Tiffany McArdle, Nathalie Johnson, (third row) Debbie Shields, Deanna Erickson, Whitney Hill, Tina Mull, (back row) Shellie Emerson, Tracey Myers, Laura Crowe, Erica Nilsson, Tina Torres, Heather Carter, Nicole Henke, Kim Belair, (not shown) Traci Lang.

Girl's 1985 J.V. Swim Team, "Take Your Mark . . ." Although this year's J.V.Swim Team was smaller than last year's league champions, they ranked high in potential and enthusiasm. Workouts were held everyday after school and Friday mornings at 5:30. All their hard work paid off as once again their season proved to be properous. Members of the swim team also worked together to wash cars for new suits. They spent one Saturday washing and hosing down over eighty cars. Due to occasional water fights, some of the girls soaked up more water than after regular practice. Aided by swim coach Sandy Waterman, the swimmers produced many outstanding members. Such swimmers were Barbara Brokish in breastroke, Heather Carter in freestyle, Whitney Hill in butterfly and IM, Erica Nilsson in fly, and Theresa Schmalz in freestyle.

Theresa Schmalz- One last breath before racing to victory.

Whitney Hill- Hey, what's taking you guys so long?

Girls Varsity Swimmers Splash To Success

Lisa Dial, Wendy Hansen, Marguerite Oneto, Robin Roberts, Kathy Oneto, Tracey Abinati, Stacey Flory, Christine Sweetland, Beth Varozza, Kim D'Attilio, Maggie Pasek, Pam Sweetland, and Jenny Hau

Wendy Hansen "Checks-Out" the other swimmers . . .

Stacey Flory rises to breathe . . .

FAR WESTE
TEA

Jenny Hau wins another race . . .

Many people think swimmers are all alike. Each swimmer is dressed in a swimsuit and swimcap and proceeds to swim up and down a pool. However, this year's girls varsity swim team was comprised of certain characteristics which made them unique from other swimmers. These special traits, which made up the team included: thirteen burly women; hairy legs; the amazing ability to understand what Mrs.Waterman was saying (when she lost her voice); and much, much more . . . Besides the team's unique qualities which ranked them on top of their sport, they worked together each day practicing hard to maintain their winning record. But, at the same time, the girls managed to bring some excitement, as well as a few grey hairs to Mrs. Waterman, during practice. For instance, they discovered, "Peek-a-boo-bee . . ."; howto do a flip turn without ever touching the wall; keep away with tennis and golf balls while swimming at the same time; and the list went on . . . These thirteen individual Prospect girls joined together to make up a spectacular team who worked as a "whole" to win their fourth consecutive year in the West Valley Athletic League!

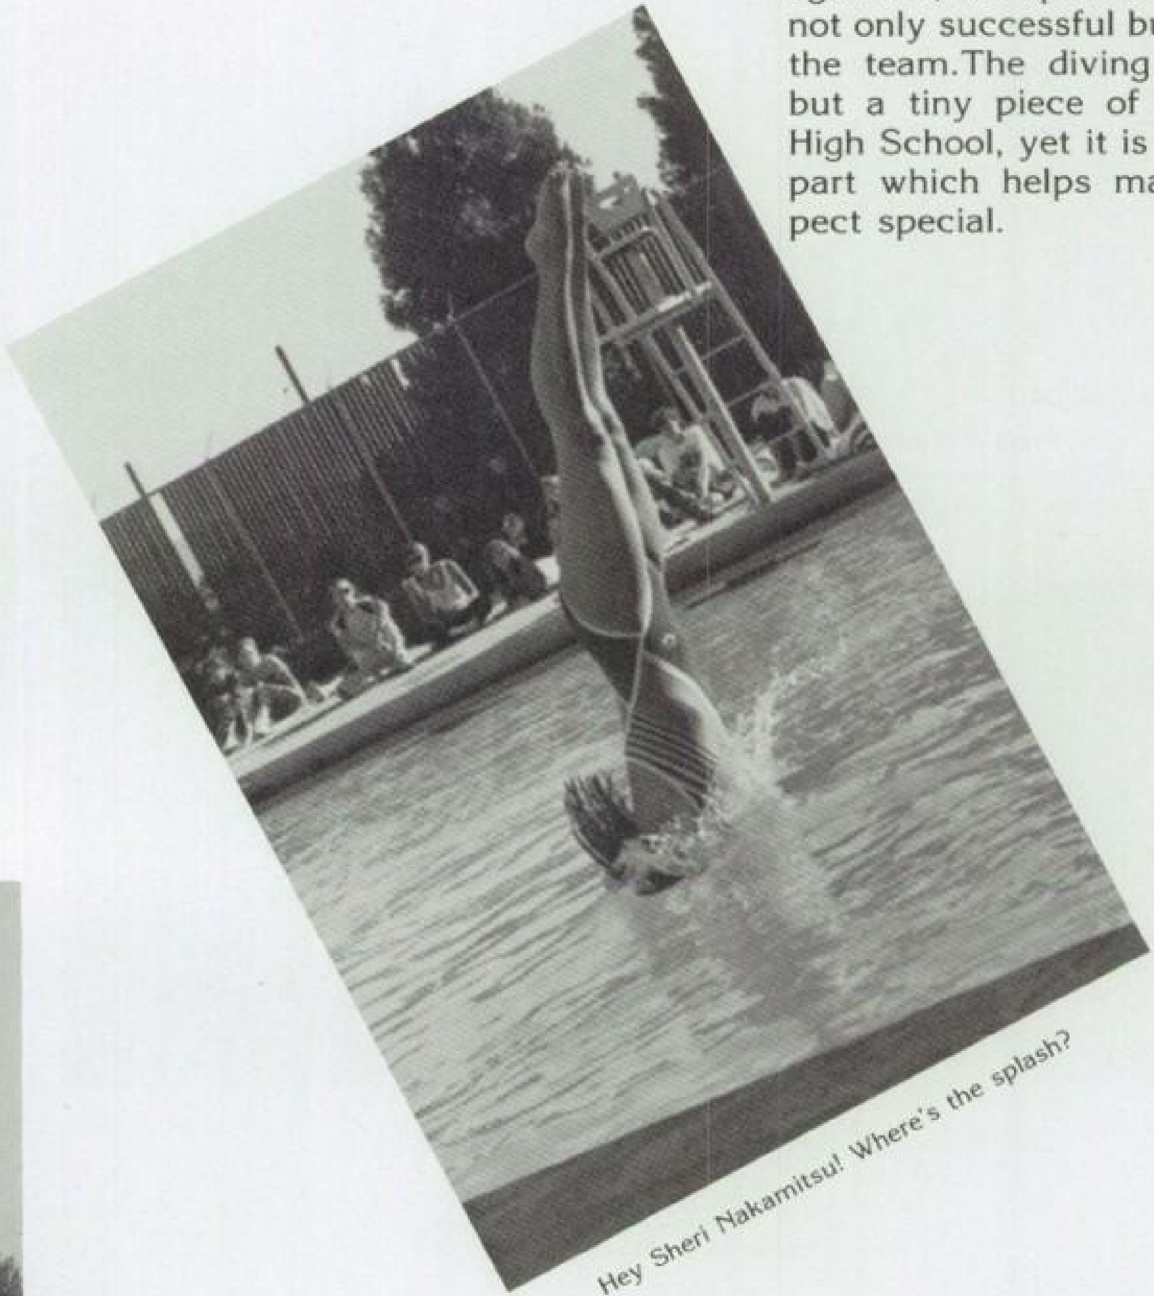
Christine Sweetland after Mrs. Waterman says, "Ten One-Hundreds STROKE!"

Dive Right In!

FRONT ROW: Dawn Swanson, Brenda Blake BACK ROW: Cheri Lund, Paula Mauck, Laura Wellington, Rori McGill, Sheri Nakamitsu, Marion Talbot, Carmen Weins, Coach John Blake, Entessa Mandy, Stacy Freitas. Not pictured: Julie Johnson

Dive right in with the girls from Prospect! The sport of diving is not only a physical, but more importantly a mental sport. It is very difficult to perform a dive knowing that all eyes are on you, and that you could possibly land in an unthinkable position on that pain inducing H_2O. This year, J.V. as well as Varsity Diving have done exceptionally well. The team has great potential, and a very promising future. Just don't ask anyone of them to attempt a decent "Front Dive ½ Twist!" Prospect's Girls Diving success is greatly credited to the coaching of John Blake. With his patience and encouragement, the sport of diving is not only successful but fun for the team.The diving team is but a tiny piece of Prospect High School, yet it is a unique part which helps make Prospect special.

Ooh, aah! Look at Laura Wellington go!



Hey Sheri Nakamitsu! Where's the splash?

Carmen Weins tucks her way to a "perfect 10!"

DIVER'S EXCUSES

I forgot to move the fulcrum
The water is too cold
DAHT-Divers Against Half Twists

I got lost
My coach doesn't love me!
I didn't feel it

Footloose Cross-Country

Varsity: John Finlay, Brad Cupp, Dan Cerny, Sean Robertson, Robert Wiggers, Warren Woodburry, Travis Smith, Coach Smith

Berman Mo: Have I won yet?

Girls l to r: Lisa Regul, Jann Fratis, Dawn Fisher

When was the last time you've run 8 miles? Ask this question to someone on the cross-country team and they will say, "today, and yesterday, and the day before, and so on." The fact is, running 6 to 8 miles a day is a regular workout for them. They bring to life the phrase "life in the fast lane", and they do have to run fast to stay alive. These people don't know the meaning of the words 'sidewalks' and 'crosswalks' as the drivers around Prospect have found out. Not only do they have to dodge cars, but people, dead animals, bikers, and Coach Smith (who alledgedly hides in order to catch walking team members). Why do they put themselves through this torture? It is extreme dedication to the sport of running that keeps them going and makes them the team they are.

J.V.: Berman Mo, Frederick Voltmer, Jeff Jordan, John Russell, Scott Grenier (not pict.)

These Girls "Knows" Where To Put Their Sticks!

Our Junior Varsity Prospect team did surprisingly well this year. All of the girls were determined, aggressive, and worked strenuously up to two hours a day. How many other students are willing to do this?

What could motivate these sport-loving girls to join such a physically demanding and time consuming sport? Maybe it is the little skirts that show a little too much, or maybe it is taking their blood-thirsty sticks and smacking people with malicious intent but claiming it was a mistake with an apologetic "whoops!"

What is reported in this article was not a bunch of girls clowning around, but a group of serious, spirited girls with a determined will to win. Good luck next year and keep those sticks up!

Junior Varsity

Christine Abshire, Kristen Anhorn, Lisa Civelli, Stacy Colbert, Jennifer Evans, Kathryn Griffith, Leah Hansen, Stacy Mathews, Jenny Meyer, Susan Phillips, Cheryl Sano, Belinda Spencer, Kelly Stanton

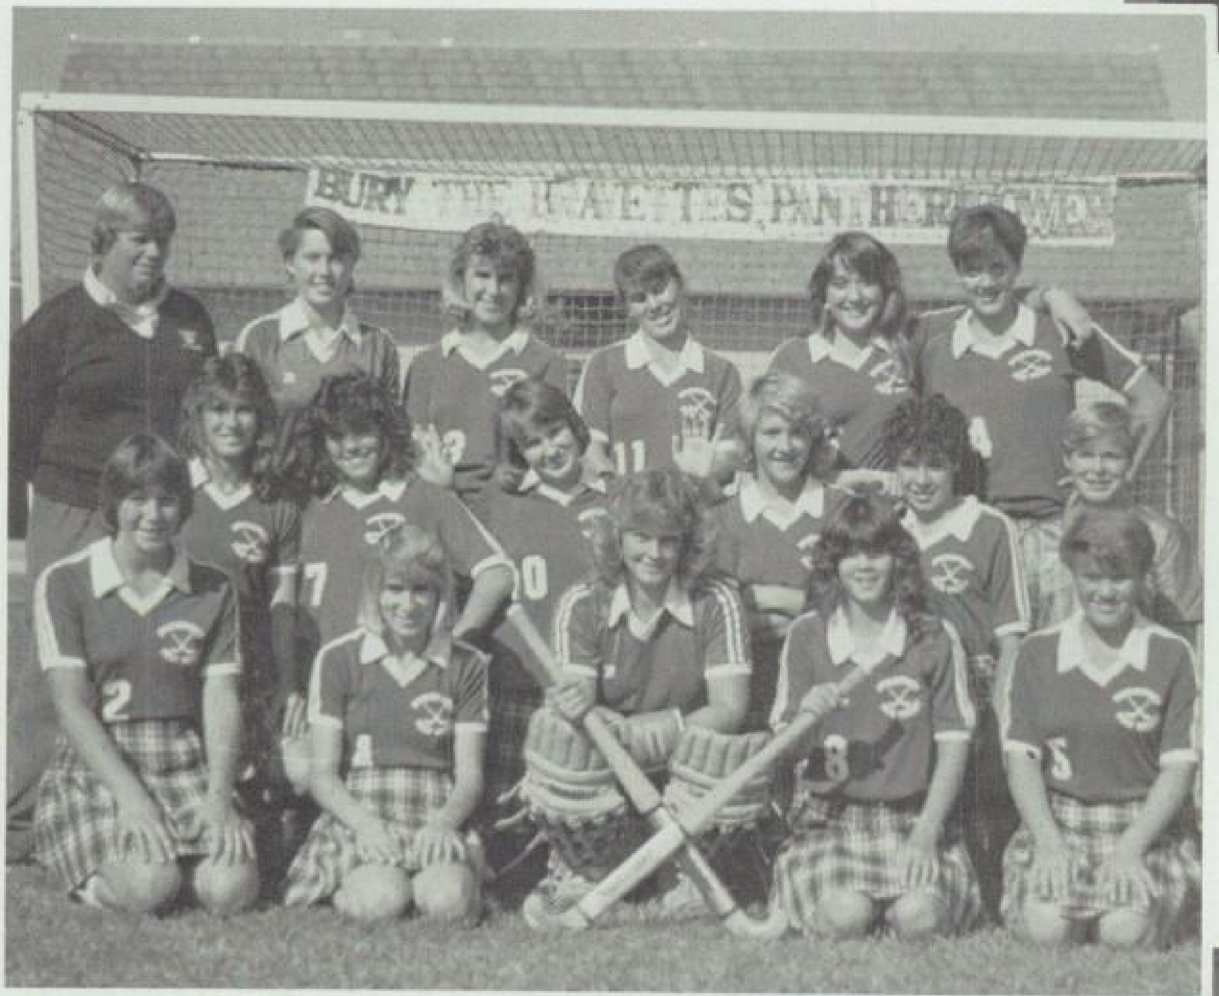
"Careful now, we wouldn't want anyone to get too excited, would we?"

"Ladies!! What are you planning to do with those sticks?"

Varsity

Shannon Bernarding gives Kristen Menefee and Lynore Abbott a lesson on proper stick position.

TALENTED-this is the best word to use when describing the 1985 Varsity Field Hockey Team. The skill level of the athletes on this squad was higher than any other in recent history. Through the leadership of Coach Sue Hunt and the positive attitudes of the players, these individuals united to become a serious contender in the WVAL, and pushed towards repeating their 1984 CCS appearance. Of course, the team did have its problems. Nancy was constantly having an identity crisis ("Hi, my name's Bunny . . ."); Wendy was always being assigned pushups for her extensive vocabulary; and Michelle R. was never seen without her skirt. Cries of "Grummit!" and "Cream of Onion Soup! Ahh!" could also be heard on the playing field. The 1985 Hockey Team will be remembered as one of Prospect's finest ever.



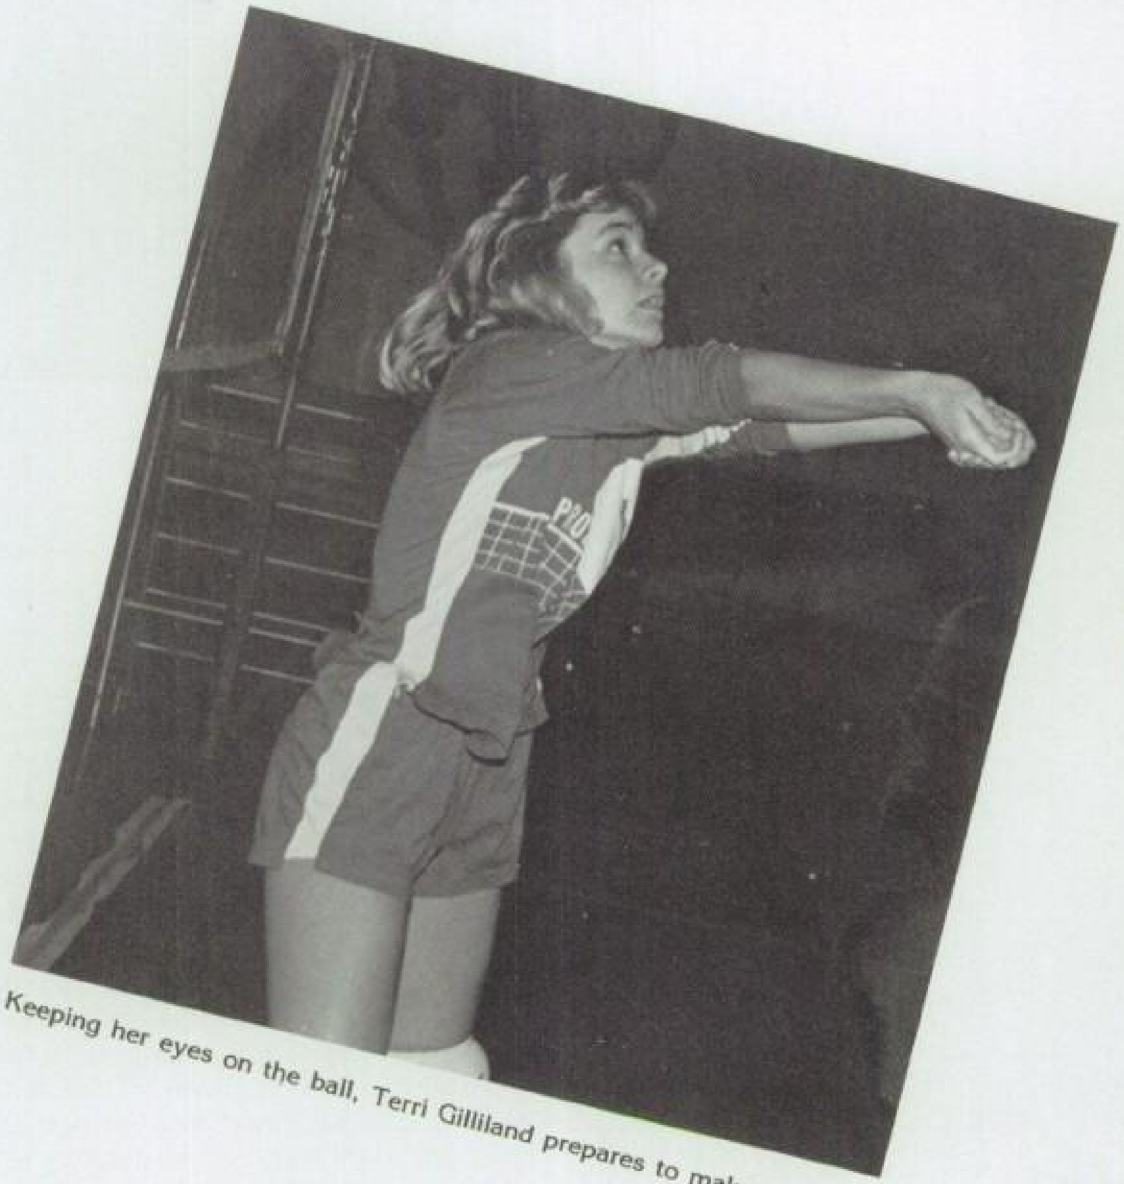
Members include: Lynore Abbott, Laurel Austad, Cathy Beedy, Shannon Bernarding, Lori Colbert, Wendy Crain, Michelle Dodd, Kim Ford, Jenny Hunt, Kristen Menefee, Michelle Rubendall, Kim Selby, Karyn Shiver, Nancy Talbot, Cindy Williams, and Marcy Wydenes.

Kim Selby uses her speed to try and steal the ball from a Mitty defender.

Jenny Hunt gives her honest opinion on Ms. Hunt's pre-game warmup drills.

Setting Up In '85

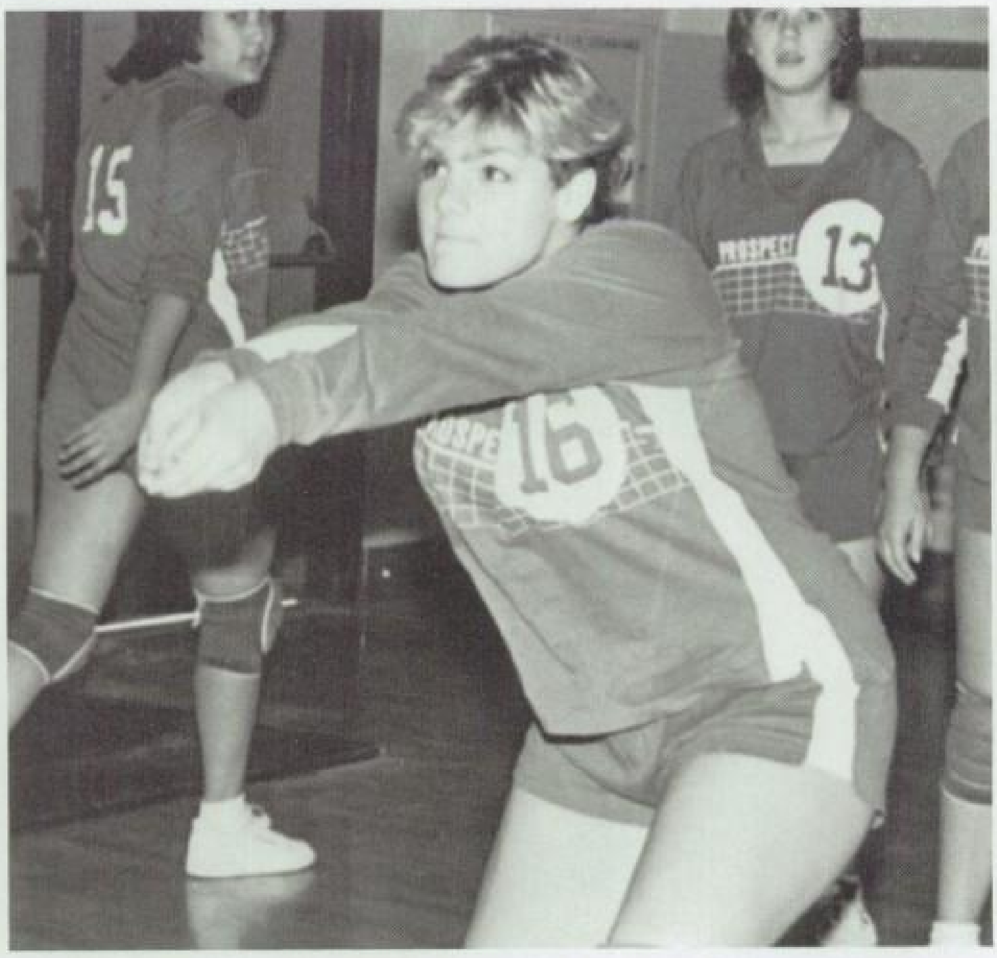
Togetherness Triumphs For JV Volleyball



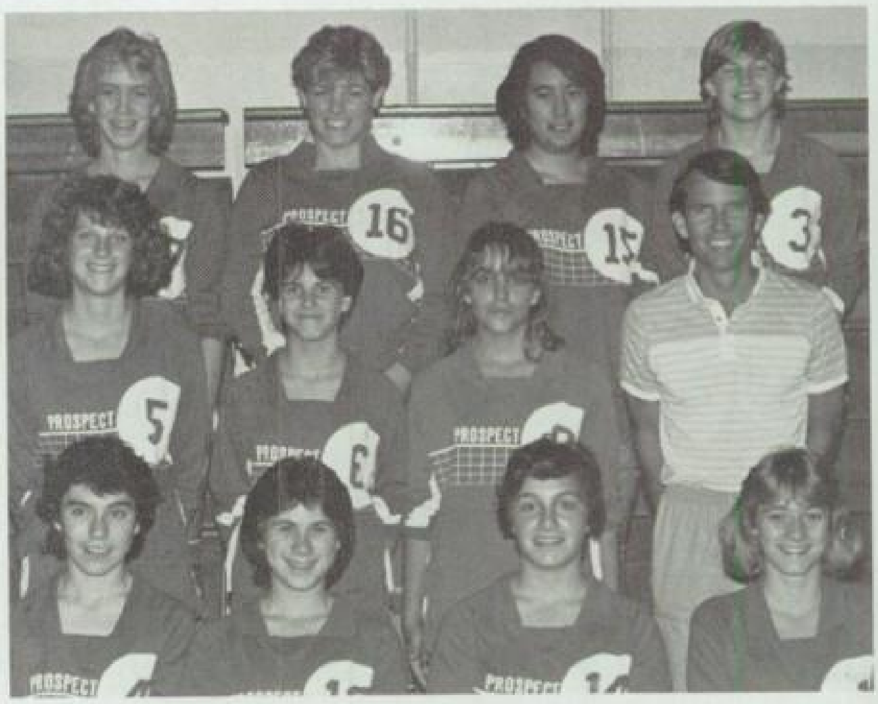
Keeping her eyes on the ball, Terri Gilliland prepares to make contact.

Waiting for the serve, a tense Jenny Nieman and Terri Gilliland.

A winning example of hard practices and devoted coaching paying off . . . dedicated to the utmost . . . undefeated in their first eight games . . . JV Volleyball! What are the reasons behind this team's success? Coach Carlson attributed it (very simply) to "a lot of talent". His experience with the team this year? "Probably one of the best JV teams I've ever coached" The players attributed their success to the closeness of the team. All in all, the season was a learning experience as well as a winning experience. Something that everyone can be proud of. Take heed Prospect, this team is truly worth noticing.



Even in warmups, these girls, especially Raeanne Burgin, are intense.



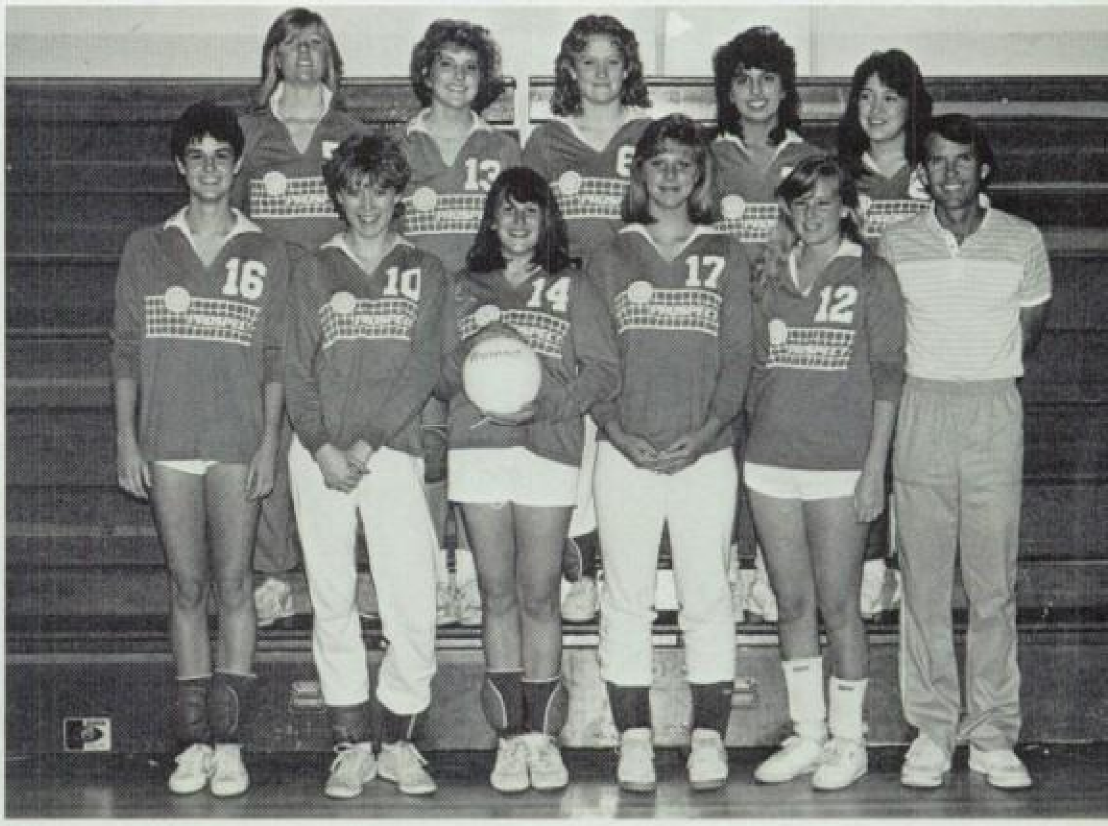
FRONT ROW: Georgina Dorkin, Jenny Contreras, Tina Enslow, Terri Gilliland, SECOND ROW: Suzie Regul, Erin Shannon, Susan Rhinehart, Coach Carlson, THIRD ROW: Christine Meyer, Taeanne Burgin, Marlene Hirose, Jenny Nieman, NOT PICTURED: Shelly Serrano

SPIKE!!!

. . . A look at the Varsity Volleyball team.

"Okay, Perry, you can take Chris out of the net now."

Laurie Cuenca enjoys jumping and hanging on the beams of the ceiling.



Front Row: Jenny Coldren, Mindy Stevens, Colleen Shannon, Marianne Depp, Laurie Cuenca, Coach Rod Carlson Back Row: Cathy Wolbrinck, Gina Bowen, Shirley Long, Rita Alam, Tammy Partlow

Rita Alam is often caught watching small aircraft above.

"I GOT IT", "MINE, MINE, MINE" were the screams of the varsity volleyball team. Unfortunately, they usually came from everybody at the same time. Although apprehensive to throw their bodies on the floor, the team was eventually diving and sprawling for those "impossible to get" spikes from the other team. The team's strong serving game make for some close matches against teams that seemed impossible to beat. The volleyball team's scorekeepers, Chris Kim and Perry Hatch are volleyball players also, and they attended practices as if they were on the team. They helped the team by showing them how to return two-hundred mile an hour spikes and how to serve like an Olympic volleyball player from Brazil. This was Coach Rod Carlson's third year coaching volleyball at Prospect, and he did an excellent job. Although not a winning season for our varsity volleyball team, it was exciting and a challenge for a group of fine athletes.

Obviously, Gina Bowen would rather be on the diving team this year.

What Does A New Ball Look Like?

Crystal Snyder and opponent. In Prospect High, friendliness always prevails.

The tennis team's two mysterious questions of the season: 1) What does a new ball look like? 2) How does it feel to win a game? The tennis season did not have an auspicious start, but as the league matches started, the girls actually experienced the thrill of playing with a ball that bounces. First astonished exclamations were, "Whoa, you mean it's not supposed to be brown?" Although a few games were lost, with the combined efforts of the girls, the team had very close matches with some tough competing teams as Leigh and Mitty. As coach Dudock remarks, "With a few points here and there, we could have had them." The Spirit of "85 must really be catchy because the team really had spirit. For the first time in Prospect tennis history, fund raisers were organized. Within 3 days, the team of 16 girls were able to raise over $500 which went to purchasing of necessities such as a cooler and uniforms. The multi-colored and polka-dotted ununiformness were finally done away with. How's that for a bunch of girls? We have class, stamina and we have got it all together.

OVERHEAD! SMASH! And Rachel Hunter wins th point!

(top row) Coach Dudock, Mimie Yoon, Rachel Hunter, Becky Davis, Carolyn Beale, Crystal Snyder, Becky Yard, Catherine Kim, (middle row) Judy Sun, Heidi Bailey Melissa Oliver, Amy Ha, Kim Andrade, (last row) Heather Chew, Stacey Dudeck, (not pictured) AnnMarie Bongiorno, Janet Weber Think Bermudas!

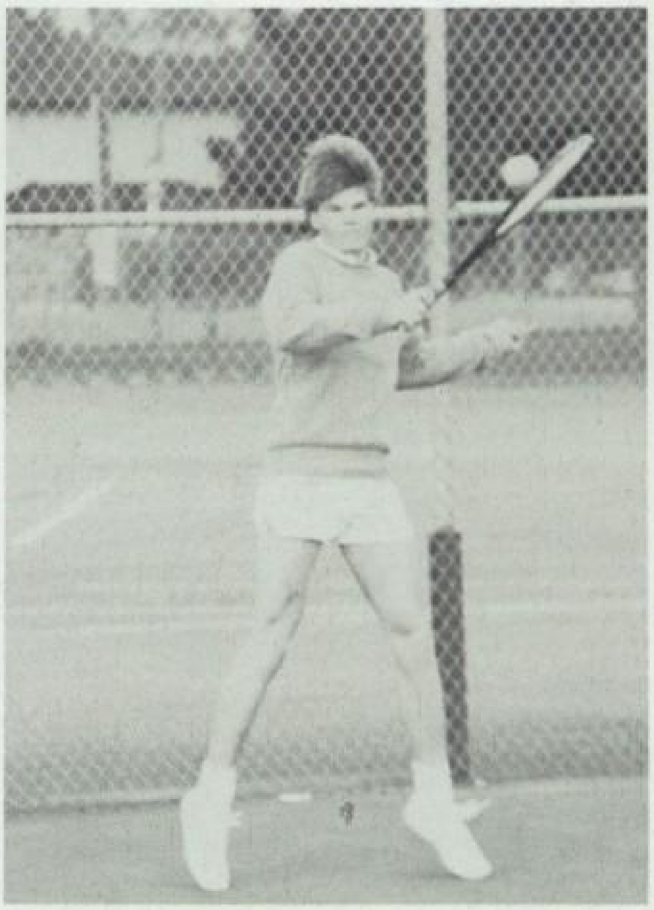
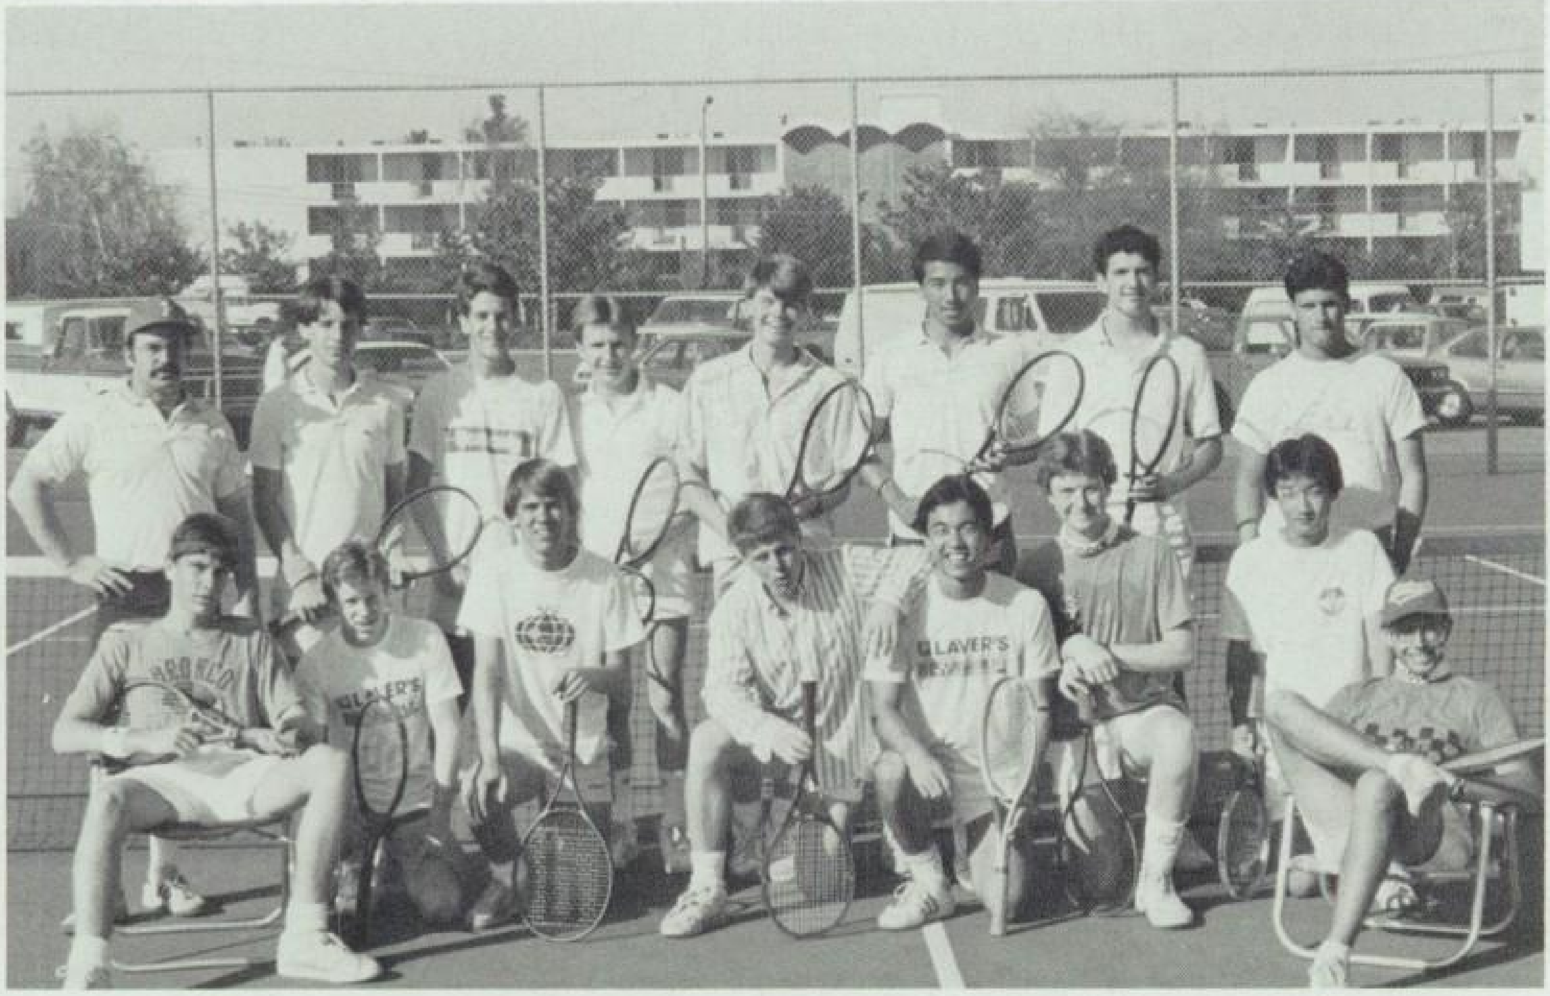
hit? A miss? Another great shot of course by John amaoto!

Bermuda shorts. What's the first the first thing that comes to your mind? The Prospect boy's tennis team of course! Comes to the matches and check some of those shorts out. Whether it be wild jungle prints or conservative white, our happy-go-lucky tennis bums wear them to every single match. Some individuals on this tennis team like our number one player John Yamamoto, should be commended. As a sophomore, he has great potential to be the best tennis player in the league. Other individuals like Scott Nickels, Mike Plate and the first doubles team deserve recognition too. But that in no way preclude the other members of the team for it wouldn't be a team without every single player. Coach Dudock comments that although they are not quite at their best. they have fun and someday, their potential will shine through. So whether it be rain or shine, when you see a bunch of guys in something that vaguely resebes Bermudas, what do you think of? Prospect boy's tennis team!



Pat Nieman — always on his toes!

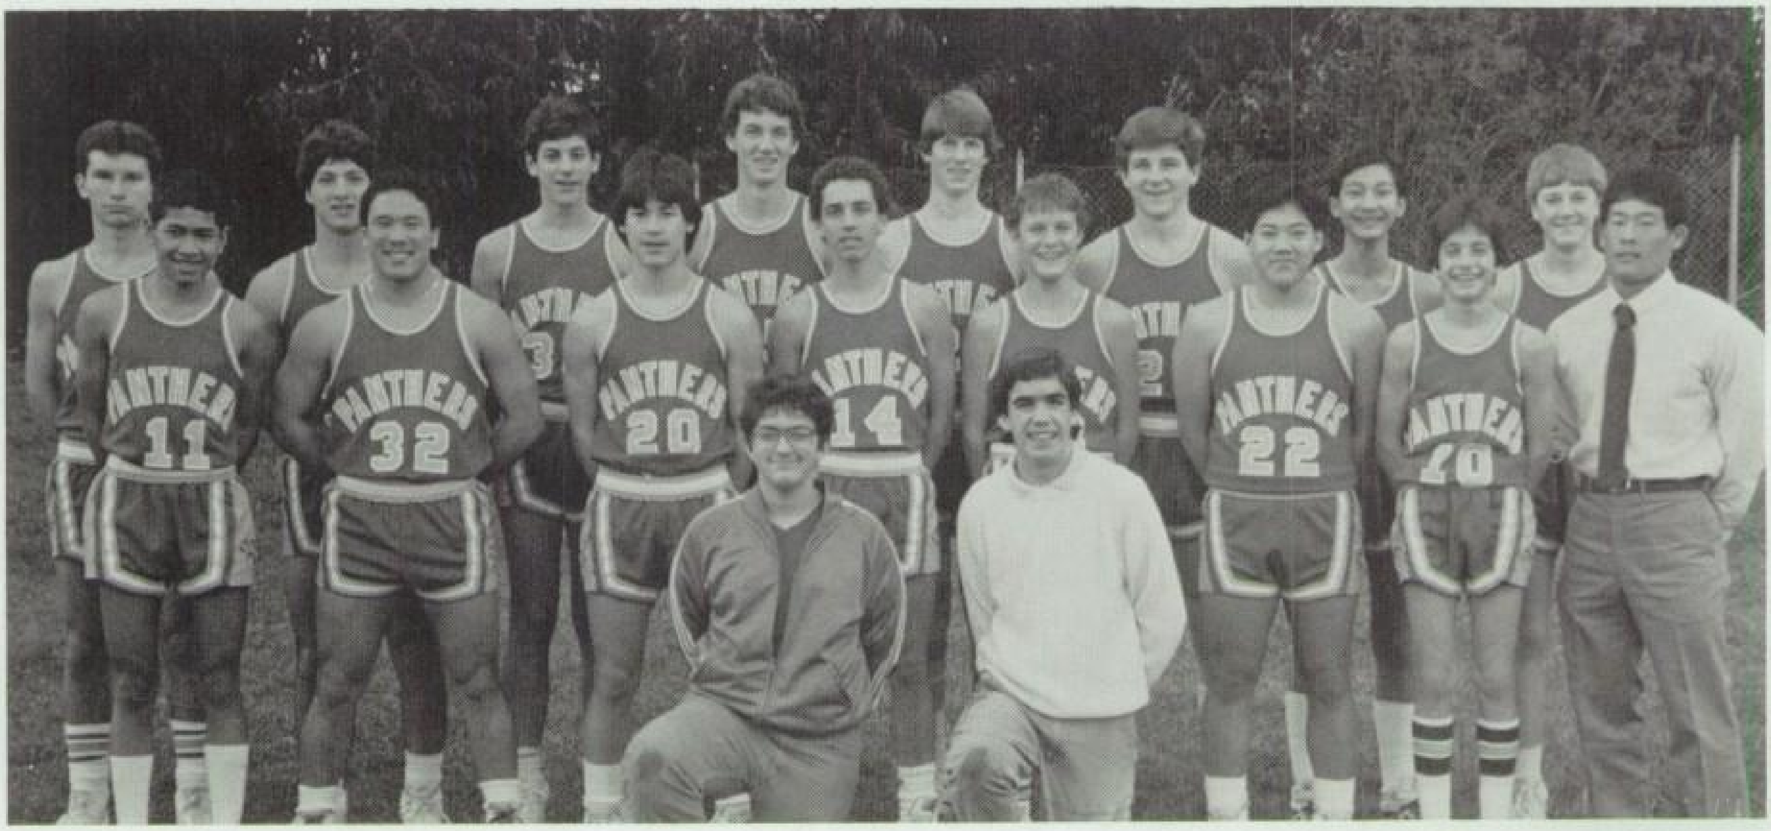


Coach Dudock, Jim Cramer, Jason Nelson, Scott Neargarder, Pat Nieman, Ricky Lau, Jeremy Karpel, Mike McRoberts, Scott Nickels, Iian Hunter, Michael Myers, Mike Plate, John Yamamoto, Troy Jenkins, Peter Ha, Kevin Robinson

Bouncing Past The Competition!!!

"And another two by rookie Greg Kenyon!!!"

"Ed Quinones sets up to block another one"

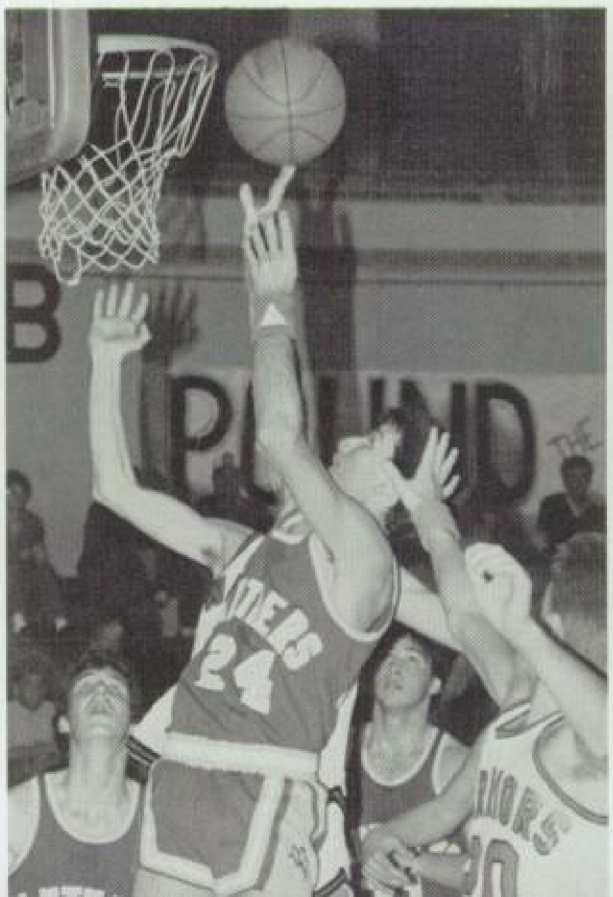


Front: Craig Kanazawa, Scott Partlow, Jeremy Scott, Greg Gallman, Craig Hiraki, Joey Bertecevich, Lee Shimoto, Back: Jeff Grillo, Ed Quinones, Greg Kenyon, Steve Smith, Erik Johnson, Alden Tanaka, Paul Carlsen.

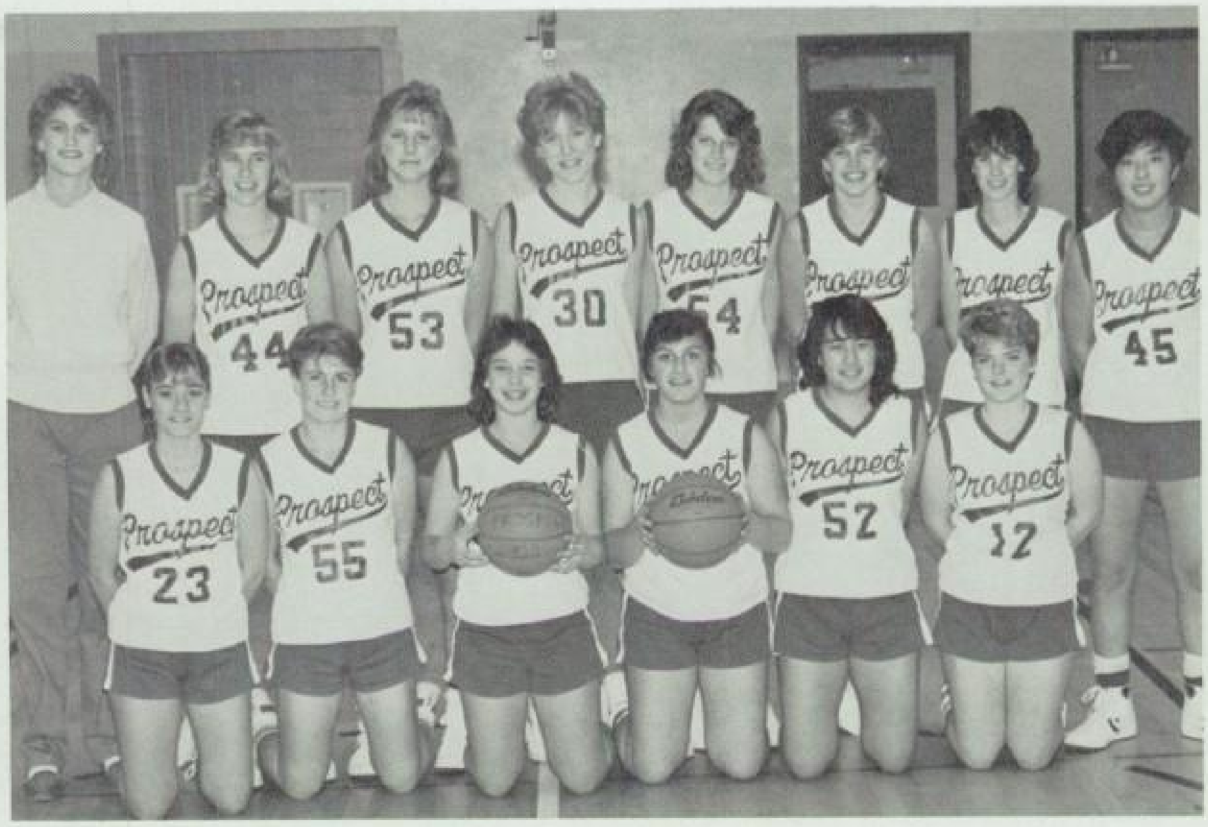
Bouncing past the competition ... This year's J.V. Boys' Basketball Team was sparked with many talented as well as devoted players. With few returning sophomores, the team relied greatly upon incoming freshman. To some this might seem scary, but the team was not disappointed. Throughout the year the team worked hard on playing together as one unit. Not only did this take a lot of skill, but a lot of grueling workouts as well. Under the guidance of Lee Shimoto, the team spent much time working on fundamentals. They practiced every day after school, including Christmas vacation and weekends. The team was characterized for their enthusiasm. Perhaps this was because they were cheered on by 13 J.V. Cheerleaders. Despite this, they were not distracted and played hard to make this season a successful one!!

"Jeff Grillo puts another one in to put Prospect out ahead"

Coach Slumoto directs the team to another victory.



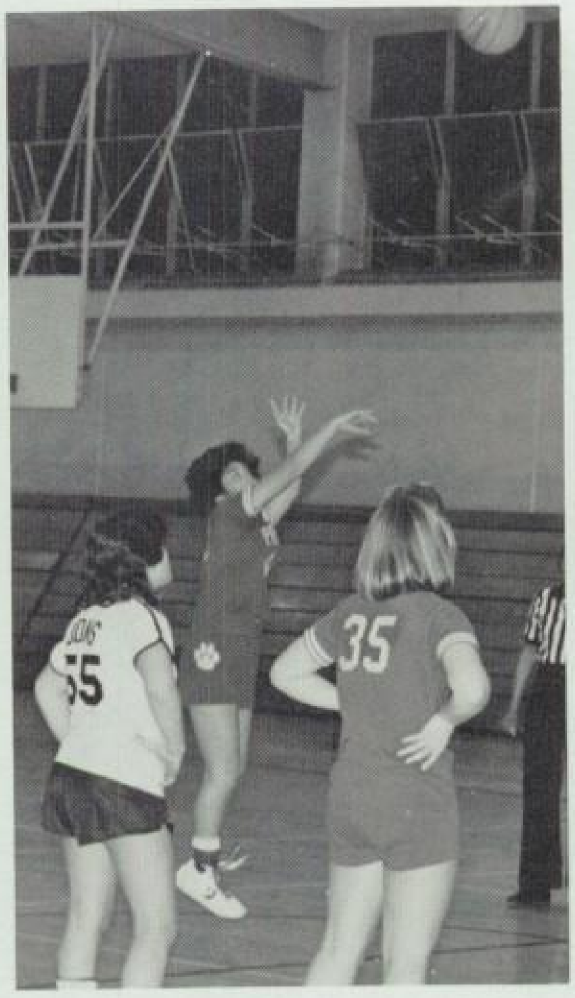
Two Points!



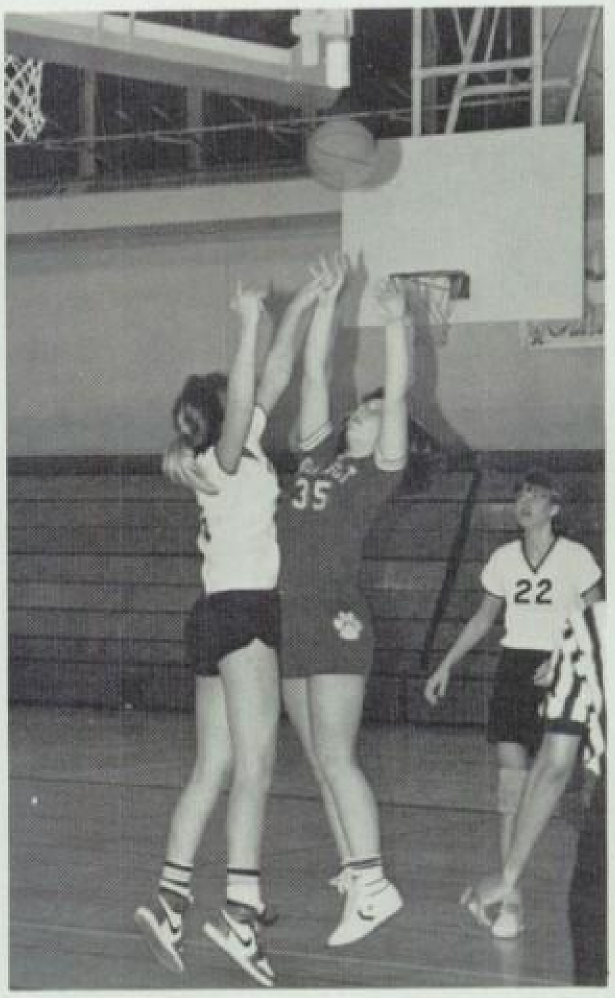
Members include: Coach Ingrid Schumacher, Liz Lambourne, Maryann Depp, Mindy Stevens, Suzy Regul, Jenny Nieman, Kelly Stanton, Kathy Kim, Terry Gilliland, Rachel Hunter, Shelly Serrano, Tina Enslow, Marlene Hirose, Tricia Peterson.

This year's girls' J.V. basketball team had an exciting season. In pre-season play they had an impressive win against Oak Grove and proved that they were ready to compete. The team was made up mostly of sophomores, with only three freshmen and two juniors. The team's heights varied greatly with the tallest being 6'0" and the shortest 5'3". The girls grew though, not in height, but in spirit as the season progressed. The team got a new coach this year, Ingrid "Iggy" Schumacher. The girls were inspired by their young coach and practiced hard, including doing sprints until their legs fell off. Their hard work eventually showed up on the scoreboard and led our J.V. basketball team to a successful season.

#54-the girl with the hair that defies gravity.

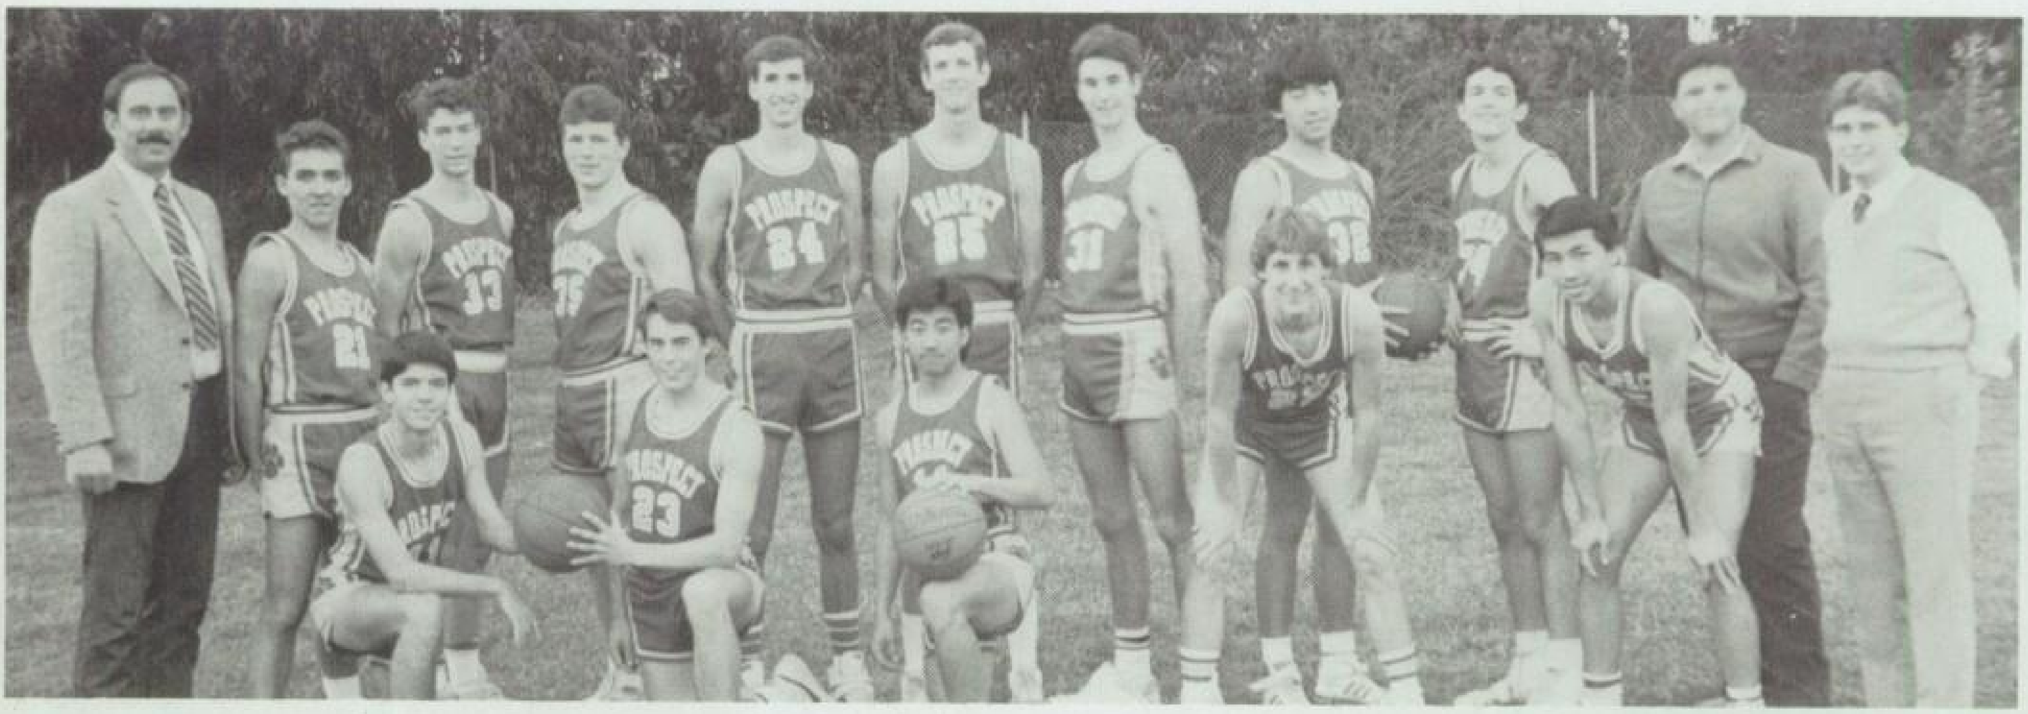


Kathy Kim is always reaching new heights.



Gimme the ball! It's MINE!

Shooting-For The Top Boy's Varsity Basketball



Left to right: Front Row- Robbie Wojtkowski, Kevin Phillips, Evan Suzuki, Matt Morris Back Row- Ed Marcos (Coach), Manny Alferez, Brett A., Dean Witkin, Kirk Wright, Shawn Mason, Kevin Temple, Ken Wong, Jeremy Karpel, Ricky Lau, Jack Kalpakian (Scorer), Doug Gabbard (Stats) Not Shown-Ted Rallis (Scorer)

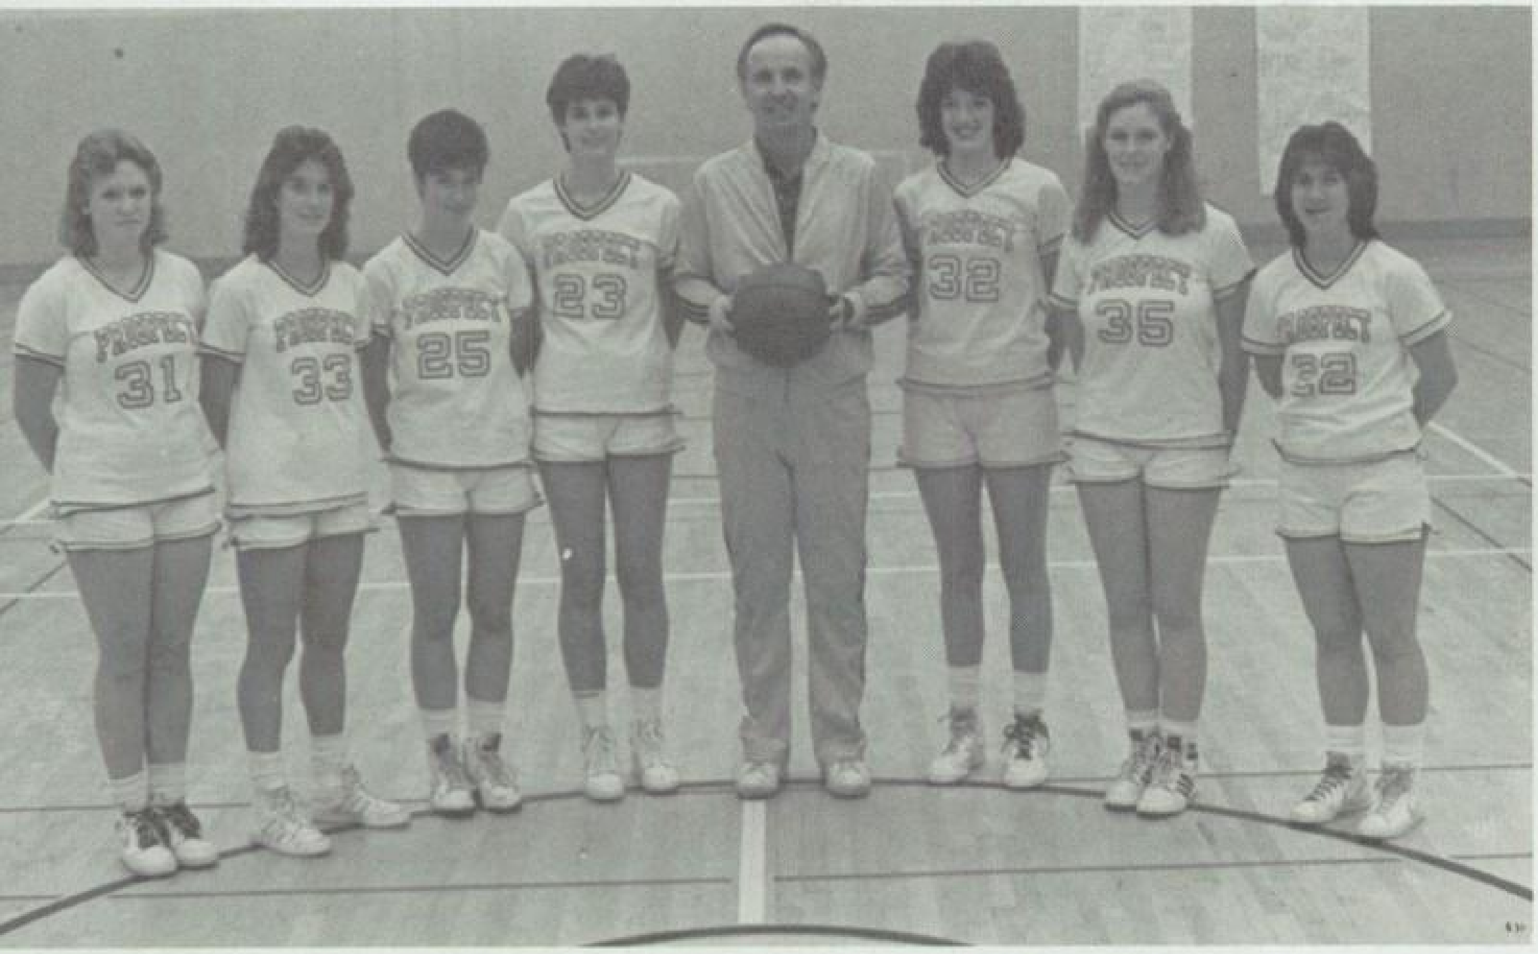
What is 79.25 feet tall, weighs 2120 pounds, has 13 pairs of long talented arms, and shoot baskets? No, it's not a mutant monster from space on a mission to destroy the Easter Bunny. It is Prospect's 1986 Varsity Basketball Team, possibly the best team ever. Coached by the "ominous" Ed Marcos, the Panthers had their best start ever this season. It seems things are finally bouncing into place for the team. The dedication of these players is self-evident. Morning pre-season games and afternoon practices followed by individual practice were all preparations for a season of 12 league games. According to the players, the team's success came about because "we try more", "we've got our starting five back", "we've got good height and a strong bench". Called the "basketball coach of the eighties" by some of his players, Ed Marcos has his own explanations. "The kids are beginning to play basketball together. When you have to chase the kids out of the gym with a stick, that's when you have basketball players. Coaching is an extreme pleasure for me. It takes a lot of time and tremendous effort, but the rewards are worth the effort. These are the nicest group of kids in the world."

Kirk Wright faces "the ball".

Coach Marcos giving the all-important half time talk to the team.

Dean Witkin with "stressed" written all over his face.

Burly Women B-Ball



Left to right: Shirly Long, Kim Selby, Chimene Hickey, Jenny Coldren, Coach Kuhn, Mindy Wright, Shannon Hickey, Jenny Contreras, Also Colleen Devlin

Roadrunner racks!

Lefty lays it up right!

Mindy takes it off the rim

Kim's specialty!

Panther Power!

There goes the Lefty, starting the game off with her great shot. The roadrunner never ceases to entertain and audience as she dodge the presistent defenders in the last exciting seconds of the game.

Weeny and Mindy join forces to dominate the boards and Froggie contributes to the effort with her sweet shot. Not to leave out Scooter and the two firy Reds!

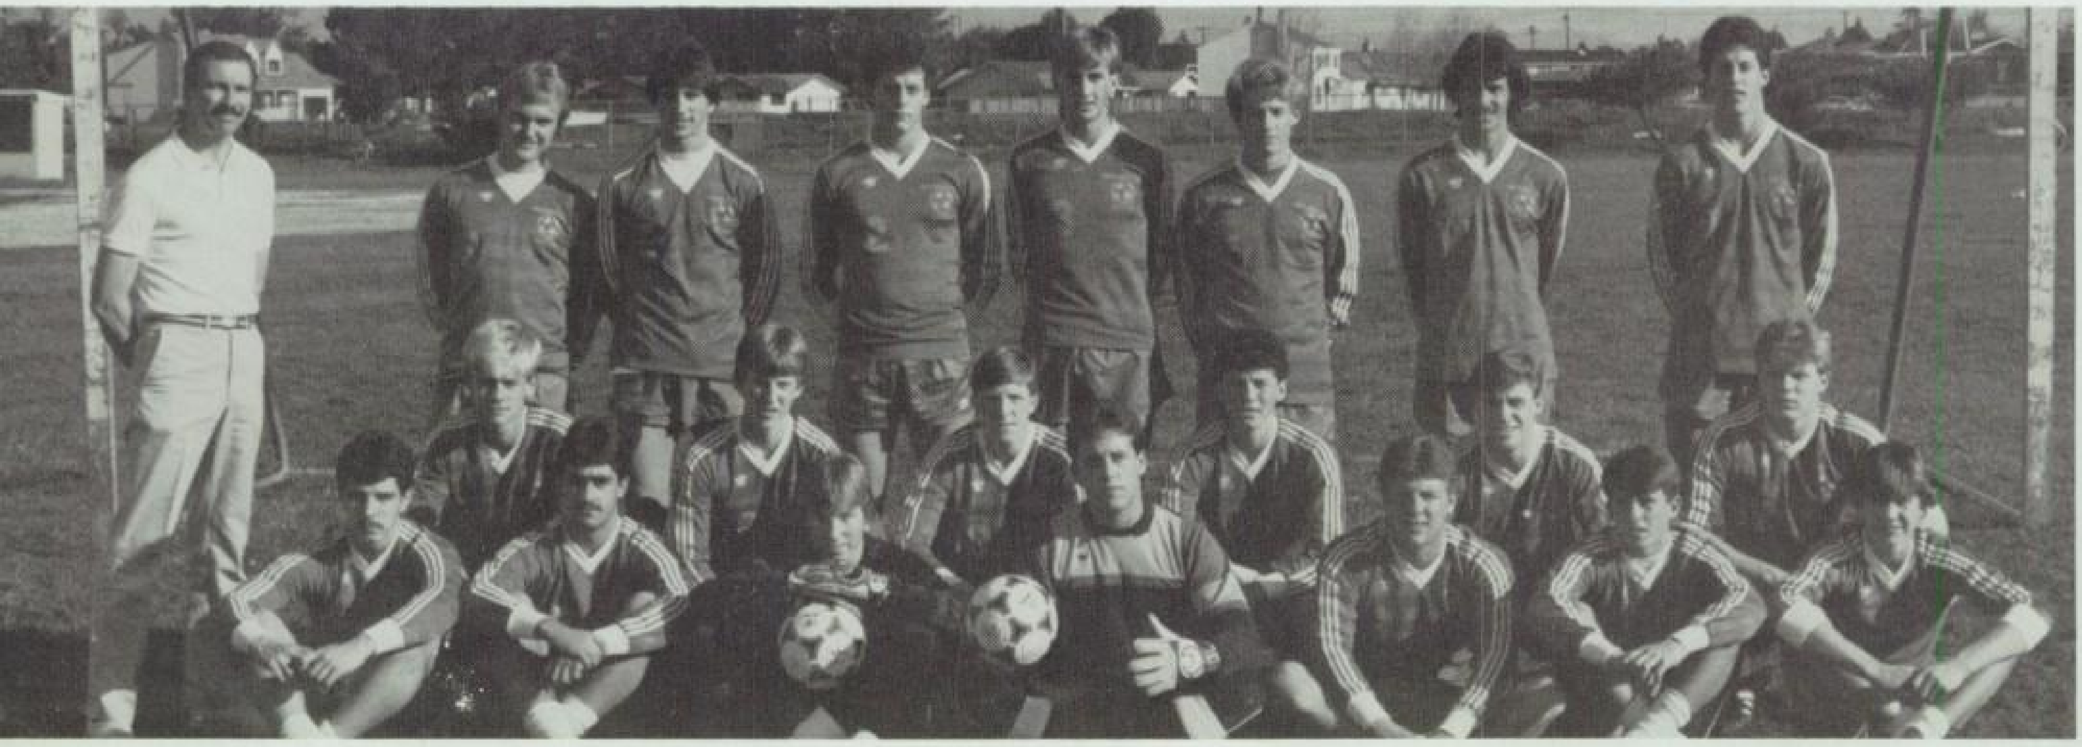
These are the girls who made up this year's Prospect Girl's Varsity Basketball Team. Although our team was young, consisting of mostly sophomores, we had a surprisingly good season, with the usual exciting ups (like beating Los Gatos) and some dissapointing downs.

With the help of Mrs. Hickey, the girls learned to apply the technique of Guided Imagery to enhance their basketball skills.

As the team matures, and with Coach Kun's guidance, we can be sure to look forward to the Prospect Girl's Varsity team dominating the league in the years ahead.

Hit the letters, Weeny!

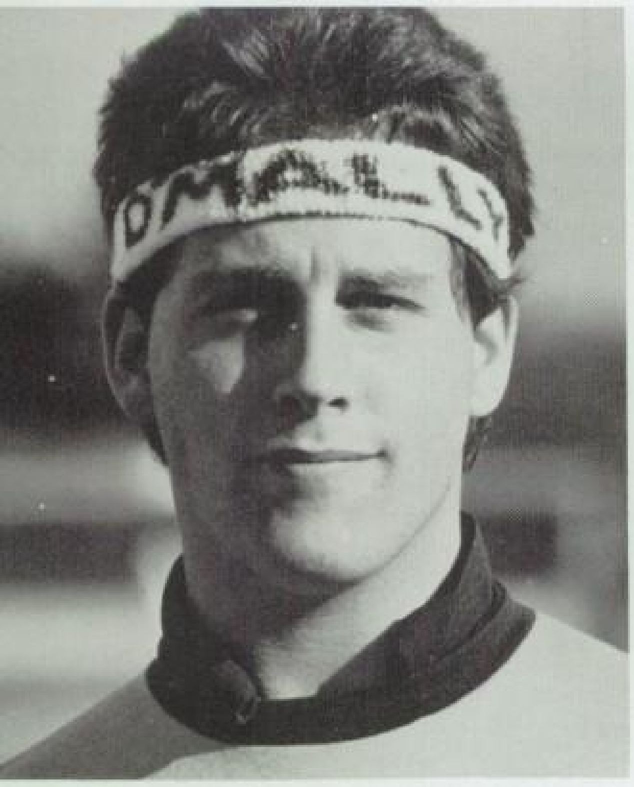
Boys' Soccer Puts Their Best Foot Forward



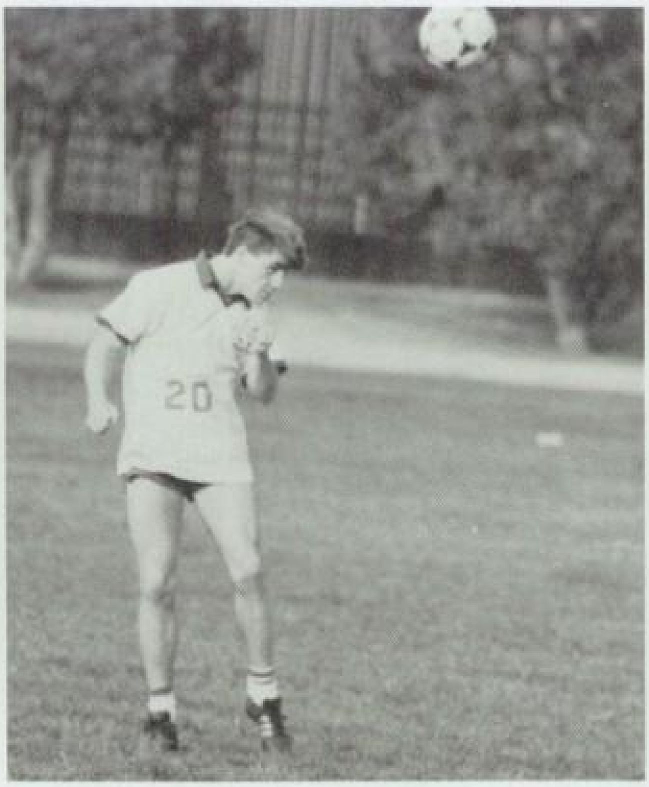
Top row: Andy Gow, Steve Bosco, Greg Beedy, Scott Stang, Mike Avery, Mark Perdue, Dan Beedy; Middle row: Travis Smith, Dan Moritsch, Glen Cureton, Warren Woodbury, Sean Voorhes, Olaf Bodecker; Bottom row: Andy Pittaluga, Ray Frendian, Craig Drysdale, Will Johanson, Tim Anhorn, Sean Wilson, Chris Von Pohle

". . . Go guys, don't let up!", cried Coach O'Malley from the sidelines, and that's exactly what this year's soccer team did. Soccer balls went streaming through the air; bodies kept popping up across the field; and knees were kicking all around; but, the Prospect Soccer Team continued to play outstanding games. Once again Prospect's Soccer Team consisted of much talent and enthusiasm. These boys dedicated much of their time to their sport, which required many hours of hard work. This hard work meant afternoons spent with drill after drill. Each day after school these Prospect boys had soccer on their minds; whether it was playing a game or just practicing hard in preparation for success. And thus these boys proved their supremacy come game day throughout their season.

Sean "charges" ahead!



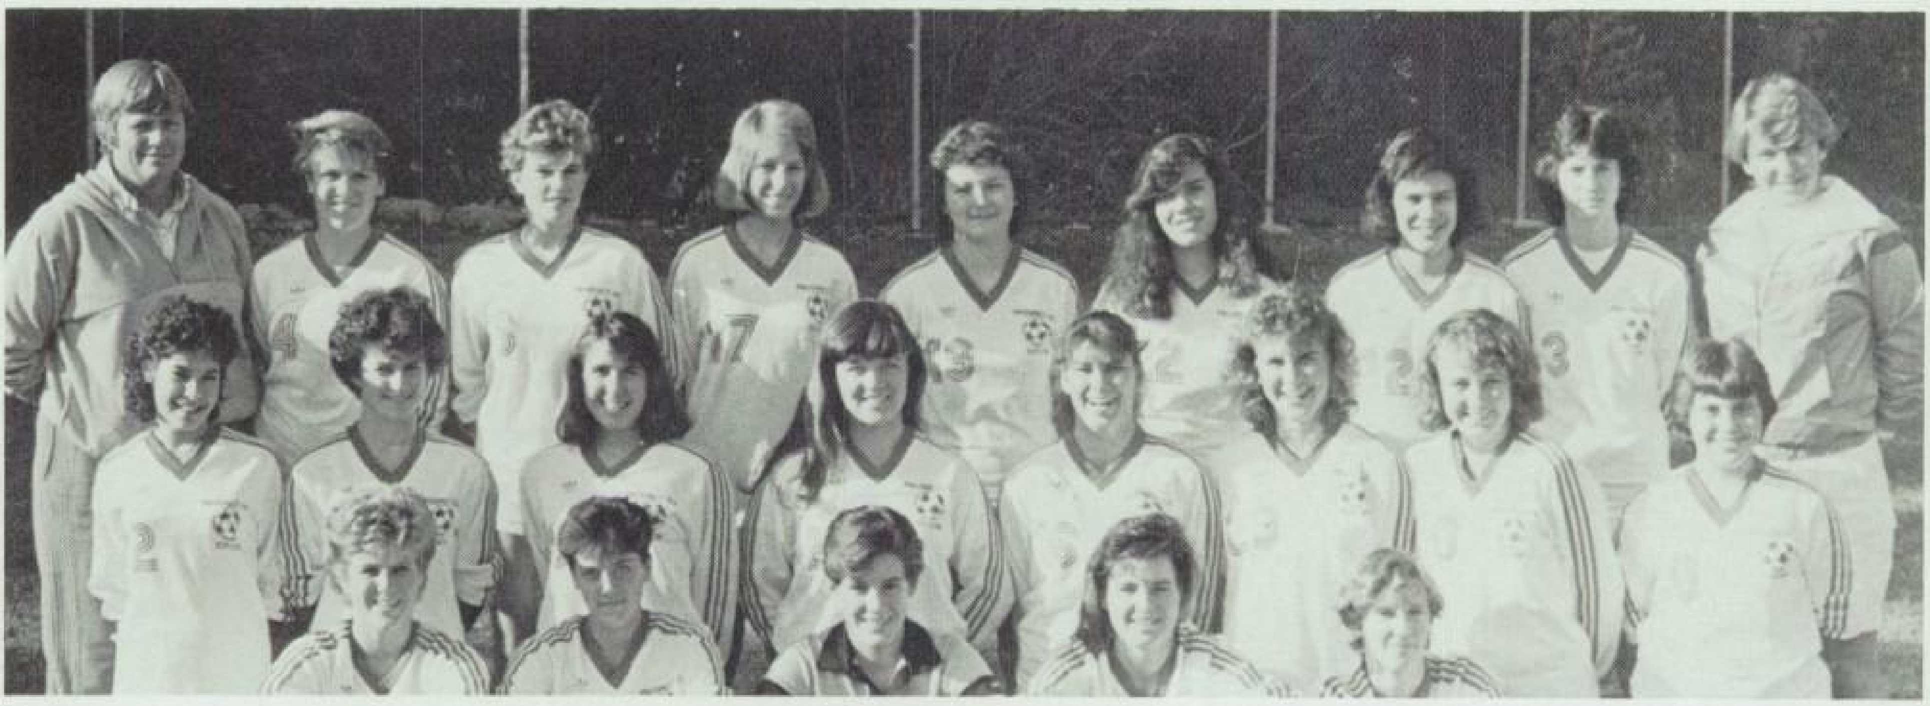
"Is it McMahan? No it's Will Johansen!"



Sean heads the soccer-ball "smurf-style"!

"Don't be scared Andy!"

Our Winning Team
A Kick Ahead Of The Rest



TOP ROW Coach Sue Hunt, M. Wydenes, A. Law, N. Swanson, L. Valasco, D. Contreras, M. Johnson, A. Rizzi, K. Smith, MIDDLE ROW M. Dodd, R. McGill, S. Phillips, C. Weins, M. Rubendall, S. Bernarding, N. Talbot, J. Meyer, BOTTOM ROW K. Anhorn, C. Beedy, S. Wall, L. Wellington, B. Ballard

"This is great!" exclaimed this years soccer team through their moans and groans of agony and through a shuffle of deadly flying legs. "We can win! We can win," could also be heard from Coach Sue Hunt as she bit her lips to rawness and grinded her teeth to stubs. No need to worry though, this years soccer team turned out to be one of the best ever. These fast playing blood-thirsty girls put in a lot of spirit and effort into the sport. Two to three hours of practice each day was needed to turn out on top. But, all these girls were greatly rewarded with hard-earned wins and self-achievement. Which is just a couple of things needed to become a strong-minded and powerful athlete. For next years' determined athletes, hold those heads high and keep that Prospect Spirit going.

"This one's MINE!"

"Are those seagulls flying over again?"

The right way to do it . . .

Doubles in action!

And the wrong way to do it.

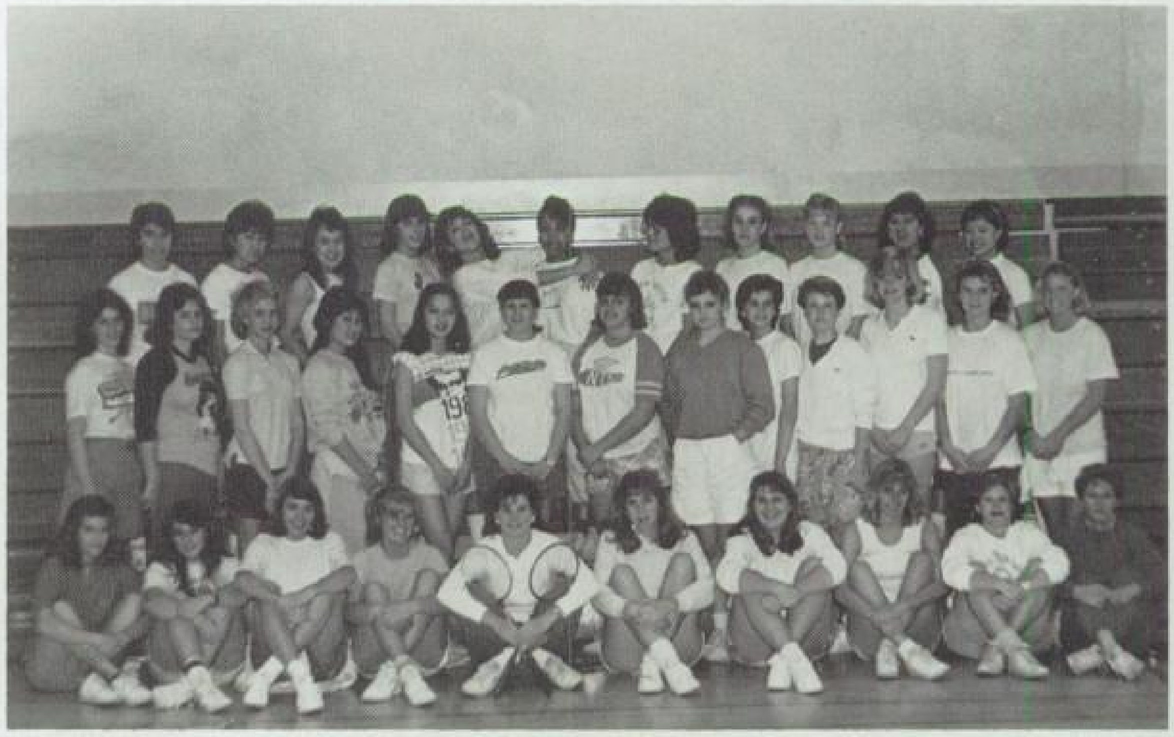
Coach Waterman shows how it's done.

Watch the birdie!

Badminton

Definitely Not A Wimpy Sport

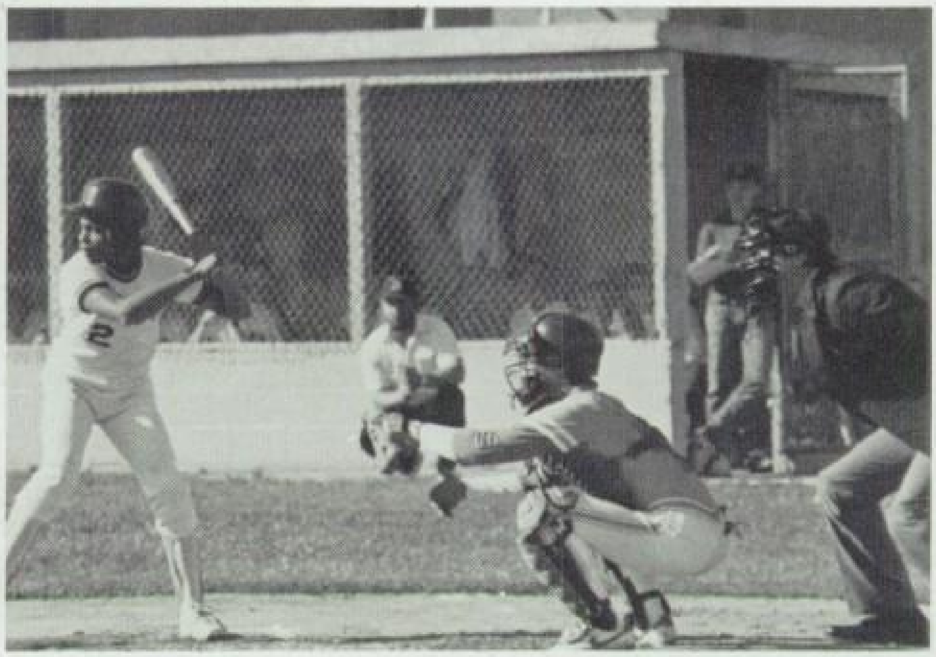
"Slam that birdie!" No, this isn't World Championship Chicken Wrestling; it's badminton. In this high-speed game, skill, coordination, and strength come together to create a very exciting sport. This year's team, led by coach Waterman, was out for blood, seeking to regain their lost title of #1 (which they kept for eight years until Westmont stole it last year). Although the team lost many of last year's pros, the returning players, plus many new faces, proved to be a strong team. Their screams of "Go!", "Side!", and "NO!!" could be heard throughout the spring months as they dinked, cleared, and slammed their way through matches. But let us not forget the 45 minutes of conditioning, calasthenics, and jogging before practice everyday (inside, of course, to get used to the atmosphere). How did we learn so much about this year's badminton team? A little birdie told us . . .



Top Row: G. Dorkin, A. Ha, T. Partlow, R. McCormick, K. Longona, J. Harris, O. Fojas, B. Davis, S. Dudek, M. Moreno, L. Sun. Middle Row: C. Lund, J. Lundgren, C. Meyer, S. Nakamitsu, L. Ha, K. Enslow, M. Talbot, E. Shannon, R. Hunter, K. Hanson, C. Beale, C. Snyder. Bottom row: T. Lang, C. Williams, J. Evans, J. Whittlesey, L. Wellington, L. Babb, D. Erickson, K. Randall, J. Hunt, Coach S. Waterman. Not shown: K. Fernandes

Bat + Ball = Bang

Partlow showing us his best side.



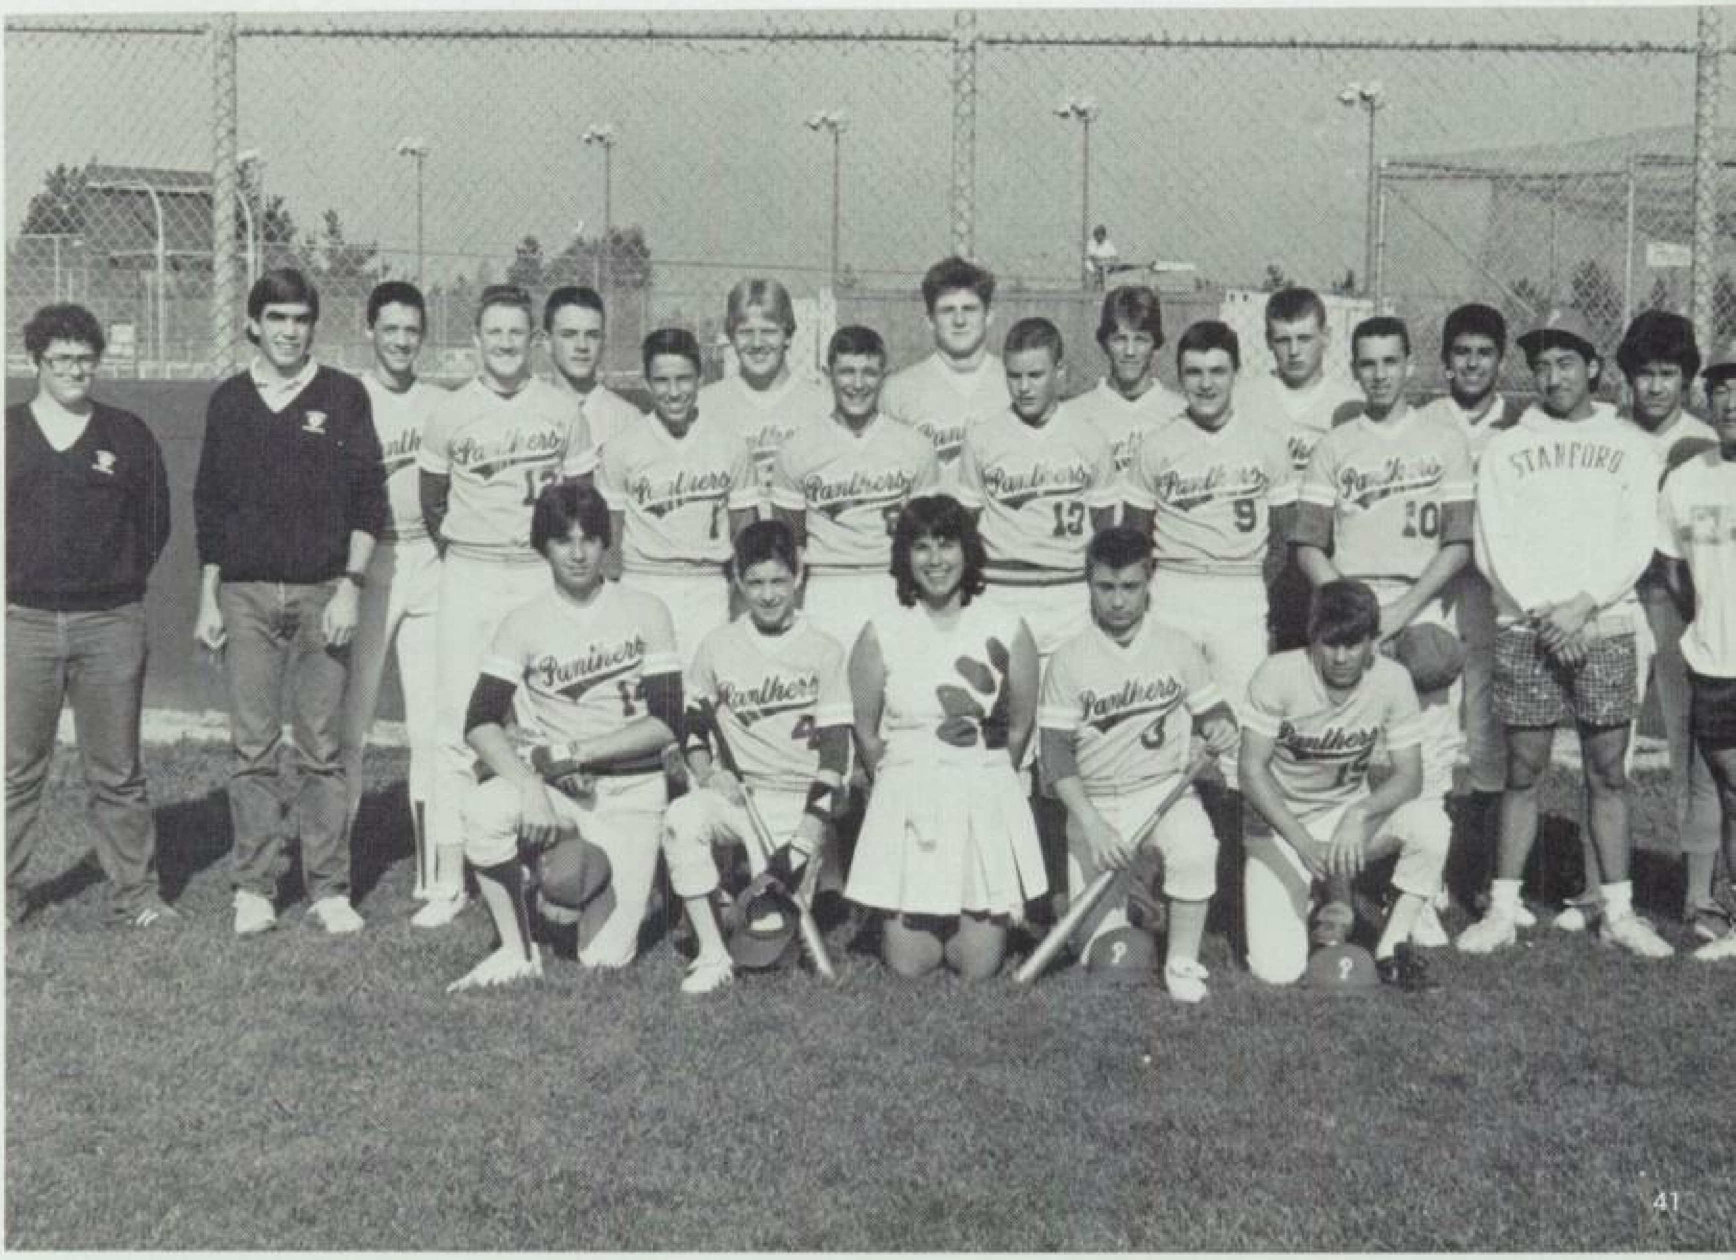
Scott Partlow and company: Heading in the right direction.

JV Baseball

Come on, buddy! Good eye, now! Nice out. Keep it level! Cheers, wolf-whistles, and roars of encouragement from fellow teammates flooded the batter's ears as he faced the oncoming pitch . . . this is a scene from: Prospect's 1986 J.V. Baseball team.

There were seventeen players, three statisticians, a coach, and a co-coach on this year's mega-awesome squad. This wasn't another soap opera where the performers fake emotions. This was a prime-time drama with real sweat, tears of joy, anger, frustration, and genuine whoops of laughter. The team, with good cooperation, caught all the advice, drills, tips, and lectures that Coach Shimoto pitched 'em. These guys might have hit a few downfalls, but they weren't bothered by it. They just kept hamming it up, and sprinting towards home-plate.

"Psyche them out, Jeremy!"



Statisticians, at left: Ted Rallis and Mike Montgomery. Top row, left to right: Brain Asselin, Jeff DeClue, Steve Price, Erik Johnson, Sean Dinsmore, Paul Banfield, Brain Ritchie, Scott Partlow. Middle row: Paul Carlson, Scott Grenier, Jason Thomson, Greg Gallmann, Bjorn Isaachsen, Jeremy Scott, Evan Suzuki, Coach Shimoto. Bottom row: John Farnetti, Joey Berticevich, Sharon Ritchie (Mascot), John Souza, and Sean Wilson.

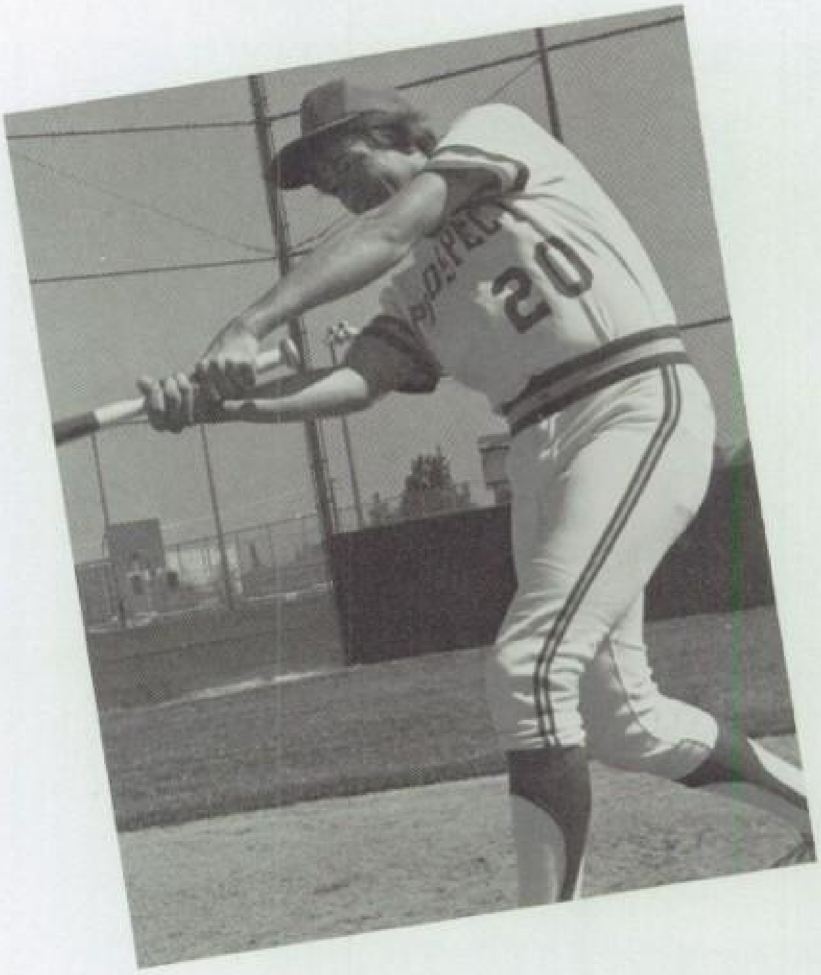
Crack!!! . . .

An inexperienced but enthusiastic varsity team took the field this year hoping to reach the coveted CCS playoffs. With thirteen of the sixteen players either sophomores or juniors, Coach Schembri's squad had a formidable task.

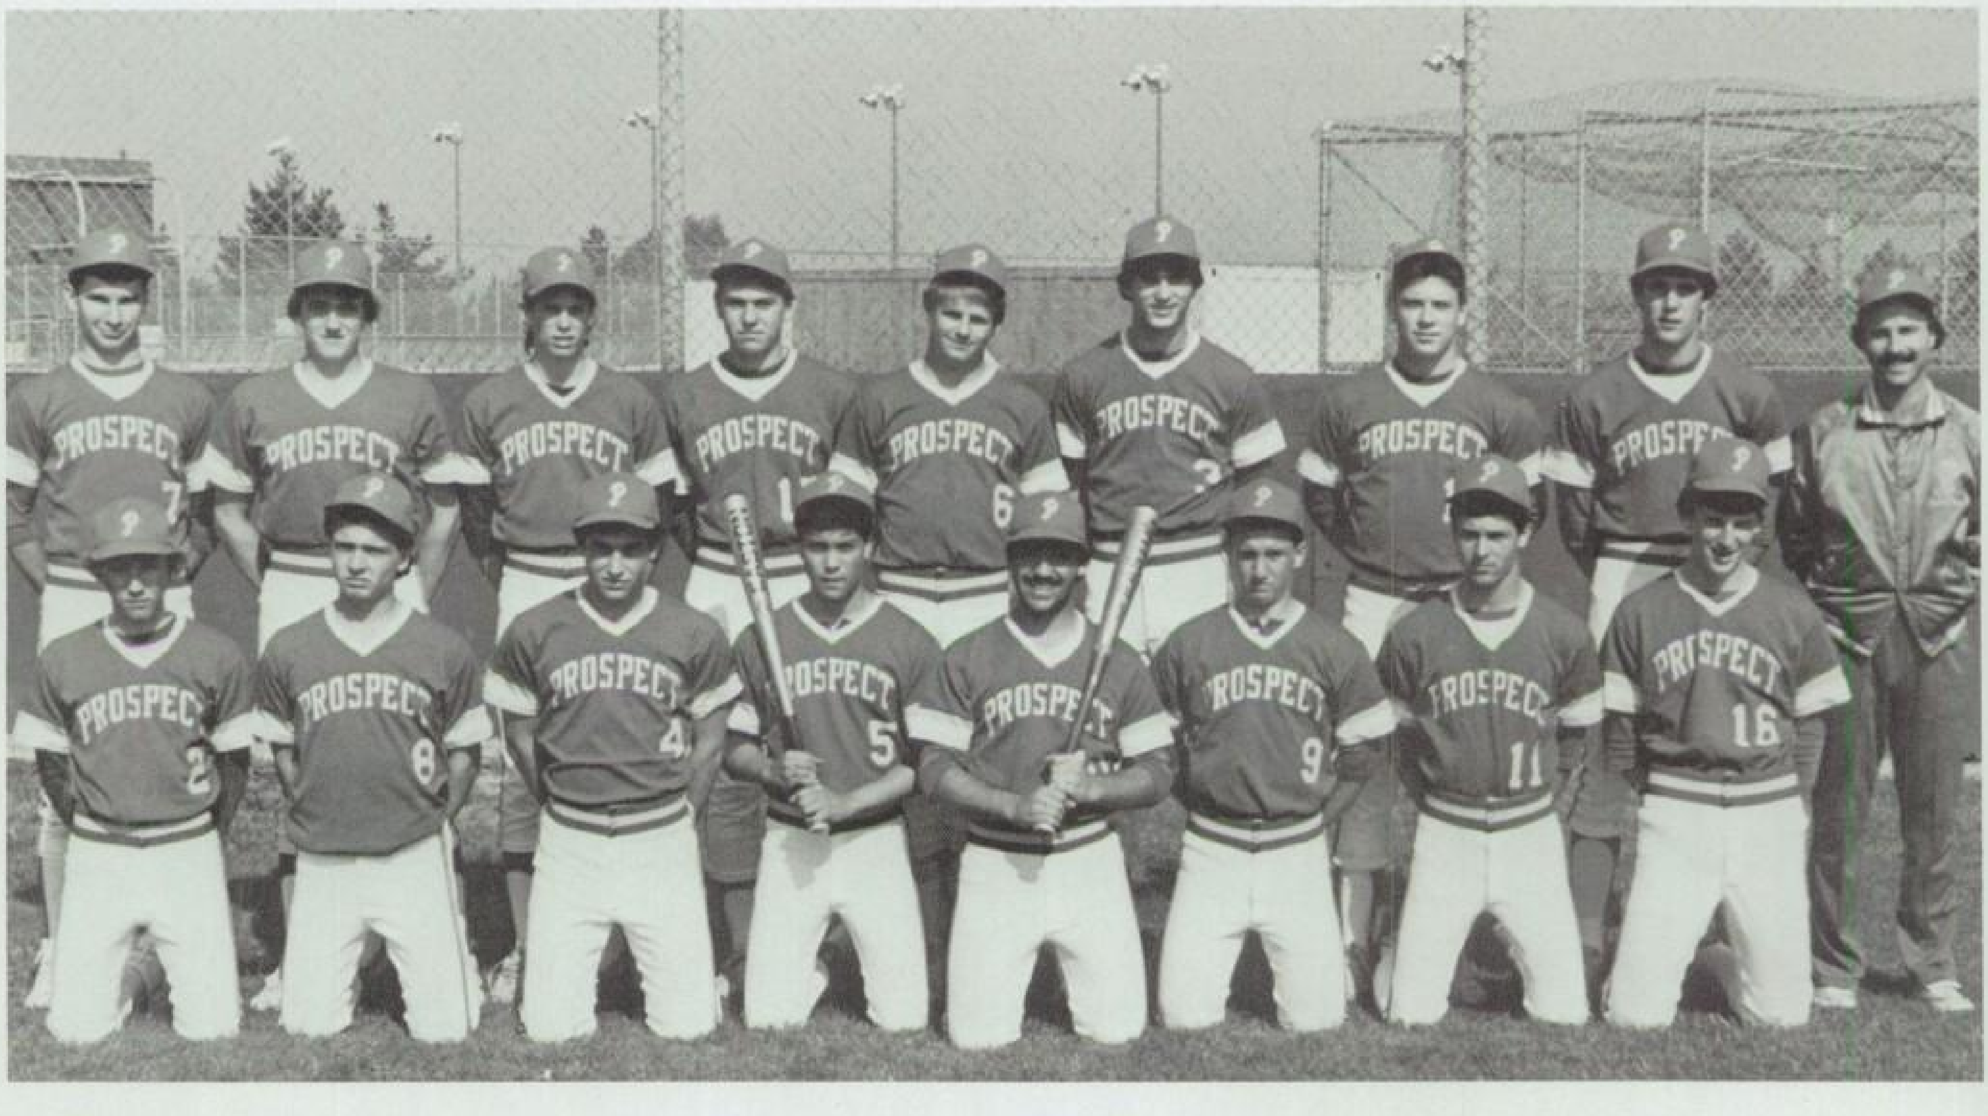
However, this mission was to be made easier because of the leadership of three seniors. Catcher Troy Archuleta's quiet demeanor helped settle a young pitching staff. Senior pitcher J.P. Wolfe, the lone senior pitcher on the team, helped give the other young pitchers a superior role model. As one of three team captains, J.P. exhibited the qualities Coach Schembri strives for: intensity, confidence, and the willingness to work hard to attain your goal. Senior Captain Steve Bosco rounded out the group of seniors. As a two time first-team all WVAI outfielder, Steve's athletic skills were without question. However, much like J.P., Steve's most important contributions were his leadership and willingness to be a team leader on this young squad.

Junior first baseman and captain Monte Bippus was the leader of "the youngsters," along with shortstop, Ron McGrane. As a second team all-league player, Monte held the respect of the younger players. His work ethic and sincerity were vital in helping this young team develop. Bill Solma, Brad Taylor, Jason Gary, James Fernandez, Lee Stuart, and John Ashworth lead a group of talented players from last year's F/S Championship team. Newcomers Sean Robinson, Jon Kissane, and Eddie Reilly helped to add enthusiasm and dedication. The squad was complete with the addition of two sophomores, Jeff Grillo and Dan Moritsch, who brought two fine young pitching arms that were a definite help in molding this year's young staff.

The goal was a simple one. Coach Schembri's squad set their sights on reaching the CCS. The team was young but talented. Only time would tell.

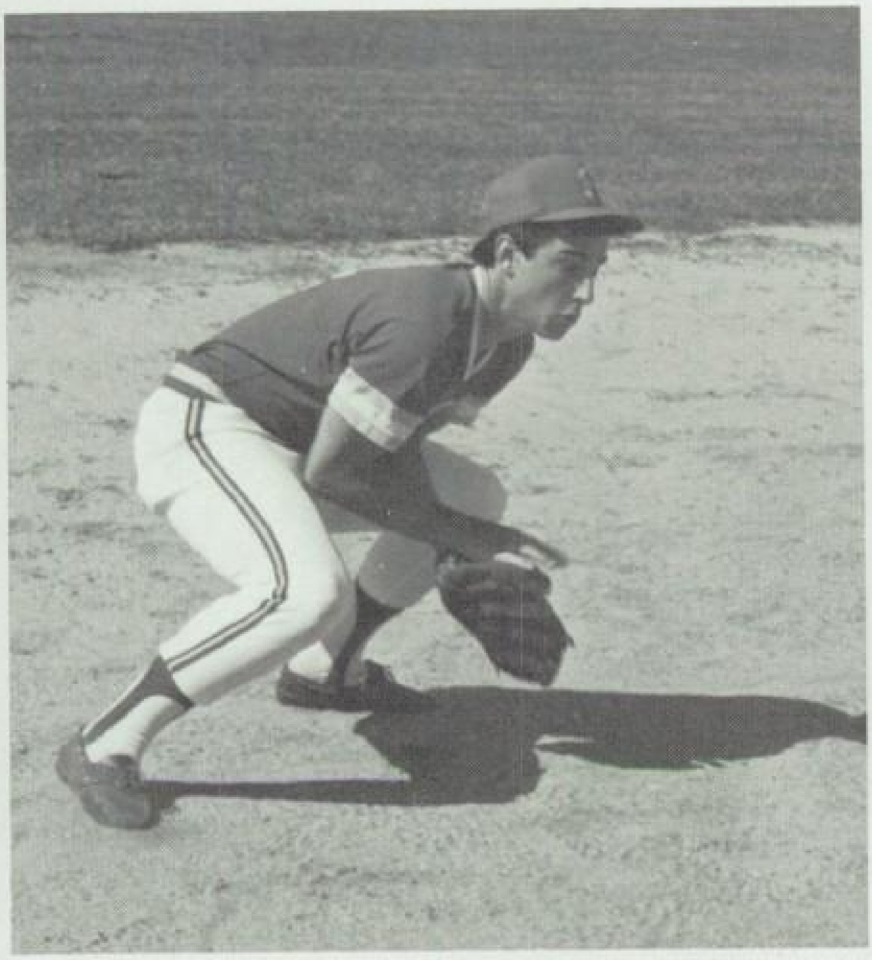


Troy Archuleta, all cracked up.

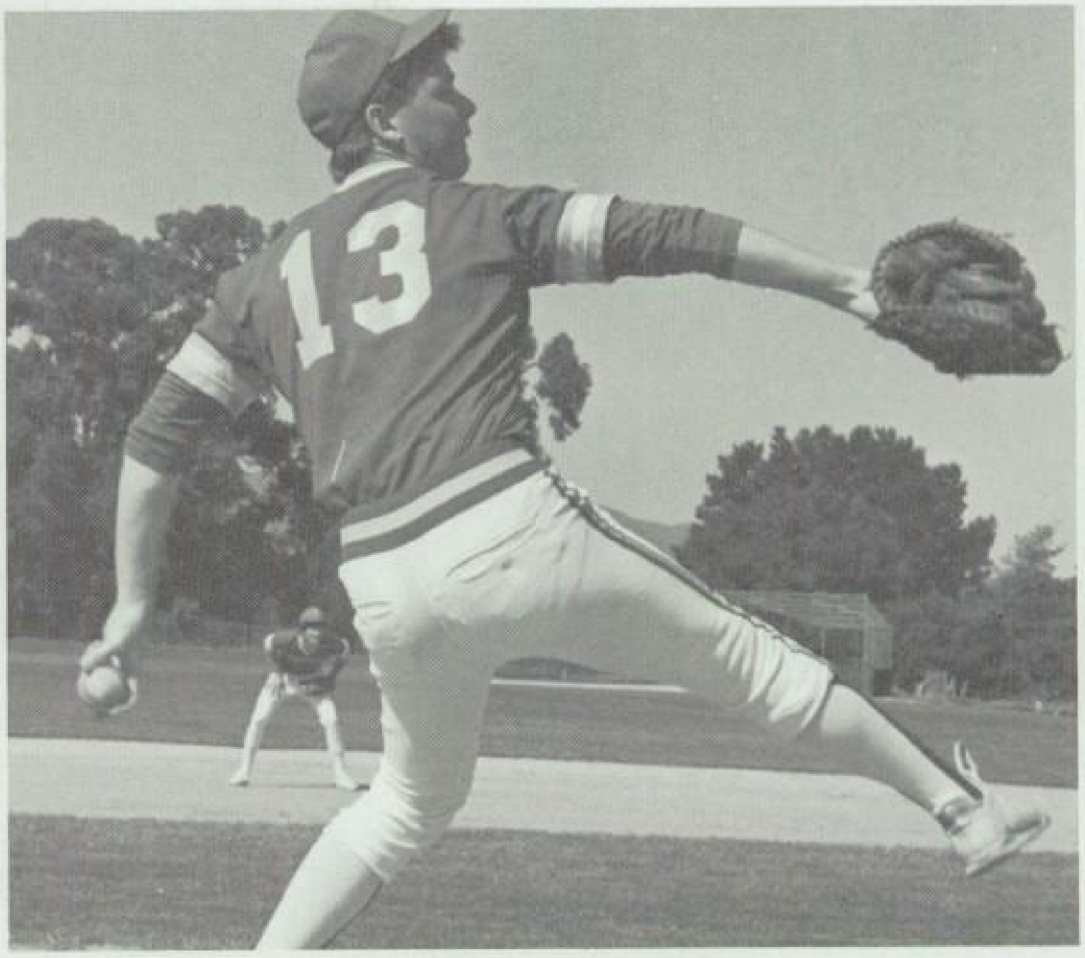


Top row, left to right: Jeff Grillo, Troy Archuleta, John Ashworth, Jon Kissane, Lee Stuart, Steve Bosco, John-Paul Wolfe, Bill Solma, Coach Schembri. Bottom row, left to right: Eddie Reilly, Jason Gary, Ron McGrane, James Fernandez, Monte Bippus, Sean Robinson, Brad Taylor, Dan Moritsch.

Varsity Baseball



Ron McGrane: Scooping low.



John-Paul pitching baseball ballet.

Throw it up, Steve!

. . . It's A . . .

PROSPECT PROSPECT 10

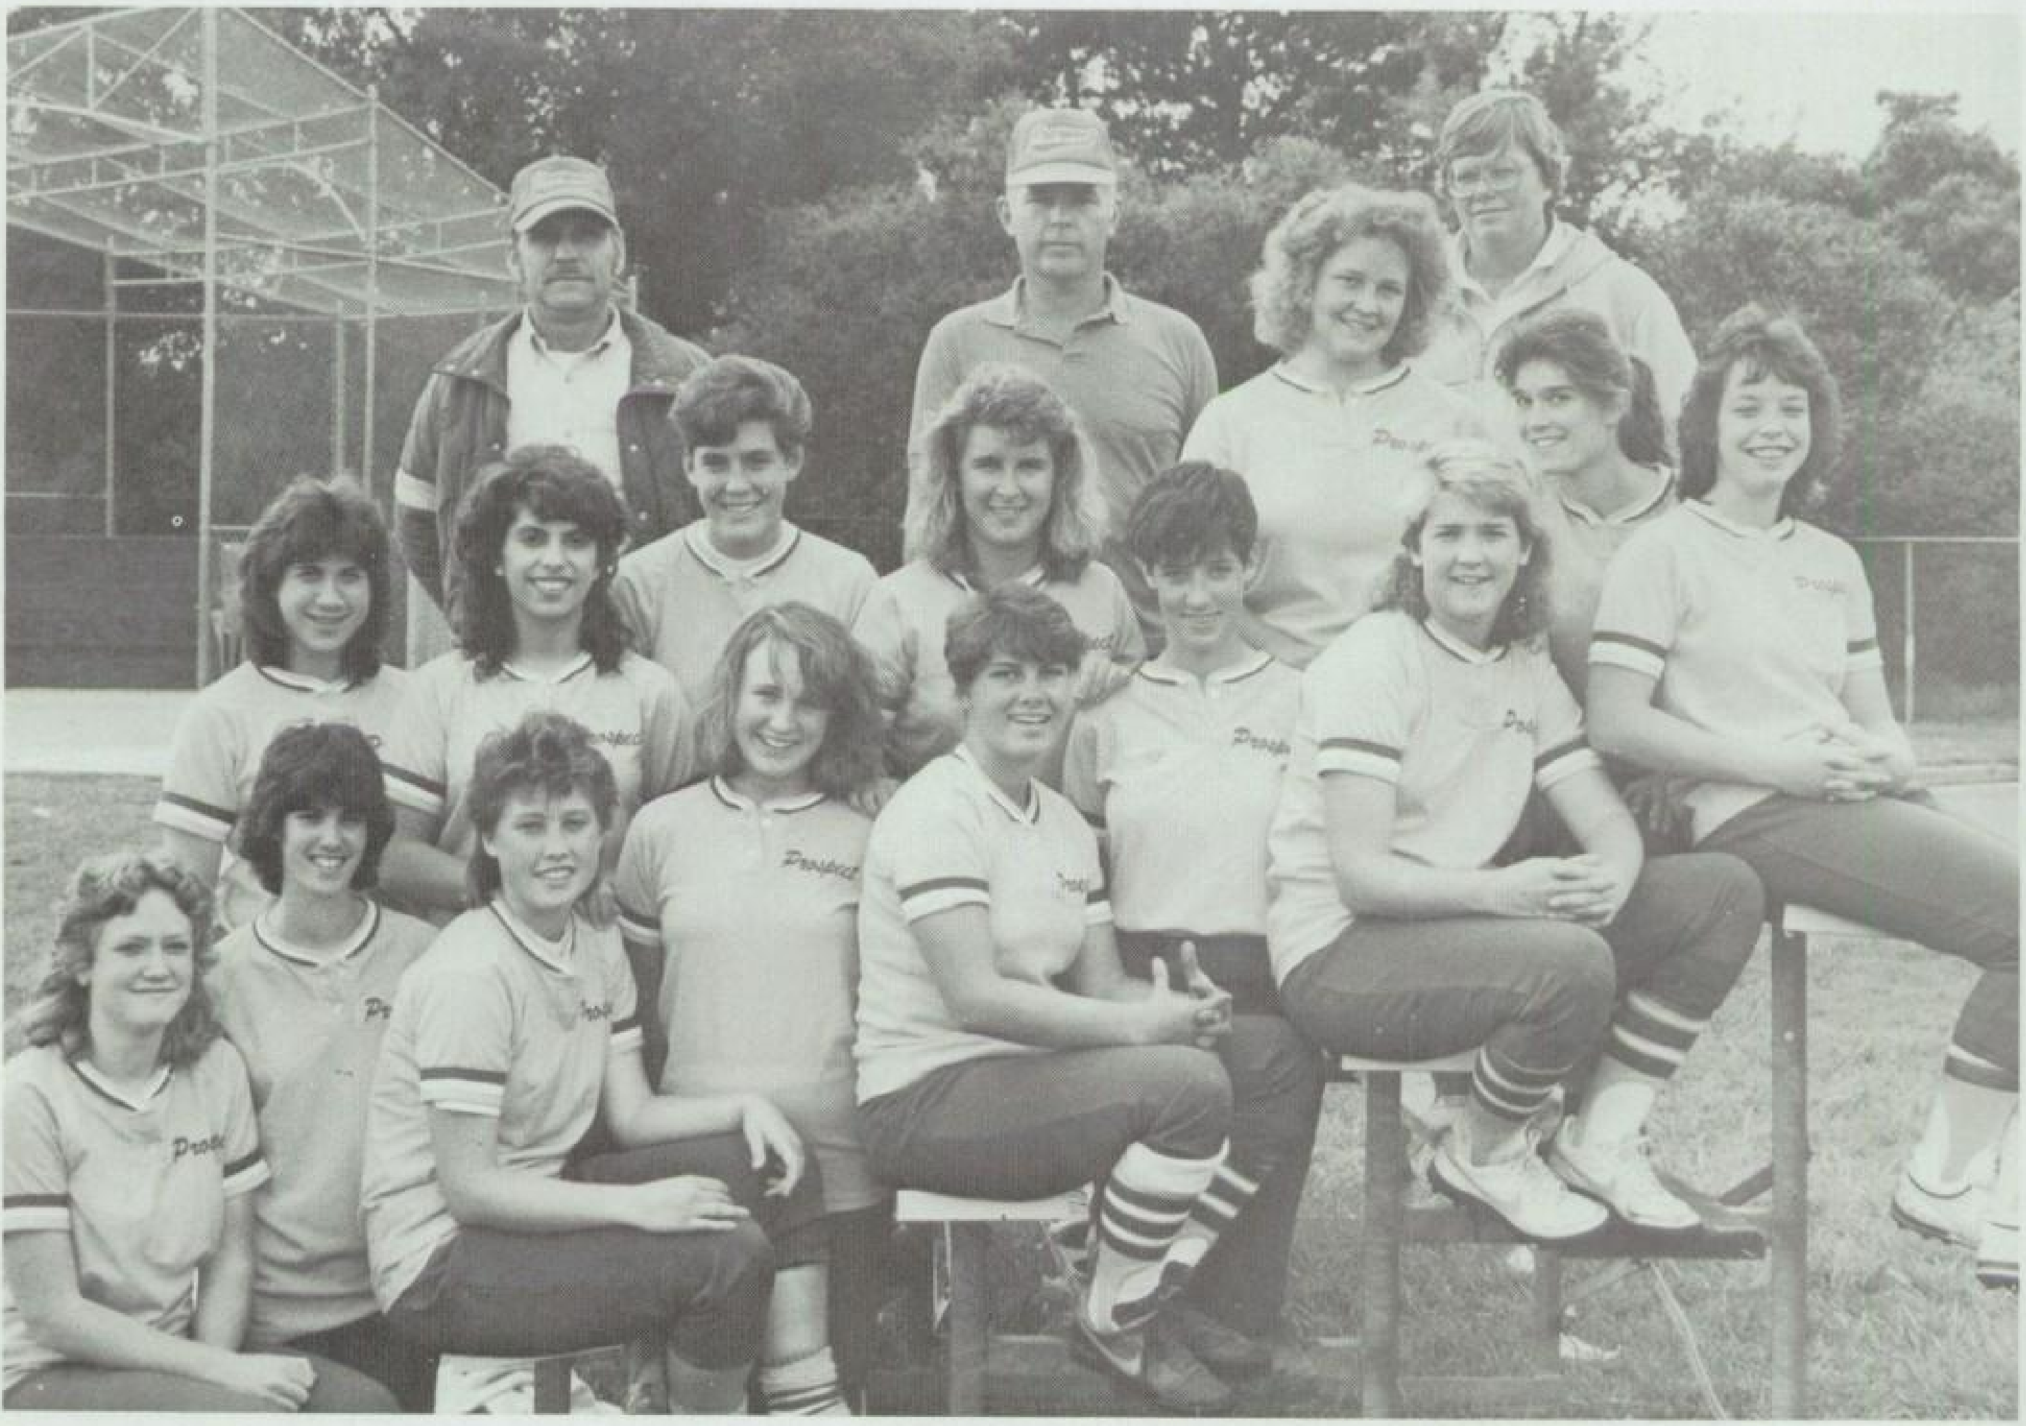
James Fernandez, Monte Bippus, and Bill Solma watching the girls.

. . . Homerun!!!

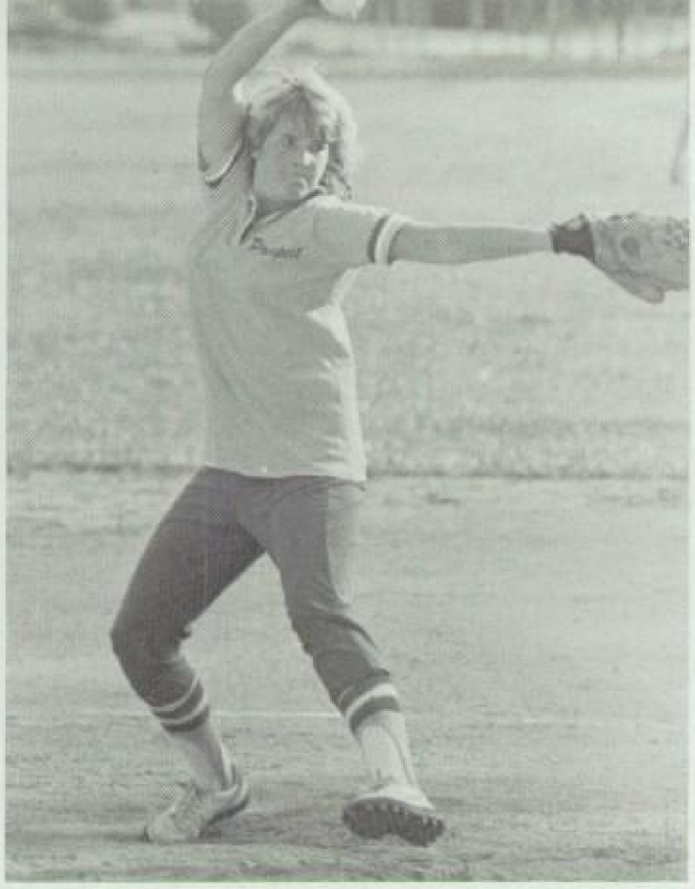
Prospect's Awesome Softball Team

Hey Batter, Batter!

Hi Mom! Hi Dad!



Top row: Coach Rubendall, Coach Crain, Ms. Hunt; Middle row: Jenny Contreras, Rita Alam, Susie Wall, Shannon Bernarding, Kim Ford, Kim Selby; Bottom row: Shirly Long, Kelly Stanton, Kristen Menefee, Nancy Talbot, Michelle Rubendall, Wendy Crain, Shelly Serrano

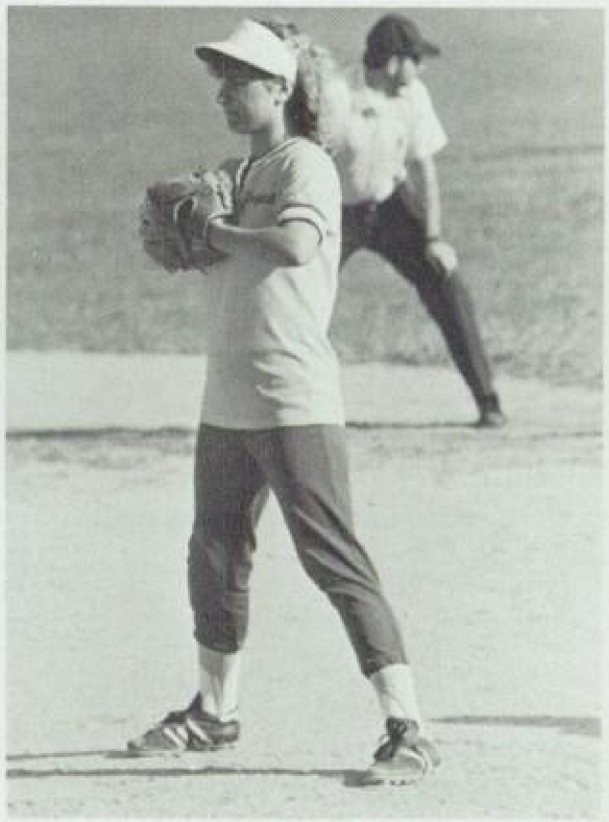


What fierce determination!

And here is what we're really like!

It's going to you, Shannon!

Here it comes, Rita!



I'm ready, I'm ready.

Pitch it in here, Babe!

Where's the ball?

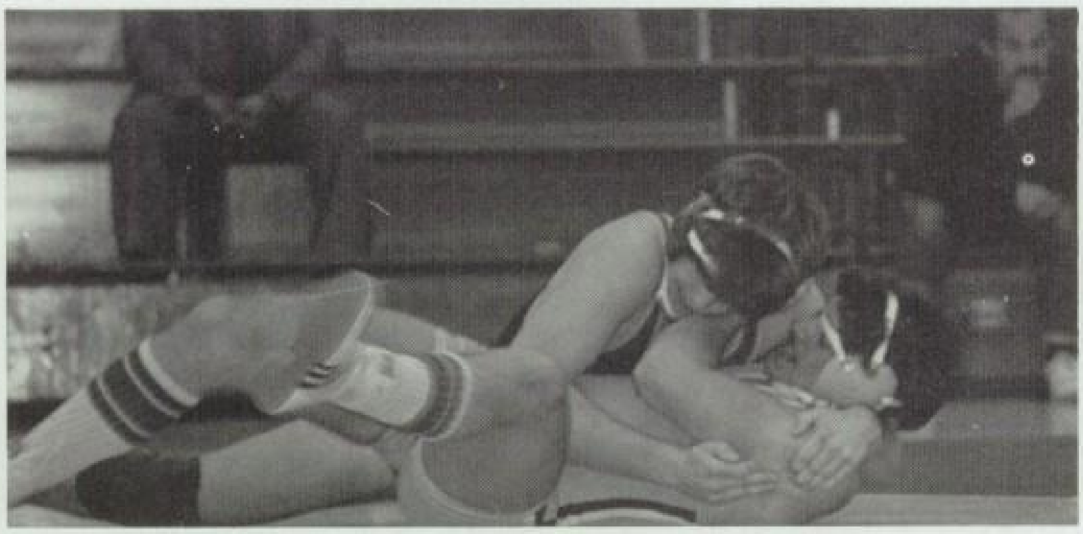
This year's Girl's Softball team is made up of the vibrant, talented, energetic girls, who became the 1985 C.C.S. Champions, with a couple of new exciting additions.

Last year, the girls took the Prospect Panthers to C.C.S. and proved their superiority by beating Oak Grove and winning the C.C.S. tournament. This year's team has already gotten off to a hopeful start. They beat Monta Vista (whom they lost to last year) their first game by a score of 6-0, showing no fear of those fastballs!

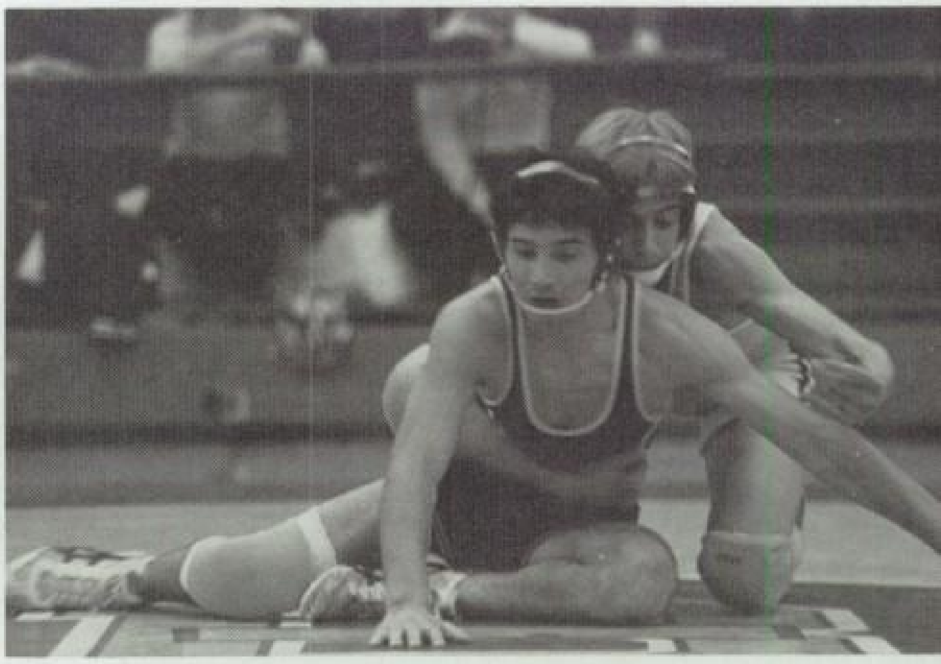
This year the team has some new, young, talent and along with the great coaching of Coach Crain and Coach Rubendall, and under the supervision of Ms. Hunt, we will no doubt be seeing the girls triumph again in the 1986 C.C.S. tournament!

Moves On The Mat

J.V. Wrestling

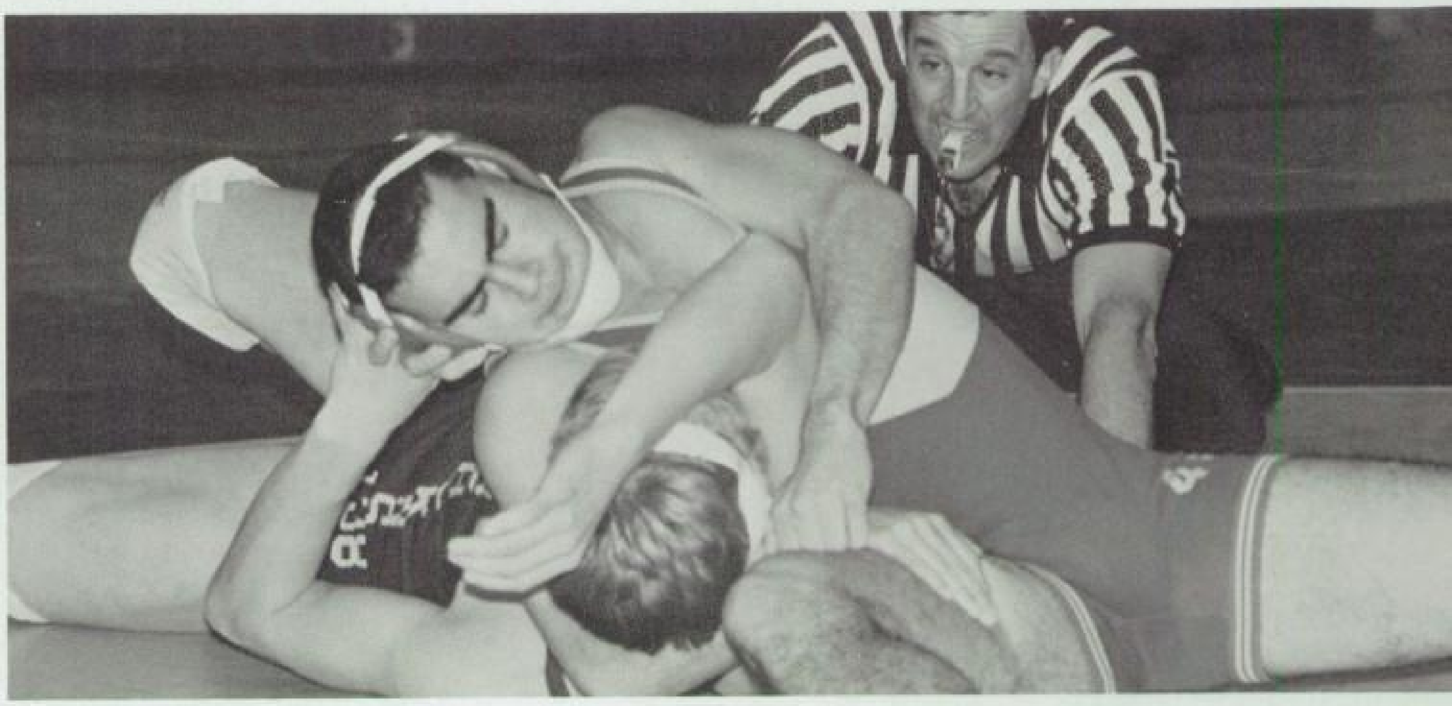


J. Tupper (JR) goes for the pin against Blackford.

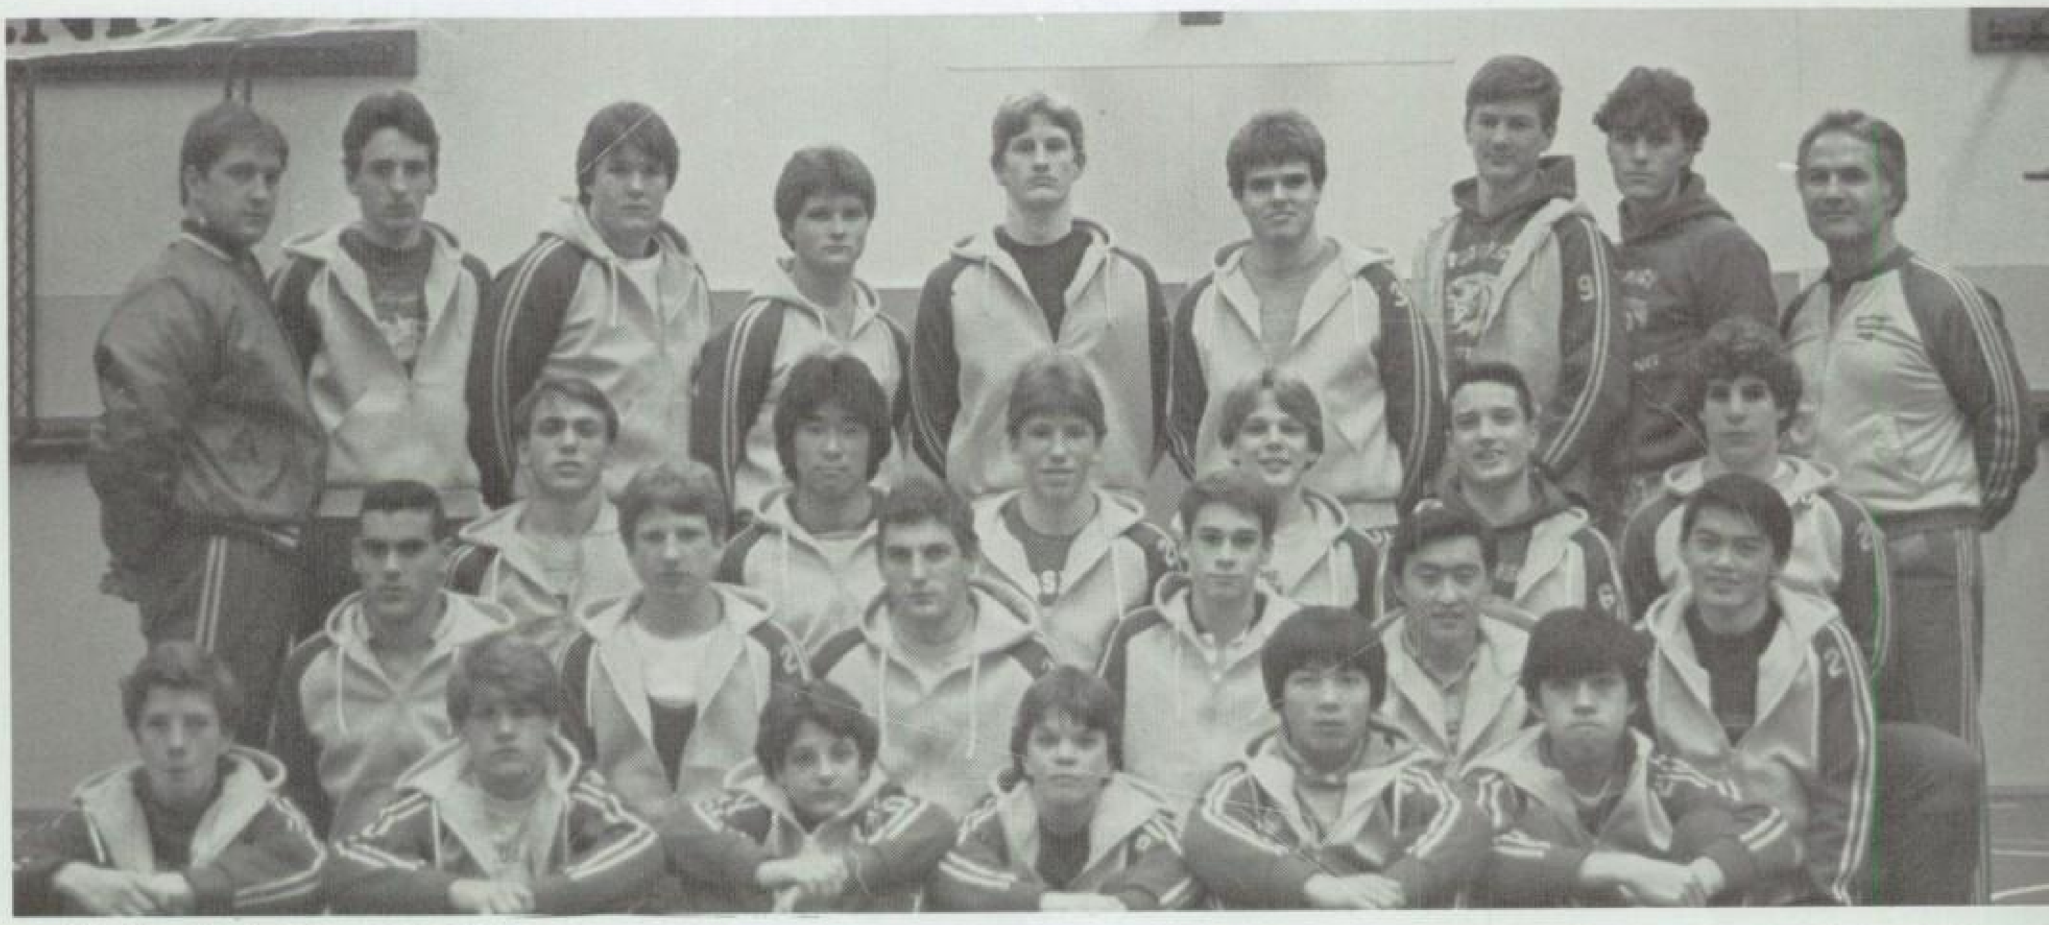


D. DeDomenico (FR) ready to escape the Blackford man.

"I hope I make weight." are the words that most wrestlers say the day before a match. This years junior varsity team was no exception. Under the direction of Coaches Machado and Grincewich the team was made to work very hard at practice to learn new moves and perfect the old ones. All the practice paid off because midway through the season the Panther team was undefeated and looking forward to another possible West Valley League Championship.



T. Sachen (JR) Squeezes tight for the pin against Leigh.



Standing: Coach Grincewich, B. Wall, D. Jensen, D. Stanton, M. Kriewall, J. Tupper, D. Jordan, P. Bozarth, Coach Machado third row: E. Locastro, M. Kim, J. Sharpf, B. Weaver, D. DeDomenico, R. Lewis second row: T. Sachen, M. Pendo, A. Philp, S. Davis, J. Tran, T. Tran first row: D. Weins, H. Henthorn, M. Clifton, R. Gipsou, C. Lee, C. Ha Takedown!!

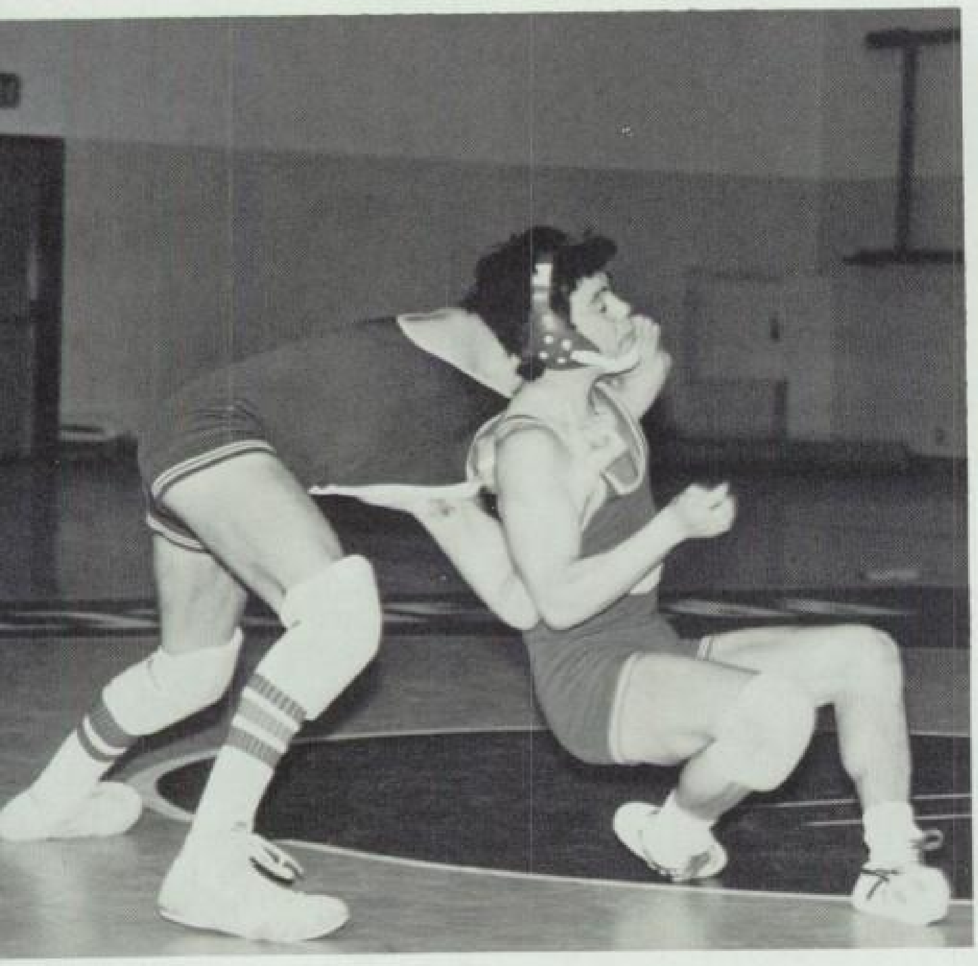
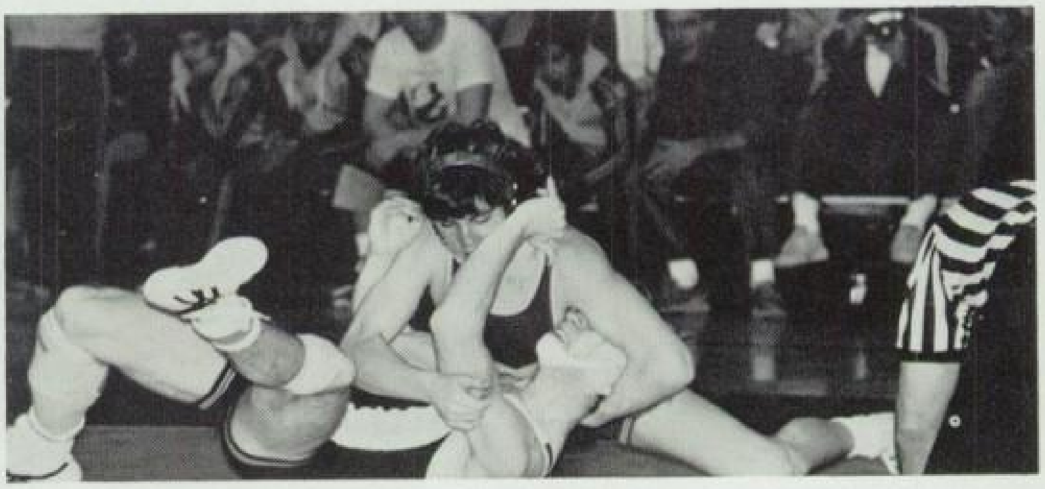
M. Kim (SR) pins the Saratoga man with a cradle.

This years Varsity Wrestling team consisted of mostly seniors. The experienced panther team worked hard at practices to improve their skill and quickness. Practices were long and hard working on drills and conditioning. Members had to work hard to keep their spot in their weight division because of weekly challenge matches. The team did very well during the season by defeating tough teams throughout the year.

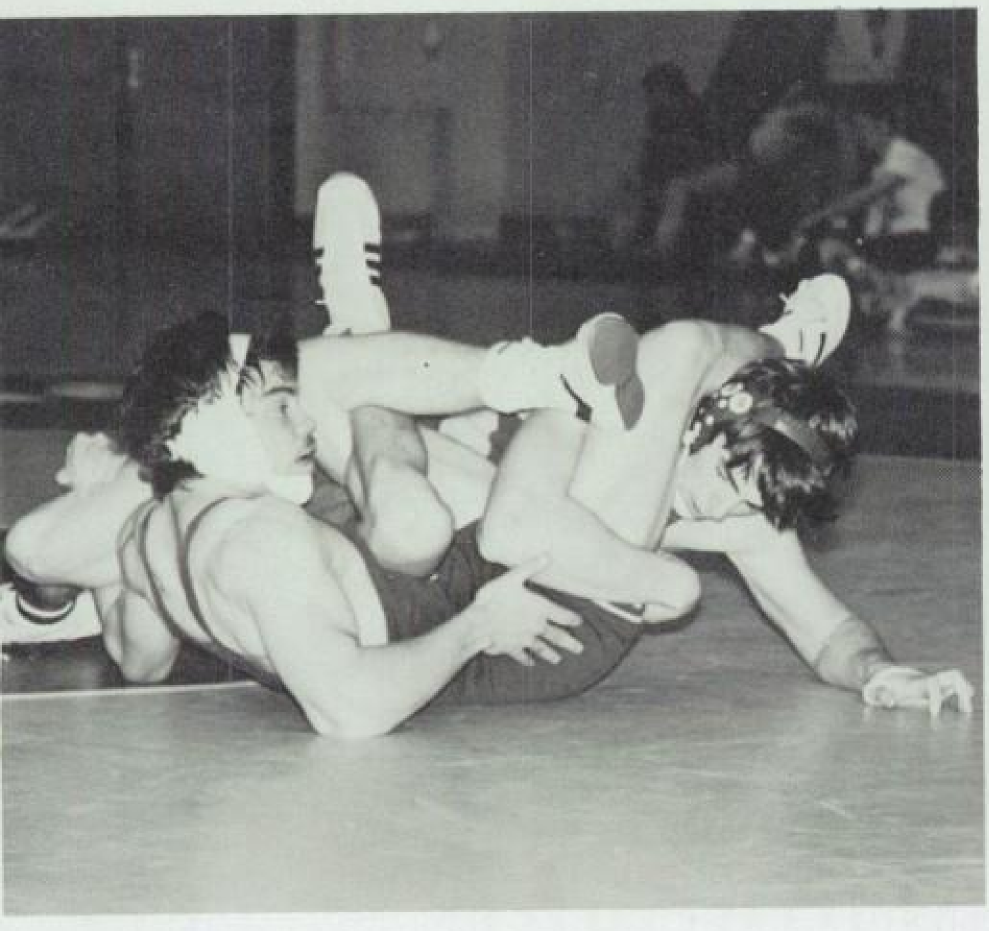


T. Iida (SR) stands for the escape against Leigh.

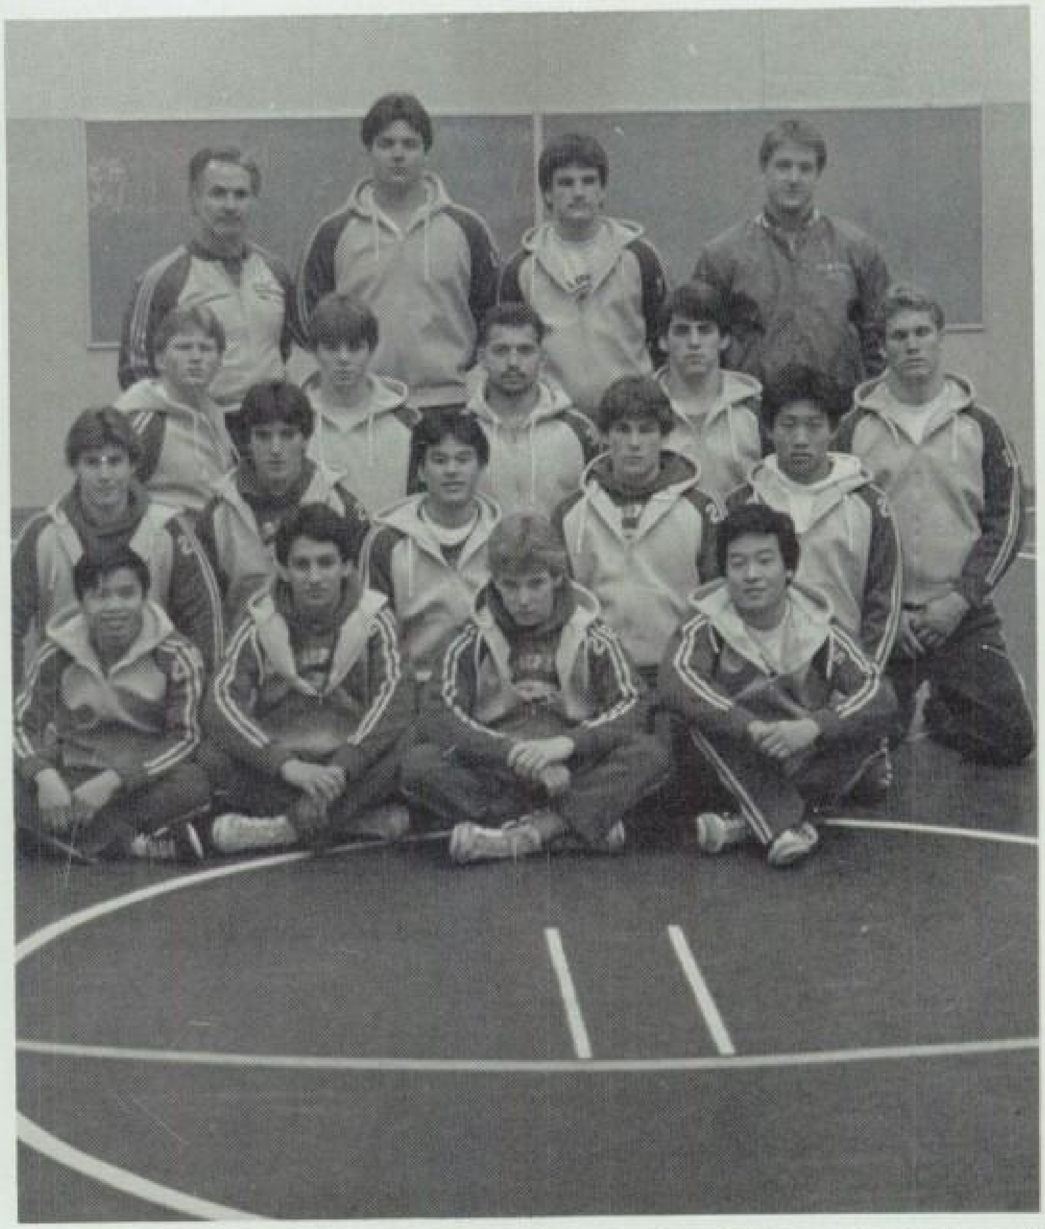


G. Blythe (SR) dominates the match against Leigh.

Varsity Wrestling



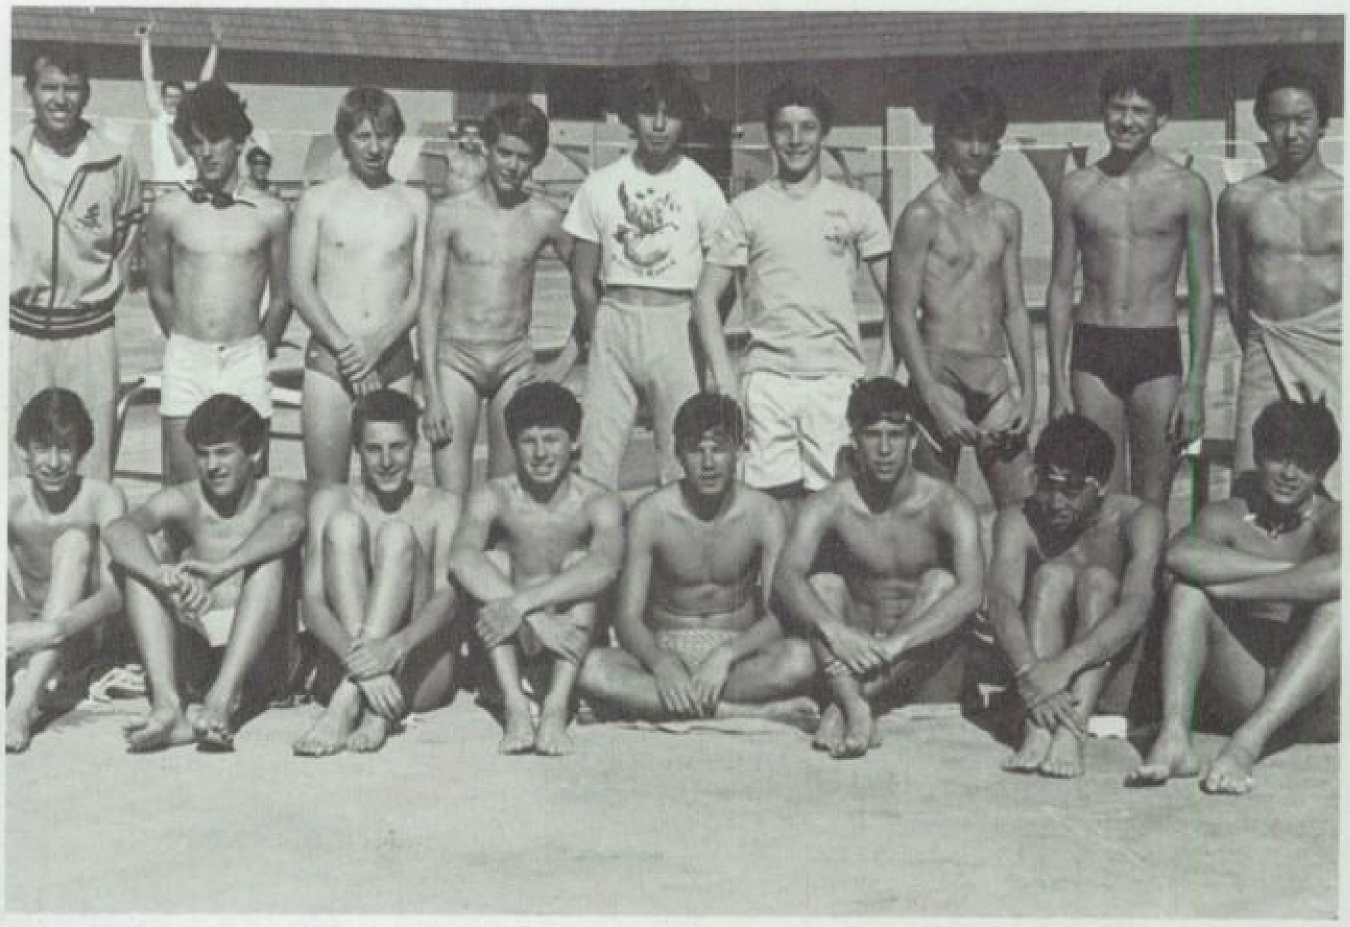
P. Charlebois (JR) all caught up in the match.



Standing; Coach machado, T. Thorp, J. DeLapiedra, Coach Grincewhich third row: J. Cizauskas, D. Tupper, A. Moran, P. Charlebois, D. Crew second row: B. Young, F. Machado, T. Iida, G. Blythe, M. Kim first row: J. Tran, C. Solorzano, D. Kaplan, M. Okashima

And doing the backstroke . . . Eric Richey.

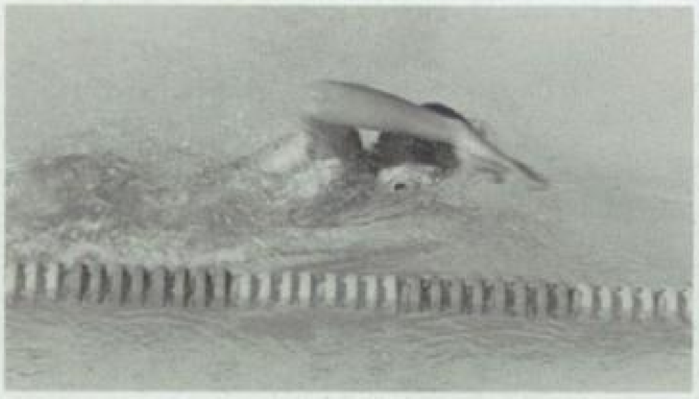
Mike Graham takes a breather during a meet.



Front Row: Roark Richards, Brian Steinbach, Mike Graham, Warren Woodbury, Eric Richey, Matt Phillips, Alden Tanaka, David Brenner Back row: Coach Carlson, Warren Bushore, Doug Weins, Aaron Luallen, Fred Voltmer, Khoi Hoang Not pictured: Jonas Drucker, Jeff Jordan, John Tupper, Reza Vadat

Jason Woodbury demonstrates the proper use of a kickboard.

Dave Brenner shows us his magnificent arm.



And breathing . . . again, Eric Richey.

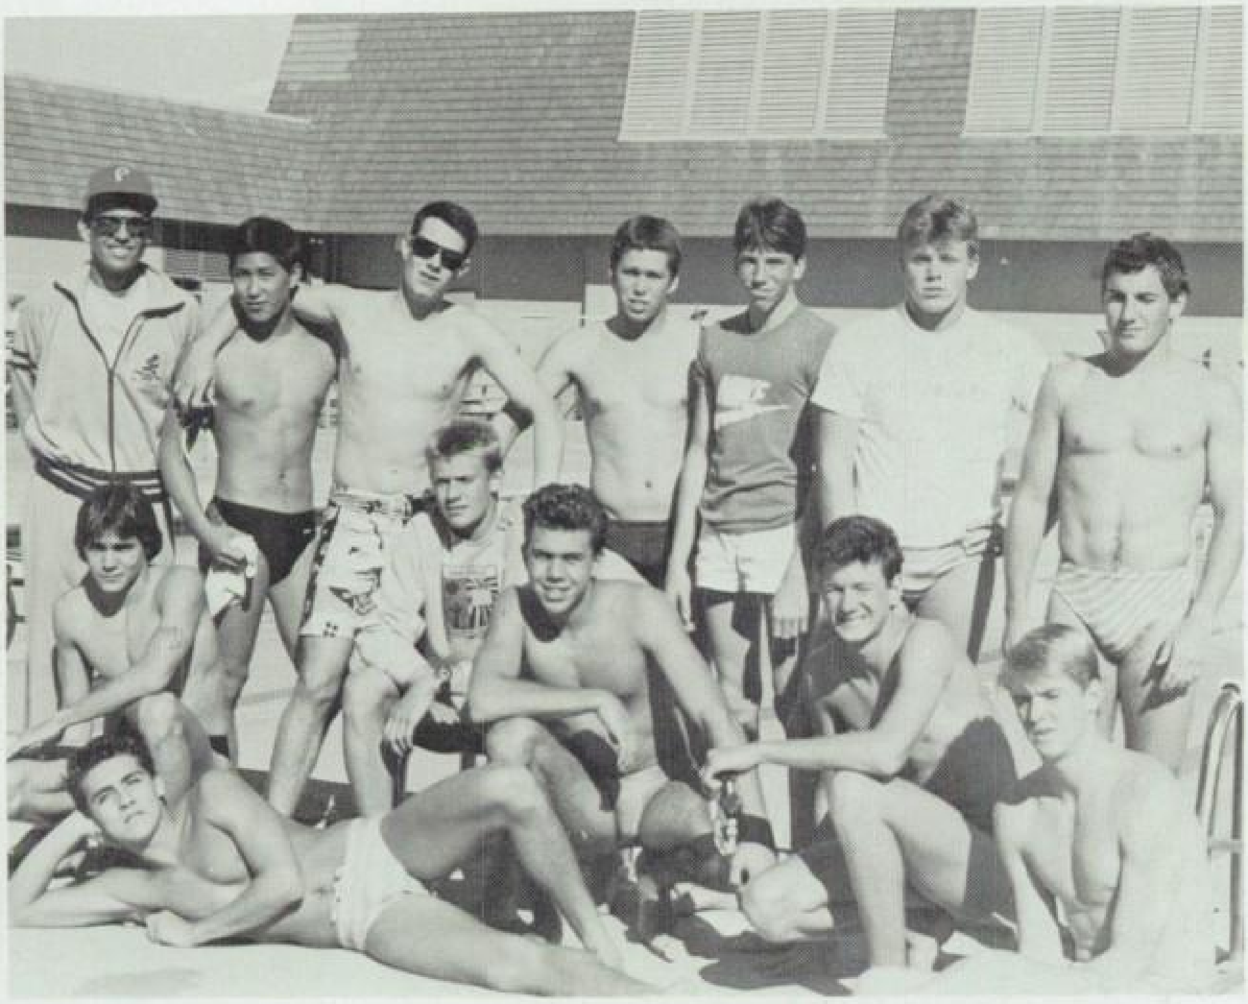
Dave Brenner, Fred Voltmer, and Jason Woodbury just noticed a camera pointing at them. Say Hi to the folks, guys.

It's 6:30 A.M. It's dark and cold outside. The sun is just peeping over the hills. Where are you? Asleep, most likely. Meanwhile, down at prospect's pool deck, a small groupof athletes are beginning morning practice. These JV swimmers have got to be among the most dedicated athletes around. The team practiced every afternoon in addition to the sunrise swim sessions three mornings a week. The team is unique this year because, for the first time the freshman team has been merged with JV. The greatest obstacle facing the team has been merged with JV. The greatest obstacle facing the team was the team's lack of competitive experience. Coach Rod Carlson says the most "gratifying" reward for coaching the JV team is "seeing improvement in the swimmers." For him, "just being there with the kids is a fun experience."

Taking To It Like Ducks To Water

Boy's JV Swimming

Boys' Varsity Swimming
Making Waves



TOP ROW: Coach Carlson, Eddie Chan, Andy Forristel, Chris Montplaisir, Jason Sharpf, Olaf Bodecker, Alan Phillip; BOTTOM ROW: Mike Woolley, Manny Alferez, Travis Smith, Gary Rossi, Dave Jordan, Dominic Aitken; ALSO: Mike Varozza and Dave Meck

Olaf proves that Germans can swim too!

"Swimmers take your marks . . . BANG!" They're off again striving for victory. This year's Varsity Boys Swimming Team dedicated their afternoons to train towards success. Everyday after school they stepped onto the pool deck fully attired to swim.

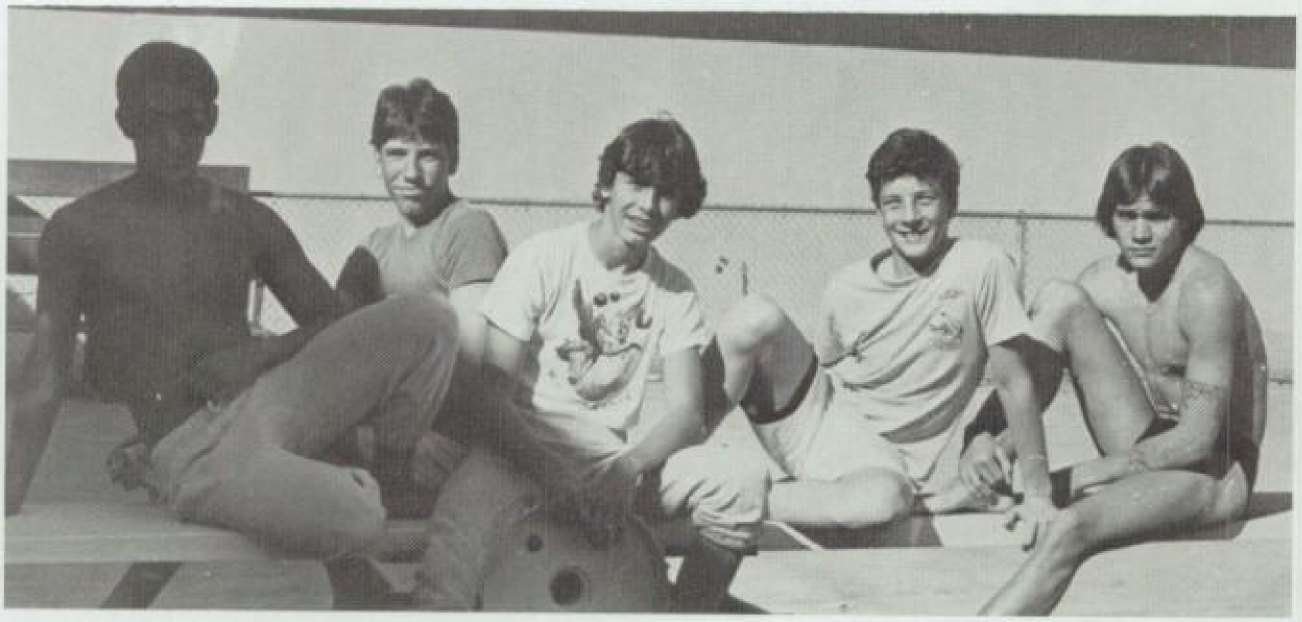
Some days they seemed more enthusiastic than others, coinciding with the weather conditions. These boys were expected to swim whether it was sunny and warm, or rainy and cold. Thus, often seen on those sunny days, were these wimmers tanning along the pool side prior to practice. But on those rainy days, Carlson often had to search for his swimmers whom seemed scared to get wet all of a sudden! Yet, come meet day, these boys would join together and compete towards success!

Dominik stretches ahead . . .

Travis takes a peek at his opponents!

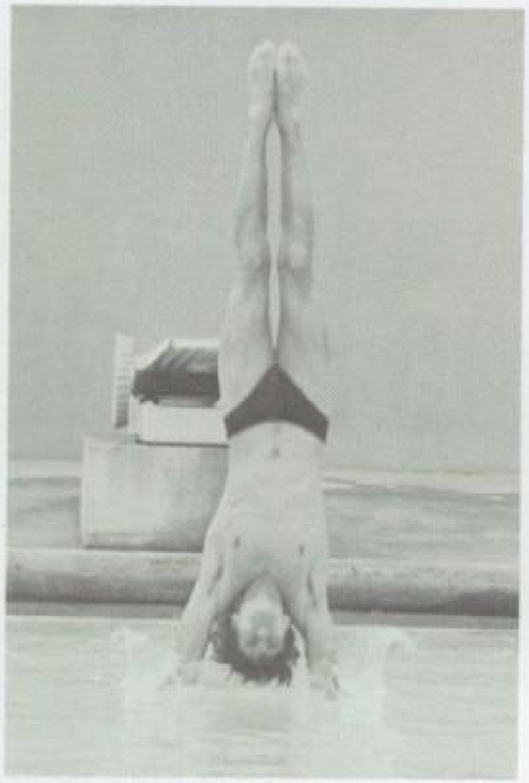
Coach searches for his swimmers.

Look Out Below!

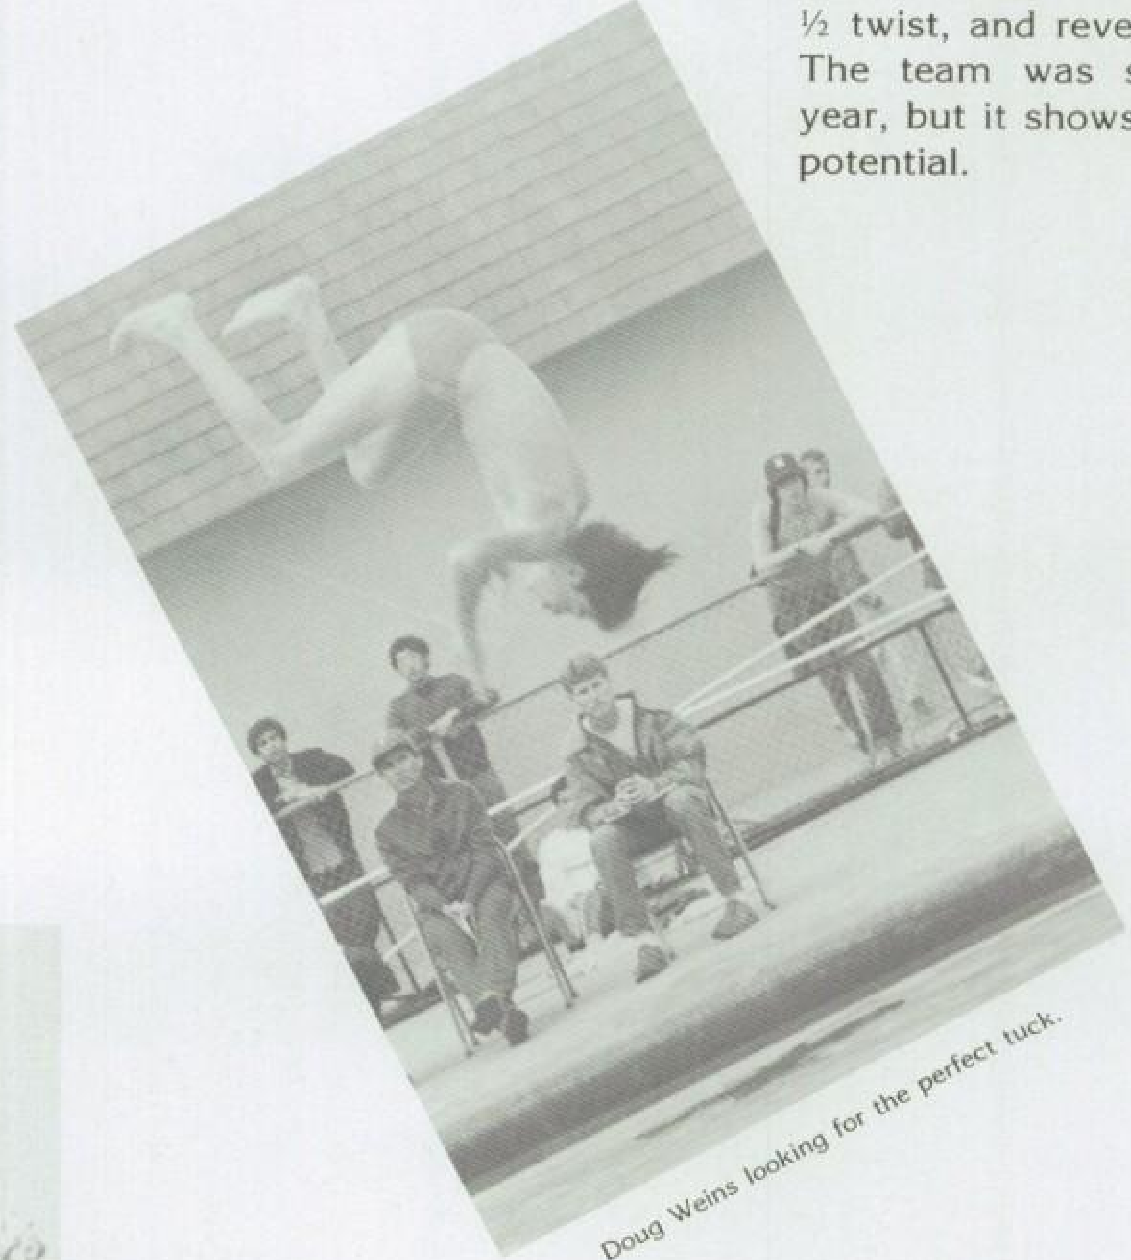


Members include: Ed Chan, Jason Sharph, Doug Weins, Warren Bushore, Jose Castellon

You call this practice? I guess getting a suntan can be an extremely difficult task! Part of practice did, in fact, involve diving. The members of the diving team worked very hard this year. Getting up at the crack of dawn, to dive into a spine chilling pool, is not what you'd call fun. The various dives require skill and concentration. To be eligible to even participate in a meet, five required dives must be performed. These dives include: front, back, inward, ½ twist, and reverse dives. The team was small this year, but it shows excellent potential.



Mike Wooley, keep those toes pointed!



Doug Weins looking for the perfect tuck.

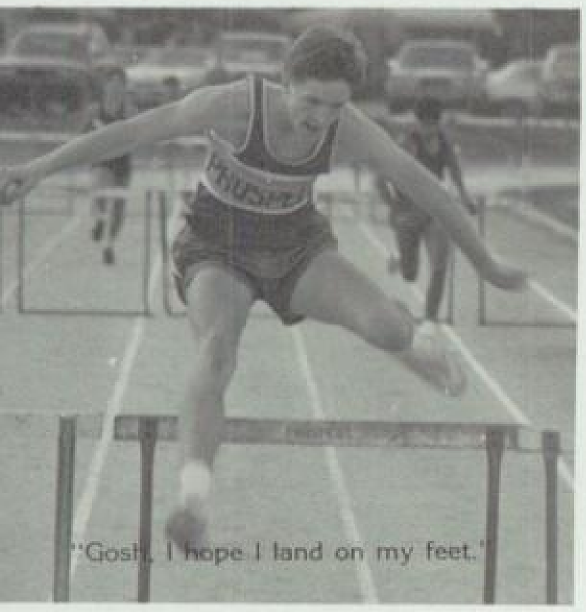
Look out below Warren Bushore!

Boys' JV Track

"Race you down to the lodge, loser buys."

"Don't worry Lois, I'll save you."

Owen and Ky try out for Dance Fever.



"Gosh, I hope I land on my feet."

"I think I can, I think I can" thought the members of the boy's Junior Varsity Track Team. If you think it is difficult to run a mile around the track, try doing it while watching a soft drink truck pass by. Did you know that french fries can be smelt all the way from the locker room? These are only a few things these runners learned in the novice years as track athletes. With Coach Orlando on their side (good or bad), the team ran, jumped and sprinted on their way to victory. Most of the boys were serious runners, but none were afraid to goof off once in a while. (It's only a small metal ball, you can catch it.) Coach Orlando, a.k.a. Uncle Larry worked hard keeping twentyfive boys under control. ("No, you an't run behind the girls.") Through thick and thin, the team was successful in helping Prospect's Track Team alive and kicking.

I've got to hand it to you

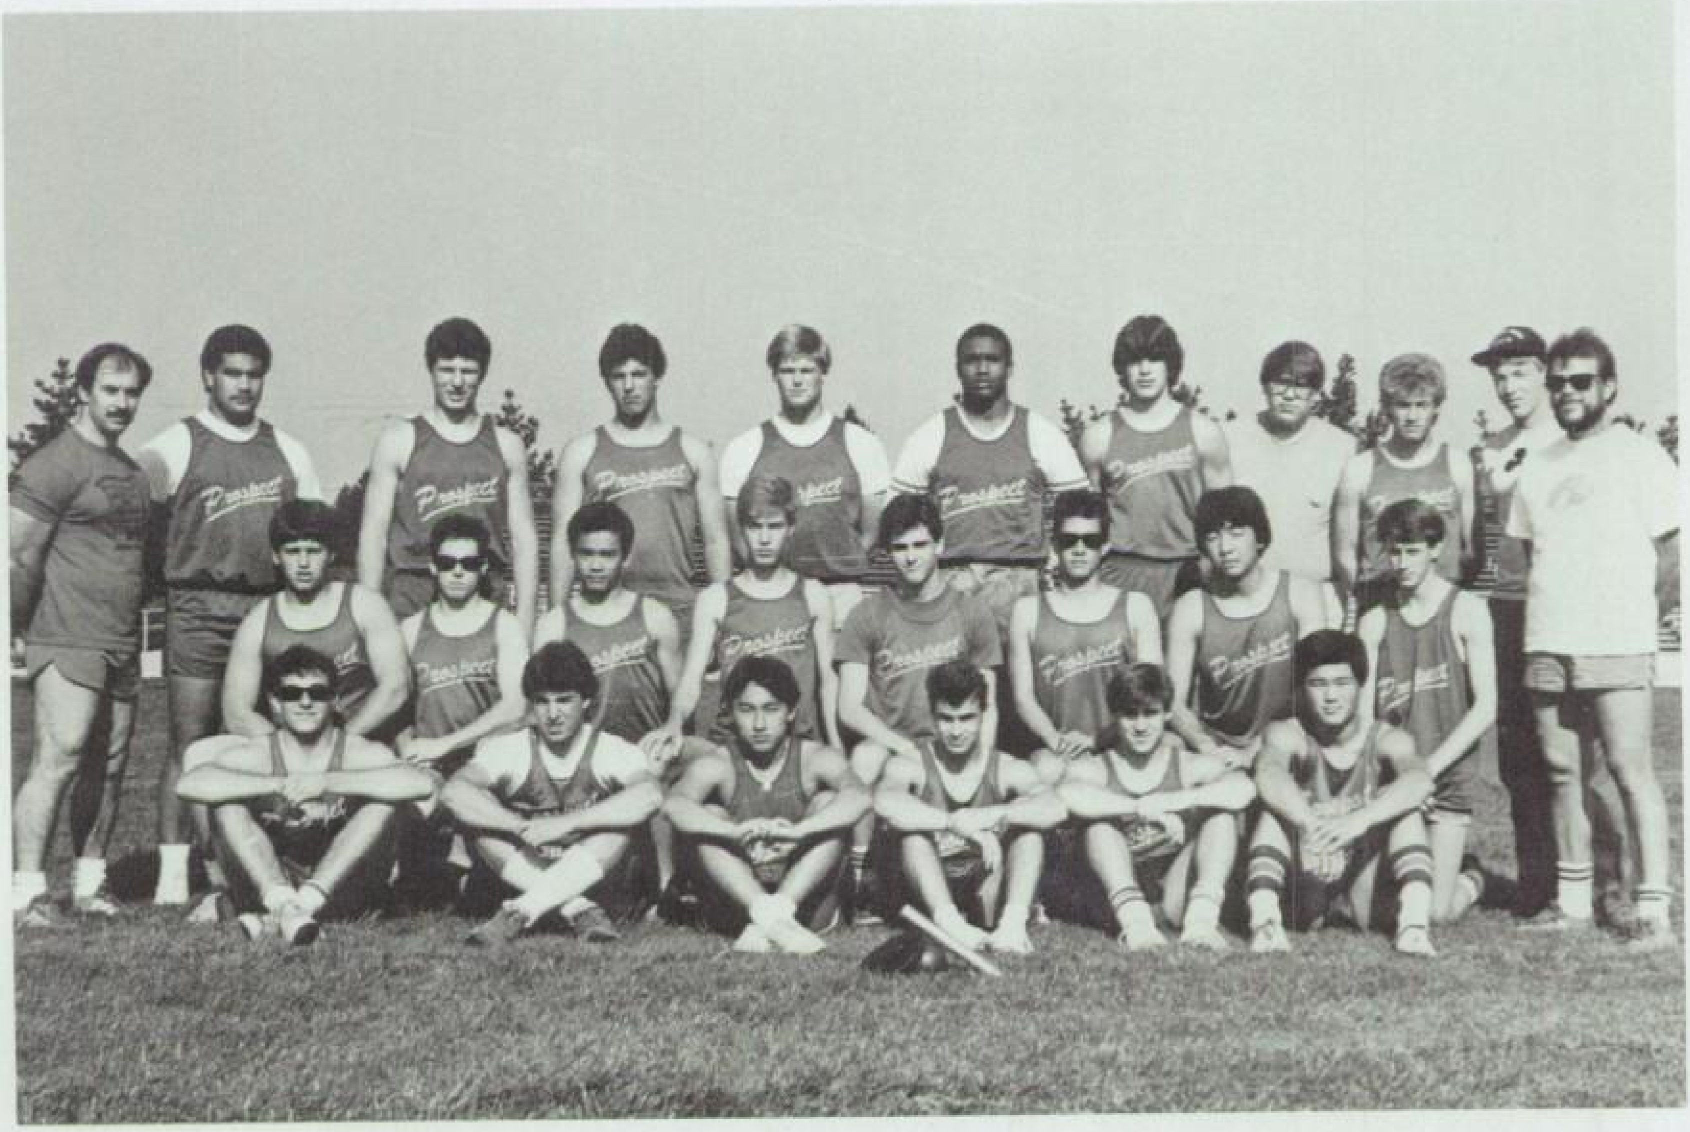
Members include: Minh Luu, Ken Bengal, Tony Thorp, Ted Williams, Gordon Wong, Zachary Ktorgan, Ian McCann, Bradd Cupp, Berman Mo, Paul Anderson, Troy Ritchie, Ken Wong, Mark Williams, George Montoya, Craig Hiraki, Glen Cureton, Ky Hoang, Craig Kanazawa, Steve Johnson, Craig Jung, James Kim, Owen Liou, Jason Snodgrass, Steve Siebert, Ian Werrett, and Coach Orlando.

Sprinting Ahead To Victory

Led by the ever-popular Coach Orlando, the boys varsity track team breezed through another season. Although the Coach's workouts were notoriously tough, "all work and no play", was not the slogan for this group. Seniors Kerrell Robinson and Chris Kim were frequently seen playing football during warm-ups, and rumor has it that a Mr. Johnson, along with Coach Orlando, was forever cutting down the girls' sprinting team. And, when the laps were given, excuses flew, the opoular being, "Not right now, Coach, I have a headache." But when the team got down to business they more than accomplished what they set out to do. Over a dozen members were expected to make CCS, with Robinson and Kim looking toward state competition. A few outstanding atheletes this year included Kerrell Robinson, Chris Kim, Joel Johnson, and Mike Avery, with our strong events being the 440 relay, the long and triple jumps, the 100 yard, and the half mile. A lot of effort was put in by these athelestes; practices ranged from 3 to 5:30, with more practice before difficult meets. So, if you're around the PHS area and happen to see runners in blue and gold charging through sprinklers and stealing oranges from trees, you'll know that's the Prospect varsity track team.

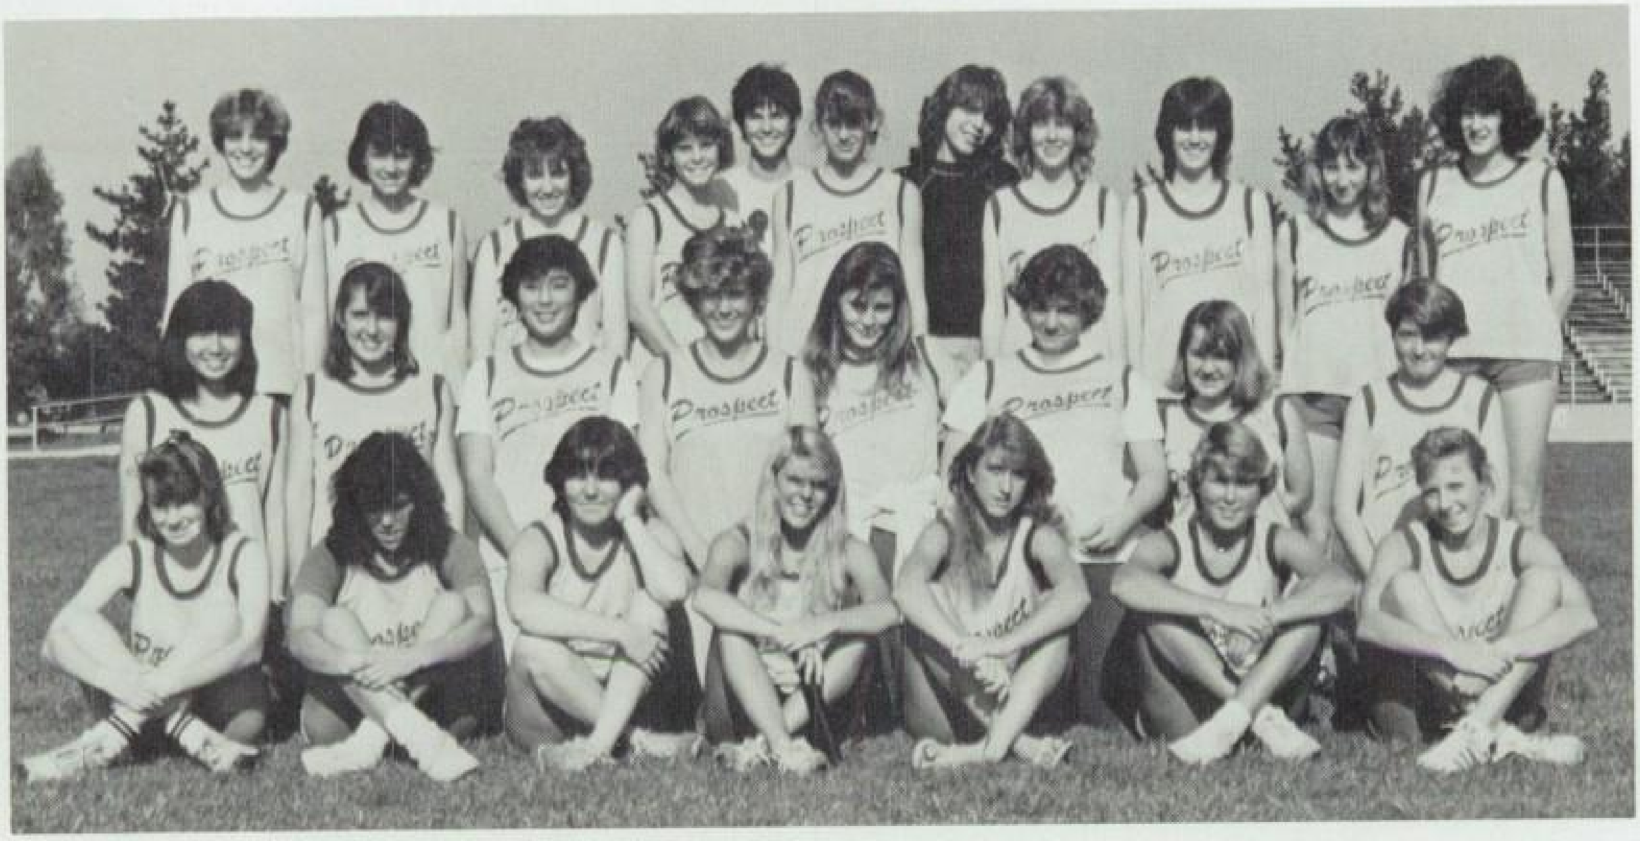
Practicing before his event, Chris Kim works on his sprinting for our spectacular 440 relay team.

Senior Sean Voorhes jumping his way to CCS.



Members: Coach Orlando, Donny Togisala, Dean Witkin, Doug Esparza, Joel Johnson, Kerrell Robinson, Kevin Mapes, Coach Taylor, Coach Smith, Ray Medina, Mike Kaelin, Toan Tran, John Finlay, Dan Cerny, Jim Woo, Ken Wong, Bryce Rockwood, Gerry Fassig, Shelby Wright, Wei Chen, Dave D'Attilio, Sean Voorhes, Chris Kim

On The Run



L. to R.: front row, Carolyn McCloud, Lori Colbert, Deirdre Blake, Debbie Terres, Julie Johnson, Cordelia Troy, Paula Mauck: middle, Cheryl Sano, SusanPhillips, Kathy Kim, Kristin Anhorn, Brenda Blake, Raeanne Burgin, Dawn Swanson, Donna Price: back, Laura Hamman, Cathy Salmon, Rachael Kutras, Leslie Wilder, Jenny Coldren, Suzie Regul, Jennifer Sheffield, Mary Kathryn Lee, Kathryn Griffith, Belinda Spencer, Lisa Regul. not pictured: Lynore Abbott, Jann Fratis, Lynette Grant, Shannon Hickey, Monina Johnson

Girls Track

To run, or not to run, that's a darn good question: Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and bandages of outrageous injurys, or to take sharp, dangerous spikes against other teams, and by opposing end them?

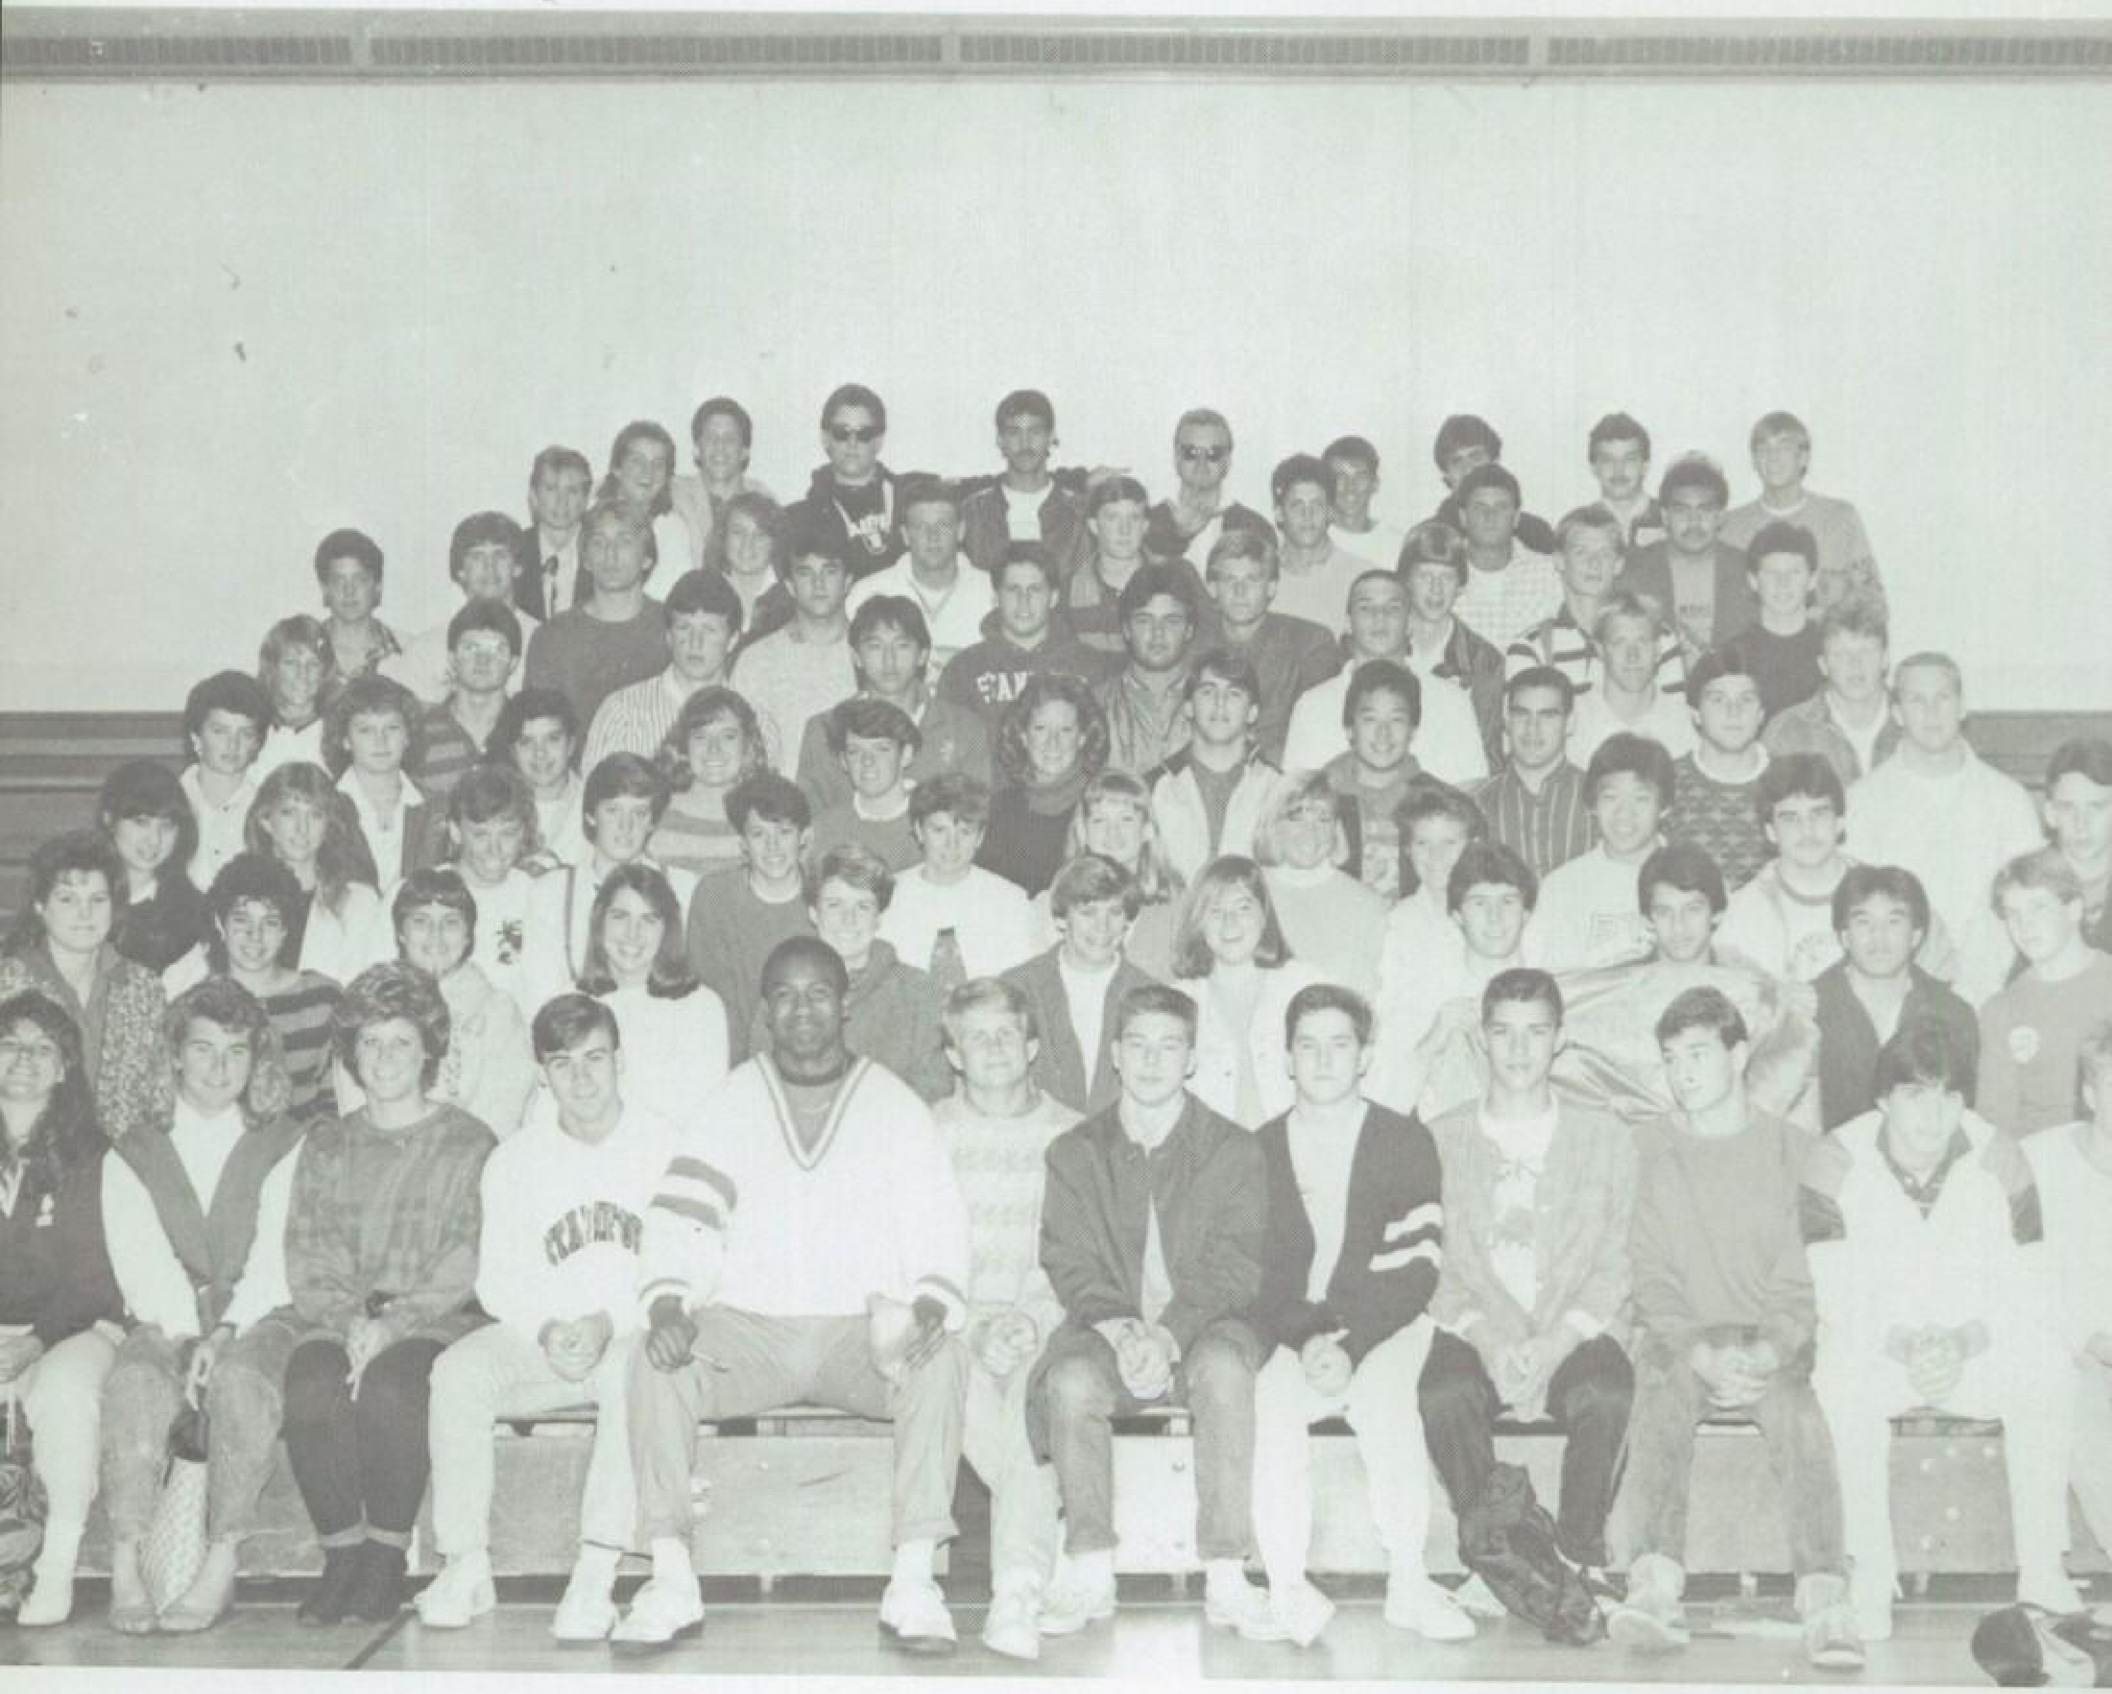
O.K., it's not great literature, but is sweat poetic? No, track is not nearly as glamorous as the Olympics made it appear. What's beautiful about sand in shoes, straggly hair, and a tomato-red face? Why would anybody put up with this?
"I don't know, I hate running!"

No, that's not the answer we're looking for. They all say that, but they must have joined in the first place for a reason. That answer is not too hard to find. Just watch them throwing potato chips on the bus, or sunbathing in the middle of the opposing team's football field. Most important, watch their faces after they've won a race.

Oh, they say running is the most horrible, painful sport there is, and they're right. But you won't find a better, happier, more dedicated group of girls with sand in their shoes and straggly hair than those on the Prospect track.

Tight tights tear up the track

Mary Kathryn ... Bombs Away!



CCS

To the players as well as the spectators, the CCS (Central Coast Section) Playoffs have an excitement all their own. The playoffs are the culmination of a season filled with hard-won victories and occasional defeats. It should not be thought that CCS is a goal easily achieved. The Central Coast Section consists of approximatly 120 teams for the boys and 80 teams for the girls. Only the finest teams are competitive. But, what makes up the "finest teams" and separates them from the rest? It is the athletic prowlness and the determination, together with the leadership and teamwork needed to set the team apart from the ordinary. But, just look to the Prospect Athletic Department for examples of these "finest teams". Prospect should be proud of the athletes who have so admirably represented our school in CCS. The Paragon would like to salute the following teams for their great accomplishment:

- Varsity Football
- Varsity Field Hockey
- Girls Swimming
- Boys Soccer
- Girls Soccer
- Wrestling

> ‘ Where the elite meet. ’
>
> Gregor Beedy (Senior)
> All CCS 2nd Team, Soccer

McMahon headband: place favorite name here.

Remember, tape and bandage highly visible parts of body for that "injured in action"
look.

80 horsepower steel-belted adial tennies. an do 0 to 60
n seven seconds lat.

wear shoulder pads as much as possible to give the effect of broad Shoulders.

hairstyle:
referably ponytail.
air tinted reen from too many days at the pool.

Sleeves rolled up to show off biceps.

Perfume
by Ben-Gay.

Socks never washed.

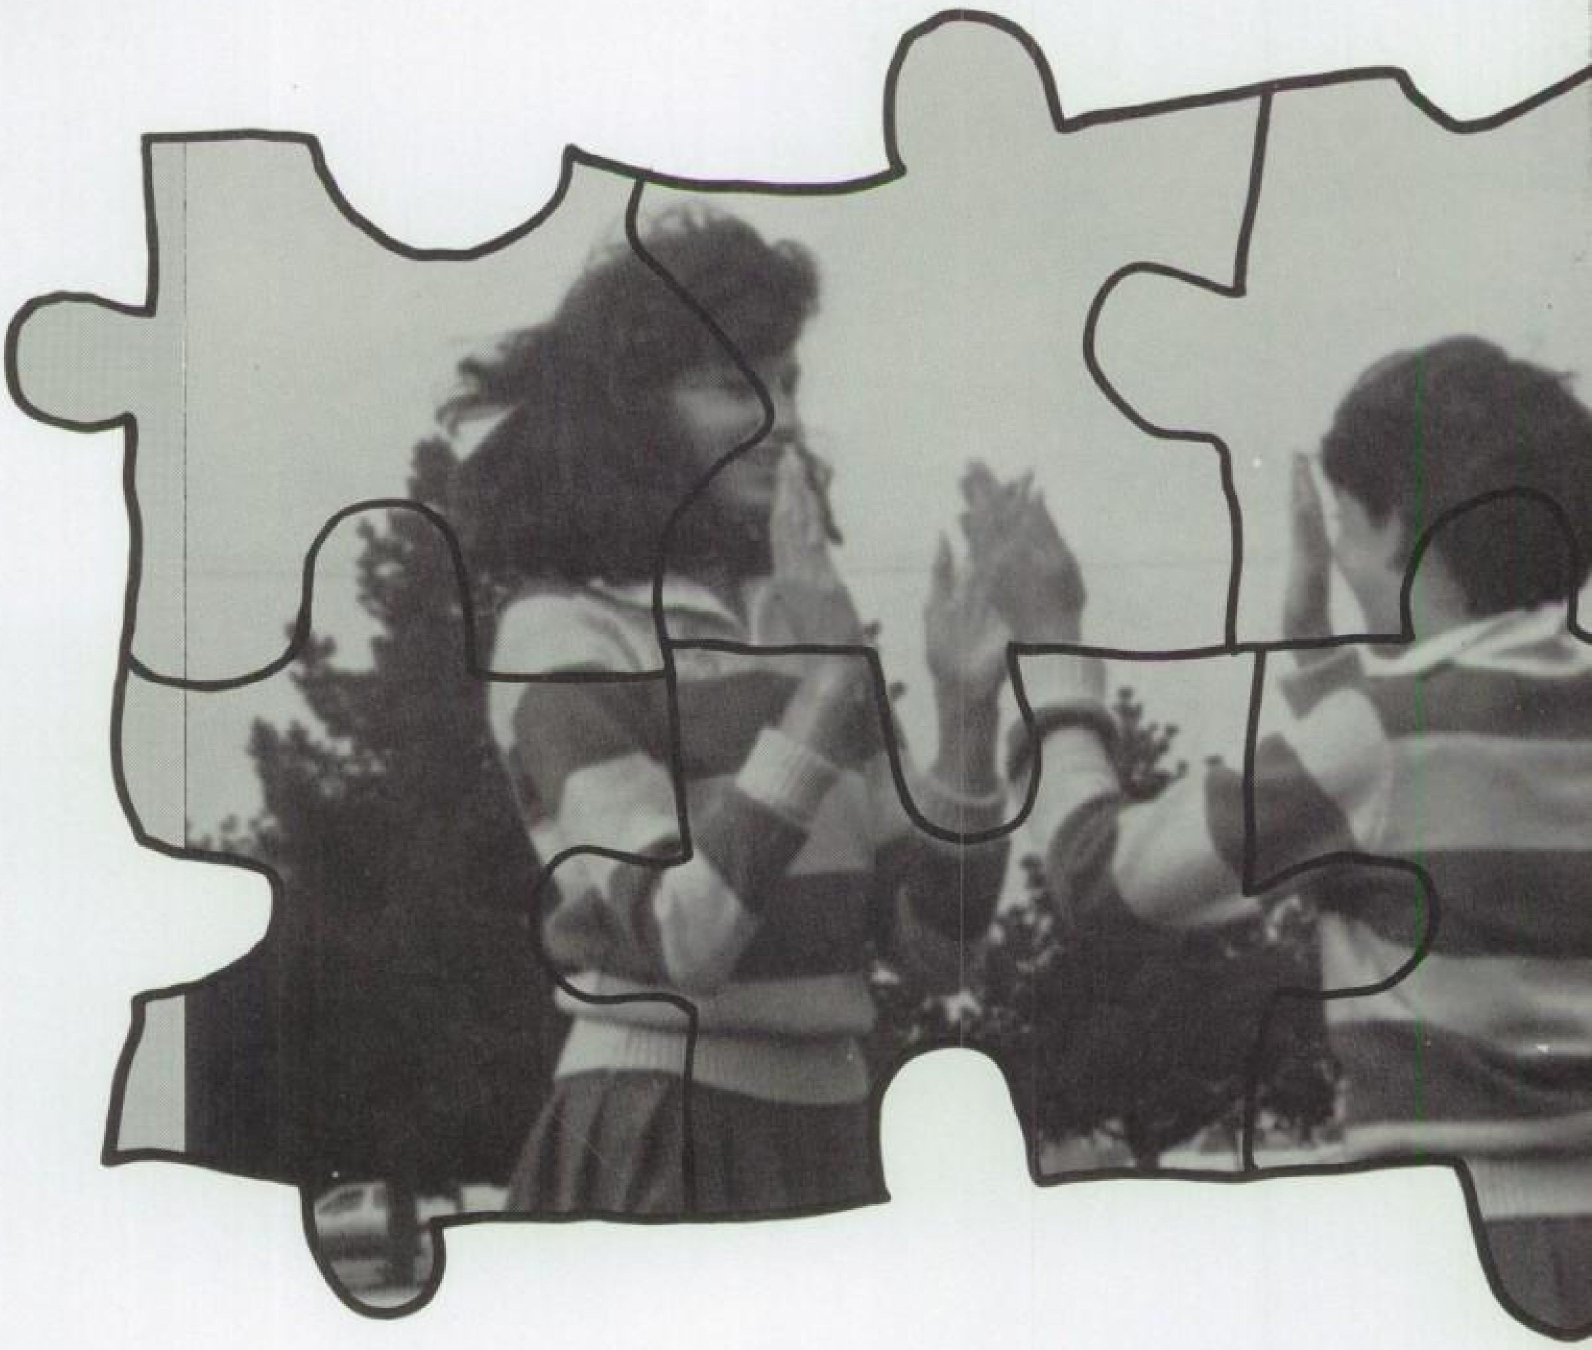
Anatomy of an Athlete

rule #1. Excel in at least several different sports.

rule #2. Always let them see you sweat.

Activities



Fall Student Council

Members include: Carol Callahan, Matt Morris, Jenny Wilkinson, Jon Kissane, Rick Robbins, Shannon Hickey, Lorrie Robbins, David Kaplan, Laurie Cuenca, Marion Talbot, Kristen Menefee, Diana Quan, Navisha Shah, Mr. Augenstein

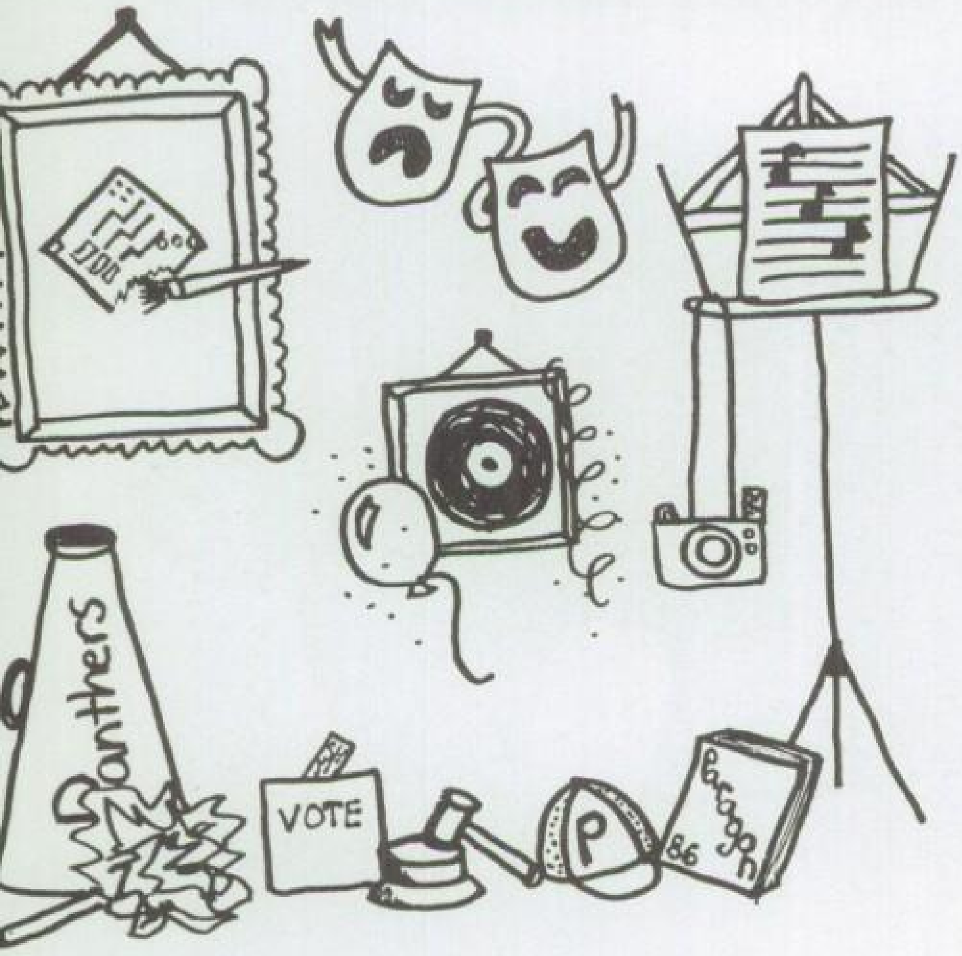
Once a week, a small group of students gather together to rack their brains for ideas to make each and every students' stay at PHS more pleasant. Led by A.S.B. President Shannon Hickey, the Fall Student Council was responsible for initiating the success of school activities such as the Carnation sales and the Spirit Week events. Many hours of hard work were put into the planning of these highly successful events. Seeing to the activities was not the only responsibilities these students had; the Student Council is mainly responsible for solving problems brought to their attention by their peers. Also, we should not over look the fact that under the advice of Mr. Augenstein, the Fall Student Council was responsible for such issues as budget requests and commissioner applications. These students were a group of hard working individuals who are dedicated to the welfare of our school.

CT HIGH SCHOOL
ION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Spring Student Council

Members include: Carol Callahan, Lorrie Robbins, Kathy Oneto, Sean Foster, Jon Kissane, Kristen Menefee, Marguerite Oneto, Rick Robbins, Kathy Kim, Mr. Augenstein-Advisor

Following in the footsteps of the Fall Student Council, the Spring Student Council started off the semester with a big bang with Rick Robbins as A.S.B. President. This group of new students were again under the watchful eye of Mr. Augenstein. Their meetings were filled with discussions about the annual May blood drive, flea market, and fund raisers. The Spring Student Council did an excellent job of keeping the student body well informed. Among their responsibilities is the plans for next year's school budget. Thanks to this group of dedicated students, their contributions to the school was outstanding.

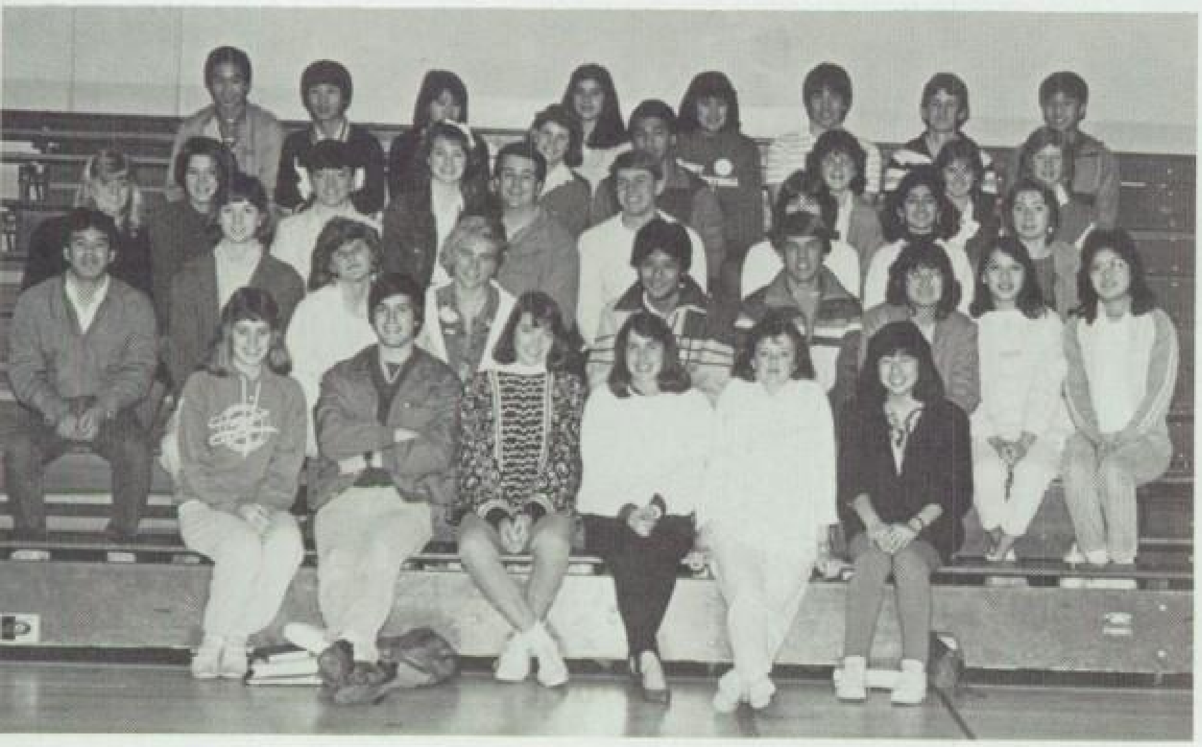


Commissioners

The most obscure position a student here at Prospect can obtain is the position of student commissioner. Unknown to the rest of the student body, this small group of students are the leaders of their respective club or commission. Although the position is obscure, obtaining the position of commissioner is not easy. These students were nominated by their commission advisor and their recommendation had to be approved by the Student Council. Their job, should they decide to accept it, is to see that their respective commission operates smoothly. They must take care of complaints and requests from their department. Among their various responsibilities are planning the budget requests and sending petitions to the Student Council. These unknowns are a group of dedicated and responsible students who do their best to see that Prospect runs as smoothly as possible.

Caution: Brains At Work

CSF



Members include: Lynore Abbott, Rita Alam, David Avery, Gina Bowen, Kirsten Cameron, Dawn Contreras, Jenny Contreras, Laura Crowe, Sharon Eden, Sheryl Ehrman, Melissa Eisenberg, Jennifer Evans, Dawn Fisher, Olivia Fojas, Sean Frame, Jann Fratis, Doug Gabbard, Jason Gary, Jennifer Giddings, David Graul, Amy Ha, Linda Ha, Marlene Hirose, Quyen Huynh, Audrey Kawaye, Shana Kenyon, Hoang Khoi, Catherine Kim, Liz Kim, Janet Kim, Jon Kissane, Liz Lambourne, Ricky Lau, Choong Lee, Jennifer Lee, Mary Kathryn Lee, Mee Hee Lee, Minh Luu, Janie Manorusov, Linda Matsumoto, Paula Mauck, Veronica McCarthy, Carolyn McLoud, Mike Myers, Jon Nakamatsu, Marguerite Oneto, Kendra Parker, Susan Phillips, Alan Philp, Julie Quan, Stacy Quan, Maria Ricatta, Steve Ritter, Rick Robbins, Tom Sachen, Jennifer Salmon, Cheryl Sano, Bonnie Scott, Nivisha Shah, Hee So, Song So, Belinda Spencer, Kelly Stanton, Nieves Straaberg, Veda Szeto, Sezaneh Taherian, Thomas Takashima, Eve Tracey, Aprille Weight, Karen Whitham, Robert Wiggers, Leslie Wilder, Mark Williams, Laurel Wilson, Robbie Wojtkowski, Ken Wong, Jennifer Metcalf

The California Scholastic Federation, better known as CSF, contains students who have worked hard to get A's in difficult college-prep courses. Those who get at least a B average on their report card are eligible for Honor Society. If you don't know what kind of people are in CSF/HS, you may be surprised to find out that they are usually the ones who ask those stupid questions in class. (What's another name for thesaurus?) Most people have the idea that the students on CSF/HS are bibliphiles (that's CSF talk for bookworms). On the contrary, the majority of the members are involved in our school's club, sports, and activities. What is the reward for these hard-working individuals? Besides getting their names in the yearbook, they get to take a day off school and take a trip to the destination of their choice. Last year, they voted to go to the Monterey Bay Aquarium and Carmel. Earning this end-of-the year trip is no piece of cake, as many of these students found out when it came their turn to work in the dreaded cafeteria. Adding 35 and 45 was never so difficult. (Since when does pizza cost $1.45?) Thanks to the patience of the cafeteria ladies and the patience (?) of the student body, they managed to come out of three weeks of cafeteria duty without too many scars. (they apologize for not being able to serve you after the bell rings.) Congratulations to all members.

HONOR SOCIETY

Members include: Charlotte Abshire, Christine Abshire, Jenifer Atherton, Laurel Austad, Sharon Bell, Warren Bushore, Vei Chen, T.J. Chen, Lisa Cittadino, Kim D'Attilio, Becky
Davis, Lydia Doong, Diane Dowling, Stacey Dudek, Dave Easter, Scott Eden, Deanna Erickson, Lisa Favorito, Sean Foster, Amanda Griggs, Lawrence Hastings, Tammy Here-ord, Chimene Hickey, Shannon Hickey, Julie Hilty, Sharon Hoyte, Pamela Johnson, Jeremy Karpel, Kathy Kim, Tai Kim, John Lamachy, Rori McGill, Jennifer Metcalf, Berman
Mo, Sheri Nakamitsu, Thanh Nguyen, Erica Nilsson, Lorrie
Robbins, Teresa Schmalz, Melissa Schneider, Colleen Shanon, David Smith, John Souza, David Stanton, Judy Sun, Lucy Sun, Nichola Swanson, Marian Talbot, Nancy Talbot, Eric Temple, Mike Tran, Thanh Tran, Toan Tran, Cheryl Tsurumoto, Mike Tsurumoto, Carmen Weins, Jenny Wilkonon, Jon-Paul Wolfe

Academic Decathalon

Members: Chris Chick, Linda Ha, Lawrence Hastings, Jonathan Kissane, Janie Mandrusov, Terri McCarville, Thanh Nguyen, Sezanah Taherian, Mrs. Gudino, Mr. Nichols.

A lot can be said about this year's Academic Decathalon members. These diligent seekers of knowledge practiced after school for an hour twice a week, except for the week before the decathalon, when they practiced up to two hours a day, mastering mind-boggling subjects like the fundamental concepts of economics, differencial calculus, and the study of U.S. immigration in preparation for the Super Quiz. The nine hour decathalon was held at Piedmont Hills High School. Overall our Prospect team did quite well, earning a respectable ninth place out of 33 teams, and racking up a whopping 4970 points on the oral speeches.

In fact, the two compulsory speeches of each member were all so good that we received a special congratulations by the judges.

Like a member said, "The decathalon is like a big game of Trivial Pursuit!" So if you're a big fan of learning and will be a junior or senior next year, maybe you should check out the Academic Decathalon for a real challenge.

Admission Control

Members: Chris Chick, Olivia Fojas, Sharon Greer, Kathryn Griffith, Linda Ha, Terri McCArville, Diane Rhinehart, Amy Story, Beth Story, Sezanah Taherian.

Have you often wondered who are those diligent student workers hole-punching student body cards and taking tickets at various Prospect functions? Instructed by Mrs. Schuster, the hardworking pupils are collectively known as Prospect's 1985-86 Admissions Control. These devoted students often spend many an afternoon checking people entering the football games, the Variety Show, wrestling tournaments, or basketball games. Their job is not as easy as it sounds. These devoted students often have popular excuses like "I do have a student body card; I just lost it!" or, "I left my ticket at home, really I did!" ringing in their ears by the time they finish the job. Also, as a member put it, "We usually attend most school activities, but we seldom ever see the whole thing!" Still, for their unyielding patience with taking tickets, the members receive their own student body cards at no charge, compliments of the school. For all that hard work they deserve it.

Art Commission

Members: Stephanie Aitken, Stacey Bakke, Carolyn Beale, Kellie Collins, Laura Crenshaw, Sean DeLapp, Eric Foster, Jodi Goldman, Stephanie Grenier, Carolyn Hastings, Michelle Hayes, Rosie Heckert, Janie Mandrusov, Katy Medley, Sarah Panish, Donna Price, Stacey Richardson, Cheryl Sano, Judy Sun, Sean Voorhes, Jennifer Warburton.

Although not well-recognized by most students, Prospect's 1985-1986 Art Commission is an extremely important part of the school's varying atheletic and social events. The many artists work on their masterpieces either before, during, or after school. Most of their projects are done to help clubs such as the designs that are taken for granted such as the swim team scoreboard, band props, and many types of drama backgrounds are just a few of the many jobs successfully accomplished by this year's commission. "One fun thing about being on the Art Commission," recalls a member, "is that you can design an ordinary tree to be a work of art!" Many thanks to this talented commission for putting finishing touches on Prospect's many activities.

Chess Club

Members include: Cris Chick, Ivar Devries, Erick Foster, Jack Kalpakian, Melvin Matsumoto, Phuc Nguyen, Huu Tran, Jason Wilkes.

This year's Chess Club had an overall good year. The team came in second place! While improvements went throughout the year, these dedicated young members went through rigorous and stressful training in order to compete. (They were even required to take a physical!) Practices were held everyday at brunch to lunch, with chess matches on Wednesdays. These boys deserve much credit for a difficult job well done!

Dance Commission

Charlotte Abshire, Kristen Anhorn, Laurel Austad, Judy Banks, Cheryl Barnes, Jean Bender, Jodie Bernstein, Brenda Blake, Gina Booth, Barbara Brokish, Yvette Caro, Debbie Ceballos, Heather Chew, Donna Coburn, Kristen Comer, April Crouse, Thao Diep, Kim Dodd, Diane Dowling, Heather Dowling, Deanna Erickson, Jennifer Evans, Lisa Favorito, Kelly Fesler, Stacy Flory, Jann Fratis, Maryann Gibbons, Terri Gilliland, Ivy Goldspiel, Karen Graham, Traci Grincewich, Leah Hansen, Sonjilyn Harris, Dina Hayamizu, Kristen Helwig, Tanny Hereford, Shannon Hickey, Chimene Hickey, Kristen Hilwig, Lisa Hopper, Angela Hullur, Jenny Hunt, Rachel Hunter, Norma Jimenez, Mike Kaelin, Shauna Kaozanowski, Rhonda Kienzer, Kristin Keppel, Kathy Kim, Janet Kim, Jon Kissane, Alison Law, Dina Levy, Kim Lungiria, Veronica McCarthy, Rhonda McCormick, Mary McCulmpha, Ana Marcelic, Katy Medley, Stacy McKenna, Tracey Myers, Melissa Oliver, Marguerite Onneto, Maria Pamagakoo, Julie Pere, Kristi Perdue, Trisha Peterson, Myrna Phillips, Kathy Read, Jenny Renzo, Julie Rios, Lorrie Robbins, Cathy Robins, Katrina Rogers, Melissa Schnieder, Sandi Schopplein, Rochelle Stampor, Kerry Stanton, Lucy Storie, Beth Story, Nieves Straaberg, Dawn Swanson, Marion Talbot, Michele Tmokawa, Claire Tracey, Wendy Troto, Rikki VanAlstine, Carmen Weins, Jenny Wilkinson, Jody Wilkinson, Amanda Willson, Jim Woo, Marci Wydenes, Mimie Yoon.

Who dug up that disc jockey? When is the next dance? If you are a member of the Dance Commission, you may be plagued with questions such as these. The club is responsible for music at the dances. In addition, the members decorate, provide refreshments, and plan each memorable dance. Well, who judges our costumes at the Sadies and Halloween Dances? You guessed it-the Dance Commission! The club also arranges for professional photos in our special attire. Being a member of the Dance Commission is not as easy as one may think. It requires a lot of dedication and hard work from each individual to make the club work.

DECA

Members include: Tamera Bridge, Laurie Cuenca, Debbie Garner, Rosie Heckert, Sandra Hines, Kristy Lucero, Darlene Orwig, Sandy Palmer, Richelle Poses, Sandi Schopplein, Debbie Terres, Jody Wilkenson.

What is D.E.C.A.? First off, it stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America. This club consists of students who participate in a distributive education program, taking marketing, merchandising, and sales courses in high school. The activities are designed to promote professional attitudes, marketing, and leadership skills. The club competes twice a year in areas of: merchandise, fast food, restaurants, gas stations, and finally retail. Competitive events provide opportunities to put into practice the principles of marketing and distribution that are learned in the classroom. The chance of winning at the district state, or national levels motivates the student to learn more in the classroom and on-the-job. The final outcome of D.E.C.A. is assisting each member to achieve his or her career goal.

Drama

Members include: Alan Clark, Matt Aquino, David Easter, Robert Hillard, Joan Crowley, Stacey Alvidrez, Julie Rios, Richard DuPont, Regina Evans, Janie Mandrusov, Sezaneh Taherian, April Brady, Derek Smith, Sam Stallings, Shelly Kingery, Dawn Fisher, Larry Hastings, Bonnie Scott, Michele Waters, Lachlan Waterbury, Terri Gillalyn, and Julie Arosio

The audience sits, anxiously awaiting the show . . . a crunch is heard as the lights go down . . . the curtain opens . . . the familiar crunch rings out again as the lights go back on and another Prospect theatrical presentation is on its way. The numerous shows and plays that were put on this year certainly added flavor and fun to our school year. These productions were the results of the efforts put out by this year's drama commission. Under the tutelage of Mr. Hall and the guidance of commissioner Laurel Wilson, all of the necessary set, lighting, and sound work were completed in order to give the students at Prospect a show to remember. The actors certainly play a vital role in a production, but without the lights, set, and sound, the show cannot go on. The drama commission is also a large supplier of the actors, despite the fact that anyone can try out for a part. Thanks go out to all the actors who broke their legs, and to all the students behind the lines who kept things running.

Election Commission

Members include: Karen Graham, Jenny Wilkinson, Lisa Favorito, Laurie Stanton, Robin Roberts, Jennifer Metcalf, Stacey West, Mary Thomson, Diane Dowling, Kimmie Longorid, Kristen Anhorn, Ian McCan, Jennifer Giddings, Julie Quan, MaryAnn Samaniego, Jennifer Lee, Liz Lambourne, Mee Lee, Frederick Voltmer, Melissa Schneider, Rita Alam, Carmen Weins, Nieves Straaberg, Sonjalym Harris, Susan Phillips, Olivia Fojas, Mike Myers, Linda Ha, Shana Kenyon, Judy Sun, Terry McCarville, Sandi Schopplun, Julie Hilty, Sheri Nakamitsu, Amanda Willson, Jann Fratis, Sharon Ritchie, Gina Bowen, Laura Crowe, Rhonda McCormick, MaryAnn Gibbons, Janet Kim, Dawn Swanson, Crystal Snyder, Debbie Read, Janet Muller, Kristen Helwig, Shannon Schwertfener, Christine Abshire, Rori Gill, Catherine Kim, Jody Wilkinson, Marion Talbot, Jon Nakamatsu, Jennifer Holmstead, Cindy Herriges, Sharon Bell, Joelle Watkins, Jeanine Krystal, Veronica McCarthy, Deanna Erickson, Wendy Trozzo, and Julie Arosio

Democracy: a government in which the supreme power is vested in the people. Democracy is a right that we, as Americans, have taken for granted at times. It is sometimes forgotten that the democratic process needs to be supported and protected. Recently the "American Way" has been given an upswing in popularity. People are feeling the urge to protect democracy worldwide, as the countless Sylvester Stallone and Chuck Norris films have shown. Within the small community at Prospect, there is another such group: the elections commission. These dedicated people have done their best to keep the democratic process alive here at Prospect. Luckily, they have not yet found the need to express themselves with Rambo-style weapons like Mr. Stallone. It is this group of people who sacrifice their precious lunch periods to take your vote. They are the ones who count the votes. This dedication and sacrifice is what it takes to keep democracy strong here at Prospect.

Electronics Commission

Members include: David Graul, Brian King, Robert Wiggers, Khoi Hoang, Choonz Lee, Tom Sachen, Ted Rallis, David Schreiber, David Easter, Hee So, Dan Halen, and Phil Charlebois

This year's electronics commission was busy doing what it always has: providing Prospect its skill, talent, and know how. The commission is who maintains and operates the electronic equipment at school rallies and sporting events. Although their were a few minor problems at one or two rallies, ("Nope, wasn't our fault, no-siree Bob, we had nothing to do with it. It was someone else, . . . yah, some guy named Gurdev, yah, that's what happened, yah, that's it.") the electronics commission handled their challenge bravely and always won out over the swarm of wires, junctures, plugs, and other grossly technical beings. And it was a good thing, too, because if the cheerleaders didn't have the music, then we couldn't see their amazing performances. Likewise, the commission runs the microphones that carry out the announcements at the rallies. You know, those announcements that are ever so important to us, yet we can never hear them . . .

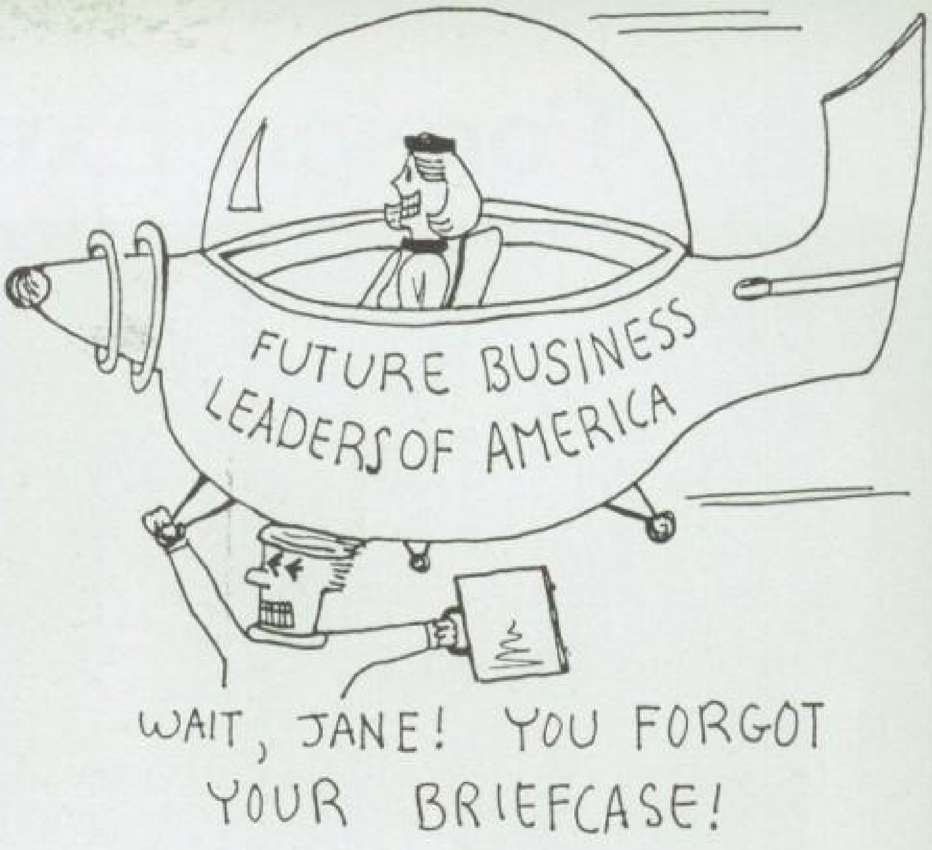
Future Business Leaders Of America

Future Business Leaders of America stands for service, progress, and education; it means business.

Professionally, F.B.L.A. provides meetings which will increase members' knowledge on various businesses and office occupations, with the use of panel discussions, guest speakers, and business-related films. The club has activities in which members contribute to the community, learn how to be influential business and community leaders, and work with business and local government officials. Activities include service to help others with various problems, for nothing but a feeling of satisfaction. This organization is social-it provides for recreational events, social activities, and just plain fun.

F.B.L.A. has two goals in the financial area- to develop competent, aggressive business leaders and to encourage and practice efficient money management.

Another important goal of California F.B.L.A. is developing leadership qualities in its members. Participating in any local, section, or state level activity as a member, committee chairperson, or officer can give the kinds of experiences which influence the development of a positive self-image and a feeling of accomplishment.



FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA
WAIT, JANE! YOU FORGOT YOUR BRIEFCASE!

Future Farmers Of America

Sally Clipton and Katy McNally (who is receiving her second degree membership), members of Future Farmers of America, attend meetings and "classes" on the Westmont Farm. There they learn about agriculture (plants, animals, etc. . . .) and how to maintain and survive on a typical farm. These two dedicated members raise their own steer from November to August, and sheep and swine are raised from late May to August. These commercial-grown animals are then presented at the Santa Clara County Fair. The blue and red ribbon winners are auctioned off at the fair, too. F.F.A. is a fun, worthwhile, and educational experience where one (or actually two this year) can learn more about agriculture, and it would be creditable on anybody's application to any college! The number of members has dwindled down, so you may not see this club around much longer. Animal lovers, vegetarians, and anybody else should jump into the meat of things! Join the Future Farmers of America and enhance your agricultural knowledge. Well now you know-F.F.A. isn't just a bunch of bull.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Foreign Exchange/Language Club

Members include: Tracey Abinanti, Lynore Abbot, Christine Abshire, Charlotte Abshire, Stephanie Aitken, Rita Alam, Stacey Alvidrez, Kristen Anhorn, Julie Arosto, Jennifer Atherton, Laurel Austed, Carolyn Beale, Sharon Bell, Jean Bender, Brends Blake, Olef Boedecker, Alicia Budenbender, Alicia Burnwill, Carol Callahan, Yvette Caro, Darlene Chan, Terrie Cathey, Bichole Church, Mike Clifton, Dawn Contreras, Kaye Coston, Wendy Crane, Laura Crowe, Laura Cuencas, Sonja Delgado, Diane Doeling, Heather Dowling, Ivar De Vries, Sheryl Ehrman, Deanna Erickson, Jennifer Evans, Olivia Fojas, Aileen Fong, Sean Frame, Jennifer Giddins, Mariann Gibbons, Any Ha, Linda Ha, Karen Hanson, Lesly Haranaga, Rachel Haws, Carolyn Hastings, Melissa Hastings, Rosie Heckert, Lisa Helgo, Kristen Helwig, Cindy Gerriges, Chimene Hickey, Whitney Hill, Marlene Hirose, Mike Kaelin, Shona Denyon, Catherine Kim, Janet Kim, Taiyane Kim, Jon Kissane, Lix Lambourne, Alison Law, Jennifer Lee, Tina Lee, Michele Lienhart, Deniese Lokey, Jamie Maldruson, Kristen Menefee, Jenni Meyer, Jennifer Metcalf, Kristen Miller, Janelle Muller, Mike Myers, Tiffany McArdle, Terry McCarville, Rhonda McCornich, Rori McGill, John Nakamatsu, Shere Nakamitsu, Maria Panagakos, Kendra Parker, Loura Patterson, Heather Patti, Susan Phillips, Diana Quan, Kathy Quan, Ted Rallis, Debbie Read, Kathy Reed, Kim Reed, Sharon Ritchie, Lorrie Robbins, Gary Rossi, Vibcent Sang, Cheryl Sano, Lesli Schauf, Amary Ann Samaniego, Nivisha Shah, Sandi Schoppein, Melissa Schneider, Haryn Shiver, Shannon Schwertfeger, Dawn Swanson, Crystal Snyder, Nieves Sraaberg, Lee Stuart, Blake Talbot, Marian Talbot, Mandy Tessa, Mary Thomson, Tina Torres, Thanh Tran, Wendy Trozzo, Rikki Van Alstine, Beth Varozza, Gina Wall, Barbara Wilkes, Brian Wilkes, Jason Wilkes, Jenny Wilkinson, Johy Wilinson, Kenneth Wong, Marci Wydenes, and Veda Szeto.

The 1985/1986 Foreign Exchange/Language Club at Prospect High School is off to an impressive beginning with Jody Wilkinson as the president, Carol Callahan as the secretary, and Jamie Mandrusov as the historian. The main purpose of the club is to promote the interests of students at Prospect in different cultures, expose them to different aspects of society in foreign countries, and enrich their thoughts and lives. Throughout the year the club participated in such activities as a dress-up Halloween party at Carol Callahan's house, a Merry Christmas celebration, and a 1986 spring field trip to either Carmel or San Francisco. This year's club is well supported by more than a hundred members, who will experience influential cultural exchange with Prospect's three overseas foreign exchange students from the Netherlands, Australia, and West Germany. The Foreign Exchange/Language Club is a fun and easy way to expand your horizons and meet new faces, both foreign and native American.

Foreign Exchange Students

Gidday,

My year at Prospect High school was certainly one to remember. I came across many new and different things, which made my year as an exchange student unforgettable. Everyone was so friendly and welcoming to me. I felt as if I was at home. I have many memories of Prospect which I will take home and have always. My teachers and friends were all so helpful and I'd like to say thanks to you all. A special thanks goes to my number two mom and dad and Alicia my host sister who was always there when I needed her as a sister or a friend.

Thanks to everyone!
See you "Down Under"
Love,
Carolyn Beale (Australia)

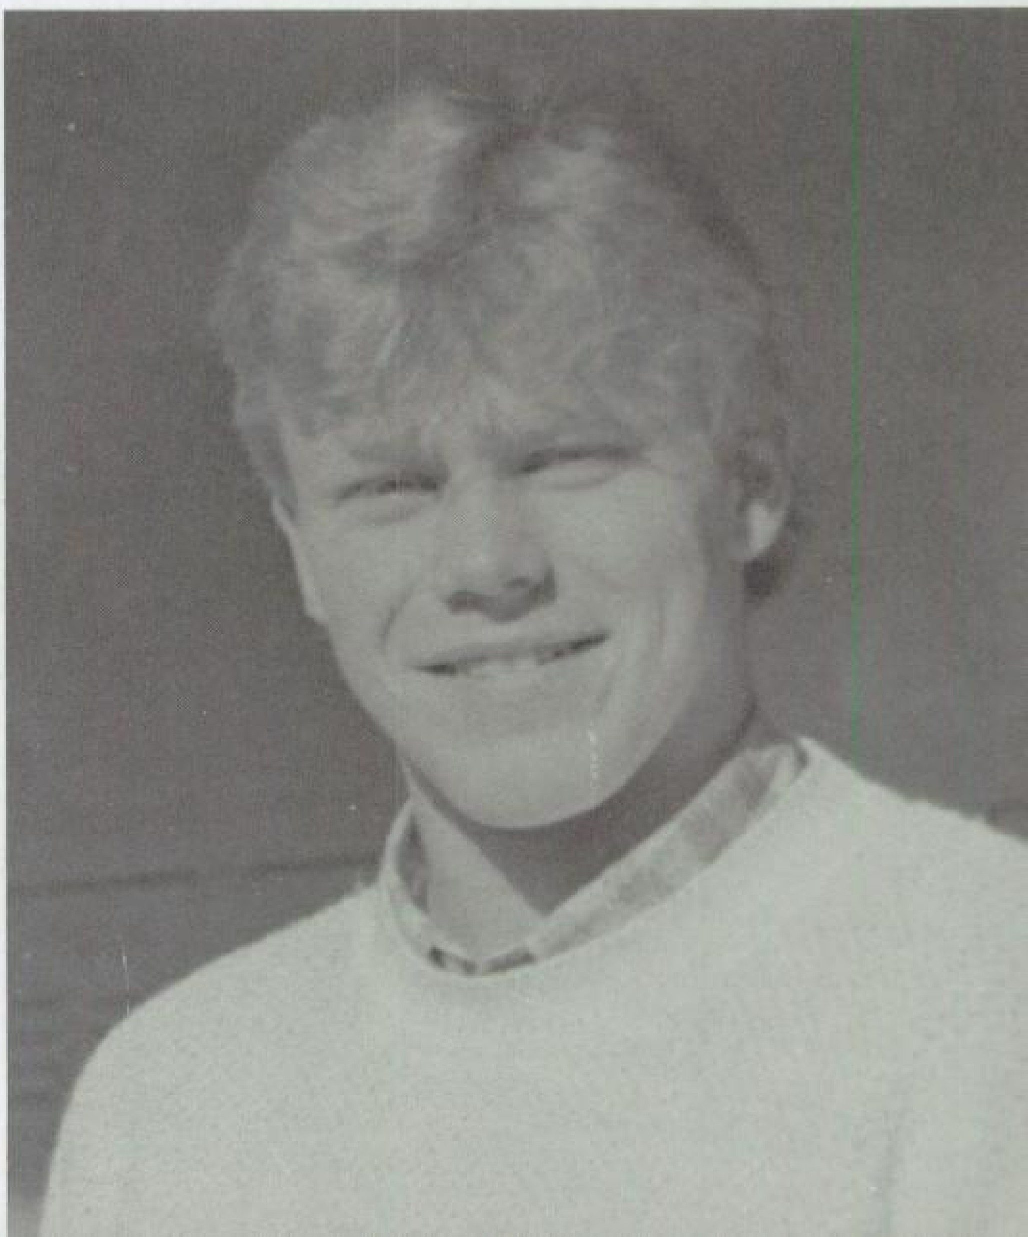
Before I came to America I wasn't sure what I had to expect from this country and its people. I always felt indisposed when I thought about the problems I could have. Now, I can say that this time here has been one of the greatest times of my life. I want to say thank you to all of you: the students, the teachers, and everybody else who helped make this year so wonderful for me. I will miss you a lot but I take so many nice memories home of all the new experiences I had. I wish everybody at Prospect High good luck and I hope I will meet you again. Huge thanks to Julie, Greg, Dan and Cathy for being so good friends.

Love,
Olaf Bodecker
(West Germany)



Key Club

Members: Gina Bowen, Jenny Coldren, Laura Crowe, Becky Davis, Sonia Delgado, Marianne Depp, Georgina Dorkin, Stacey Dudek, Kristina Enslow, Sheryl Ehrman, Sean Foster, Terri Gilliland, Linda Ha, Larry Hastings, Jon Kissane, Veronica McCarthy, Terri McCarville, Bonnie Scott, Judy Sun, Susie Taherian, Marian Talbot, Mike Tran, Aprille Weight, Jenny Wilkinson.

Where does all that popcorn at the football games come from? Key Club knows. Where do all those canned foods you brought to class go? Key Club knows. Just what is Key Club and how do they know all these marvelous things? The club is advised by the venerable Larry Arnerich. Besides being a group of active popcorn and soda salespersons, these people take part in various fund-raisers and other activities that benefit everyone. That can of sweet potatoes you brought to school because you can't stand sweet potatoes ended up as part of a needy family's holiday dinner. The Key Club has been a part of Prospect since Prospect first opened. A lot has changed since its all-male members wore crested blazers, but one thing remains the same. The club gives students the opportunity to serve the community and to feel good about themselves.

Panther Prints

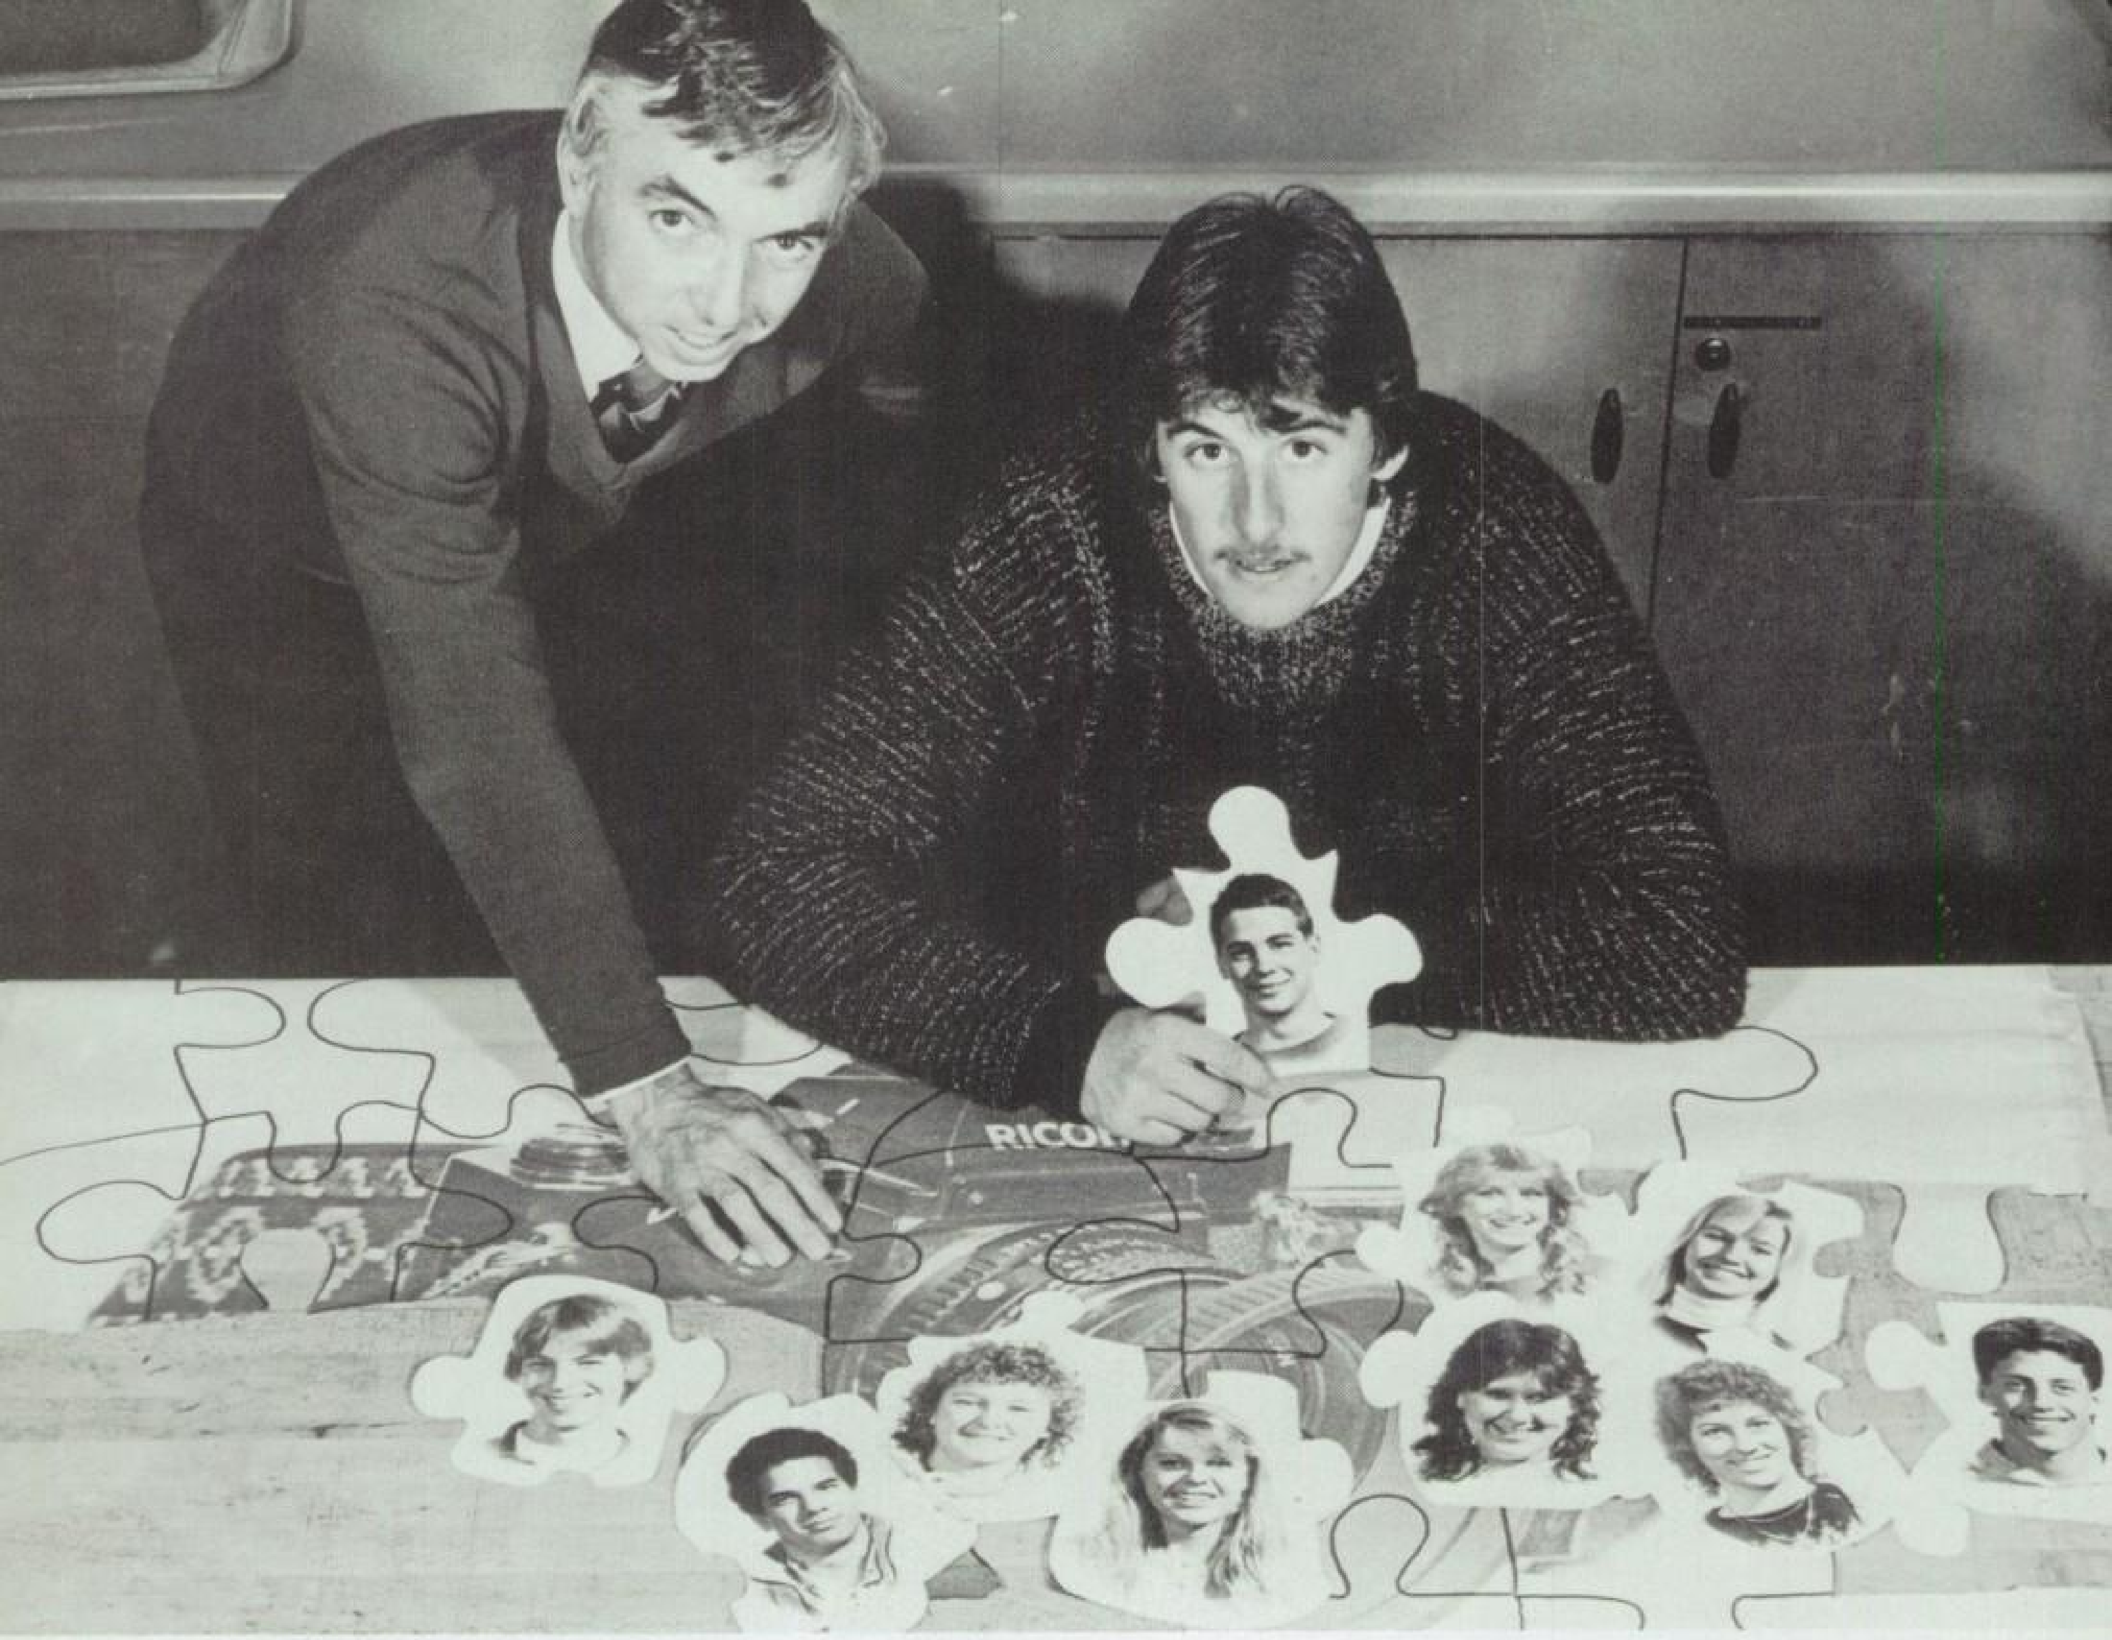
Members: Matt Aquino, Troy Archuleta, Paul Bozarth, Tamra Bridge, Chad Chandler, Tracey Collins, Dawn Contreras, Aileen Cureton, Sean Frame, John Freitas, Jodi Goldman, Stacey Heinricks, Mike Howell, Will Johansen, Traci Lang, John Langford, Cheri Lund, Stacey Mathews, Dave Meck, Tracey Meyers, Tuana Olea, Derek Oullette, Kathy Peterson, Melissa Purvis, Stephanie Smith, Tom Sunzeri, Miranda Weaver, Lisa Williams, Jon-Paul Wolfe

Deadlines, headlines, bylines-these and other journalistic terms float freely around the second period journalism class. Under the advisorship of Joan Shahan, these budding journalists turn out a paper every two weeks. In between papers, the students work on making the paper better. They critique Panther Prints as well as papers from other schools. Page, Art and Photo Editors strive to make sure the paper is balanced. The co-editors do the final editing and help to grade the stories. This year, the staff has a new device to aid them in the planning of the paper, a Macintosh computer. All this hard work and technical expertise results in an interesting and informative paper. So when that smiling journalism students stops by your class with copies of the paper, stop to think for a moment how much work these people put into Panther Prints, and then go ahead and enjoy it.

Science Club

Members: Carole Adams, Sharon Bell, Bruce bookman, Alan Clark, Thore Clausen, Joan Crowley, Diane Dowling, Dave Easter, Scott Eden, Sharon Eden, Olivia Fojas, David Graul, Amanda Griggs, Linda Ha, Cindy Herriges, Khor Hoang, Tai Yun Kim, Cecily Lu, Terri McCarville, Myron Meier, Noah Miller, Berman Mo, Mike Meyers, Jon Nakamatsu, Jennifer Odelirys, Julie Qua, Stacy Quan, Liana Reda, Diane Rhinehart, Lorrie Robbins, Mary Ann Samaniego, Lesli Schauf, Sandi Schopplein, David Schreiber, Michael Slater, Hu So, Veda Szeto, Eve Tracey, Mike Tran, Thanh Tran, Tommy Tran, Mike Tsukumoto, Leslie Wilder, Barbara Wilkes, Brian Wilkes, Jason Wilkes

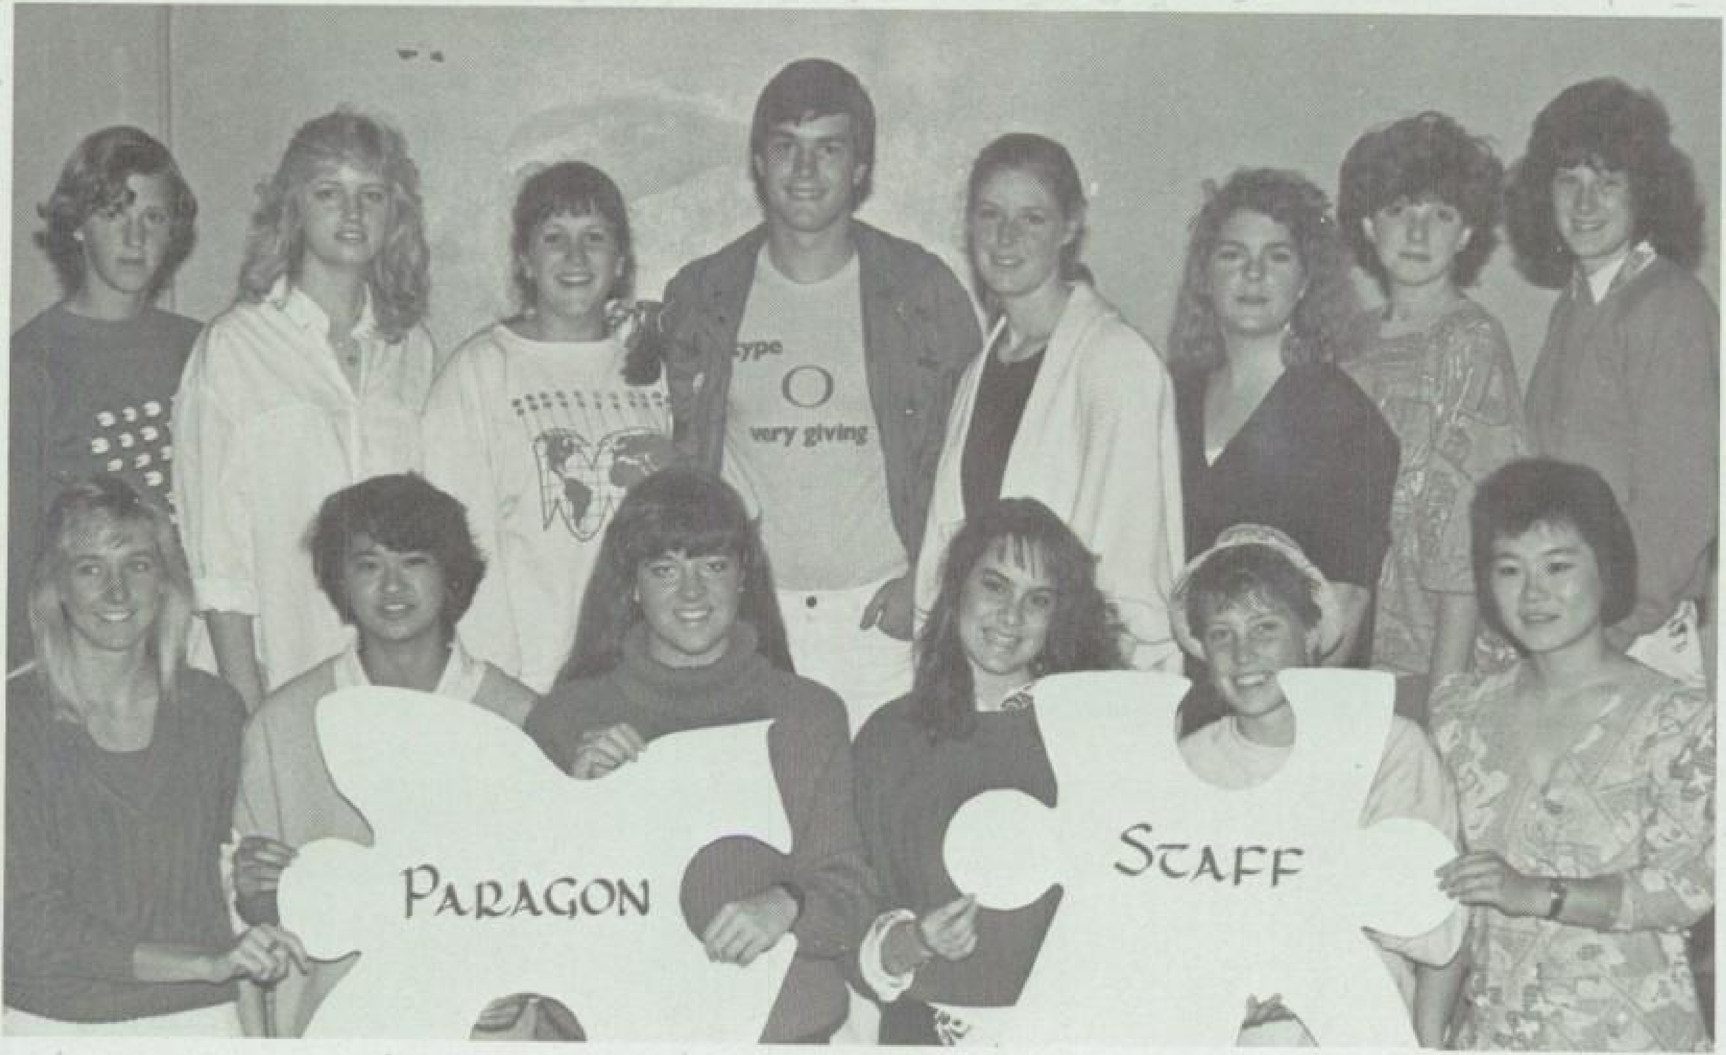
If you happened to bump into a person in the halls looking aimlessly skyward, it was most likely a Science Club Member searching for Halley's Comet. This club, composed of curious students seeking reasons and explanations about the world around them, organized a series of field trips in order to quench their insatiable thirst for knowledge. Their first such trip was to NASA's Ames Research Center. Here the students saw the latest advancements in aeronautics and aviation. Their second trip took them to Westinghouse, not to see the washing machines, but to see the production of Poseidon missles. Other scheduled trips include a tour of Good Samaritan, a night-time excursion to view Halley's Comet, and a trip to the Science Laboratories of San Jose State University. What does 6.02 times ten to the twenty-third equal when you're in the Science Club? One mole of fun, of course! Just ask advisor Joan Russell what a mole is and she'll be sure to tell you.



Left to right: Puzzle pieces- Keith Leeper, Perry Hatch, Laura Velasco, Debbie Terres, Wendy Solomon, Cheri Lund, Dan Beedy Back row- Mr. Browning (Advisor), Tim Slaughterbeck (Commissioner), Alan Stevens, Julie Johnson, and Laurie Staunton

Photo Commission

Say money! Click! You've heard it. It may have been a rainy day and you were late for class or maybe you won an award or ever if you were unsuspectingly pigging out during lunch, you were being watched! The Photo Commission was watching you. Their photographers are everywhere: at sport events after, after school, at dances at night, and in classrooms by day. Almost half the pictures in the yearbook were taken by the Photo Commission. This hard working group of students, have dedicated one period of the day plus a lot of their free time to capture the heart and soul of our school on film. Some do it for the fun of it; others enjoy the power of turning people into images on film; others like being trigger happy; and some love the art of photography. No matter what their motive, they were not disappointed in searching for subjects at Prospect. Our spirited rallies, our never-normal daily life, the fearsome Deans, the timid freshman, the ever-cool seniors, the cafeteria jungle, and even the friendly library provide entertaining subjects for their photographs. Photo Commission has contributed a lot to our school not only as pictures in the yearbook but also dance pictures and photos in the newspaper. Thanks to them, we can relive precious moments by glancing through our wallets, leafing through our albums, on looking through the yearbook. So next time you're approaching school from the parking lot and you smell something funny and see strange lights and sounds coming from a small room, don't be alarmed! Be happy to know that those odd sights, smells, and sounds are memories in the making!



Left to right: Front row- Laurie Staunton, Diana Quan, Carmen Weins, Kim D'Attilio, Kristen Menefee, and Catherine Kim Back row- Barbara Ballard, Carole Adams, Colleen Shannon, David Easter, Shannon Hickey, Sheryl Ehrman, Veronica McCarthy, and Lisa Regul Not shown- Sheri Nakamitsu

JUNIOR EDITORS

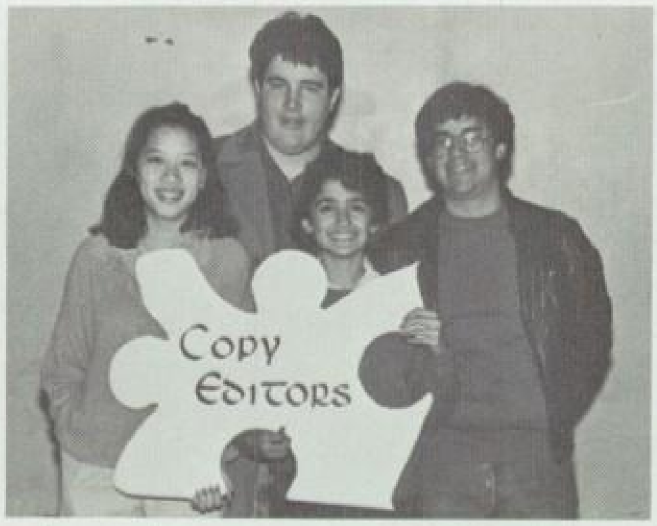
Rori McGill and Audrey Kawaye



Linda Ha, Alan Clark, Sezaneh Taherian, and Matt Aquino

Mrs. Tipton

SENIOR EDITORS

Jennifer Metcalf and Shana Kenyon

Paragon Staff

This year's yearbook staff spent most of their time cringing under the iron fists of the Senior editors, Shana Kenyon and Jennifer Metcalf. It got particularly ugly after they got those Rambo-style-weapons they sent away for early in the year. All kidding aside, the yearbook staff and editors worked diligently to produce this year's exciting Paragon. In the forefront of the battle were Shana and Jennifer. They easily worked the hardest on the yearbook, putting up with silly ideas of the staff and, especially, the copy editors. Keeping a close eye on the Senior editors were the Junior editors, hoping to learn the tracks-'o-the-trade in order to become next year's leaders. Finding the pulse of Prospect was the Paragon Staff. They did a lot of the dirty work in order to bring this lively book to you. The reinforcements, as usual, were the Copy editors. What did they do? Well, other than hanging around at Alan's house and eating a lot of food, they wrote a sea of copy for the yearbook. All in all, we think we did a heck of a job so, we're gonna go catch a flick. Enjoy the yearbook and drive safely.

Senior Play

If you still don't know why Alan Baker is a bum, then you missed seeing the Senior Play. The play, Neil Simon's Come Blow Your Horn, is about 21-year-old Buddy Baker running away from home. His 33 year old playboy brother takes him in and that's where the fun begins. The play was an experience for both the actors and the audience. The long hours of practice by the cast (under the careful direction of Mr. Hall) were rewarded by laughs and applause from the audience. Led by Robert Hillard (Alan) and Dave Easter (Buddy), the three act play provided a fun performance for all who saw it. Supporting roles were played by Alan Clark (Father), Stacy Alvidrez (Mother), Joan Crowley (Connie), Laurel Wilson (Peggy), and Julie Arosio (the infamous Aunt Gussie). So remember, always ask who is at the door and never, never be a bum!

Speech And Debate

Members include: Stacey Alvidrez, Mike An, Julie Arosio, Scott Baldwin, Vernell Carpenter, Sandra Childres, Jenny Coldren, Illi Crespo, David Easter (commissioner), Sharon Eden, Sheryl Ehrman, Matt Farnetti, Sean Frame, Michael Graham, Melissa Hastings, Erik Johnson, Mike Kaelein, Jack Kalpakian, Hoang Khoi, Jon Kissane, Damon Loskutoff, Khai Luong, Janie Mandrusov, Melanie Mechan, James Miotke, Berman Mo, Debbie Nicholas, Cheryl Sano, David Schreiber, Vivian Seremetis, Judy Sun, Suzy Taherian, Marian Talbot, Fred Voltmer, Julie Whittlesey, Jody Wilkinson

A wise man once said, "The human mind is a wonderous thing. It starts working the minute you are born and stops working the minute you begin to speak publicly." This proverb is best known by the members of our Speech Team. They boldly speak where no man (or woman) has spoken before. To be a "Speech and Debater," you must have many talents. Firstly, you must not be embarrassed to make a fool of yourself in front of strange people. Secondly, you must be able to, at a moment's notice, start an argument about the nutritional value of a Twinkie . . . both for and against. And thirdly, you must possess a large formal wardrobe (like those pin-striped suits that Bellarmine wears). These requirements must have been met by a good number of people because the Speech Team swelled under the new guidance of Mrs. Ceccon. Thus a silent salute goes out to those students using their First Amendment right to its fullest.

The Spirit Goes On . . .

Mascots

It's the mascots! Tammy and Sharon started off a terrific year by winning two superior awards, one excellent award, and one superior medal at camp. During football season, both were seen cheering the players on and throwing candy at demanding Pep Club members. When asked about the best part of being a mascot, Sharon replied, "You can joke around and act funny and have lots of fun!" But being a mascot is also hard work, as they performed at gym rallies throughout the year and competed successfully in the first mascot competition in Prospect's history. Both Tammy and Sharon had a great year being the cool cats of Prospect High.

Tammy and Sharon incognito!

Members: Sharon Ritchie and Tammy Hereford

Charolette Abshire, Rachel Adams, Laurel Austad, Judy Banks, Lisa Burrus, Carol Callahan, Debbie Cebalos, Ed Chan, Joan Crowely, Nonda Coleman, Laurie Cuenca, John Finlay, Jay Fitzgerald, Andy Forristel, Chimene Hickey, Shannon Hickey, Kristen Keppel, Chris Kim, Jon Kissane, Rhonda Krenzer, Dave Meck, Chris Montplaisir, Matt Morris, Myrna Phillips, Robin Roberts, Rochelle Stamper, Christine Sweetland, Claire Tracey, Toan Tran, Mike Varrozza,Amber Weight, Jenny Wilkinson, Leslie Woods, Rob Zirzow.

Pep Club

Who is that bunch of wild and crazy people yelling their heads off at football games? They're this year's Pep Club, and they feel good, oh, they feel so good! Their activities range from painting their faces to "roaring" at the opposing team! Says chairperson Carol Callahan, "we're just a bunch of rowdy people, rooting for the team! It's fun, and I think everyone should join!" Being a part of the Pep Club also gives you experiences you could never get anywhere else. Like member Jon Kissane said, "Have you ever dyed your hair blue and lived to tell about it?" "The best part about being in the Pep Club is that you get to go wild, and no one cares!" said another member. Thanks to the Pep Club, the spirit of Prospect was alive and well in 1985-86.

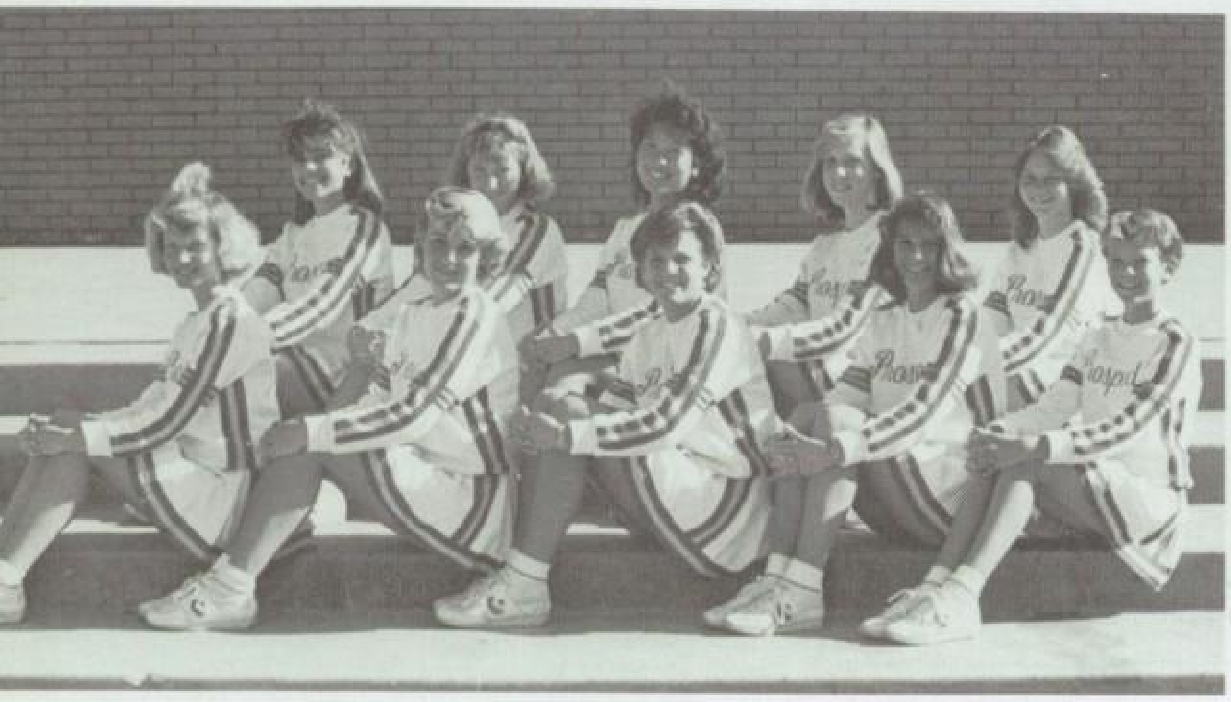
JV Cheerleaders

Not Just A Bunch Of Pretty Faces.

The whole group (and Mary, too) send their cheer from camp.

"And you thought we couldn't do it, huh!" The ten girls created a proud pyramid.

Who are our J.V.Cheerleaders? They're Tinkerbell, Tweedledee, Tweedledum, Chip'n dale, Bashful, Doc, Happy, Donald Duck, and Minnie Mouse. Can you guess who's who? These girls are a lot of fun. They have "the best time". Being a cheerleader is not all fun and games. These girls really work hard. The yells and screams you heard after school everyday were not Indian war cries; they were the sounds of the J.V. Cheerleaders at practice. For them being a Cheerleader is "making a commitment". They have to make sacrifices and suffer many losses; One of them is their voices. Since they're underclassmen most of us didn't take much notice of them. After all, they have much to learn. At the first rally everybody including themselves were prepared for disaster. So they were more surprised than anyone else when they did a perfect job. Their beautiful performances have made us notice and respect them. Even the Varsity Cheerleaders were impressed and forced to admit that the girls were doing a great job.



From left to right, top row: Jennifer Renzo, Maryann Gibbsons, Janet Kim, Alicia Burwell, Lacey Detherow. Bottom row: Shannon Toshach, Lisa Altemus, Beth Russel, Alea Fischer, Sara Carlson.

"Smile, everybody! She's taking our picture."The arrival of Alea, Alicia, Sara, Jenny, Lacey, Lisa, and Beth at camp.

Varsity Cheerleaders

These Cheer-ful Girls Will Raise Your Spirits

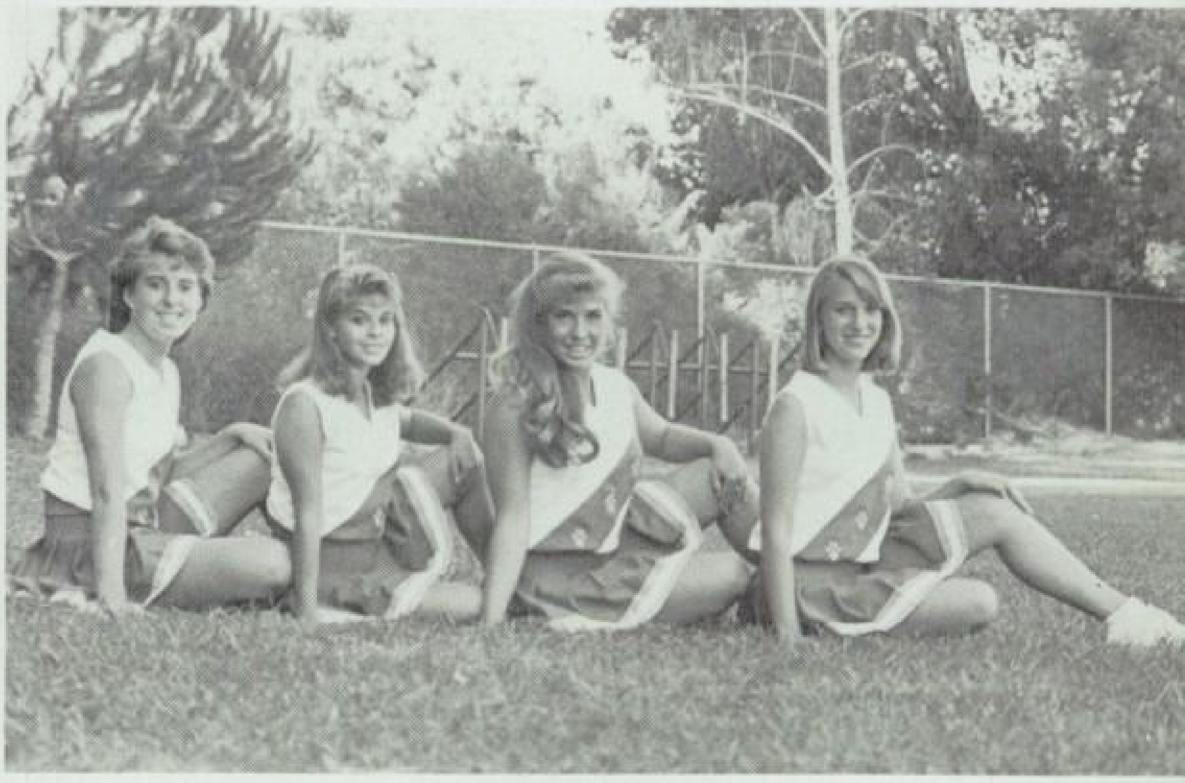
Karen Graham and Stacey West look on, a little worried about the team's situation against Blackford. But there was no need to worry because as usual, Prospect won.

DOWN
YDS.TO GO
4

The typical scene at halftime for the Varsity Cheerleaders. They hold hands just before the team breaks through the runthrough and then run for their lives. Another great victory for the Panthers, as seen by the score at halftime: Panthers: 29, Braves: 0.

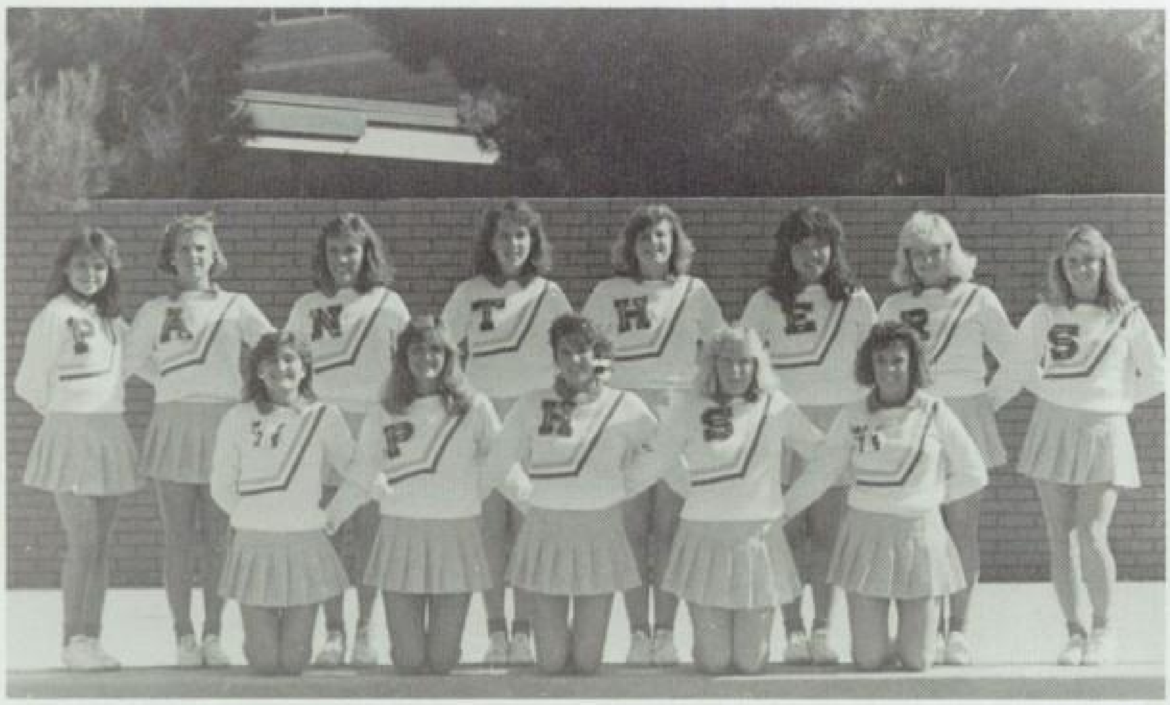
The Varsity Cheerleaders were out at the sporting events and rallies again this year doing what they do best: Cheering. In fact, they cheered so well at camp that they received all superior ribbons and a superior trophy. These four girls stuck together through thick and thin; both during and after school. They worked as a team to clean the halls of whipped cream after JV initiation (with Mr. Lee's supervision). They gave each other moral support during those uncontrollable "Frogurt" attacks. And they comforted each other when they were locked in their room all night at camp. But their teamwork really showed during their performances for the student body. So beware cause "Prospect Varsity Cheer is always near!"

It takes hours of practice, skill, coordination and stamina to be able to perfect a difficult pyramid like this one. Mary Thomson in the splits with Lori Miller standing on her legs.



Left to Right: Karen Graham, Lori Miller, Mary Thomson, and Stacey West.

Letter And



Top row, left to right: Dodd; Kim, Parker, Kendra; Lienhart, Michelle; Booth, Gina; Dowling, Heather; Kim, Liz; Marsh, Michelle; Cushman, Nicole. Bottom row, left to right: Robbins, Lorrie; Schneider, Melissa; Dowling, Diane; McClumpha, Mary; Gasaway, Stacey.

"I'm sick," "I got lost," and "I have a headache!" — were all famous excuses of Goofy, Missy Mouse, Squirt, Gumby, Marshmallow, Torpedo, Curly, Sweet Pea, Goob, Bean, Lucy, and Warlock, Prospect's '85-'86 Lettergirls.

Unity was their key word in working so well together. The girls worked hard at summer camp to be tops, even though it stunk like hairspray and skunk!

Midnight doughnut runs and Frogurt's were part of the good times they've shared together and the reason why they want to wish the '86-'87 Lettergirls as much fun as they've experienced this year.

Below:
We're number one!

Above: Not just another bunch of pretty legs!

Pieces

Song Girls

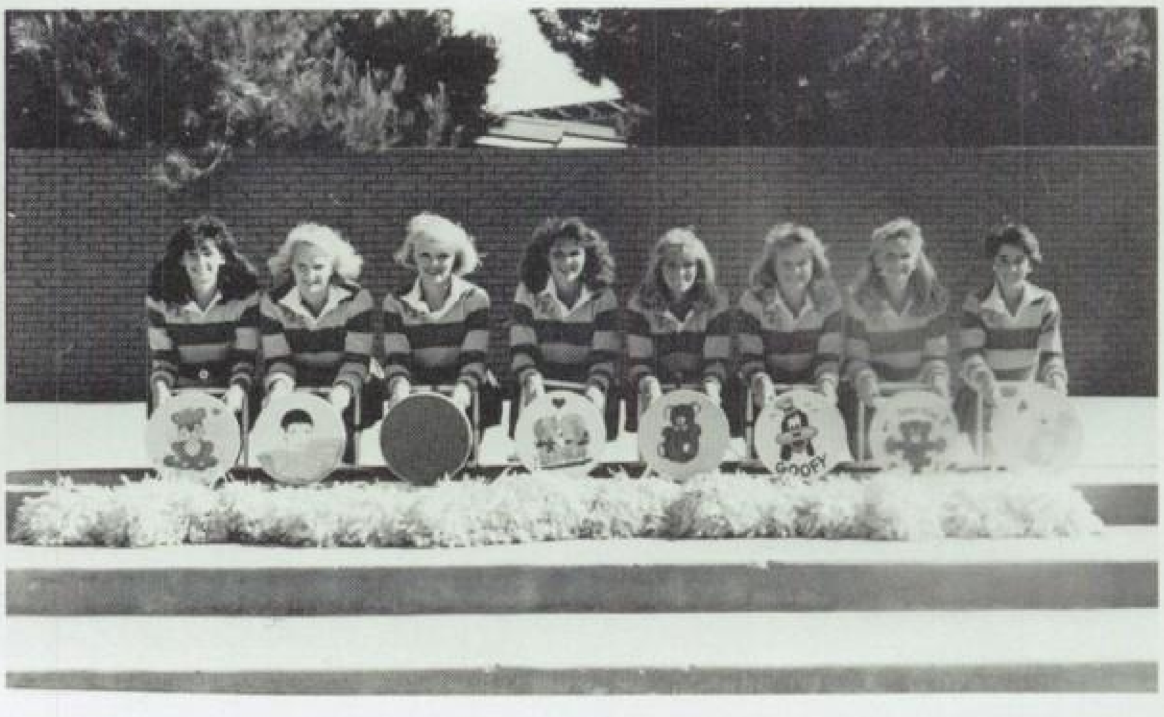
Above:
Wake up Gina!

Of Pep

Below:
Yea team!

The song girls practiced throughout the summer, including camp, for the up and coming year. At camp, they received all superiors (which is the best possible). Nights, however, were a different matter. For instance, questions such as "Who were the strange visitors at one o'clock in the morning?", "Who did let the skunk in, anyway?", and perhaps worst of all: "Are you twins?" were asked. Obviously camp wasn't all hard work. During the year the song girls performed at rallies, games, and competitions. Combined with practices, these added up to a busy schedule!

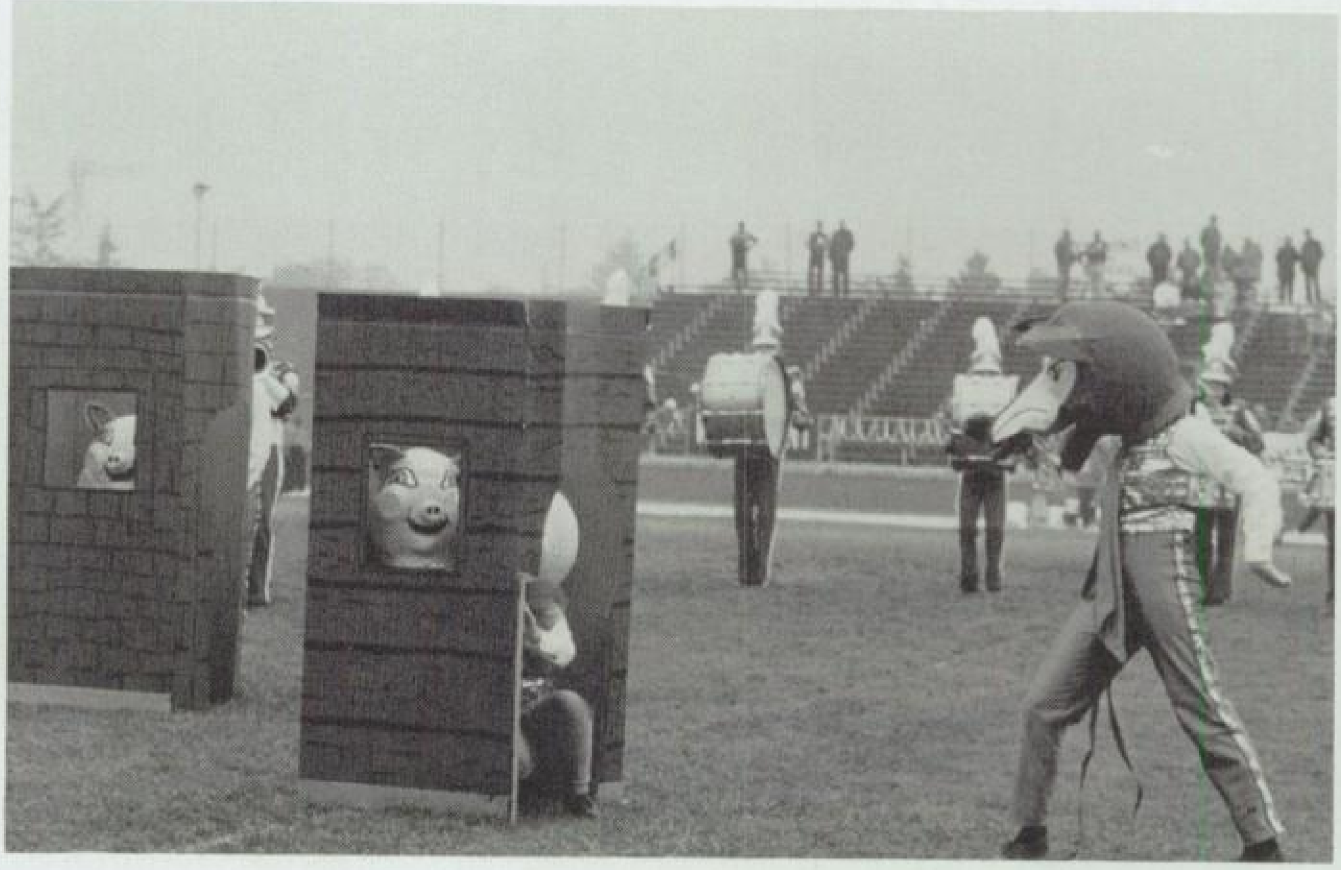
From left to right: Regul, Michelle; Haws, Rachel; Wall, Gina; Petry, Claudia; Straaberg, Nieves; Olson, Yvonne, Albert, Kim; Locoq, Ileen.



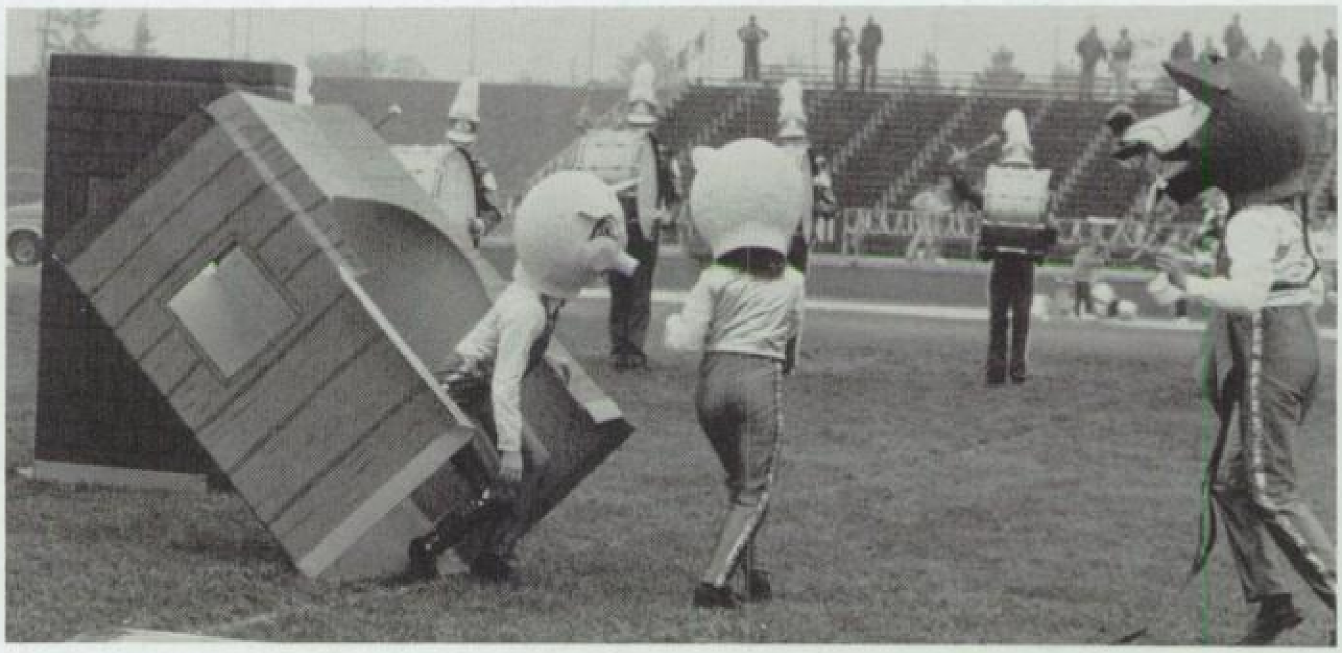
A Rainbow Of Color

Carla Harden performs flagwork in the field show.

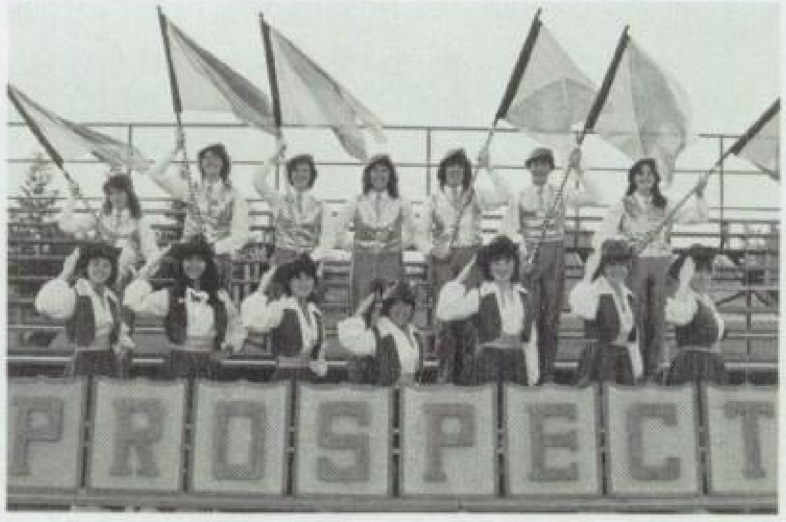
The saying "good things come in small packages" is true of this year's Prospect Colorguard. This year's guard, membering only six, managed to walk away with several awards against such schools as Westmont, Lincoln, Independence, Live Oak, Oak Grove and Los Gatos Highs. This guard is much improved due to the addition of alumni Kathleen Harper as instructor. One creative idea for this year's show was the Disney segment in which some members dressed as the Three Little Pigs and the Big Bad Wolf. This was a real crowd-pleaser. The Colorguard did look a little different this year wearing their new uniforms. They did a super job adding color to the show.



Not by the hair of my Chinny-chin-chin . . .



Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!!!



Members include: Maureen Bushore, Warren Bushore, Leigh-Ann Corzine, Brenda Fortin (captain), Carla Harden (Co-captain), Dede West, Lesli Schauf.

Banner members: Thao Diep, Laura Hamman, Michele Imokawa, Lynn Loudermilk, Cathy Robins, Cathy Salmon, Kay Schuetz.

Members Include: Stacey Bakke, James Barany, Jessie Bushore, Scott Cassell, Masaru Chastain, Donna Crane, Jason Crawford, Michael Curran, Kevin Davis, Stacey Field, Sean Frame, David Graul, Amy Hackleman, Jennifer Hamman, Renee Jewell, Audrey Kawaye, Greg Kenyon, Christine Kim, Brian Kobata, John Langford, Mary Katherine Lee, Jon Liggett, Mike Maurer, Angel Mejia, Mark Morales, Pat Nieman, Matt Pendo, Ronn Pifer, Lisa Poon, Donna Price, Liana Reda, Jenny Reed, Lisa Regul, Katrina Rogers, Gary Rubenstein, Jenny Salmon, Pauline Shander, Colleen Shannon, David Smith, Kristi Stegall, Thomas Takashima, Steve Winterberg, Robert Young, Mike Zensius.

Forward March!

Mark time hut! The Prospect Panther Band started their season with a WHOOSH! If you've seen the field show during the football season you've noticed some new additions to the show-three little pigs and a big bad wolf. This little Disney segment proved to be very entertaining and also gained them publicity on TV and an article in the newspaper.

Under the fearless(?) leadership of drum major Jon Liggett, the band's fall season was very successful, taking numerous awards in their division at each competition they went to, including music sweepstakes, high visual effect, and high percussion. Our band also features solo majorette Donna Crane, who has also won a number of awards, many of them first place.

However, despite the hard practices, hours of drills and intense competitions, (kick Jon!) the band still manages to find time for a little fun with full tackle football (remember "Magic Fingers"?), ghetto blaster wars, food fights, hey lotties, spirited cheering, and a few parties here and there, including a rather rambunctious trumpet sectional.

In the spring the band goes to Tracy and Sacramento for all-day competitions; there they have shown to be very competitive in both parade and field. Also, in late spring they take a trip to Los Angeles to perform at Disneyland.

The band deserves a lot of credit because they have received more awards than any other single organization in the whole school, and their trophy case proves it! They were able to look back on a very rewarding year and they are looking ahead to the fall season and are anticipating another successful year. Keep it up! OOP ACK!!

Jon Liggett, our drum major, in action.

Relax, Gary, relax!

Solo majorette, Donna Crane. Howz this guys?

22
15
8
22

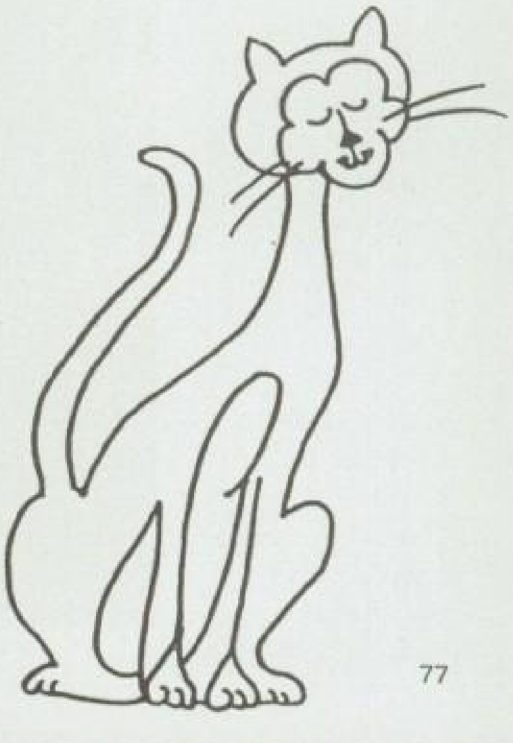
Spirit Week '86

Spirit Week at Prospect is a week all students look forward to. It always proves to be great fun for all. This year was certainly no exception. The hall decorations were quite impressive and student turnout was good. This year the Freshmen went to the wild west with a cowboys and indians theme. The Sophomores went to the tropics with a Gilligan 's Island motif. The Juniors went to the circus while the Seniors hit the Big Apple. The Juniors and Seniors tied on hall decoration competition. Sophomores came in third and the Freshmen came in fourth. Overall the Juniors won first place (mainly because of the points earned for finding the Panther sticker, taking second in the shouting contest, and having the winning powder puff cheerleaders). The Seniors took a close second, the Sophomores took third while the Freshmen came in at a strong fourth. Friday night was the big homecoming dance where the King (Kerrell Robinson) and Queen (Joan Crowley) were crowned. The week climaxed with a triumphant win over the Westmont Warriors (3-2!!) in the homecoming football game. Thanks should be given to the students who worked so hard during Spirit Week.

Inset Left: Oh! They feel so good!

Inset Right: Oh Yeah! He's cool. He's Kerrel Robinson!

Left: Prospect pushing them way back



Seniors-Go To The Big Apple

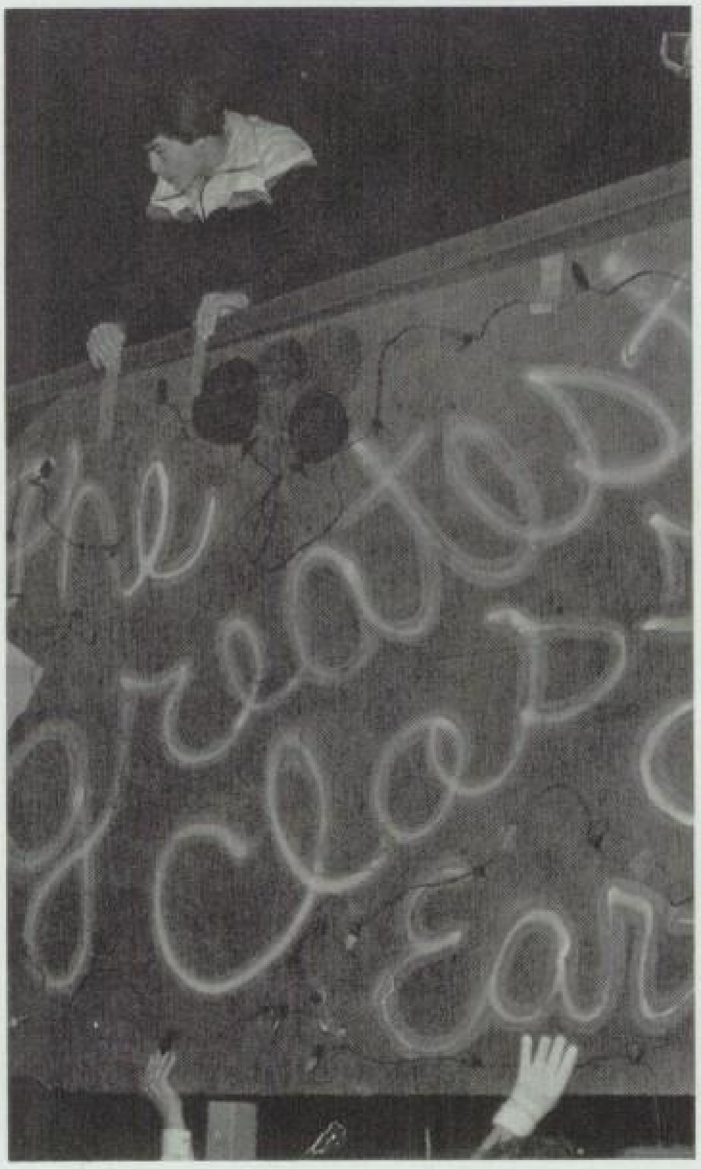
You are entering the world of the . . . Prospect Zone. It is 6 a.m., you find yourself wandering the streets and you come upon a school filled with activity in the early hours. You blend yourself into the crowd and start wandering the halls. You Think to yourself, "This is no normal school."

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. There people dressed impecably well, as if they were on their way to a board meeting, however your turn a corner and you find a bum asking you for 10¢. They seem to be chanting something to the sort of "Seniors, '86"!

N.Y.
NOW PLAYING: TO THE BIG

Juniors-Greatest Class On Earth

You look a little further and you spy what you think to be caged animals. Wait! There are also clowns, tight rope walkers, belly dancers, some dude on a unicycle and somebody yelling, "Peanuts, popcorn, candied apples!" What the heck? It seems to be a circus of some sort. This was the creation of the Juniors, class of '87.

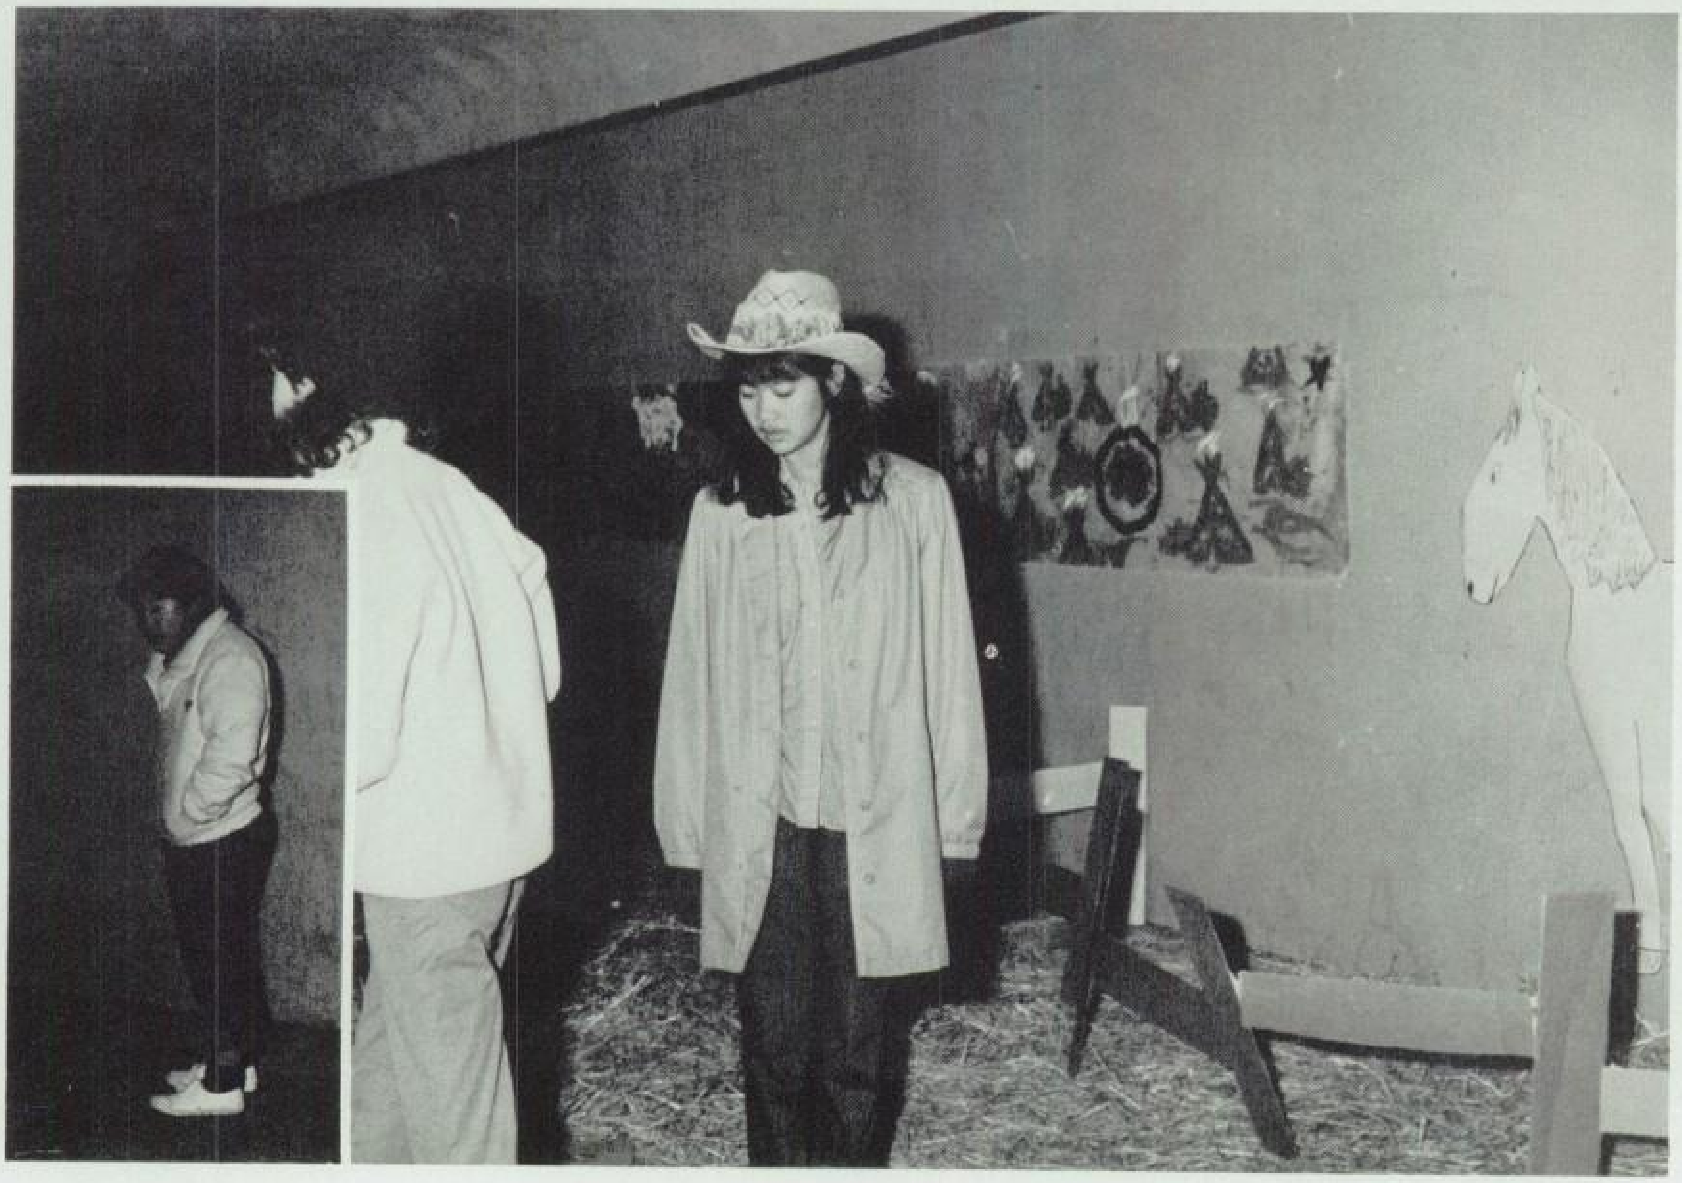


CASI
Tickets
15¢ TICKETS 5¢
5¢

Sophomores-On Prospect Island

As you look across the quad, there is yet another scene. There was sand on green grass and nets and flowers that hung all around. There are people walking around in brightly colored flowered shirts and leis as if they were touring the Bahamas. You imagine cool breezes and the smell of the salty ocean. This territory belongs to the Sophomores, class of '88.

Freshmen—Cowboys And Indians



You continue to wander when, in one dark little corner you see a few cowboys and indians. To add to the scents of the old west there was hay and even a horse! Straining your eyes, there you see a small sign which read, "Freshmen, class of "89."

Suddenly the four groups began to yell at each other, chanting "Pants the Warriors!" "Prospect "86!" . . . Such is life in a day of Spirit Week. This year, hall decorations were very successful. The Juniors stole the prize with the Seniors in hot persuit.

OH MY

They're Wearing Makeup . . . But They've Got Rhythm

Unshaved legs, short skirts, tee shirts with balloons unevenly blownup, lipstick on a lip with a thin moustache above it. What a sexy picture! This was our cheerleading squad at the powder puff game. All four classes sent representatives. The Seniors were exciting and energetic. They even pasted their pictures of their pretty faces all over the school to tempt the wandering eye. The Juniors featured several goodlooking cheerleaders with spirited cheers. The Sophomores and Freshmen participated too, with surprisingly interesting routines. Though the Juniors won, the others put on a great show rousing the audience to laughter, cheers, and applause. And what did the girls think of the performance? — "Great! OW! Hot!"

Our men of P.H.S.

Seniors got rhythm!

I wonder what these cuties are doing after the game!?

King of the mountain?

Tempo guys! Tempo!

Burly Women . . .

Play Like The Big Boys Do!

Seniors Vs Juniors

Kim Dodd: "But that wasn't the plan!?

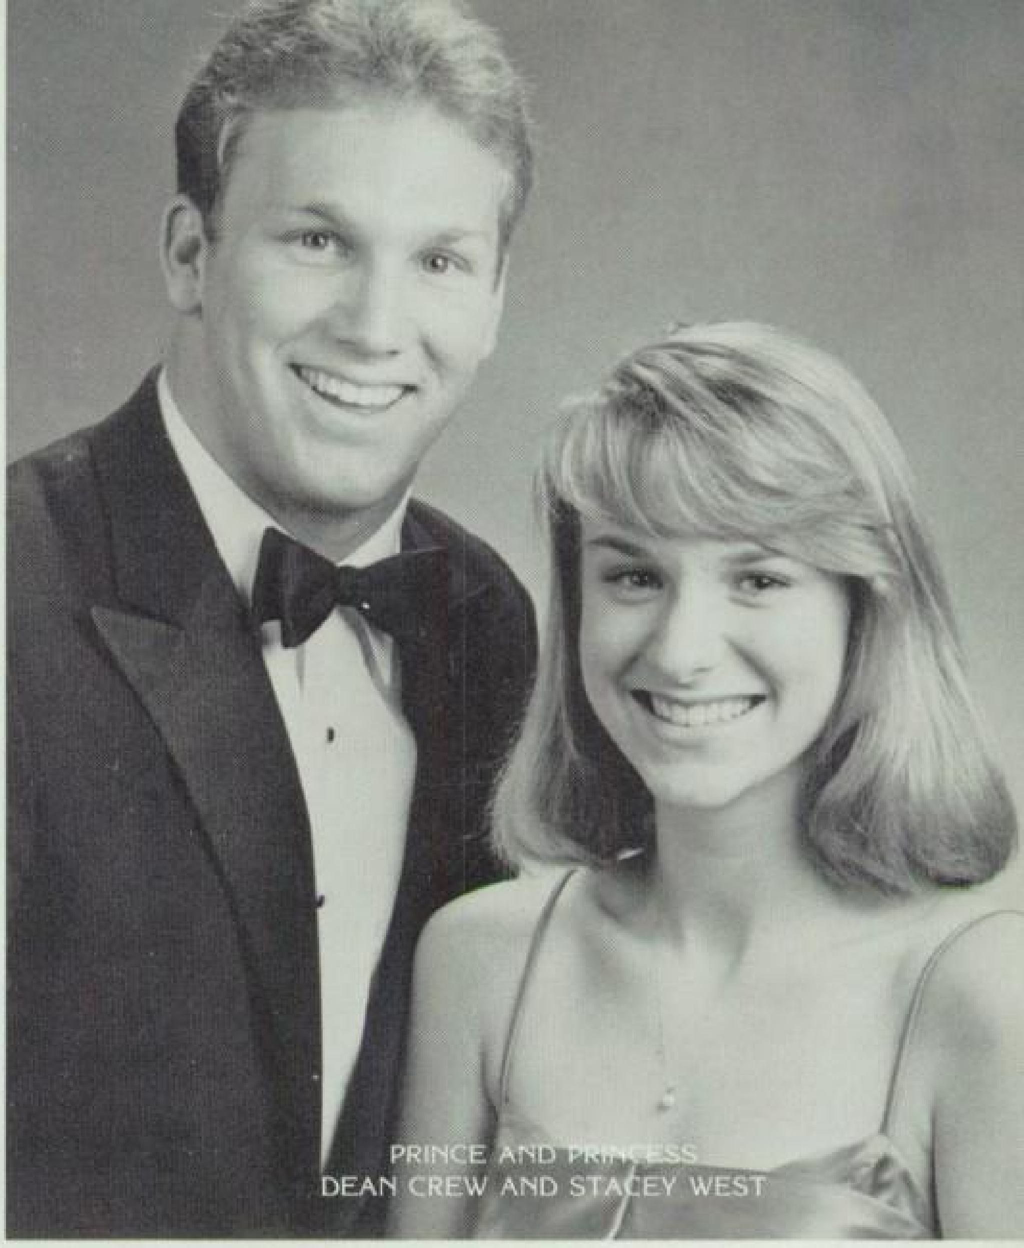
What form Shannon Bernarding!

Shannon Bernarding hands off to Nieves Straaberg for possible Senior yardage.

What in the world is going on here? I got up this morning and nothing seemed to go right! Now, sitting on this field, I see things I'm not willing to believe! I think the world must have gone mad! There's a football game out there, but the players look feminine. They play very well though. The Seniors is the name of one team, and The Juniors is the name of the other. Gee, even if they are girls, this is a pretty exciting football game! This game may have been different, but it was fun! The Junior and the Senior girls played extremely well and the game ended in a tie.

HOMECOMING QUEEN AND KING
JOAN CROWLEY AND KERRELL ROBINSON

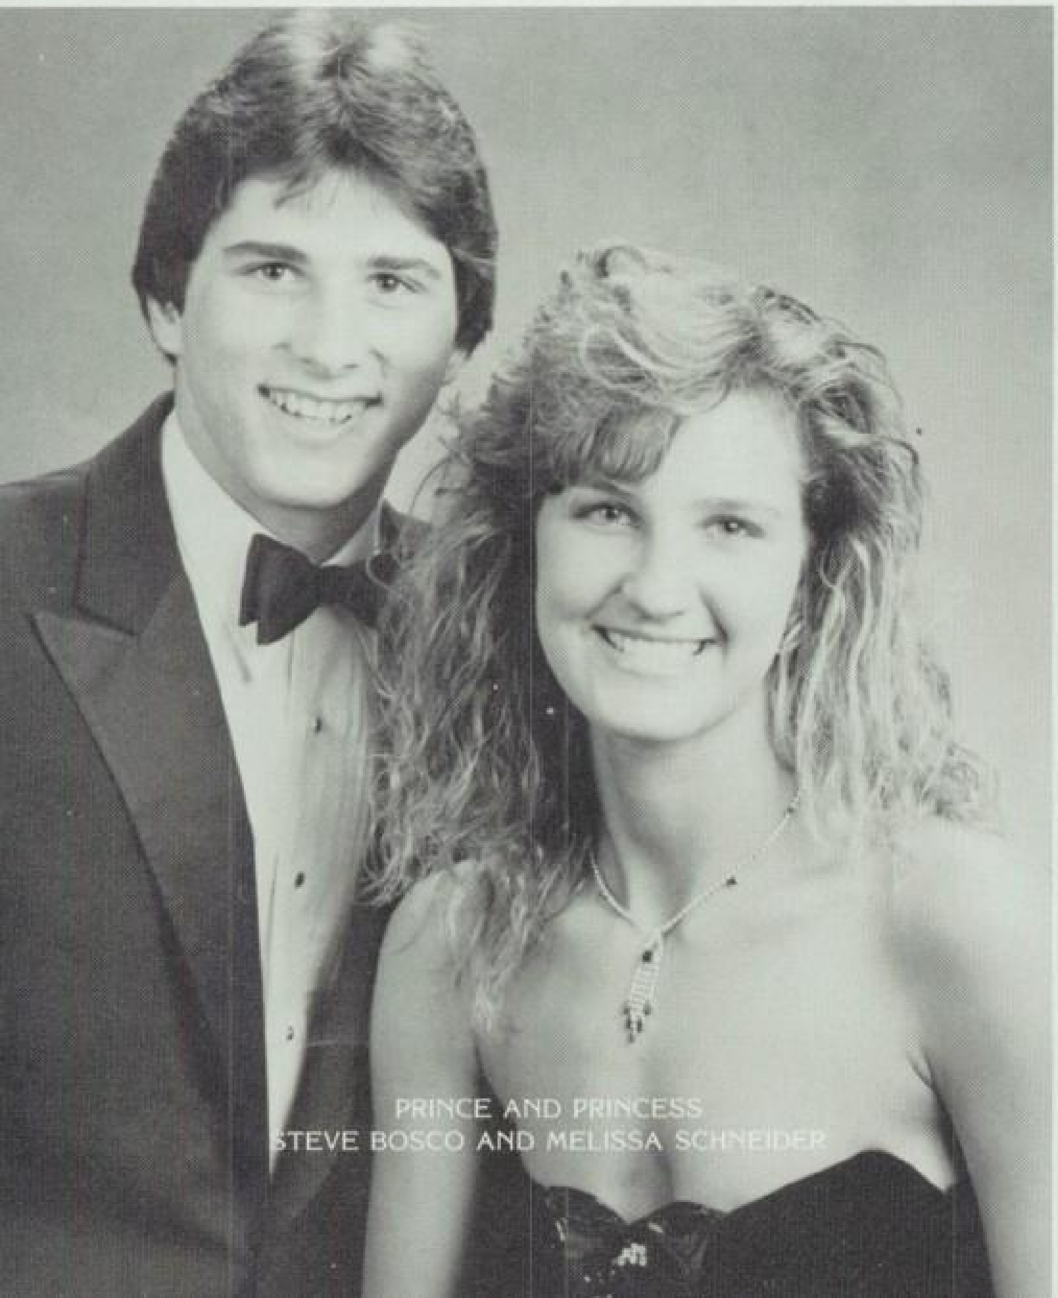
PRINCE AND PRINCESS
GREG BEEDY AND MIRANDA WEAVER



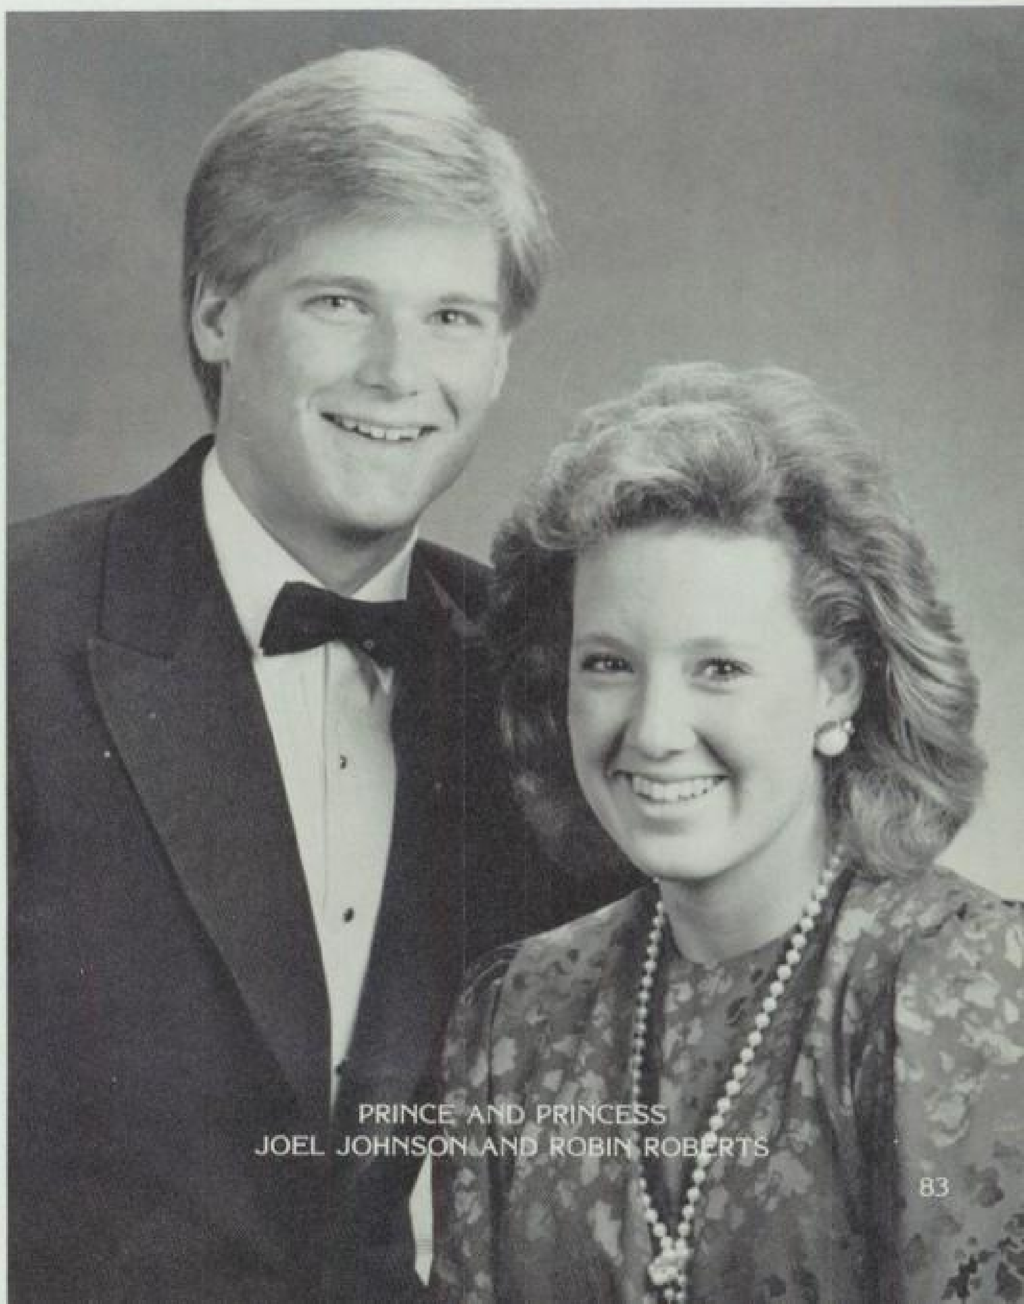
PRINCE AND PRINCESS
DEAN CREW AND STACEY WEST

You're in a big room, there's lots of girls in fancy dresses and hot music filling the air, you can feel this anticipation in the atmosphere growing for what is about to take place. It's the Homecoming Dance where they are about to announce this year's selections for Homecoming King and Queen.

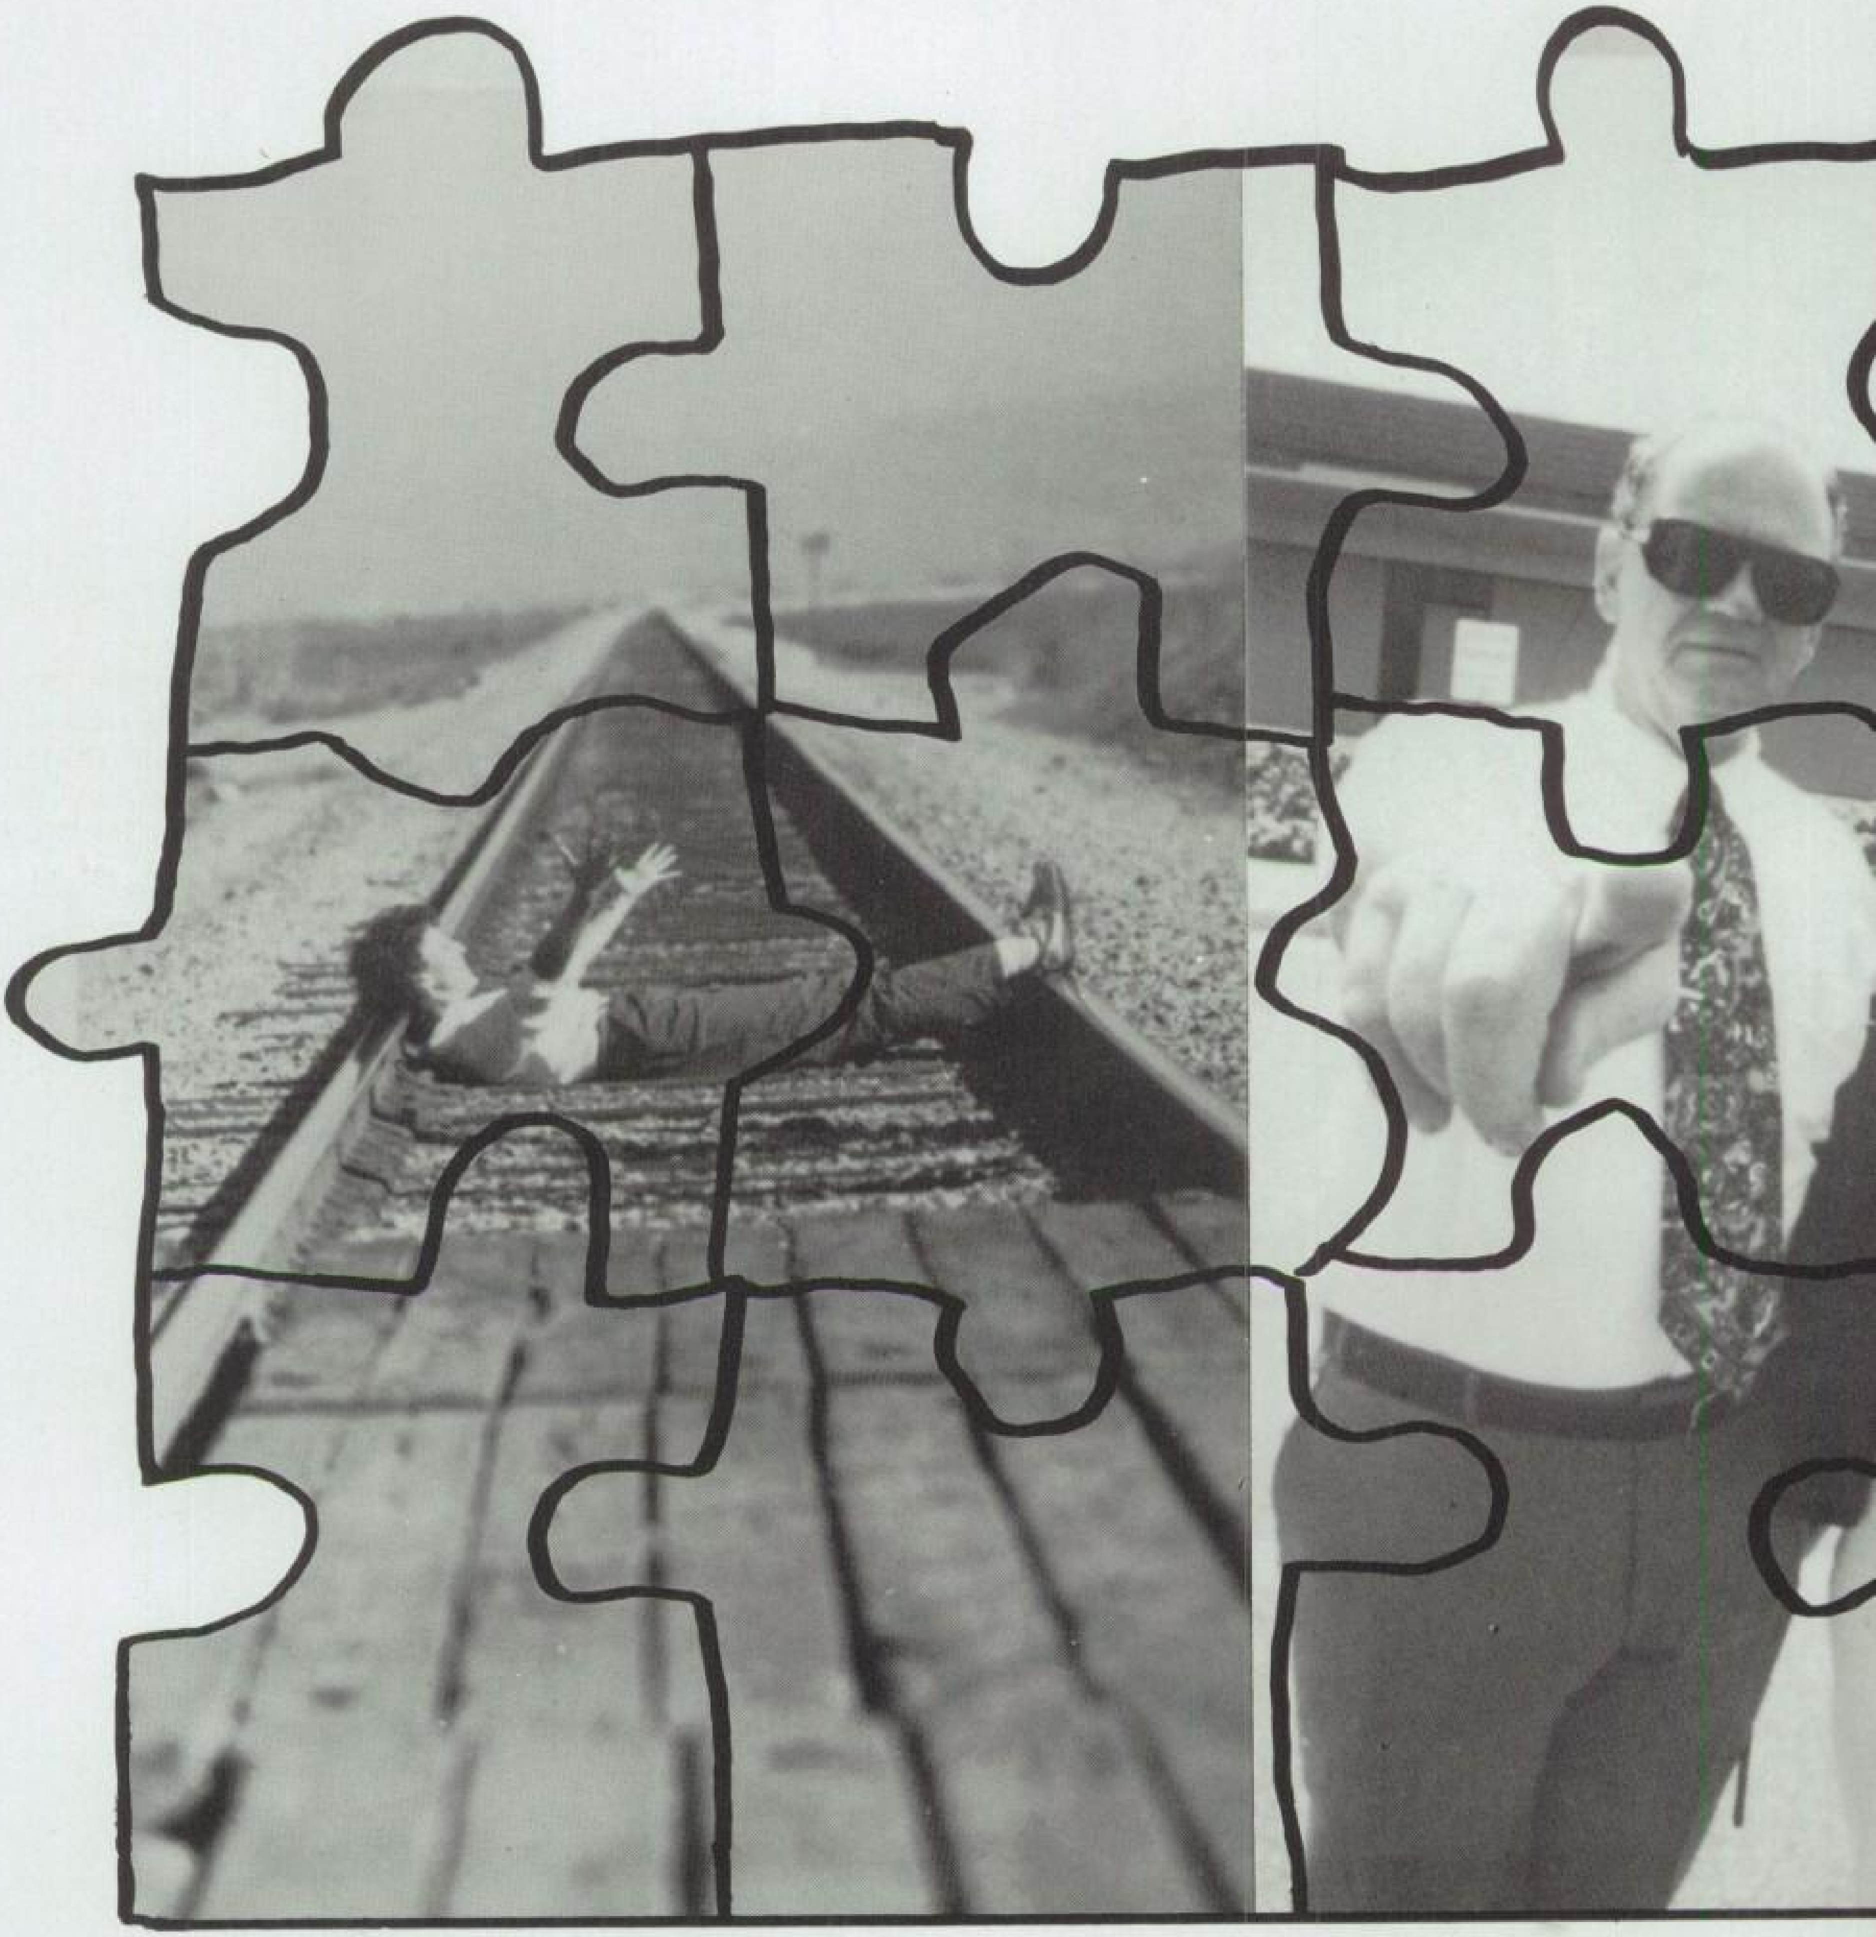
The nominees were picked by the senior class based on their intelligence, school activities, personality and looks. They were then voted on by the whole student body and that night the winners were announced before a very anxious audience. Congratulations, Kerrell and Joan!!



PRINCE AND PRINCESS
STEVE BOSCO AND MELISSA SCHNEIDER



PRINCE AND PRINCESS
JOEL JOHNSON AND ROBIN ROBERTS



Faculty

James Crawford, Principal

Donna Newberry, Director of Education

Ernie Lee, Dean of Students

Marie Jones, Dean of Students

Bill Augenstein, Director of Activities

Curt Willson, Counselor

Harriet Zelina, Counselor

Dick Dockendorf, Counselor

Jim O'Malley, Counselor

Larry Arnerich, Biology

June Baxter, English

Mike Brklijacich, Driver Education

Joe Browning, Photography

Rod Carlson, Science, P.E.

Jean Caron, Business

George Fleming, Work Experience

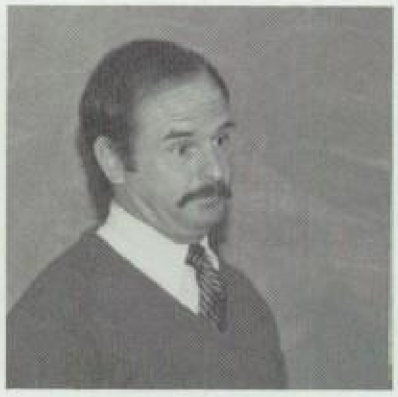
Linda Ceccon, English

Norma Claycomb, French, English

Bob Couper, Social Studies

Carol Crane, Spanish

Andy Dazols, Math



Mike Dudock, Social Studies

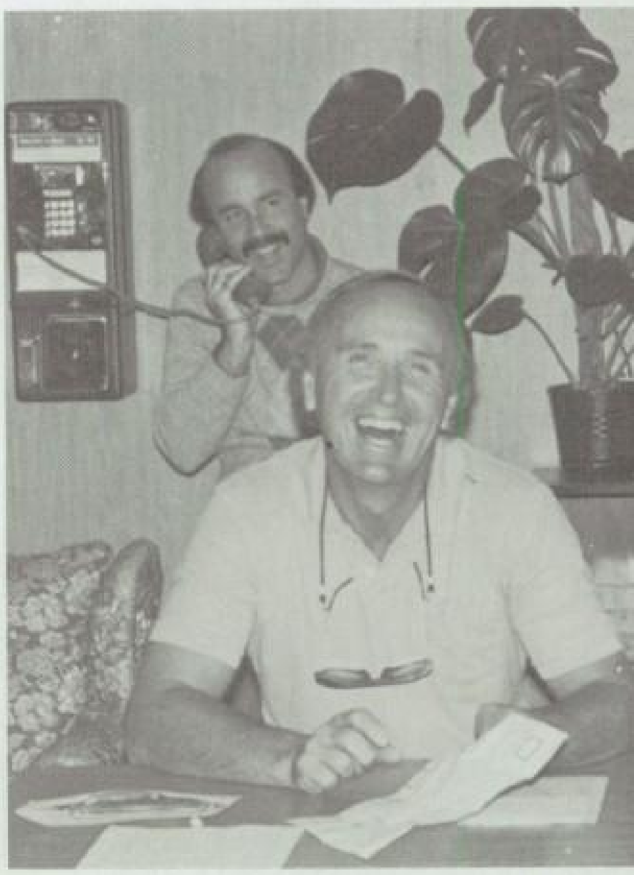
Ernie Farias, Special Education

Ramiro Garcia, Spanish

Ron Garcia, Drafting, Photography

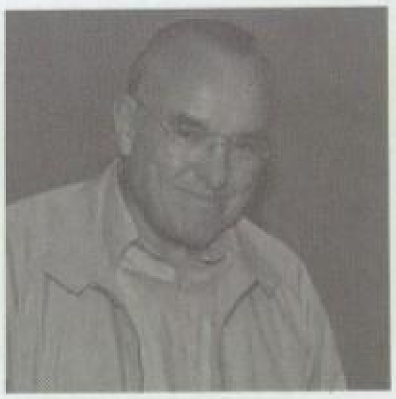
Lea Given, English

Fred Granger, Science



Maria Gudino, Spanish

Linda Guelfo, Business



John Hall, English

Charles Hecker, English, Math

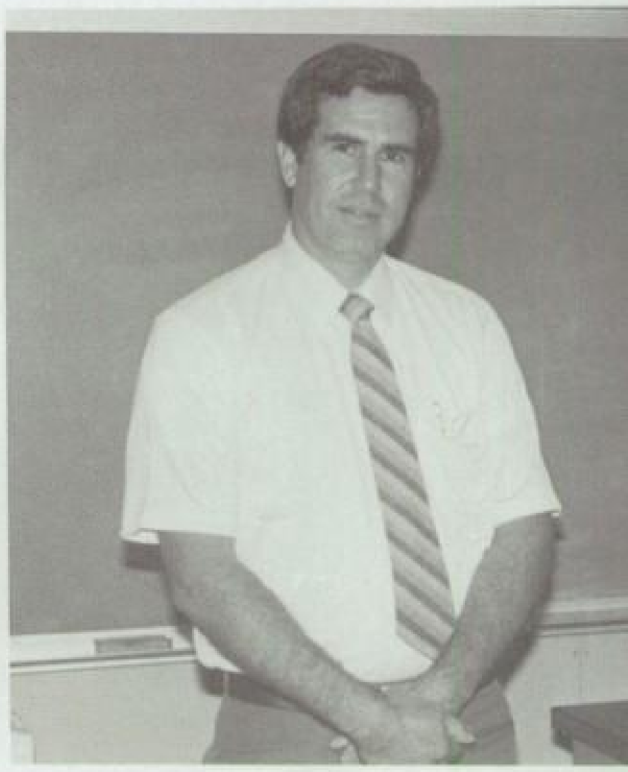
Barbara Henry, Librarian

Jim Hunt, Social Studies

Sue Hunt, P.E.

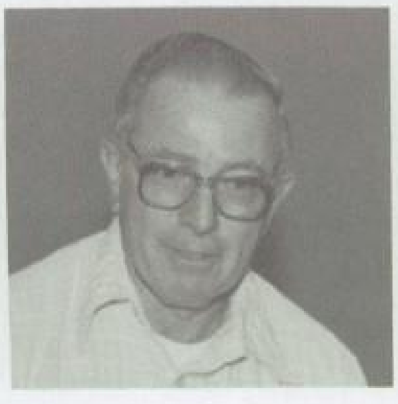
Dave Johnson, P.E.

Roy Kropff, Industrial Arts

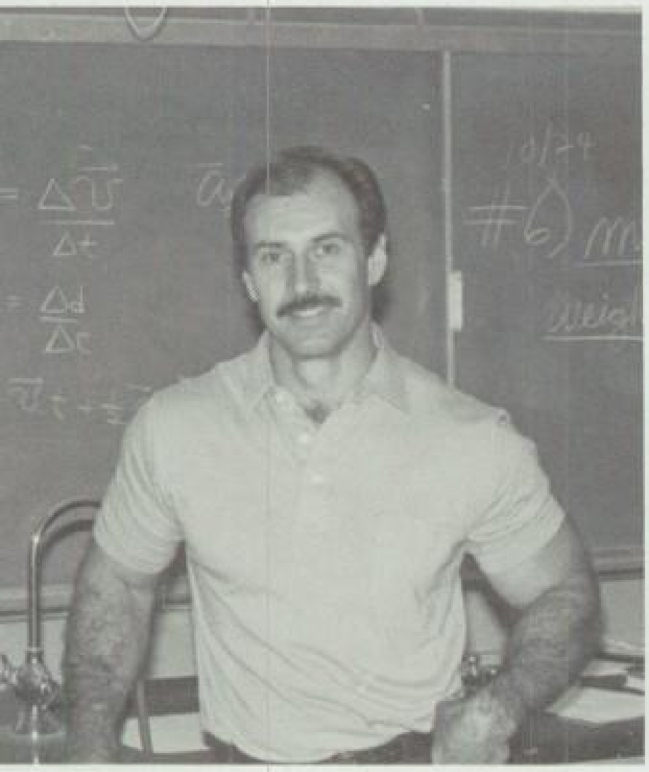


Jim Kuhn, P.E., Driver Ed.

Dennis Lynch, Math



Rod MacDermott, Math



Rich Machado, Social Studies

Ed Marcos, P.E.

George Matulich, Art

Marliyn McGovern, Business

Gene Medlock, Math

Alice Mitchell, Math

Bob Nichols, Math, Computers

Aileen Nishimura, Homemaking

MaryAnn Oldham, Special Education

Larry Orlando, Science

Barbara Papworth, Social Studies

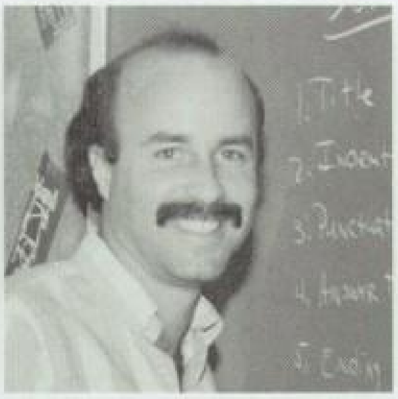
Bill Perkins, Opportunity, Band

George Pesut, Careers, Social Studies

Royce Peterson, English, Latin

Joan Russell, Chemistry

Karen Rystad, English



Larry Schembri, Special Education

Donna Schuster, Computers

Joan Shahan, English

Chuck Sharpe, Science, Math

Vic Small, Social Studies

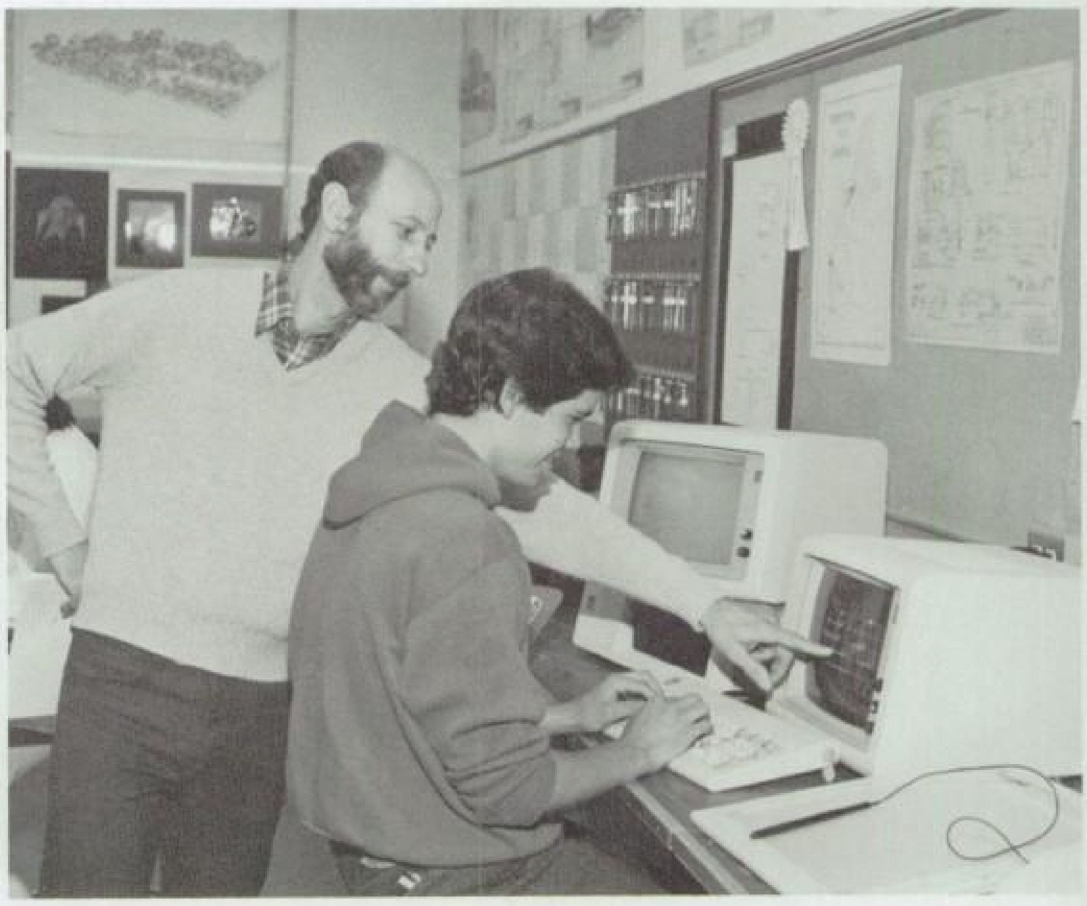
Tom Smith, Spec. Ed., Social Studies

Peggy Stover, English

Paula Tamura, Math

Sue Thom, English, German

Christine Tipton, Special Education



Helen Tucker, Special Education

Lucy Wong, Art, P.E.

Judy Akers, Principal's Secretary

Mitzi Leiker, Instructional Aide

Anne Moore, Switchboard

Jeanette Wraa, Counselor's Secretary

Jean Shelton, Health Secretary

Mariam Clark, Attendance Clerk

Eva Alves, Career Center

MaryBeth Robinson, Textbook Clerk

Maria Durr, Asst. Librarian

Dee Pusateri, Instructional Aide

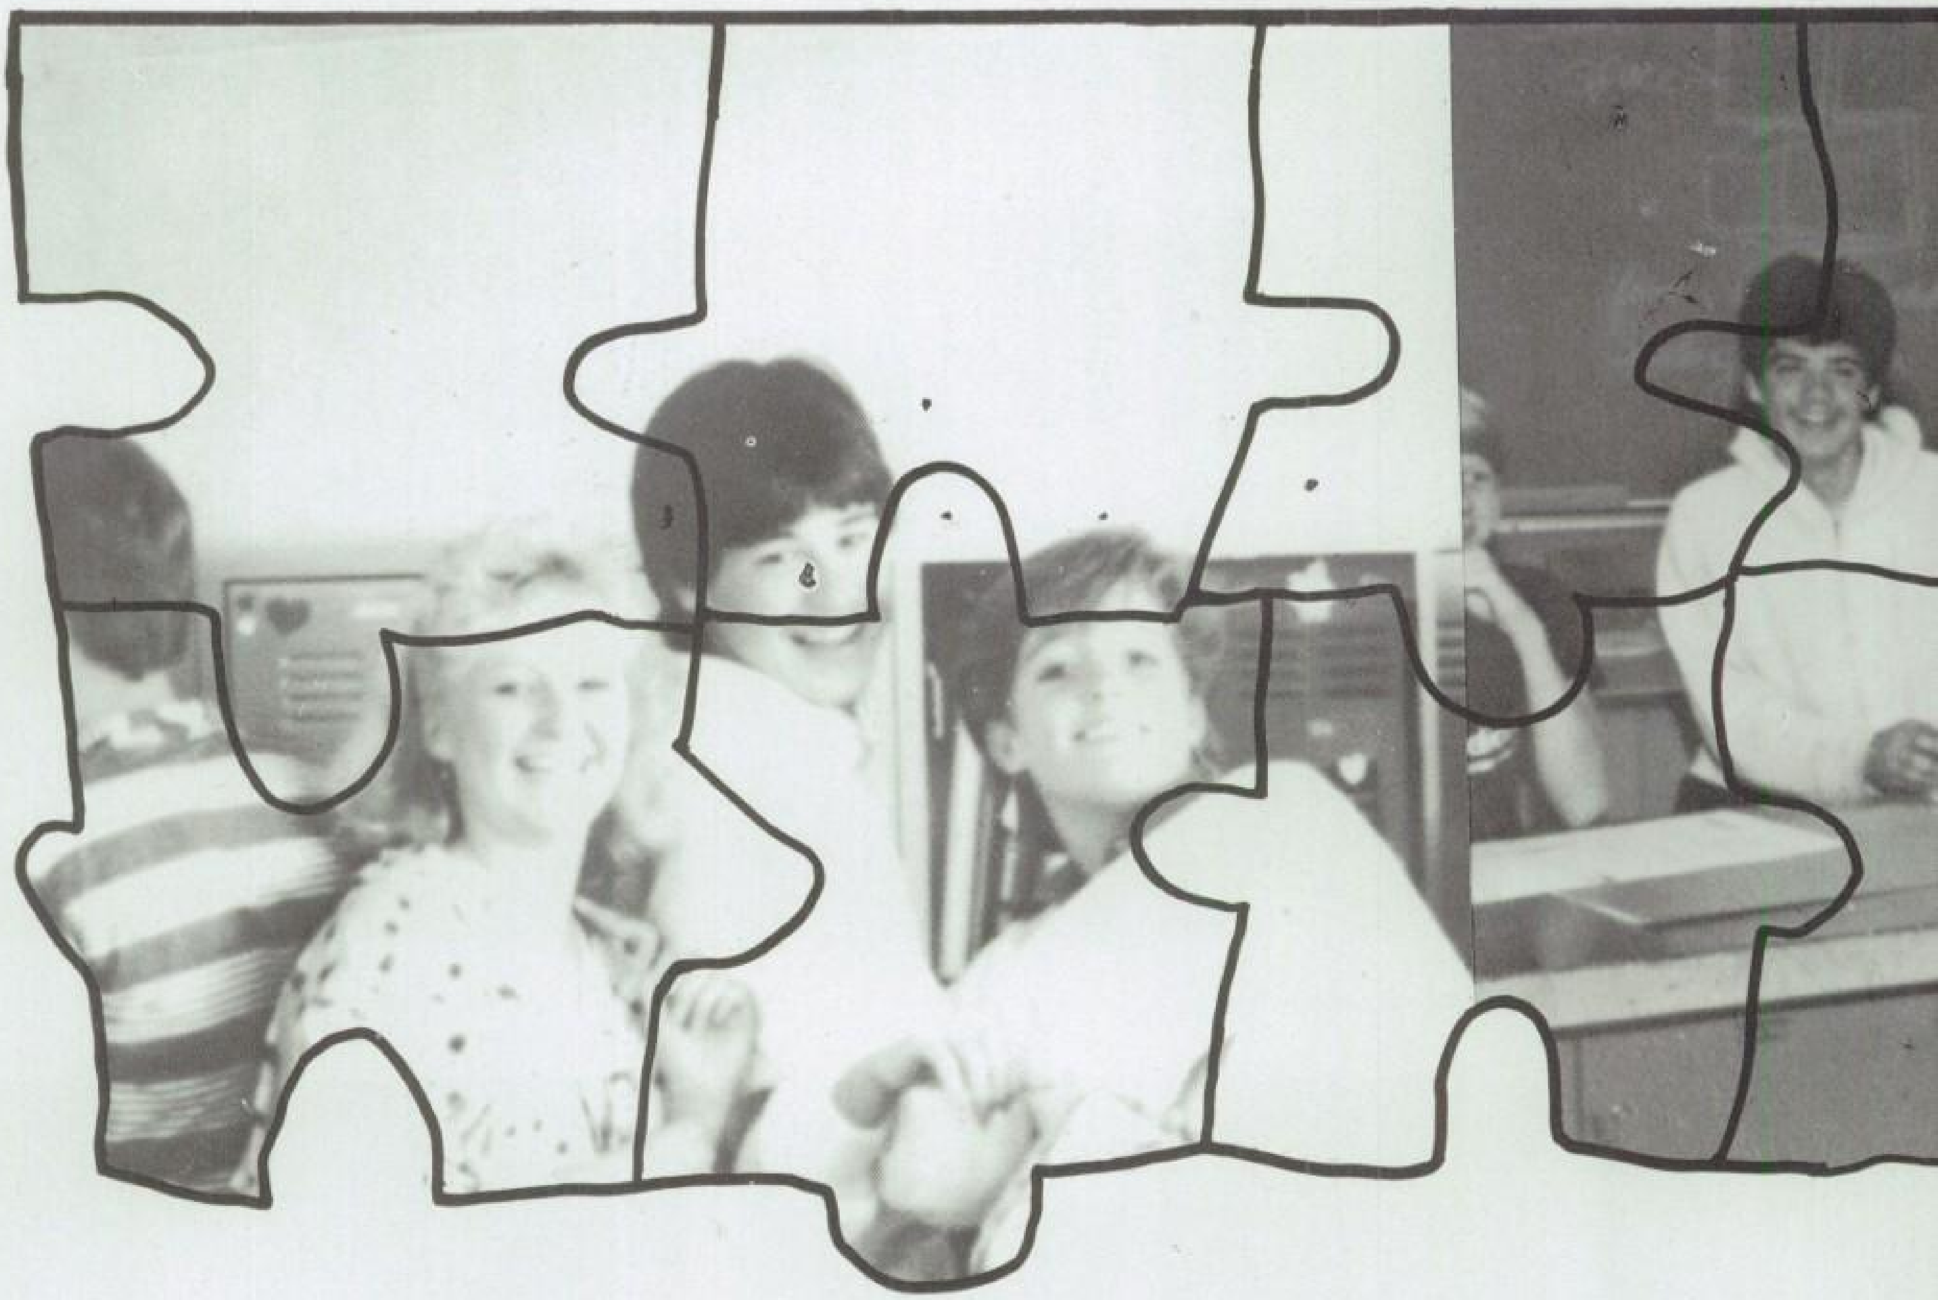
Sue Ferguson, Instructional Aide

Candy Bailey, Instructional Aide

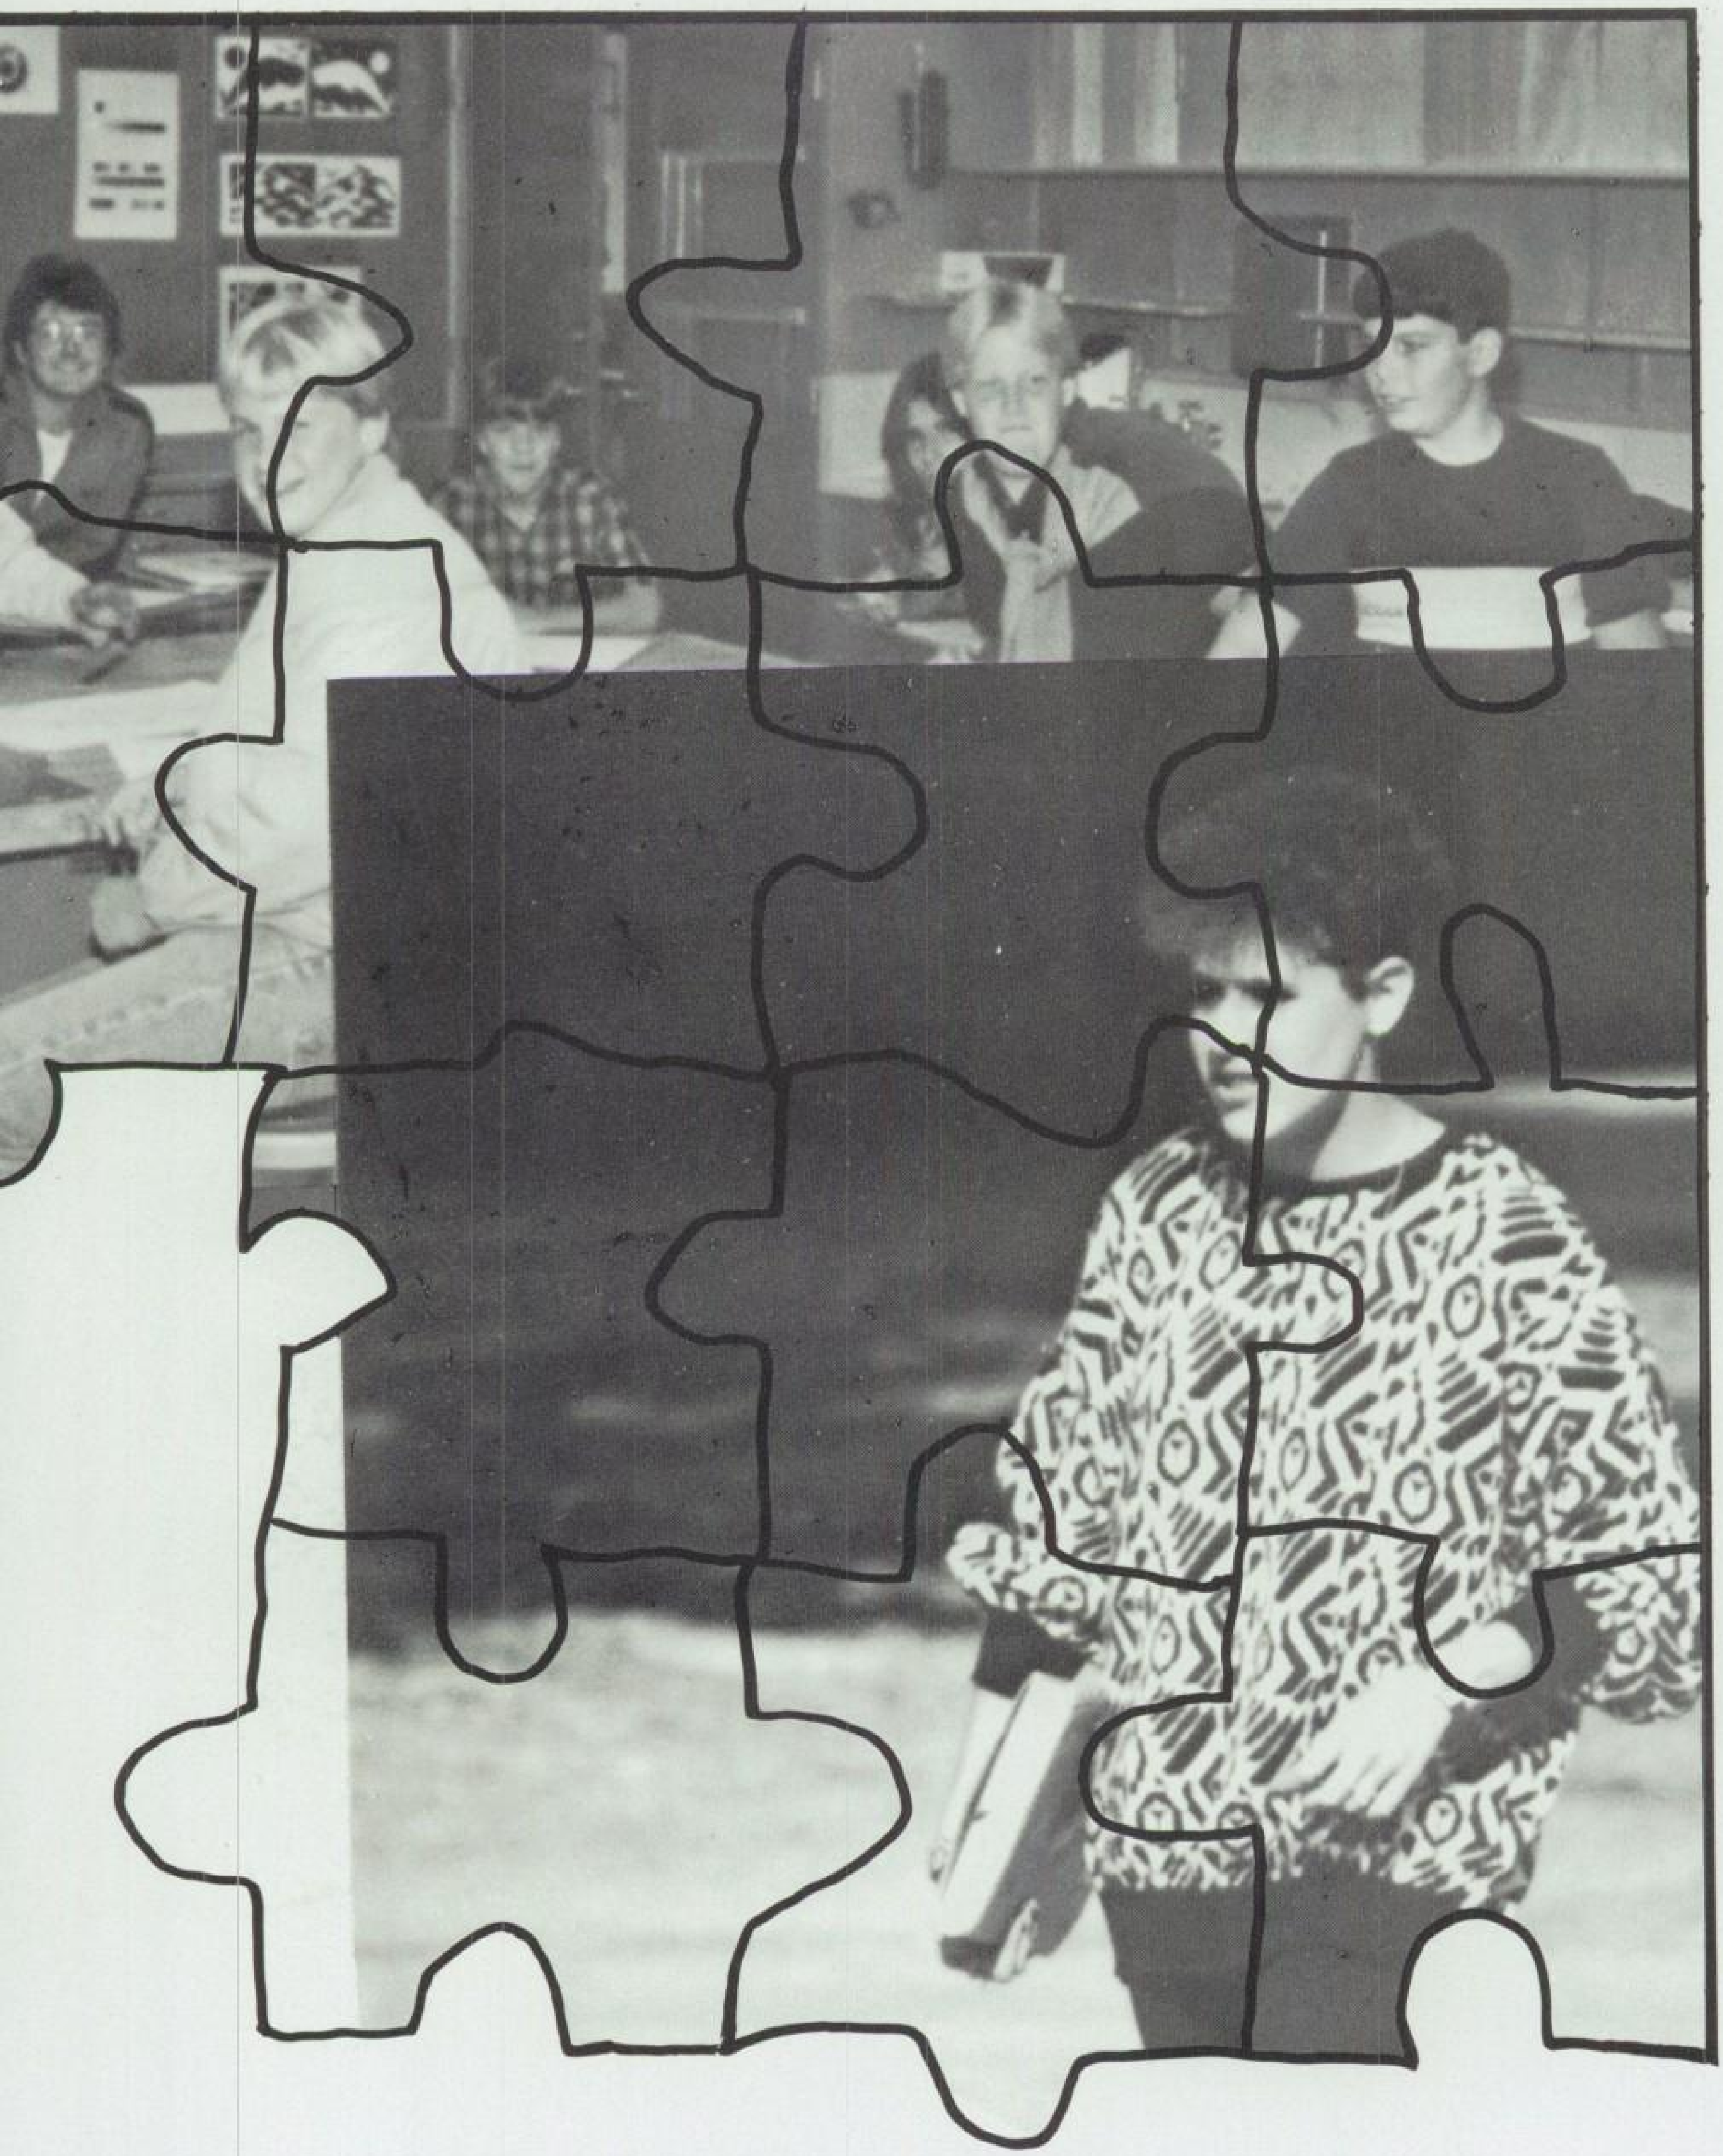
Joe DeMedeiros, Gardener

Perry Trompeter, Maintenance Foreman

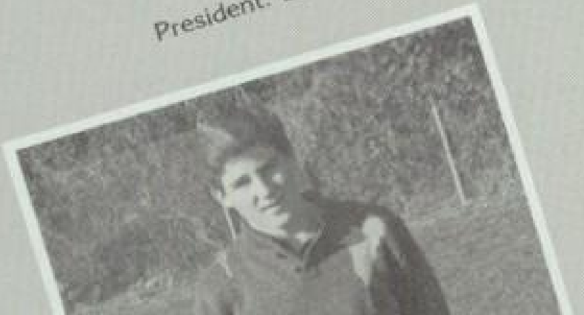
Cafeteria Staff: Connie Morgan, Carole Watkins, Rose Haney, Elsie Cabral, Anne Nadler, Mary Conway



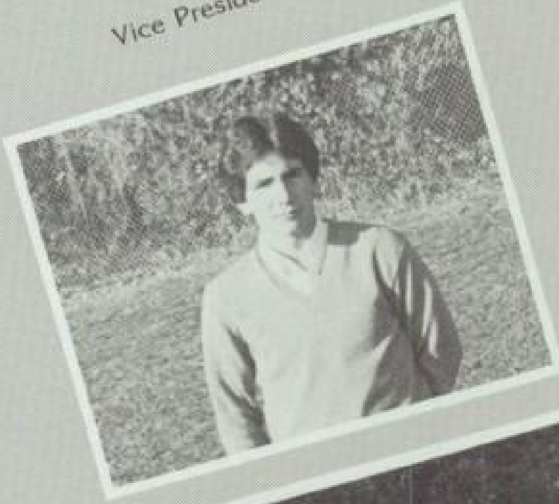
Freshmen



Freshmen People



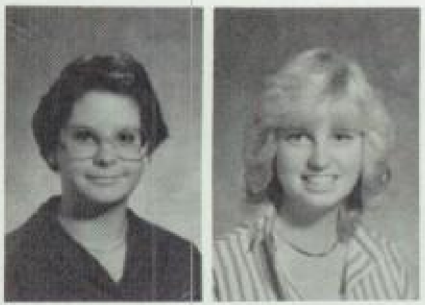
President: Erik Johnson



Vice President: Tim Flynn

Secretary: Noelle Watkins

Treasurer: Susie Regul



Abbott, Barbara
Adams, Carole

Adams, Rachel Altemus, Lisa

Alvarez, Steve Anderson, Michael

Armstrong, Jennifer Attanasio, Mary
Austad, Gwen
Ballard, Barbara
Bandfield, Paul Banks, Judy
Barany, James

Barker, Tiffany
Barnes, Cheryl
Barsy, Tim
Basnett, Jarrod
Baumann, Chris
Beaudoin, Dan
Bepristis, Traci

Bernstein, Jodie
Berticevich, Joey
Biron, Mike

Boister, Bobby Bookman, Matthew Braun, Doug

Brenner, David Brunke, Britt
Buchanan, Connie

Buchta, Erica Budworth, David Buellesbach, Mitch
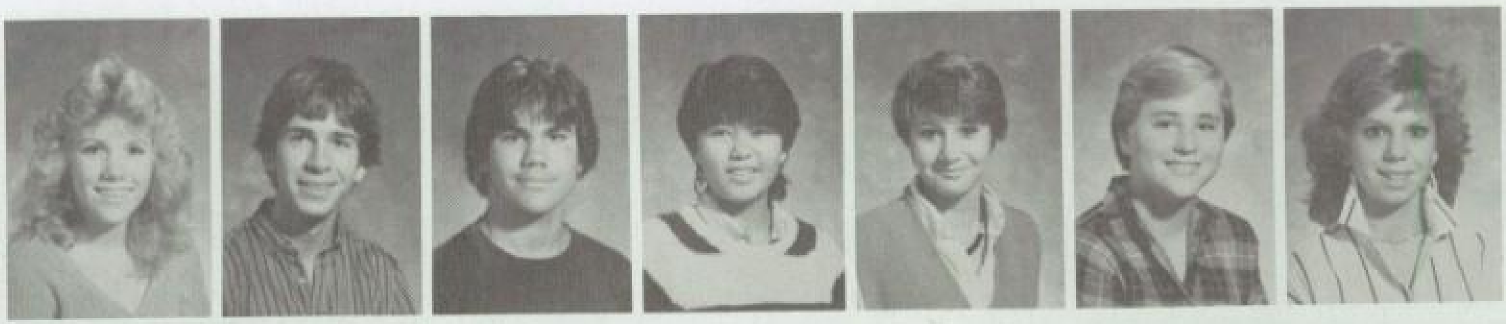
Burrus, Lisa
Busch, Crystal
Calk, Kimberly
Cameron, Brandi

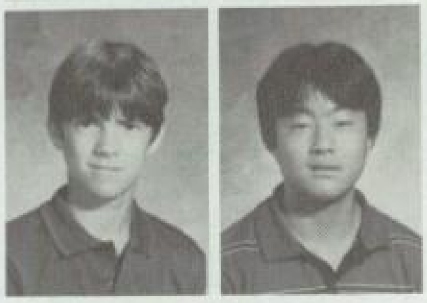


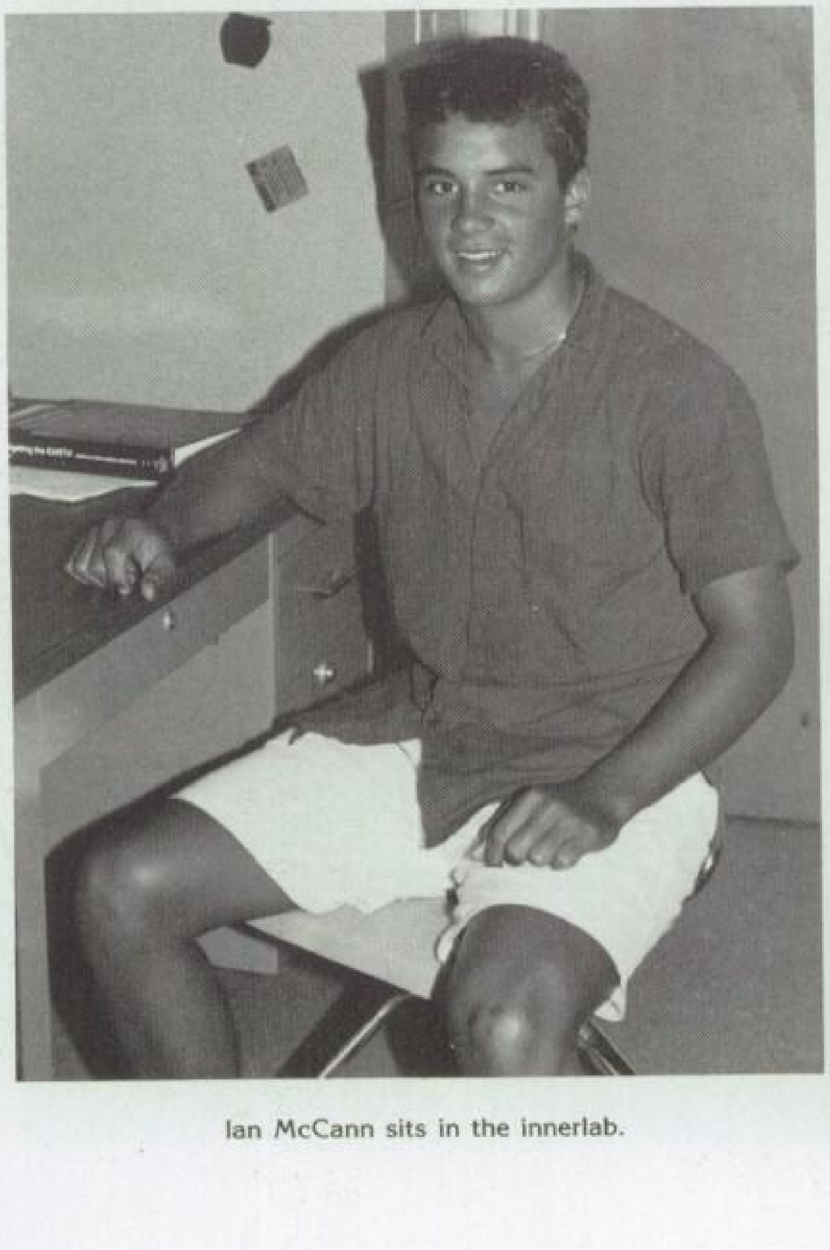
Campbell, Kristi
Carlsen, David

Hey! Classic Coke is back!

Carlson, Paul
Carlson, Sara

Cassell. Scott
Chang, Jun





Ian McCann sits in the innerlab.

Childress, Sandra Clarke, Tonya
Clausen, Randi

Clayton, Christine Clifton, Mike
Coburn, Donna

Colbert, Stacey
Cole, Michelle Collier, Jackie

Cramer, Beth Crawford, Jason
Crespo, Marcel

Cross, Tami
Crouse, April
Cruz, David Cuevas, Greg Davis, Laura Davis, Stephen
DeClue, Jeff

Another Freshman is off and running!

DeLucca, Stephanie Devlin, Bruce
DiDomenico, David

Dober, Doug Doom, Wendi
Dorkin, Georgina

Dow, Donelle
Dumont, Jackie
Edwards, Jamie

Are You Really A Freshman?

Are you a true freshman? Take this test and find out.

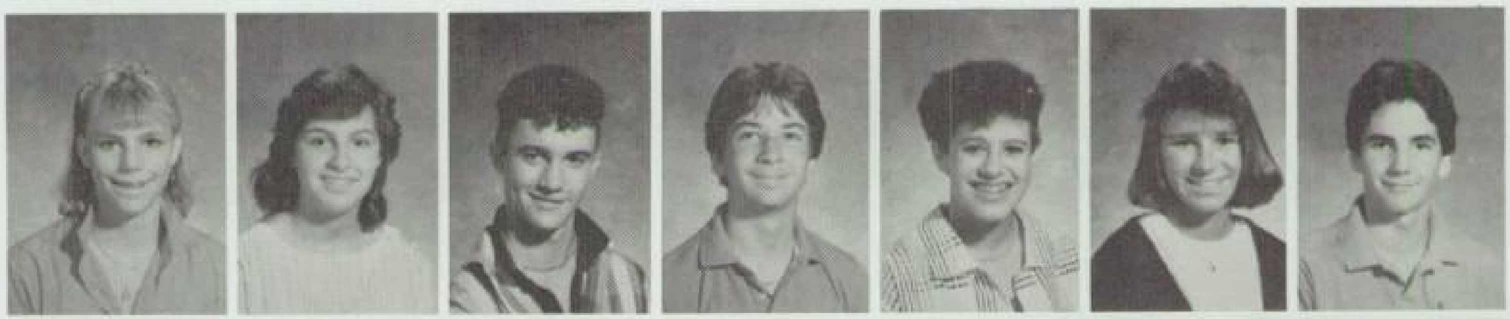
1. When you vote for class officers, do you still vote for Mickey Mouse for president?
2. Do you still call your parents "mommy" and "daddy"?
3. Do you still take your Star Wars lunchbox to school?
4. Do you still call brunch "recess"?
5. Do you still sometimes call your teacher "mom" on accident?
6. Do you still sleep with a nightlight?
7. Do you run to get to class on time?
8. Do you try to sneak into "R" rated movies by wearing highheeled shoes?
9. Do you try to act cool by pretending to understand words you don't even know the meaning of?
10. Do you still exchange sandwiches with your best friend at lunchtime?
11. Do you still ask your mom for lunch money?
12. Do you eat all the food on the lunchplate? even the veggies?
13. Do you get up extra early on Saturday morning to watch Scooby-Doo?
14. Do you think "party" means to sing Happy Birthday and to play Pin-the-Tail-on-the-Donkey?
15. Do you still buy Toughskins and pick your clothes out by matching the little animals on the tags?

Rate yourself: If you answered "yes" to:

1-3: Yes you are a freshman, but you still have time to work on it.
4-6: Yup, you definitely are a typical freshman and your chances are very slim that you will break this lifestyle.
7 or more: Bad news! You are ideal prey for those seniors with an infatuation for duct tape. You are taking your life into your own hands.

When Is Recess?

How to dodge Seniors with tape was the first lesson Freshmen learned in high school. But seriously, not all freshmen were chased by Seniors with tape (lucky them); some were smart enough to keep themselves hidden for the whole nine months of school. What all Freshmen must encounter however, is learning to familiarize themselves with a school they will see for the next four years of their lives. Now, there's nothing threatening in this part of their education; their first year is comprised of discovering new and better things in life (like cafeteria food!). They find a wider range of competition, both academically and athletically. In their first year, they will meet new people and learn to relate with these people; for the most of them, they will build new friendships. Prospect provides the Freshmen their first taste of real school spirit. They are awkward at their first rally and rarely do well during spirit week; but by the end of the year, we see them running strong. For these "ninth graders", the better part of the year is their "training wheels" to help them get aquainted with their new school, after that, it's smooth sailing. So good-luck to them, wherever they're hiding.



Ek, Betsy
Enslow, Kristina
Evans, Michael Farnetti, John Faxon, Barbara
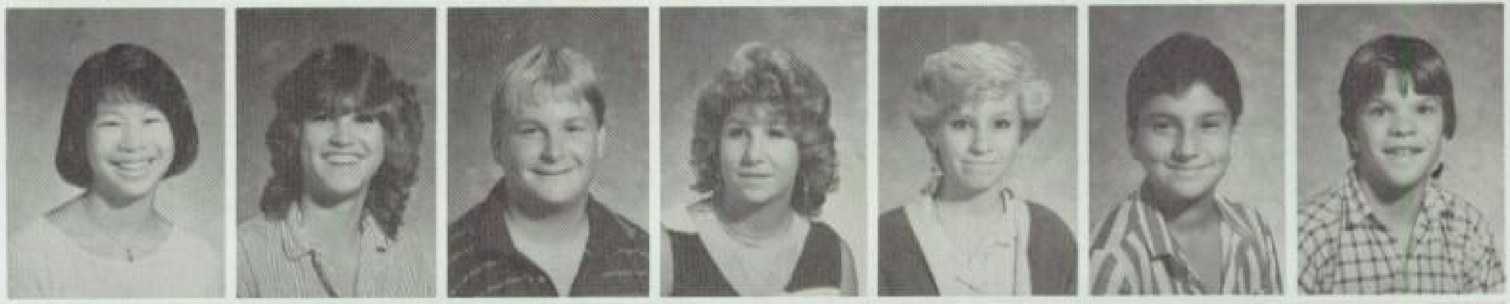
Fischer, Alea
Flynn, Tim



Fong, Aileen
Freitas, Stacy
Froidevaux, Lee
Geiger, Leslie
Geyer, Gina
Gharaati, Bob Gipson, Rob

Glover, Robyn
Goforth, Damon
Goldspiel, Ivy
Graffigna, John Greenwood, Robby
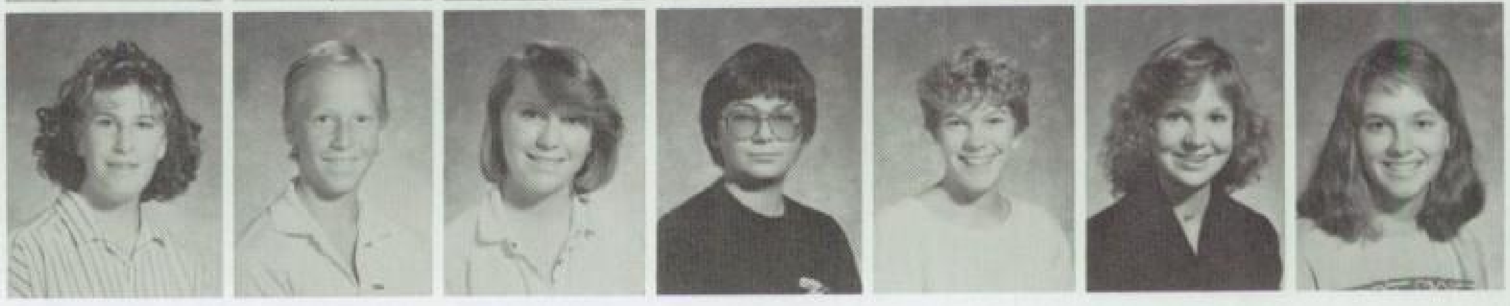
Greer, Rick
Grenier, Scott



Gundel, Sarah
Gutierrez, Mark
Hackleman, Amy
Halem, Dan
Hamman, Laura Hammill, Dana Hammitt, Tina

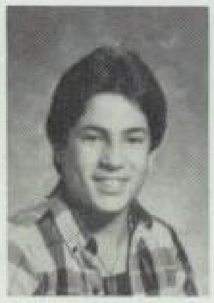
Flash those pearlies!

Hastings, Carolyn
Hastings, Sharon

Henke, Nicole
Henthorn, Hal

Higginson, Charlynn
Hilty, Kevin

Hoang, Khoa
Hoang, Ky
Hopper, Lisa
Hsu, Daniel
Hunter, Iain
Imokawa, Michele
Isachsen, Bjorn



Jacobsen, Chris
Jansen, Margee
Jewell, Renee
Jimenez, Lonnie Jimenez, Norma
Johnson, Erik
Johnson, Jenny

Erik Johnson in Biology.

Johnson, Monica
Johnson, Natalie Johnson, Steve

Jones, Kristin Jordan, Jeff
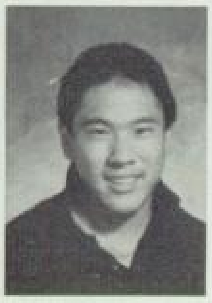
Joseph, Ian



Jung, Craig
Kanazawa, Craig
Kenyon, Greg

Keppel, Kristin
Kertzman, Corinne
Kim, Christine

Kim, James Kingery, Shelly Kobata, Brian

Kousari, Suzanne Krystal, Jeanine
Kutras, Rachael

Lambert, Adam
Lecoq, Ileen
Lehner, Mike

Liz Kim ponders life.

Lewis, Rocky Lewis, Tricia
Liou, Owen
Little, Kevin Liu, Cheng
Lobdell, Denise Lockwood, Erik

Lokey, Mark
Longoria, Matthew Lopez, Jennifer Loudermilk, Lynn
Lovett, Chris
Lu, Cecily
Luallen, Aaron

Lundgren, Amy Luong, Khai

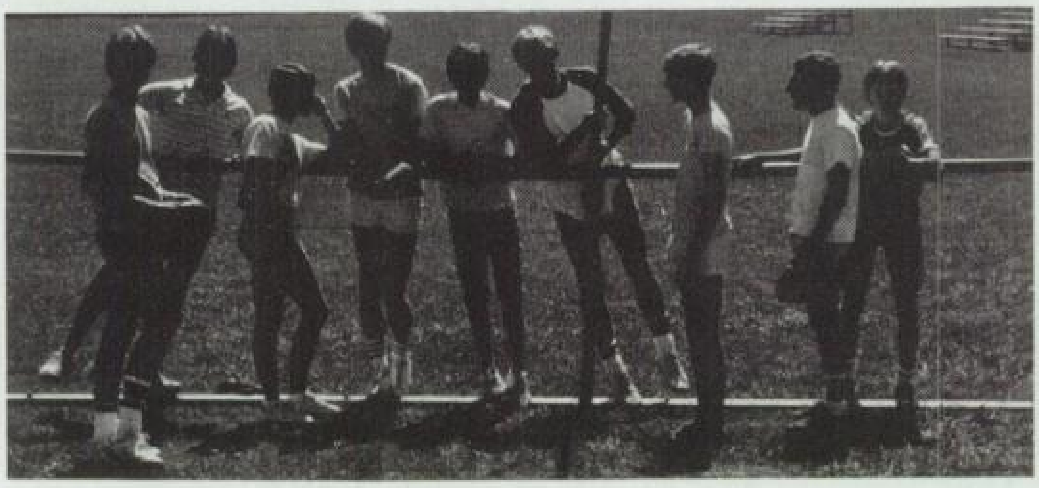
Lynn, Karen
Ma, Phuong



Jon Kissane and his P.E. gang.

Ma, Tan
MacArthur, Dave
Martin, Chris

Maurer, Michael McClellan, Deanne
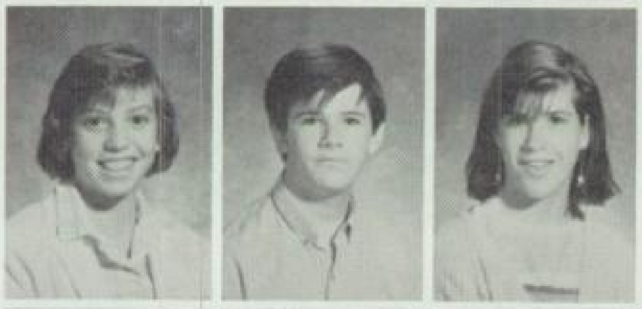
McCune, Richard



McKenna, Stacy
McLoud, Thomas
Mecham, Melanie

Hey! What can I say?

Mejia, Angel
Melendez, Taffany
Mendoza, Wade

Meyer, Jenny
Miller, Cheryl Miller, Dale
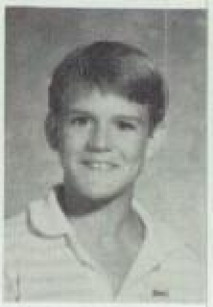
Miller, Mark
Miller, Nicole
Miller, Noah
Millich, Draga

Moezidis, Arash

Montes, Rebecca



Myers, David

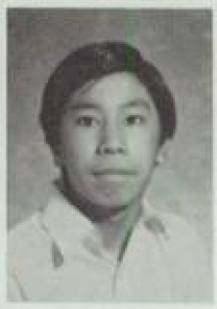
Dana Hammill feeds Dave DiDomenico.

Songgirls prepare to lead cheer.

Nagamine, Lance
Nakamatsu, Jimi

Nazeri, Haleh
Neargarder, Scott

Neese, Monica
Nguyen, Binh



Olea, Tammi
Oneto, Kathy
Oropeza, Anthony
Palmer, Christine Partlow, Scott
Pasek, Margaret Patterson, Laura

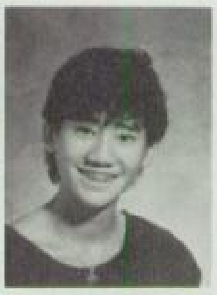
Pederson, Sherri
Peinthor, Alexandra
Pennington, Chris
Peters, Craig
Phillips, Myrna
Pi, Jeff
Poon, Lisa



Pope, Colleen
Poston, John Pourmassina, Babak

Preiksa, Debbie
Price, Donna
Price, Steven

Provost, Anne Quan, Diana
Rallis, Ted

Eric Richey and friends.

She Loves Me . . . She Loves Me Not

What's that weird smell? Oh, it's me. Gosh this cologne smells strange. Maybe I should put some more on. That's it. I'll put some more on. That should do it.
"Dad?"
"Yeah, son?"
"Can you show me how to tie my tie again? I forgot again."
"Sure, no problem."
"Thanks, Dad."
Well that's better now. Boy, I tell you, when she sees this amazing ensemble, I'll have a girlfriend for life! Gee Whiz! I'll never get this shirt collar on straight! And she's gonna be here soon!
"Here, let me help you."
"Thanks, I appreciate it."
"No problem, what are big brothers for, anyway? Say, where are you taking this gorgeous knockout of yours?"
"Oh, we're going to that McDonald's next to the Safeway. Then, after that, we're going to miniature golfing."
"I thought you said that you hated McDonalds. Why don't you take her to Burger King, Romeo?"
"Dad won't drive us out that far."
"Oh."
"Hurry up! She's going to be here soon!"
"Hang on. You want to look good, don't you? Besides, when is she going to be over?"
"What time is it now?"
"Just after six."
"Oh my God! She'll be here in an hour!"
"I think you'd better get a grip on yourself or you'll have a nervous breakdown before she even gets here!"
"Oh boy!"

Ramirez, Elizabeth
Randoll, Randee
Reda, Liana
Reed, Jenny
Reese, Chad
Regul, Suzie
Ritchie, Brian

Roberts, Tim
Robins, Cathy
Ruben, Ernest
Russell, Beth Salehnejad, Sean
Salmon, Cathy Samaniego, Arnold

Sanders, David Sang, Yu-Tung
Scheu, Steven Schlaeger, Julie Schreiber, David Schuetz, Kay
Semides, Ray

Serrano, Shelley
Shannon, Erin Sheffield, Jennifer
Siebert, Stephen Silva, Michael Simmons, Sonja
Simon, Keith

Slocum, Stuart
Smith, Steve Snodgrass, Jason
Southwell, Peter
Spencer, Karla
Stafford, Eric
Stahlberg, Monique

Stanton, Kerry
Stegal, Kristi
Steinbach, Brian

Stevens, David Storm, Shelley
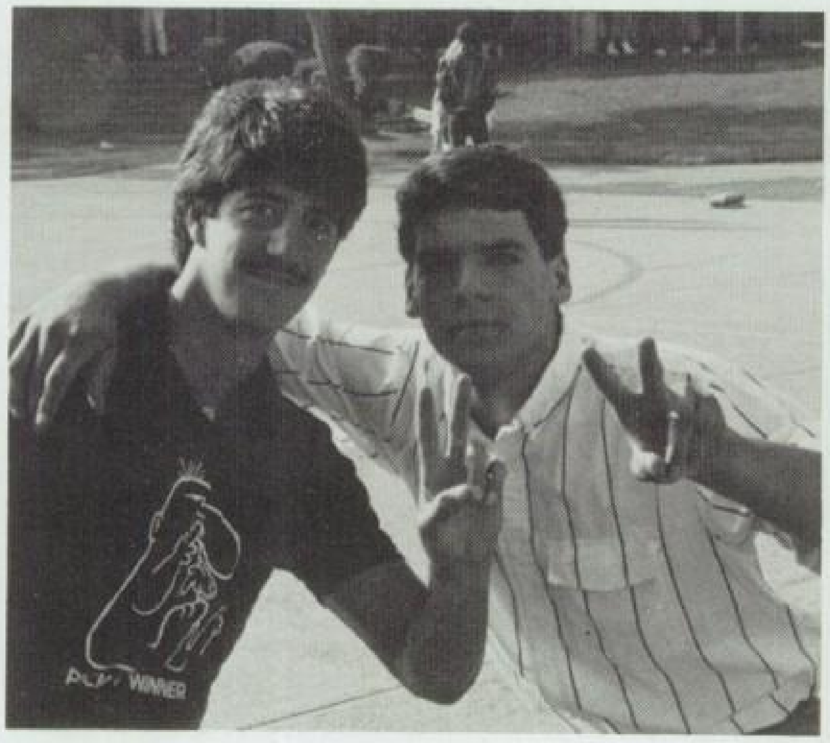
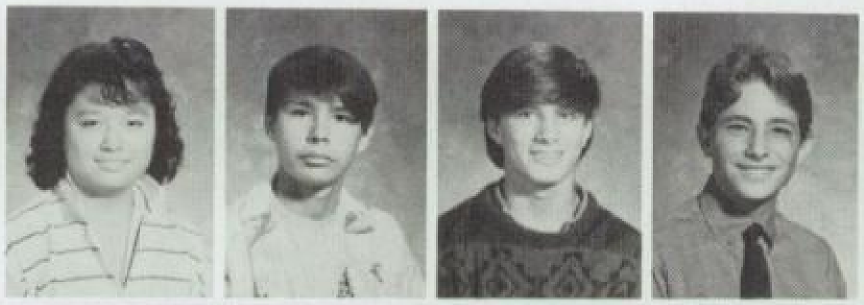
Stoye, Glen

Straaberg, Crystal
Swanson, Tom
Sweetland, Pamela



Peace, brothers.

Takeshita, Eileen
Thompson, Bradley
Thompson, David
Thomson, Jason



Toshach, Shannon
Tovey, Erik Tran, Jerry Tran, Jimmy

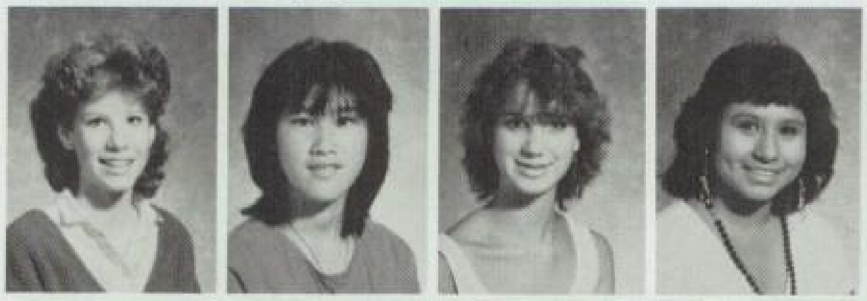
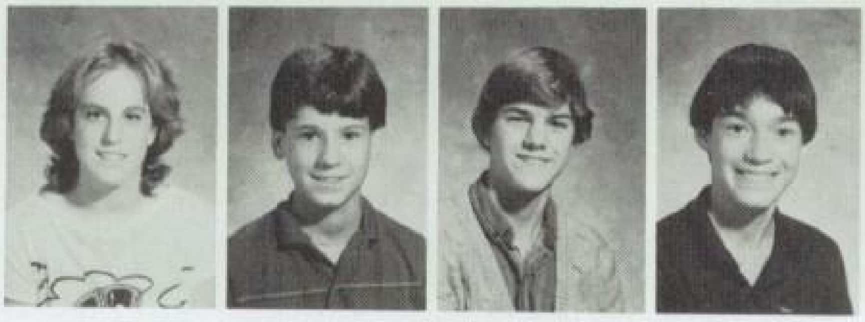
Tso, Jessica
Tu, Leng
Tyson, Keri
Valenzuela, Maria



Verducci, Sue
Voltmer, Frederick
VonPohle, Chris
Wachob, Sean



What the heck is that?

Wall, Susan
Wallis, Leigh
Waters, Michael Watkins, Noelle
Watkins, Norman
Weaver, Brett
Weight, Amber

Weins, Doug Werrett, Ian
West, Stephanie Westrum, Stacy
Wierdsma, Nancy Wilkes, Brian
Wilkinson, Jennifer

Williams, Selena
Williamson, Lissa
Wilson, Julia Wing, Melissa Woods, Leslie
Wright, Daniel Yard, Rebecca

Yasuda, Erin
Yoon, Mimie
Zensius, Mike

Missing Pieces . . .

Anderson, Brent
Ceballos, Debra
Clark, Erin
Clifton, Mike
Daman, David
Diep, Thao Dixon, Greg Gallmann, Greg Garcia, Eric Gayler, John
Jensen, Randi
Johnson, Mike
Kutlesa, James
Lee, Byong
Mack, Kelly
Miles, Dean
Nguyen, Phoung

Pearce, Seth
Pettygrove, Danny Rader, Susan
Raley, Shad
Raub, Deniece
Sanchez, Jason
Sanchez, Tina
Semides, Robert Shurtleff, Matthew Strugeon, Deeann
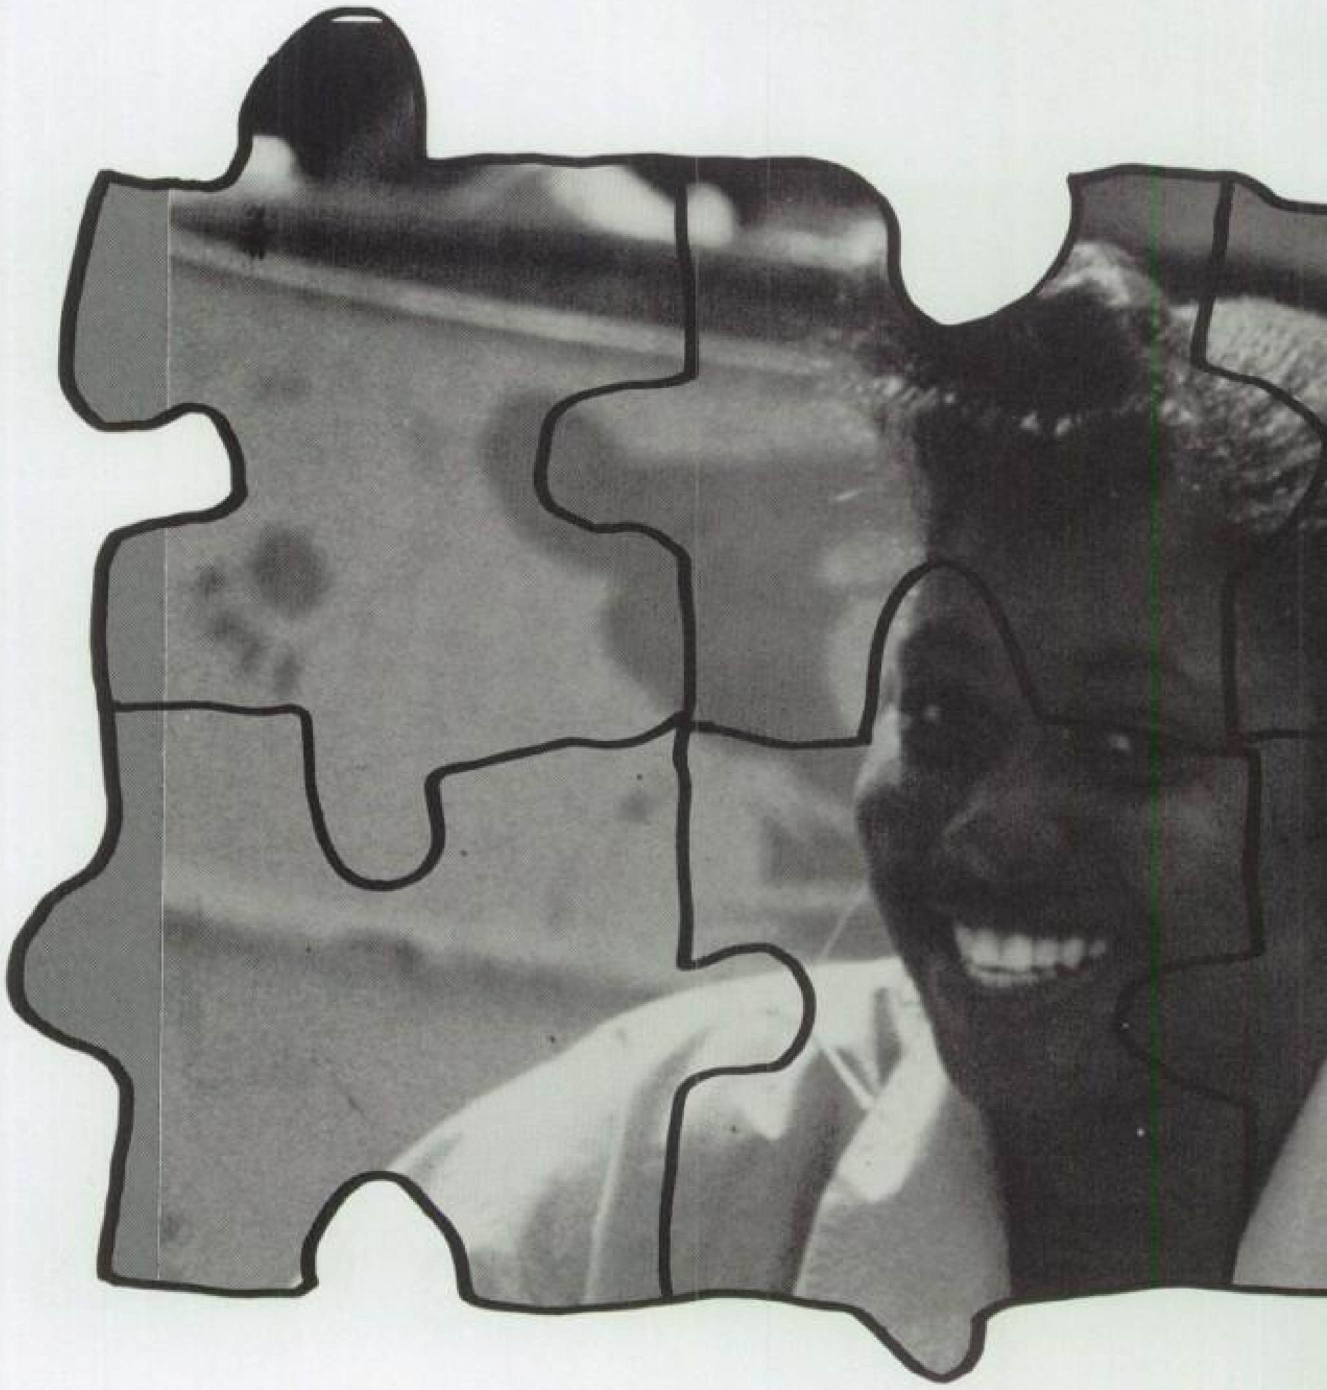
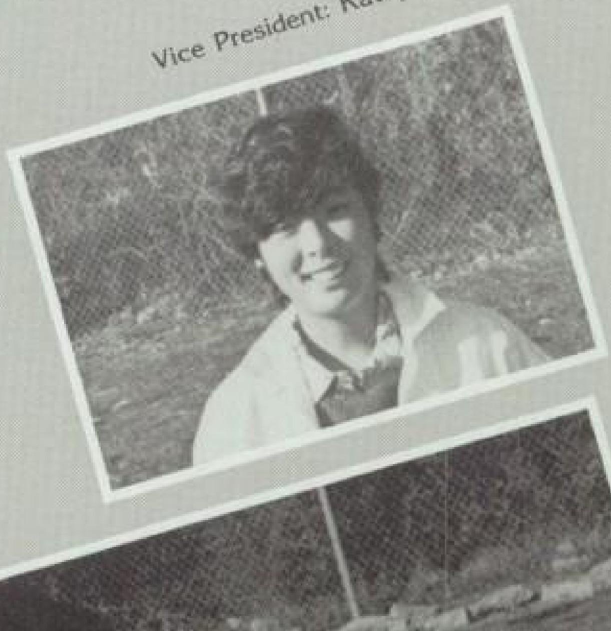
Sullivan, Gregory
Truong, Quyen
Verduzco, Adam
Verduzco, Lupe
Warywoda, Pat
Woodbury, Jason
Zargari, Cerene



Sophomores

Sophomore Ranks

Vice President: Kathy Kim



President: Janet Kim

Treasurer: Jennifer Lee

Secretary: Darlene Chan

Abinatti, Tracey
Abshire, Christine Adams, Jeff
Adefris, Teddy Albright, Diana
Allen, James
An, Mike

Anderson, Paul
Anderson, Tonya
Andregg, Jodi
Anhorn, Jennifer
Arnold, Michele
Asselin, Brian Avery, David

Avery, Mike
Baker, Daryn

Bakke, Stacey
Barner, Eric

Baxter, Michael Beeson, Brian

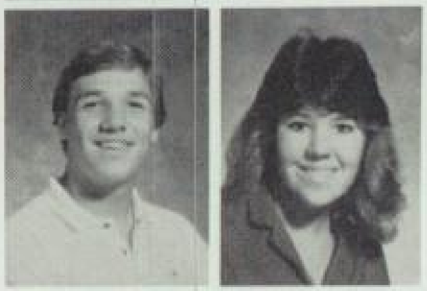
Hey, how'd my boxers get out here?



Begnal, Ken
Bender, Jean

Bendickson, Jill Bernal, Jennifer Blacker, Steve Blake, Brenda Brady, April
Branch, Michael Branham, Janeen

Brewer, David
Brokish, Barbara
Burgin, Raeanne
Burns, Timothy
Burwell, Alicia
Bushore, Warren
Byington, Todd

Left to right Kim Dodd, Heather Dowling, Maryann Gibbons, Angela Hullar, Kathy Kim, and Tina Rodriguez, the Lunch Bunch.

Cameron, Kirsten
Cameron, Stacie
Carlson, David
Carlton, Melissa
Caro, Yvette
Chan, Darlene
Chang, Andrea

Chang, Sandy
Chen, Debbie
Chew, Heather
Civelli, Lisa
Clark, Cheryl
Clark, David Coggins, Wade

Coldren, Jenny
Comer, Kisten
Contreras, Danny Contreras, Jennifer
Cook, Bernadette
Covell, Neala
Crawford, Leona

Cureton, Glen Davis, Kevin DeKyrel, Steven DeMartini, Craig
Depp, Marianne
Detherow, Kathryn
Dinsmore, Sean

Donaldson, Alana
Drager, James Edelberg, Kevin Eden, Sharon
Edwards, Jason
Emerson, Shellie
Evans, Jennifer

Evans, Pamela Fellows, Bryan
Fisher, Dawn
Fregger, David Freitas, Adam Friss, Larry
Galvan, Melissa

Garner, Mark
Gatlin, Curt Gatlin, Matt
Geistlinger, Brian Gibbons, Maryann
Giddings, Jennifer Gierke, Dave

Gilliland, Terri
Goldspiel, Hugh Graul, David
Griggs, Amanda
Grillo, Jeff
Grincewich, Traci
Guzman, Kim

Guzman, Larry

Ha, Amy

Ha, Charlie

Haman, Jennifer

Yes, sometimes sophomores do tend to be cool, sometimes.

Watch Out!!

Gina Wall shows great form in her brand new . . . simulator!

BUMP!
"Hey watch it will you? This isn't the freeway. Go over those bumps slower next time okay?"
"Sorry Mr. Brkljacich."
"What'd you have for breakfast?"
"Breakfast? Hmmm Cheerios why?"
"Cheerios eh see if you'd just have eaten Wheaties maybe you'd be doing better. Should have had some Wheaties Breakfast of Champions man.
"Yes Sir I'll eat some Wheaties next time sir."
"Look at all those trees that were knocked down last night during that storm. That was a big one eh?"
"Yes sir That was a big storm sir."
"Did you guys see that Redskins game? I'll tell ya" that Theisman won't walk again. That's for sure."
Can't he stop talking about accidents? Boy I hope there's not too much time left in the period. This place is a jungle! I can't see how people can drive in a place like this. Gosh I hope I don't die. But if I do it's all his fault. Making teenagers drive in a zoo like this.
"Well let's take her home."
WHEW!
"Next week you guys are going to leave the parking lot Okay?"
Oh oy!

Hansen, Erik
Hansen, Leah Hanson, Karen Haranaga, Lesly
Harris, Sonjalyn
Harry, Christopher Haws, Rachel

Hayes, Michelle
Hennington, Meg
Hiraki, Craig
Hirose, Marlene
Horgan, Zachary
Howard, Robert Hullar, Angela

Hutchinson, Randy
Iob, Kirk
Itaya, Brian Jansen, Mark
Jenkins, Sean
Jensen, Randi
Jones, Barbara

Jonoubei, Raymond Jordan, David
Kaczanowski, Shauna
Karwowski, Eric
Keller, Eric Kim, Janet
Kim, Kathy

Kim, Ken
Kim, Sang
Kim, Tai King, Brian King, Christopher Kitching, Bernie
Khoi, Hoang

Knutson, Blaine
Kornek, Kristopher
Kosich, Stephanie Krenzer, Rhonda
Kriewall, Matt
Kuwabara, Craig
LaFreniere, Kathy

Lamachy, John Lambourne, Elizabeth

Lancelotti, Chris
Lansford, Lance

LaPine, Tanya Law, Alison

LeCroy, Carl
Lee, Choong

Lee, Dina
Lee, Jennifer
Lee, Mary Kathryn
Lehner, Chris
Lenarduzzi, Gabriele
Lewis, Melony
Lisle, Sjanti

Long, Shirley Longoria, Kim
Lopez, Jeff
Loskutoff, Damon
Luna, Julie
Luu, Minn
Mandy, Entessa

Marcelic, Ana Marphis, Roger Marsh, Michele
Mathews, Stacey
Mattocks, Cathy Mauck, Paula
McCaffrey, Steven

McCann, Ian
McCarthy, Cathi
McCarville, Jeff
McCormick, Rhonda
McGowan, Sjanna
McGuire, Cindy
McLaughlin, Jennifer

Mcloud, Carolyn
Meshesha, Nebiyou
Meyer, Christine
Meyer, Stephen
Miller, Sven
Montoya, George Morales, Mark

Moran, Alberto
Moreno, Michelle
Moritsch, Dan
Morrill, Gina
Muller, Jeff
Nelson, Heather
Nelson, Jason

Sophomores

The sophomore class is distinguishable and unique in many ways. The most obvious being the fact it's the only class that has a name that nobody really knows the meaning of (Except maybe English teachers but who is going to take the time to go and ask them?) But the sophomore class has many special characteristics as well. As soon as I think of some I'll tell you all about them. But all kidding aside the sophomores overcome a lot of obstacles on their way to total maturity. They have to overcome the label "freshmen with a sense of fashion." They have to survive the shame of knowing that there are freshmen who can beat them up. They do a lot of growth. They learn to drive. They blush frequently in life science and biology. These experiences help them to grow. In these ways the sophomore year is more difficult than the freshman year. The sophomore year is a year of looking forward. Sophomores can't wait to drive to school. And the thought of going to the prom next year is almost too much excitement too take. They can hardly wait to be the down hill side of school. The sophomores are distinguishable in many ways. For the sake of space here is a brief listing of some characteristics of the sophomores. 1. Abrasive to freshmen. 2. Envious of Juniors. 3. Terrified of seniors. 4. Niave and idealistic. 5. girls cute as buttons. 6. boys-confused. 7. Use words like "dude" and "rad". 8. Ride skateboards. The sophomore class has many hardships to overcome during their year, but these hardships make more mature humans. The sophomore class should be respected for meeting the challenge of the sophomore year. Before you know it they will be self-assured and confident JUNIORS!

Sophomores have an outgoing spirit that allows them to make many friends.

Newman, Michael Nichols, Jennifer
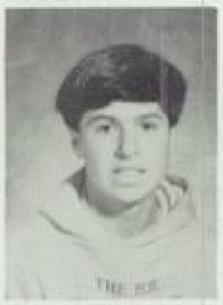
Nickel, Timothy
Nieman, Jenny
Nilsson, Erica
O'Connor, Jennifer
Oliver, Melissa



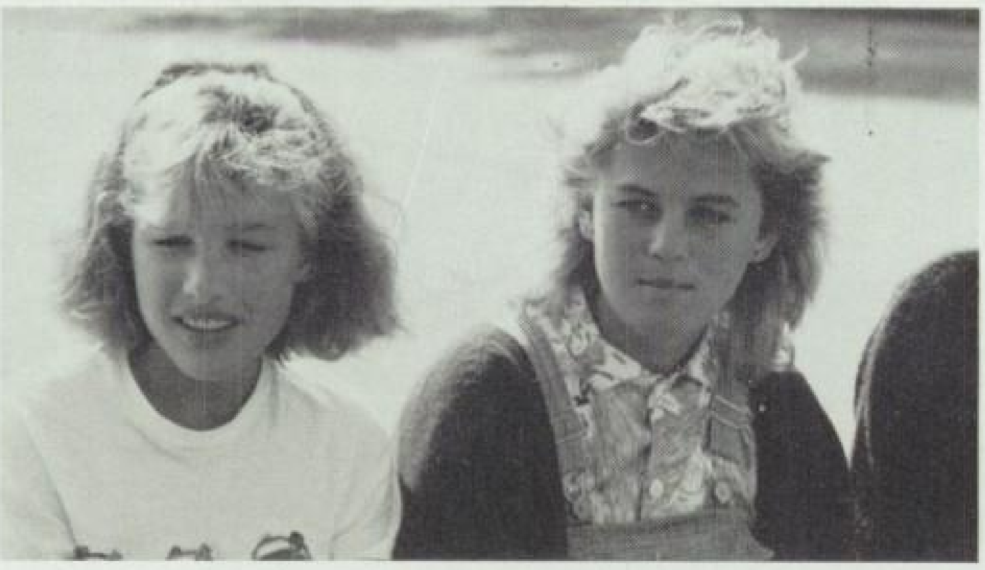
Oneto, Dave
Orwig, Melissa

Panagakos, Maria
Panish, Sarah

Paredes, Nicholas

Parker, Kendra
Patenaude, Julie

Patti, Heather
Peinthor, Barbara



At Prospect you can always find friends. Top: Jason Wilkinson and friend show the Sophomore Strut.

Pendo, Matt
Perdue, Kristi
Perkovic, Christine Perl, Julie
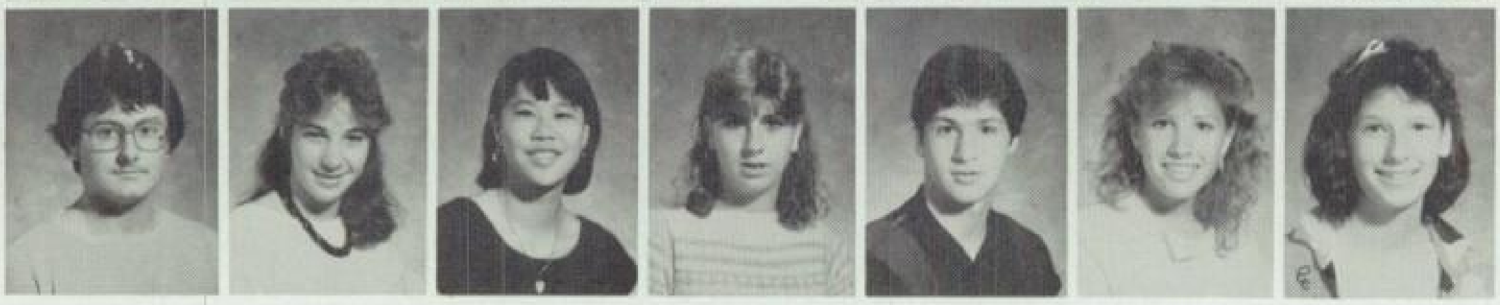
Petersen, Trisha
Petry, Claudia
Phillips, Susan



Picinich, Craig
Pozas, Cheri
Quan, Julie Quigley, Stephanie Quinones, Edward Read, Kathy
Regul, Michelle

Renzo, Jennifer
Rhinehart, Susan
Rice, Elizabeth
Richards, Roark
Richey, Eric
Riddle, Amity
Ritchie, Troy

Rogers, Katrina
Ruppert, Kenneth Rush, Michelle
Russel, John Salmon, Jennifer
Samantego, Mary Ann
Sang, Pauline

Sano, Cheryl Schiro, Brent
Scimeca, Lisa
Scott, Jeremy Serface, Robert Shah, Nivisha
Shananhan, Kevin

Shaull, Don Shields, Debbie Shih, Leo
Shirrell, Tricia
Silbernagel, Alan Smith, David
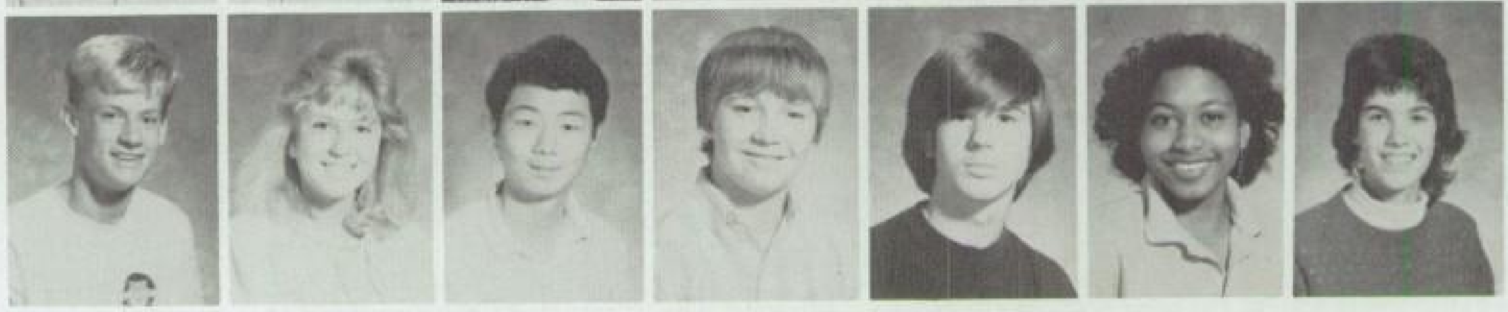
Smith, Jaclyn

Smith, Travis
Snyder, Crystal
Sno, Heek
Souza, John
Stallings, Sam
Stamper, Rochelle
Stanton, Kelly



You Want Me To Do What To That!?

And for those of you who were absent that week Jeff Grillo shows us the frog you were to disect

"Alright I'll hold it and you cut it open."
"Why do I have to cut it?"
"Well . . . I can't hold it and cut it now can I?"
"Yea but . . ."
"So go ahead and I'll hold it."
"OK . . . I guess"
"It's about time . . . Boy some people . . ."
"Hmmmmm . . . AH! It moved! It's alive!"
"Chill out guy. It just twitched. It's nerves, man. Just nerves."
"Nerves schmerves! It's alive! I saw it's eyes move."
"No, it's dead. Mr. Granger said so. Why should he lie?"
"He hates me. I know! He gave me a live one on purpose."
"Mellow out man. You're paranoid."
"This is disgusting! I can't stand it. I'm going to ask Mr. Granger if we can just do some more climatographs."
"What a wimp! This is just too gross."
"I bet you faint when your mother cuts your meat."
"Yea so? How is that your business?"
"Here, give me those scissors . . . there! Done! See how easy it is? Hey, where'd he go? Great. He fainted. That is just like a man. Hmph!"

Stegall, Karina
Stevenson, Tom Steyding, Jamie
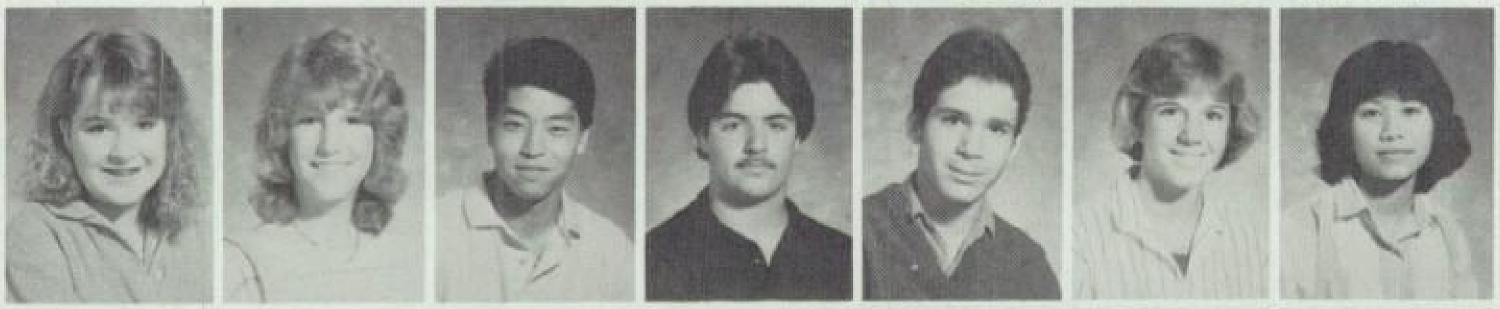
Storie, Lucy
Stratton, Candace
Strickland, Jeff
Sun, Lucy



Swanson, Dawn
Swanson, Nicola
Tanaka, Alden
Thorp, Tony Tilney, Robert Torres, Tina
Tran, Thanh

Tsurumoto, Cheryl
Van Alstine, Rikki
Van Lone, Deanna
Wall, Gina
Warburton, Jennifer
Webber, Cathy Whiteman, Shawn

Whitney, Julie Wilkes, Jason
Wilkinson, Jason
Williams, Mark
Williams, Ted
Wilson, Sean
Wong, Kenneth

Woodbury, Warren
Wright, Melinda

Wydenes, Marci
Yamamoto, John

Yoshizumi, Erin Young, Robert

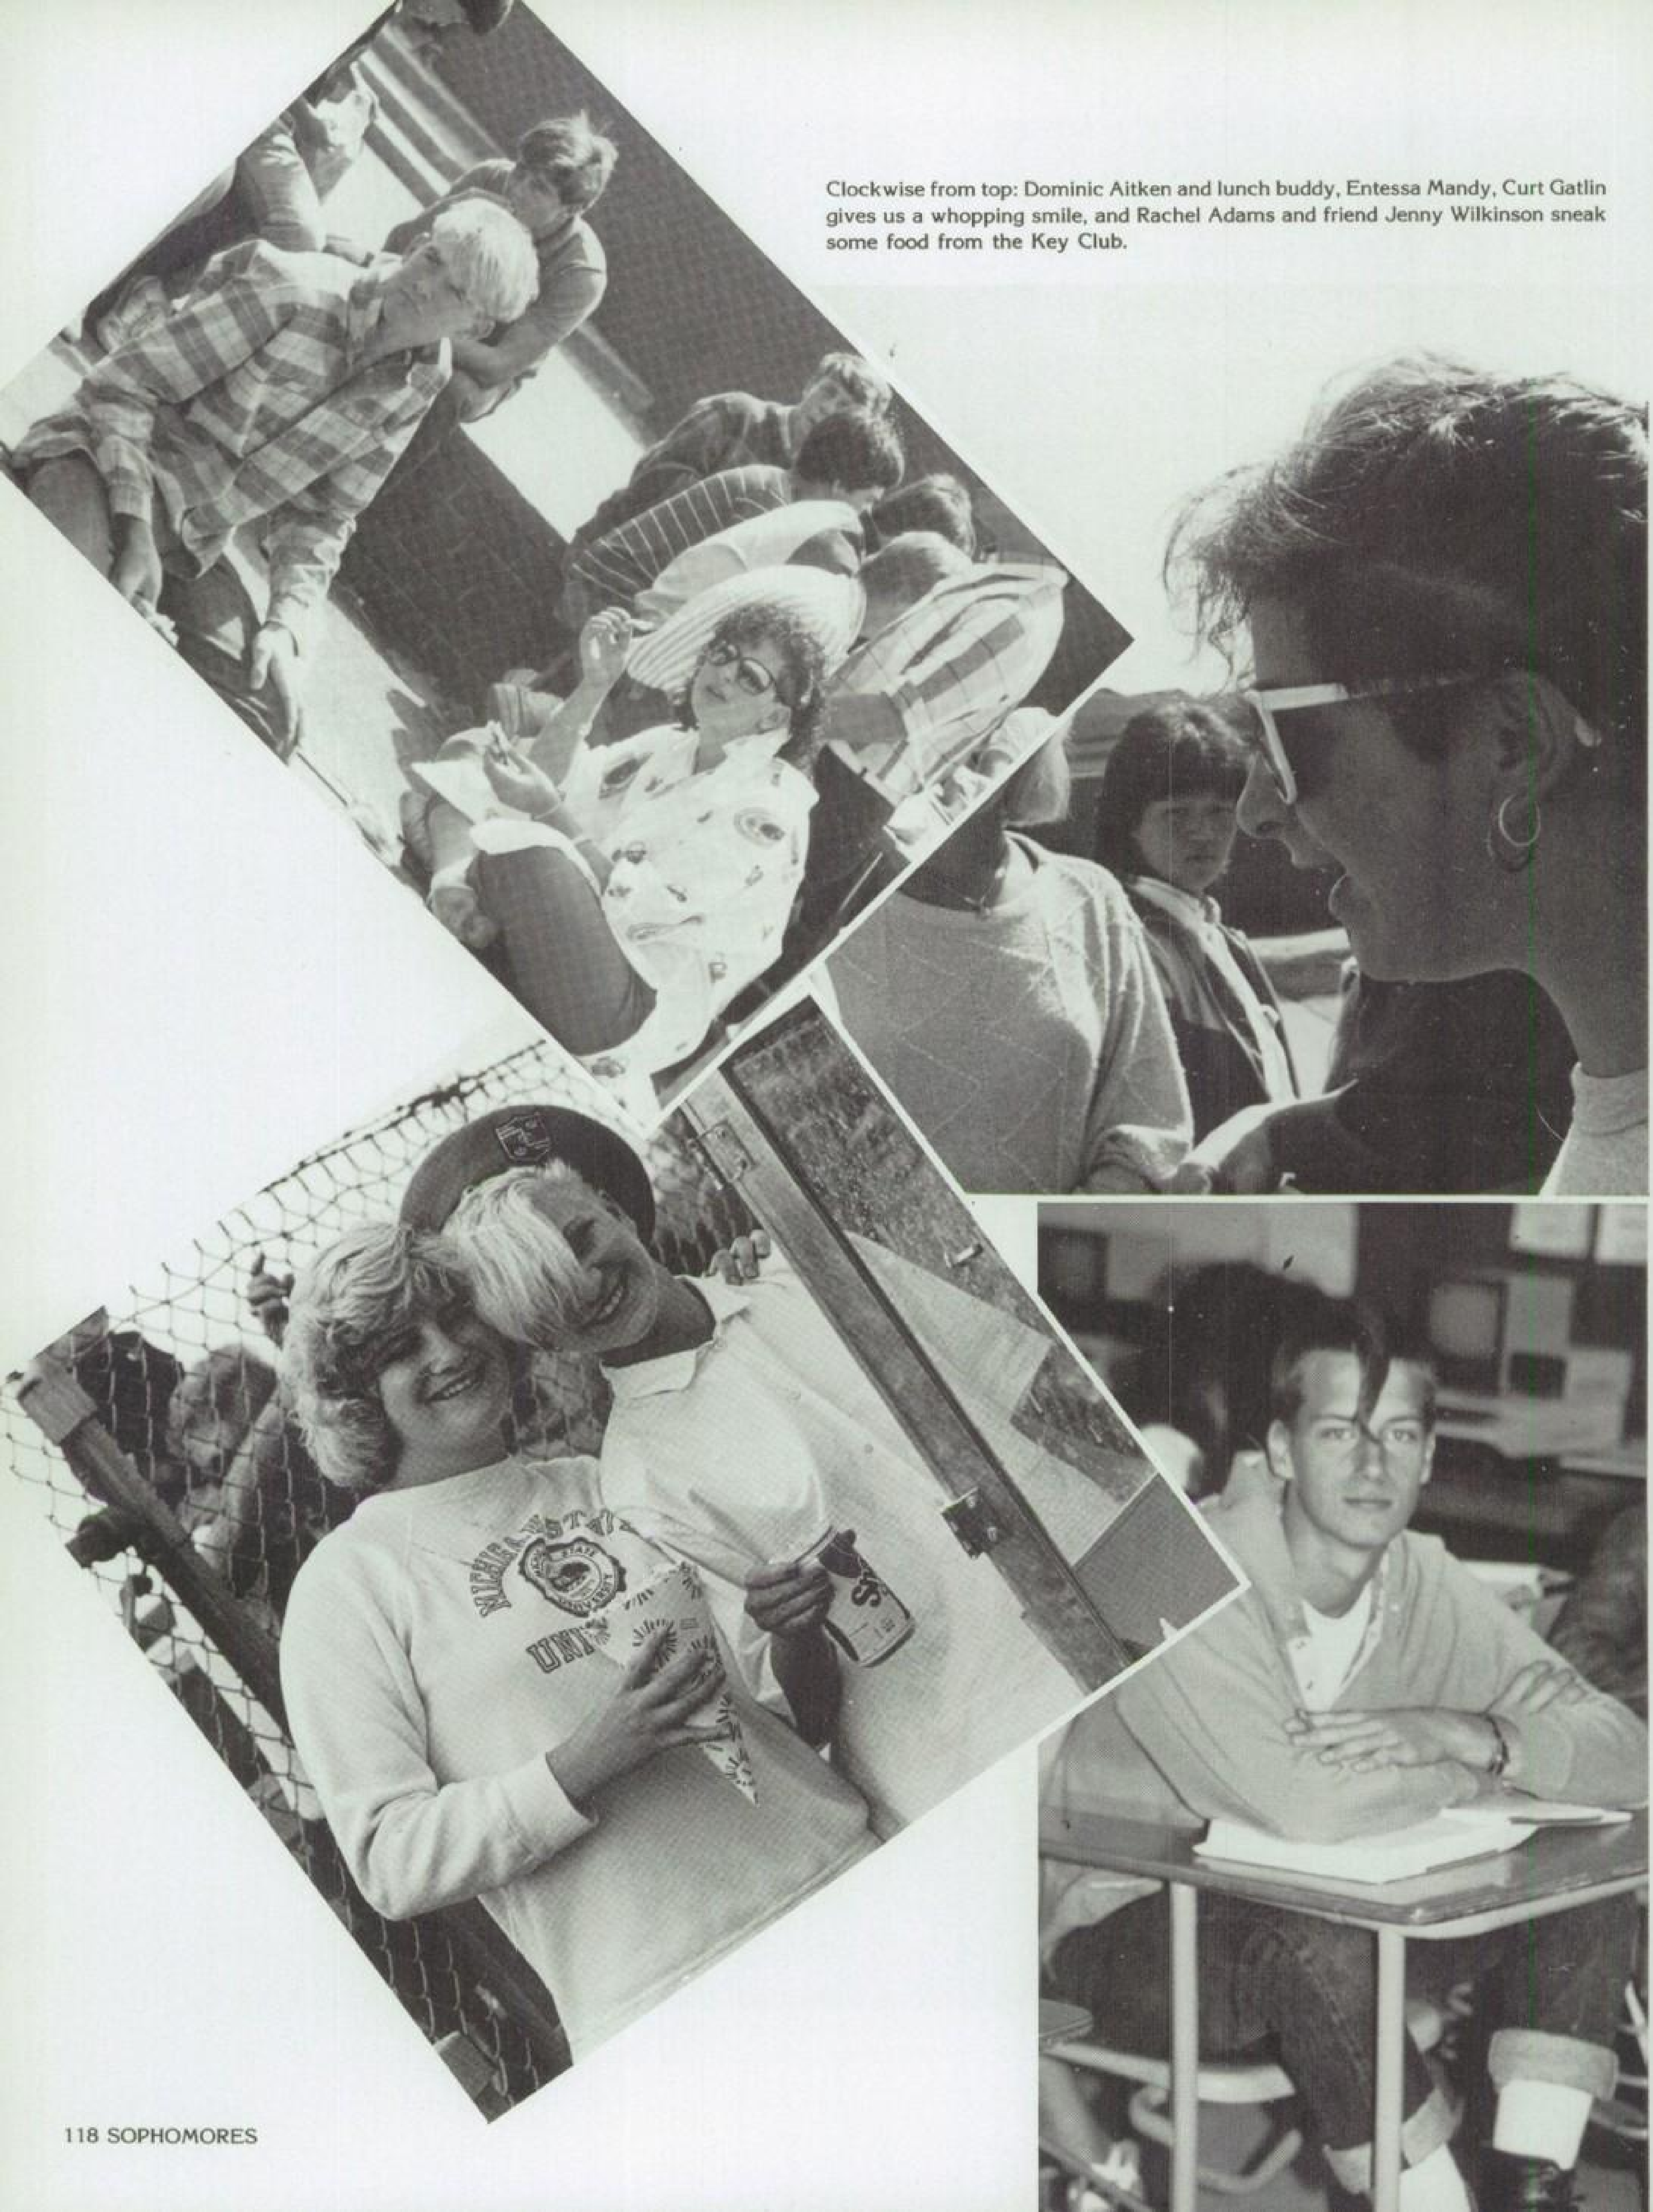
Zaknick, Julie

Now do you really expect me to believe that?! Darlene Chan, Jennifer Salmon

Clockwise from top: Dominic Aitken and lunch buddy, Entessa Mandy, Curt Gatlin gives us a whopping smile, and Rachel Adams and friend Jenny Wilkinson sneak some food from the Key Club.



MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Missing Pieces . . .

Anderson, Brent
Arbuckle, Cynthia
Bishop, Jeremy Brown, Eric
Carr, Gene
Clark, Monica
Clausen, Thore
Crutsinger, Todd
Cupp, Bradley
DeLaCerda, Veronica
Drucker, Jonas
Fuller, Dennis Geer, Chris
Gibson, Susan
Grasso, Angela
Harper, Jim Huntimer, Maureen
Huynh, Thomas
Ingram, Colleen
Johnson, Tim
Kalpakian, Jack
Kutlesa, James
Lea, Gene Leonardis, Steven Lilla, Lana
Mahan, Wendy Mayo, Don Minkalis, George Misner, Chuck
Mo, Berman
Moix, Mike
Penick, Patricia Perez, Anthony
Peters, Robert Pettygrove, Dan
Raub, Deniece
Rodriguez, Donald Sang, Yu Pin
Saxen, Denise
Shurtleff, M.
Silveira, Michael Slater, Michael Smith, Bob Taran, Huu
Vasquez, Jo Ann
Wolschon, Donald Zargari, Sheila

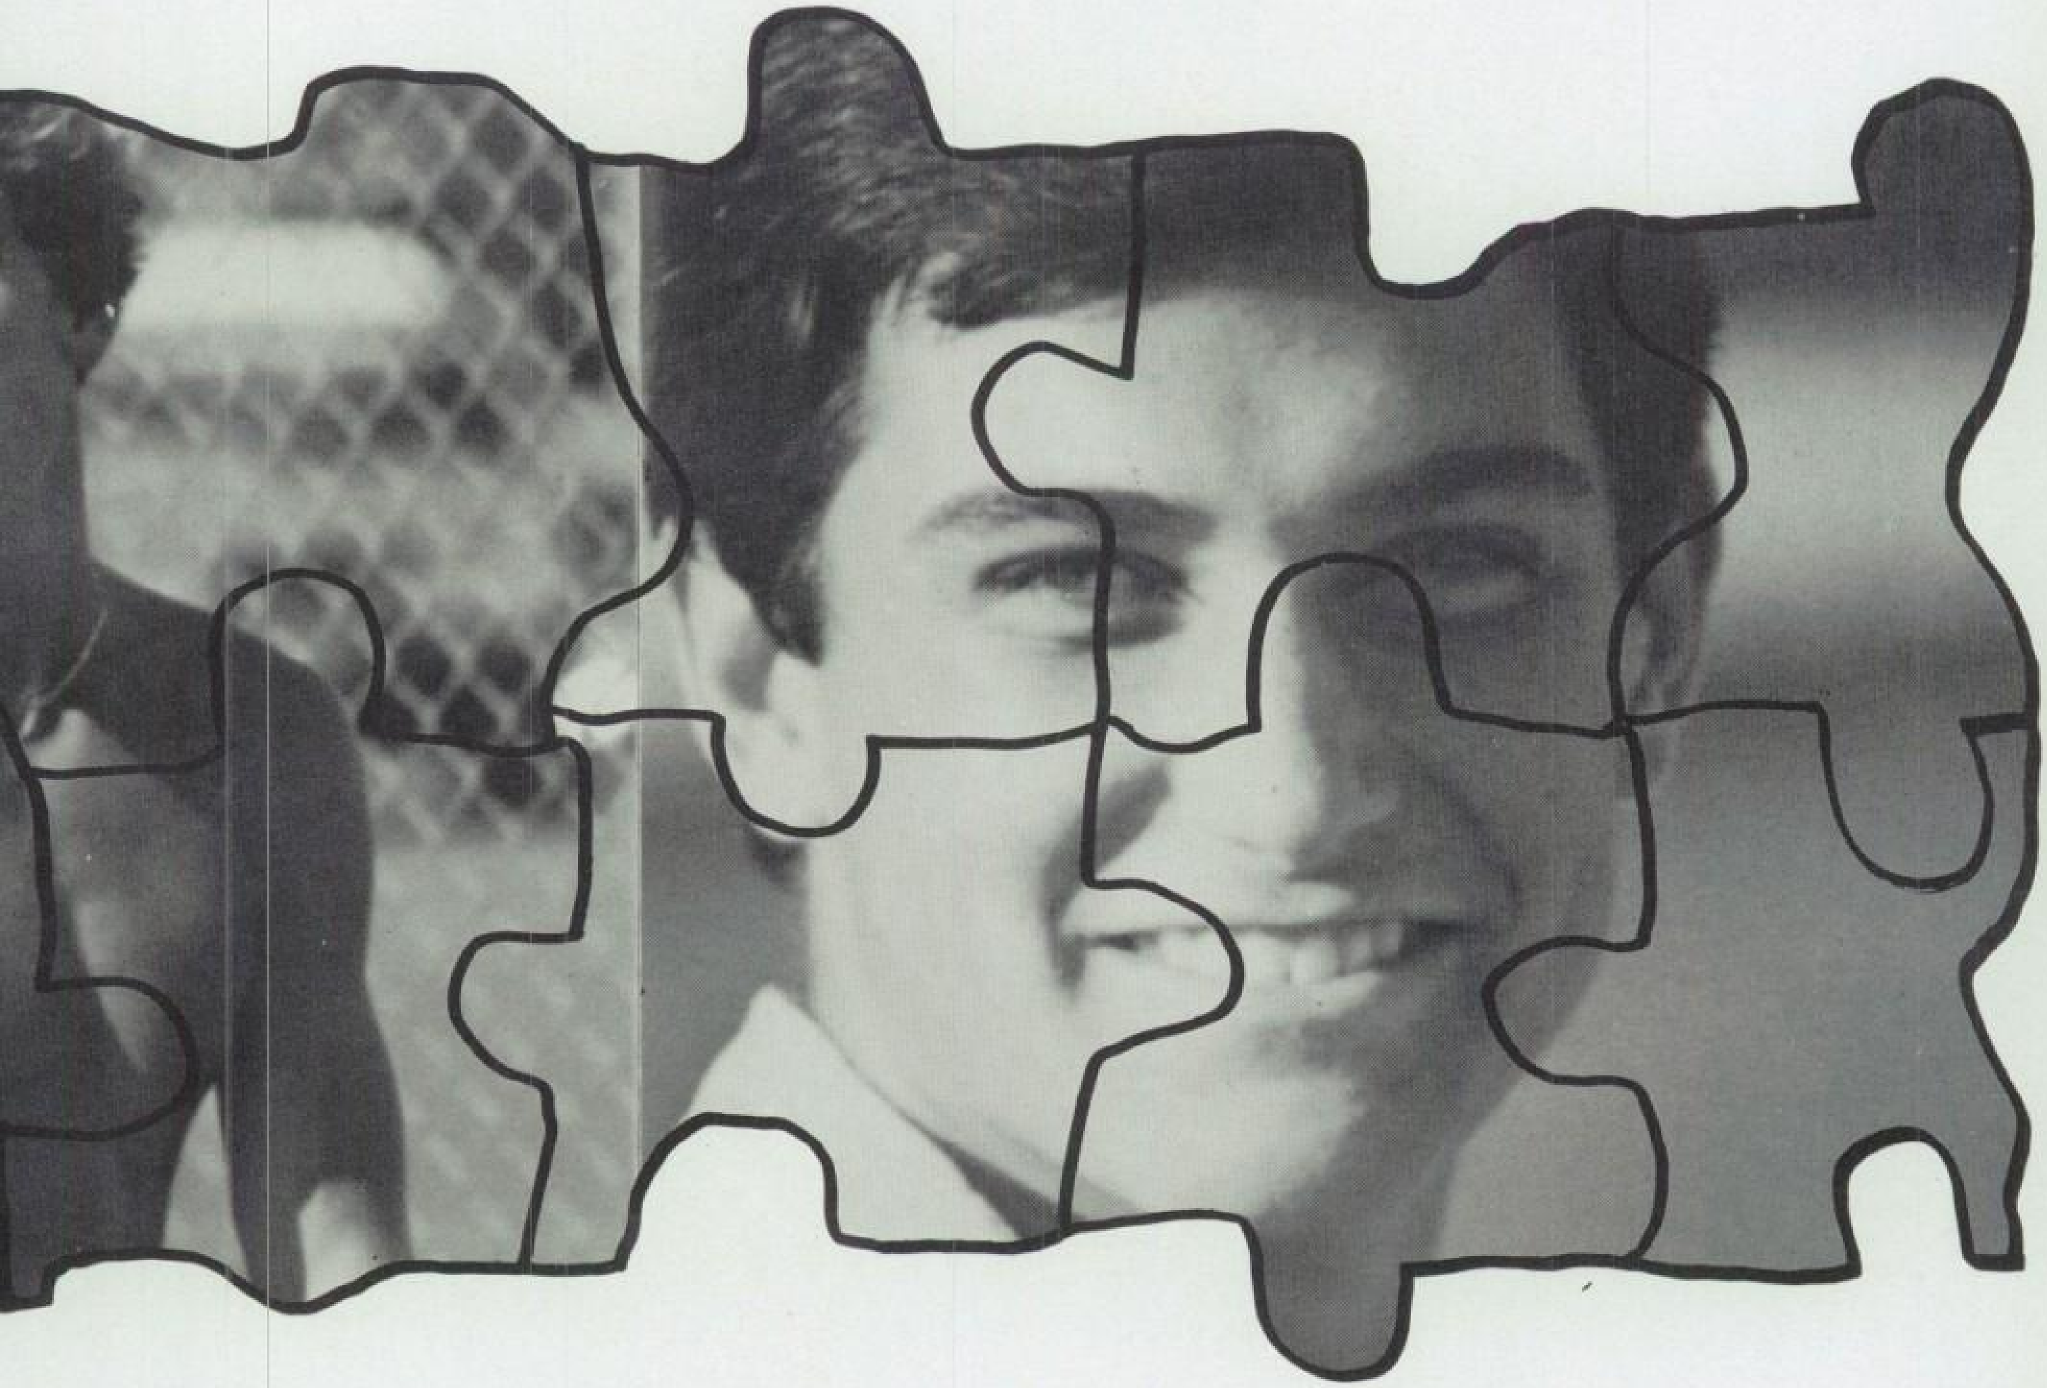
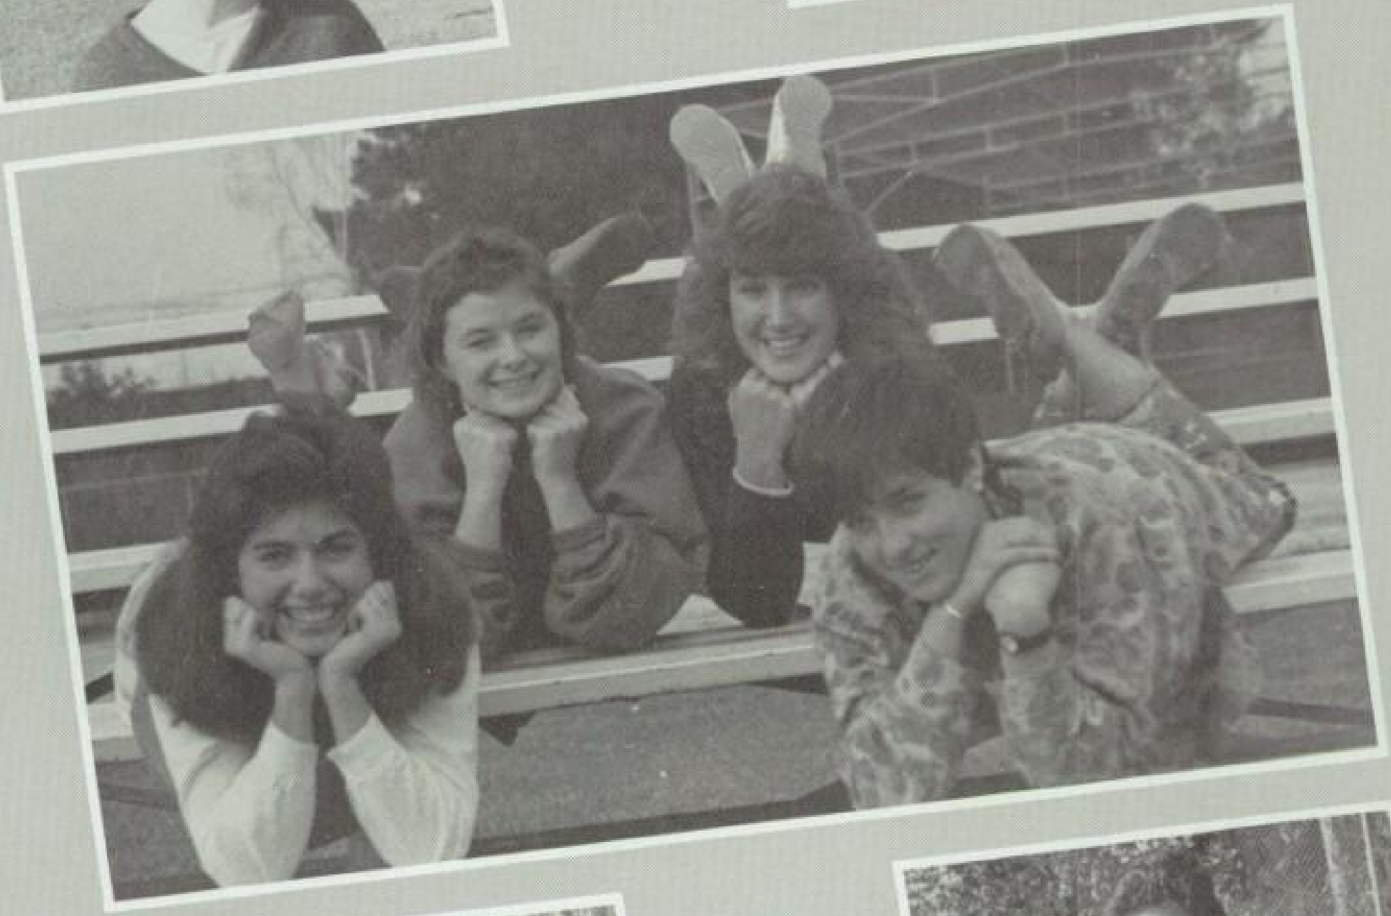
Juniors



Junior Ranks

President: Chimene Hickey

Vice President: Kelly Fesler



Secretary: Amanda Willson

Treasurer: Lisa Favorito

Abbott, Douglas Abbott, Lynore
Abinanti, Stefanie
Aitken, Denise Aitken, Dominic
Alameda, Bill
Albert, Kim

Alferez, Manny
An, To Hun
Andrade, Kimberly
Arima, Arlene
Armstrong, John Ashworth, John Atherton, Jennifer

Babb, Dan
Babb, Laurie
Baldwin, Scott
Beach, Cynthia
Belair, Kimberly
Besonis, Chris Best, Brendan

Bini, David Blue, Jim

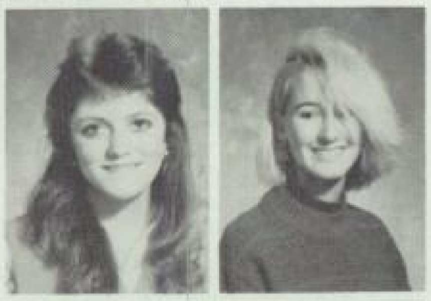
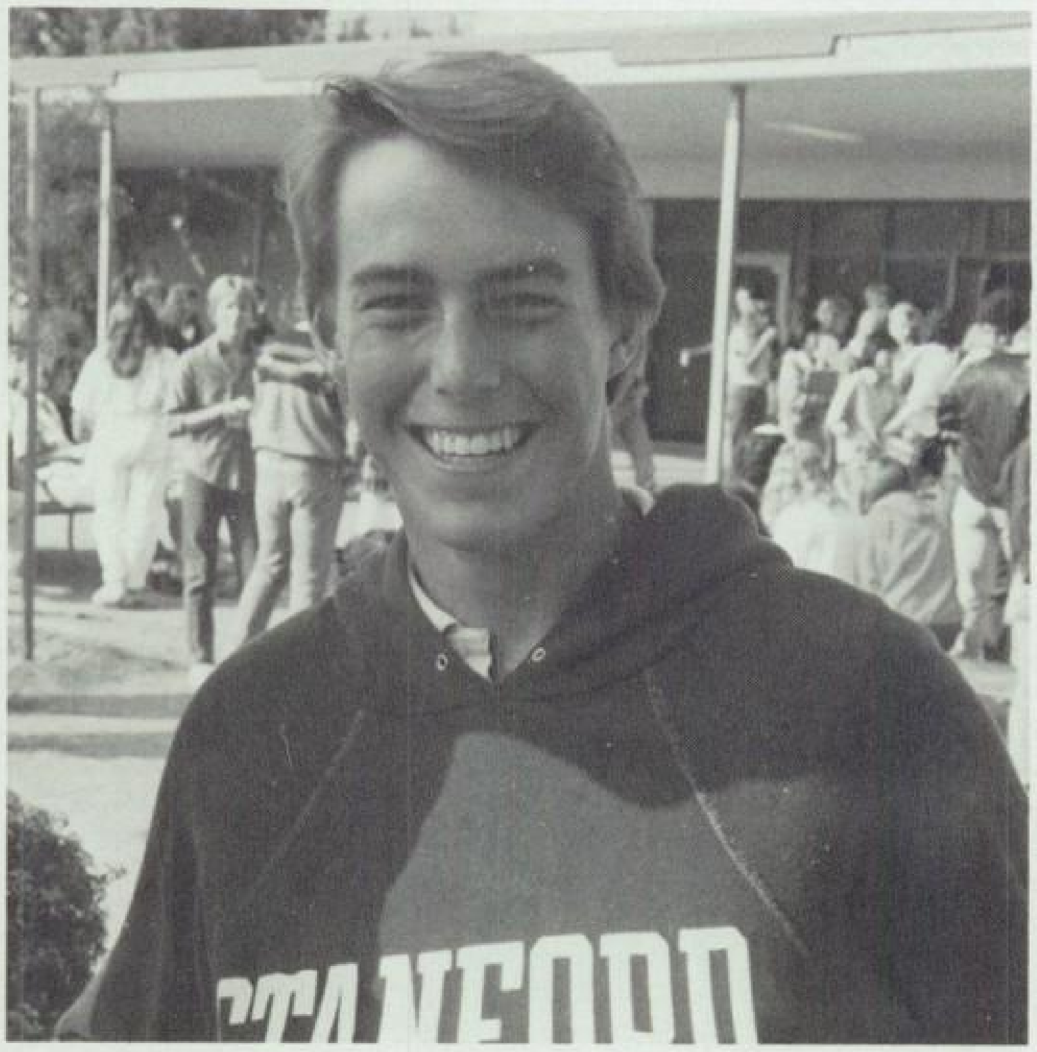
Bodecker, Olaf
Boeddeker, Brian



Bongiorno, Ann Marie
Bonini, Nadine



Kevin Phillips shows us his great smile and sweatshirt.

Booth, Gina
Boyd, Michelle

Bozarth, Paul
Bruzoni, Charles Budenbender, Alicia
Cannistraci, Sam
Carter, Heather
Castellon, Jose
Cathey, Terrie

Cerny, Dan
Chang, Cecilia Charlebois, Charles
Chastain, Masaru
Chen, Wei
Cherry, Suzanne Chung, Kenny

Chung, Susan Church, Nichole
Civelli, Paul Clark, Mary
Collins, Tracey
Cook, Darren
Cooper, Claudia

Crain, Wendy Cramer, Jim Crowe, Laura Curran, Michael Cushman, Nicole
D'Attilio, David Davis, Becky

De Kruif, David Deckard, Lisa
DeLapp, Sean
De Uries, Ivar
Di Domenico, Paul
Dodd, Kim
Dodd, Michelle

Domrose, Bret Donaldson, Robert

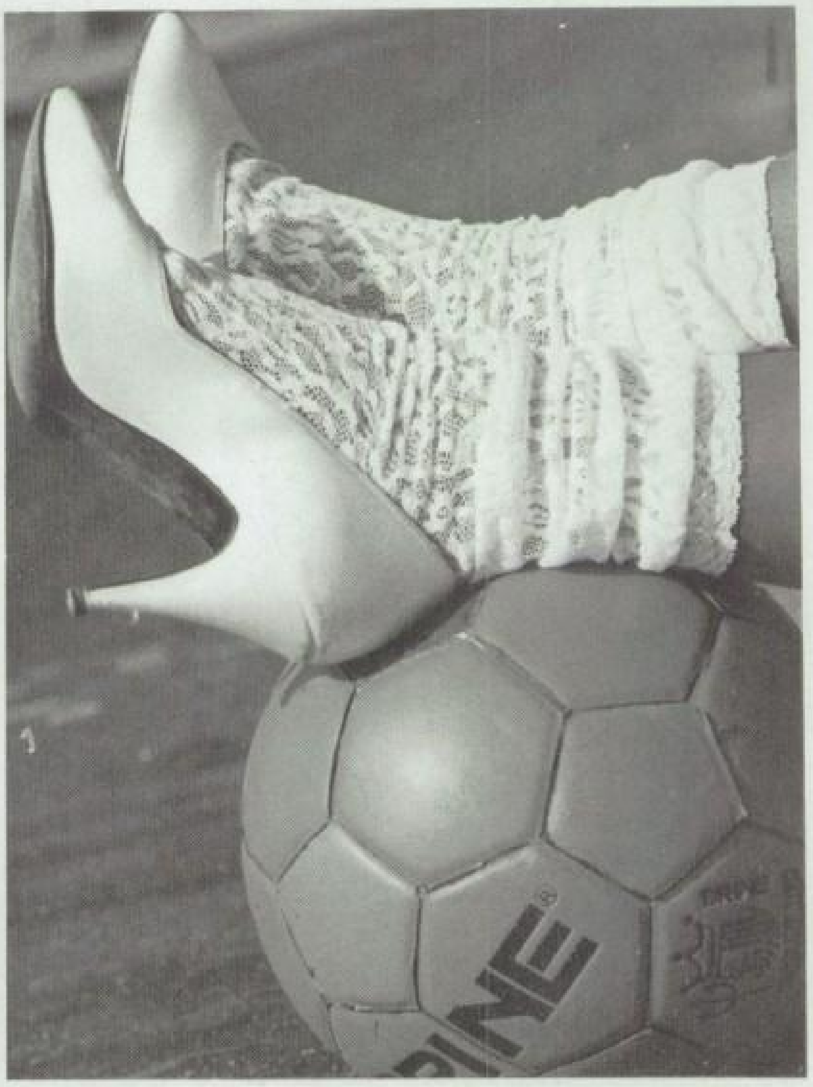
Dowling, Heather
Drysdale, Craig

Dudek, Stacey
Dunlavy, Gina

DuPont, Richard
Eisenberg, Melissa



You don't have to be dressed for what you like to do all the time

Evans, Ken
Farnetti, Matt
Fassig, Gerry Favorito, Lisa
Fay, Ron Fernandez, James Fesler, Kelly

Flint, Jason Flory, Stacey
Ford, Kim
Foster, Erik
Foster, Sean
Frendian, Ray
Frye, Jamie

Gabbard, Douglas Garcia, Danny
Gary, Jason
Gasaway, Stacy
Goldman, Jodie
Gorr, Mike
Graham, Karen

Sean Comer and Shawn Robison

Griffith, Kathryn Guyton, Greg Guzman, Jim

Ha, Peter Hall, Brad
Hansen, Wendy

Hanson, Amy
Harr, Margaret Hastings, Larry

Hau, Jenny
Hawkins, Vanae
Hayamizu, Dina

Heinricks, Stacy
Helgoe, Lisa
Helwig, Kristen
Hereford, Tammy
Herr, Mike
Hickey, Chimene
Hill, Whitney

Hilty, Julie
Hitchcock, David Howell, Mike
Hoyte, Sharon
Hunsicker, Carol
Hunt, Jenny
Hunt, Mike

Hunt, William Hunter, Rachel Huynh, Peter
Huynh, Quyen
Hyer, Emily
Jay, Nancy
Jenkins, Troy

Jensen, Linda
Jewhurst, Scott

Jimenez, Serge
Johanson, Chris

Sonia Delgado and friend have fun with a picture

Jonoubei, Rodney
Joslin, Brent

Joslin, Scott
Kaelin, Mike

Karpel, Jeremy Kawaye, Audrey

Keifer, John Kenney, Brian

A rare picture of Ray Medina — he's not winking at a girl.

Kim, Catherine
Kim, Liz
Kim, Tai Kissane, Jonathan
Knowdell, Kelly
Krystal, Liza
Kumler, Will

Lambert, Hyrum
Lang, Traci
Lau, Ricky
Lee, Meehee
Lee, Tina
Lienhart, Michele
Liggett, Jon

Lintern, Jon
Lloyd, Veronica
Lokey, Denise
Lopez, Margaret Lupo, Lissa
MacKinnon, Mary Madsen, Kevin

Marcelic, Steve Martin, Rod

Maxwell, Robert Mayoski, Patrick

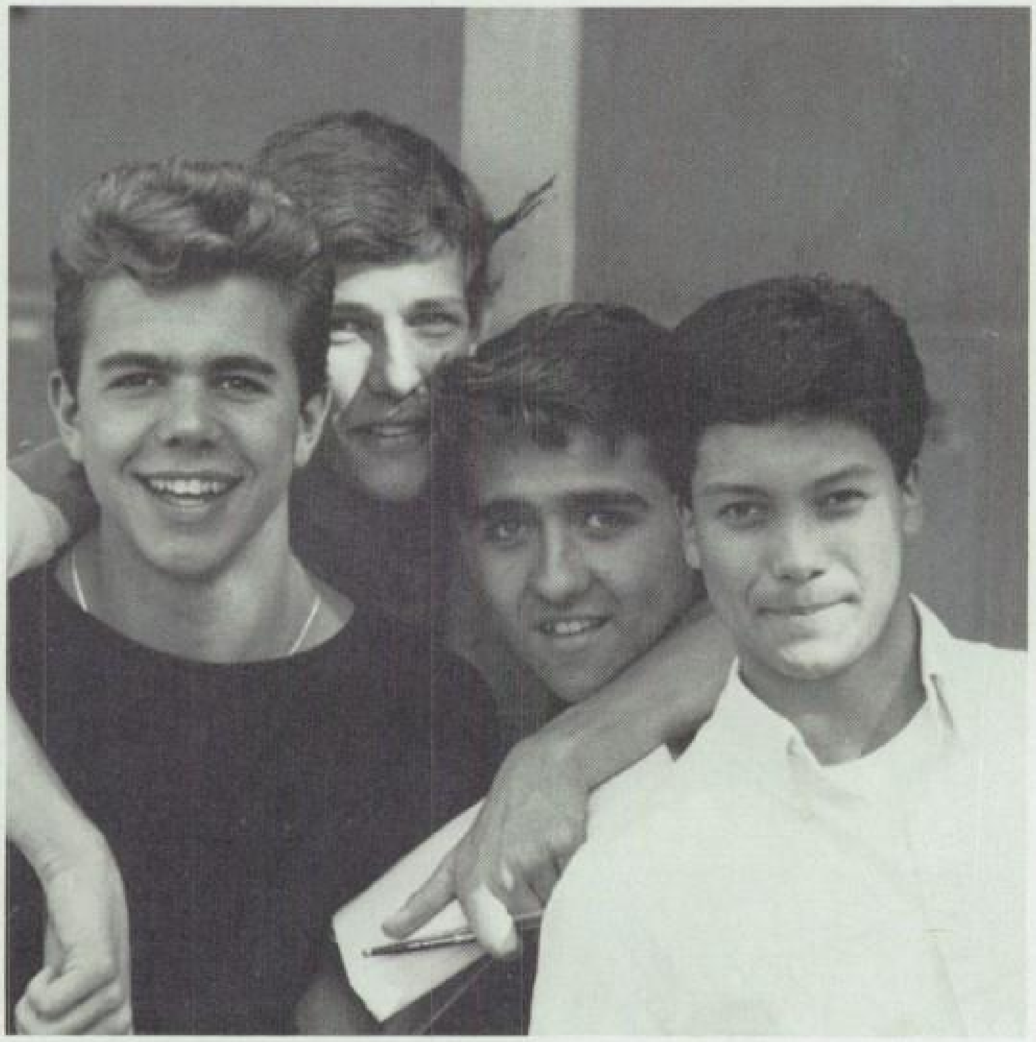
McArdle, Tiffany
McCarthy, Veronica

McCleary, Mark
McClumpha, Mary



Gary Rossi, Sean Mason, Manny Alferez, and James Fernandez flash their whites for us

McCullough, James McCurdy, Dana
McGill, Rori
McGrane, Ronald McKimmie, Katherine
McMeen, Jerrie
McNally, Kathryn

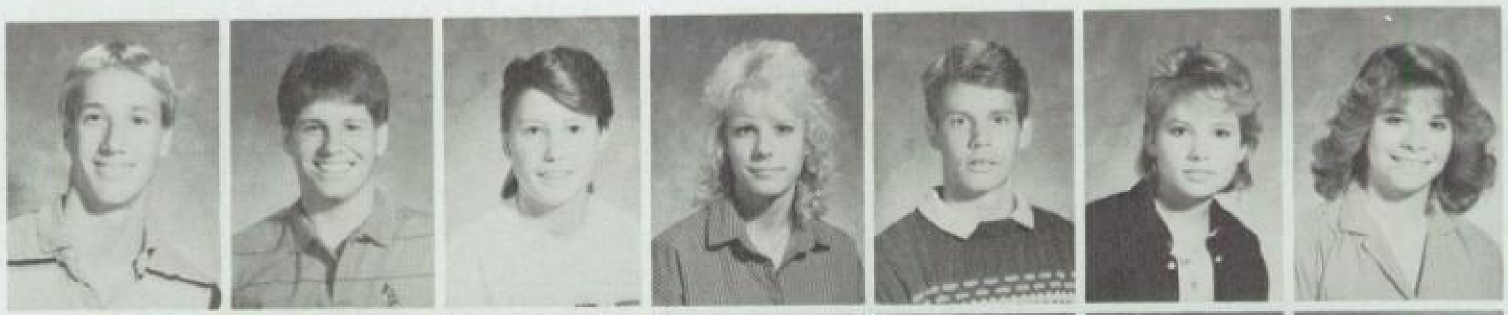
Where Are You At 7:10 In The Morning?

PROSPECT TW-99

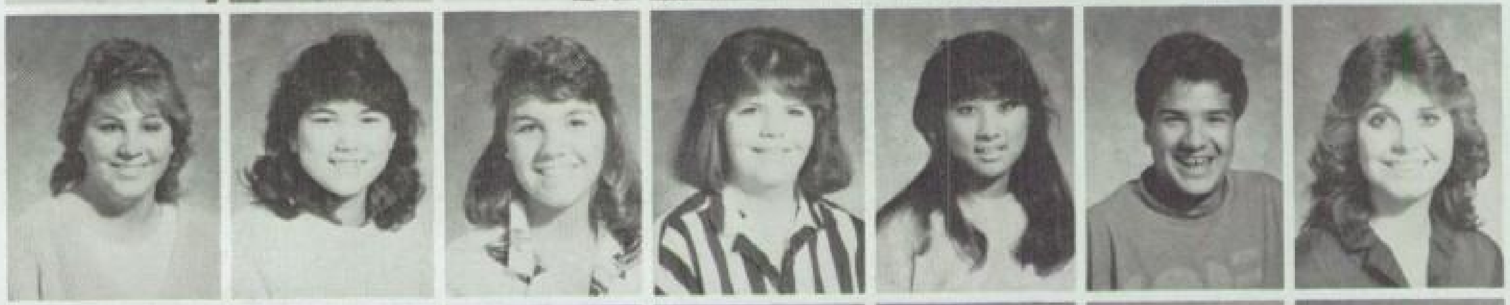
Catching a few quick ZZZ's in first period.

-RRRing!!!
-Wake Up!
-What!
-You slowly open one eye lid. You can't see much. At first, you panic, "I'm blind."
-Then you realize you can't see because it's night. It's time for school.
-School, it must be 2 o'clock in the morning!
-Actually, it is 7 o'clock. You are going to be late, again. You have less than a minute to get going. You try to take a shower, get dressed, put on make-up, grab something to eat, get your books, and run to school.
-Instead, you end up putting your shirt on backwards, with the buttons off by one, and your breakfast down your front. You jump in the shower with your clothes on. Grabbing the T.V. Guide instead of your books and using the lipstick as mascara you swallow a glass of milk. Wearing a milk moustache, you arrive at school with your slippers still on. Another day at school begins.
If you can stay awake first period can be fun . . . but who's awake?!!

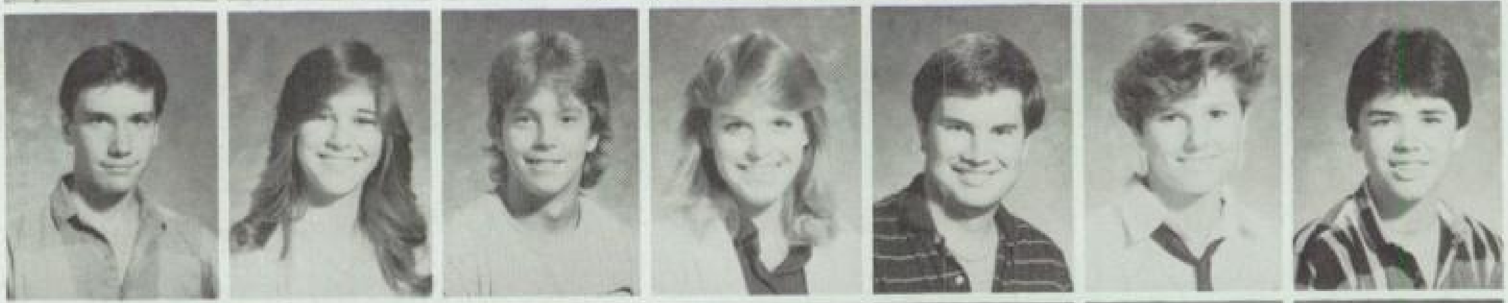
Meck, Dave
Medina, Ray
Menefee, Kristen
Michaelsen, Krista
Miles, Jeffrey
Miller, Kristen
Miller, Lori



Moran, Tonna
Mull, Tina
Muller, Janelle
Myers, Tracey
Nakamitsu, Sheri
Nevarez, Mark
Nicholas, Debbie



Nickel, Scott
Novak, Kristen
Ohmit, John
Olson, Yvonne
Olszewski, Scott
Oneto, Marguerite
Pamphilon, Sean



Pantuso, Jamie
Partlow, Tammy
Peters, Gary
Phillips, Kevin Phillips, Matthew Philp, Alan Pittaluga, Andy

Plate, Mike
Quan, Stacy
Radojicic, Mladen
Randall, Kelly
Rarick, Rachel Read, Debbie Reed, Kimberly

Reeve, Laureen
Reilly, Eddie
Ricatta, Maria
Richardson, Stacy
Rios, Julie
Ritchie, Sharon Ritter, Steve

Rizzi, Alicia
Robinson, Shawn Rockwood, Bryce
Rodriguez, Tina
Rossi, Gary Rufener, Cara
Russell, Emily

Sachen, Tom Sang, Yu-Feng
Saunders, Frank Saxe, Steve Scharpf, Jason
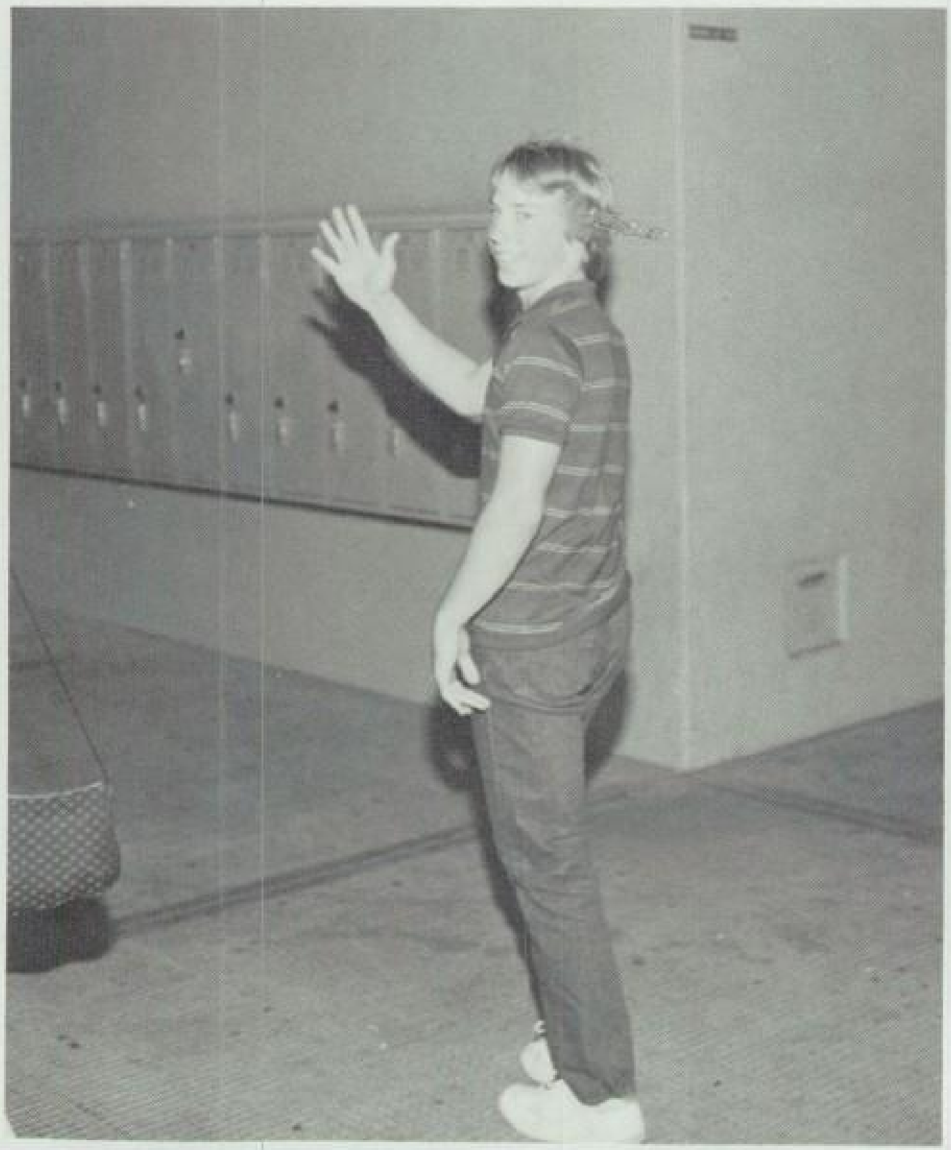
Schauf, Lesli
Schmalz, Teresa

Steve Saxe gives a final farewell to his junior year as he becomes a senior.



What can be said about the Juniors that hasn't been said (usually in a derrogatory manner). But seriously the Juniors are the probably best adjusted of all the classes. They haven't yet faced the horrors of real life and are done with the uncertain perplexities of sophomore and freshman year. They, for the most part, have heads of spirit, and therefore are quite obnoxious. But they always seem to win spirit week. They are very active in school activities. While the seniors worry about college and the sophomores and the freshmen worry about where their next class is, the juniors make the most of their freetime. Whether it be sports, academics, clubs, or just dressing snappily, the juniors always seem to be relaxed and having a good time.

But self-assured idealism is abruptly dashed on the rocks of reality by the end of the junior year. More often the counselors are seen speaking in ominous tones about those huge, marble institutions of learning called UNIVERSITIES!! The juniors eyes begin bulging and sweat breaks on many a brow, and hands are wrung nervously. It's time to think about the future, and getting ready to make important decisions that will effect the rest of their life. (At this point many students with weak hearts begin to faint). But as the juniors magically change into seniors, they begin to take responsibility, look at life seriously without fear, and become really uptight. They have become seniors.

Schopplein, Sandy Schwartfeger, Shannon
Scott, Bonnie
Selby, Kim
Seremetis, Maria
Shaffer, James Shander, Carolyn

Shannon, Colleen
Shaw, Victoria
Shriver, Karen Skipper, Kim
Smith, Derek
Smith, Stephanie So, Song

Solma, Bill
Solorzano, Chris

Spencer, Belinda
Sprajc, Barry

Stange, Scott
Stanton, David

Steele, Gerald Sterio, Vicky

Stevens, Melinda Story, Beth

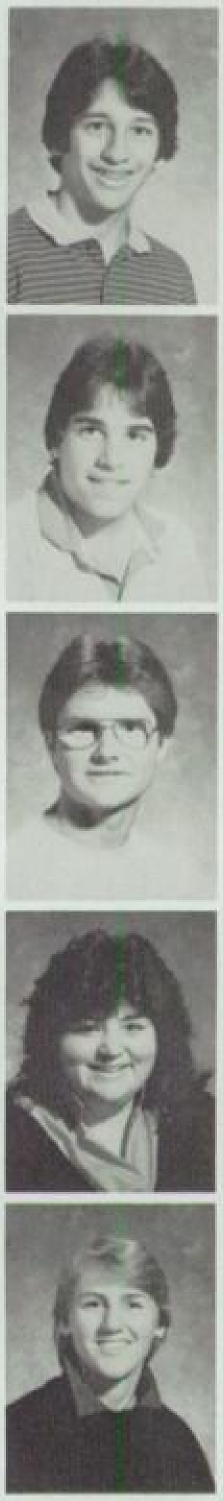
Dan Cerny watches knowingly, as Prospect makes another T.D.



Stoye, Corinne
Stuart, Lee
Szeto, Veda
Takashima, Thomas
Talbot, Nancy
Tavarez, Steven Taylor, Brad

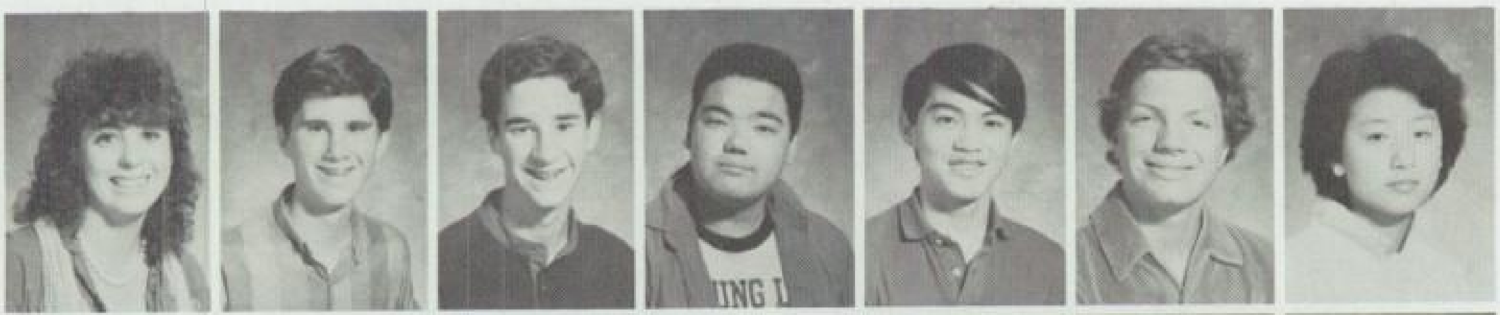
Good Friends and Fanta!

Junior Tina Rodriguez and SENIOR friend. (Oooo! Ahhh!)



Taylor, Terry
Temple, Eric Temple, Kevin Terada, Martin
Tran, Tommy Trayer, Kevin Tsou, Hua

Tsurumoto, Mike
Tupper, John Varozza, Beth Walker, Chris
Walker, Vicky
Washington, Vince Waters, Donna

Watkins, Darren
Weber, Janet Weidling, Kristine
Weight, Aprille
Wellington, Laura West, Denise
West, Pamela

Westrum, Erik Whitham, Karen
Whitney, Melissa
Whittlesey, Julie Wiggers, Robert Wilder, Leslie
Williams, Lisa

Willson, Amanda Wise, Steve Witkin, Dean
Wojtkowski, Robbie Wollbrink, Cathy Woloshun, Deborah Woo, Jim

Woodcock, William Woodward, Sterling

Woolley, Michael Wright, Shelby

Wydenes, Neil Young, Alan

Yount, Robert Zorn, Wayne

Missing Pieces . . .

Albert, Rod
Ballin, Jenny
Beeson, Jonilynn
Bippus, Monte
Bowen, Gina
Bradley, Dan
Bui, Oanh
Carlson, Brad
Chandler, Chad
Chen, Baohong
Civitell, Nick Collins, Darcy
Comer, Sean
Congleton, Tim
Coston, Julia
Cox, Alicia
Cross, Patricia Delgado, Sonia
Doko, Christine
Douglas, Raymond
Erickson, Deanna
Esparza, Doug Fessenden, Dave Field, Stacey
Galvan, Michelle
Garcia, Jeff
Goodspeed, Scott
Gouailhardou, John Gregory, Kurt
Gutterrez, George
Jensen, Dell
Johnson, Lorenzo
Kazmierczak, Chris
Lantz, Dan
LeDrew, Kelly
Leon, Josephine Locastro, Eric
Lockwood, Jenny
Martinez, Rhonda
Matsumoto, Linda
McDonald, Erin
Netzler, Milo
Petty, Todd
Ramirez, Rodolfo
Robins, Ken
Rowland, Tracy
Sanden, Mike
Schiro, Robert Shanahan, Tim
Smith, Pat
Sze, Jui Johnny
Teutsch, Mike
Vasquez, Nick
Wang, Hei
Waterbury, Lachlan
Wetterhorn, William Winterberg, Steven Wong, Jenny

Seniors

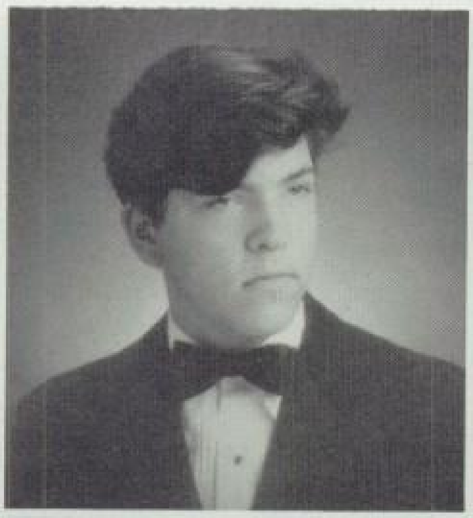
Senior Authority

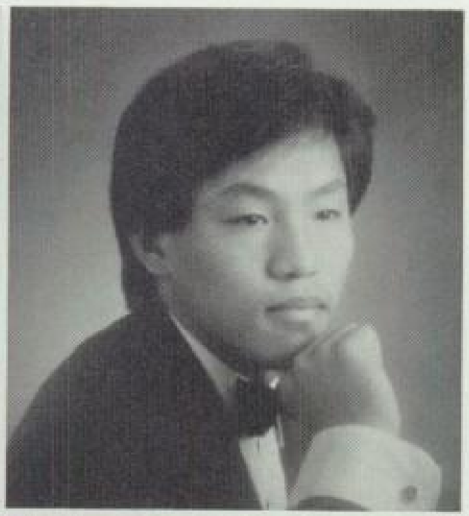
President: Kim D'Attilio

Vice-President: Carmen Weins

Secretary: Diane Dowling

Treasurer: Melissa Schneider

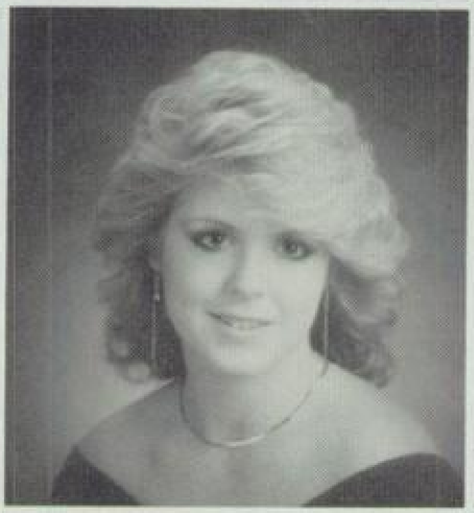


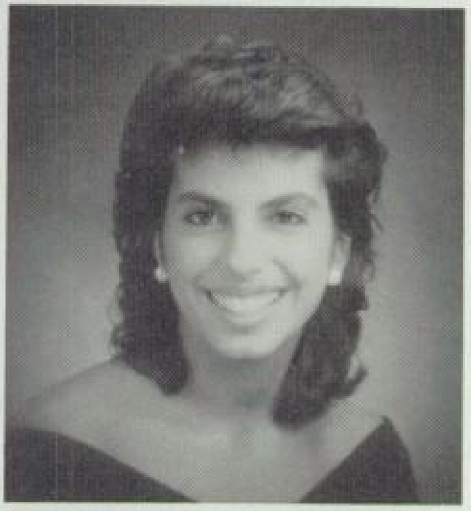


Charlotte Abshire — To LC, SC, JF, KT, and all my friends. Thanks for all the great times and don't forget me in Texas! Lisa- good luck with the greenies! Keep a smile on your face and a song in your heart!

Ray Aced

Sang Ahn

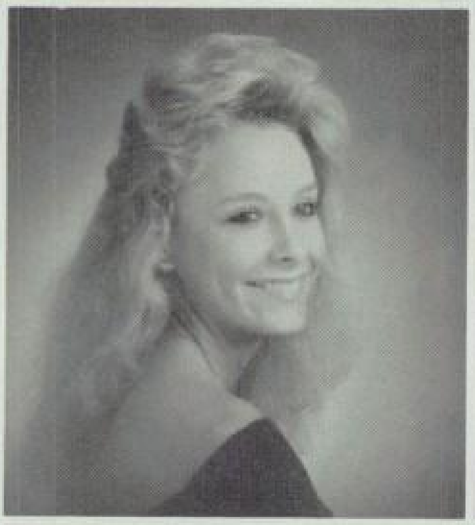


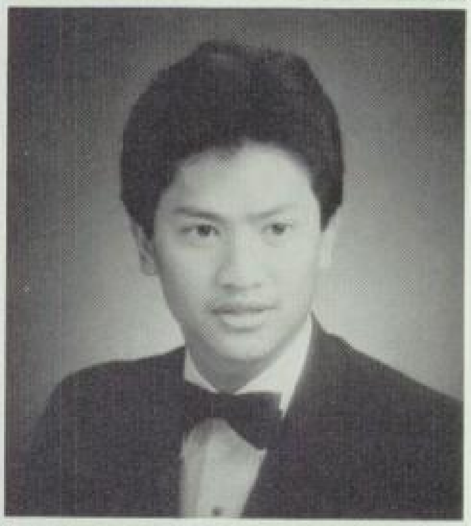


Jaeyoung Ahn

Stephanie Rachelle Aitken — "Are you serious?" "I'm so serious." Mob + Ned = Trouble

Rita Alam — To Missy, Lorrie, and Cuanc; you are the best of friends. Thanks for the times we shared, friends are forever as we shall always be . . . To JL- The Chef- Thanks for all you've given me; you're truly THE BEST.

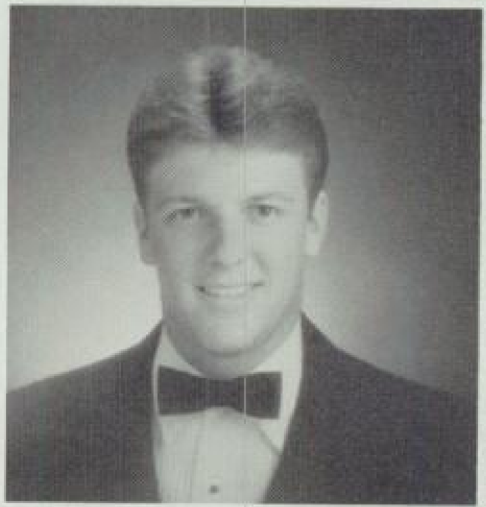


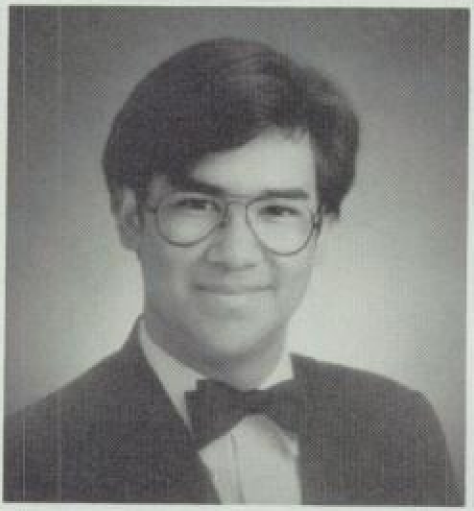


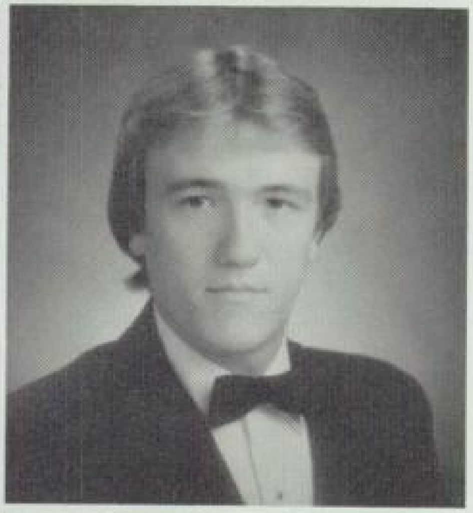
Stacey Alvidrez — A man must make his opportunity, as often as find it.

Holly Christean Amann — This time has finally come and I want to thank my good friends Marci and Vernell for making it the best years ever. P.S. I love you Mom and Dad, Thank you for everything!

Marlon Andaya



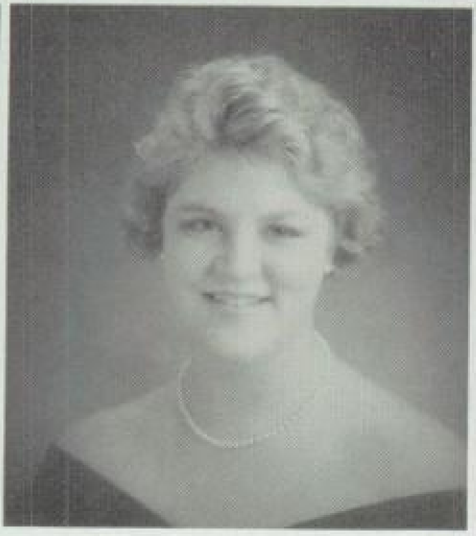


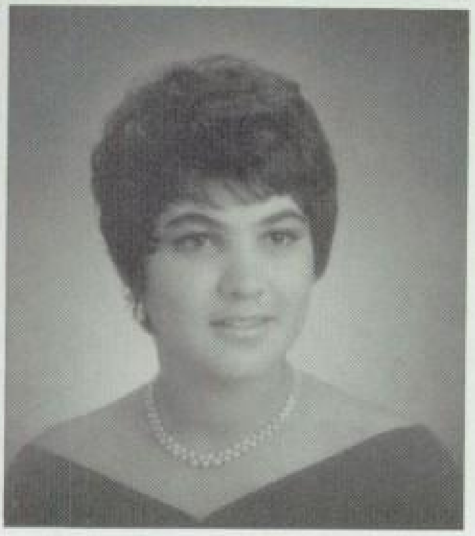


Timothy Anhorn

Matt Aquino — A thousand thanks to my friends: BB, DE, SE, NL, MM and others. To my good friend AC, thanks for everything. All my love to JL, forever. I luff you doll! Want some Crispas with that? Zany!

Troy Archuleta — All my love to my family and friends. DO, AB, BA, TO and all the class of 1986. Baseball will live forever in my heart!





Daniela Arcienega

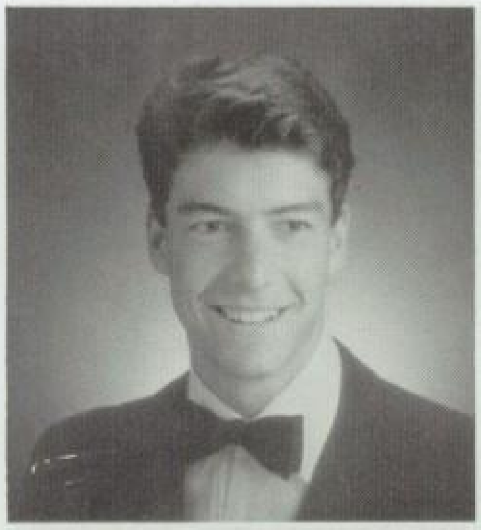
Julie Anne Arosio — The four words we all should live by . . . "Smile and be happy!"

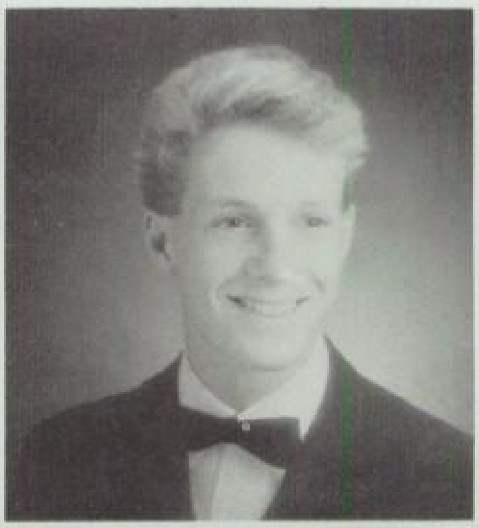
Lobat Atabakhshkashi

Brett Aumach

Laurel Austad — The Police, JD, I'll love you forever! Carm- Africa?? Shan- you're great! Thanks for everything! Jeff- I love you so watch out for the mad poodles on highway 17. You guys- I gotta go p . . .

Mike Avery — Success is never final, and failure is never fatal, and the only things that really count are courage and how good you look!

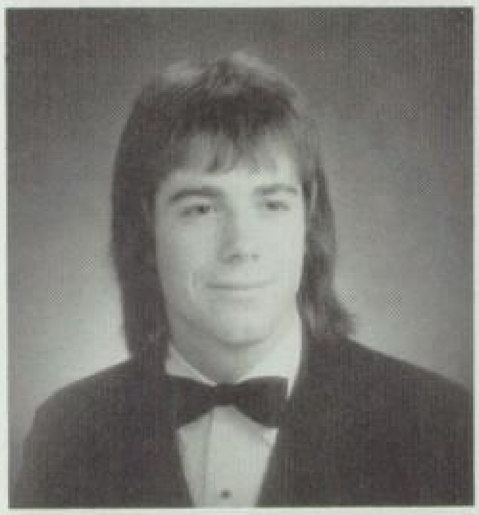


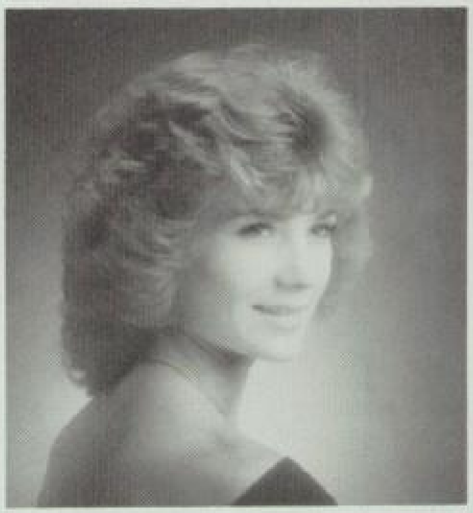


Mike Bandy

Janelle Bate — To DC- Hang in there, you have what it takes and a lot more! (J.K.) Good luck in the future. Friends Forever . . .

Stewart Bath — Basically it was cool, but now I have to move on in life. Tell the teacher I'm surfing. It's cool. Don't worry about it. Quick Quick, Wanabe's go home M.E. and Heaven.

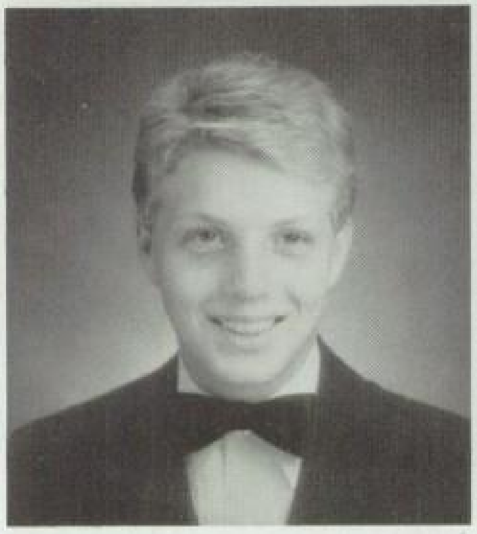


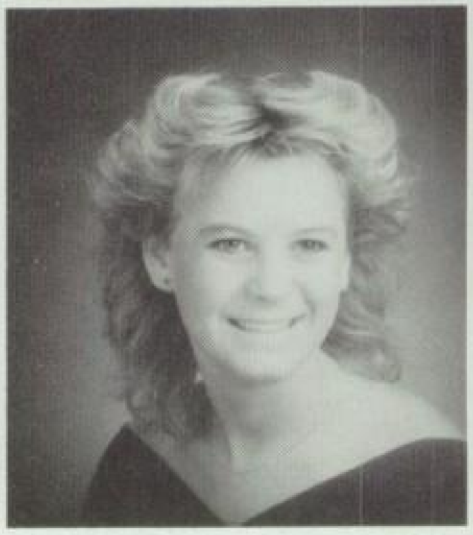


Greg Battaglia

Carolyn Beale — I'd like to thank everyone for a great year. I've really had a wonderful time and I'm sure I'll be back!

Carol Beatie





"College"

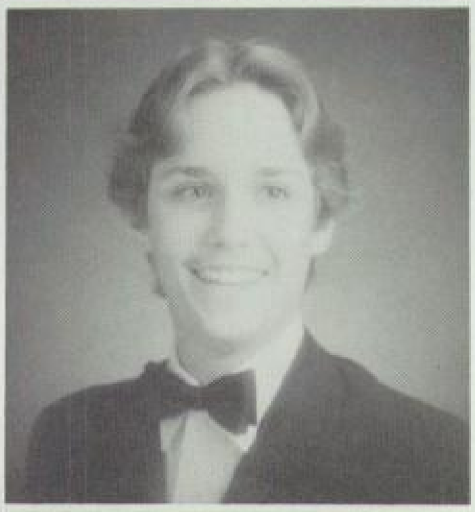
Oh, God! I don't wanna graduate! All these forms to fill, letters to mail, and essays to write! AIGHHHHH! Life used to be simple before; now, it's been drowned in applications. How many of them are there? OK, since I want to waste time, let's make a list.

Now, . . . first, there are college applications due in November. They ask the most stupid questions! Here's an essay question: "Tell us about yourself in 500 words." How do I tell you about myself in 500 words? Wait! That's not all! After the fun filled applications come the fun filled financial aid forms. What in the world is a "1040 Form"? I never want to see another SAAC form again in my whole life! When all that mess is done with, the wrath of the scholarship applications strike! "In 500 words, describe your future goal." "I want to be a doctor." Well, that's six words, only 494 more to go. When you've finished with these three "simple" steps, comes the waiting. You ask yourself, "Is my GPA high enough?" "Did they get my SAT scores? Did I remember to send them my transcripts?" Time passes, . . . if you happen to find a fat envelope in your mailbox, then you are home free; if not, well, . . . Anyways, the process of filling out applications will now be second nature to you; that's probably the only thing you learned your whole Senior year. Maybe next year, you can offer to "help" the next class of Seniors with their applications. — For a small fee, of course. —

Catharine Beedy — Without my family and friends, I never would have made it through my High School years. Luv ya!

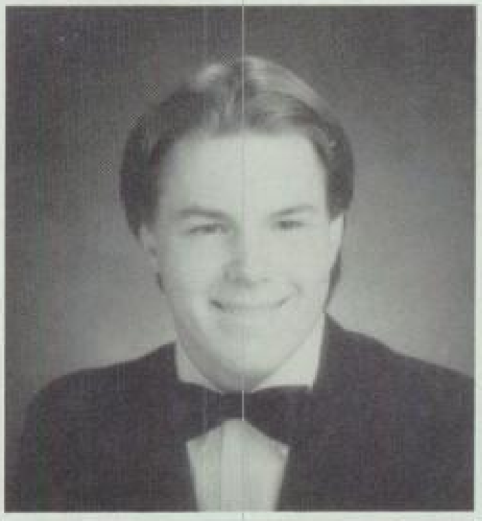
Daniel Beedy — Thanks to all the people I've met and been friends with these past four years!!! Special thanks to M.S. for being a very unique friend, I'll never forget you. And to the Deans, Mr. Lee & Jonesy, You guys are really nice people!

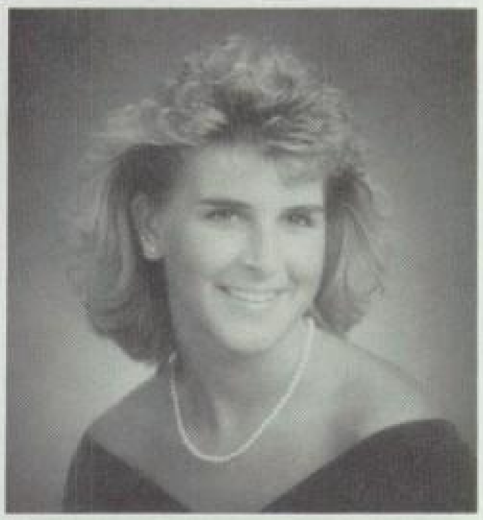
Gregory Alan Beedy · Don't worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. Thanks for gracing me with yourselves· SK, RV, SL, CW, CB, DB, MP, AF, JC, and MW.



Jerry Bein

Sharon Elodie Bell — To my best friends Mike, Cindy, And Jon· We've had a blast these past few years. Thanks and good luck, you're the greatest! "I feel a little celebration in the air kiddies! We've got no choice but to limbo Jimbo!"

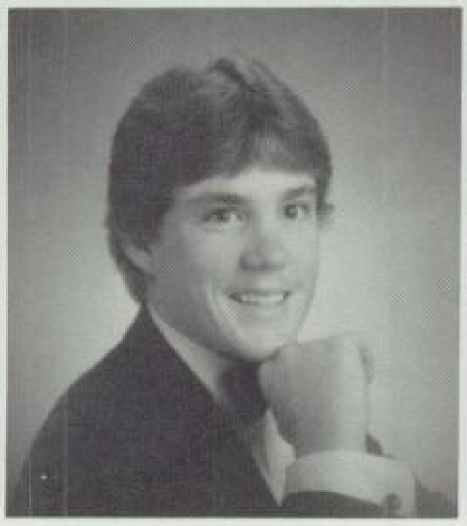


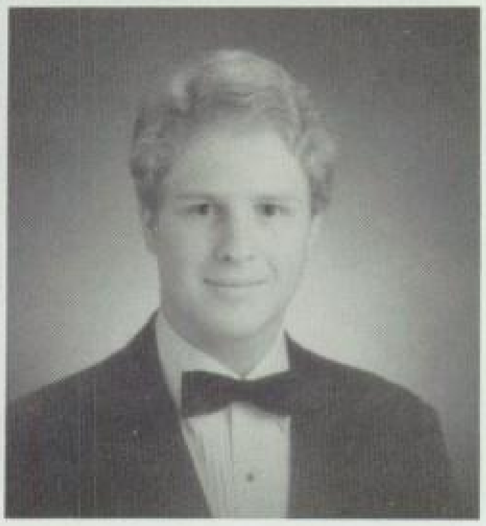


David Berbas

Shin Berenson

Shannon Bernarding — Now that graduation is here I know we'll all be glad. We will remember all the good times and laugh about the bad.

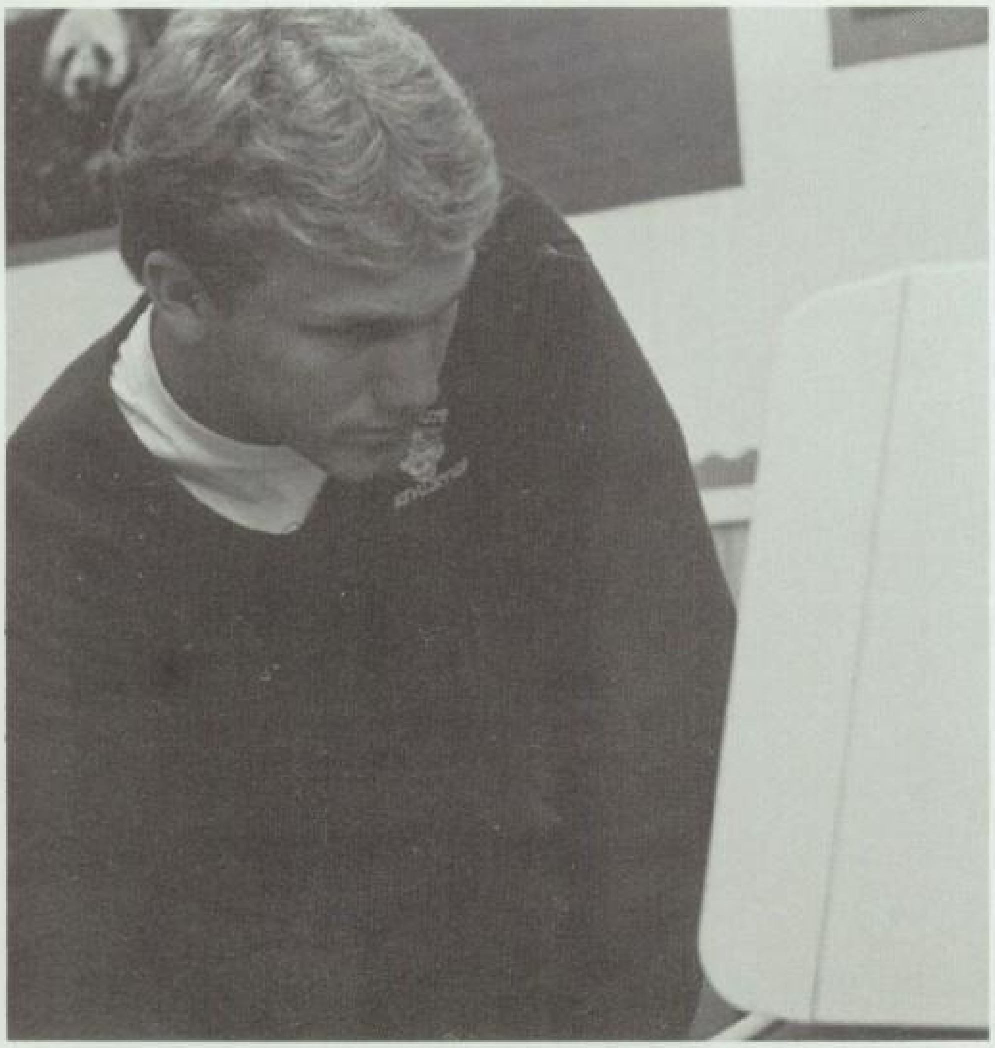




Debbie Berry

Greg Blythe

Bruce Bookman — Life is Life, Death is Death, and Love is Love. Who cares? Skaters are from Hell. I'd like to say thank you to all my friends for making this year great! To Matt B.· you're the best brother.



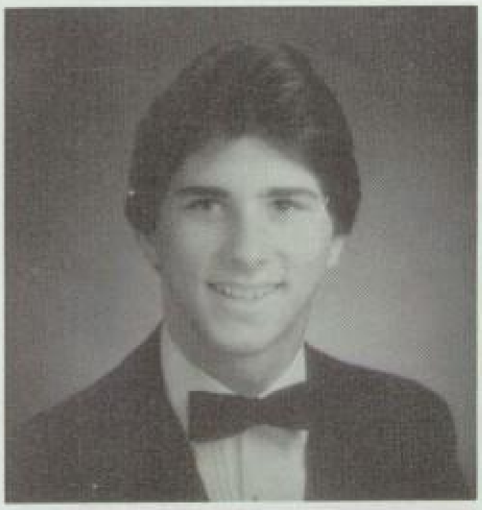
S.A.T.

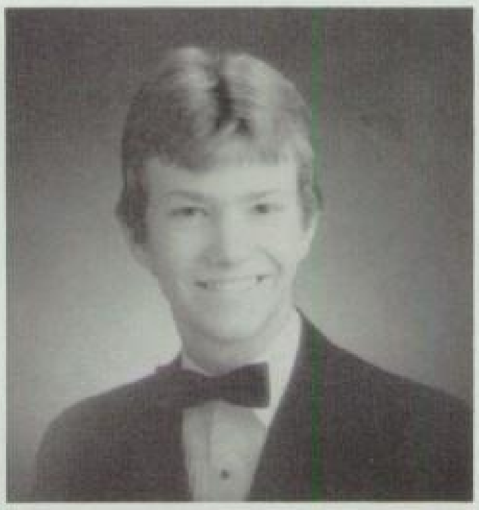
When the alarm clock rings, your first thought is "Great! No school today! It's Saturday." So you reach out and turn off the screaming alarm. You went out with the date of your dreams last night and it turned into a nightmare. So now you want to catch some Z's. Someone very rudely shakes you. You try to think of your adgectives to call them. Suddenly you hear, "The SAT ... today! In 10 minutes!" You are out of bed, in the shower, in your clothes, and in the car in 5 minutes. You enter the exam room 30 seconds late with wet hair. But you've made it. "Does everyone have a no. 2 pencil? Good! We can start now!" You stare at the object in your hand and wonder why there's no 2 written on it, until you realize it's a pen! So you get the pencil and enter the Test Zone! You answer a few, you skip a few, you guess a few, you leave a few blank, and so on. When you leave you wonder if your friend was right that Abba Cabba is scientifically proven. You have 4 weeks of dreamless nights, anticipation, worry, bed-wetting, praying, horoscopes, and panic to think about the results. When you get them, you'll realize that your worst fears have come true and you'll be able to rest more easily until the next time you enter the dangerous Test Zone!

Steven Joseph Bosco — A man is a fool if he drinks before entering High School, a fool is a man who doesn't drink once he's in. You will all do foolish things but do them with enthusiasm.

Tamra Bridge — Don't just see the sights, be the sights!

Bobby Brink

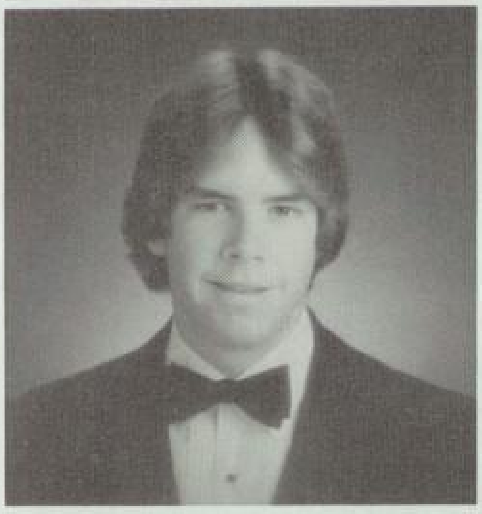




Steve Brown

Kim Bryant — I did it Randy!

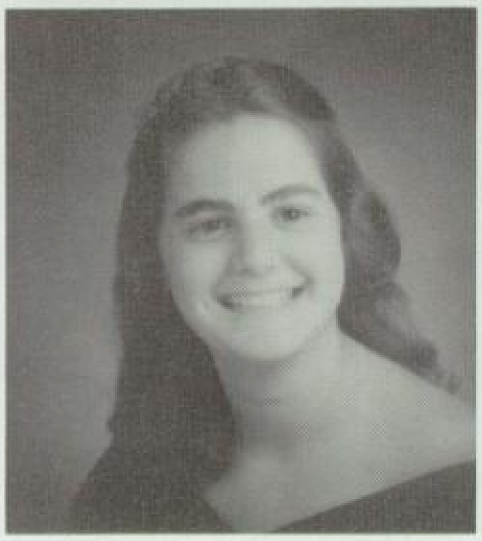
Jessica Agnes Bernadette Bushore — Thanks to all my friends and teachers. Never forget me when I'm gone, I will miss you all. Good Bye!

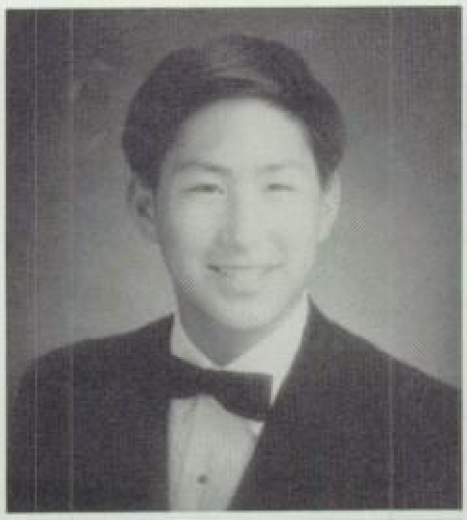


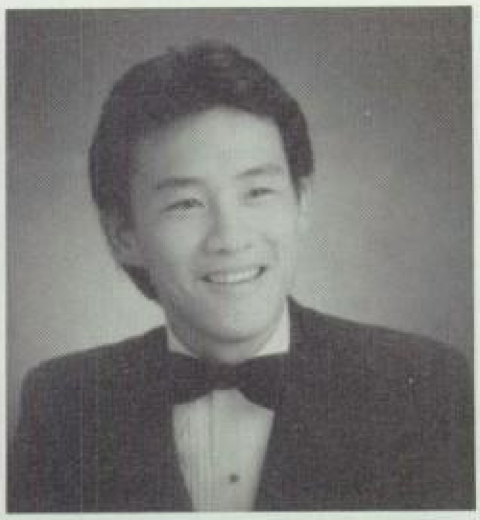
Maureen Lynnette Bushore — Thank you for all the times that you have given me, the memories are in my heart and my mind. I wouldn't trade them for anything.

Carol Callahan — Why be Normal?!? F.I.W.S.

Suzanne Yvonne Carlson — A special thanks to all my friends for making these past years at PHS so memorable. Remember JF and GC, cruising down the halls. HONK! HONK!



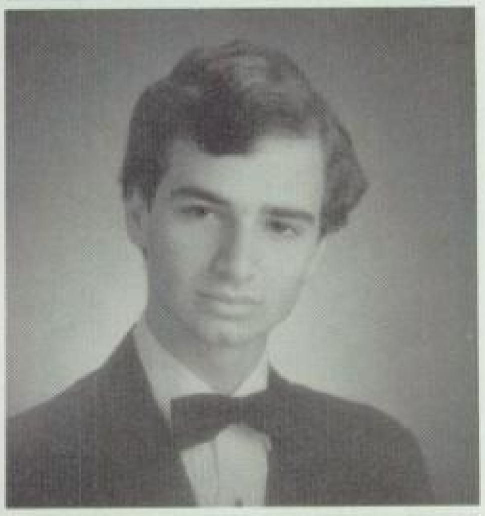




Karri L. Chamberlain — "Dereebadeeb!" To RH-"Wendy's, Wendy's, Wendy's" Miss u JM, SE, JS, NC, TS, PC, RW. To WC-"Yeah, Paprika!"-HEY GUYS! WE'VE BEEN 86ed!-

Eddie Chan — To the Gang, You're all worthless & weak! 2 the rest of U, don't park the car in the Fac Pkg Lot when U go 4 a midnite dip-wink wink! Stacey, for the last time, quit chewin those pen caps! Go Fight Win!

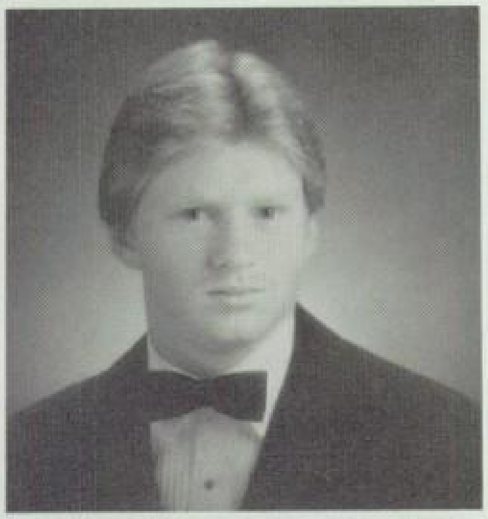
Tan Chen



Erin Chew — Hey Dude What's Up! Thanks for all the great times guys! SC, KP, CE, TP, HH, DL.

Stephanie Chew — Love ya Babes; EC, KP, CE, TP, SR, MH, and JD.

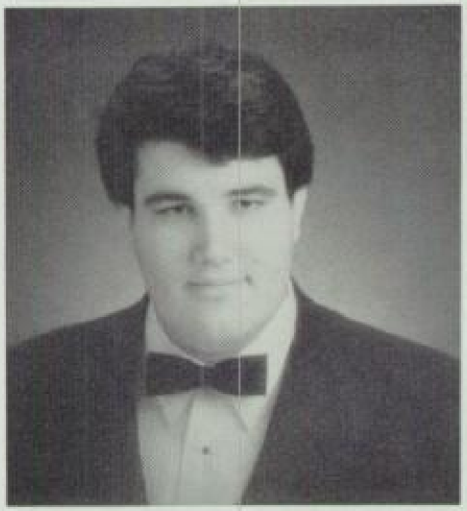
Christopher Chick — Live your life your own way; Never stop dreaming; aim to succeed.

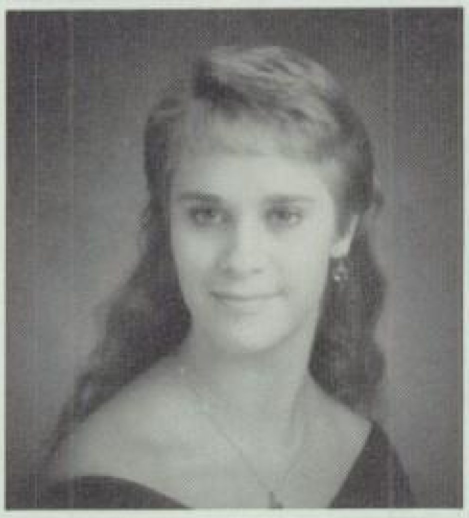


Hyun Chung

Lisa Cittadino — To all my friends, thanks for everything. Special thanks to SC, JF, and KT. We've been the best of friends. Good Luck to you all.

Joey Cizauskas — I wish that high school lasted longer because I liked it and all the friends; and I could also wrestle some more, so remember to take advantage of time.

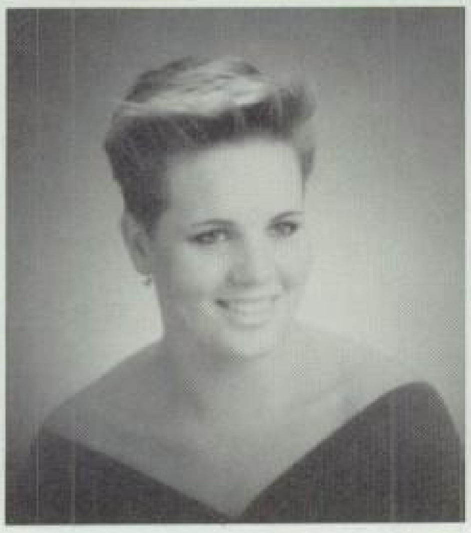


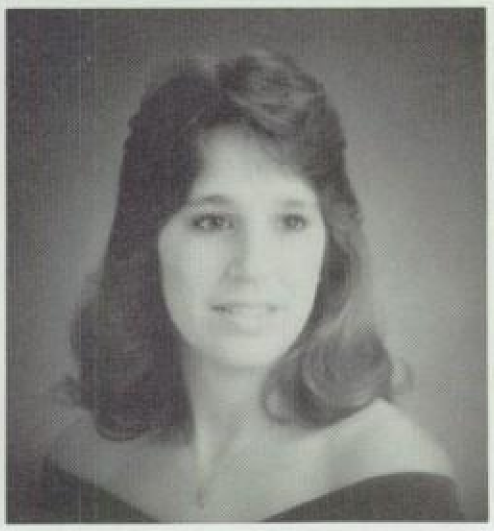


Alan Clark — Had a great time-thanks to David, Bruce, Matt (you Gurdevman), Jennifer, Laurel (you Gurdevwoman). It was great-despite Jemmy Legs(he was down on me). I still refuse to have a battle of wits with an unarmed opponent.

Gillian Margaret Clark — If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it. I want to thank all my friends for helping me out when I was "Lost in Space." I will miss you all. Love always, Penny HA HA!

Mary Rose Clupny — 'For I know the plans I have for you,' declares the Lord, 'plans for welfare and not calamity to give you a future and a hope.' Jeremiah 29:11





Laura L. Colbert — I will always cherish the years at P.H.S. "But, the real years are yet to come!"

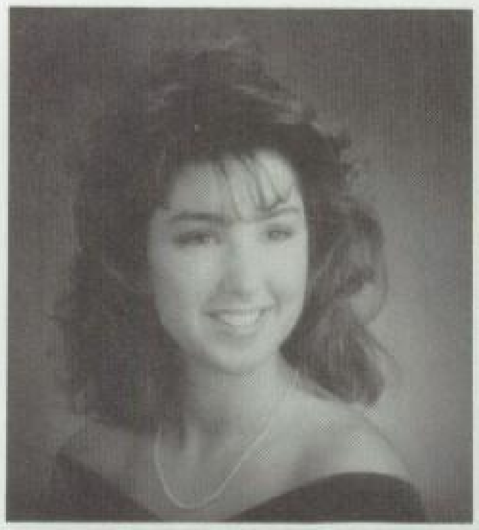
Nanda Coleman — "I'm just a crouton in the salad of life."

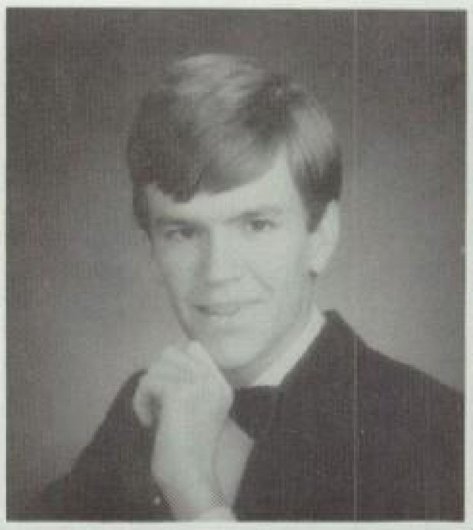
Darcy Collins

Kellie Collins

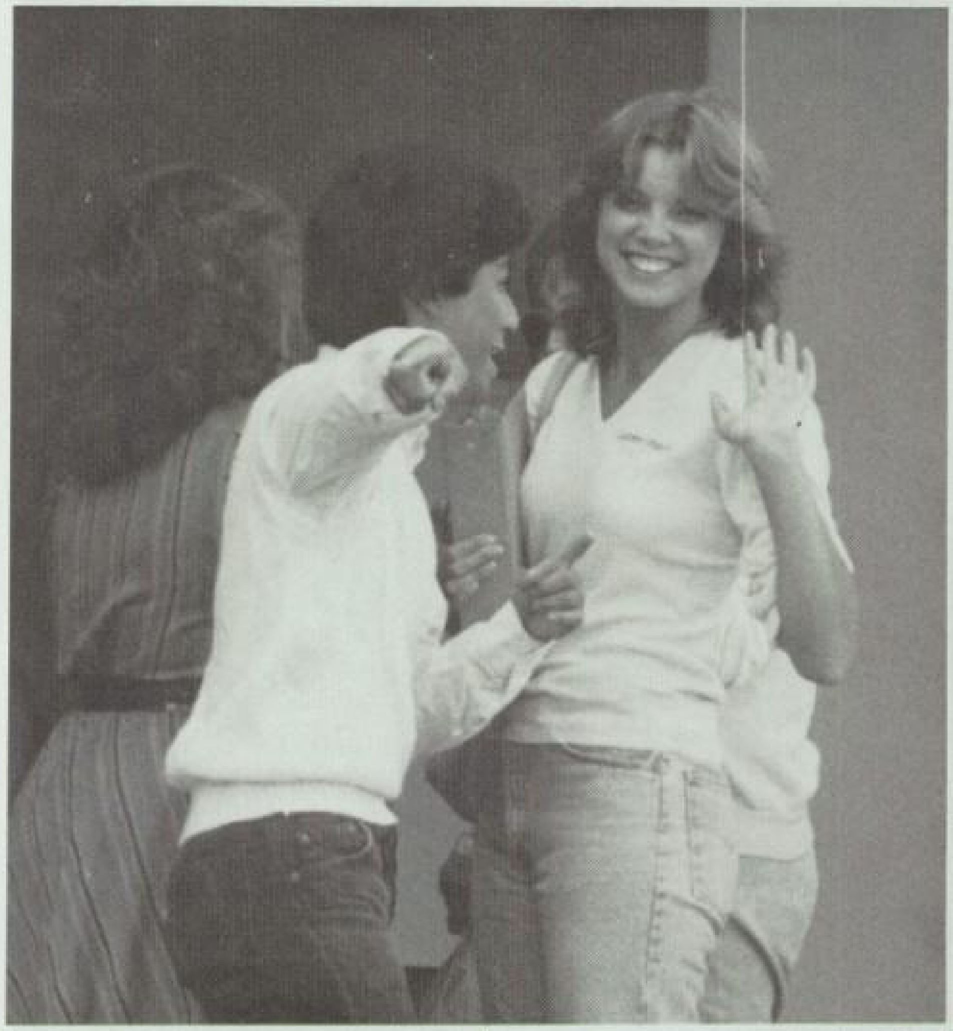
Steve Conrad

Dawn Lee Contreras — To all my friends: "For good times, for bad times, I'll be on your side forever more, that's what friends are for." Special thanks to DB for being like a big brother. Goodbye, until we meet again.





Leigh-Ann Corzine — Hey Brenda, B Fri and est ends, eh?

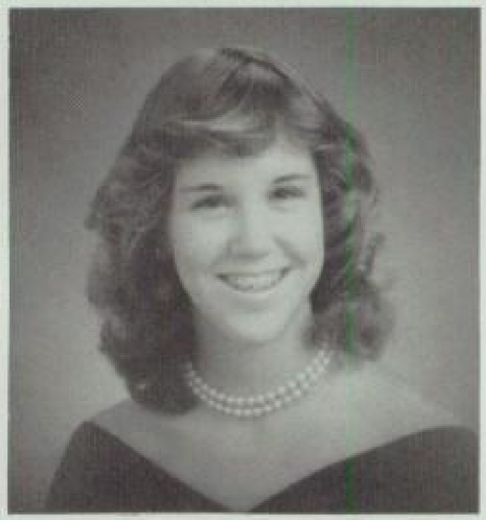


Nikki Cosgrove — CI thanx 4 always being there. NAP had any screen doors lately? CS 4ever geniuses. LC sounds live. CM I O U A rule. KB well I no . . . 2 the team it was fun while it lasted. I O U 6 alot even U PF.

Marcine Covey

Donna Crane — Kellie, you're a lifesaver 1,000 times over. I luv ya! Joan, let's hop some fences again soon, OK? Karri, let's find the guy in Taco Bell in Santa Clara! Hey Randi, how 'bout those shopping carts up S. 11th?

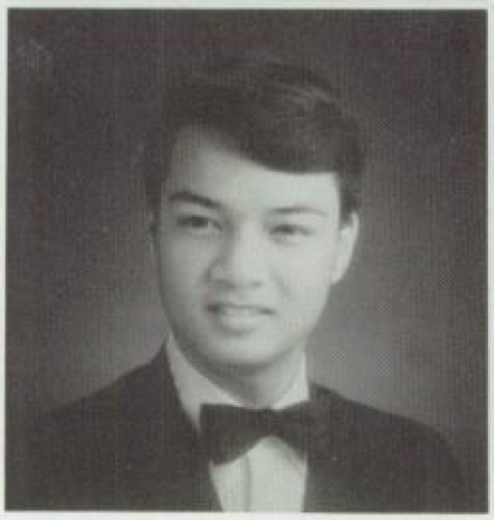
Laura Crenshaw — To the gang: I will treasure the memories you have given me always. They are dear to my heart.

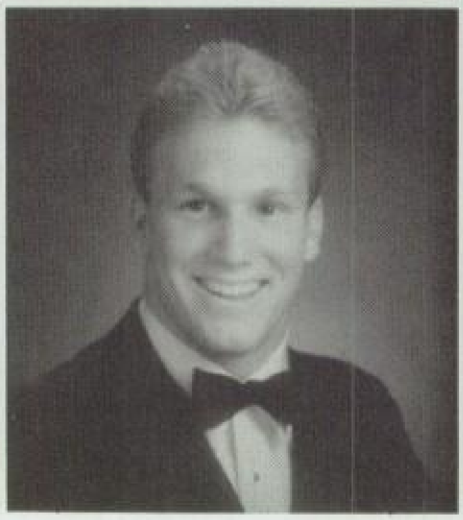


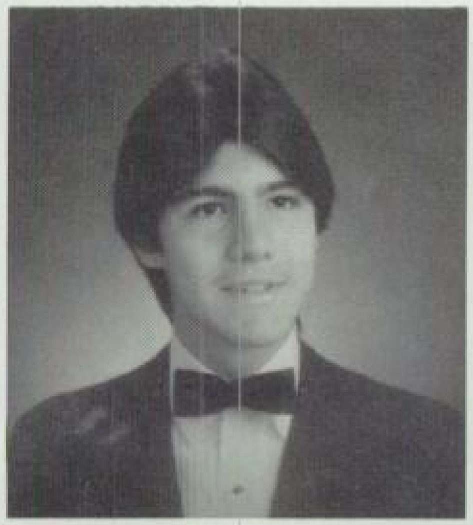
Virgilio Amadeo P. "Ili" Crespo — Four long years of boring lessons. long-long assignments, blank answer sheets, tardies all over the place; It was fun. Bye, bye, to all my friends: JM, KN, CR, ID, RH, LH, SA, SF, MR. C & MS. C.

Dean Crew

Joan Crowley — Life is a continual learning experience. Let your mistakes help you grow. Keep an open mind with a positive outlook and enjoy the life you have been given. Hey, let's play Twister Want to go to Denny's? Twinkie nuts.



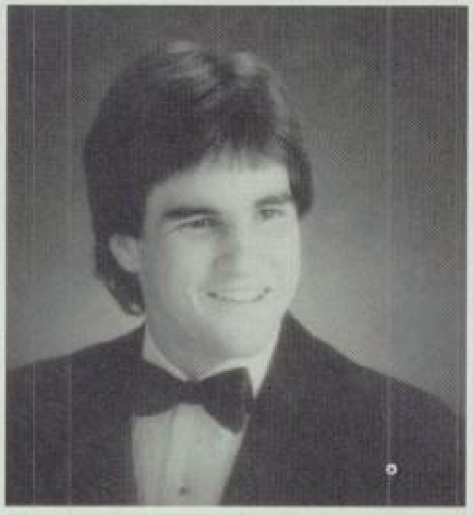




Fernando Cruz

Laurie Cuenca — Diane to protect your insides, POINT THOSE TOES! Bananas, Beaker face, How do you get keys out of a Saab? WHAT. Rita funs. Greg Poncetta Freebird. Thanks to the poem one step more James Freeman. F.I.W.S.

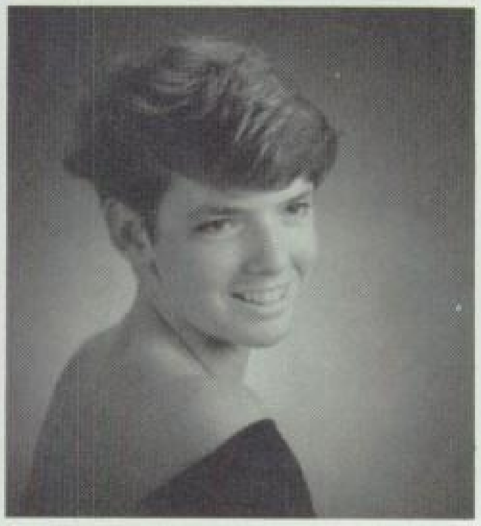
Aileen Cureton — My thanks to JL, GC, DD, jerseys, Boulder Creek, and Folger's Crystals for keeping me going!



Kim D'Attilio — "See ya later alligator?!••• . . . "In awhile crocodile!" . . . Never "Goodbye!" Thanks to all my special friends for the great memories I will cherish FOREVER! Good luck to all in the future. Look out world, Here WE come!

Gerald DeLaPiedra

Suzette DeMoss — Congratulations Class of 86! Thanx to Carol Beatie, Em, Stacey, & CJ for being such great friends. Luv you all! To all the rest of my friends — GOOD LUCK! CAROL, WE MADE IT!!



Dana DeSarno — Everything's legal until you get caught!!!!

Colleen Devlin

Elizabeth Ann Dial — Don't ever give up your dreams . . . and never leave them behind. Find them, make them yours, and through your life, cherish them, and never let them go. ·Elisa Costanza Thanks for everything Robin, Kim, and Chris.

Cram!

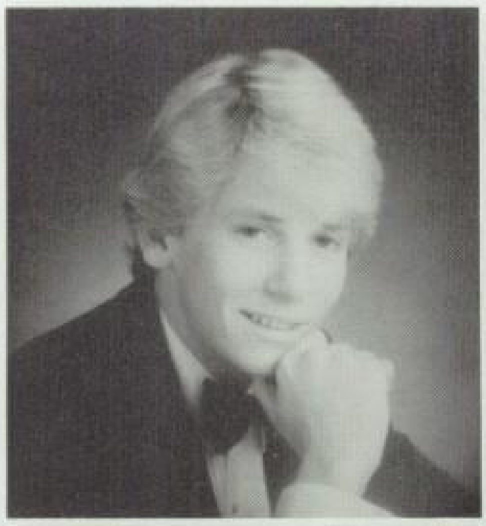
It's 1:45 AM. You have seventeen more chapters to review for that killer final in English tomorrow. You haven't got a prayer! But luckily, you have the secret of studying; that amazing method used by almost all students to pass large tests. You know how to CRAM! You begin the cram session alright, but by 1 AM, you are flipping pages wildly, picking up an average of five words per page. You glance at notes that mean nothing to you and toss them over your shoulder. You are determined to learn a year of English in six hours. You read more and more quickly. Soon you are just skimming the first sentence of each section. After a while, you decide: "I bet this would go faster if I had something to eat!" You retreat to the kitchen for some cold pizza and some coke. You return about an hour later. (You just had to watch the end of that old movie; it's a classic!) You sit down and get back to "work". By 3:15, you finish the English book. You feel you know the information pretty well, although you are still a bit fuzzy on all that verb stuff. You figure it couldn't be too important. The next day, you sit confidently in English waiting for the final to be passed out. The teacher then informs the class that the final will be an essay on a book the class just finished (one you didn't read!), with an emphasis on what role the verb played in it. You put your head down, beaten. "OK, times up! Pens down!" you hear the teacher say. You stare down at the blank piece of paper in front of you as you wipe the sleep from your eyes. Thank goodness you stayed up all night to cram!

Instant Coffee

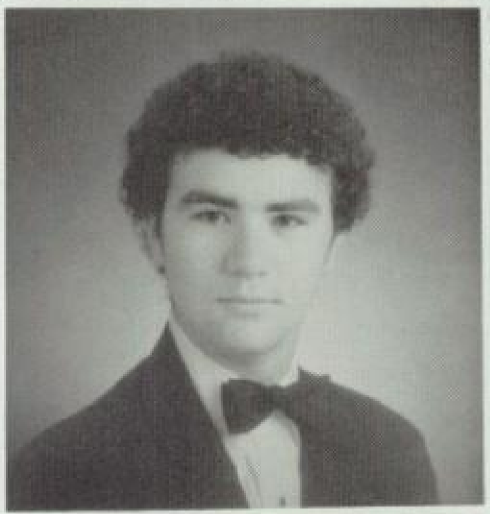
Mike Dinsmore

Robbin Doner — "Thanx to my friends, Kathy, Tuana, Andy, Mike, and esp. Robby. Thanx for always being there, you gave me a lot of great memories and I'll never forget them." "P.S. I LUV U ROB."

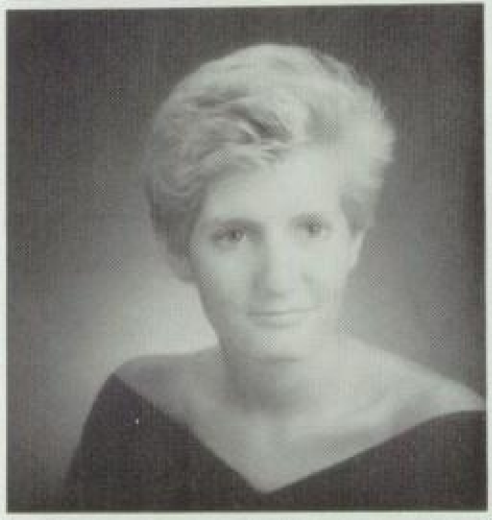
Lydia Doong — This paper may crumple, the ink may fade, but the memories of you will still be on this page! Thanks for everything gang, but I'm glad it's over!! NAL, ET, RM, DE, MR, M&M, SE, BB, LH, DR.



Lucano Dorkin



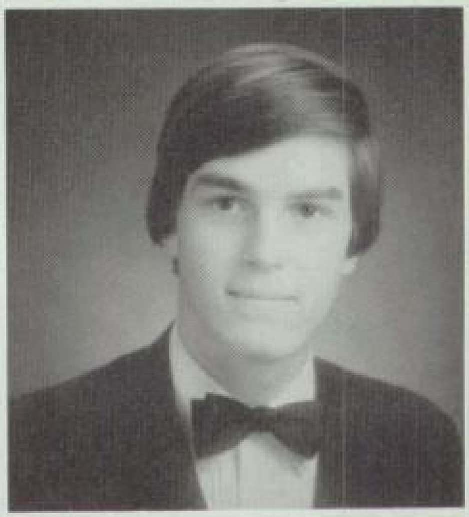
Christine Dow

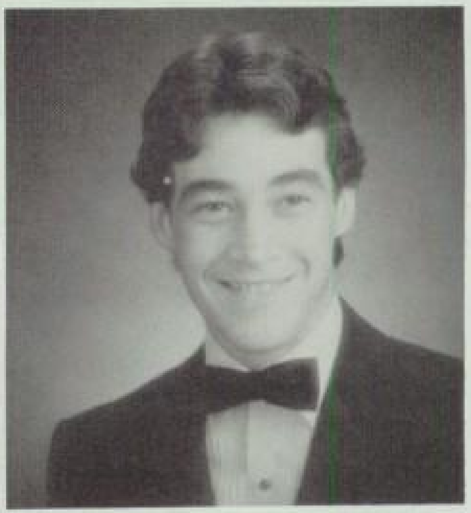


Diane Dowling — When you ask God for a gift, be thankful if He sends not diamonds, pearls, or riches, but the love of real true friends. Dear Cuenca: What are ribs for?? To my dearest buddies remember — F.I.W.S.!!!

David John Easter — HS is over? Holy Cabooses! Thanks to all my friends for the fun times. ETILY. Hope you all survived the punishment (wink-wink, nudge-nudge, know what I mean, know what I mean?) C-YA! and that's the way it was. . .

Brad Eddlemon

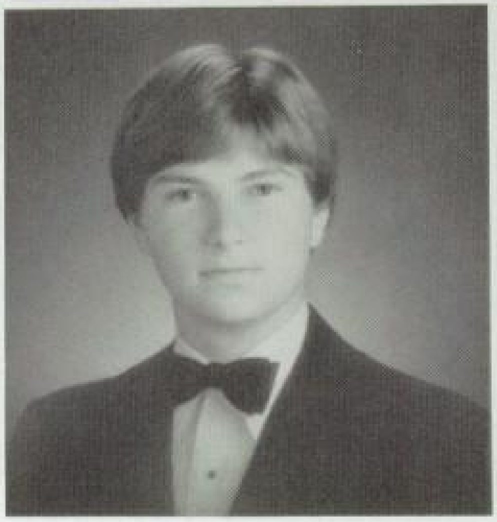


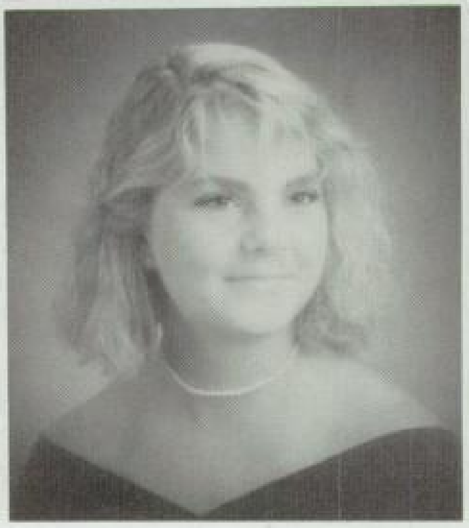


Scott Eden — Never let the present be overwhelmed by the future. Draw strength from the past.

Sheryl Ehrman — Life's problems are but snowflakes, you can either labor with a shovel or put on some skis. Thanks to all who helped me find my skis before all my hair fell out. Best of luck and I'll see ya!

Cynthia Evans — Hey Babe! What's up! I love you all! Thanks for all the wonderful memories!





Prom

Some schools call it a ball. Others call it a Prom, short for promenade. The most talked about, planned, formal dance of the year. For some girls, the planning that goes into the Prom is almost as laborious and detailed as a wedding. For the guys, it's almost as nerve-racking.

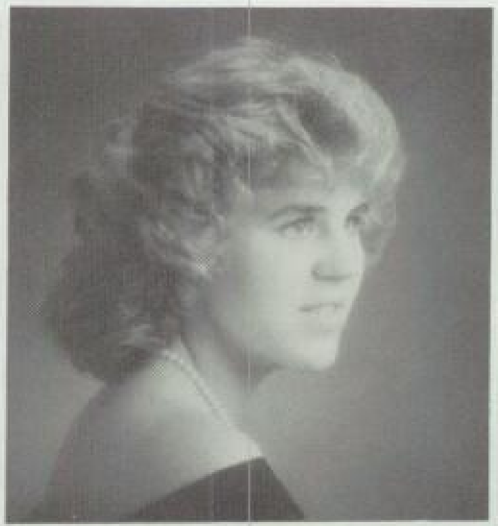
The money that goes into this special event of Prospect's is incredible. Twenty-five dollars for a bid (per couple). Then the clothing, hair and makeup (for girls) has to be paid for. Some young ladies are lucky enough to be able to get to the Jessica McClintosh outlet (otherwise known as Gunne Sax) in San Francisco to find $200 dollar dresses for $50. But most are stuck paying on the average anywhere from $75 to $195 for the evening gown. Then there are the perfect color matching stockings, matching shoes, gloves, jewelry, etc., to add to the cost. Luckily the date pays for the rest of the evening (in most cases).

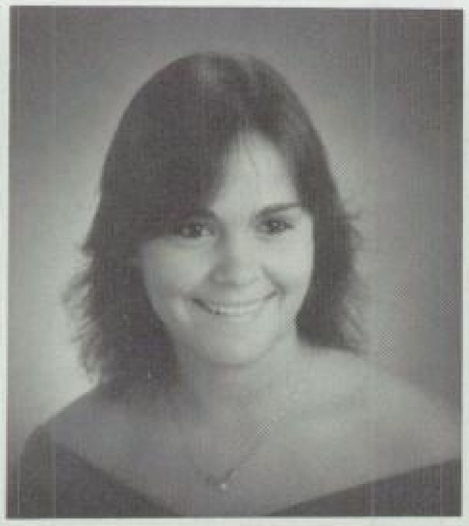
Dinner usually comes to $35 a head. The transportation is another matter. If you want to go in style, 1950 Rolls Royces are available for rent at $75 dollars per hour (minimum of two hours). However, Mom and Daddy's car is always available for some luxury instead of your 1968 VW.

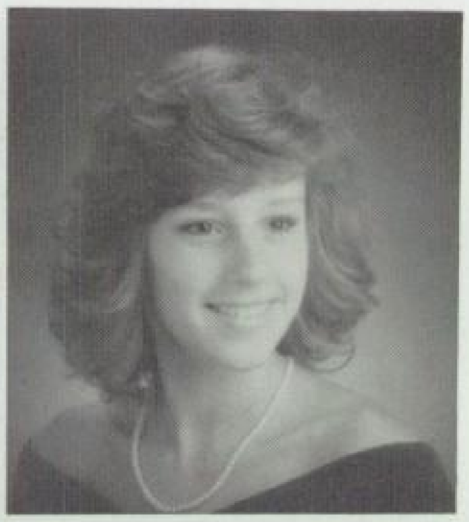
The young men probably have gone through the measuring process in order to get a tuxedo that doesn't look three sizes too big or small. The couple usually decide what color tux he should get to match her dress so they look great together in the pictures ($30-$50).

After the dancing and mingling are over, the fun begins. The one night a year your parents let you stay out late enough to have breakfast, the next morning.

Whether it's cruising up to San Francisco to take a horse and carriage ride or to Santa Cruz to party next to a bon fire on the beach, it's always a memorable evening. Interesting how the funnest parts of the approximately twelve hours you spend with your date and/or friends are times when you don't have to spend money.



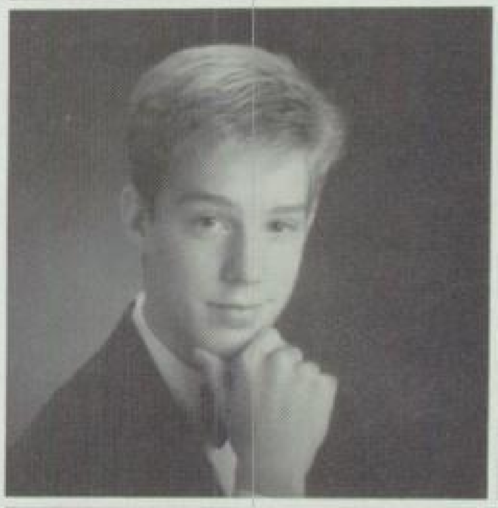


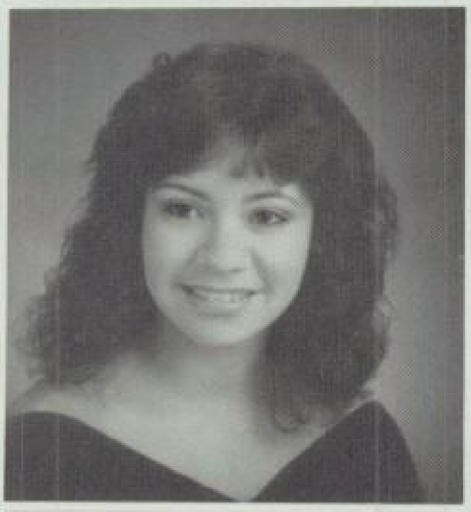


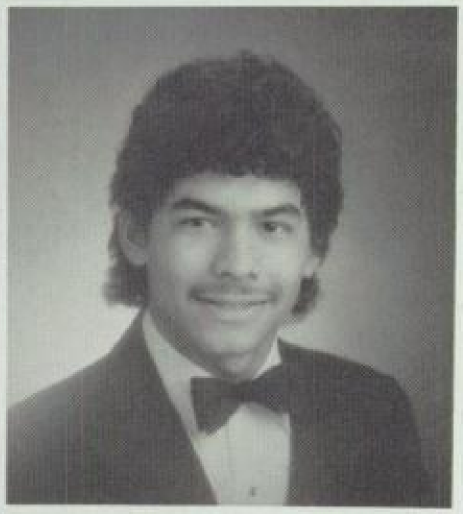
Regina Evans — As man is God once was. As God is man may become.

Becky Feathers — SENIORS "86"

Kelly Fernandes



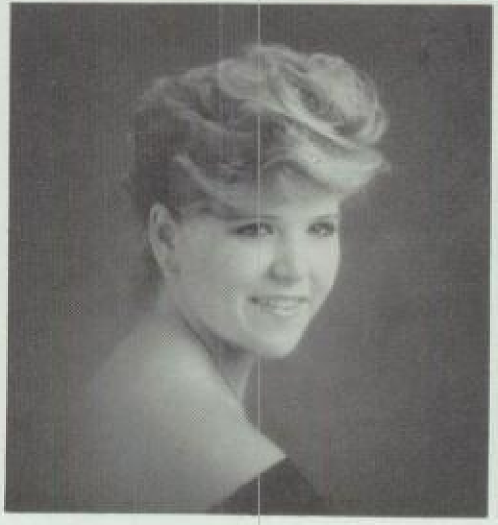


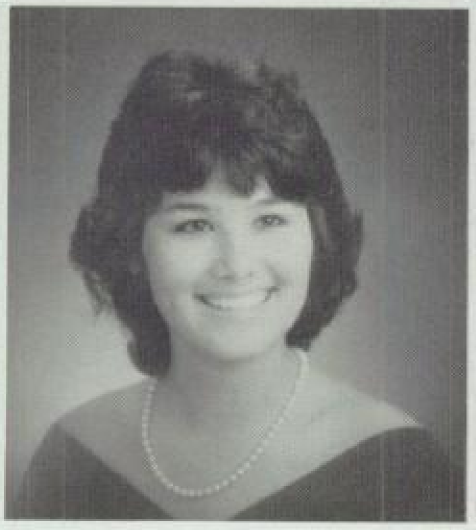


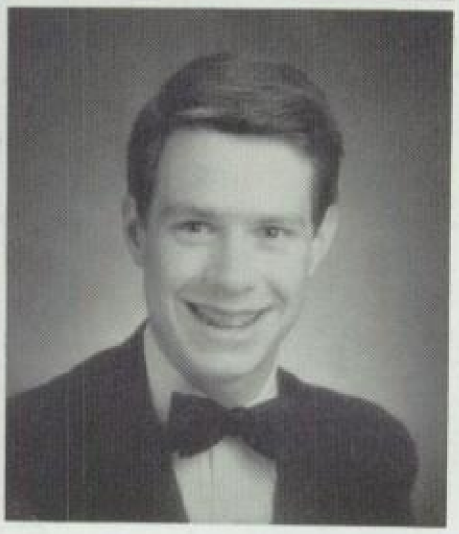
John Finlay — . . . and you carry that . . . that . . . guitar! Dude! Woodleaf was rad. Don't fret — all is well! Get a life, swimmers! Go Fight Win! Thanks for being with me for the past 4 years. I love you. Your bro in Christ, J.F.

Francis Ann (Mimi) Flores — To all my friends that made my years here special, thanks for all the good times we shared. I LOVE YOU ALL.

Pete Flores — To my friends JP and ES and SN thanks for all the partying times. MK "Mang" the "Ange" for being a good Joseph E!! SF the "Joot" for all the good times in class. It's been a good 4 years and I wish everyone luck in the future.







Lisa Florio

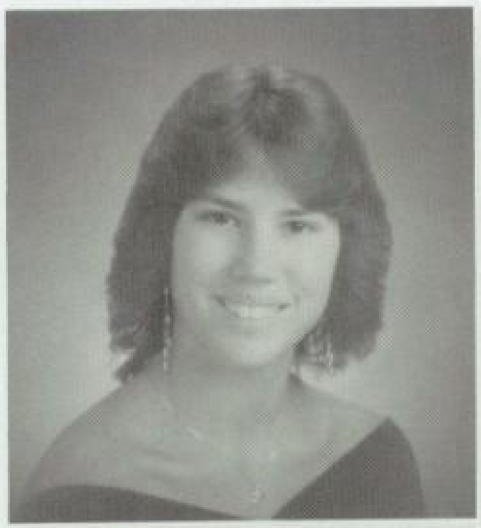
Olivia Fojas — It takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow.

Andrew Forristel — Oh boys. Looky what we got here. Go-Fight-Win! Thanks JF, EC, TT, MV, JC, JW, SW, MM, and CM for making my high school years so much fun. "Hey, Jesus is my joy, may you find that joy also." B.K.

Brenda Fortin — Hey Leigh-Ann, Be . . . Fri . . . St . . Ends!! Hey Matt; These three years have been great. I hope our future is even better. I love you!!!

Sean Frame — I only have one regret, and she knows who she is. Come prepared, or don't come at all.

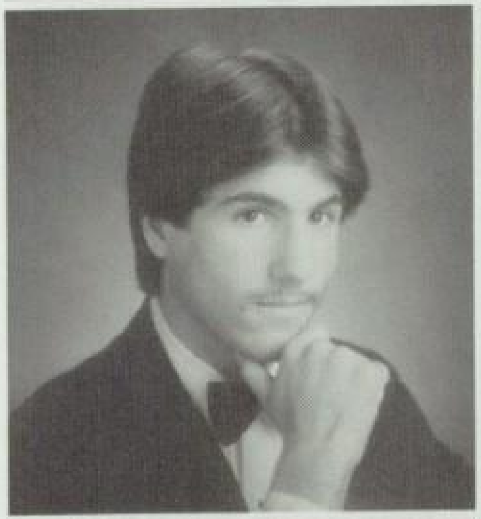
Jann Marie Fratis — Thanks to my good friends who made my years at PHS great. Hey S.C., HONK HONK!?!

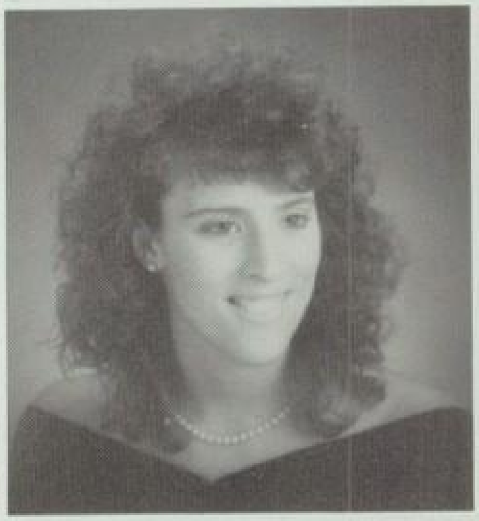


John Freitas

Aimee Frizzell — My happy and talkative personality

Judy Garcia

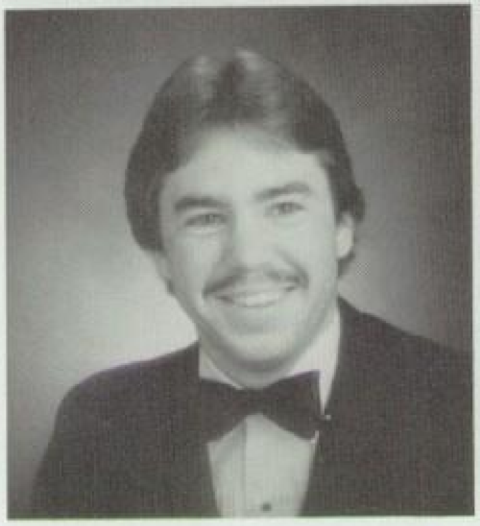


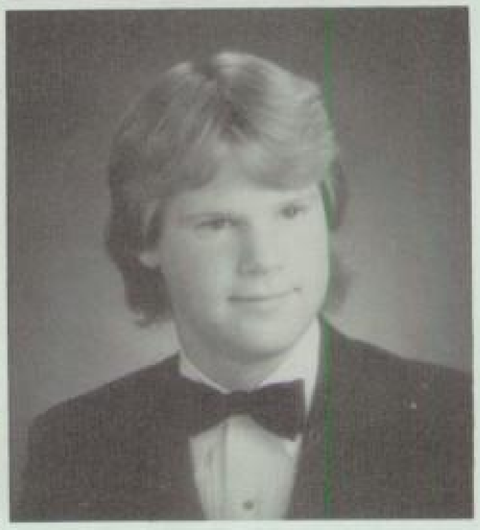


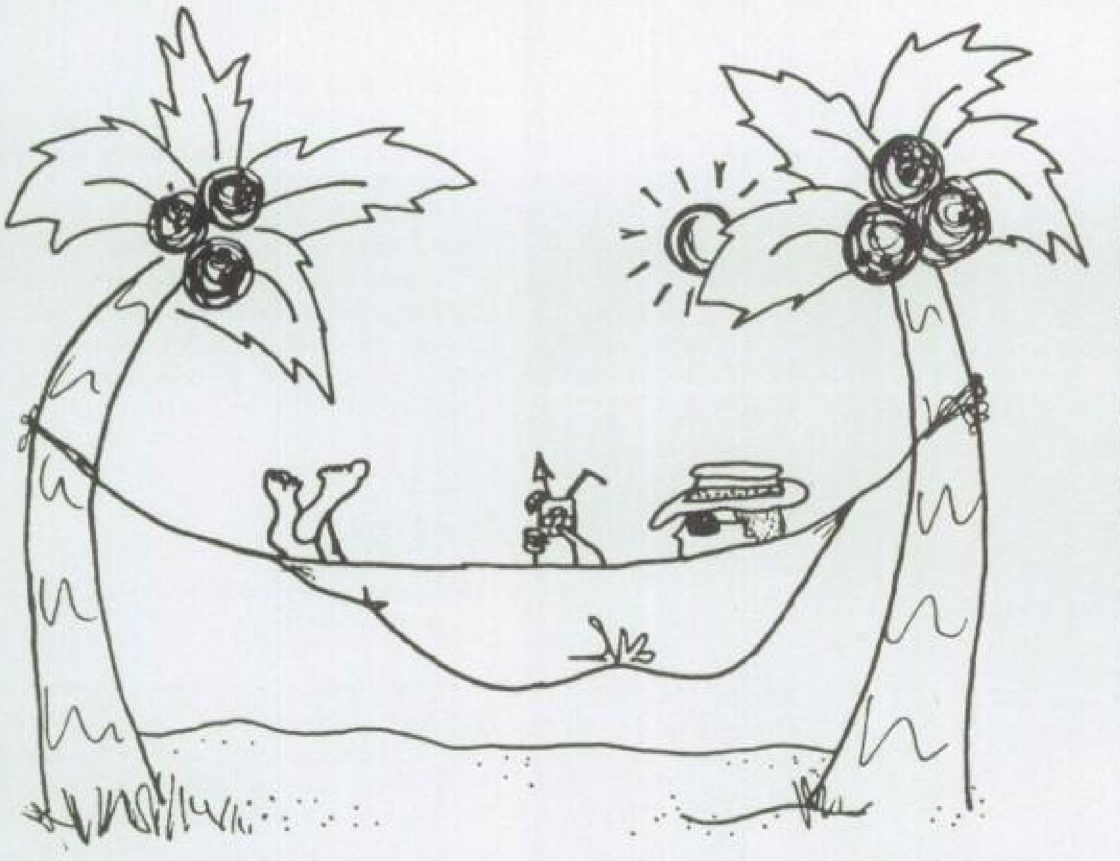
Richard Garcia

Deborah Marie Garner — For with God nothing shall be impossible. KL, SH, SP, MC, JH, DG, God be with you. Barney Rubble your just too cool! Hey, after all . . . We were Born to be Wild!

Rick Gierke



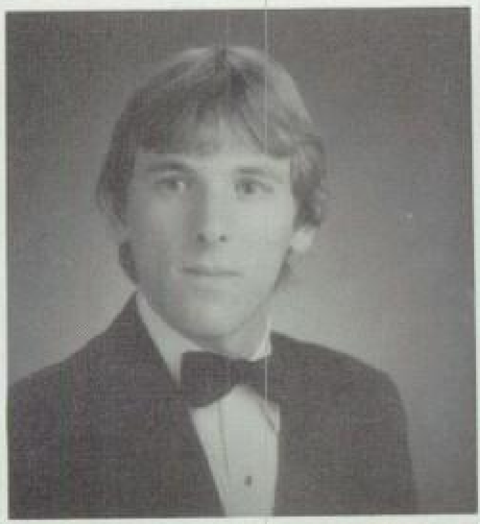




Senioritis

Seniors were the class with THE BIG DECISION. One of the most difficult in their lives. Shall we attack our studies with youthful vim and vigour, in an attempt to better ourselves? Or should we just go to the beach?

It was a tough choice. It was a different choice for everyone. The conflict is still fresh in my mind. "School is important. I don't know. Fun is important too. It's plenty of fun to sit in the sun, see the magnificent Pacific, all the while thinking about your friends, and having fun with them at school, and that chemistry test you're missing, and having to take it tomorrow, and convincing your mother later to give you a note because you'll never do it again." Yes, I still remember that debate. I came to question whether or not going to the beach was worth all that trouble. And then, I saw the whole situation in an all new light. I made my decision easily. Best tan I ever got, too.



Ethan Gilbert

Maria Giourousis — Thanks to all my friends at Prospect for making the past four years a blast!! To: S.G., J.H., M.P., C.D., R.V. & T.L. I love it, I love it. Good Luck to the future Senior classes at Prospect.

Tina Marlette Goodrich — "Love doesn't make the world go around, it just makes the ride worthwhile." "Handsome, I'm Forever Yours," "You'll be Forever, in my heart."

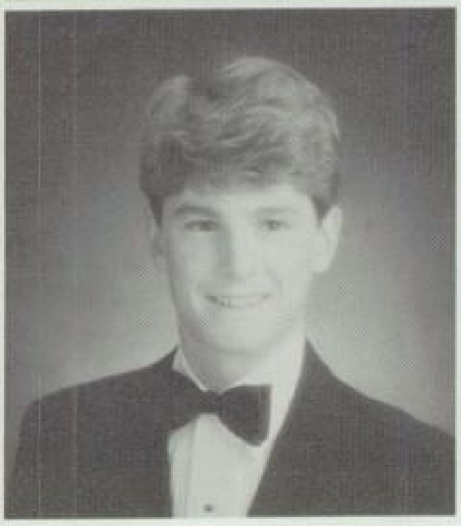
Andrew James Gow — You have the night to remain silent. Ghan jacessper uvianse xind icask unk. Watch out U.O.P., here I come. For I wish never to experience the day you'd say Goodbye.

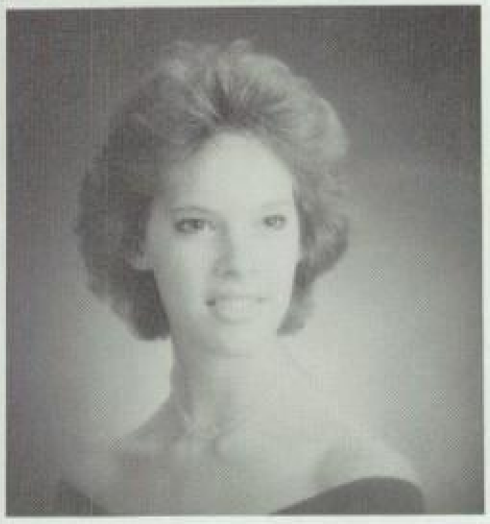
Lynnette Grant — For some of the best times to remember. Green bug, Don't move the bed, Santa Cruz, noodle, Palm Springs, CAL BUGS, Cruzing, GET IT ON, DONUTS, TRACK, BUCK, NEW YEAR'S EVE 85'. D.T., J.P., H.H., B.W., L.O., K.T.

Sharon Greer — As Martin Luther King Jr. once said, "We shall overcome." And that we did! To the class of 1986 and to M.G. (Morie), C.D., C.K., M.P. (Little Bachlaua), Don't forget me R.R. and B.A.!

Stephanie Grenier

Linda Maiphuonien Ha — "So many adventures couldn't happen today, So many songs we forgot to play, So many dreams swinging out of the blue, We'll let them come true" — Alpha Ville —





Christy Hallmark — ". . . and PRETENDERS pretend . . ."

Mike Paul Hansen — Bye! Greenones!

Carla Harden — Thanx to all my friends who made my last year my best! — Love, Frosty.

Senior Quiz

How Do You Rate As A Hipster?

Here's a little quiz to determine how you rate as a real senior. At the end there's a scale and point system for the quiz. Have fun!!

1. Have you successfully maintained a:
   a.) "A" average?
   b.) "B" average?
   c.) "F" average?
   d.) I didn't notice?
2. In the past year have you cut the equivalent of: a.) one school day?
   b.) one school week?
   c.) one school month?
   d.) one school year?

FOR THE GALS:

3. In the past year have you:
   a.) succumbed to the fashions of modern day high school?
   b.) worn stirrup pants and a big shirt together?
   c.) not noticed what you have worn?
   d.) not cared what you have worn?

FOR THE GUYS:

4. In the past year have you:
   a.) worn your 501's rolled up?
   b.) succumbed to anything having to do with Miami Vice?
   c.) worn a letterman jacket?
   d.) worn your shoes unlaced in the likeness of combat boots?

How do you rate as a real hipster?

5. Do you party:
   a.) every weekend and no school nights?
   b.) once a month?
   c.) once in a while (to you that means every weekend and some school nights)?
   d.) once a year at your parents' cocktail party?
6. Is your radio dial tuned into:
   a.) those mellow rock sounds (KEZR)?
   b.) those progressive tunes of college stations (KSCU)?
   c.) those oldies but goodies of the 60's and 70's (KHTT)?
   d.) elevator music (KBAY)?
7. How many times a year do you get out of the valley?
   a.) whenever possible.
   b.) couple times a month.
   c.) I didn't notice.
   d.) only when bodily forced.
8. Clothes should be:
   a.) carefully taken care of and worn with reverence.
   b.) worn once and to be discarded to make a textured carpet for your room c.) washed only when the last pair of underwear has been worn twice.
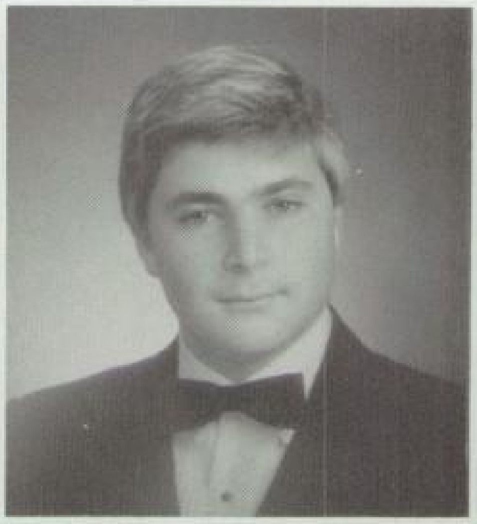
   d.) taken lightly.
9. You:
   a.) plan to make it to the top of the corporate ladder (YUP, YUP).
   b.) plan to live fast, die young, and have a good-looking corpse.
   c.) plan to live moderately and "experience" life.
   d.) will marry rich.
   e.) probably won't notice how your life goes.

Add up your score accordingly:
1. a) 1 b) 2 c) 3 d) 4
2. a) 1 b) 2 c) 4 d) 3
3. a) 2 b) 1 c) 3 d) 4
4. a) 2 b) 1 c) 4 d) 3
5. a) 3 b) 4 c) 2 d) 1
6. a) 2 b) 4 c) 3 d) 1
7. a) 4 b) 3 c) 2 d) 1
8. a) 2 b) 4 c) 1 d) 3
9. a) 1 b) 0 c) 2 d) 4 e) 3

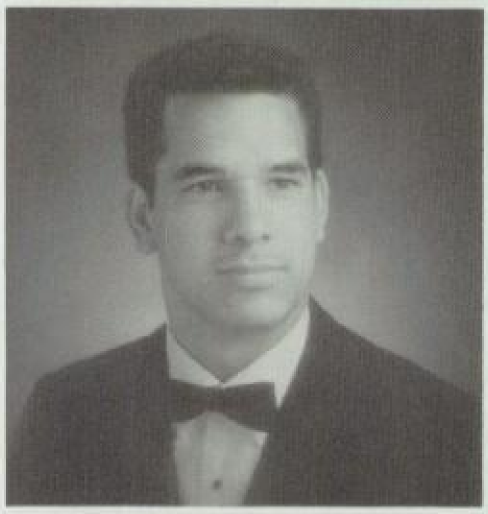
30-36: You're a rad hipster and you probably definitely have senioritis.
20-29: Though you're not quite a hip hop groovy senior, you rate pretty high up there.
10-19: You need lessons.
0- 9: Give it up.

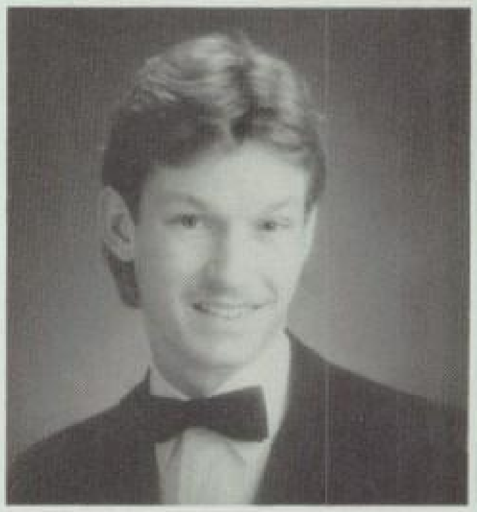


Michelle Harrell

Ted "Shred" Harrington — To all my friends and the class of 86'-thanks for all the memories and good times. PS: Go team MASTER-CRAFT here I come.

Melissa Hastings — Never kick a dog when he's down, for he may bite your head off when he gets back up again!

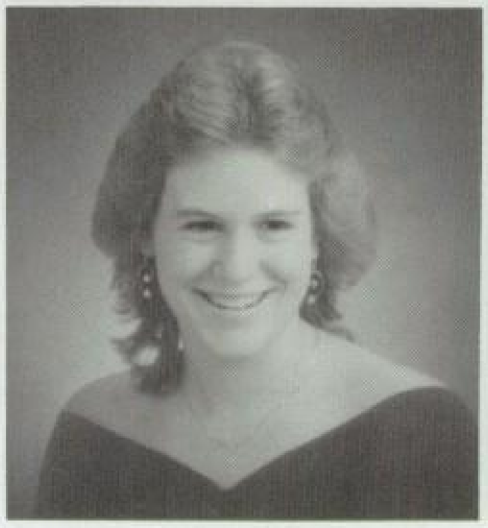


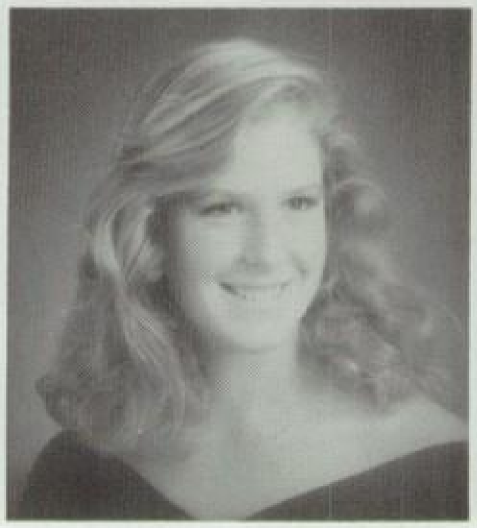


Perri Hatch — Sometimes in life, you just have to say what the . . . GO! FIGHT! WIN!!

Jeff Hau

Rosalie Ann Heckert — Club yourself, Jode; she's a 20th Century fox. Jen-"I can't believe you got it all figured out." Karri-She's fashionably late . . . don't think about headaches & nightmares. Gionk. Kid-crouton-Nanda-don't wear orange-60's.

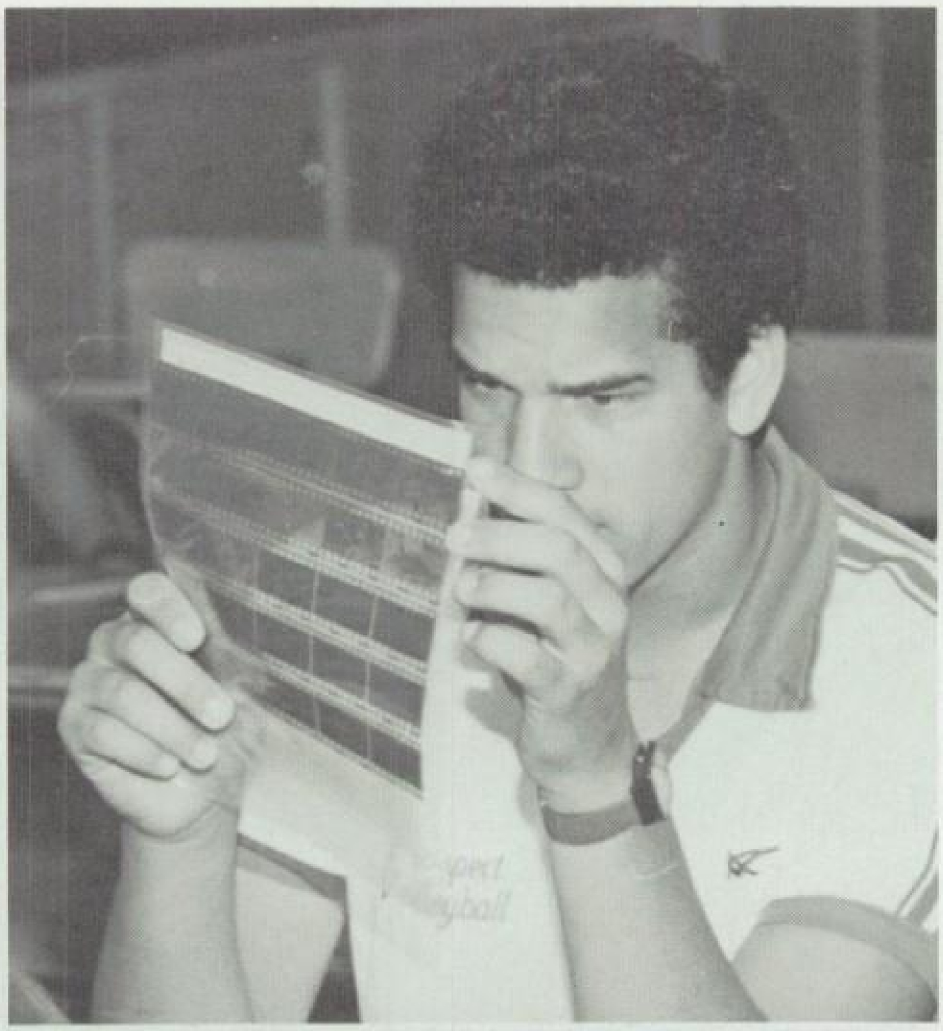


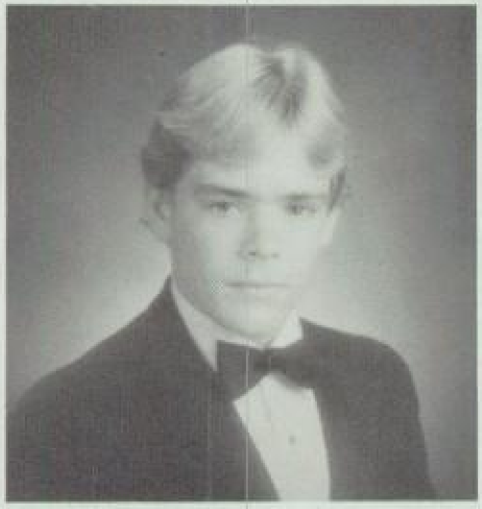


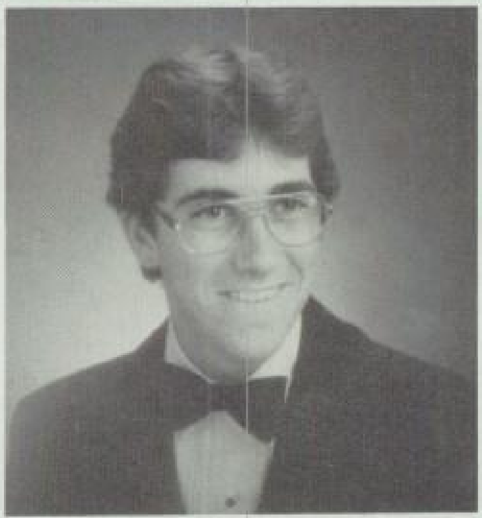
Cindy Herriges — Good luck Mike, Jon and Sharon. Keep in Touch! "Can't you hear 'em out there? — Boink, Boink!"

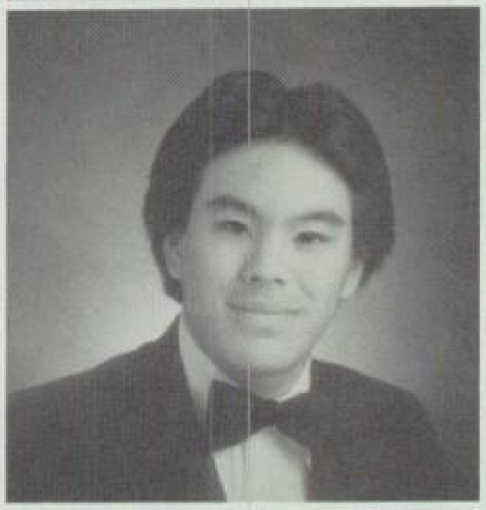
Shannon Hickey — "LIFE IS JUST A CHAIR OF BOWLIES"

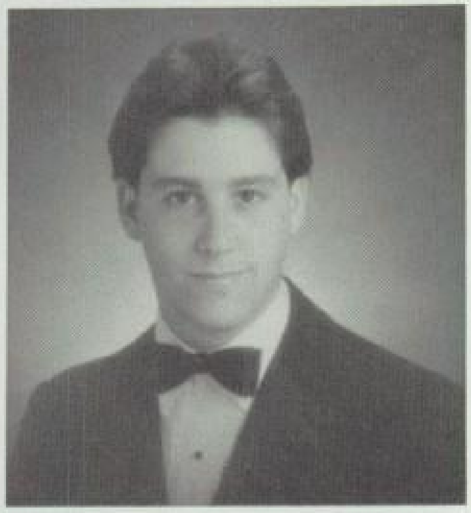
Sandra Hines — To my best friends K.L., S.P. & D.G. A toast to success, no books, no tests, 7 day weekends and the comfort that our friendship is everlasting. After all we were Born to be Wild!

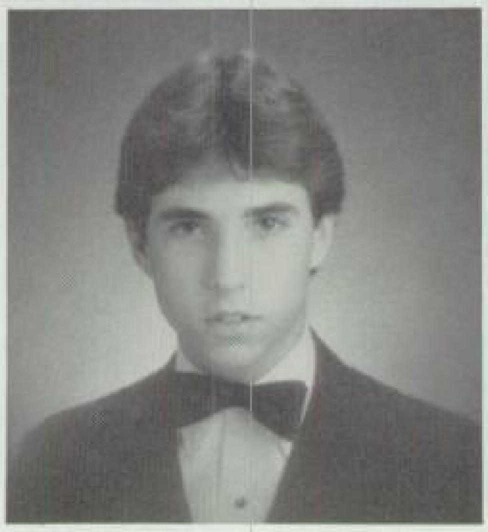


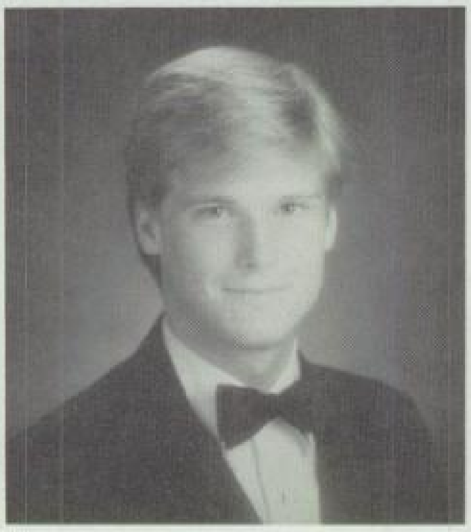


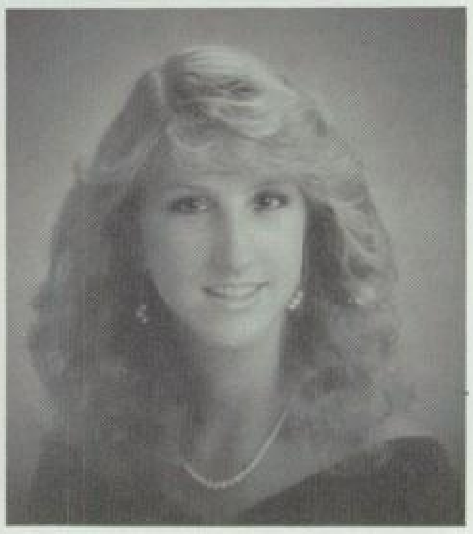












Holly Holderby — I wish the best to all my friends in the future. Thanks for all the good times!!!

Paul Houston

Gary Hulsenberg

Julie Hunt — Music is the song of the heart! Love life and sing! Thanks for the great memories! S.H. Let's get Mula and go swimming! J. N. Let's play Mexicali!

Barbie Hyer — Leaving my sweet disposition and to all my friends a life of happiness.

Trevor Iida

Catherine Ippoliti

Will Johansen — Let's Party, J.P.! To Co-ed of P.H.S.: Stay beautiful! To student body: You talk too much! Good Luck Boys Soccer! Late, Dee!

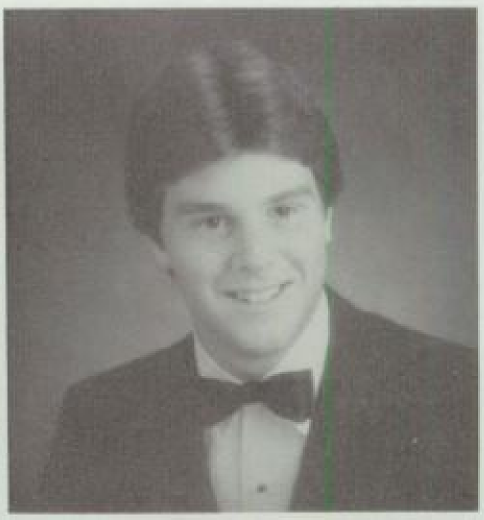
Andy Johnson

Joel Matthew Johnson — You can please some of the people some of the time, and most of the people most of the time, but you can't please all the people all the time. Somebody's gotta eat it!

Julie Johnson — Hey Deb are we having fun yet? You were the one following me-Menudo Rebellion-Mod Quad-Sleeping on the window-sill-Psycho and Dreg, the memories will live forever-Lox I hope you liked the U.S.

Mike Johnson — Just remember, no matter where you are, that's where you are!

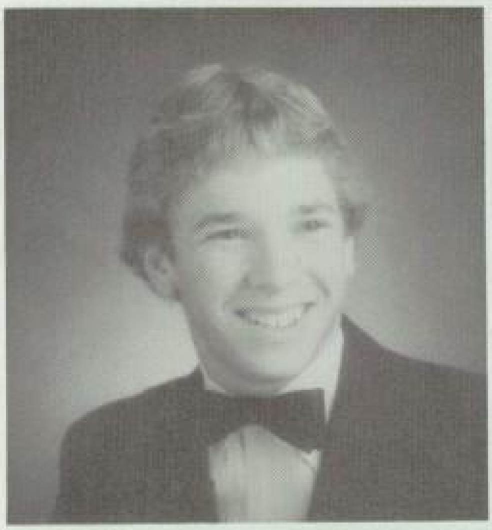
Pam Johnson — What lies behind us, and what lies ahead of us, are but tiny matters compared to what lies within us. Thanks to my buddy and my friends for always being there for me.

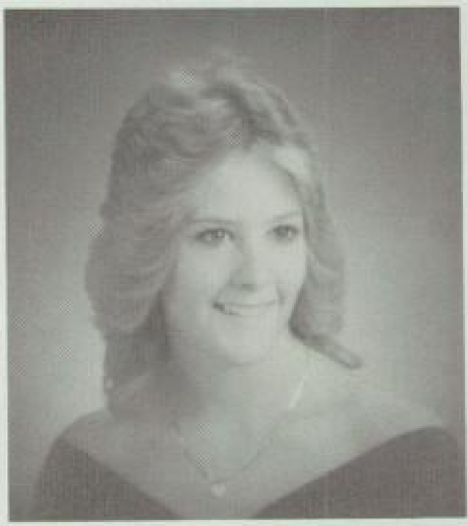


David Kaplan — To the senior wrestlers: yeah! No more sucking weight!!

Jennifer Kee — Mom, Dad, scared ya huh! Best of luck to my friends and all my love to Layne. Remember, it's what we learn after we think we know it all that counts!

Kelly Kennedy — I'm glad it's finally over. I'll miss you all. Thanks for all the good times-Look Dad I made it!!

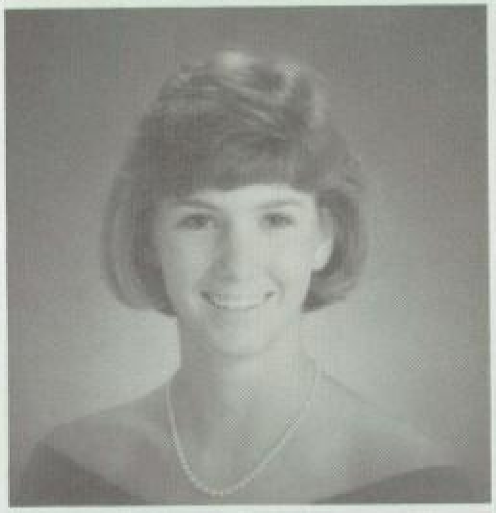


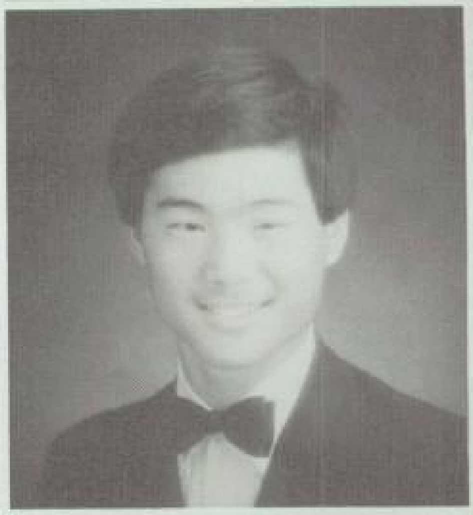


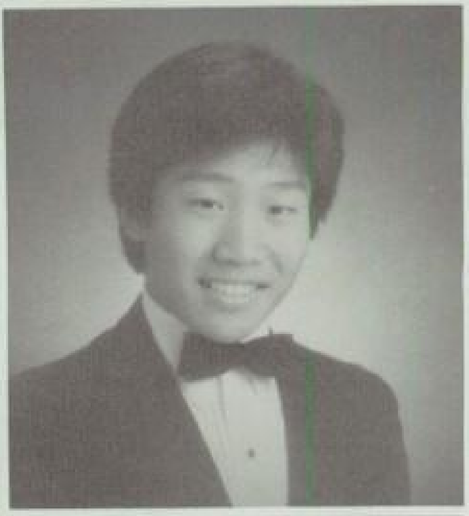
Shana Lynne Kenyon — I'd send you the world if dreams could come true, for a friend takes it all and returns it to you-Hi buddy!-Ho-Ho's-J.M. No more deadlines! Thanks Mom and Dad, love ya lots! To the gang- thanks for the memories!

Chris Kim

Mike Kim — (Little Mike)-Brian, take a picture of that moosehead! Hey "Headbuts"-(B.Y., J.D., G.B., M.O., B.W., M.K., C.W., J.S.) Take care and best wishes in the future. Hey gang, let's go to M.K.'s house! How about the park? Right Mike?!



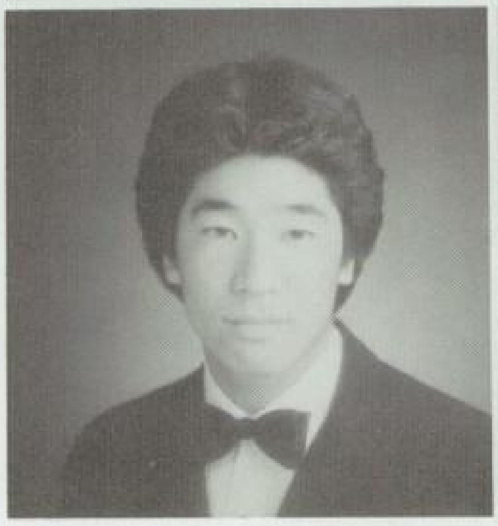


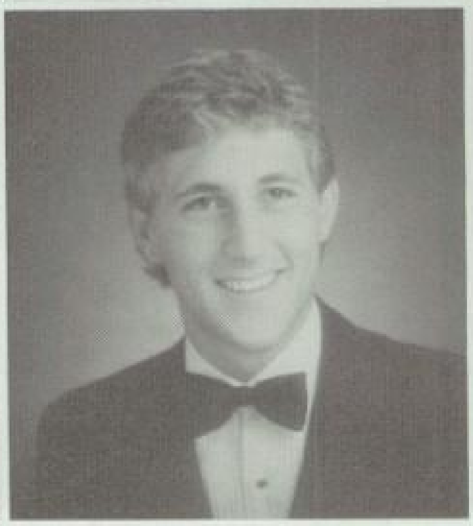


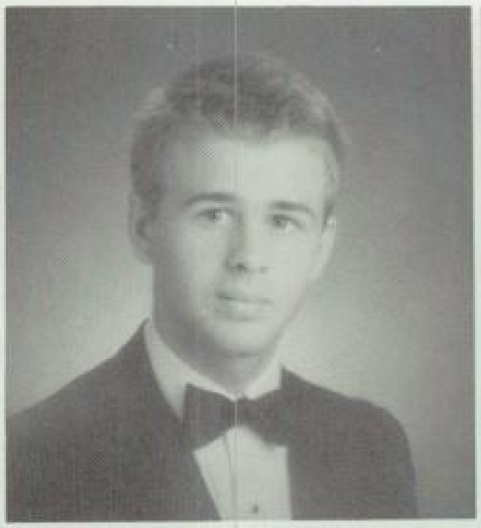
Mike H. Kim — Was' up! Thanks for making my four years the best! Remember Halloween our senior year? Or partying with the usual gang during the summer! Good luck to everyone. Esp: ES, PF, KR, RM, JC, TA, LS, wrstlg gang! Ski all the time.

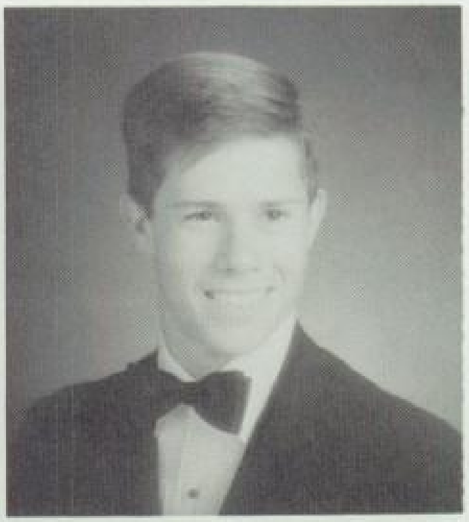
Dave Krsulic — Why can't I be rich instead of goodlooking?

Younghi Kye





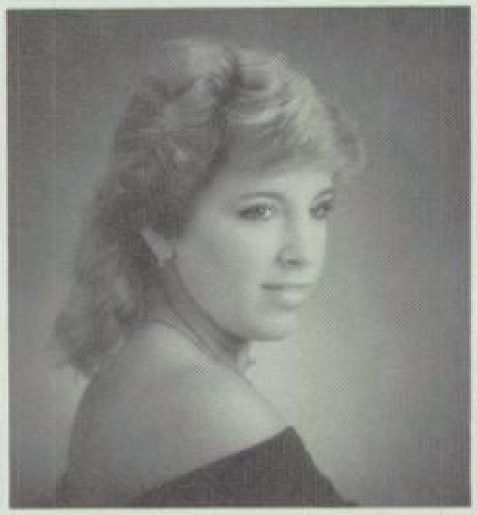


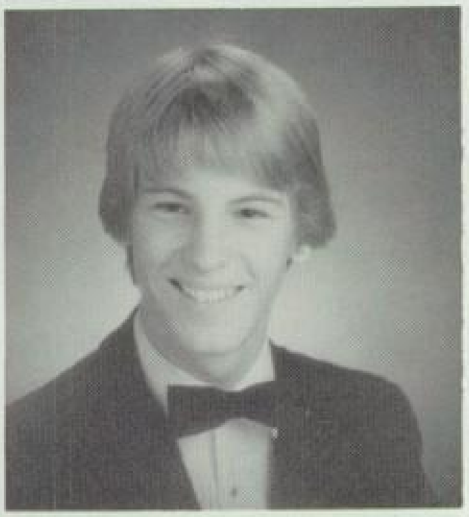


John Langford — Fade to black — the screen goes blank — Fade to black — We did — Exigent Fall

Marcy Marie Lape — Shell, thanks for everything, I couldn't have made it without you-Best friends forever! P.S. Polo, white 501's, and L.A. men.

Andrew Larsen — I'm stoked, the quarter king will flap in. Look for Drewski Brewski in Tahoe on the slopes with a backpack of cerveza. Lov ya Richelle. We're there! Rambo will live, Grimmace is back. 5th break, see ya!

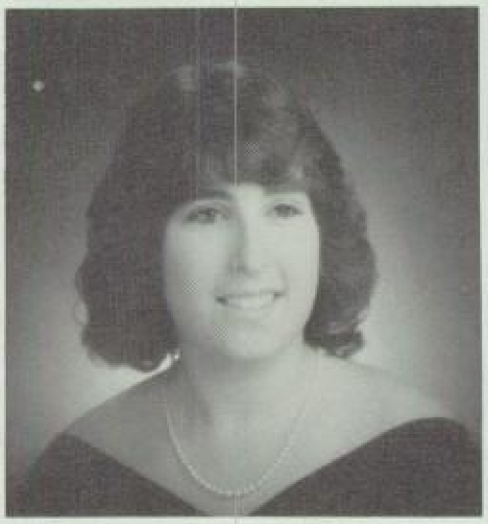


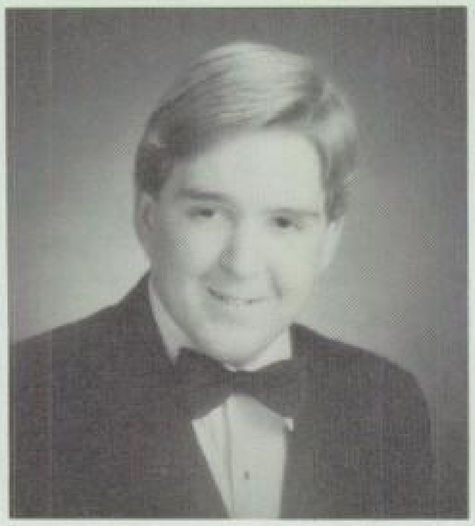


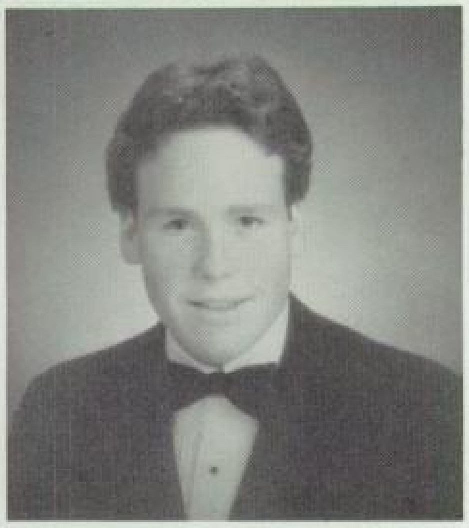
Tina Larson

Dawn M. Lavandowski — Here we are with our heads held high, Good luck to everyone with our sincere goodbyes. All my best to joyous-We had fun. Remember L and my BF. I love you Bill. We will keep on shining . . .

Keith Leeper — People change, and I have changed. Change is always for the better. Thank you LD, also thanks to ET, DE, MM, SE, MR, BB, NL, AC, MA, and JL.







Dina Levy — Between the parties and fun we all shared I wonder how we made it, but we did! Aaa yarr . . Hey Holmes, are ya hip? Let's party . . . umm ah . . ho ho . . Well, late! . . Take it here, all the way . . 1986 . . I love you all!

Shane Lewis — "Build a Better Body"

Neil Lieb — L.D., You make everyday special!! I.L.Y.!! Thanks guys, MM, SE, BB, MR, DE, M. Fry, ET, DR, it was fun while it lasted! And all due to cosine laws! But the time has come to say . . . C-YA!!

Life With A Locker

Classes are strenuous. No matter how much you love or hate school, you have to admit that classes are hard on the mind. But, we can compensate for that. We do everyday. Dial three numbers. 3-13-23, or any combination of three numbers that is your passport from stressful classes. School twists, turns, and warps around this area. You have now opened your locker. Come on, let's take a look inside. In your locker, you obviously have books. But, that is just the beginning. Some of us like to have shelves for serviceability, and there are those of us that have our lockers wallpapered with Mark Harmon and Don Johnson or Christie Brinkley and Kelly LeBrock. Some are just wallpapered. Music figures greatly in our lockers, too. Three lockers: open them up and we have Motley Crue in the first; Sting in the second; and The Talking Heads in the last. Lockers also have themes. Your locker can be grim, funky, psychedelic, freaky, run-o'-the-mill, zany, or just plain cool. These lockers reflect a part of us and make the day-to-day scholastic efforts a bit less tedious. So go on, get to your English class. Don't worry about it. Just remember that your locker is always here waiting for you.

Laura Lincoln — Thanks to all my friends especially Geek for making my SENIOR year the best. Special thanks to L.M(S) for all the talks about K.A. and J.S. Have an awesome life everyone.

Michelle Renee Lobdell — Imagine that . . .!

Kristy Lucero — To S.H., S.P., and D.G.: I couldn't have done it without you guys! There is still more to come so remember, after all We were Born to Be Wild!

Cheri Lund — Moo baby! Wicki Wicki! Hey sweetcheeks! Hey Dangy! Hey Bro! Hi Marky! C.W.- A lost Harlequin?? I luv you guys! WE FINALLY MADE IT!!!!

Jennifer Lundgren — M.A. I love you! K.T., thanks for everything!! A.C. and B.B.-you guys are great, thanks for all the rides. Let's go see Amadeus and eat some shrimp. To all my friends- you made it great!

Frank Machado — Thanks to all of my friends and especially Selby. I love you Kimberly Ann! I leave all the future brats to my dad. Girls play volleyball, Boys play basketball, and Men wrestle! G.B. and L.S.-think Physics. Kim+Frank Jane Mandrusov — Cheer up! Life is just beginning. Good luck to the class of '86.

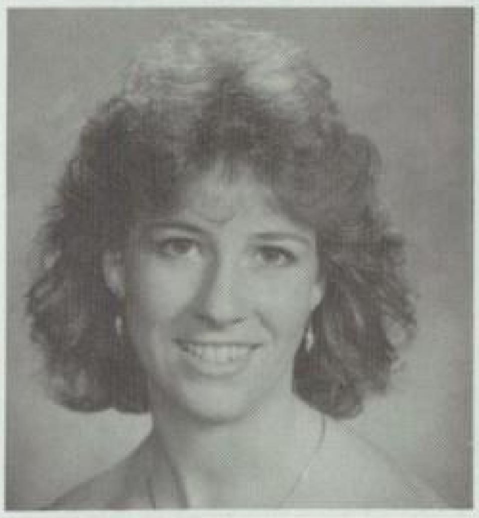
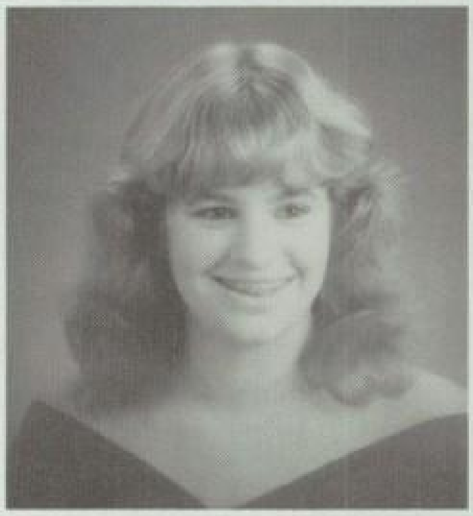
Kerri Marble — Melissa, thanks for the memories. Remember stop n go and the man in the yellow car? See you later when the whole-crews-there. Get it?

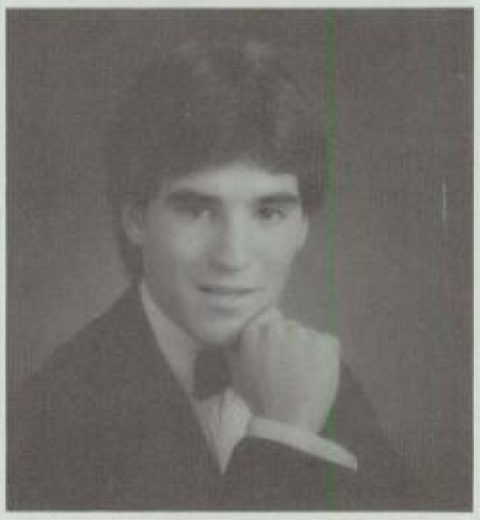
Chris Martin

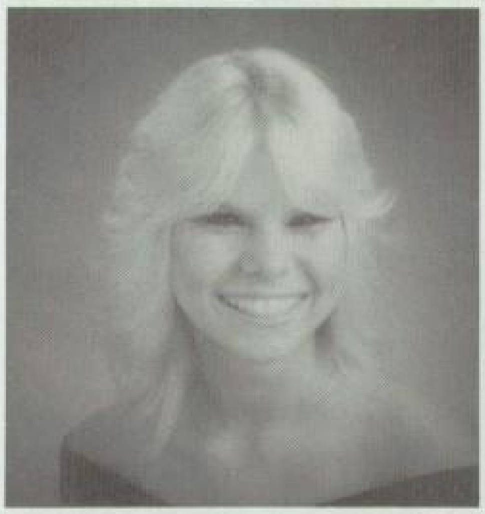
Lynnae Martin

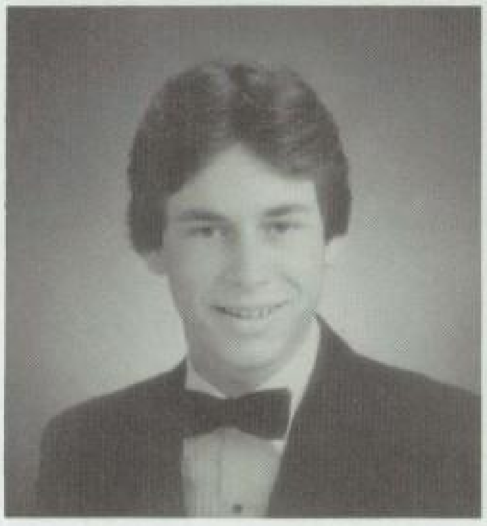
Renee Masche

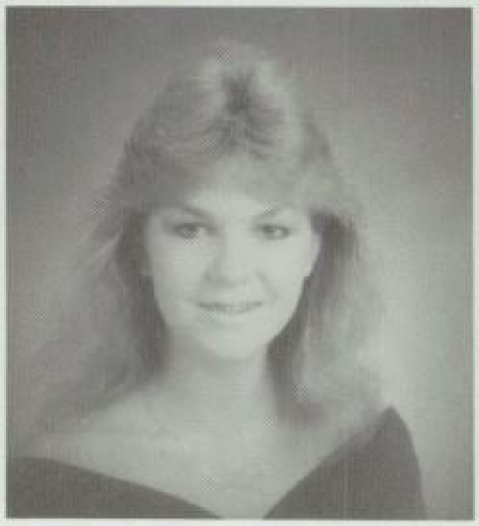


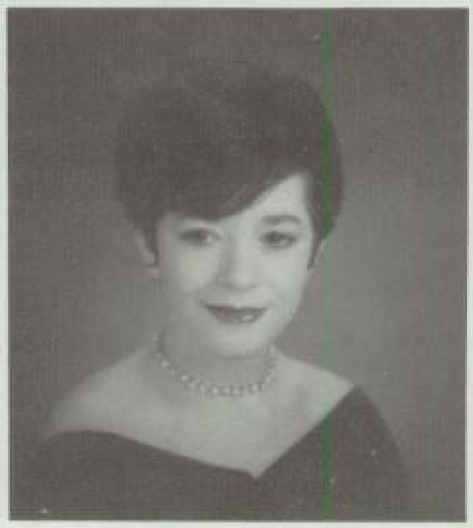


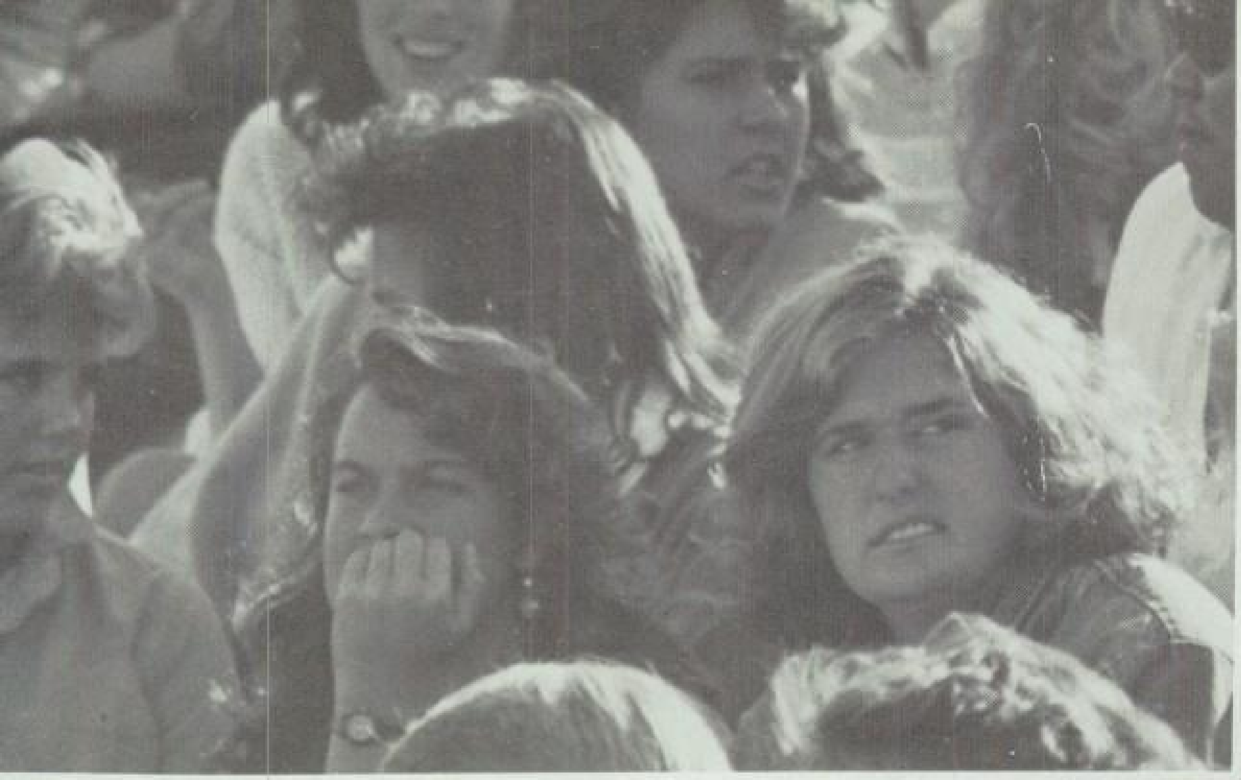


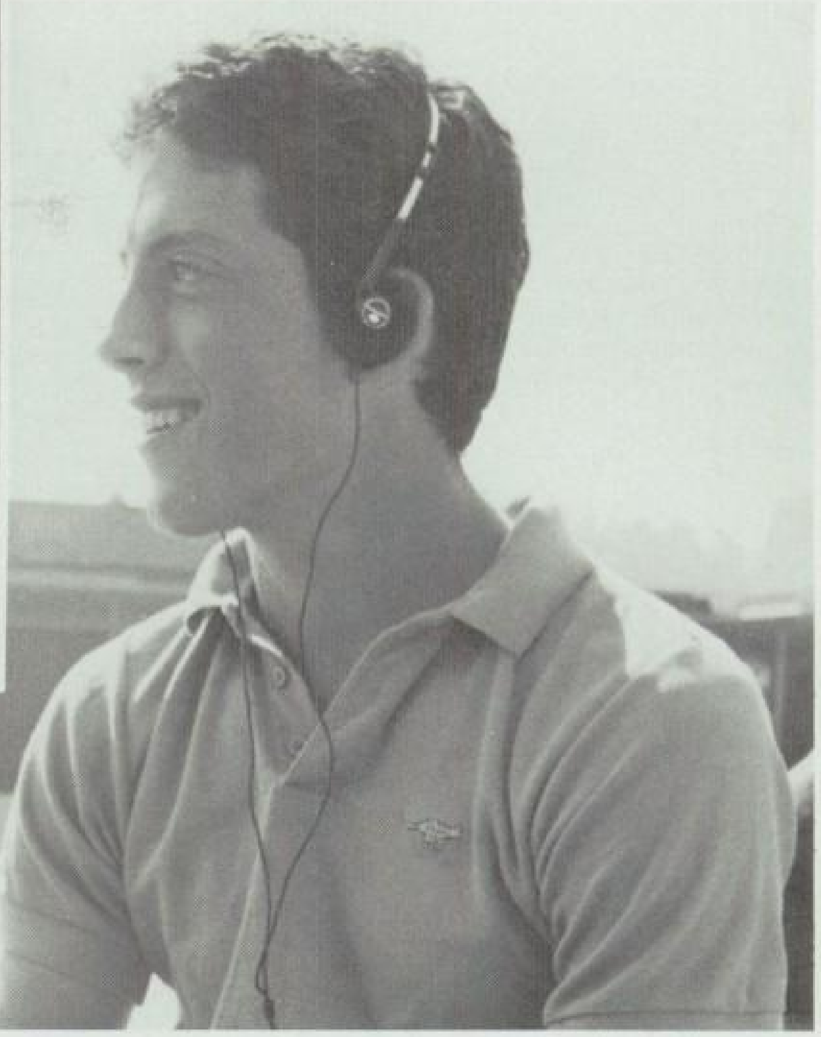


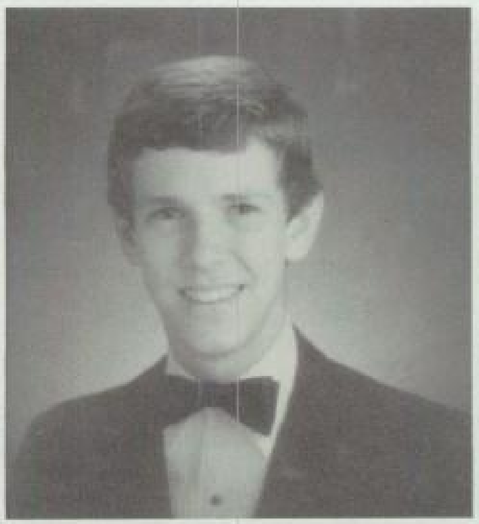


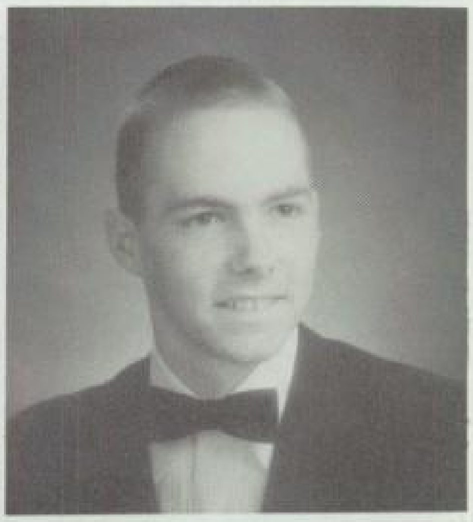


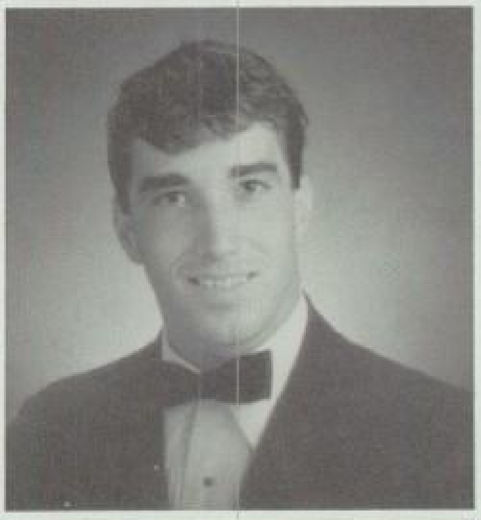


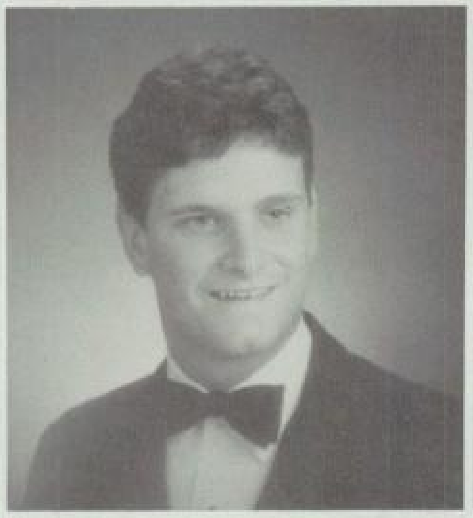


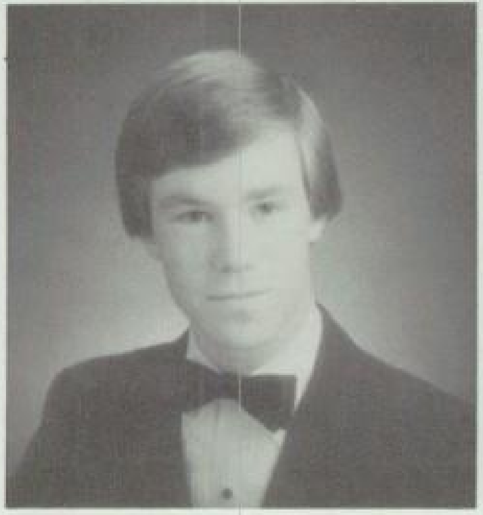


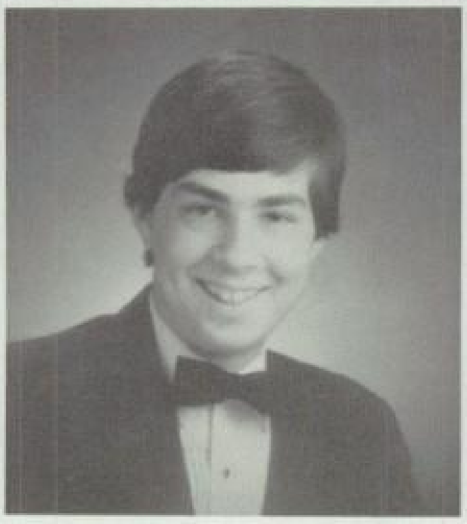












Shawn Mason — To Kirk Gina Stacey Karen Mary Michelle Mindi Liz Juan Tom Spud Aaron — Thanks for a great year!

Terri McCarville — Be a friend for true friends are as rare as gems: Thanks to all my gems.

Duane McFadon — Life is like wheelin' or skiing . . . you gradually work your way from green squares to blue circles to black diamonds. Once you think of a dream, no matter how distant it may seem, persue that dream!

Andrew McLaughlin

Mike McRoberts

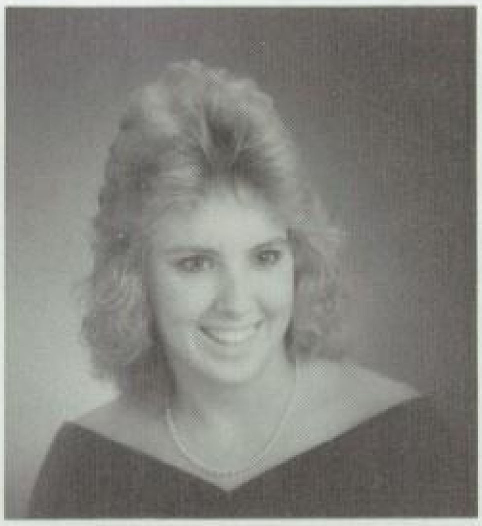
Katy Medley — To S.P and S.G.-thanks for all those fun times. To C.W.-Hey bud let's party! Freshman year was great A.S. and T.S. To M.M. and J.P.-thank God we passed English and to my baby who made my year the best, I love you! Bye everyone, I'll miss ya!

Myron Meier

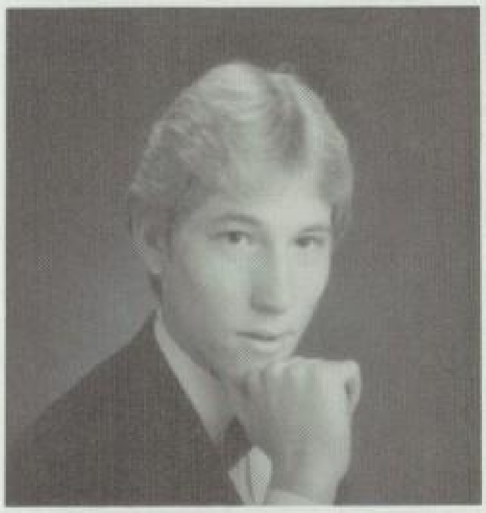
David Merk

Jennifer Lynn Metcalf — Edifus, thanks for your supply of love, patience and support. Mom and Dad I can't thank you enough. Rosie, we made it through thick and thin. S.K., no more dreadlines! KC,Deereebadeeb!

Joy A. Meyer — Here we are with our heads held high, good luck to everyone with our sincere goodbyes. All the best to Dawn-we had fun. Remember me Dave, pick up the phone. I love you Sean, we will keep on shining...



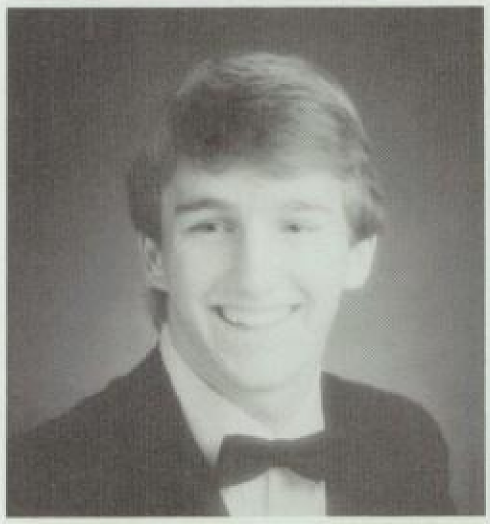
Ronald Miller

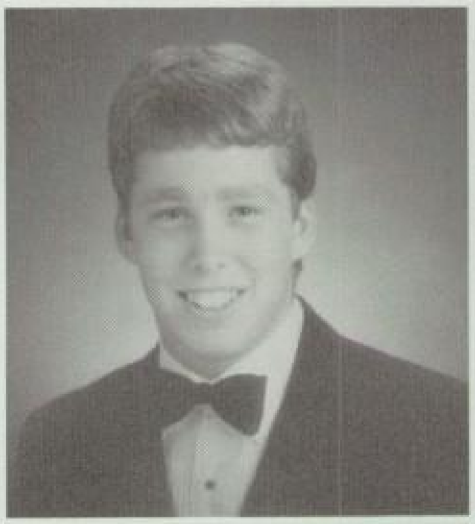


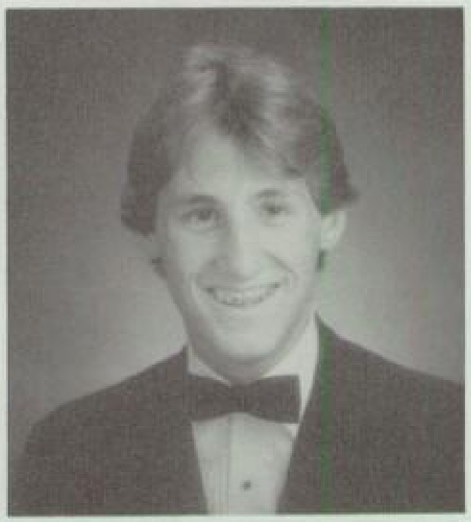
Jim Miotke

Chris Montplaisir —Zoikes Matt, I Blame U-John F., Luv ya Jen, A 512 to TNT, UR worthless -n- weak-ed, floppy, 205's?, See ya after hours Jody To all my other friends- thanks for a great year.

Matthew Mark Morris — 'Hello everybody and welcome to the Matt Morris show!'' I'm a cool rockin' daddy in the USA. To all my friends-God loves you and so do I. Thanks. GO, FIGHT, WIN!



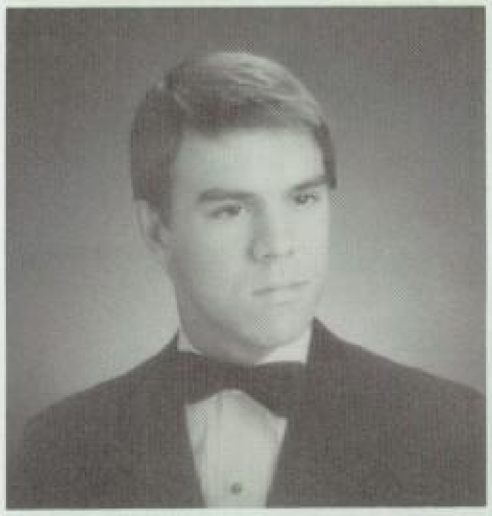


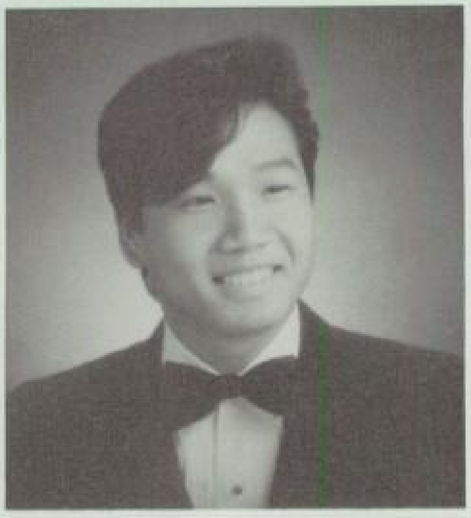


Mike Myers — "My interest is in the future because I am going to spend the rest of my life there." — Charles F. Kettering

Jon Y. Nakamatsu — Can you please write larger? I can't see the board! My glasses? They're not working! What was that locker combination, Mike? No, geesh-teesh-eesh!

Thuan Nguy

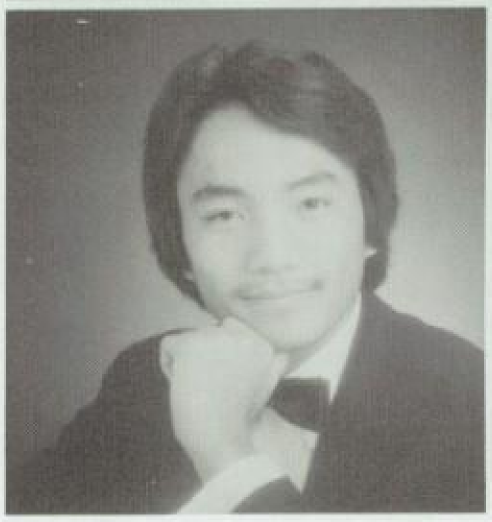


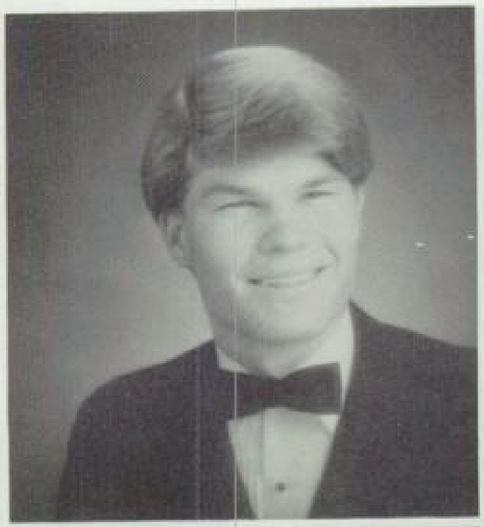


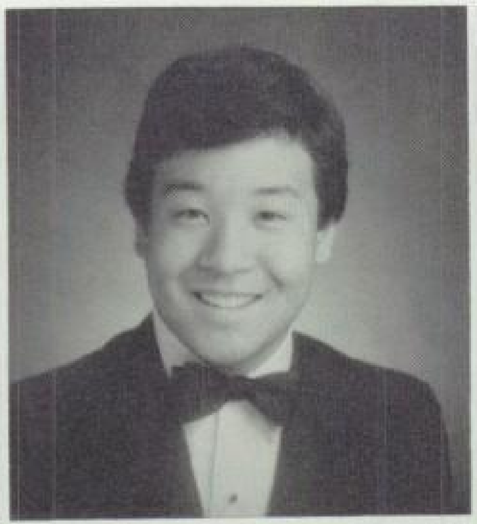
Phillip Nguyen

Thanh Nguyen

Jennifer Nickel



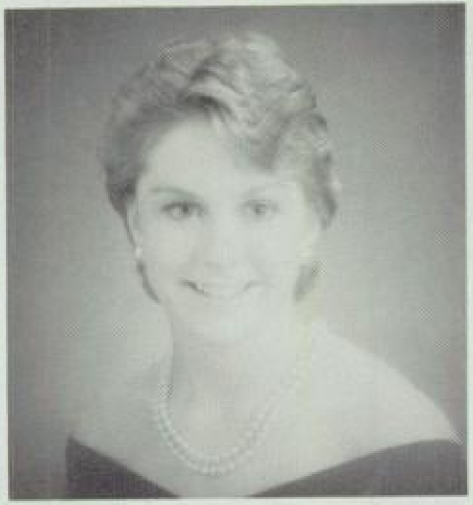




Pat Nieman — Can you believe it? We are finally graduating! . . . Now what?

Matt Okashima — I'm hungry . . . let's go to Taco Bell!!

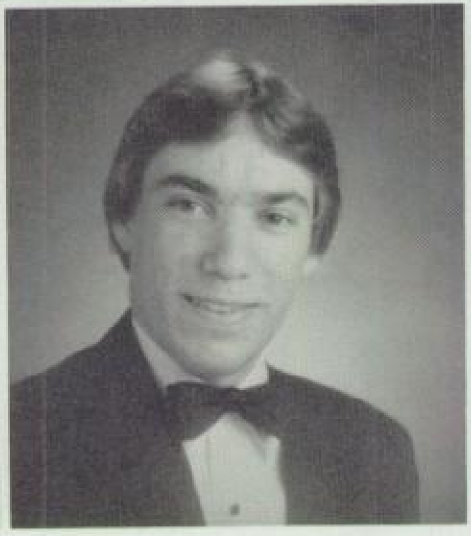
Tuana Marie Olea — Look Dad and Mom, I made it! Kelly, can you believe it, we made it. Country music forever. KIT. KK, DL, JM, RD. I love you RC. Yeeha!



Jennifer Irene Olmstead — Life is nothing more or nothing less than what you make of it! To all my friends, thank you.-It's been great!

Grace Olson — Upper peninsula somewhere special looking at you Em!

Darlene Orwig



Anne Marie Osborne

Derek Ouellette — I love you Alicia forever, your my best Troy and Brent, good luck Greg, I will miss you all class of 86, have a safe, happy and long life, see you all in 5 or 10, thanks Mom, Dad, Granny and Pa, I love you.

Sandra Kaye Palmer — God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can and wisdom to know the difference. Find peace within yourself and in nature-after all-we were born to be wild.

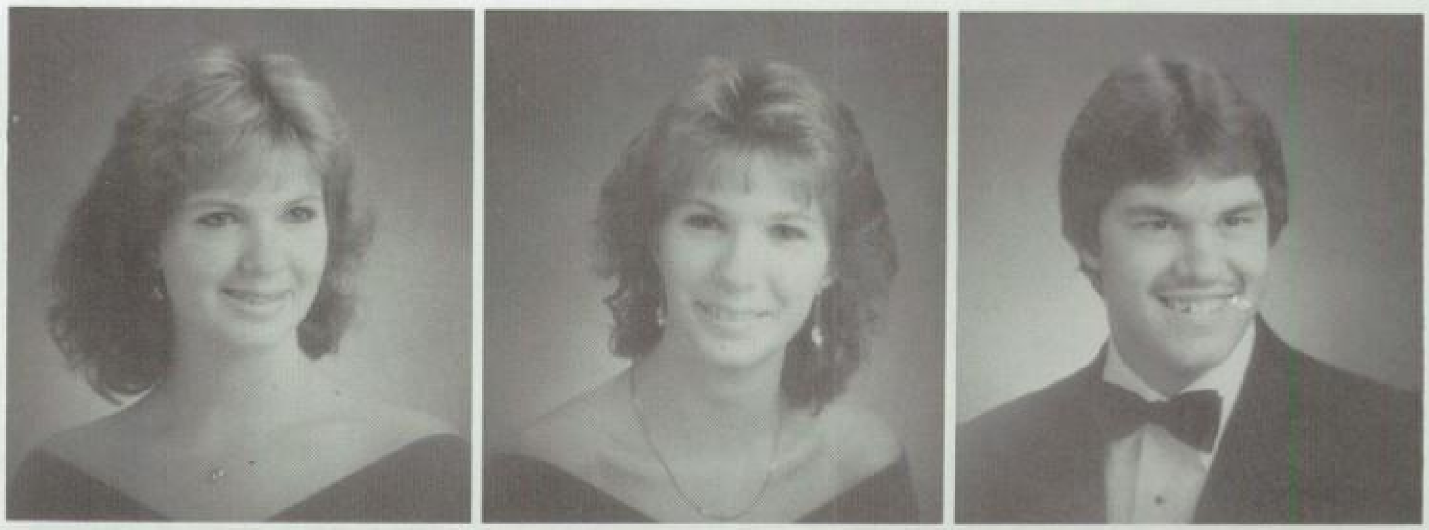
Do Your Eyes Wander?

Do your eyeballs wander? Teachers call it wandering eyeballs or photocopying, or telepathy, or just common garden cheating! It is a sad thing to say that it occurs very often at our school. It can be for anything from an answer to a question on homework or a problem on the final. They say that you are not helping a friend if you help them on a test. They say that your friend won't learn anything and they say you are doing more harm than good. They say it never pays off. But then again, they say a lot of things. So you say, "What do you have to say?" I say maybe they're right or maybe they're wrong. No one has ever scientifically proven or disproven it. But the point is, sooner or later, you get caught. The embarrassment of getting caught is not worth anything. Hear it from a pro. I wouldn't do it for anything! Sure you say. But I'm talking from experience! I got caught but I wasn't cheating! But I may have been cheating, after all, we do a bit of eyeball wandering from time to time. Anyway, though completely innocent, I suffered much humiliation, embarrassment, and discomfort. The matter was cleaned up and I learned a lesson. I would never cheat, because not cheating and getting caught is frustrating but redeemable while getting caught redhanded is worse than being caught with your pants down: No one will ever trust you again.

Kathleen Patterson

Kristine Patterson

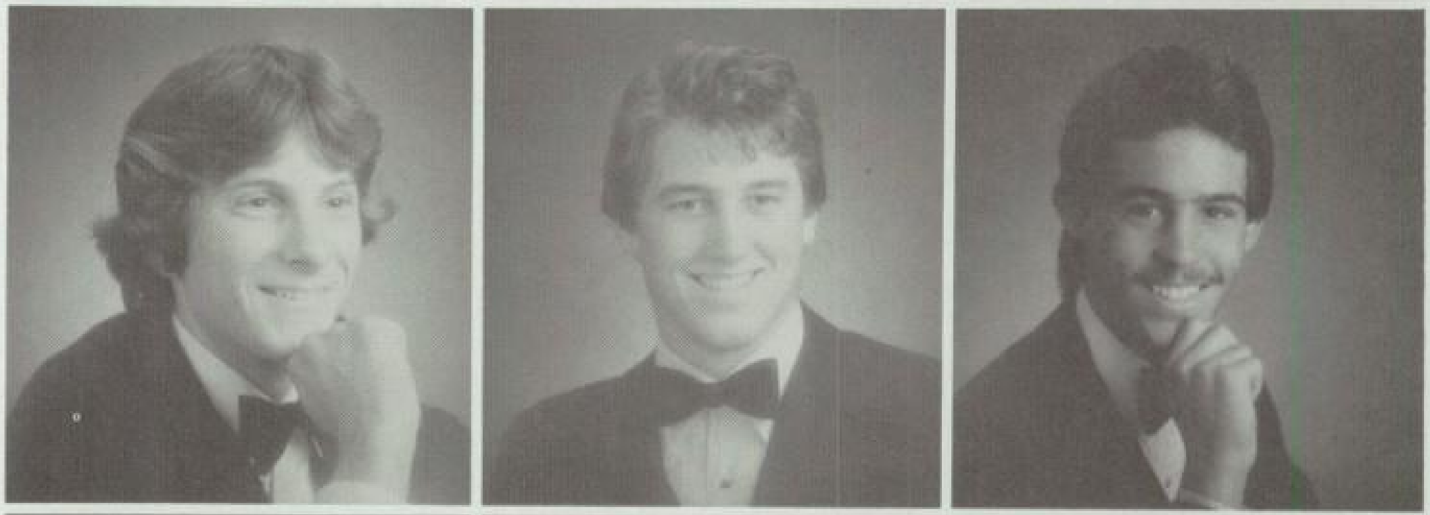
Matt Paul



Dieter Peinthor

Ron Pennington — To A.S. thanks for the passing grade, and all the S.B.'s. To my Honey thanks for making my last year great and the rest of them to come! I love you very much I'll see ya later D.C. Bye.

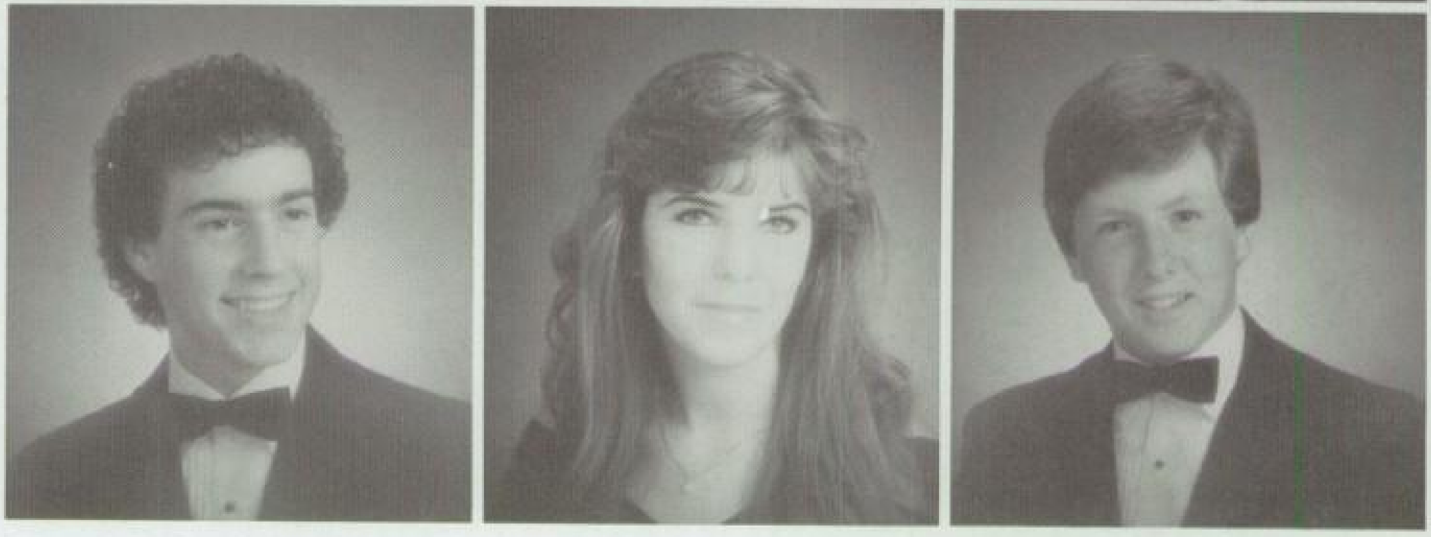
Mark Perdue



David L. Peters — Music may have its soothing charms, but magic creates a sensation of absolute wonderment. Magically yours, Magic Hands.

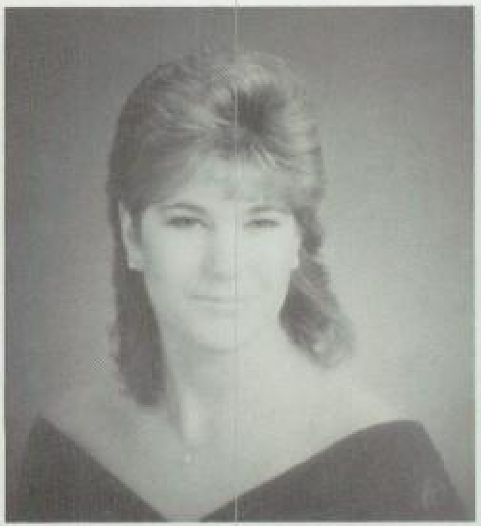
Kathryn W. Peterson — "To all my friends, thank you for the good times! To everyone else-see ya!"

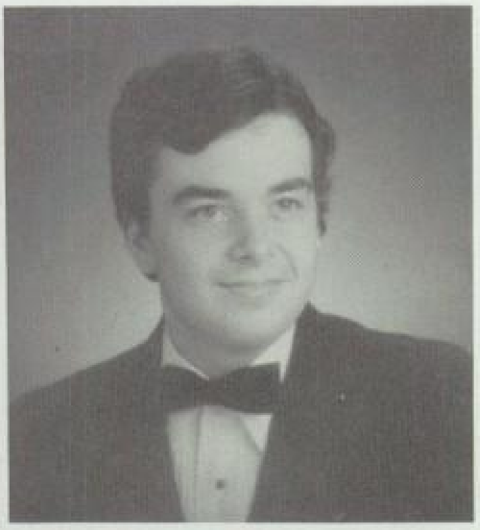
Ronn Pifer



Once Upon A Time

Once upon a time, many short and naive students entered the kingdom of high school. As lower classmen, they were called Freshmen: life was tough, everything was unfamiliar, school was hard, and there were always the threat of the Giants, more commonly known as the upper classmen. Many survived while some did not. A new year began. They were promoted to Sophomores. Proud of their success, they bragged of their bravery to the new Freshmen. But, life was not easy: they fought battles of wit, went through many tests and ordeals, and were then worthy of the honor of being Juniors. As Juniors, they had the right to pillage the under classmen. They also had enemies, but these enemies were invisible. They had to fight and beat the fighting formulas, grotesque grammar, virulent vocabulary and the enigmatic equations. Few could destroy the invisible enemies but those who prevailed reached their final stage: the Senior. As Seniors, they faced a new challenge, the abbreviations: SAAC, ACH, SAT, USC, SJSU, and many others. Their patience was tested by piles of applications. Those lucky few who made it through the four years were called graduates! And they lived happily ever after! — Dedicated to those who experienced the fairy tale and lived to tell about it. —

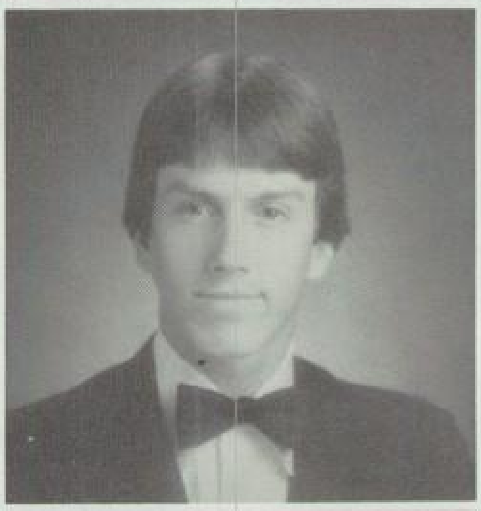




Richelle Pozas — We finally made it B.F., D.D., A.L., C.D., M.S., I knew that there was always a way. Congratulations Andrew! I love you. Good luck Cheri and Steph. The best is yet to come!

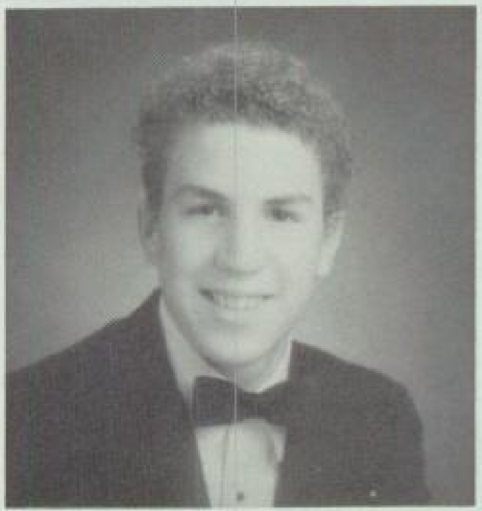
Anita Michelle Prizzi — Our journey has been long and hard. I could never have made it without my friends, especially you Jen. Good luck MG, JR, HH, TP, TL, KP, JF . . . "I'll be with you all the way"

Mike Rabel — Even with the troubles and problems, we made it to the end of high school. And I wouldn't have made it without my friends. Thanks and good luck.



Chris Reed

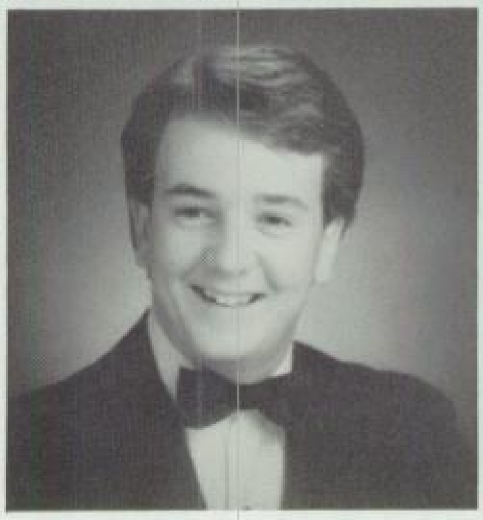
Lisa Regul — If your socks don't match, stand in a flower garden. Love and AAAAAGHs to all my friends. Geesh!

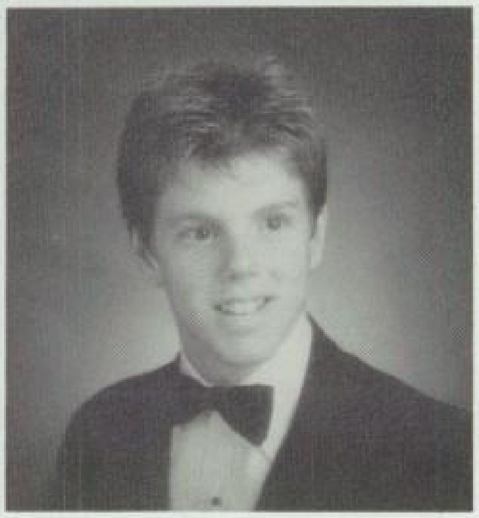


Chris Reid — This exceptional student was not available for comment. Just kidding. Maybe. You know that eighty-six is the best of the rest. Guess what? Skiing is the best. You know. Trig and Physics are a total bore.

Diane Rhinehart — We've only finished the first chapter of our lives-we have yet to finish the book.

Lorrie Robbins — M.S., D.D., R.A., C.C., L.C., C.W. thank you for all the special times. I love you all! Remember F.I.W.S. Andy 1-4-86 our memories will never erase. 1:10 a.m.





Richard W. Robbins — FORE!

Robin Roberts

Sean Robertson

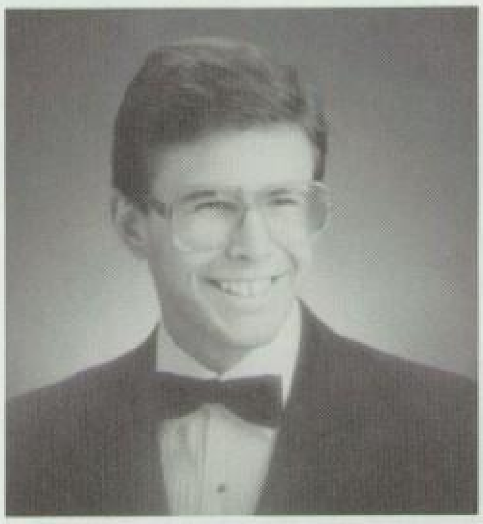
Careers

Here's that stupid question again! The one that I can never answer. "What is your intended major?" Well, I don't know! I used to know though. When I was six years old, I wanted to be a nurse. When I was eight, I decided to be a fireman. Then, I changed my mind again when I was twelve; I wanted to be an astronaut. Later on in life, I wanted to be a doctor and save the world! Now, I have no idea what to do! Computers are "in" but I still can't type. I can't stand the sight of blood so there goes mom's dream of having a doctor in the family. I get sick on the ferris wheel so I'll just leave the flying to the professionals. There is no way I'm going to be a fireman; that job involves too much work! I have it! I'll check the "undecided" box (I think I'll do the same for the next seven applications). I have thought of the greatest idea! I'll be a professional student! I'll go to school for another twelve years, get my Ph. D. and marry someone rich. Yeah! The way to college is to become a professional student! What a way to go!

Kevin Mark Robinson — I have enjoyed my 4 years at Prospect and will leave with fond memories. To the class of 1986, I wish you all good luck and success. "Go Spartans!"

Kerrell #22 Robinson — "I've dreamed of getting a football scholarship. Some folks didn't think I could and some tried to stop me from getting it. Well, I got the 'darn' scholarship! Don't let others ruin your dreams!"

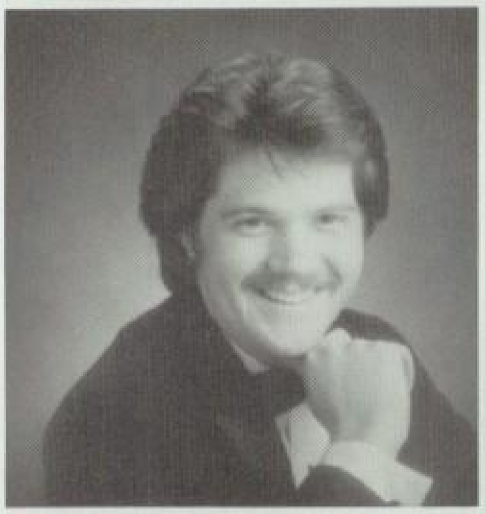
Sabrina Rosas — I'm different and gifted and better than terrific and if you don't like it you've got to deal with it! Hi! Sab Love ya "86"

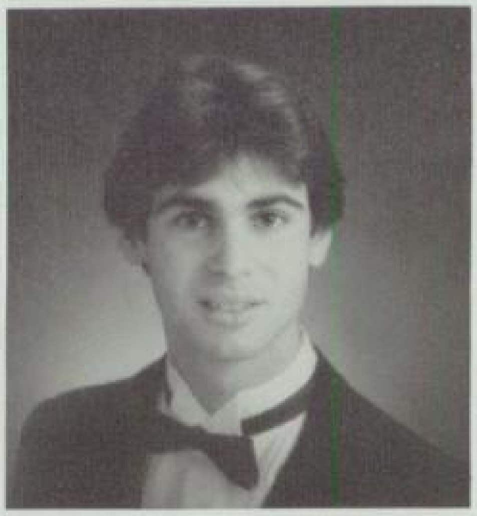


Glenn Ross

Michelle Robendall — Thanks for all the memories . . Go gettum weekends C-ya. . .

Gary Rubenstein

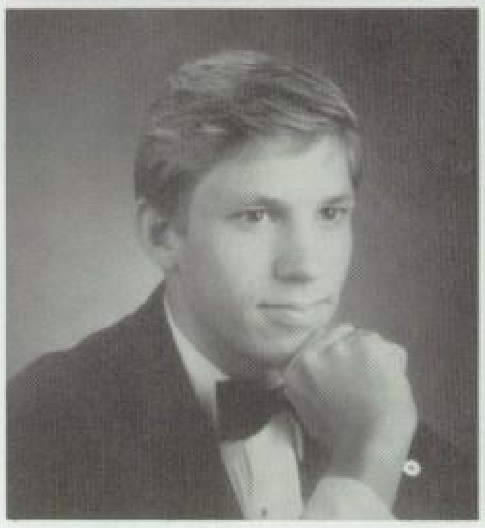


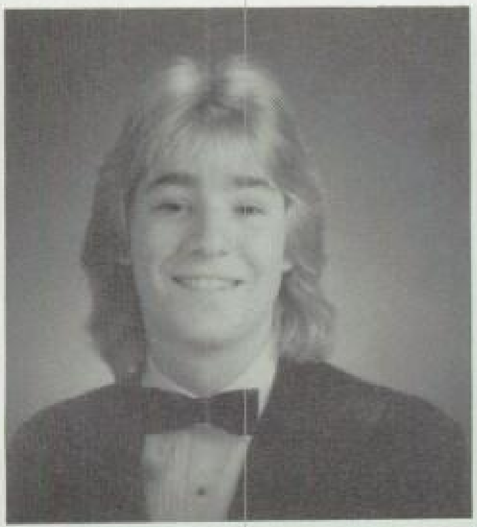


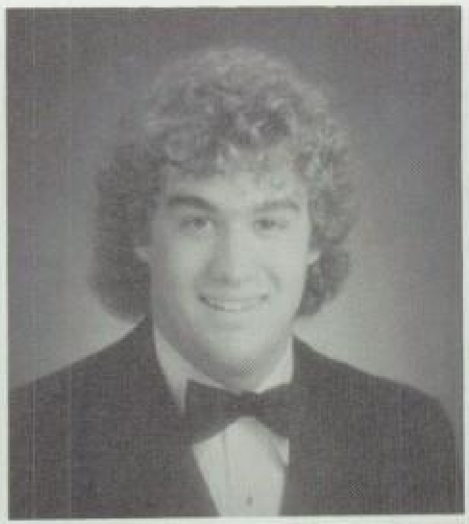
Mark Ruppert — I was happy to see the high school years come, and now that they are gone I'm sad to see them go. I would like to thank T.A.L. for the good times and memories over the years. Love the class of "86". Signed Poobear

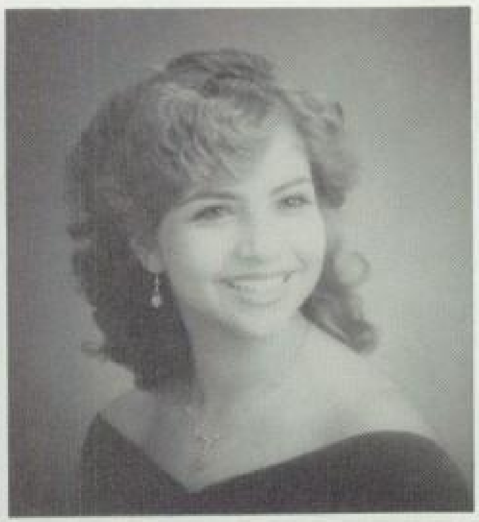
Melissa Schneider — "Good times with great friends make the best memories." LRLCRADDCCCW "F.I.W.S" SP-"-TD" To the gang-"I luv u & thanks" — (U2, Ian, Dan, Tam, Nic&TB)*& to the class with class-"Good Luck!"

Kathleen Schoppe





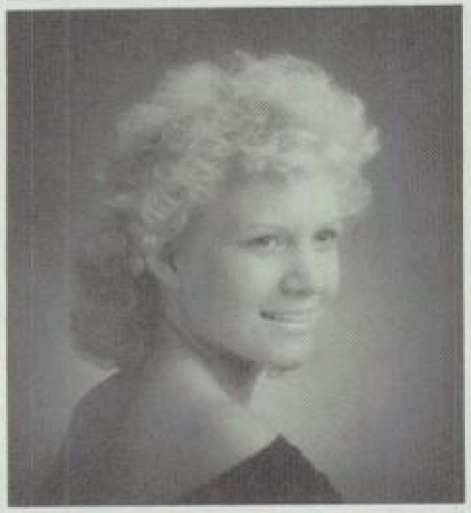


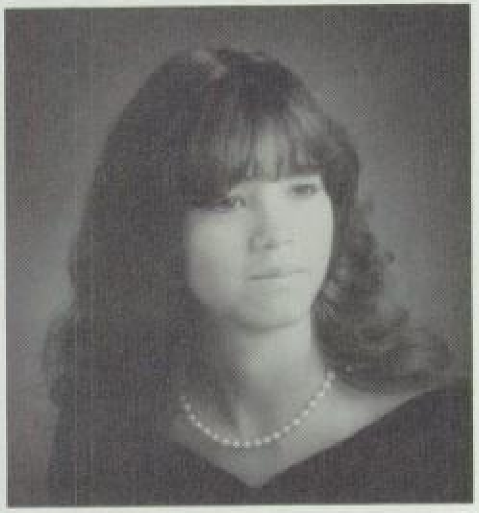


William Schriver

Aaron Schumer — Life is like a carousel spinning fast you got to ride well. The world is full of kings and queens who blind your eyes and steel your dreams.

Vivian Seremetis — "These have been the best and worse of times ... But they will never be forgotten."

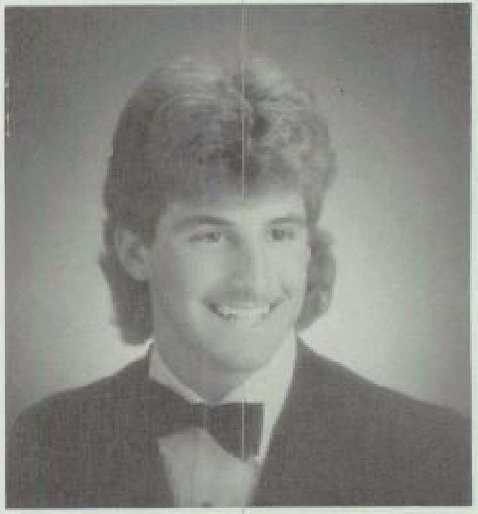


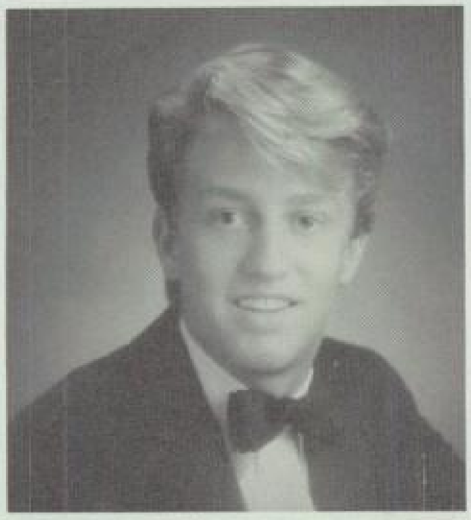


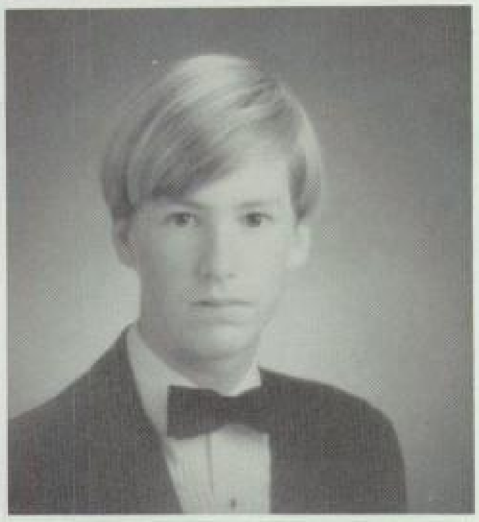
Monique Marie Serrano — "These have been the best and the worst of times ... But they will never be forgotten!" Luv ya all Mo

Pauline Shander

Karyn Shiver — "When the dawn comes tonight will be a memory too and a new day will begin" by T.S. Eliot from the Broadway show Cats.



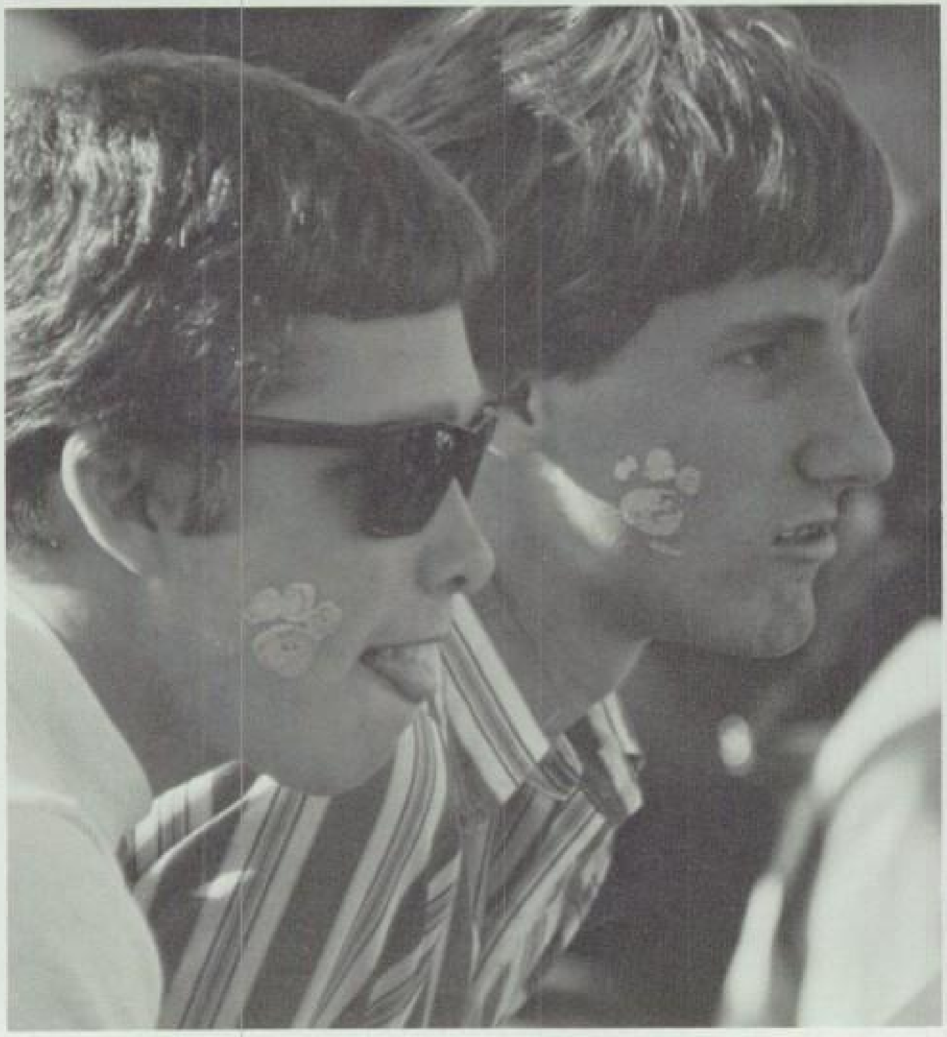


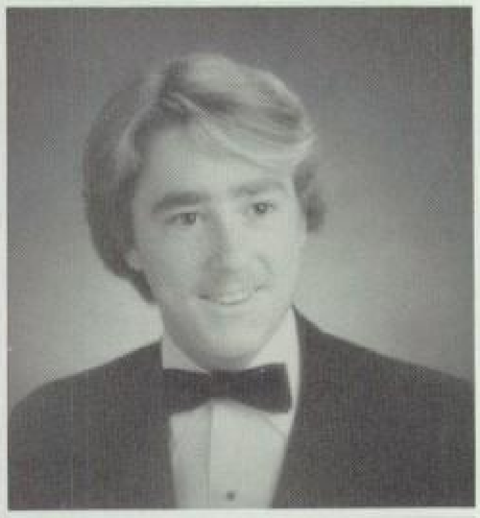


Tim Slaughterbeck

Jeff Small — Ask not what you can do for your country, but whether or not you have enough simulated wood grain finish.

John Smurthwaite — DERF AND IKE "86"





Charlie Snyder

Wendy Solomon — Yesterday. All my troubles seemed so far away. To K.M., B.D., and M.P.: Thanks for the memories.

Sandy Stanko

Laurie Ann Staunton — Robin-let's go paint the town green!! Nimphique, Goober and Jiggles thanks for the fun we had. Party 1999! Trevor, good luck with everything. Olive Juice! Good Luck to everyone, I hope life goes well.

Alan Stevens

Nieves Straaberg — S.J.S. here I come! Thanks for all the memories and good friends. I wish everyone the best of luck in the future. (F.I.W.S.!!)

Joe Strand — Thank God it's over!

Judy Sun — The best thing about these years at P.H. was discovering the good in people and keeping my word.

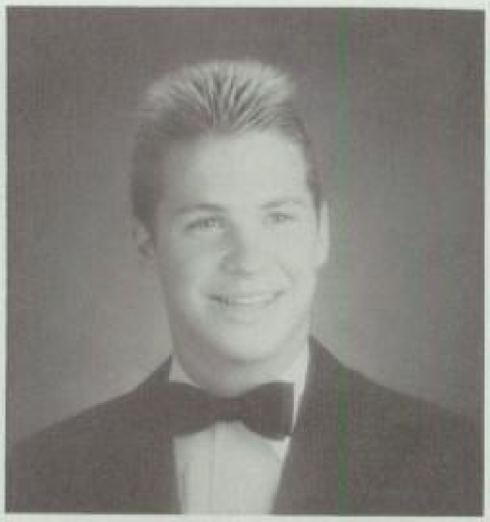
Tom Sunzeri

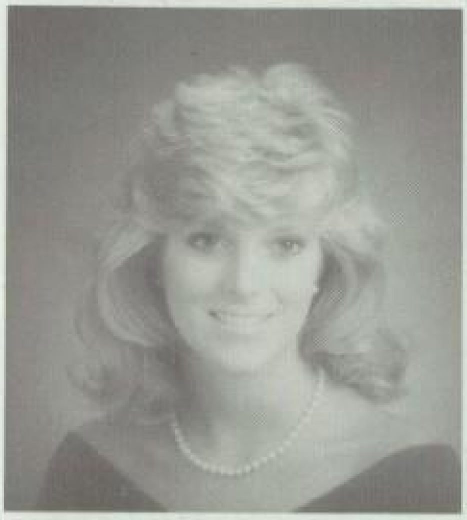
Erin Sutton

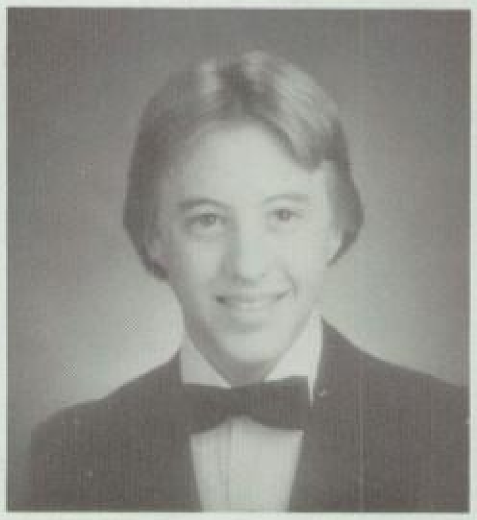
Evan Suzuki

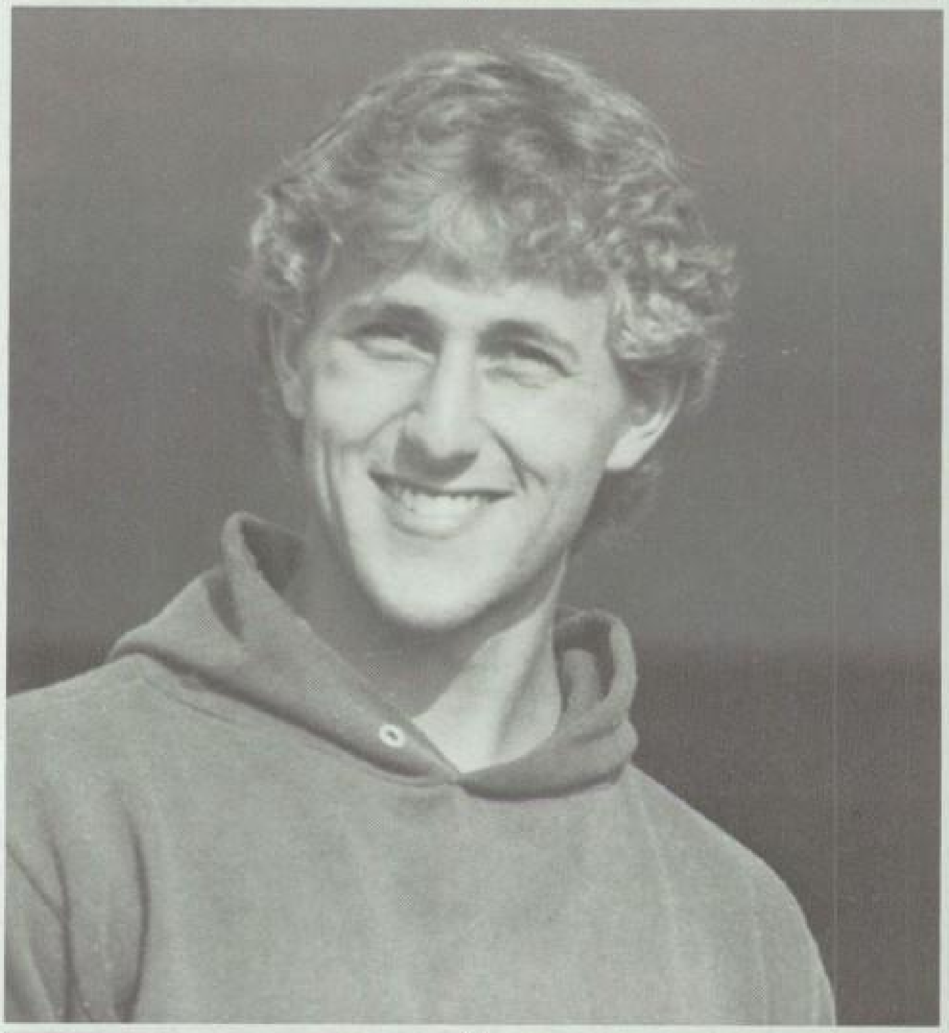
Lisa Swanson — "You're great!" C.I.&N.C.-thanx for the help!-Best Friends Forever! The Team-We had some fun times, didn't we? Partying at Mike's! C.I.-Is your mouth watering? Don't forget the memories!

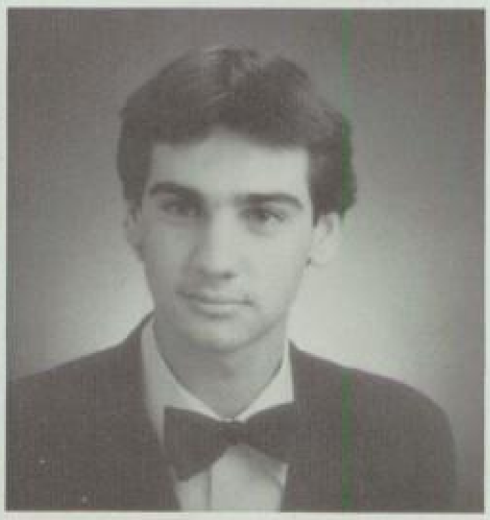
Christine Sweetland — Thanks to all my friends for all the good times. N.C. genuises forever! P.F. I will never forget the name Jootland. T.S. and P.F. I still want to know what S.F. means. Good luck to everyone in the future.

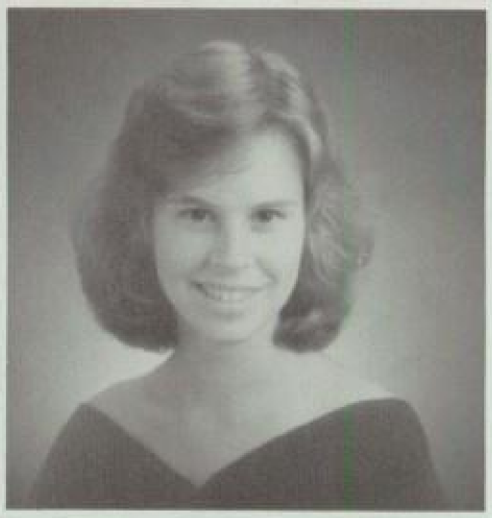


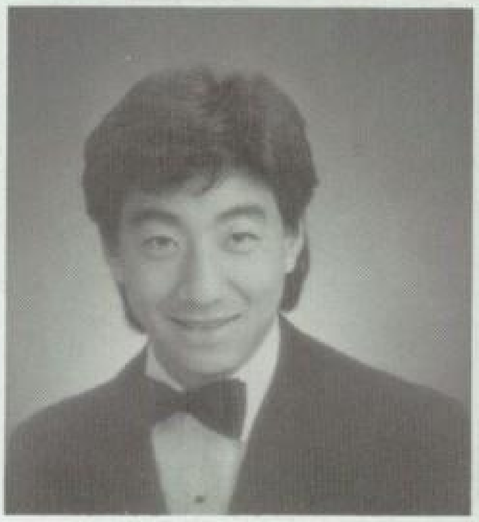






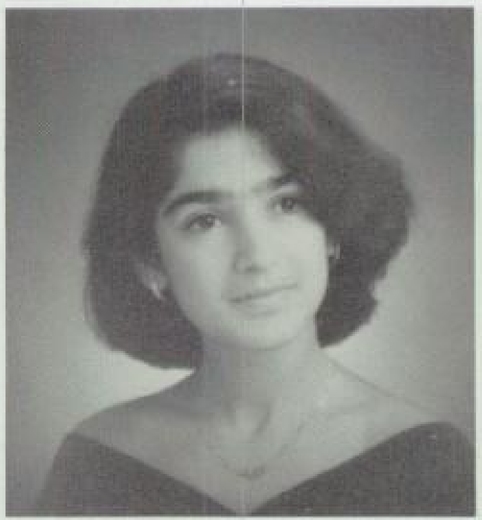


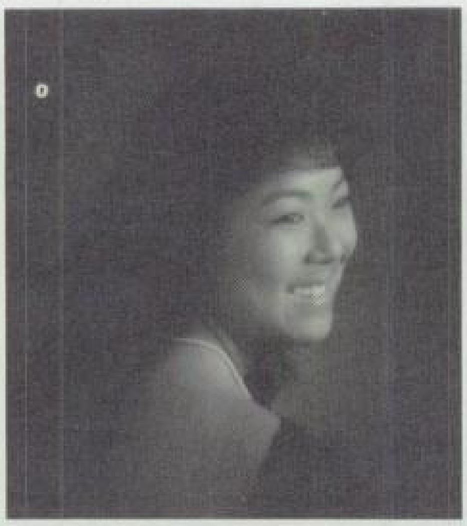


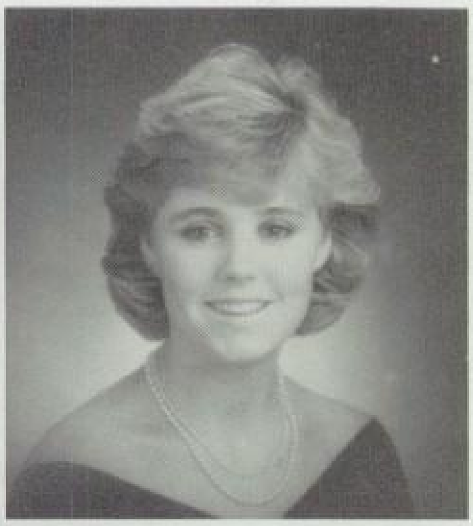


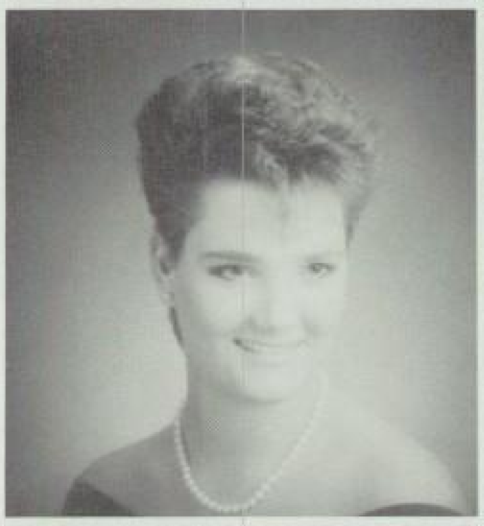
Late Again

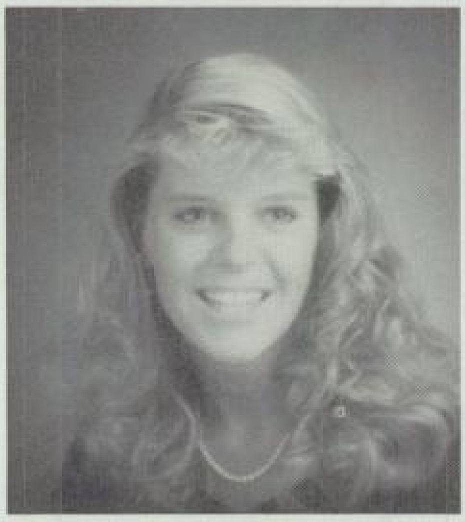
"Stupid door!" you mumble as your books scatter across the classroom floor. Every head in the room turns to you in swift unison. You gather up your books and make for your desk with a stupid look on your face. The teacher frowns at you and tries to salvage her derailed train of thought. You sneak over to your seat and sink into it. "Late again, eh?" the wise guy next to you just before your fist meets his nose. The teacher resumes her talk on something that sounds very unfamiliar to you. You decide that you had better take some notes. "Got a pencil I could borrow?" you ask the girl in front of you with an embarrassed grin on your face. "Here!" she says, "Thanks! Uh, do you have any paper I could use!" you say. "There!" she says, handing you a ream of paper, "Now leave me alone!" "OK, thanks!" You set the paper in front of you, pencil in hand, and prepare to write. You then notice that the pencil has no lead. You cringe at the thought of disturbing the entire class again, but you feel you have no choice. You get up non-chalantly, and go to the pencil sharpener. When a lull in the lecture comes, you quickly sharpen the pencil (very loudly). All heads, once again, spin to you. The stupid grin reappears. You go back to your seat. Now you are ready for action! RING! The rest of the class gets up and begins filing through the doors. It's second period.

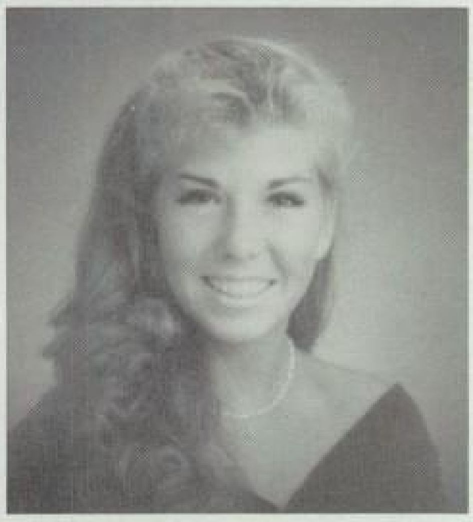


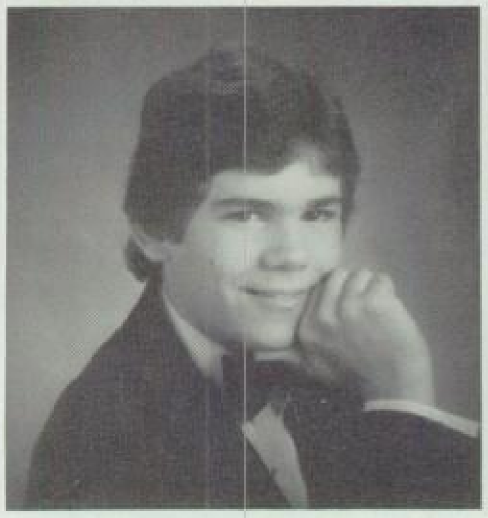


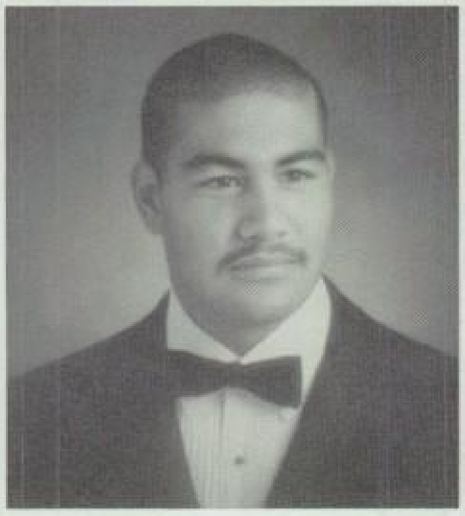


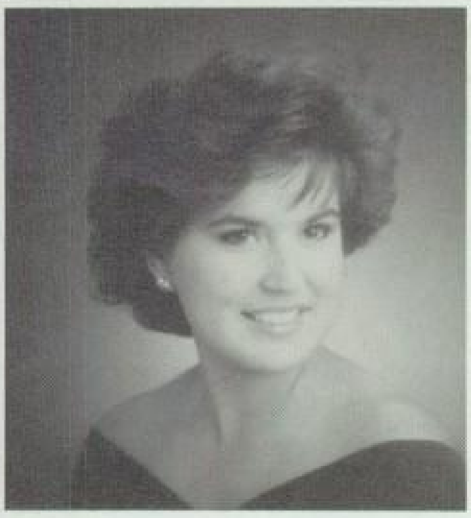












Sezaneh Taherian — Life is like a Persian Carpet (you figure out why!).

Nancy Takimoto

Marian Talbot — Doo doo n doo doo, Feelin' Groovy! Marlan Halibut, but just call me "Fish." I'm just not Political. "Speak for yourself, not others."

Andrea Tarachand

Debbie Terres — Hey Jul we're having some fun now! Mohadeep-white light-grn bug-room 104-sardines-waterskiing in Acapulco-sandbox-SPs-sunbathing on my roof-egging the Seniors-James Bond-Sobey Rd.-Alpine-Rockers-JJ-DB-LC-I luv u.

Mary Ann Thomson — Hey babe! To my Pals Thanx for all the great memories they will always stay in a special place in my heart. I'll miss you!! Varsity Cheer was here!

Tom Tilney

Donny Togisala

Ishelle Torres — The only people who never make mistakes are those who never do ANYTHING!

Eat That Food

Our cafeteria is a fun place! People not only eat here, but they also meet here. You can pick up a girl or pick up some nuts! Talking of pickups, have you ever wondered about the "Return the silverware" signs everywhere? And also wondered about where the silverware was? Another amazing thing is the "walls" in the cafeteria. Each group has their own section with their own seemingly reserved seats enveloped by an invisible wall. While their stomachs try to digest the UFOs served by the cafeteria, they also amuse themselves with an ancient game called "food frisbee." One student tries to feed another by throwing some edible material at another student's mouth.

Kelly Toshach — It's been the BEST! My bestest friend-have a good one; thanks for you know what all. TT-I'm still waiting for your call. Sh-you're a cutie; Have Fun! LC, CA, SC, JFX-you guys are great; thanks for all the years.

Eve Tracey — Remember the good times, not the bad.

Micheal P.T. Tran — A new horizon . . . So many new directions . . . opportunities . . . and different ways to go . . . It's not the end, yet. To my friends, thanks for all the precious memories. It was well worth it! Congratulations class of 1986!

Toan Tran — KT, EC, AF, JW, CM, JF. Thanks so much for everything. I wish you the very best. Don't stop dreaming, we are going to make it. So you guys want to go to Hawaii with me or "Oh no Bluto we might get in trouble!" Go Fight Win!

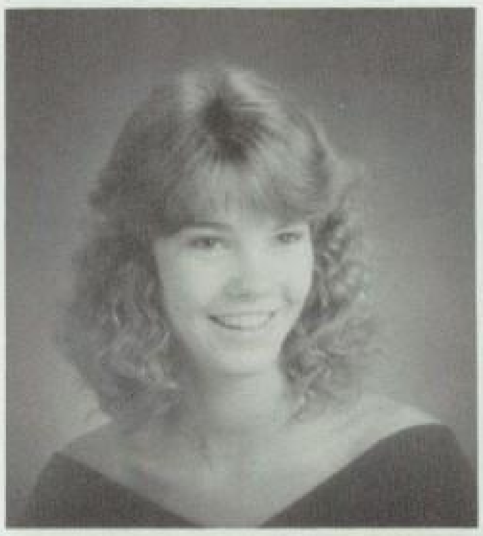
Wendy Trozzo — Dad, I made it!!! Love to all mah buddies MH, JR, JA, MG, DL, BW and RE!!! "And we all lived happily ever after!!!"

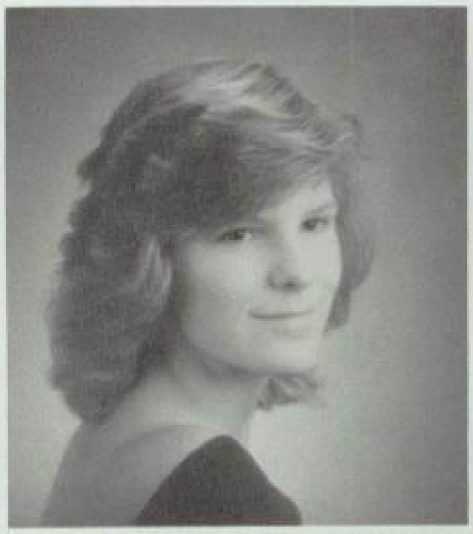
Doug Tupper

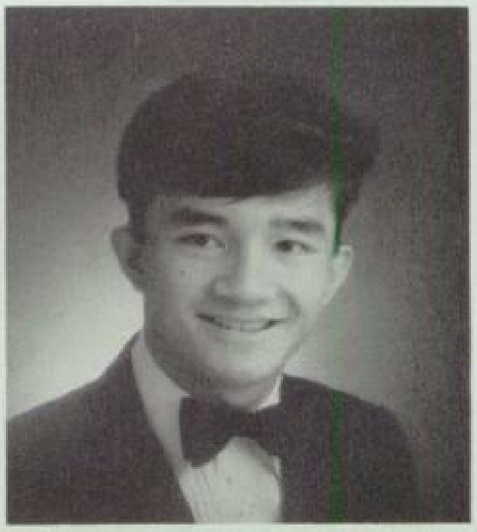
Reza Vahdat — Its been real, it's fun, but it hasn't been real fun. Hi! Mario, thanks for all the memories.

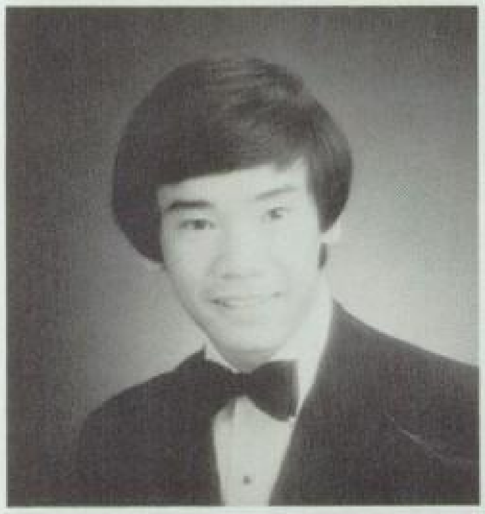
Gina Valenzuela

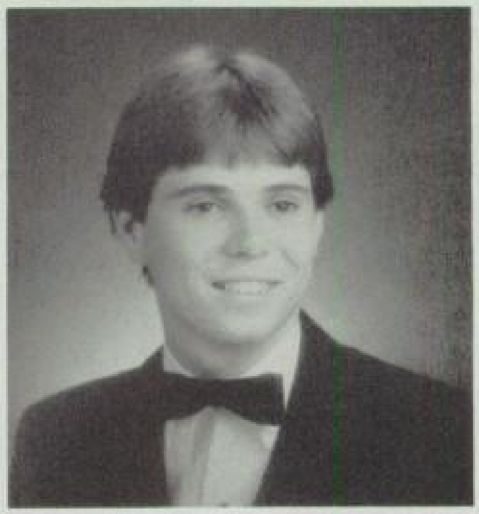
Angela Valkanoff

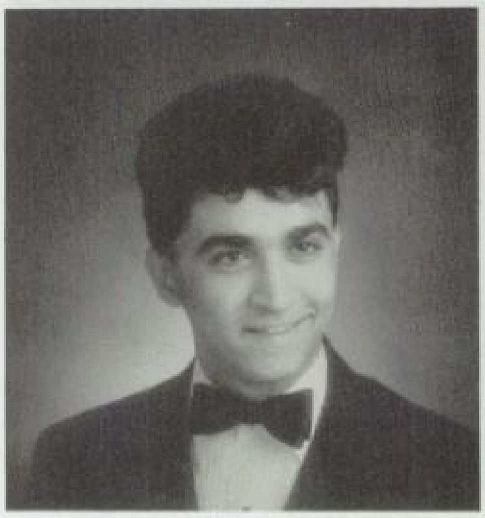


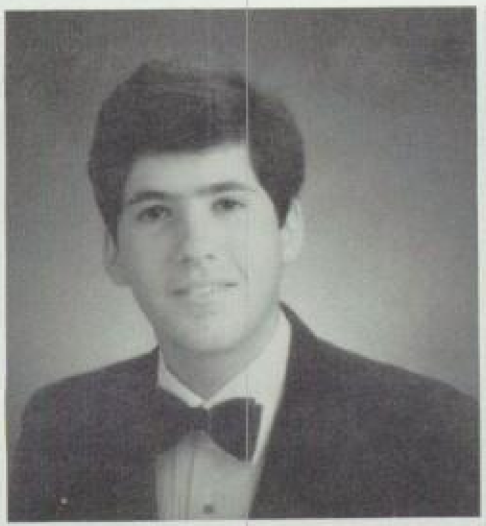


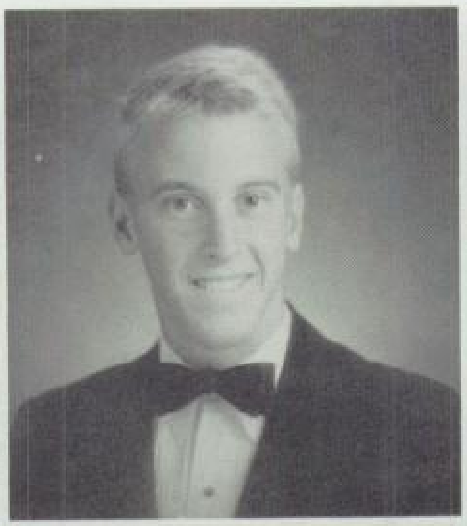


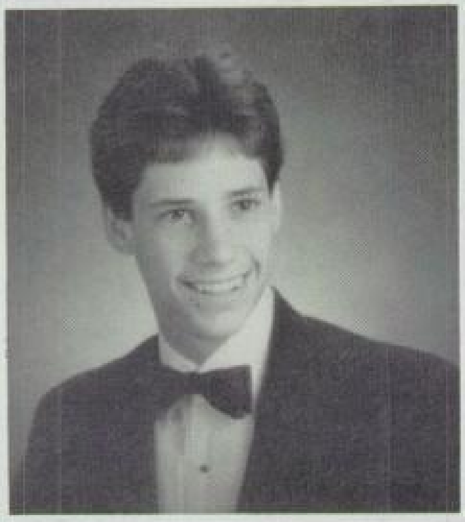


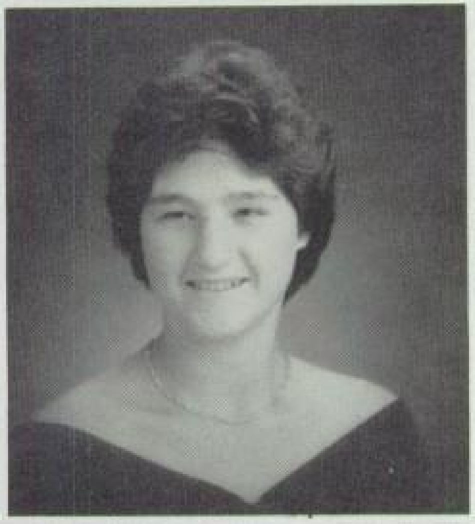


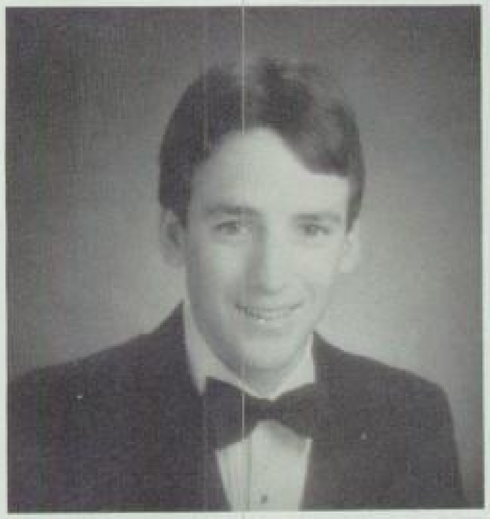


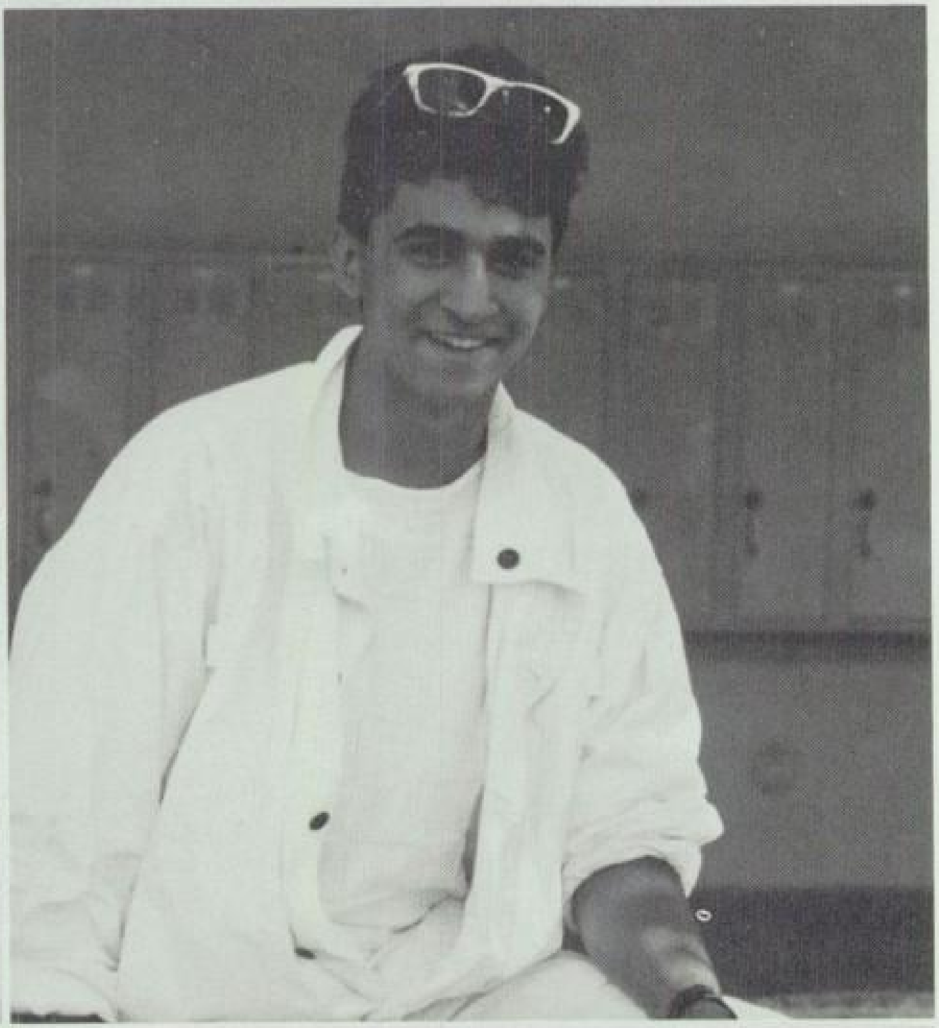


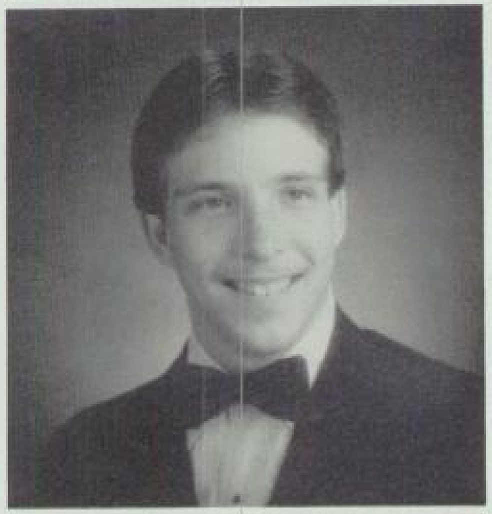


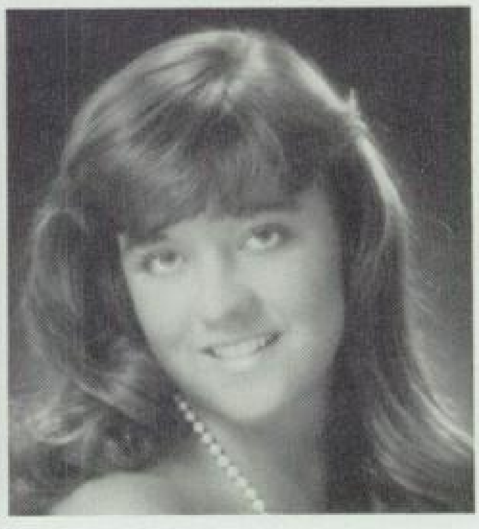












Matthew Vargas — If you can't laugh at yourself, make fun of somebody else!

Mike Varozza — JF, AF, EC, TT, the Ark is in the dock. EC-U R weak and worthless, JF-Beatles Forever, AF-Shotgun!, TT-No suit! May the bird of paradise fly up your nose while the fleas of 1000 camels infest your armpits. GO! FIGHT! WIN!

Robbyn Vegele — It's been fun and full of kicks, but now it's time to throw up our hats to 86. Thanks CD, SG, SW, HV, MS, SD, and LV. It's been great . . . ILUVU!

Laura Velasco — I asked Jesus how much he loved me . . I love you this much & opened his arms & died. Well Ryder & Hak we made it . . DUDE! Have you seen Clarence? Truck I'm sorry; thanks Mom & Dad, I love you; thanks & I'll miss you DC, KS, BF, LA, KD, JN, CL, CW, RV, CB!

Tyler Voltmer

Pamela Volz

Brad Wall — I would have rathered wrestled and lost, than have played basketball and won.

Glenn Wallace

Michele Waters — To all of my friends, thanks for the great times. Stacey, are you getting hungry? How about a cream cheese bagel, or a pizza? TL well, we've drawn our 1 line, that is enough drafting for a day! To Krys and Kathi, A.A.D^2.

Mandy Weaver — Mom Dad-you're there when I need you and even when I don't Thanks. Hon-I luv u "us" "together forever" remember? SS ET-you 2 are great! CB SK-Thanks for all the memories and our "chats" I luv u, guys-Friends Forever!

Carmen Weins — Hey dude, . . . o-matic! STRESS! That's what friends are for. Head butt and 4k. Ran out of shapes! Africa?! Fire crackers and Tahoe! Pip and M&M's. Hamburger Mary's. And always remember F.I.W.S.!

Stacey West — To my pals: Always in my heart and often on my mind. Flip! I still can't grasp the concept! Hey The Whimps Rule! VC donut run time to so get your back up off the wall. Psst PF & ES you EXCITE me! ha ha, etc Bon Voyage.

Bill White

Barbara Wilkes — Please excuse my absurd behavior; excuse my dancing on the tables. Please excuse my laughing eyes, I'm only drunk on air.

Jody Lynn Wilkinson — Hey there cutes' put on you're dancin' boots and dance with me-Mar., I'm feelin' groovy at the Punkshow-Rose, peewee says HA HA-LOVE YA GANG "SMOOCH SMOOCH" KUM BY YAH, peace signs, and paisley.

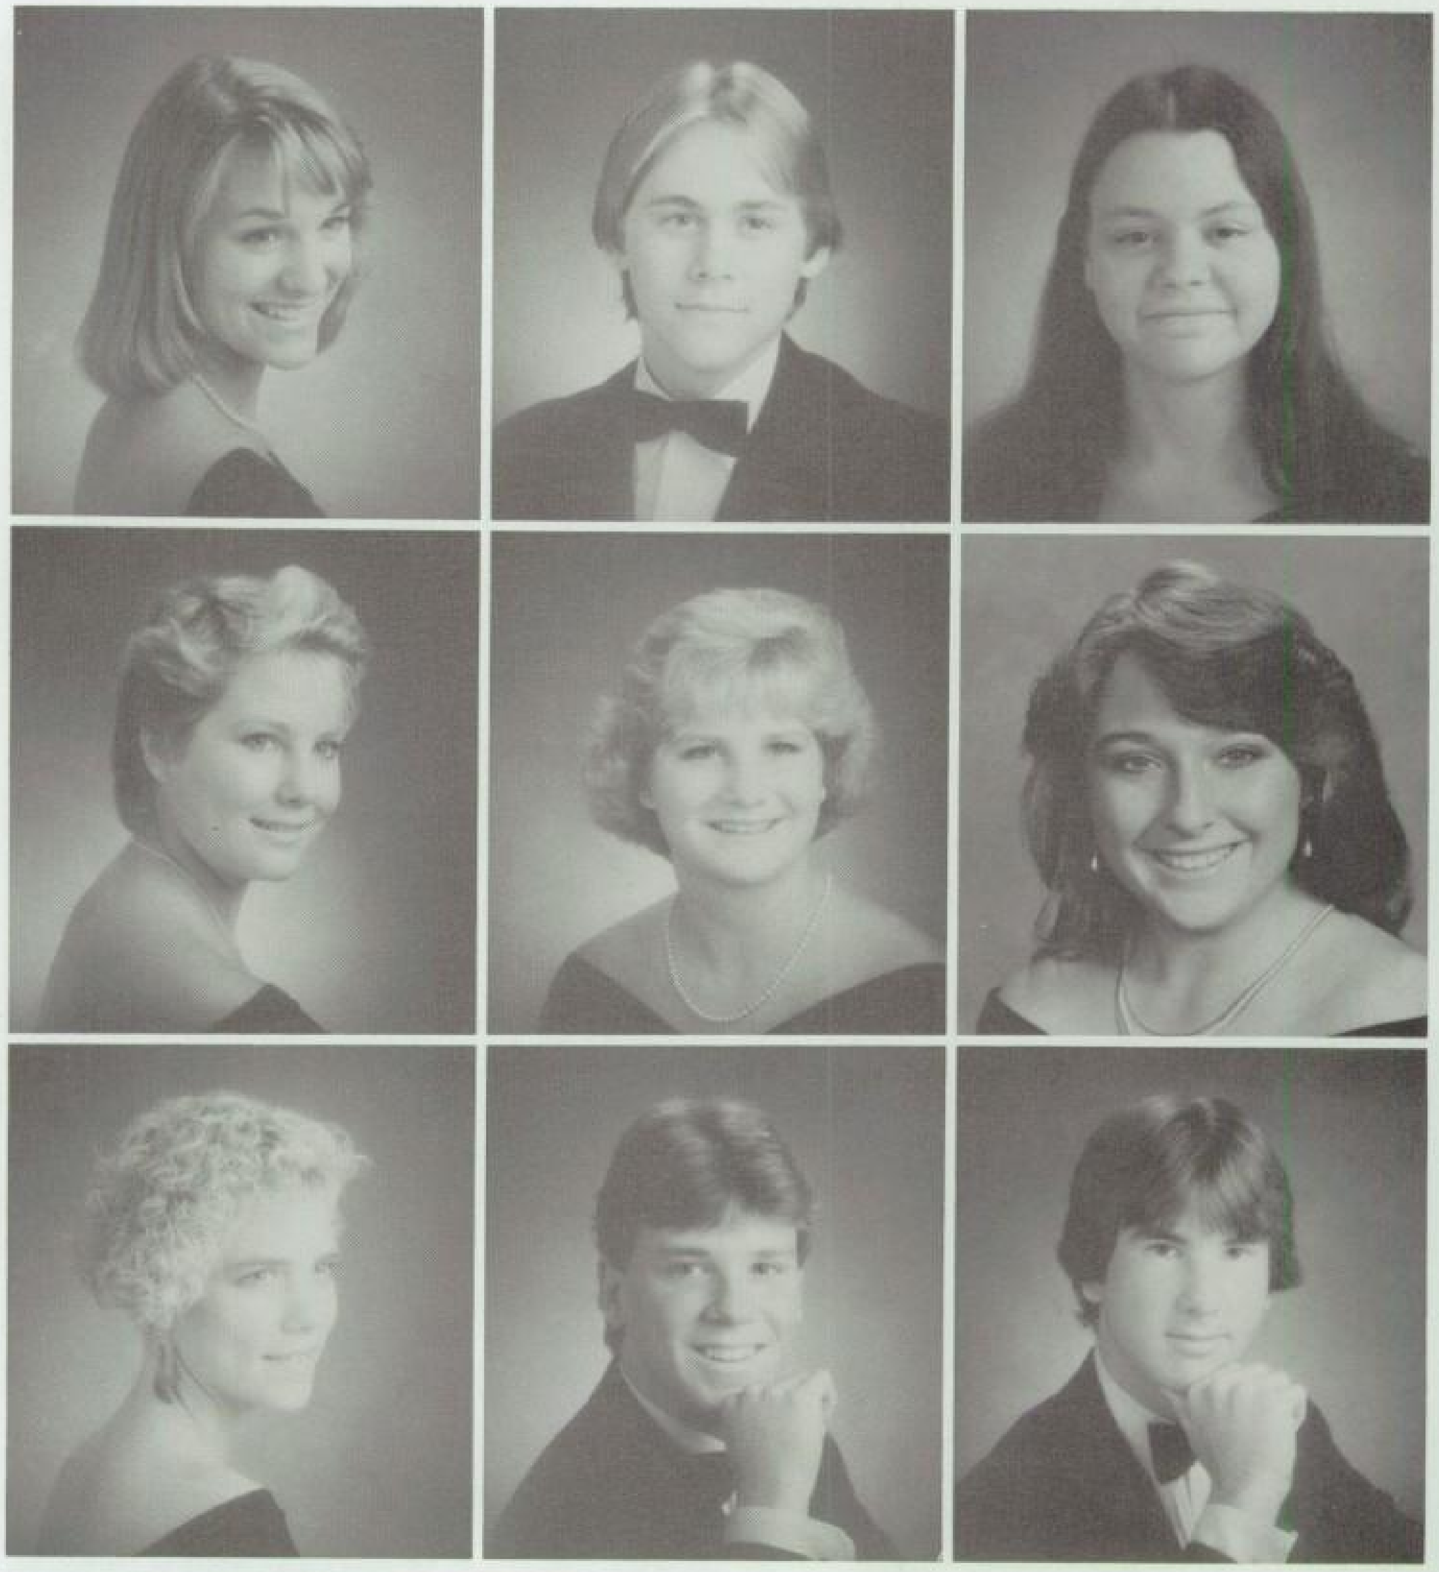
Jenny Wilkinson — Hey Gang! Know what? I love you! Jesus is the rock and he rolls my blues away! Hey Beeul! KMBL rocks! Movie Party! Not at my house! Don't sweat it babe!

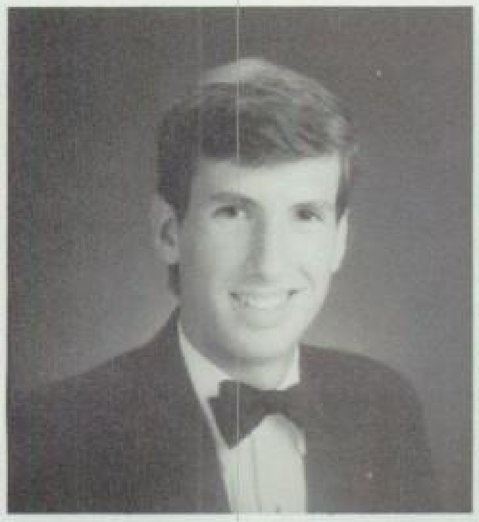
Cynthia Ann Williams — Hey Buds! Thanks 4 all the memories! Friends R Friends 4 ever as the song goes. R you listen'n guys? Moo, Baa, Wicki's & Willies; Chubby lives! 19 centuries have come and gon, & no one has affected men such as Jesus did! He's my Lord!

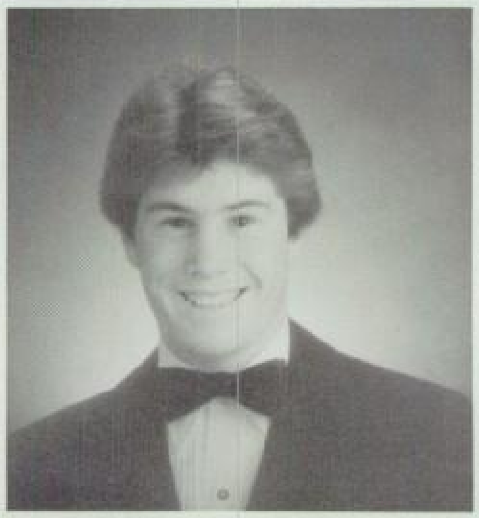
Laurel Wilson — Eggwhites Annonymous: How to take your frustrations out on inanimate proteins. Beautiful women wear high heels to keep their heads in the clouds.

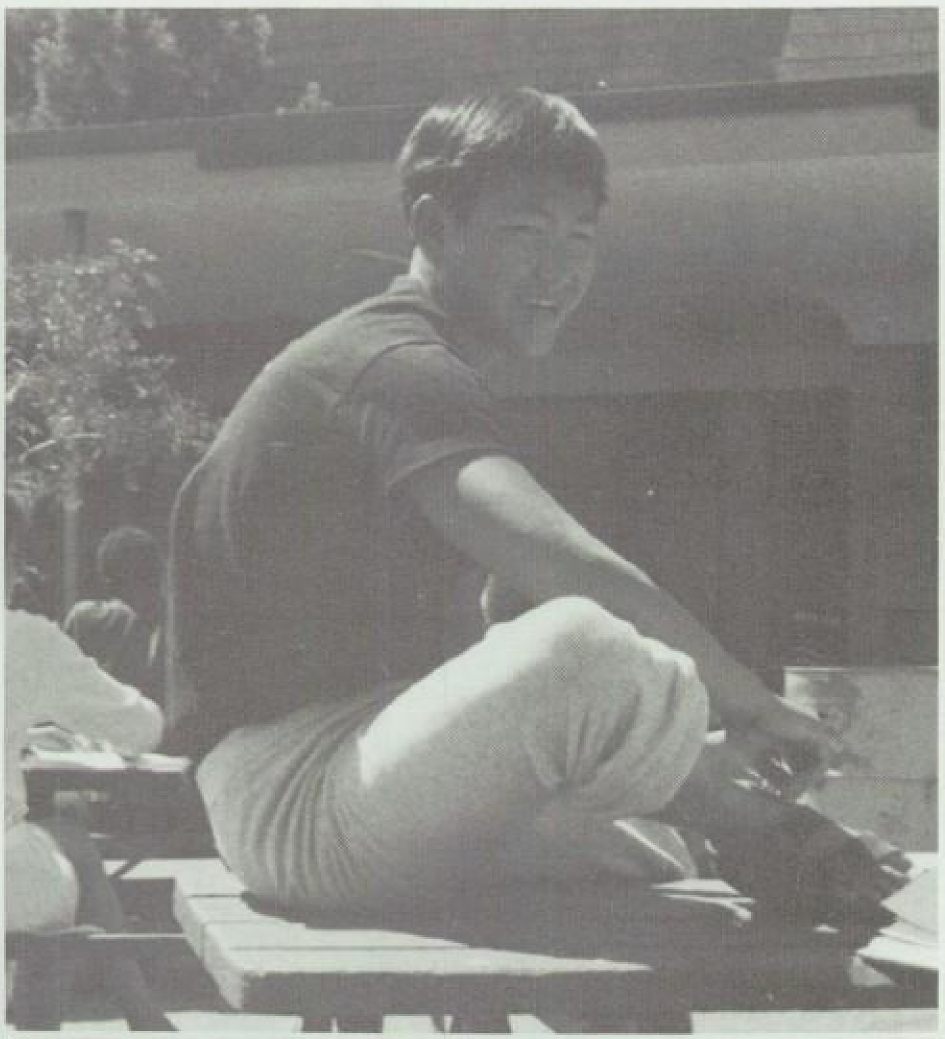
Jon-Paul Wolfe — First of all, Mom and Dad-I made it. Mr. Willson-Thanks for everything. To all my friends- We came, we saw, we partied! To Prospect-Taco Bell forever late.

Mark Woodside



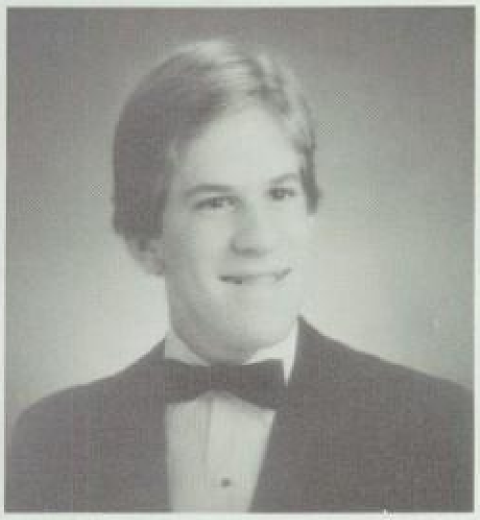






Kirk Wright

Brian C. Young — To the wrestling team, the gang and Veronica: The memories I have will last a lifetime . . . Good luck and always be happy.



Deanne Zehner

Shelly Ann Zicovich — Marcy, thanks for all the good times we have shared! I love ya!

Steve Zwinger

'86 Is The Best

86 is the best (and I'm not just saying that)! All right! All right! I know that you're going to say, "Everybody says that about their class. Everyone thinks his class is awesome . . ." Well, this year, I mean it! What makes this class special is the hundreds of individuals in it, that in their union have formed the greatest class ever! The class of '86 had the greatest magazine sale ever; exceeding their goal of 11,000! The football team was the best ever this year; we not only went to CCS but we came closer to being number 1 than we've ever been. All thanks to those tough seniors like Dean Crew, our refridgerator, Kerrel Robinson, Steve Bosco, Greg Beedy, and . . . Our class won the Spirit Week competition last year. The class of '86 was sensational in the Elections and was fantastic in New York. But, we're not just fun and games. Shana Kenyan and David Easter won the Soroptimist Club award. Linda Ha and Alan Clark took second and first place in a writing contest in all of California. Lisa Regul took first place in our district for an essay on Freedom. Laurel Wilson made it to the Junior Olympics in fencing. Our Decathalon team came in 9th this year, ahead of all the schools in our district. But that's not all! Each senior has, in one way or another, made the class of '86 at Prospect the best in history. (I don't think you want to hear each and every contribution; there are 338 or so seniors!) Finally, we did something that no other class had ever done before us We graduated from Prospect High School in 1986! So here's to '86, the best than all of the rest!

Senior Mosts

Q: What does it mean to be on these pages as a "Senior Most?"

A: It is a reflection of both our school and the individuals listed. Surely we can see how it is a reflection of the individuals. On these pages are some very remarkable people in our senior Class, such as the Most Intelligent, Most Athletic, Friendliest, etc. And certainly these people are intelligent, athletic, and friendly. But then, there are many in this class that are intelligent, athletic, and friendly. So, these "Senior Mosts" are a reflection not only of the people pictured here, but also the student body's opinion of what constitutes intelligent, athletic, and friendly.

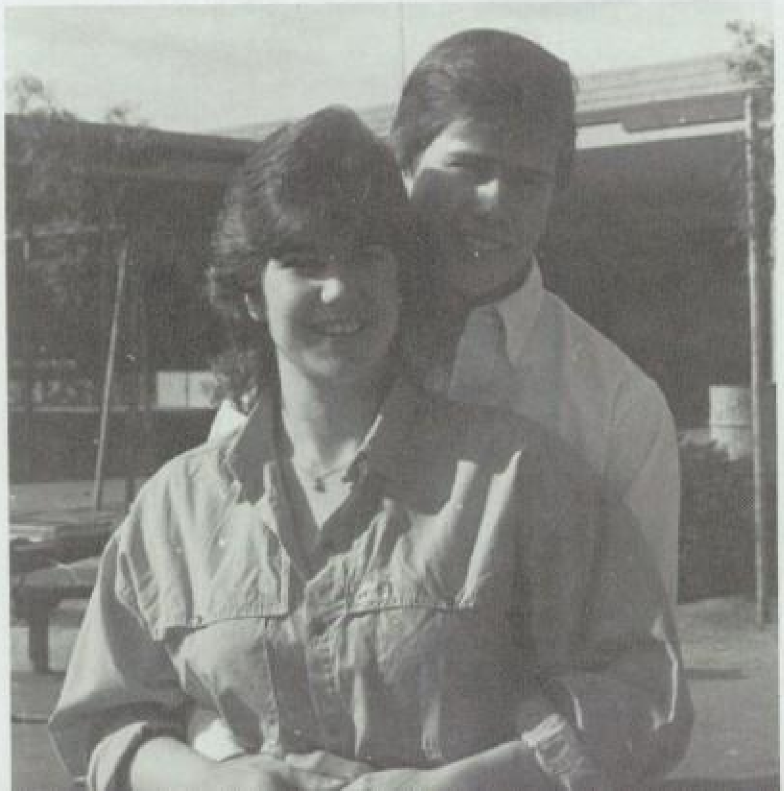
◂ Most Remembered Teachers

Mr. Couper
Mrs. Schuster

▸

Best Dressed

Kerrell Robinson
Laurel Austad



◂

Sweethearts Of '86

Richelle Pozas
Andrew Larson

Most Likely To Succeed

Jon Nakamatsu
Shana Kenyon

Most Involved

Kim D''Attilio
Rick Robbins

Most Intelligent

Linda Ha
Mike Myers

Most Talented

Alan Clark
Laurel Wilson

Best Legs

Melissa Schneider
Greg Beedy

Shyest

Jann Fratis
Frank Machado

Best Smile

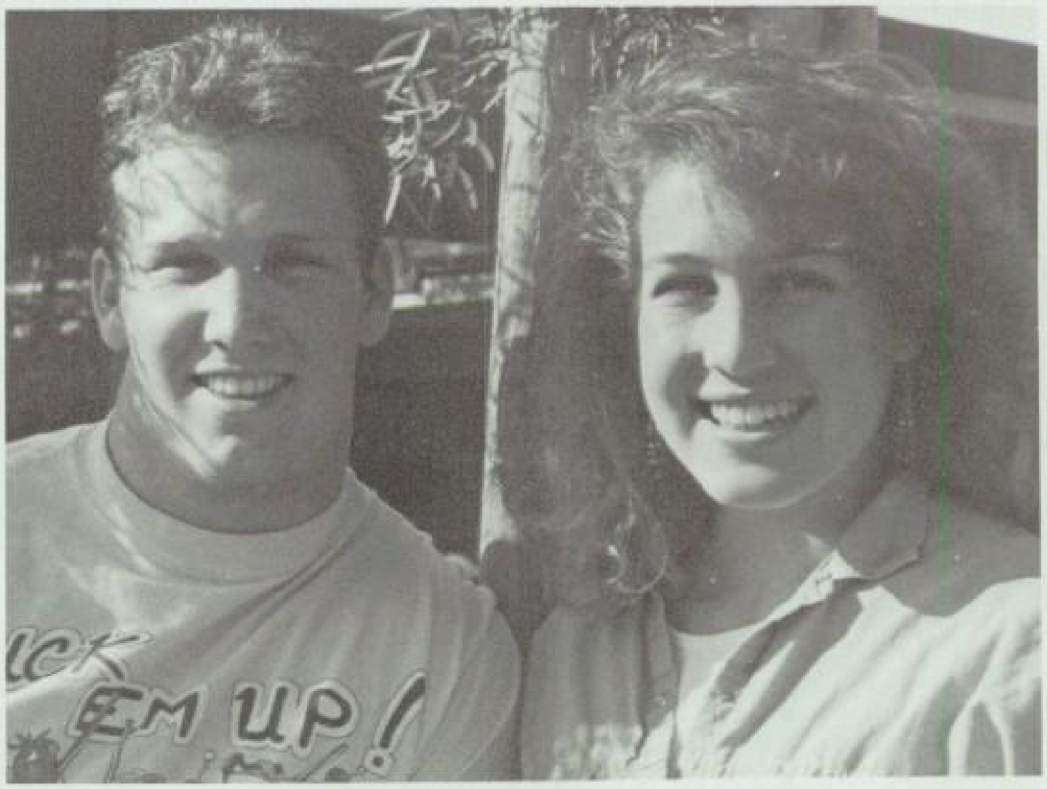
Dean Crew
Joan Crowley

Friendliest

Jenny Willkinson
Evan Suzuki

Best Eyes

Cathy Beedy
Dan Beedy



Most Spirited

Matt Morris
Mary Thomson

▶

Most Humorous

Matt Aquino
Laurie Cuenca

◀

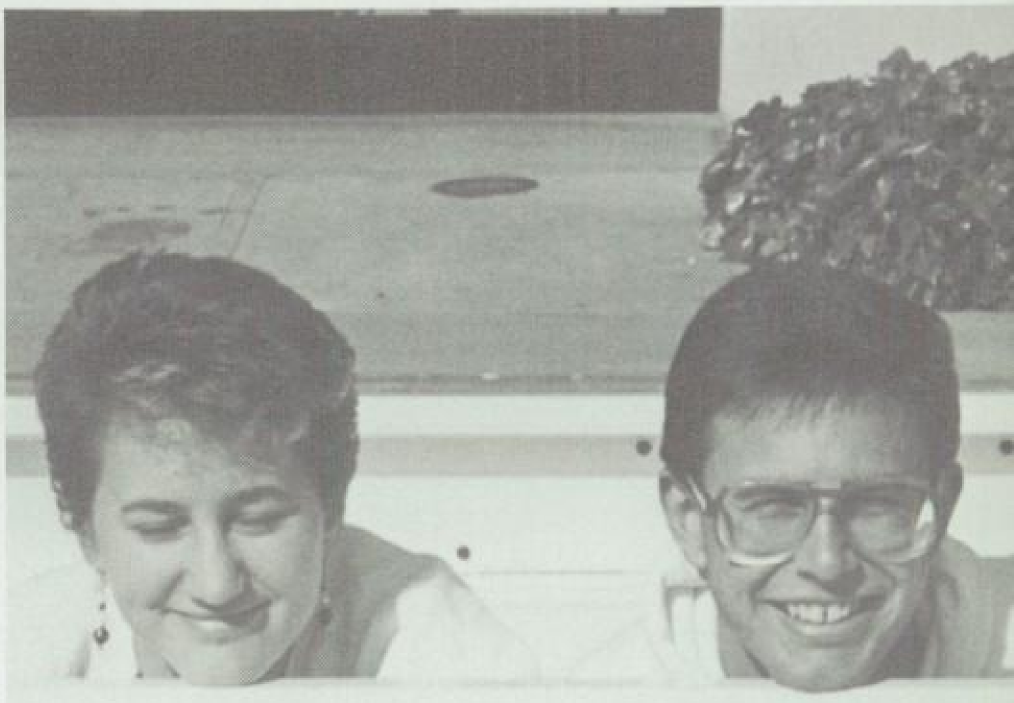
Most Afflicted With Senioritis

Shelly Zicovich
Andy McLaughlin

▶

Biggest Flirt

Kevin Robinson
Carol Callahan



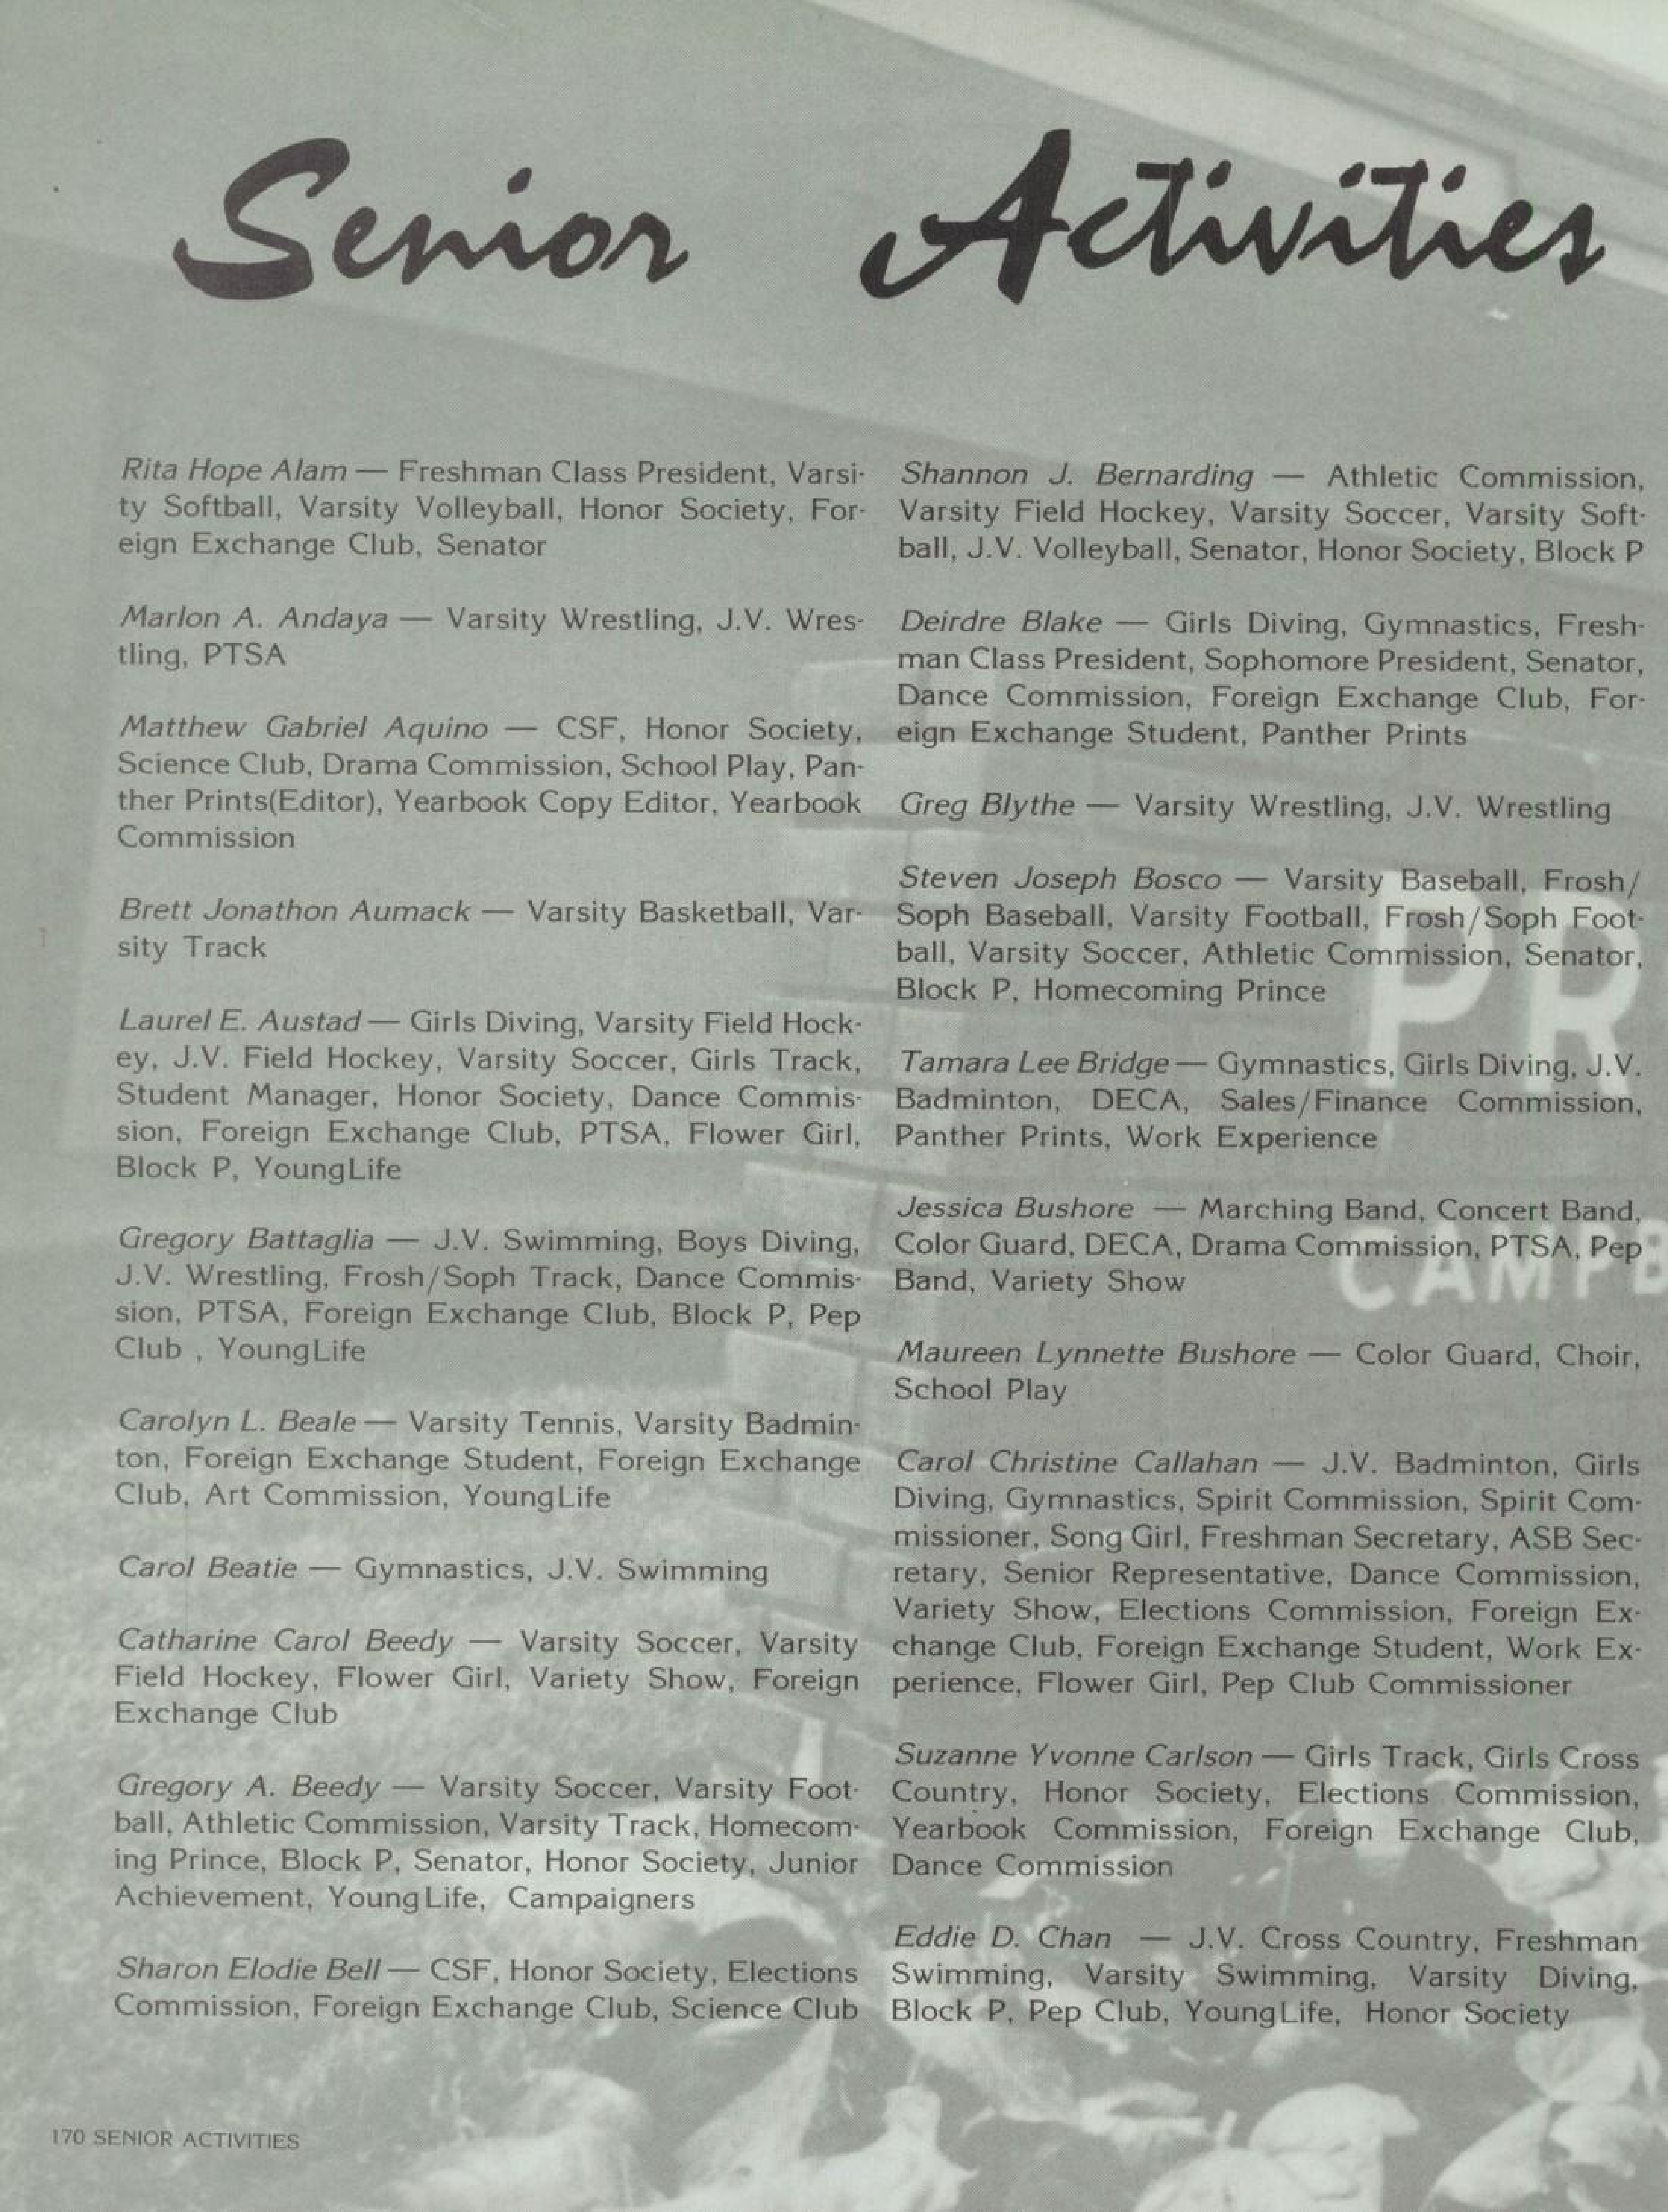
Pictures Not Available

Most Athletic

Steve Bosco
Michelle Rubendall

Most Musical

Pat Nieman
Karri Chamberlain



Senior Activities

Rita Hope Alam — Freshman Class President, Varsity Softball, Varsity Volleyball, Honor Society, Foreign Exchange Club, Senator

Marlon A. Andaya — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling, PTSA

Matthew Gabriel Aquino — CSF, Honor Society, Science Club, Drama Commission, School Play, Panther Prints(Editor), Yearbook Copy Editor, Yearbook Commission

Brett Jonathon Aumack — Varsity Basketball, Varsity Track

Laurel E. Austad — Girls Diving, Varsity Field Hockey, J.V. Field Hockey, Varsity Soccer, Girls Track, Student Manager, Honor Society, Dance Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, PTSA, Flower Girl, Block P, YoungLife

Gregory Battaglia — J.V. Swimming, Boys Diving, J.V. Wrestling, Frosh/Soph Track, Dance Commission, PTSA, Foreign Exchange Club, Block P, Pep Club , YoungLife

Carolyn L. Beale — Varsity Tennis, Varsity Badminton, Foreign Exchange Student, Foreign Exchange Club, Art Commission, YoungLife

Carol Beatie — Gymnastics, J.V. Swimming

Catharine Carol Beedy — Varsity Soccer, Varsity Field Hockey, Flower Girl, Variety Show, Foreign Exchange Club

Gregory A. Beedy — Varsity Soccer, Varsity Football, Athletic Commission, Varsity Track, Homecoming Prince, Block P, Senator, Honor Society, Junior Achievement, Young Life, Campaigners

Sharon Elodie Bell — CSF, Honor Society, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club

Shannon J. Bernarding — Athletic Commission, Varsity Field Hockey, Varsity Soccer, Varsity Softball, J.V. Volleyball, Senator, Honor Society, Block P

Deirdre Blake — Girls Diving, Gymnastics, Freshman Class President, Sophomore President, Senator, Dance Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Foreign Exchange Student, Panther Prints

Greg Blythe — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling

Steven Joseph Bosco — Varsity Baseball, Frosh/Soph Baseball, Varsity Football, Frosh/Soph Football, Varsity Soccer, Athletic Commission, Senator, Block P, Homecoming Prince

Tamara Lee Bridge — Gymnastics, Girls Diving, J.V. Badminton, DECA, Sales/Finance Commission, Panther Prints, Work Experience

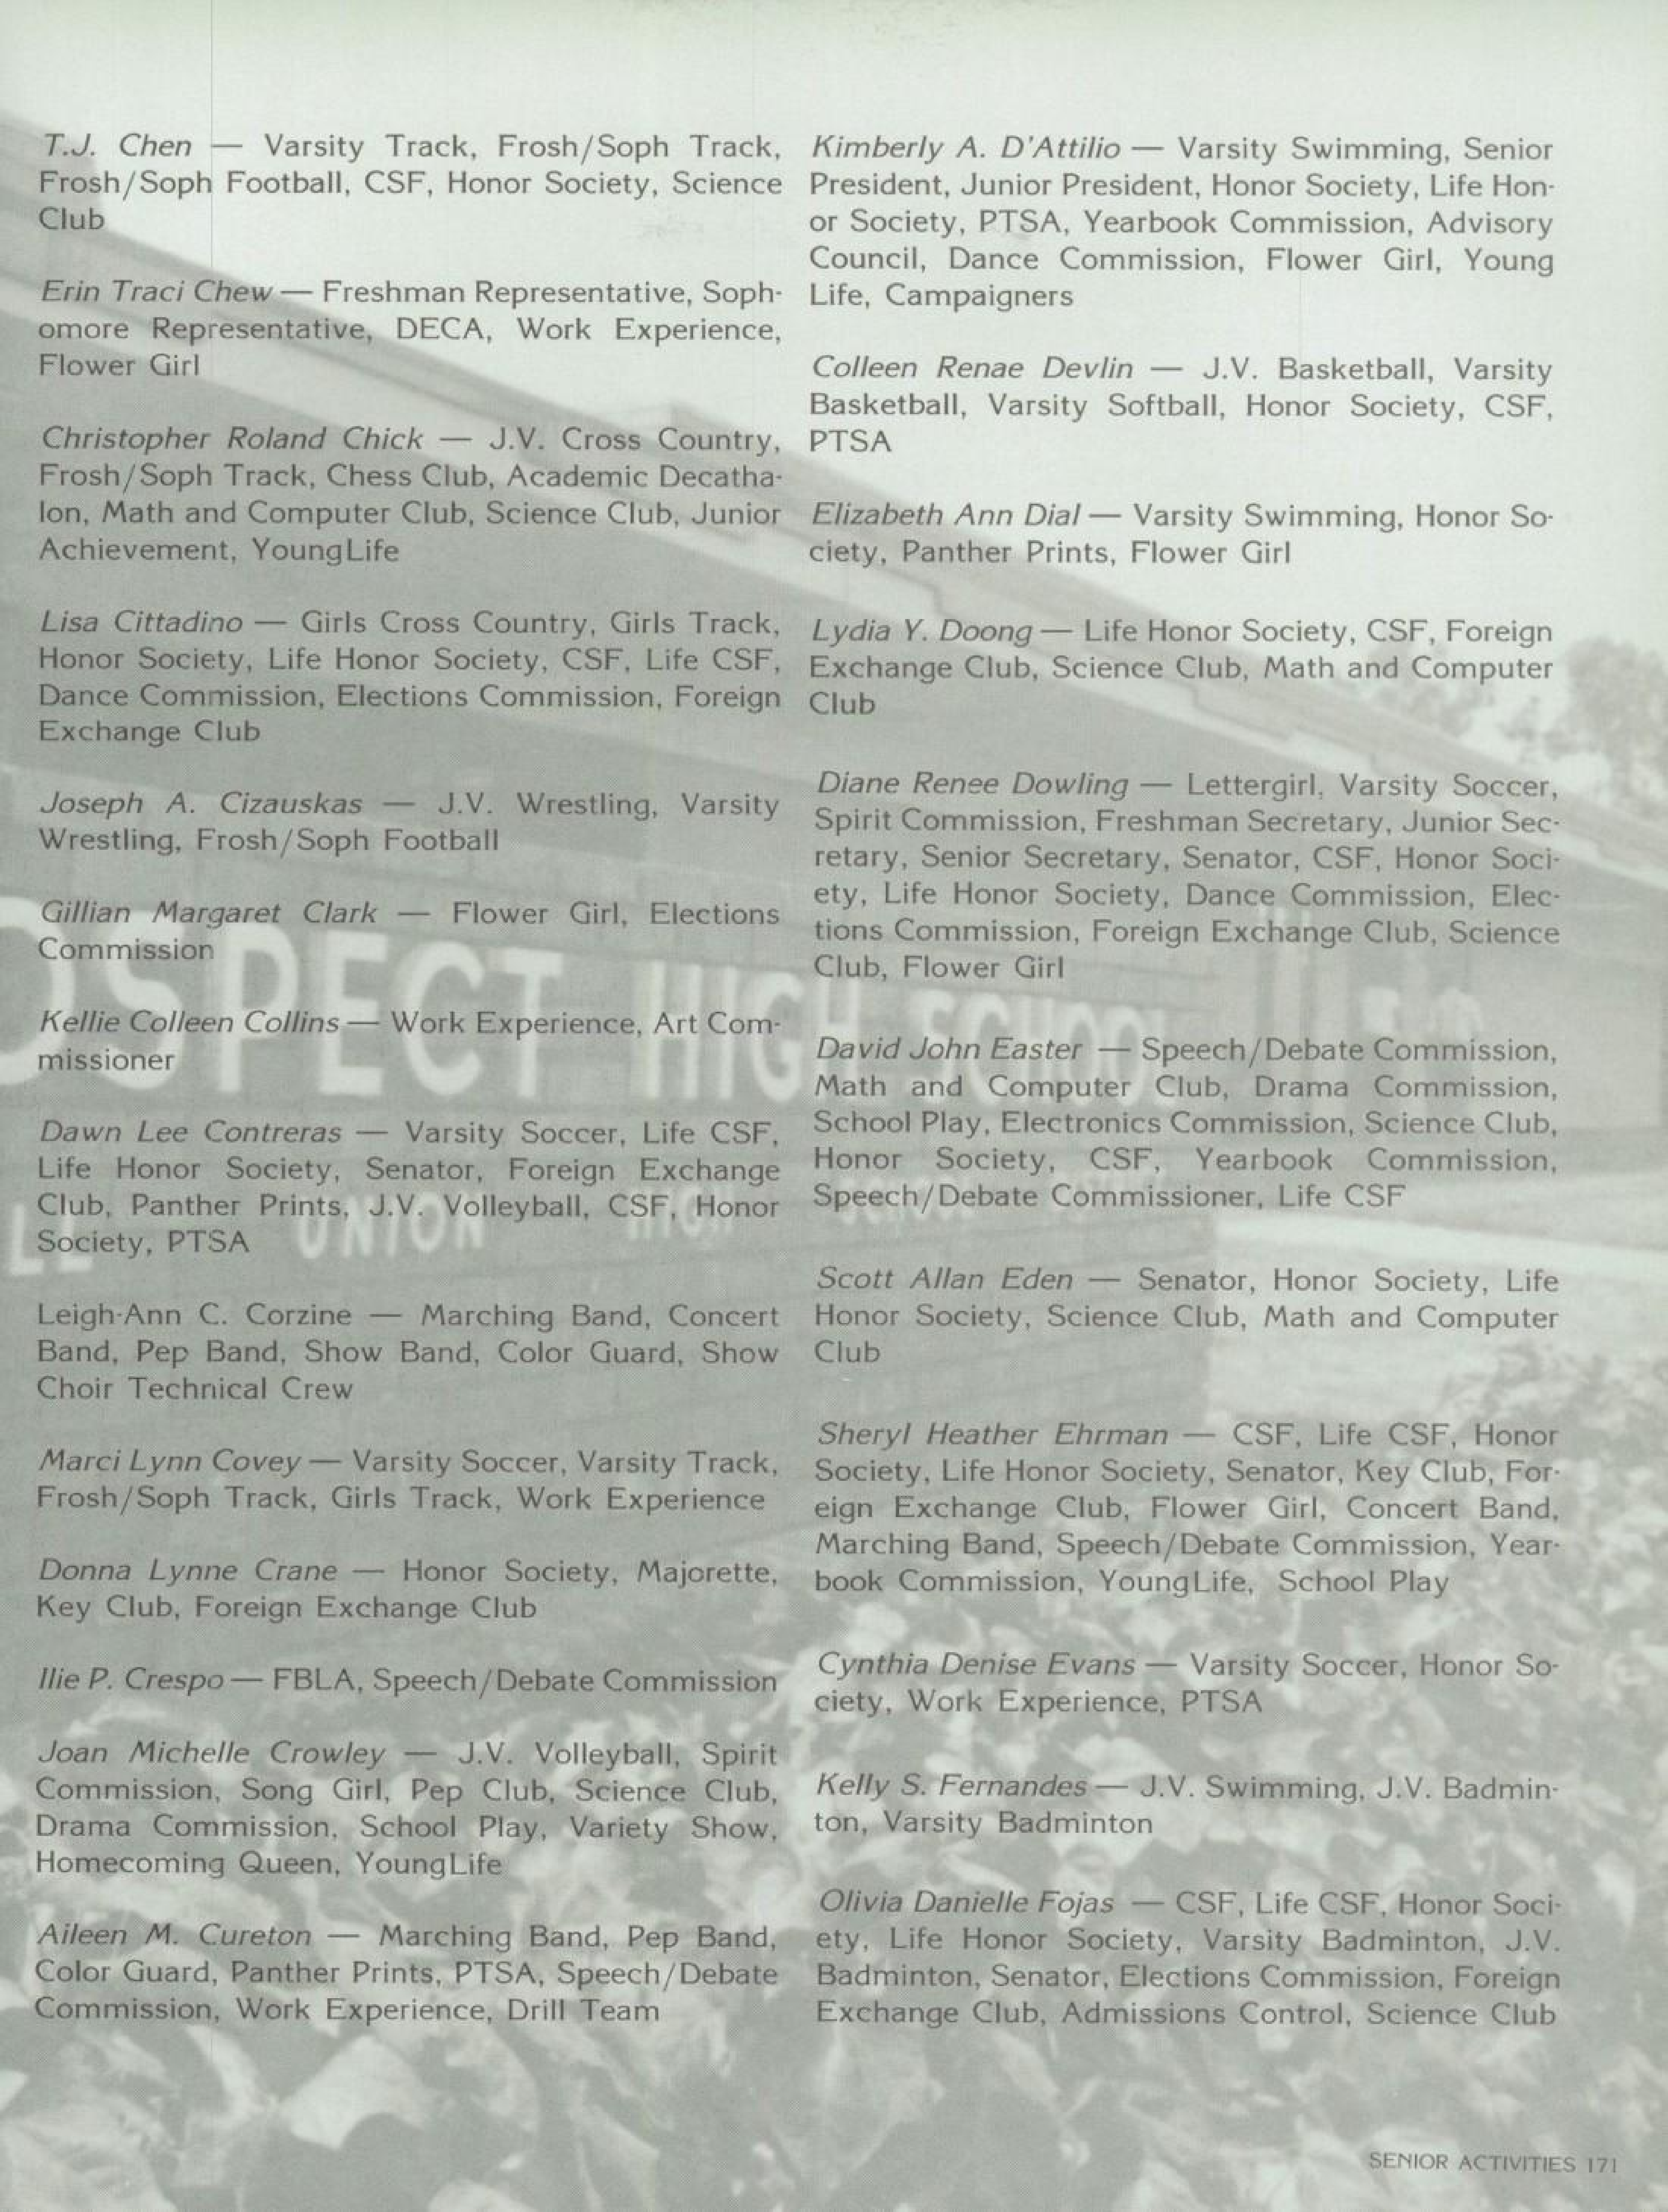
Jessica Bushore — Marching Band, Concert Band, Color Guard, DECA, Drama Commission, PTSA, Pep Band, Variety Show

Maureen Lynnette Bushore — Color Guard, Choir, School Play

Carol Christine Callahan — J.V. Badminton, Girls Diving, Gymnastics, Spirit Commission, Spirit Commissioner, Song Girl, Freshman Secretary, ASB Secretary, Senior Representative, Dance Commission, Variety Show, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Foreign Exchange Student, Work Experience, Flower Girl, Pep Club Commissioner

Suzanne Yvonne Carlson — Girls Track, Girls Cross Country, Honor Society, Elections Commission, Yearbook Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Dance Commission

Eddie D. Chan — J.V. Cross Country, Freshman Swimming, Varsity Swimming, Varsity Diving, Block P, Pep Club, YoungLife, Honor Society



T.J. Chen — Varsity Track, Frosh/Soph Track, Frosh/Soph Football, CSF, Honor Society, Science Club

Erin Traci Chew — Freshman Representative, Sophomore Representative, DECA, Work Experience, Flower Girl

Christopher Roland Chick — J.V. Cross Country, Frosh/Soph Track, Chess Club, Academic Decathalon, Math and Computer Club, Science Club, Junior Achievement, YoungLife

Lisa Cittadino — Girls Cross Country, Girls Track, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, CSF, Life CSF, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club

Joseph A. Cizauskas — J.V. Wrestling, Varsity Wrestling, Frosh/Soph Football

Gillian Margaret Clark — Flower Girl, Elections Commission

Kellie Colleen Collins — Work Experience, Art Commissioner

Dawn Lee Contreras — Varsity Soccer, Life CSF, Life Honor Society, Senator, Foreign Exchange Club, Panther Prints, J.V. Volleyball, CSF, Honor Society, PTSA

Leigh-Ann C. Corzine — Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, Show Band, Color Guard, Show Choir Technical Crew

Marci Lynn Covey — Varsity Soccer, Varsity Track, Frosh/Soph Track, Girls Track, Work Experience

Donna Lynne Crane — Honor Society, Majorette, Key Club, Foreign Exchange Club

Ilie P. Crespo — FBLA, Speech/Debate Commission

Joan Michelle Crowley — J.V. Volleyball, Spirit Commission, Song Girl, Pep Club, Science Club, Drama Commission, School Play, Variety Show, Homecoming Queen, YoungLife

Aileen M. Cureton — Marching Band, Pep Band, Color Guard, Panther Prints, PTSA, Speech/Debate Commission, Work Experience, Drill Team

Kimberly A. D'Attilio — Varsity Swimming, Senior President, Junior President, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, PTSA, Yearbook Commission, Advisory Council, Dance Commission, Flower Girl, Young Life, Campaigners

Colleen Renae Devlin — J.V. Basketball, Varsity Basketball, Varsity Softball, Honor Society, CSF, PTSA

Elizabeth Ann Dial — Varsity Swimming, Honor Society, Panther Prints, Flower Girl

Lydia Y. Doong — Life Honor Society, CSF, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club, Math and Computer Club

Diane Renee Dowling — Lettergirl, Varsity Soccer, Spirit Commission, Freshman Secretary, Junior Secretary, Senior Secretary, Senator, CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club, Flower Girl

David John Easter — Speech/Debate Commission, Math and Computer Club, Drama Commission, School Play, Electronics Commission, Science Club, Honor Society, CSF, Yearbook Commission, Speech/Debate Commissioner, Life CSF

Scott Allan Eden — Senator, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Science Club, Math and Computer Club

Sheryl Heather Ehrman — CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Senator, Key Club, Foreign Exchange Club, Flower Girl, Concert Band, Marching Band, Speech/Debate Commission, Yearbook Commission, YoungLife, School Play

Cynthia Denise Evans — Varsity Soccer, Honor Society, Work Experience, PTSA

Kelly S. Fernandes — J.V. Swimming, J.V. Badminton, Varsity Badminton

Olivia Danielle Fojas — CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Varsity Badminton, J.V. Badminton, Senator, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Admissions Control, Science Club

Andrew David Forristel — Freshman Swimming, Varsity Swimming, Pep Club, Honor Society, Senator

Sean C. Frame — CSF, Variety Show, School Play, Foreign Exchange Club, Concert Band, Marching Band, Pep Band, Senator

Jann Marie Fratis — Varsity Cross Country, Varsity Track, CSF, Honor Society, Foreign Exchange Club, Elections Commission, Dance Commission

Deborah Marie Garner — Snack Bar Manager, DECA, Marching Band, Color Guard, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club, PTSA

Tina Marlette Goodrich — CSF, Honor Society, Foreign Exchange Club

Andrew James Gow — Varsity Football, Varsity Soccer, Ski Club, Frosh/Soph Football, Senator, Honor Society

Lynnette Grant — Varsity Track, Girls Track

Linda Maiphuonglien Ha — CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, CSF Vice-President, Academic Decathalon, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Key Club, Math and Computer Club, Science Club, Yearbook Copy Editor, Flower Girl, Admissions Control, Girls Track, Girls Cross Country, J.V. Badminton, Varsity Badminton

Carla M. Harden — Honor Society, Choir, Color Guard, Drill, Short Flag Team, Flower Girl, PTSA

Melissa Hastings — Foreign Exchange Club, Speech/Debate Commission

Rosalie Ann Heckert — Art Commission, DECA, DECA Treasurer, Work Experience, Foreign Exchange Club, Elections Commission, J.V. Field Hockey

Cynthia Herriges — Marching Band, Concert Band, Foreign Exchange Club, Elections Commission, Science Club, Life CSF

Shannon Hickey — J.V. Basketball, Varsity Basketball, Varsity Swimming, Girls Track, Dance Commission, Drama Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Pep Club, Yearbook Commission, Life Honor Society, Flower Girl, Asst. Student Manager, Student Manager, Junior Representative, ASB Vice-President, ASB President

Sandra Lea Hines — DECA, DECA Vice-President, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club

Barbara R. Hyer — Foreign Exchange Club

Trevor Iida — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling, Varsity Baseball, Frosh/Soph Baseball, Senator, CSF, Honor Society

Catherine Ippoliti — Varsity Soccer, Varsity Volleyball, J.V. Volleyball

Julie Johnson — Girls Track, Girls Diving, Gymnastics, Photography Commission

Michael David Johnson — Frosh/Soph Football, Varsity Football, Frosh/Soph Track, Varsity Track, Senator

Pamela June Johnson — Honor Society, Senator, Flower Girl, YoungLife

David Kaplan — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling, ASB Treasurer, Senior Representative, Junior Representative, Freshman Representative, Sophomore President, Block P, Advisory Council

Shana Lynne Kenyon — Yearbook Senior Editor, Yearbook Junior Editor, Yearbook Commissioner, Yearbook Commission, Life CSF, CSF, Life Honor Society, Honor Society, YoungLife, Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, Elections Commission, Dance Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, PTSA

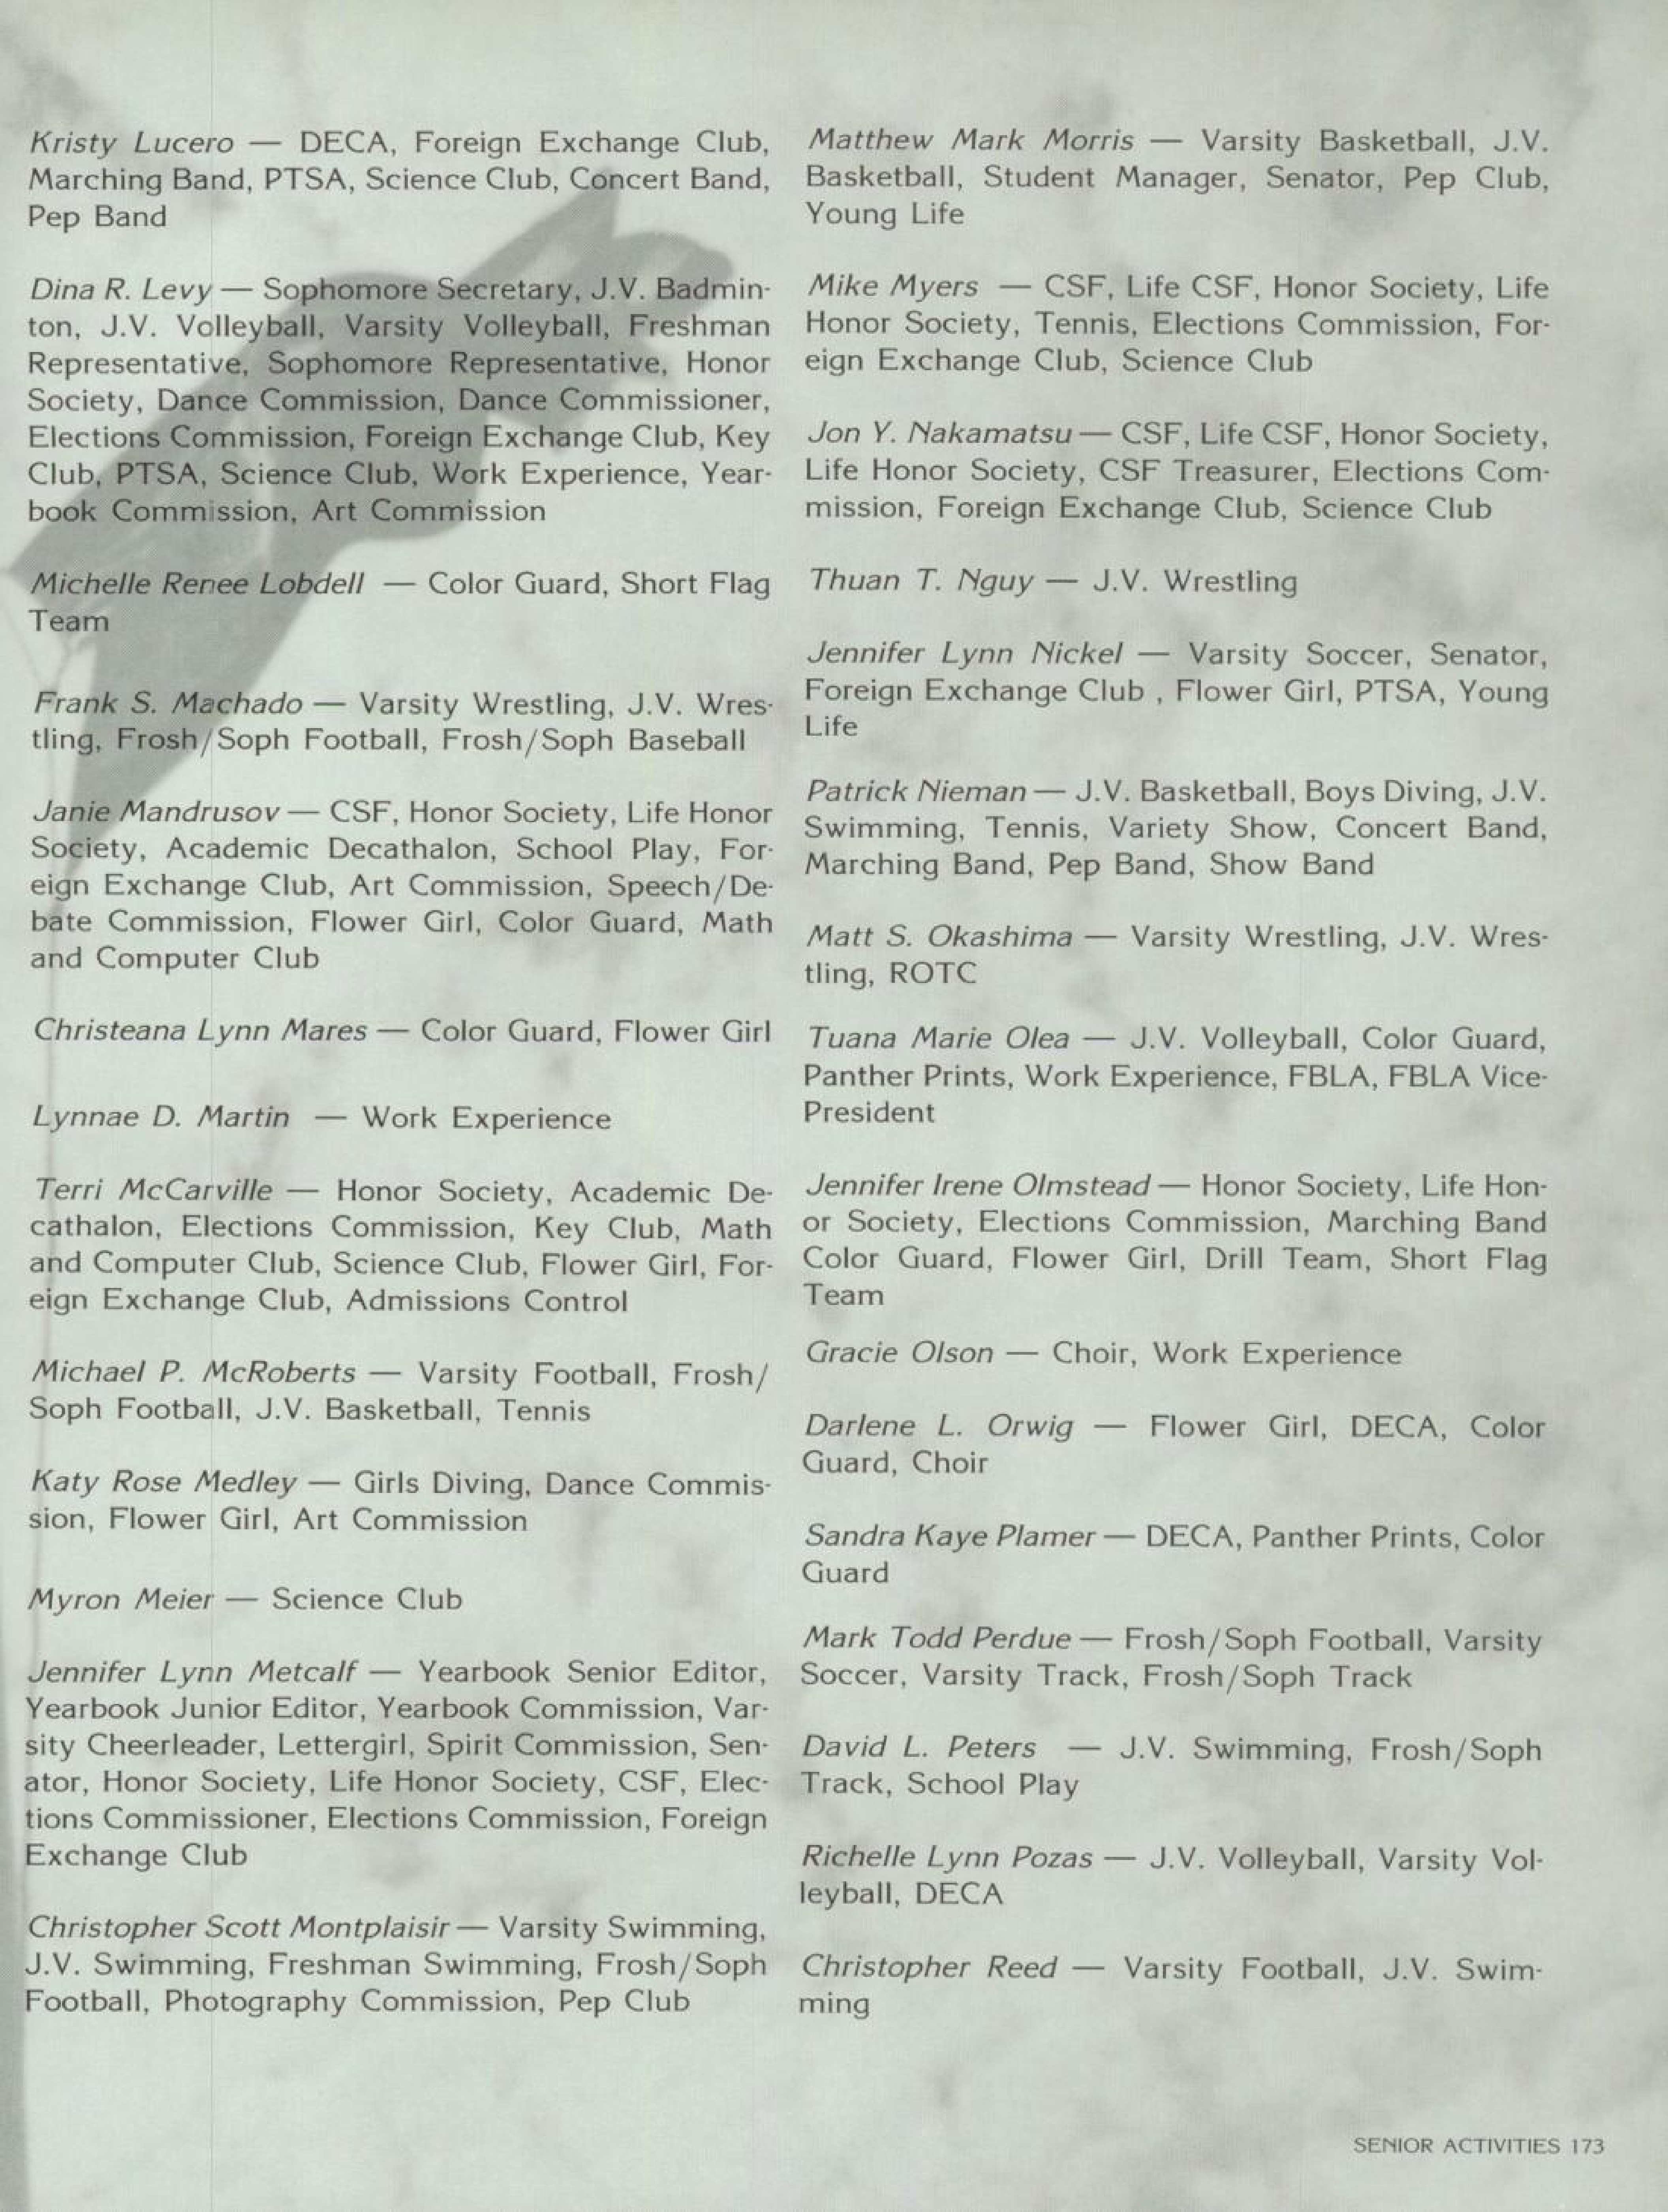
Christopher Kirk Kim Jr. — Varsity Track, Frosh/Soph Track, Honor Society, Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, YoungLife, Campaingners

Mike Kim — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling

David John Krsulic — Varsity Football, Varsity Basketball, J.V. Basketball, Frosh/Soph Baseball

Neil A. Lieb — Math and Computer Club, Science Club

Gordon Arnold Little Jr. — Varsity Track, Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling



Kristy Lucero — DECA, Foreign Exchange Club, Marching Band, PTSA, Science Club, Concert Band, Pep Band

Dina R. Levy — Sophomore Secretary, J.V. Badminton, J.V. Volleyball, Varsity Volleyball, Freshman Representative, Sophomore Representative, Honor Society, Dance Commission, Dance Commissioner, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Key Club, PTSA, Science Club, Work Experience, Yearbook Commission, Art Commission

Michelle Renee Lobdell — Color Guard, Short Flag Team

Frank S. Machado — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling, Frosh/Soph Football, Frosh/Soph Baseball

Janie Mandrusov — CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Academic Decathalon, School Play, Foreign Exchange Club, Art Commission, Speech/Debate Commission, Flower Girl, Color Guard, Math and Computer Club

Christeana Lynn Mares — Color Guard, Flower Girl

Lynnae D. Martin — Work Experience

Terri McCarville — Honor Society, Academic Decathalon, Elections Commission, Key Club, Math and Computer Club, Science Club, Flower Girl, Foreign Exchange Club, Admissions Control

Michael P. McRoberts — Varsity Football, Frosh/Soph Football, J.V. Basketball, Tennis

Katy Rose Medley — Girls Diving, Dance Commission, Flower Girl, Art Commission

Myron Meier — Science Club

Jennifer Lynn Metcalf — Yearbook Senior Editor, Yearbook Junior Editor, Yearbook Commission, Varsity Cheerleader, Lettergirl, Spirit Commission, Senator, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, CSF, Elections Commissioner, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club

Christopher Scott Montplaisir — Varsity Swimming, J.V. Swimming, Freshman Swimming, Frosh/Soph Football, Photography Commission, Pep Club

Matthew Mark Morris — Varsity Basketball, J.V. Basketball, Student Manager, Senator, Pep Club, Young Life

Mike Myers — CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Tennis, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club

Jon Y. Nakamatsu — CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, CSF Treasurer, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Science Club

Thuan T. Nguy — J.V. Wrestling

Jennifer Lynn Nickel — Varsity Soccer, Senator, Foreign Exchange Club , Flower Girl, PTSA, Young Life

Patrick Nieman — J.V. Basketball, Boys Diving, J.V. Swimming, Tennis, Variety Show, Concert Band, Marching Band, Pep Band, Show Band

Matt S. Okashima — Varsity Wrestling, J.V. Wrestling, ROTC

Tuana Marie Olea — J.V. Volleyball, Color Guard, Panther Prints, Work Experience, FBLA, FBLA Vice-President

Jennifer Irene Olmstead — Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Elections Commission, Marching Band Color Guard, Flower Girl, Drill Team, Short Flag Team

Gracie Olson — Choir, Work Experience

Darlene L. Orwig — Flower Girl, DECA, Color Guard, Choir

Sandra Kaye Plamer — DECA, Panther Prints, Color Guard

Mark Todd Perdue — Frosh/Soph Football, Varsity Soccer, Varsity Track, Frosh/Soph Track

David L. Peters — J.V. Swimming, Frosh/Soph Track, School Play

Richelle Lynn Pozas — J.V. Volleyball, Varsity Volleyball, DECA

Christopher Reed — Varsity Football, J.V. Swimming

Lisa Regul — Honor Society, Marching Band, Concert Band, Girls Cross Country, Girls Track, Junior Achievement, Yearbook Commission

Diane Marie Rhinehart — Honor Society, CSF, Admission Control, Junior Achievement, Girls Track

John Paul Richardson — DECA, DECA President

Lorrie Robbins — Senior Representative, ASB Secretary, Senator, Spirit Commission, Lettergirl, Honor Society, Foreign Exchange Club, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Science Club, Girls Track, Girls Diving, YoungLife, Flower Girl

Richard W. Robbins — ASB President, ASB Vice-President, Senior Representative, Sophomore Representative, Freshman Representative, Senator, Life CSF, Life Honor Society, Elections Commission, Speech/Debate Commission, PTSA

Robin Ann Roberts — Varsity Swimming, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Homecoming Princess, Senator

Michelle Marie Rubendall — Varsity Soccer, Varsity Softball, Varsity Field Hockey, Block P, Honor Society, Life Honor Society

Gary M. Ruberstein — Marching Band, Concert Band

Mark Allen Ruppert — Varsity Swimming, J.V. Swimming, Frosh/Soph Football, Frosh/Soph Track, Block P

Melissa Schneider — Girls Track, Spirit Commission, Lettergirl, Freshman Treasurer, Sophomore Secretary, Sophomore Treasurer, Junior Treasurer, Senior Treasurer, Senator, CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Flower Girl, Homecoming Princess, YoungLife

Monique Marie Serrano — Honor Society, Varsity Soccer, Varsity Softball, Varsity Volleyball, J.V. Volleyball

Karyn Elaine Shiver — Honor Society, Varsity Field Hockey, J.V. Field Hockey, Pep Club, Photography Commission, Panther Prints(co-editor)

Timothy James Slaughterbeck — Photography Commissioner, Varsity Football, J.V. Basketball, J.V. Swimming, Freshman Swimming, Photography Commission

Jeffrey Small — Varsity Swimming, J.V. Swimming, Freshman Swimming, Freshman Class President, ASB Treasurer, Assistant Student Manager, Freshman Representative, Sophomore Representative, Junior Representative, Senator CSF, Honor Society, Dance Commission, Speech/Debate Commission, Young Life

Laurie Ann Staunton — Gymnastics, Spirit Commission, Spirit Commissioner, Varsity Cheerleader, J.V. Cheerleader, Senator, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Photography Commission, Yearbook Commission, Flower Girl

Alan James Stevens — Varsity Baseball, Varsity Football, J.V. Swimming, Freshman Swimming, Photography Commission

Nieves Straaberg — Song Girl, Varsity Soccer, Spirit Commissioner, J.V. Volleyball, Freshman Class Vice-President, Senator, CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, PTSA, Spirit Commission

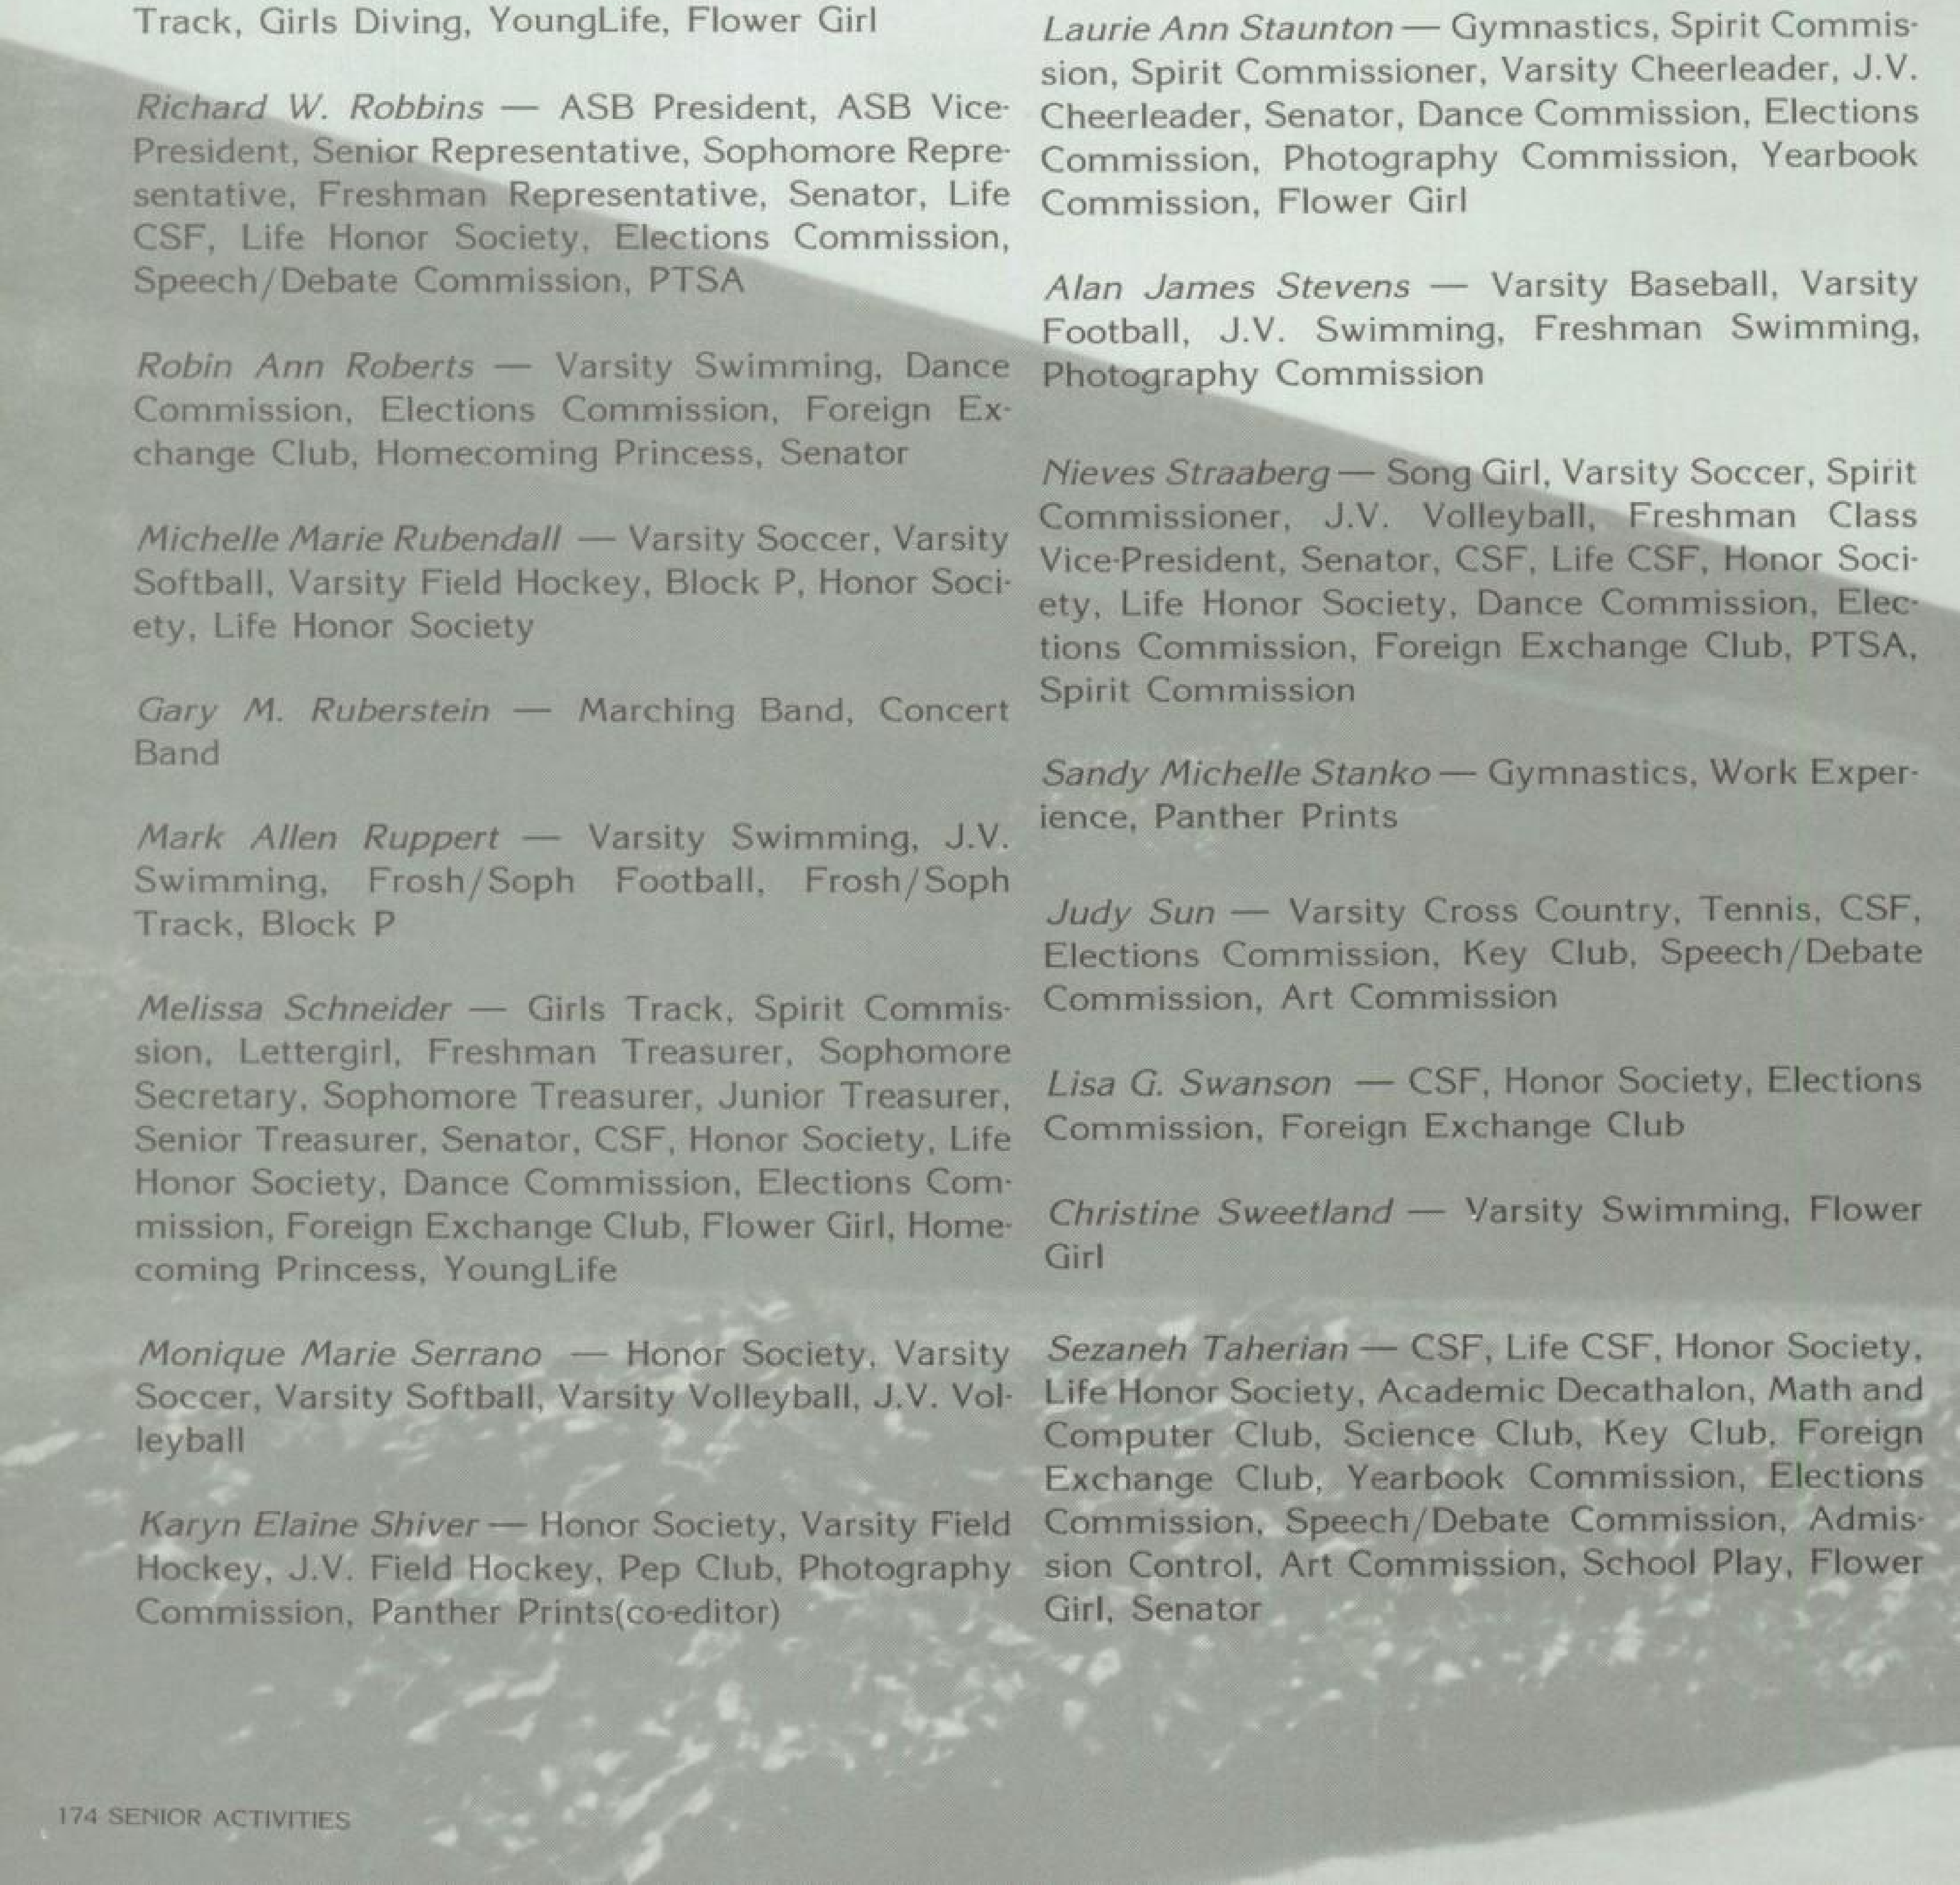
Sandy Michelle Stanko — Gymnastics, Work Experience, Panther Prints

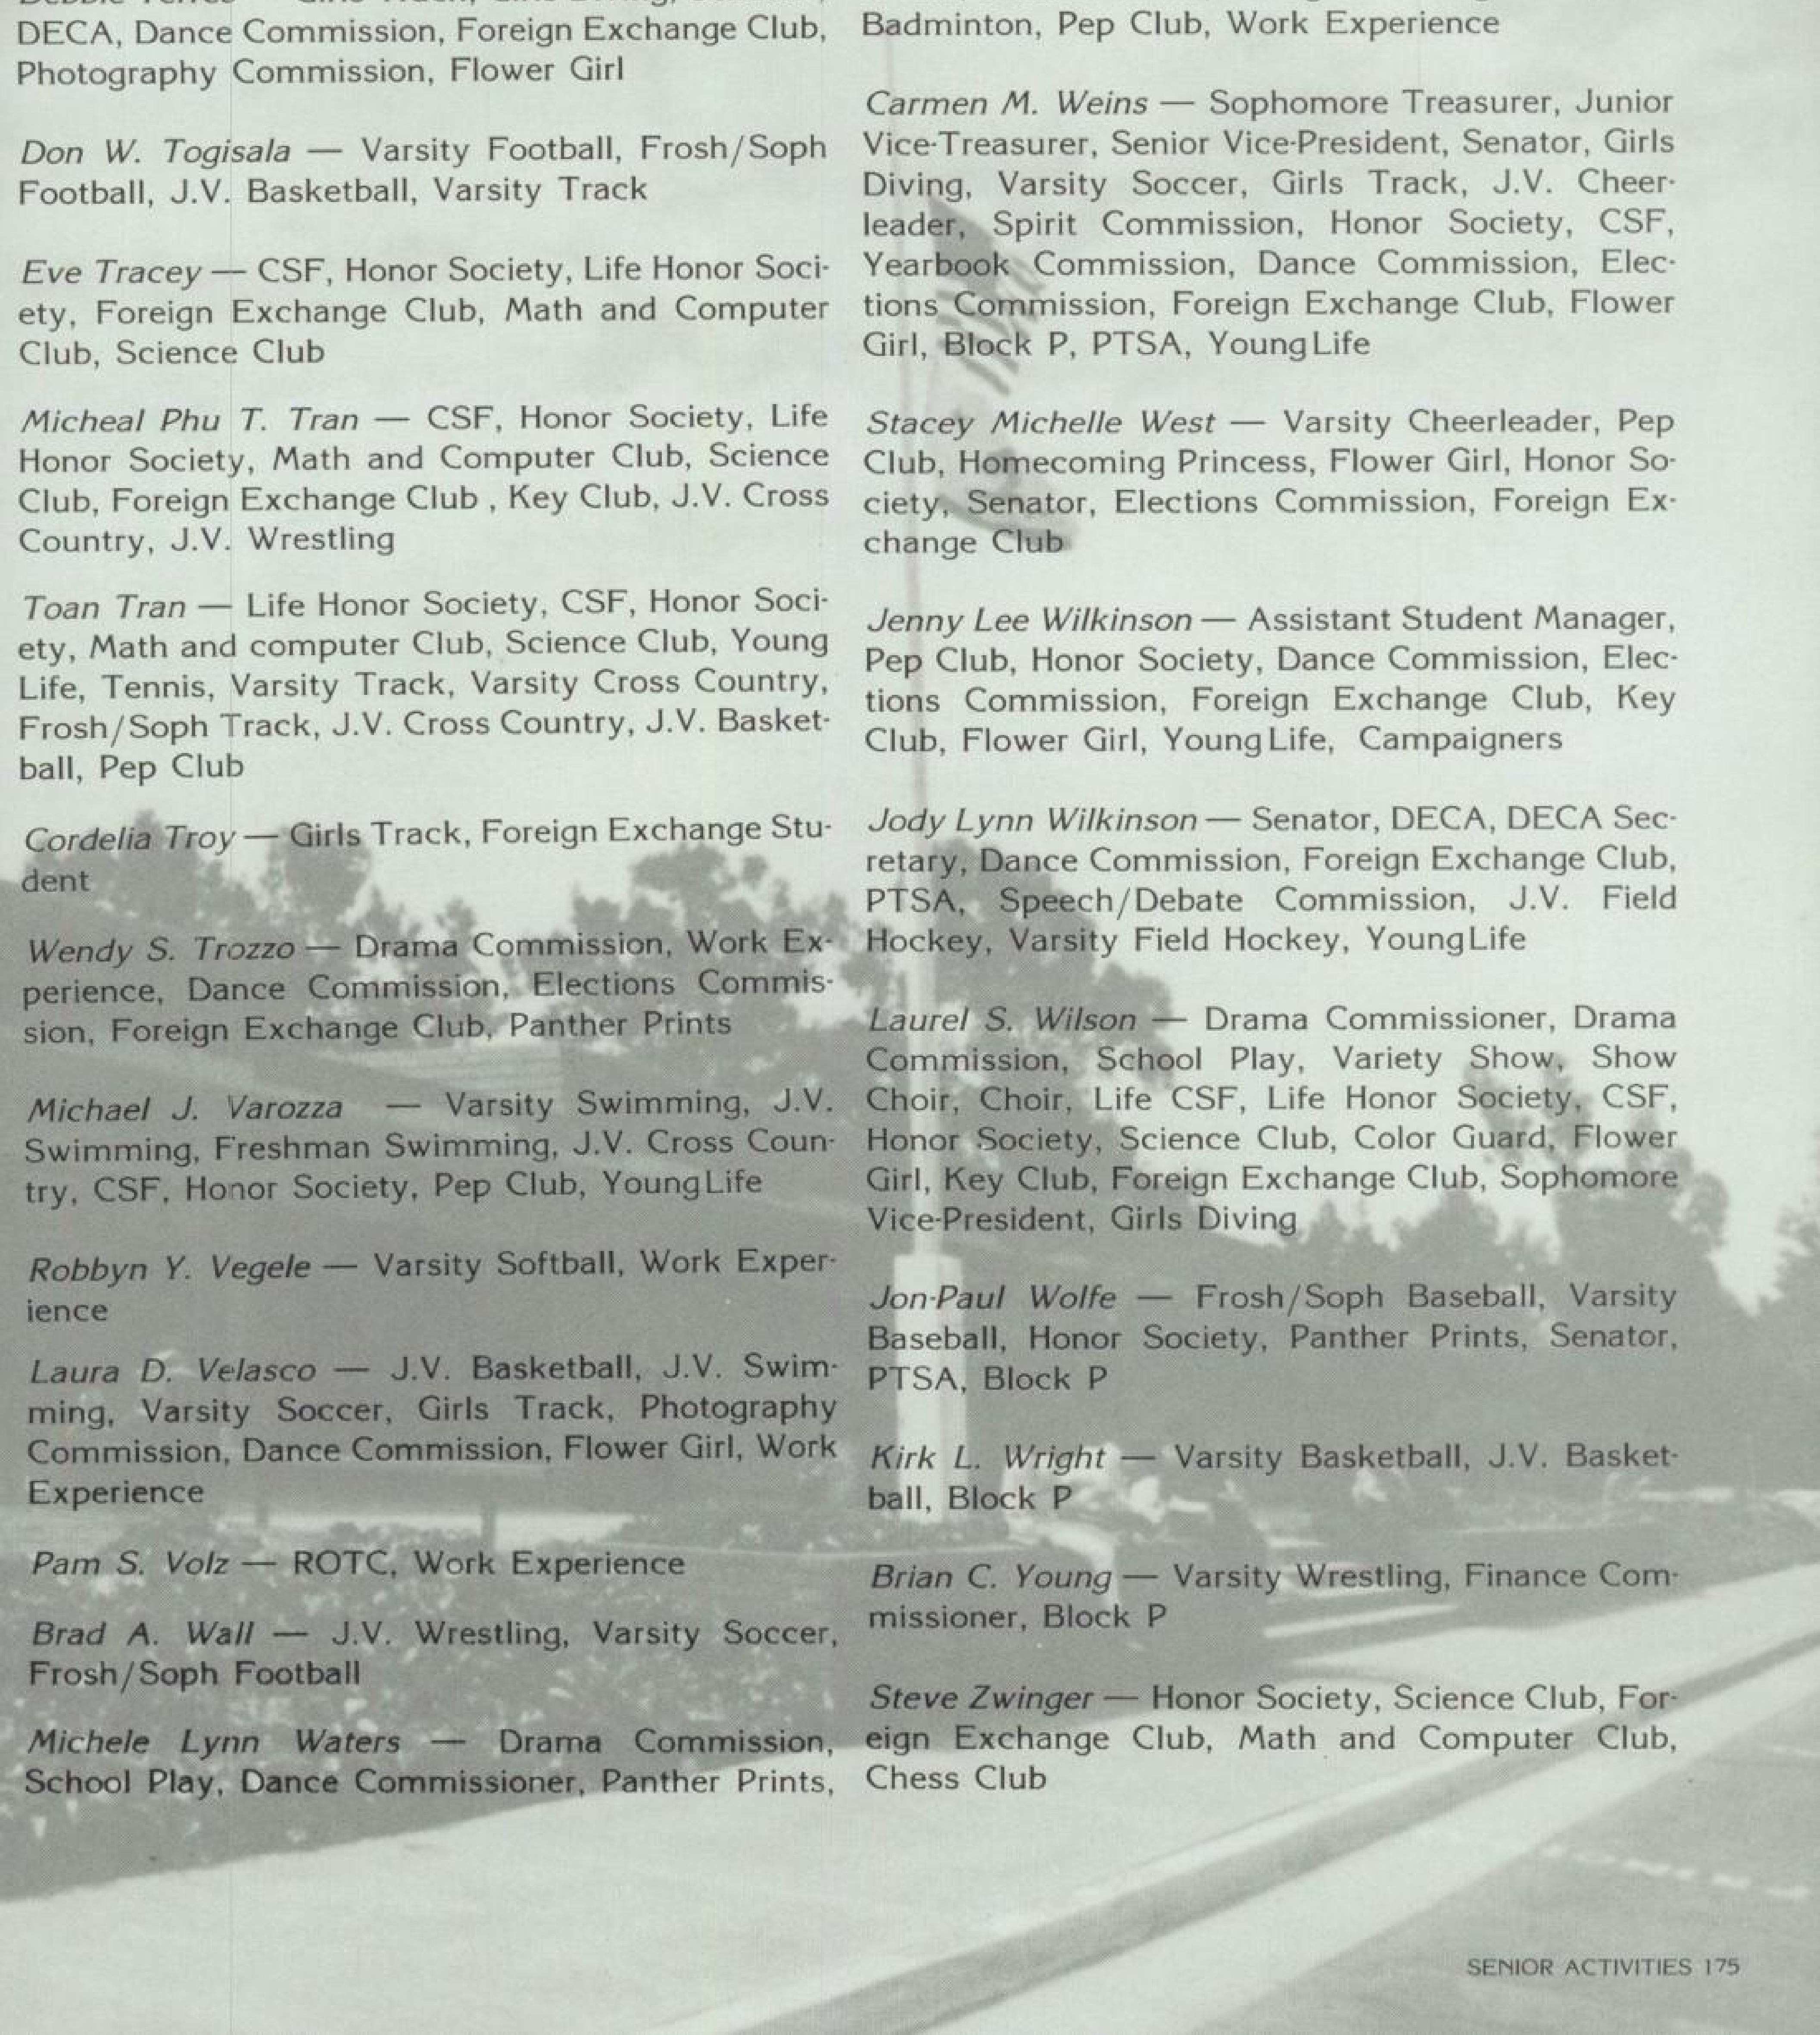
Judy Sun — Varsity Cross Country, Tennis, CSF, Elections Commission, Key Club, Speech/Debate Commission, Art Commission

Lisa G. Swanson — CSF, Honor Society, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club

Christine Sweetland — Varsity Swimming, Flower Girl

Sezaneh Taherian — CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Academic Decathalon, Math and Computer Club, Science Club, Key Club, Foreign Exchange Club, Yearbook Commission, Elections Commission, Speech/Debate Commission, Admission Control, Art Commission, School Play, Flower Girl, Senator





Marian Evans Talbot — Girls Diving, Varsity Badminton , Assistant Student Manager, CSF, Life CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Dance Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Key Club

Debbie Terres — Girls Track, Girls Diving, Senator , DECA, Dance Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Photography Commission, Flower Girl

Don W. Togisala — Varsity Football, Frosh/Soph Football, J.V. Basketball, Varsity Track

Eve Tracey — CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Foreign Exchange Club, Math and Computer Club, Science Club

Micheal Phu T. Tran — CSF, Honor Society, Life Honor Society, Math and Computer Club, Science Club, Foreign Exchange Club , Key Club, J.V. Cross Country, J.V. Wrestling

Toan Tran — Life Honor Society, CSF, Honor Society, Math and computer Club, Science Club, Young Life, Tennis, Varsity Track, Varsity Cross Country, Frosh/Soph Track, J.V. Cross Country, J.V. Basketball, Pep Club

Cordelia Troy — Girls Track, Foreign Exchange Student

Wendy S. Trozzo — Drama Commission, Work Experience, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Panther Prints

Michael J. Varozza — Varsity Swimming, J.V. Swimming, Freshman Swimming, J.V. Cross Country, CSF, Honor Society, Pep Club, YoungLife

Robbyn Y. Vegele — Varsity Softball, Work Experience

Laura D. Velasco — J.V. Basketball, J.V. Swimming, Varsity Soccer, Girls Track, Photography Commission, Dance Commission, Flower Girl, Work Experience

Pam S. Volz — ROTC, Work Experience

Brad A. Wall — J.V. Wrestling, Varsity Soccer, Frosh/Soph Football

Michele Lynn Waters — Drama Commission, School Play, Dance Commissioner, Panther Prints, FBLA, Varsity Soccer, Student Manager, Spirit Commission, Variety Show, Elections Commission, Art Commission, Work Experience, Dance Commission

Miranda E. Weaver — Homecoming Princess, Flower Girl, Panther Prints, Foreign Exchange Club, J.V. Badminton, Pep Club, Work Experience

Carmen M. Weins — Sophomore Treasurer, Junior Vice-Treasurer, Senior Vice-President, Senator, Girls Diving, Varsity Soccer, Girls Track, J.V. Cheerleader, Spirit Commission, Honor Society, CSF, Yearbook Commission, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Flower Girl, Block P, PTSA, YoungLife

Stacey Michelle West — Varsity Cheerleader, Pep Club, Homecoming Princess, Flower Girl, Honor Society, Senator, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club

Jenny Lee Wilkinson — Assistant Student Manager, Pep Club, Honor Society, Dance Commission, Elections Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, Key Club, Flower Girl, YoungLife, Campaigners

Jody Lynn Wilkinson — Senator, DECA, DECA Secretary, Dance Commission, Foreign Exchange Club, PTSA, Speech/Debate Commission, J.V. Field Hockey, Varsity Field Hockey, YoungLife

Laurel S. Wilson — Drama Commissioner, Drama Commission, School Play, Variety Show, Show Choir, Choir, Life CSF, Life Honor Society, CSF, Honor Society, Science Club, Color Guard, Flower Girl, Key Club, Foreign Exchange Club, Sophomore Vice-President, Girls Diving

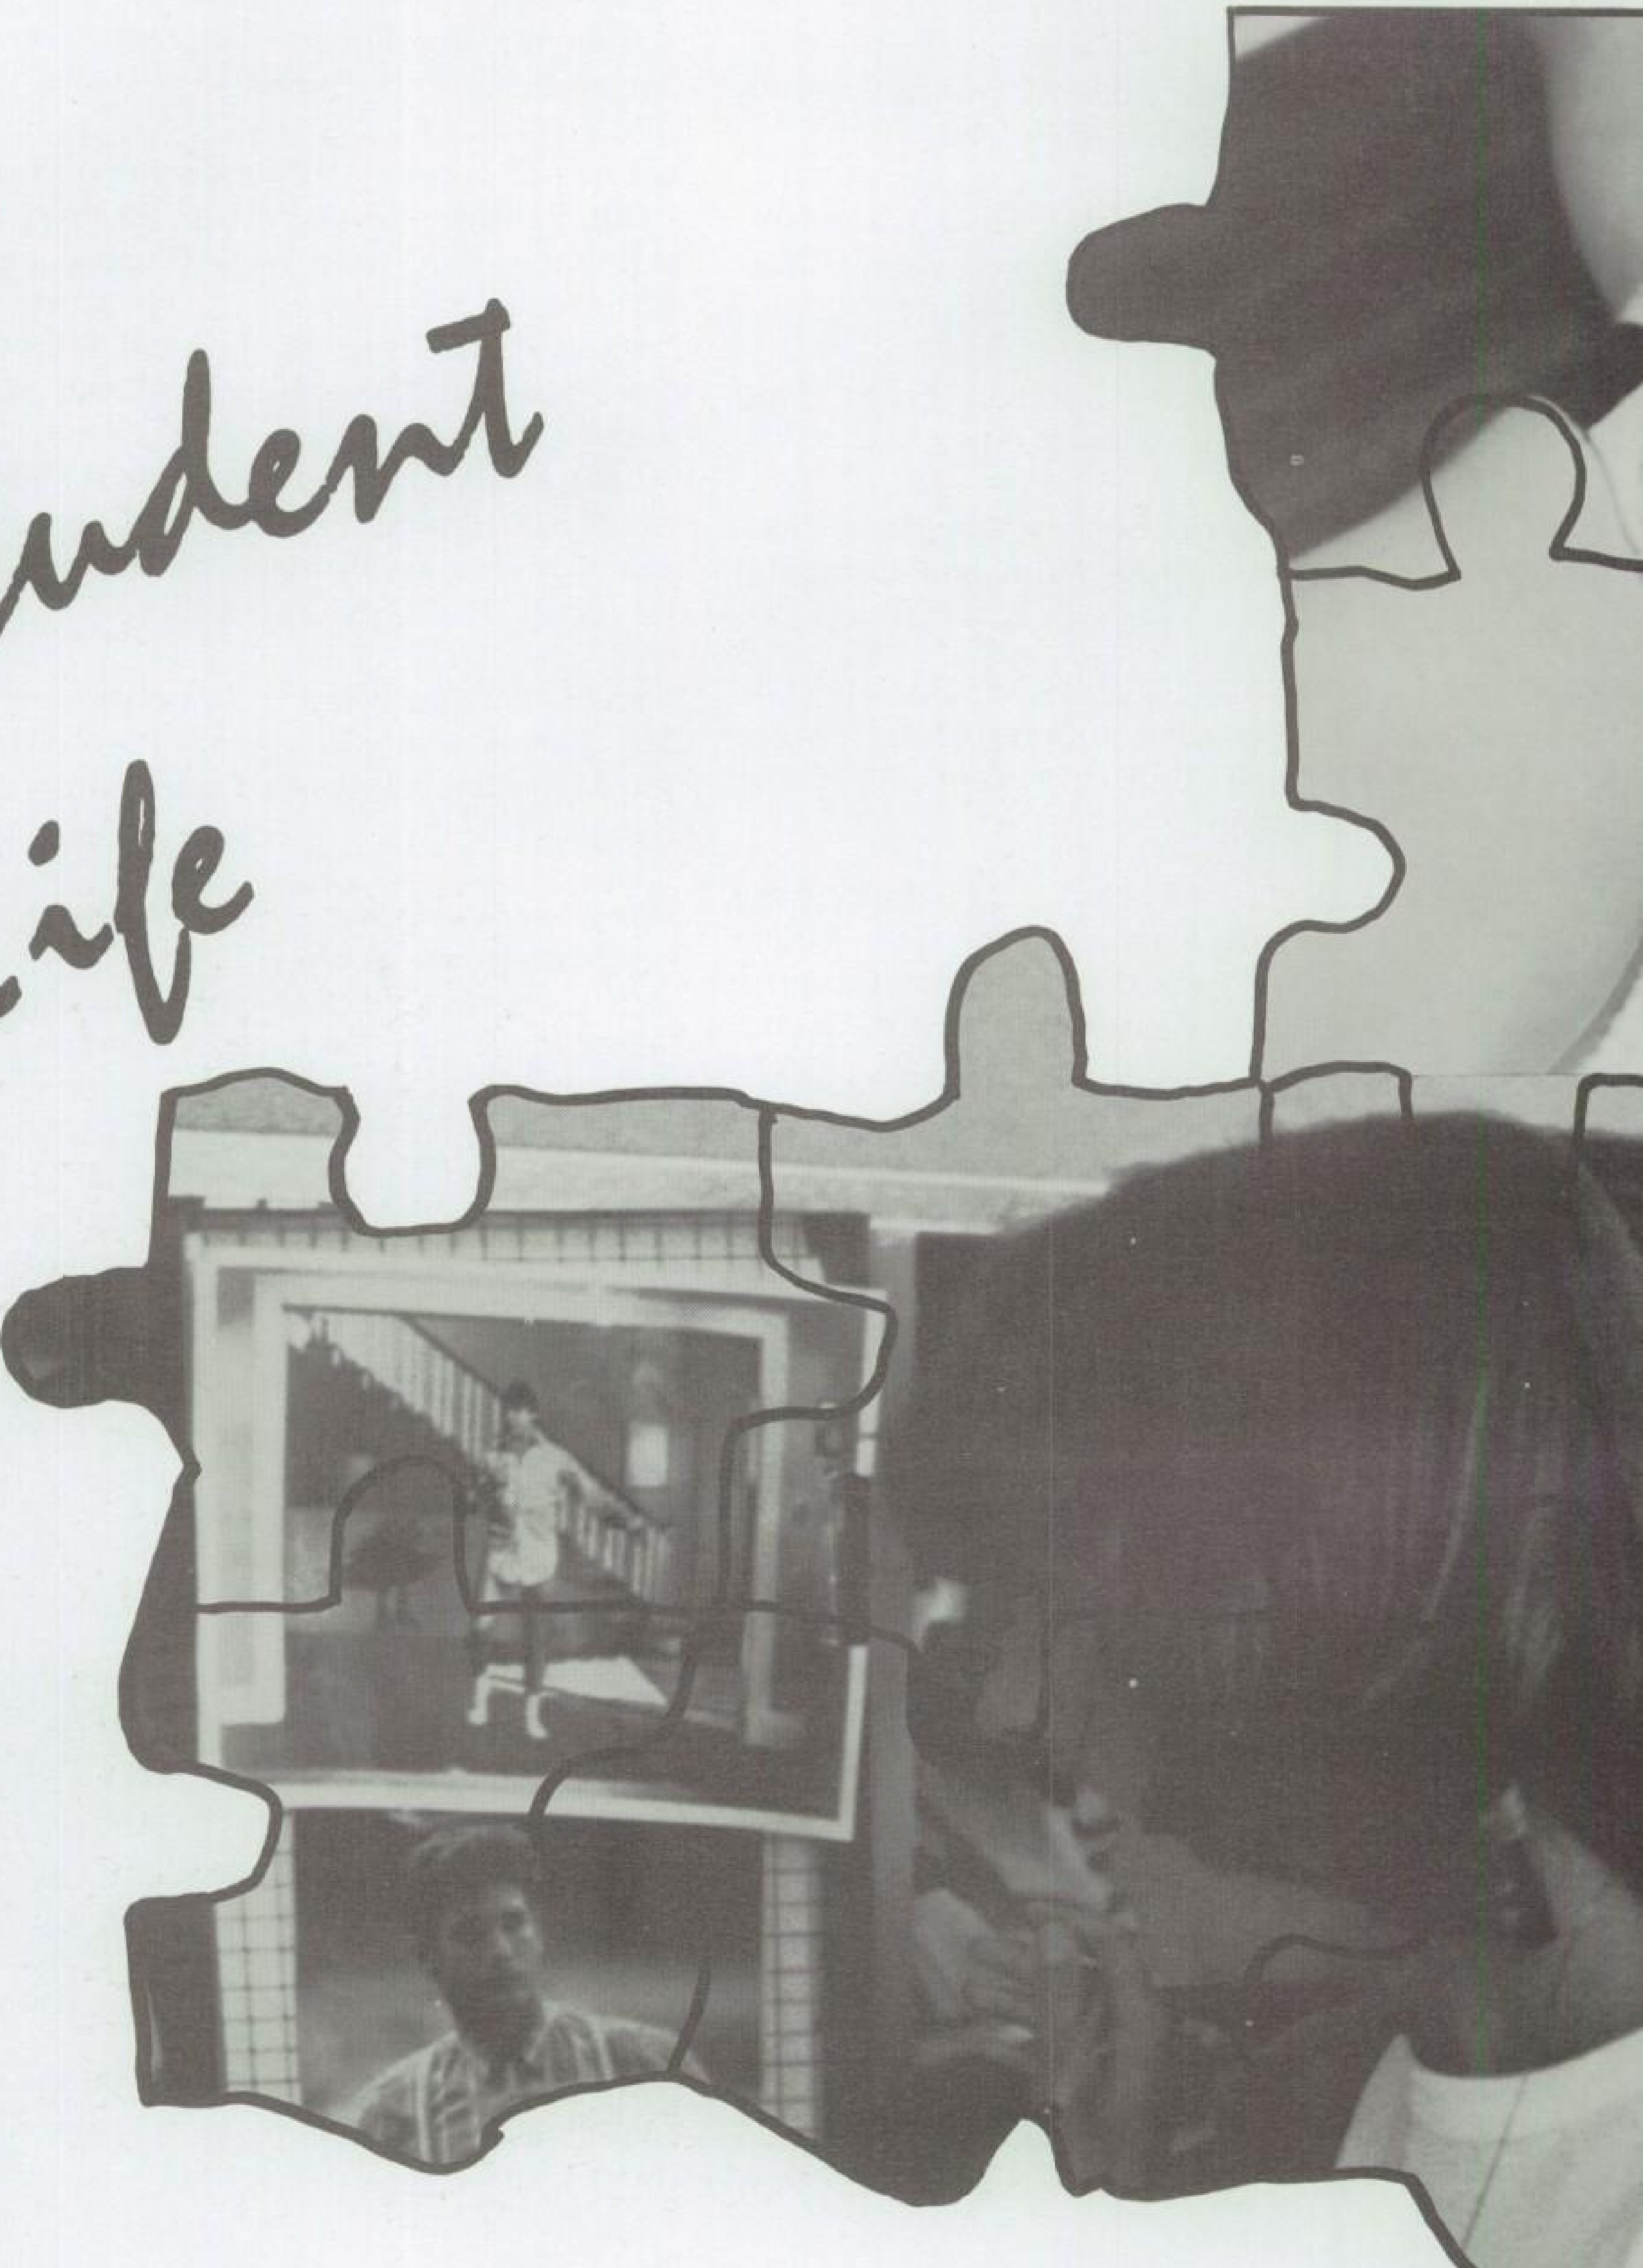
Jon-Paul Wolfe — Frosh/Soph Baseball, Varsity Baseball, Honor Society, Panther Prints, Senator, PTSA, Block P

Kirk L. Wright — Varsity Basketball, J.V. Basketball, Block P

Brian C. Young — Varsity Wrestling, Finance Commissioner, Block P

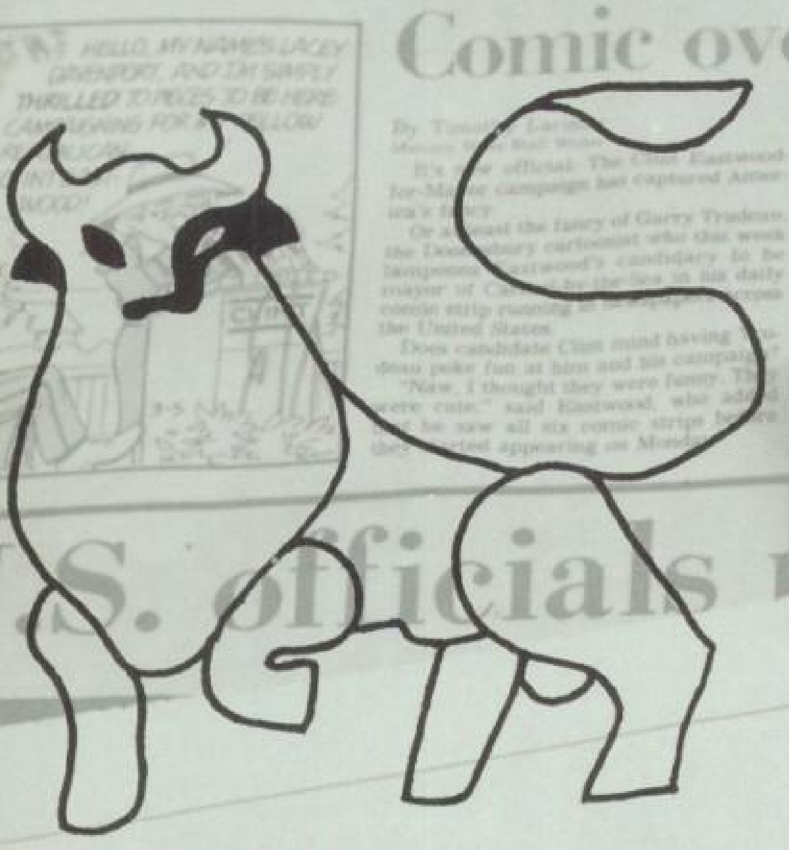
Steve Zwinger — Honor Society, Science Club, Foreign Exchange Club, Math and Computer Club, Chess Club

Student Life



Coca-Cola
CLASSIC

The Year



The Bull Market

Lottery Tickets are "in"!

It's the real Wheel of Fortune. It's the California Gold Rush. It's an illegal alien's fantasy. It's the California Lottery. It started out as an idea to raise money for our schools. Through public support it became a reality. Already billions of dollars have been raised for our schools. That means computers and sports equipment, new buildings, better books, raises, and maybe even soap in the boathrooms for us! But this win-a-million attitude has also created a new fad. Lottery tickets are "in"! They're ideal birthday gifts, Christmas presents, and a cheap source of entertainment. Instead of inviting a girl to the movies, a guy now says to her, "Want to get together and scratch my lottery ticket?" The Zappers that used to zap endless space aliens have now taken a more violent form of fun. They scratch lottery tickets with bare nails!! Actually, it's good exercise and can come handy as a form of self-defense! Lotteries have even affected my life. A friend gave me a lottery ticket for Christmas. Though a losing ticket, it would have been a nice gesture if she hadn't already scratched it off!

Cookie Monster in Russia?

After the domino effect death of Russian leaders, the Russians turned to Borbachev. A young man with ideas for reform, Gorbacher took many steps to bridge the gap between Russians and United States. The first move was the Geneva peace talks. Though unsuccessful in reducing nuclear weapons, it did create a friendly and peaceful atmosphere between the two nations. This new feeling of friendship even encouraged the Russians to send a very warm consolating message after the tragic space shuttle disaster. Gorbachev is even planning a trip to the United States. These warm feeling have begun to thaw the cold war hatred. So where does it all lead to? Well, Don't expect to see Russian comarades lining up to see Rambo, but it is possible that cookie monster will pay them a visit soon as a part of a program of cultural exchange!

A "Young" Reagan!

When asked about the age issue during the elections, the president declared that he would not emphasize the youth and inexperience of his opponent! Our charismatic president is one of the eldest political leaders of this world. At 75, he is as active and healthy as young teenager. During his term of office, only once was he hindered from his duties by sickness. His cancer operation worried the nation. George Bush temporarily enjoyed the responsibility and power of presidency as Ronald Reagan stayed at the hospital.

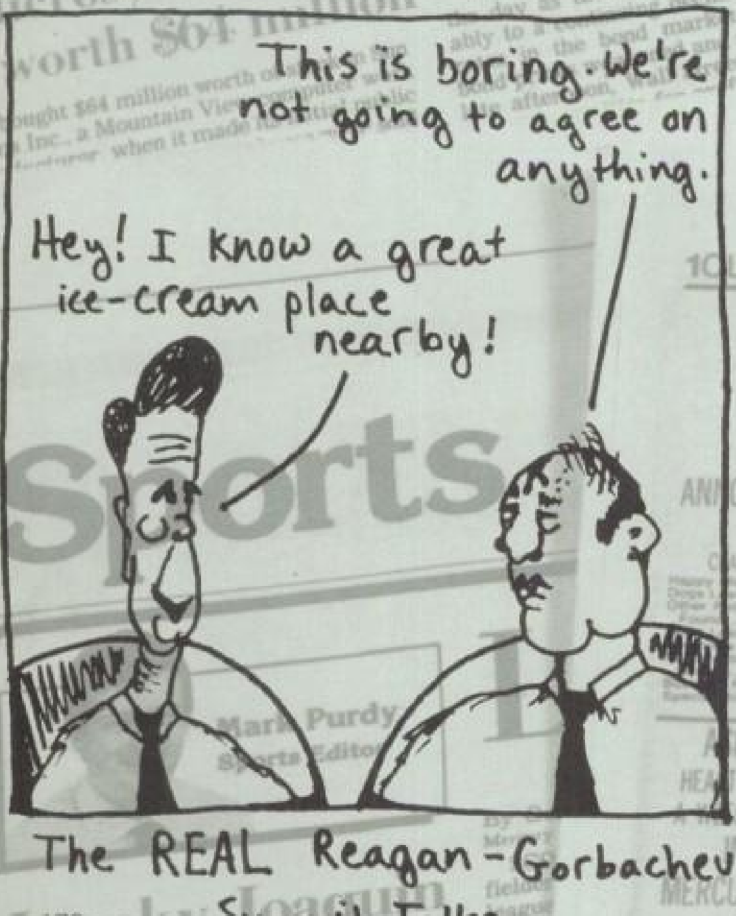
But it seems that Mrs. Reagan's get-well-kiss worked because Mr Reagan is back as strong and healthy as before. And for his 75th birthday, Americans rejoiced in the strength and youth of their popular leader. Even Khomeini in one of his rare friendly moments, sent a birthday card saying "Happy Birthday, young man!"

Hijacking: A New Fad!

The friendly skies have become treacherous with the increased amount of airplane hijacking. Hijacking that happened infrequently in the past hs become almost a fad! Every Hussain, Abdul, and Mostafa is hijacking a plane! The most traumatic hijacking was the T.W.A. plane in the Middle East. Thought it ended peacefully, it attracted our attention toward the lack of safety in airports. Unfortunately, other incidents were terminated with much bloodshed.

All this lead to attention on security airports. Thanks to these precautions hijackings have gone down by 20%. Let us hope that this ugly fad will die away and that hijackers will not turn to ship-hijacking.

South Africa's policy of racial segregation has flared tempers around the world. "Apartheid as it's called has spurred violence and several protest concerts and marches. The white minority in South Africa holds the power. It's a common feeling that this policy is unfair. If Martin Luther King, Jr. were alive today he would be pretty darn steamed! I know you feel the same way. But seriously, the chains of segregation must be broken. In todays world there is no room for slavery.



This is boring. We're not going to agree on anything.
Hey! I know a great ice-cream place nearby!

The REAL Reagan-Gorbachev Summit Talks

In Review.

"We have liftoff." announced mission control. The crowd standing outside in the brisk Cape Canaveral morning watched awestruck as the Space Shuttle "Challenger" disengaged from the launch pad and gracefully climbed towards the heavens. Across the continent in New Hampshire, an auditorium full of high school students cheered as one of their teachers became the first teacher in space. That history-bound teacher was Christa McAuliffe. As the shuttle soared majestically skyward, most of the students at Prospect were more concerned with matters closer to home. Many did not even realize that the shuttle was going up. But just as second period was ending, the counselors were visiting the classes with news that the Space Shuttle "Challenger," with all seven crew members aboard, had exploded. There were no survivors. Seventy-three seconds after take-off, as thousands watched, the shuttle disappeared in a ball of orange and yellow flame. The two solid rocket boosters, still intact, continued on a meanless path toward the Atlantic Ocean. The smiles and expressions of joy in the crowd suddenly turned to puzzlement and soon became fear and sadness. What went wrong? How did it happen? No one knew. Top scientists at Nasa sat staring at the monitors containing the twisted cloud that was just seconds ago man's hope for the future. But those seven astronauts did not die for nothing. If nothing more, they symbolized the spirit of exploration that lives in the hearts of all mankind. Their bravery will be remembered for countless years to come, and for their commitment to "break the surly bonds of earth, and touch the face of God."

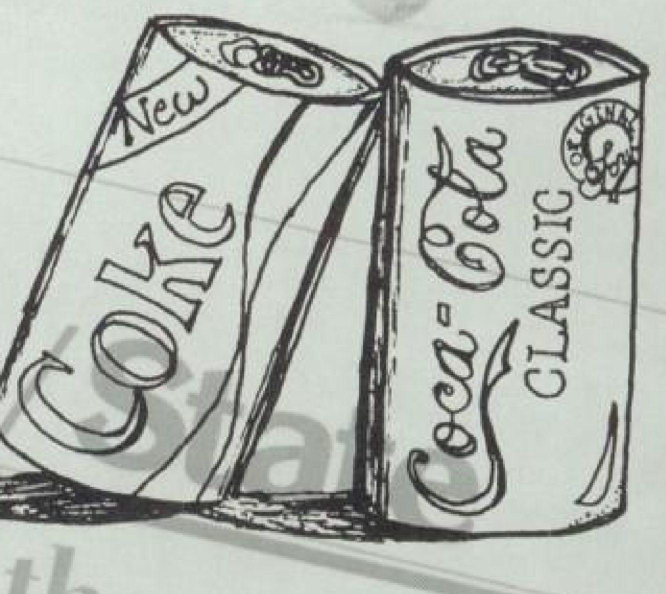
In memory of: Christa McAuliffe, Francis Seabee, Gregory Jarvis, Ronald McNain, Judith Resnik, Michael Smith, Ellison Onizuka.

. . . you won't be forgotten!

Halley's Comet is back. This heavenly visitor is once again making a pass after its' 76 year absence. And its' appearance is sparking some renewed interest in the orgin and nature of the universe. New stargazers, seasoned professionals, or anyone with a telescope; everyone seems to want a glimpse of this once in a life time event. Halley's comet, in case you didn't know, comes in view every 76 years. Its' tail, which always points away from the sun, has been estimated to be several hundred miles long. Sightings have been recorded as far as 1066 A.D., and now its' back. Be sure to get out and see the comet this time, because it won't be back for a long time. It will be something to tell your grandchildren about.

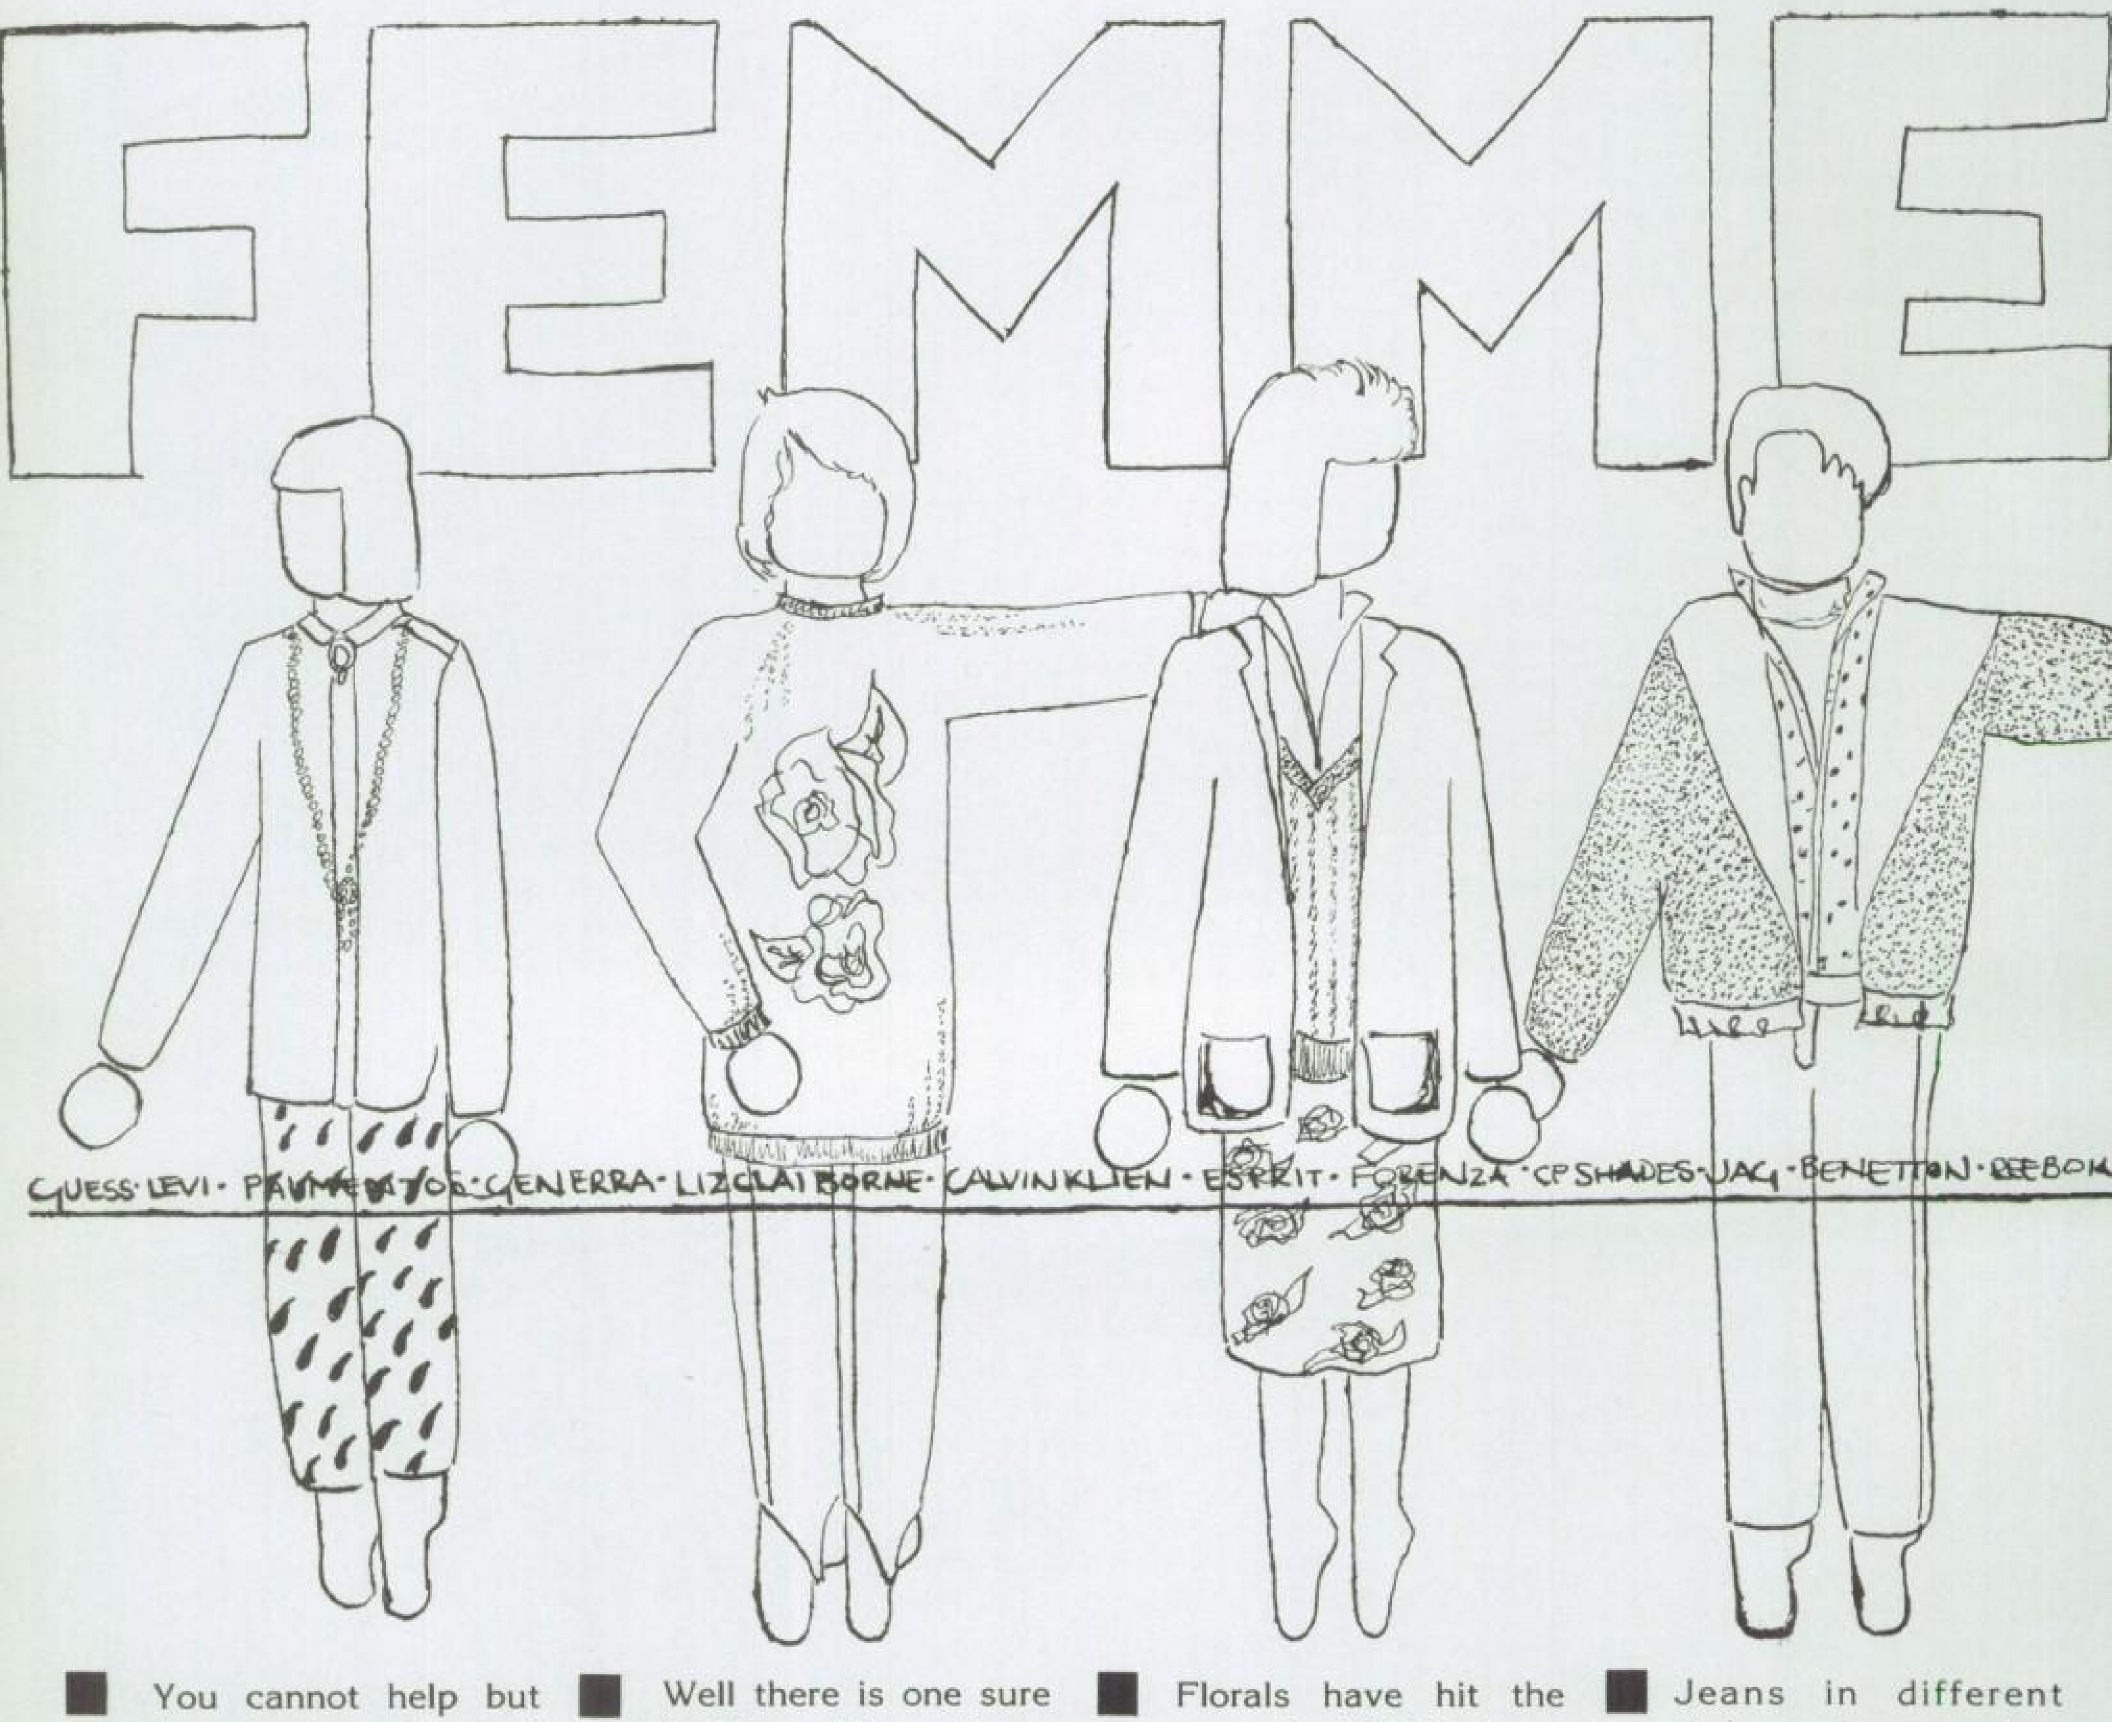
This year was the year in movies. The box-office smashes were filled with movies that covered all areas of the imagination. To make us laugh, there was none other than Michael J. Fox's Back to the Future, and a debut from Pee Wee Herman in his first big adventure. To touch our hearts there were movies that searched the soul with Meryl Streep and Robert Redford in Out of Africa and Whoopie Goldberge in Color Purple. But, the biggest smash was led by none other than the All-American, muscle-bound, gun-toting heroes: Rocky and Rambo. There was nothing especially deep about these patriotic films; all they asked from you was to put your brain on hold for the duration of the movie, watch wholesome patriotism at work, and leave the theater feeling refreshed, knowing that you were protected by men such as these. Sylvester Stallone punched his way into the hearts of the public by proving (for the fourth time) that he (the American) was no wimp; he was still Rocky; a winner! Sylvester doesn't belong only in the ring but also in the battle torn jungles of southeast Asia. With his oozie and automatics, he shot his way to fame and (especially fortune) as Rambo (for the second time). The success of these enlightining violent, but patriotic films were the hits of the eighties. Who said that sequels were disasters? There will probably be more to come. We'll be waiting for them. Won't we?!

We've been invaded by an overseas menace. Charles and Di Mania! What is so special about this couple from jollie-ol'-England? I thought the fascination of royalty died with the once-in-a-life-time wedding of the couple five years ago. Apparently not. This year, not only are we blessed with the appearance of Charles and Di in Washington, but we, the rest of the world, are blessed with the public appearance of their two children, William and Harry. The world watched as William entered pre-school clinging on the arms of his father, and a couple of body guards, of course. We oohed and ahhed as we saw pictures of Prince Harry's first steps. The most fascinating thing, however, was the public television interview that was broadcasted all over the nation. We discovered that Princess Di wants to raise her children in a normal family atmosphere, and also the fact that she spends $2000 a week on her clothes, but she's reformed, she actually wears gowns twice before slipping them in the closet! Prince Charles, of course, sits and grins throughout the show. Now, this brings us back to the question, "why all this fascination?" Probably because we don't have a Prince Charles and Princess Di to fawn over, to see if a perfect marriage exists, and of course to dream as if it were a fairy tale of childhood faded but not lost. Oh, Well! If we don't have our own, we'll borrow Britains!!



What's Hot!

Fashion “ins’ For Guys And Gals



FEMME
GUESS · LEVI · PALMETTOS · GENERRA · LIZ CLAIBORNE · CALVIN KLIEN · ESPRIT · FORENZA · CP SHADES · JAG · BENETTON · REEBOK

■ You cannot help but broach the subject of paisleys when you talk of baroque style of dressing. It's fun, romantic.

■ Well there is one sure fashion hit, stirrup pants. Your mom can tell you they have been in before, but now they come in colors, patterns and styles.

■ Florals have hit the scene for '86. You have seen them bright and pale, wild and understated. All beautifully fun.

■ Jeans in different styles and even colors are what's new. Pink, red, yellow, floral, paisley and all variations of jean colors. Done in new style, unique.

In the past few years, it seems style for guys has made a revolutionary change, for the better! No more 501's and old sweat shirts, but big shirts, bold prints, bright colors.

Styles come and styles go, and we've seen many! Anywhere from neon brights to pale pastels, 50's mini's to 20's long skirts. With so much variety, anyone can dress to please themselves and their shapes.

Q.

What is your weirdest piece of clothing?

A.

Rick Robbins (senior)- "My Wooby!"
Joel Johnson (senior)- "My Burger King uniform."
Sheryl Ehrman (senior)- "A pair of grey sweatpants that have at least 5 holes and no elastic. All year long I've had to use string or whatever to keep them up. The snowflake long-johns go underneath to cover where the sweatpants don't."
Kristen Menefee (junior)- "I cut my bra in half one time. A mono-cupped bra!"
Kristen Menefee (junior)"My bright pink nylons."
Allison Law (freshman)- "Itsy bitsy tini wini yellow . . ."
Catherine Kim (junior)- "My mom knitted me a hat with a 4 feet long tail. At the end of the tail there was a big fluffy ball. I'd swing my head and watch the tail go round over me like a propeller."
Dawn Swanson (sophomore)- "My fruit shoes."

HOMME GUES?
GUESS · LEVI · GENERRA · CALVIN KLIEN · STUBBIES · JAG · BENETTON · YVES ST. LAURENT · IZOD · GOTCHA · SWATCH · REEBOK
Rodd Heckert '86

■ The casual look, sweater, pants. Big for '86, comfortable and easy to wear.

■ The oxford style shirt is still here, matched with a turtle neck gives a slight preppie effect.

■ Trench coats are in for any season, lightweight or heavy, casual or dressy.

■ Hey, what are you wearing? Guess. I don't know, just tell me. Guess! I can't . . .

Going Out . . .

Far left: music is a popular way of life for these two. Left: Deirdre Blake and Alan Stevens go out for a bite to eat. Middle: These three look like the're really having fun — Tim Slaughterback, Debbie Terres, and Alan Stevens participate in an all-time favorite, hot tubbing. Bottom: Prospect listens to a variety of music, some of it shown here. Overlay: Shopping can be a great time-passer as well as be interesting, as demonstrated by these two.

Weekends

Shopping: Who are these people we see frantically rushing from the parking lot to Westgate and Valco? They're, . . . they're, . . . shoppers! Aighh! These people have been pinching pennies for three months to wait for the big sale. Well, watch out! Today is "white flower" day!

On your mark! Get set! Shop! Running up and down the malls are frantic people, grabbing sales off the rack and rushing it towards the register. Little do they know, the total will aunt them for the rest of their lives! $136.34?! . . . Agh! . . .

You have just entered the Shopper's zone. Please watch your step or you will be mobbed by hundreds of people who want the same sweater.

But, neurotic shoppers aren't the only ones to watch out for! There are those mallies always hanging around. That's all they do. They wander the malls, looking at the great buys but they never buy a thing! Be carefull, or you'll be brain-washed into being a mallie; walking aimlessly up and down malls for the rest of your lives.

So, if you're driving behind one of those cars with the "BORN TO SHOP" bumper stickers, steer clear of them, or you'll be caught in the Shopper's Zone.

Movies: Quick! What comes to your mind when I say "Popcorn, dark, and kissing?" I don't know what you thought of but, those three words remind me of the movies. I mean if you go to see a movie, you'll definately buy some popcorn; it'll definately be dark inside; and you'll definately see some couples kissing! Yep, movies are a fun place to go to. It's not so much the movie itself that's enjoyable but just going to a movie (the popcorn, dark, and kissing) that's fun. For many of us, it's a weekly ritual. Everyweek, we go to the theatre to see the latest, Rocky VI, Return of the Jedi's grandson, or Saturday the 14th part III, etc. Thanks to our active dedication to the cineas, the movie business is prospering. However, if a hundred years ago, someone had said, "I want to make a dark room, charge people for entry, sell them corn, and let boys and girls kiss in the dark." people would have thought him crazy.

Genesis STING ENDERS
OINGO BOINGO
David

Ever Wonder What Goes On After Hours?

T.V. "I'm home!" You yell. You kick your shoes off and in a karate-like motion, you turn on the T.V. set with your toe, grab the remote-control, and plop down on the sofa. From then on, you will leave homework, housework, reality, and life behind. After all the Love Conection is on! Watching T.V. is a habit many of us have: Everyday after school, on Sunday nights, and Saturday afternoons and (though we deny it) on Saturday mornings. T.V. is an important part of our life. We quote the actors, we sing the music, we fantasize about the hunks or the chicks, we ridicule the commercials, and then buy the products out of curiosity, and we even learn from T.V.! So who can blame us for watching T.V.? It's free, it's inflammable, it's not toxicating, and though our minds will be inspace, T.V. keeps our bodies at home where parents can watch us. I know what you're going to say. "But, is it waterproof and shatter proof?" Well, you got me there. My advice is don't watch T.V. in your swimming pool and don't have large mobile objects at hand when watching used care dealer commercials! (After all they just want to make an "honest deal"?!

Beach. If it is a weekday, you have to wait until Friday (because we can't cut school to go to the beach!) On Friday, as soon as the bell rings, you dash out of class, rip off your sweatshirt, and jump into your car with your T-shirt and swimsuit and hit highway 17. Suddenly, you see a long line of cars in front of you. "What are these dopes waiting for?" Well, you soon find out that it's the freeway entrance from Los Gatos. As you inch along with the hot sun on your face, watching the joggers speed by, you wonder why you came. And, then you see it. The beautiful blue waters, clear warm sky. And, where's the beach? Well, you can't see it, because it's covered with people. But, that's Okay. What's a beach without a few People? You stretch out on the sand and toast your skin. After too many hours to pass, it is time to leave. With a content, peaceful feeling, you get in the car to head home as it's getting dark. You look forward to coming back on Saturday, Sunday, and Mon . . . I mean next Friday, and "beaching" it up.

Q.

What was your most remembered date?

A.

Cathy Beedy (12): "Once my date flushed his car keys down a toilet and we couldn't get home."

Doug Gabbard (11): "The night I saw 'Pee Wee Herman' and I got my first kiss."

Shannon Hickey (12): "When I went out with the A.S.B. President of Bellarmine and my best friend threw up on him."

Jenny Hunt (11): "The time my date's car ran out of gas twice in one night!"

Julie Hunt (12): "The time my date took me to Bullwinkle's with his parents."

Melissa Oliver (10): "When I went miniature golfing and I hit the ball out of the park and it hit a Porsche."

Coach Augenstien (Admin.): "In college, my roomate fixed me up on a blind date and promised to loan me a real nice suit to wear. The girl was really nice, but the suit fit terribly!"

Unknown Freshman (9): "I've never been on a date."

A Piece Of Prospect Talent A Few Of Many

> “If I had my choice, I'd take music over everything”

If you don't know him when you first see his name "Jon Nakamatsu" what first comes to your mind is "Does he really spell his first name like that!? That's kind of different!" Well, Jon is different. In fact, he's unique! He's not your average John on the street. He not only achieved a high G.P.A. through his years at Prospect, but he is also truly accomplished in his playing of the piano. It all started a long time ago. "I was in preschool: I was 4, I saw the teacher playing an old piano. I thought it would be fun to press the little keys . . . I asked them (my parents) to buy me one. 'No!' they said. They bought me a little electric organ instead. When I got older it wasn't enough. 'If at 6 you still want it, you'll get it.' (parents) "He got it. As he grew, his talents blossomed and his piano grew with him. After the electric organ, he got an upright piano and later a grand piano. So now when you ask him how he feels about playing the piano, he simply says, "I love it!" He even said that, "If I had my choice, I'd take music over everything. But, I feel education is important . . . I proved to myself I could do both." Though he had to make sacrifices he felt it was worth it and "would do it again." Now it is a permanent part of him.

> “The best thing about dancing is being able to forget everything and just be able to express myself.”

For Melissa Eisenberg, the Palo Alto Ballet is a home away from home. "I began dancing about 12 years ago," states the Junior after a moment of thought. But although ballet has done lots for this gifted artist, it hasn't been easy. Dancing 3 hours a day, 6 days a week, keeps Melissa very active, leaving time for little else. Having great experience as a performer, she has premiered in ethnic ballets like "Paso a Cuatro" and "Viva Bornonville." When asked the best thing about dancing, she explains, "being able to forget everything and just be able to express myself." One of her greatest accomplishments of yet has been the lead in the "Waltz of the Flowers" act in "The Nutcracker." Questioned about her goals as far as dancing, Melissa relates, "to dance professionally with a well-known ballet company-also to perform the lead in the ballet, "Giselle."

> “You just have to bite your lip and take the pain if you want to achieve your goals because it sure doesn't tickle.”

Picture this - Seoul, Korea 1988, "In lane 4 for the 100 yard breastroke, Jennifer Hau representing the United States of America." "My goal is Seoul", stated Jenny who has moved up from fourteenth to first in the nation since 1984. Starting at the age of ten, Jenny has been swimming competitively for six years. "Jenny has a lot of natural talent," says her coach Don King, who has coached several star Olympians. Inspired by "gorgeous" gold-medalist Steve Lundquist, Jenny says, "His leadership inspires me to go for number one!" Jenny's greatest achievement have been national champion in 1985-1986 and 3rd place in the pan-pacific games in Japan. She is currently ranked eighth in the world and hopes to be number one by 1988. Her goals are to place in the world championships in Madrid, Spain, and to take 1st at the Pan-American games in Australia 1987. Her primary goal is to qualify for the Olympics and win a gold medal. "You just have to bite your lip and take the pain if you want to achieve your goals because it sure doesn't tickle," says Jenny. This proves true as Jenny swims everyday for at least 4 hours. But, as Jenny says, "You only get out of it, what you put into it!"

> “Center floor work has always been my favorite.”

The lights go on, the curtain goes up, and the performance begins. For many of us the thought of dancing before hundreds of people would be a nightmare, but for one Gillian Clark, that's when the fun begins. Dancing over thirty hours per week, this ballerina has mixed emotions about her practicing. "Bar work has always been boring to me; I thought it was stupid. Center floor work has always been my favorite." Maybe it's that drive of hers to entertain others and be in the spotlight that's kept her dancing since she was three. Not only has she performed such desired roles as the Snow Queen of the Nutcracker. She has also has substituted as a dance instructor at the Los Gatos Academy of Dance. Says Gillian about her goal, "I just try to have a good time and not let anything get me down."

“Practice makes perfect.”

“I wrap myself in canvas, leather, and metal, and sweat for two hours just for fun.”

When he was 7 years old, Joel Johnson was given a model race car from his father, a hobby shop owner. Who would have guessed then that 10 years later, Joel would become both the Indoor and Outdoor Racing Champion? It all began with local races in his father's shop. Then, in 1980, a company named Model Racing Products offered to start sponsoring Joel on the racing circuit. Since then, competitions have taken him all over the world, including such places as Japan, Hong Kong, New York, Indianapolis, Cleveland, and Michigan, where Joel won the Indoor and Outdoor Championships this year. Besides the benefits of travel and paid expenses for his work, Joel has earned a scholarship from his current sponsor, Trinity, Co., to be applied to the college of his choice. As for the future, Joel plans to continue racing for enjoyment, but his goal is to race "real cars" professionally. When asked for some thoughts on his success, Joel replied: "Practice makes perfect."

You may know her as the most talented female senior or the Senior with the third highest G.P.A. or the Bank of America Liberal Arts Plaque Award Winner or the talented actress playing leading roles in numerous school plays. But, Laurel Wilson is also known for one more thing: her fencing. As some of you may have already heard, she won the fencing match in this area and made it to the Junior Olympics in St. Paul, Minnesota; she placed 51 out of 104. For three days a week, Laurel works out at the Fencing Center at an avearge of three hours a day. Going to the Center, she finds an outlet for "creativity, frustration, and a need to be exhausted" through fencing. Laurel tells her new aquaintances, upon their inquisition that "I wrap myself in canvas, leather, and metal and sweat for two hours just for fun." Laurel hopes someday to make it to the National Competition and possibly the Olympic fencing team; depending on her "opportunities for good coaches and financial support from (her) school."

From Left to right: Jennifer Hau, Laurel Wilson, Joel Johnson, Melissa Eisenberg, and Jon Nakamatsu, and Jon Nakamatsu Not shown: Gillian Clark

> ‘I am part > of all that I have > met.’
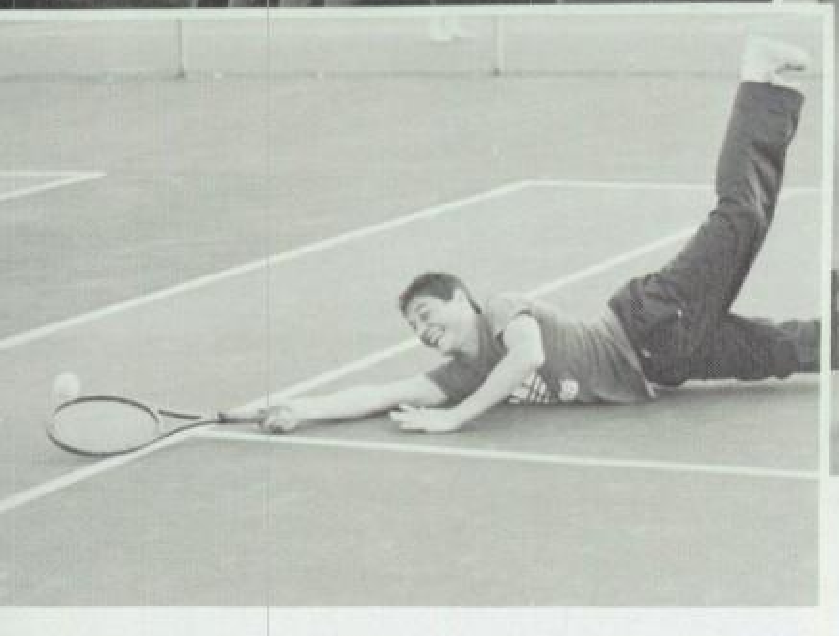
>
> Ulysses



I like lunch. It is one of my favorite aspects of school. It's a time to eat, chat with friends, and just take a break from school. But, that's not what I'm doing today during lunch. I am trying to write the closing of the yearbook. So, I figured that the best place for inspiration would be out here in the quad, that maybe I could get a good idea what Prospect is all about. After all, that's what a good closing should show: an essence of our school. It certainly looks like I've chosen the right place. It seems as if almost everyone is out here. The problem is capturing an essence of what's going on. There's a lot of laughter out here. I guess that was an important part of our school year: laughter, fun, chatting with our friends. I did a lot of that myself. These are some out here hurrying up to finish homework. Obviously, school work and learning were also important parts of life here at Prospect. What was special about this year? There must be another factor. Where to find it? Actually, it lies in the combination of the learning and the friendships. We saw the fads go by and watched the world news surround us. Together we prepared for life as adults and watched each other grow. We gathered in these halls and shared these experiences. This is what is special about this year at Prospect, especially in a world where sharing is so hard. This is what I see in the quad: people sharing both experiences and themselves.

Top: Recalling the memories. Left: Matt Phillips and friends share a laugh at being caught by the camera. Above: Shana Kenyon and Jennifer Metcalf, the friendship lives on! Far Right: Mike Hansen and Stacey Flory share a tender moment.

Coca-Cola
CLASSIC

SunTana SunSystem

TOMORROW'S BODY TANNING SALON

SPECIAL-1 month $59-½ hr./day

324 El Paseo Shopping Cntr.
370-0620

The Men's Room of the Prune Yard

HAIRSTYLING
FOR MEN AND WOMEN

148 THE PRUNEYARD • CAMPBELL, CA 95008 • 377-4250

TINA'S HALLMARK

For cool comfort in shopping

318 El Paseo de Saratoga
Sane Jose, CA 95130
378-2273

DESIGNER'S CORNER

High Fashion Exclusive Designer Lines
Lilli Ann Suits
Ms. Kipps -2- piece sweater/silk combinations

Coordinating Sportswear by Joyce and many others

Coats
Red Fox Fur, Mink

422 Town & Country Village
San Jose, CA 95128
408 243-6322
Hours: Mon-Sat.
10-6
Thurs. 'til 8

DON QUIXOTE

Fine Dining In El Paseo
206 El Paseo De Saratoga
FOR RESERVATIONS
378-1545

ROUND TABLE PIZZA

18480 Prospect Rd.
SARATOGA, CA 95070

252-0277

NAILS PLUS

304 El Paseo Shopping Center
San Jose, CA 95130
374-1050
Complete Nail and Skin Care

THE PERFECT BLEND

220 El Paseo de Saratoga
San Jose, CA 95130
379-9040

Restaurant

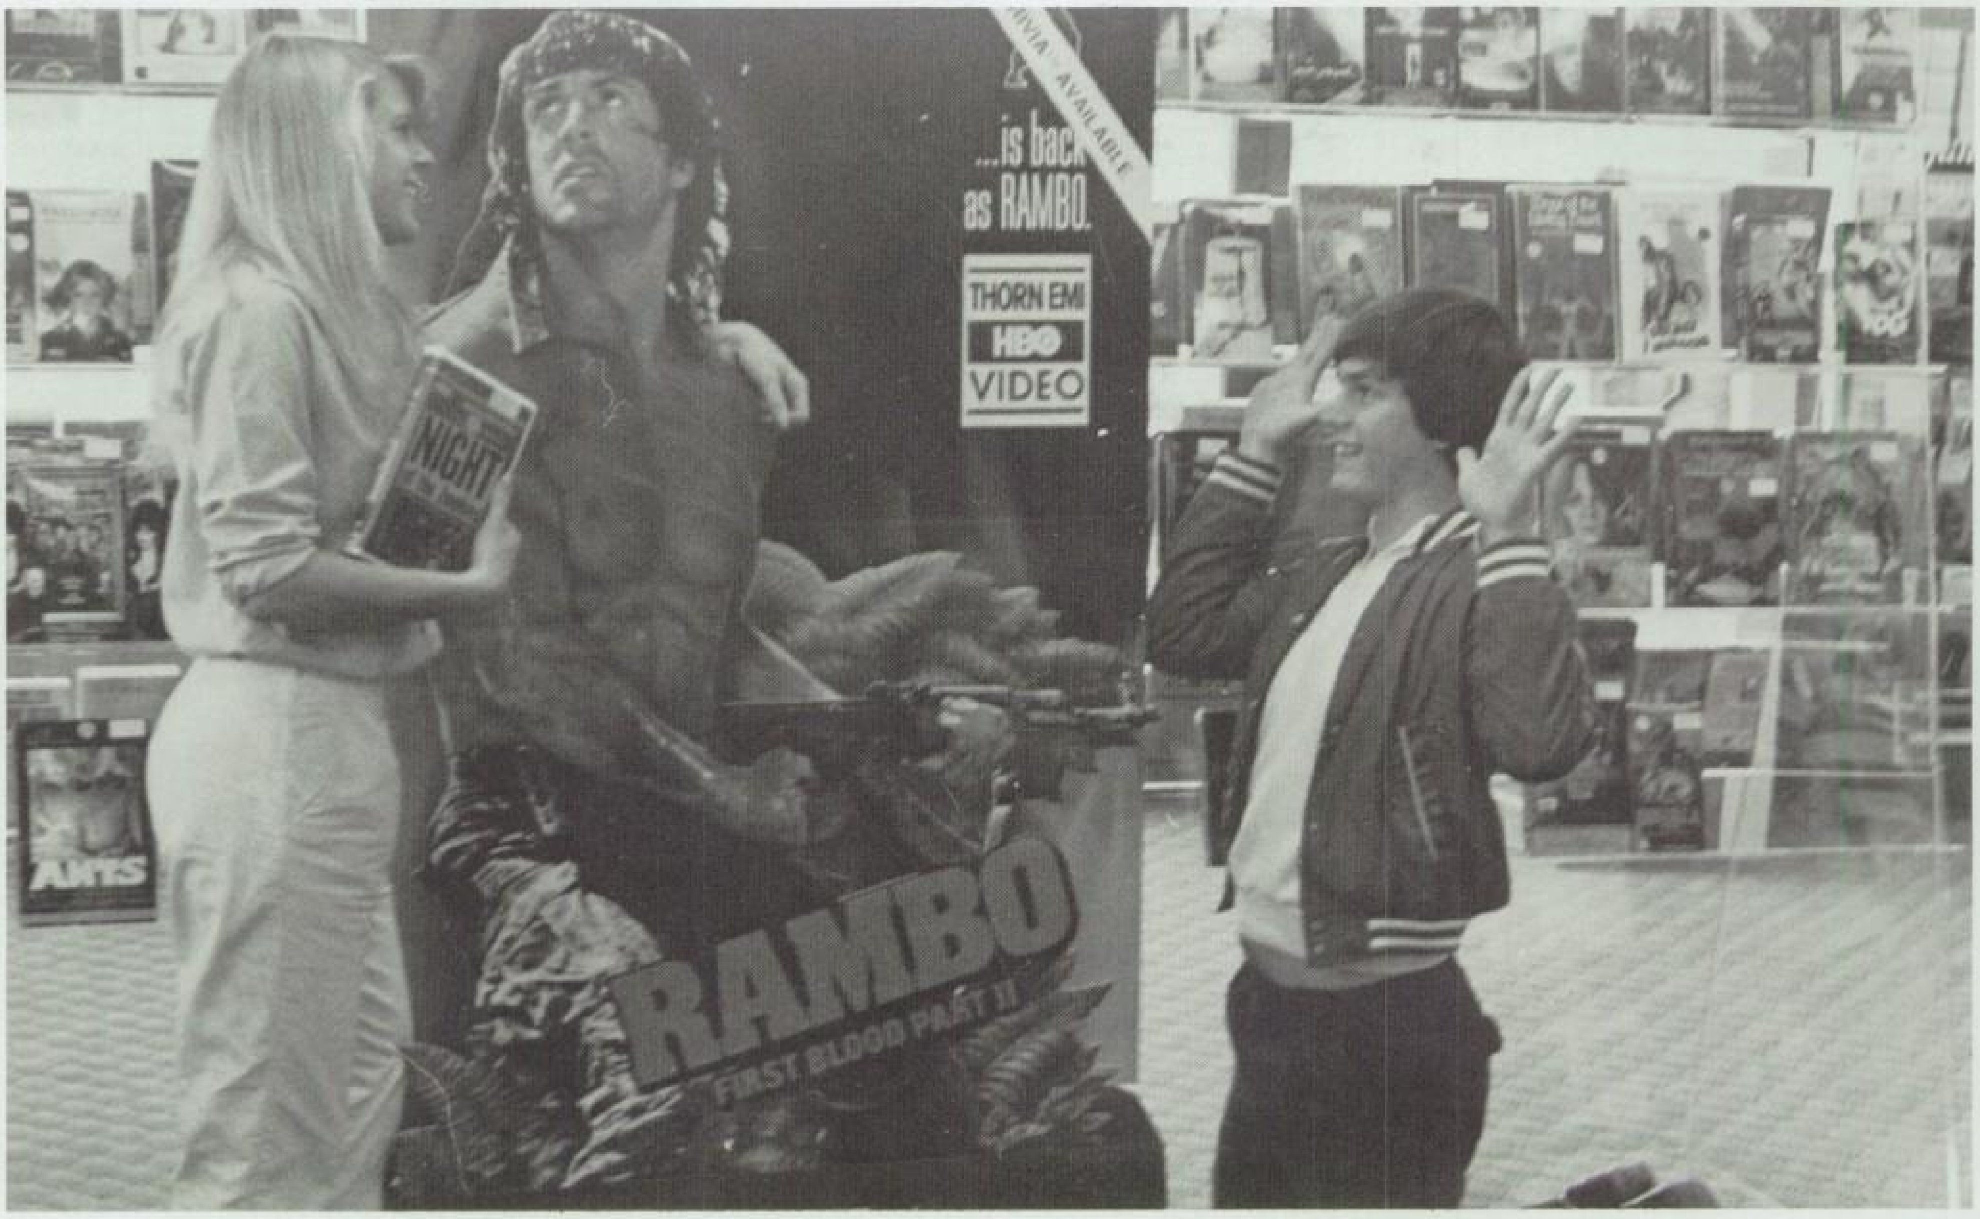
Coffee & Tea
Specialty Shop

LEO'S PAYLESS DELI

5275 Prospect Rd.
San Jose, CA 95129
725-0323

Party Trays
Our Specialty

VIDEO MOVIE CENTER



...is back as RAMBO.
THORN EMI
HBO VIDEO RAMBO
FIRST BLOOD PART II NIGHT
ANTS

AMERICA'S VIDEO SPECIALIST

WESTGATE WEST SHOPPING CENTER
5329 PROSPECT RD.
257-9465

TACO BELL

OPPORTUNITY
Just made for you
JOIN OUR CREW

When America's Looking For Something Exciting To Eat . . .
America Heads For Taco Bell

TACO BELL
Just Made For You!

EXECUTAN

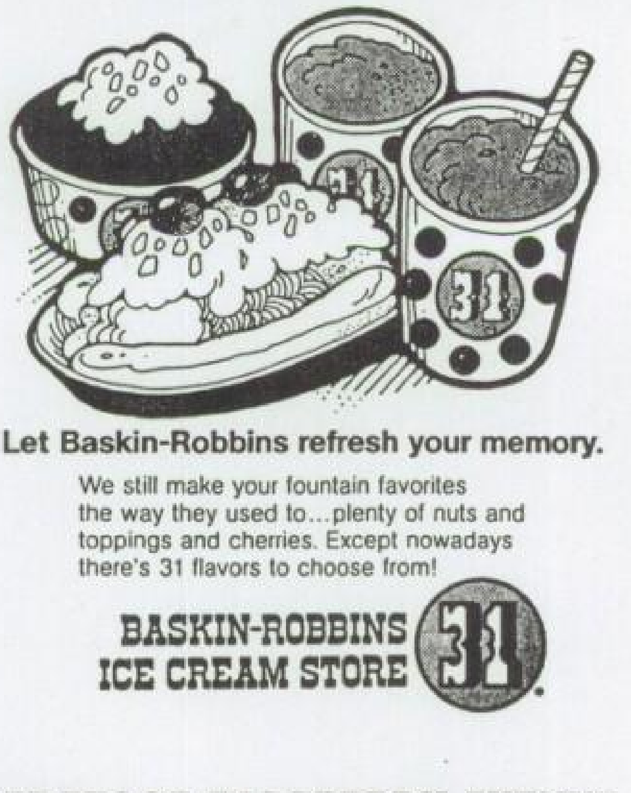
106 El Paseo de Saratoga
San Jose, CA 95130
379-SUNN
Professional Suntan Center

MARIO'S SHOE REPAIR
COMPLETE SERVICE
WHILE... YOU WAIT

MARIO'S SHOE REPAIR

5289 Prospect Rd.
San Jose, CA 95129
257-0501
25 Years Experience
Shoe Dyeing • Handbag and Luggage Repair

When was the last time you had a delicious sundae, soda or shake?



Let Baskin-Robbins refresh your memory.

We still make your fountain favorites the way they used to...plenty of nuts and toppings and cherries. Except nowadays there's 31 flavors to choose from!

BASKIN-ROBBINS ICE CREAM STORE

SARATOGA/MOORPARK AVENUE
4308 Moorpark Ave. • San Jose, CA 95129 • (408) 973-9520

© 1975 BASKIN-ROBBINS ICE CREAM COMPANY

#227

TARLOW'S FURS

305 Town and Country Village
San Jose, CA 95129
985-2255

BEST PRODUCTS

550 W. Hamilton Ave.
Campbell, CA 95008
374-6630

MIDAS MUFFLERS BRAKES

"PLEASE RECOMMEND US TO YOUR FRIENDS"

KEITH RODRIGUEZ MANAGER

☐ 2200 Stevens Creek Blvd	998-4080
☐ 1420 Monterey Road	998-4040
☐ Camden Avenue at Highway 17	377-8272
☐ 93 South Capital Avenue	297-2571
☐ 5287 Prospect Rd.	973-8845

MASAKO'S
HAIR SALON
996-3600

5289-M PROSPECT RD.
SAN JOSE, CA 95129

Woodbrae Kennels
16270 Burton Rd.
Los Gatos, CA 95030
356-2889

CARPET • WOVEN WOODS
WALLPAPER & UPHOLSTERY
REMAKE & INSTALLATIONS

SWAFFORD CUSTOM DRAPERY
SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

Don Swafford
BUS: 973-0444
RES: 295-2789

Buy & Sell Old Comics

DEAN PARKER

Red Planet Comics

710 El Paseo De Saratoga · San Jose, CA 95130 · 408/378-6844

Sierra Sports

- Back-Packs
- Shoes
- Sports Wear
- Camping Equipment
- Vuarnet Sunglasses

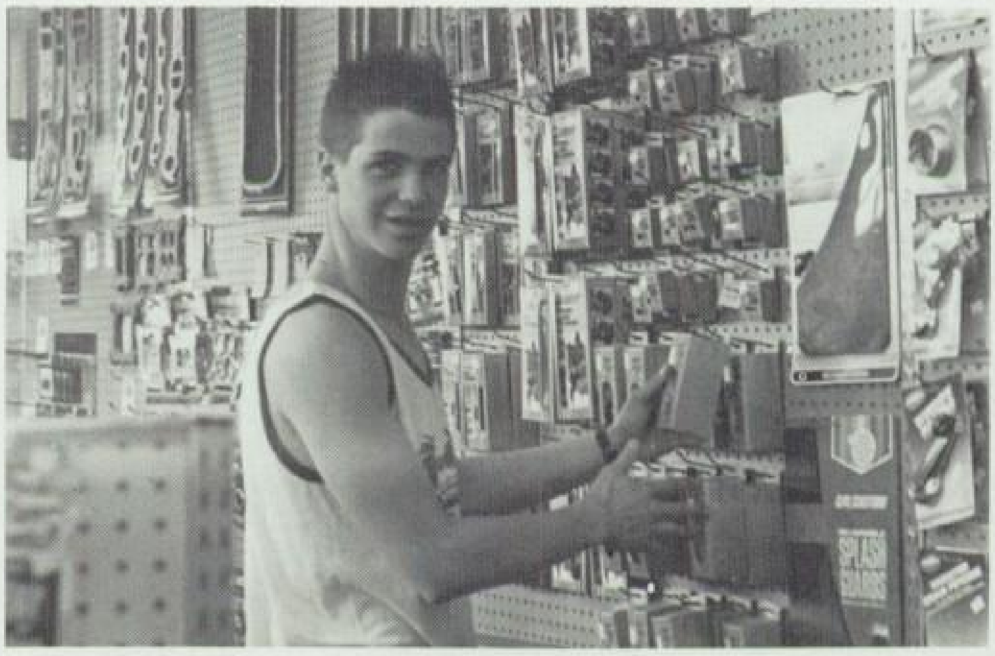
200-A EL PASEO SHOPPING CENTER
SAN JOSE, CA 95130

(408) 370-3442

Prospect Auto Supply

Quality Domestic & Foreign Parts

5353 Prospect Rd.
San Jose, CA 95129
252-1240



---

(408) 378-CARD

318 El Paseo
San Jose, CA 95130

TINA's Hallmark
FOR COOL COMFORT IN SHOPPING

Germain Photography, Inc.

Dances & Proms

Sports Packages

Graduation Announcements

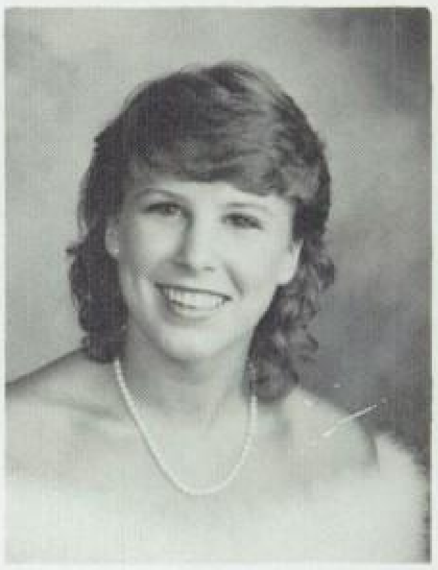
Senior Portraits



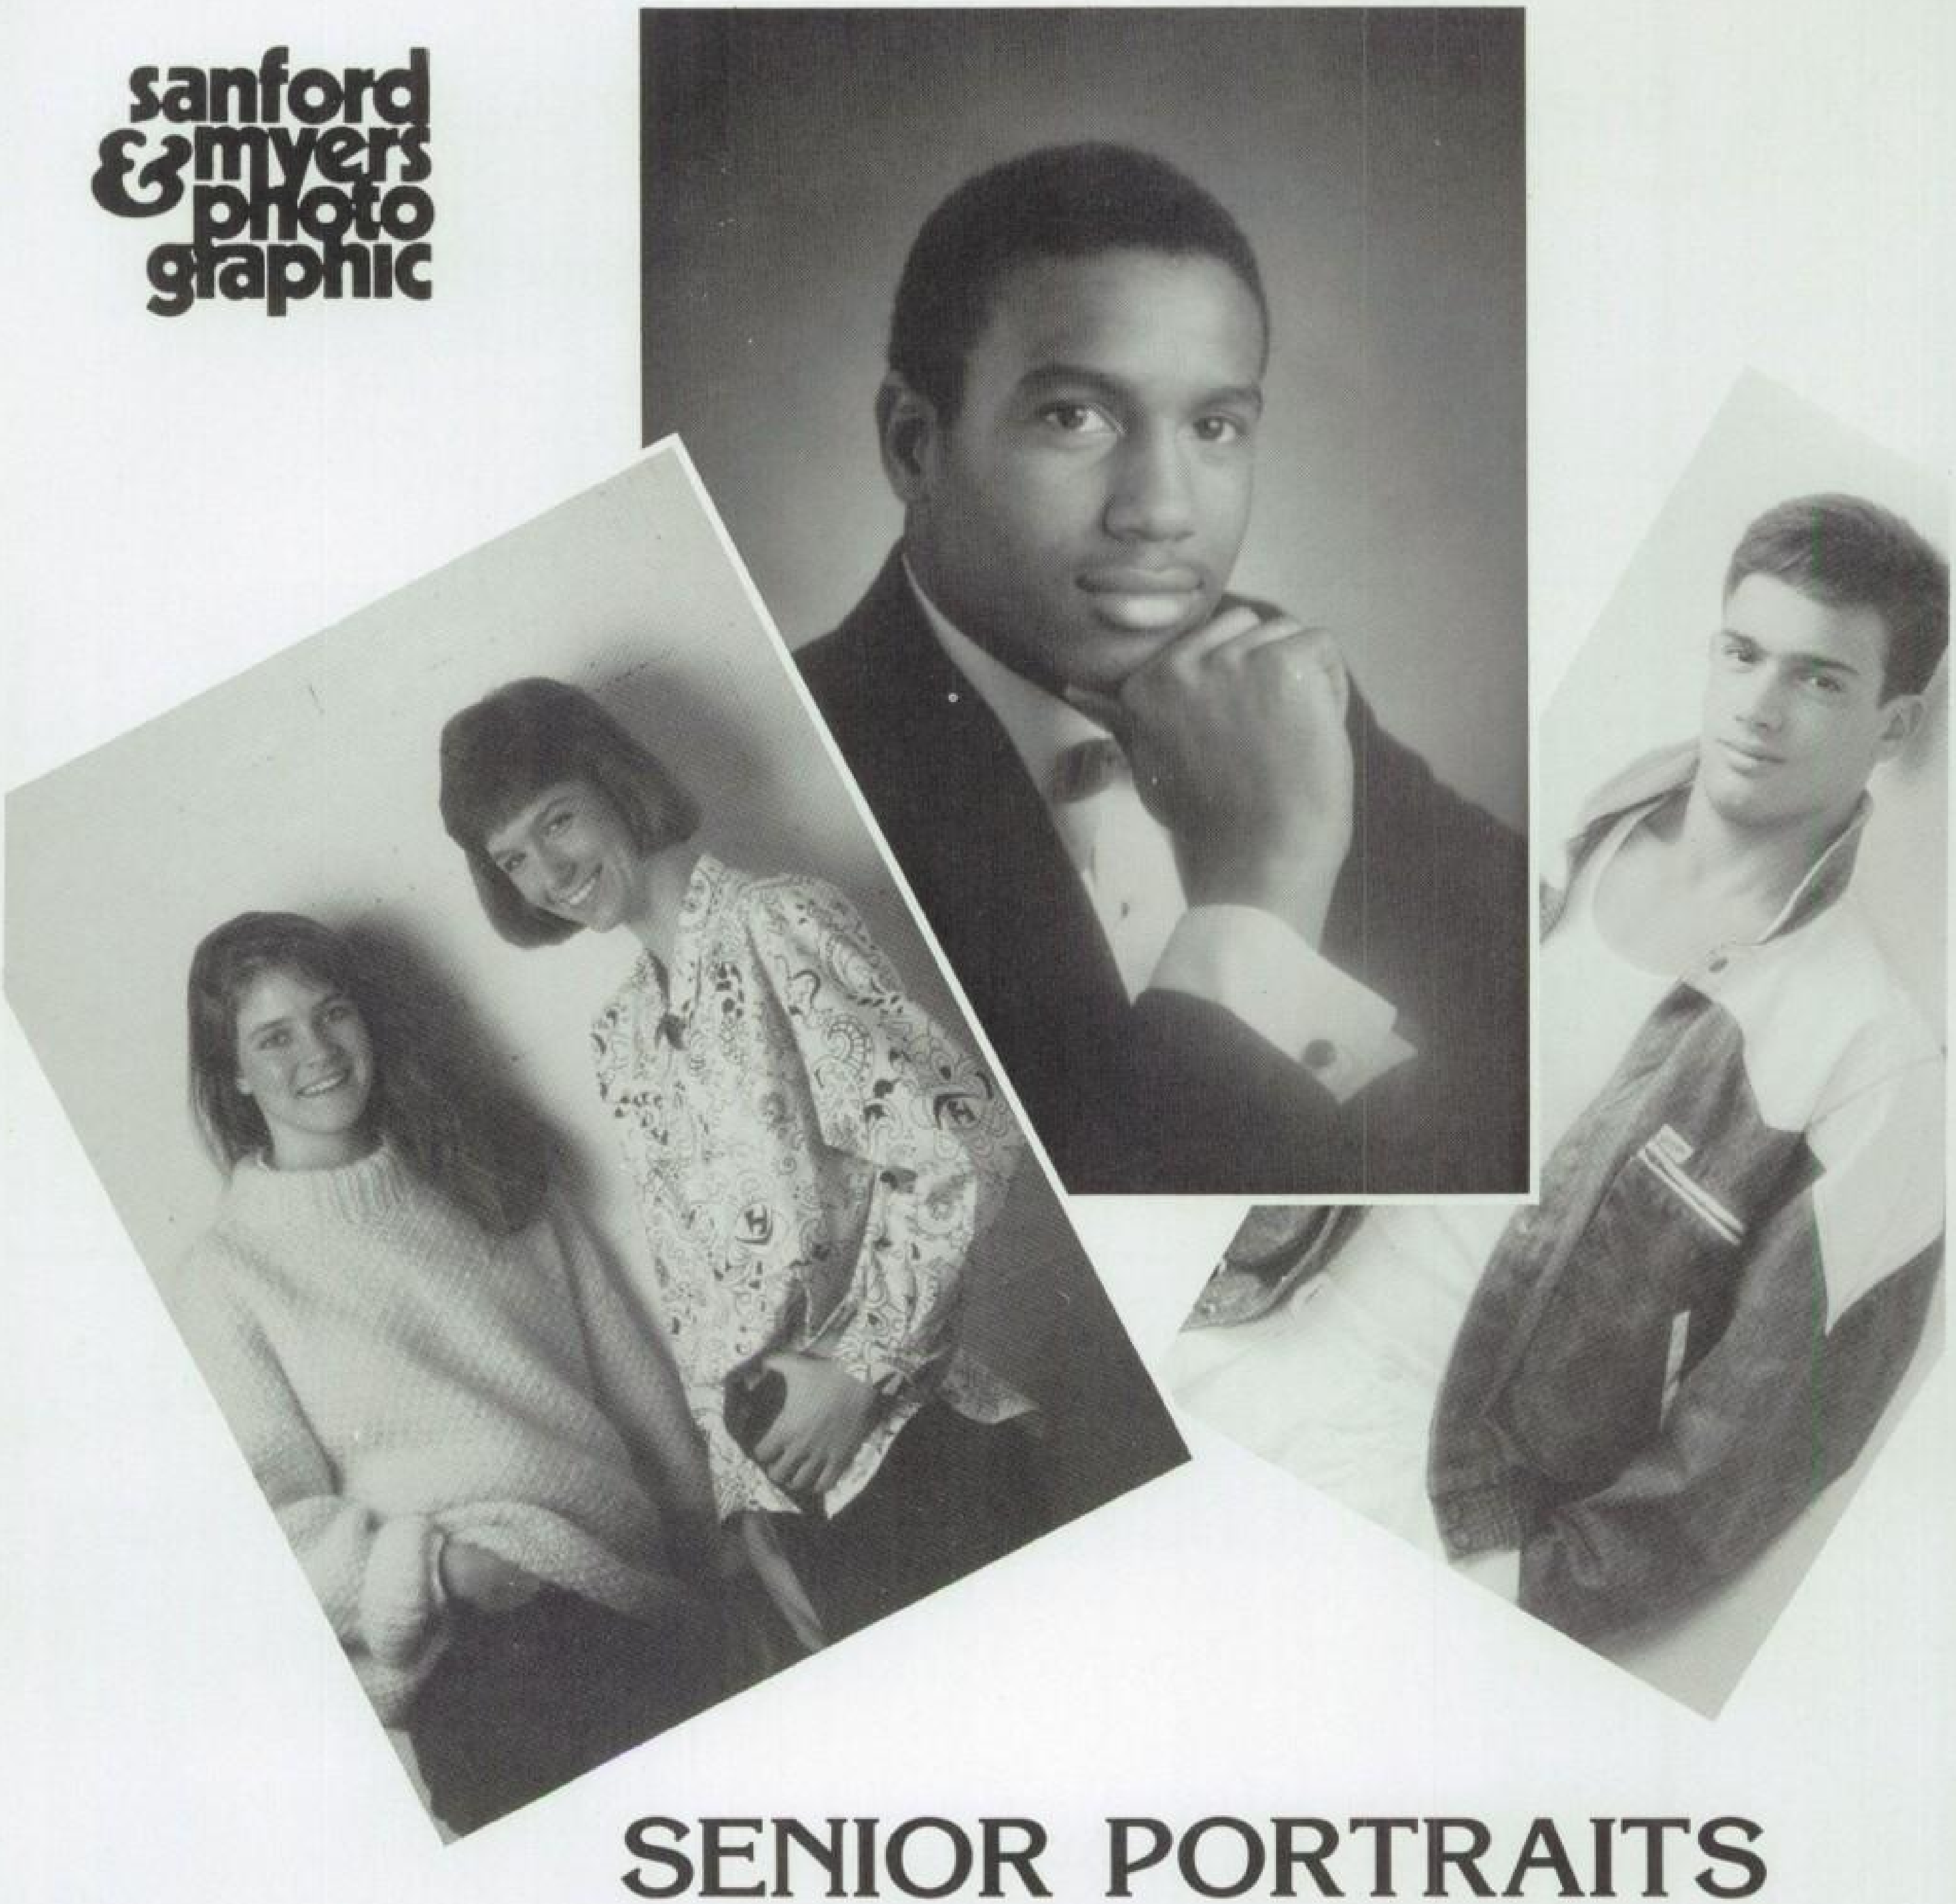
Have your senior portraits taken by Germain Photography and receive a complimentary outdoor sitting in our beautifull garden studio.

Please call for an appointment

1141 Saratoga Ave.
San Jose, CA

255-2157

sanford & myers photo graphic



SENIOR PORTRAITS and MORE.

Whether traditional or contemporary let us help you to create your portrait. The portrait that says something about you.

379 E. Campbell Ave. Campbell, CA (408) 378-4650

Letter from the Editors

Many thanks to:

Yearbook Advisor—Christine Tipton
Photo Advisor—Joe Browning
Junior Editors— Rori McGill
Audrey Kawaye
Copy Editors— Alan Clark
Sezaneh Taherian
Matt Aquino
Linda Ha
Yearbook Staff
Photo Commission
Josten Representative—J.R. Meyers
Stanford & Meyers Photography—Chris Johnson

August 1985: While planning the 1985-86 yearbook, we realized the immensity of the project we had unknowingly taken on. We had no idea as to the extent of the responsibility and dedication it would take to capture the memories of 1985-86 on paper. Our lack of experience led to a trial and error method, especially with the first deadline. But, little by little, we gained the experience needed to succeed by both our failures and successes.

June 1986: Just as you feel you've got everything under control, it's all over. Thinking back to all our hard work, we wonder if we have truly caught the essence of Prospect and accurately depicted the memories made there. By trying to create a fresh, new approach in this yearbook, we took the risk of being different. All the way from choosing an untraditional cover to adding a section never before included, we hoped to please the majority. Twenty-five years from now we will still look with pride at this yearbook, "our baby".

To our parents, a special thanks for being supportive and understanding throughout this project. We love you lots!

The Editors

Shana Kenyon

JOSTENS